The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5411-While speaking, Qiyana summoned Qairo, who was unconscious, from the Space Treasure.

The lady glanced at Qairo and said, "I told your father I couldn't save him the last time he came. He ended up in this state because he tried to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank. My ability is limited. I can't save him."

Hurriedly, Qiyana said, "He's just injured. You only need to heal his injuries. As for the rest, we will think of a way."

The lady was Jada Medicuse, the leader of the Medicuse Race.

Her original form was an Empyrean Spiritual Root.

She had a strong cultivation rank. She had reached the Holy Celestial Rank.

Jada stood up and walked toward Qairo. She reached out to him with a pale hand. A ray of white light emerged from her palm. The ray of light shone on him.

Instantly, she knew how severe his injuries were.

"The Ulus is with you, right? Lend it to me." Jada looked at Qiyana.

Meanwhile, Qiyana looked at James.

James immediately summoned the Ulus.

The Ulus flew toward Jada.

Jada took the Ulus and began activating a mysterious power. Then, she used the power of the Ulus to heal Qairo.

This process lasted for three months.

Three months later, Qairo awakened.

He returned to his state before the battle in the Glaciem Holy Land.

"I've cured him. I can't help with the rest. You should leave." After healing Qairo, Jada made them leave.

"I heard that an Empyrean Spiritual Root of the Medicuse Race has been stolen," said James, as he was interested in the Medicuse Race's affairs.

Jada glanced at James. Indifferently, she questioned, "What does that have to do with you?"

Qiyana tugged James and hinted at him to stop talking.

Then, she stood up and said, 'Thank you, Saintess.'

James was just curious. Since Jada did not want to talk about it, he did not ask further. Standing up, he said, "Goodbye."

"Are you Forty-nine, the creator of the Tressencia Completare Art?" Jada could not help but ask when James was about to leave.

Humbly, James said, 'Thanks to Heavenly Secrets Pavilion's high regard, the Tressencia Completare Art is in the Supernatural Signature Skill Ranking.'

On the other hand, Jada said, "Although Heavenly Secrets Pavilion isn't a race, it's a potent force. The Supernatural Signature Skill Ranking announced by Heavenly Secrets Pavilion has high credibility. I'm curious as to what kind of signature skill can be ranked first in the Supernatural Signature Skill Ranking. Besides, your cultivation rank isn't high. So, how did you create such a signature skill?"

Even though the Medicuse Race lived in seclusion, they paid attention to the affairs of the outside world.

The Supernatural Signature Skill Ranking announced by Heavenly Secrets Pavilion was a huge deal. It was only natural that Jada had heard about it.

"You're too kind," James said humbly.

He had nothing to say about the Tressencia Completare Art.

Besides, he believed that the Tressencia Completare Art was not powerful. As his cultivation rank was low, he could not fully utilize its power. Nonetheless, once he reached the Holy Celestial Rank, he would be able to show how powerful the Tressencia Completare Art was.

Jada fell into deep ponder, frowning. No one knew what she was thinking about.

After a while, she asked, “Are you really from Theognostos?”

The affairs of the Glaciem Holy Land and the existence of Theognostos had been spread throughout the Dark World.

Although James was not in the same appearance as when he claimed he was from Theognostos, the identity of Forty-nine had been announced by Heavenly Secrets Pavilion.

When Heavenly Secrets Pavilion announced the Supernatural Signature Skill Ranking, they announced that James was a disciple of Theognostos. They also announced that it was Forty-nine who resisted Yui’s attacks during the battle in the Glaciem Holy Land.

Now, all these matters were no secret in the Dark World.

The only thing Heavenly Secrets Pavilion did not announce was that James came from a small plane named Endlos. They also did not announce the relationship between him and Thea of the Mevryee Race.

James did not mind if these identities were to be exposed.

After all, he was no longer the weakling who could be killed by anyone when he first entered the Dark World.

His physical body was now invincible. In all of the Dark World, there were only a few people who could harm him.

□

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5412-James was not surprised that the Medicuse Race knew about this information.

He could guess that Heavenly Secrets Pavilion had announced this information.

He also knew the Yeftero Race was aware.

Nonetheless, he did not fear.

He was already devising a plan to kill Yui. So, why would he be worried about the Yeftero Race finding out about these matters?

“Of course, I’m from Theognostos,” James answered with a smile.

The Theognostos he had made up was coming into use. At least, he was able to stun these powerhouses, who were unaware of the true situation.

When Jada heard that, she was moved.

“What’s wrong? Is there something else?” Qiyana noticed something was off.

Jada sighed and said, ‘There is something. Please take a seat. It’s a long story.’

James took a seat first.

Then, Qiyana also sat down.

Jada said, “I have a younger sister. Many years ago, she was taken by the Yeftero Race, the leader of the Ancient Four “Your sister?” Qiyana was taken aback.

Jada nodded. “Yeah. My original form is an Empyrean Spiritual Root. So is my sister. It’s just that my sister has not transformed into her human appearance entirely. She only has a bit of consciousness. To raise potent powerhouses, the Yeftero Race took away my sister and absorbed her energy for cultivation.”

“I see.” James understood the situation. Then, he said with a smile, “I’m preparing to attack the Yeftero Race and kill Yui. Since you have grudges against the Yeftero Race, why don’t we form an alliance? We’ll kill Yui first. As for your sister, we’ll think of a way to rescue her.”

Jada hesitated.

Ever since her sister was taken away, she had always wanted to rescue her.

Unfortunately, the Yeftero Race was too powerful.

The gap between the strength of the Medicuse Race and the Yeftero Race was too big.

Besides, Jada was the leader of the Medicuse Race. She could not implicate the entire race to save her sister.

“Are you sure your plan will be successful?”

Looking at James, Jada said, “If the plan fails, the Yeftero Race will take revenge on us. I’m fine with it, but the living beings of the Medicuse Race will be implicated.”

James said, ‘We can’t face the Yeftero Race head-on. I plan to make a move in secret and kill Yui in the dark. Even if this plan fails, the Medicuse Race won’t be implicated.’

With a frown, Jada said, ‘The Yeftero Race is too strong. Yui is a prodigy and the saint of the Yeftero Race. He’s the future leader of the Yeftero Race. If you aren’t absolutely sure that the plan will succeed, I won’t work with you. I won’t risk the lives of my race’s living beings.’

James smiled and said, “I’m sure I can kill Yui. The only thing left to think about is how I should kill him.”

With James’ words, Jada was assured.

“Although I’m not considered a true powerhouse, I have entered the Holy Celestial Rank. Besides, I’m adept in the Medical Path. I can help you guys.

Since you are certain the plan will succeed, let’s work together and kill Yui.

Then, we’ll think of a way to save my sister.”

Jada was determined.

‘To not implicate my race, I will transfer the position as the leader of the race to another living being immediately. Then, I will go with you guys.’

“Alright.” James nodded.

Jada did not stay any longer. She went to deal with her race’s affairs quickly.

Qiyana said, smiling, “With the addition of the saintess, we will have a higher chance of killing Yui.”

James smiled faintly and said, “With Yered taking action, Yui will definitely die.

It’s just that the Yeftero Race is too powerful. It’ll be better if we have more help.

Killing Yui is just the beginning.”

Qiyana’s expression became cold as she said, “The Ancient Four allied and killed my race. It’s a blood feud. Lives must be taken. As long as I’m alive, I will aim to kill the Ancient Four.”

Upon hearing that, James frowned.

He could feel the hatred in Qiyana’s body.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5413-Meanwhile, James’ wife was from the Mevryee Race. James was worried that Thea and Qiyana would have a conflict one day.

Nonetheless, he could not care less.

Now, his focus was on killing Yui and stopping the marriage between the Yeftero and Mevryee Races.

They waited in this place for some time.

After Jada was done with her race’s affairs, she set off along with James and the others.

James’ next destination was Heavenly Secrets Pavilion. He needed to obtain information about Yui from Heavenly Secrets Pavilion.

He had Heavenly Secrets Pavilion’s token. With the token, the living beings in charge of the regions of Heavenly Secrets Pavilion would welcome him. If there were news from the headquarters, he would know about it immediately.

James went to a place closest to the Medicuse Race. He waited for Heavenly Secrets Pavilion in this place.

While waiting for news, James contacted Yuvin.

Yuvin told James about the news.

Soon, James also received the news from Heavenly Secrets Pavilion.

James learned about the detailed situation of Yui.

However, these pieces of information were useless.

After discussing with Yuvin, James decided to use Thea as bait to lure Yui out.

He made this decision because, according to the information sent by Heavenly Secrets Pavilion, Thea's Tenebrous Body was of great help to Yui. It was essential for him to enter the late stage of the Consummation Holy Celestial Rank.

Without Thea, it would take a long time for Yui to enter the late stage of the Consummation Holy Celestial Rank.

With Thea, he only needed a short time.

"Everything has been decided. The Yeftero Race will marry Thea in ten thousand years. You don't have much time. Thea and I will return to the Mevryee Race in three thousand years.*

After receiving the news from Yuvin, James came up with a plan.

In a hidden place in the Dark World, James took out a map and said, "In three thousand years, Yuvin and Thea will leave the Yeftero Race. We will stop them here and take Thea with us. We'll bring her here and set up multiple traps.

When Yui appears, we'll kill him."

Upon hearing that, Qiyana frowned and said, "Will it be too risky? If Yui brings the powerhouses of the Yeftero Race here, doesn't that mean the plan is foiled?"

James responded, "Yui is conceited. If we tell him to come alone, he won't bring the powerhouses of the Yeftero Race. Besides, even if he brings a few powerhouses in the Holy Celestial Rank, we can just kill them."

James was well-prepared this time.

Qairo could take on three powerhouses in the Holy Celestial Rank alone.

Aside from him, James had Qiyana, who was in the Quasi Holy Celestial Rank, and Jada.

More importantly, he had Yered.

In addition, James would have several traps set up. Even if Yui brought a few powerhouses in the Holy Celestial Rank, they would die.

Jada said, "I guess this is the only way now."

Qiyana said, "We'll give it a try."

Instantly, James contacted Yered. After confirming the time and location for taking action, James said, "Let's go and stop Yuvin and Thea. I have discussed this with Yuvin. We'll only be putting up an act for the living beings of the outside world. We'll injure Yuvin and make him report this matter to the Yeftero Race."

After having a detailed discussion, James and the others set off to a place that one must pass through to go to the Yeftero and Mevryee Races immediately.

They waited patiently at that place.

One decade later, a flying battleship of the Mevryee Race appeared.

When Qiyana saw the flying battleship of the Mevryee Race, her expression darkened as murderous intent could be seen on her face.

Timely, James said, "Please don't cause trouble at this time. The Yeftero Race was the main culprit when the Glaciem Race was wiped out. Besides, what happened last time has nothing to do with the current leader of the Mevryee Race, who is Thea's father. The people who participated in the annihilation of the Glaciem Race were already killed by Thea's father."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5414-Qiyana relaxed her clenched fists, and the Murderous Energy in her body dissipated.

She knew her priorities.

Upon seeing that, James let out a sigh of relief.

They stood in the same spot. Soon, the flying battleship of the Mevryee Race appeared before them. Hurriedly, they flew toward the flying battleship.

'You're here.' Yuvin glanced at James and asked, "Are you confident this time?"

James nodded and said, "Yeah. It's just that I don't know how many powerhouses Yui of the Yeftero Race will bring. If he doesn't bring many powerhouses, we will kill them all. If he brings an army, we'll cancel the plan."

Yuvín said, "Let's do it. Who will attack? Even though we're in the Dark World with boundless darkness surrounding us, we still need to act our part."

James glanced at Qiyana and said, "You'll attack with Qairo and Maddox."

Qiyana nodded.

Then, James and the others went down the flying battleship and erased all traces.

The flying battleship of the Mevryee continued to fly. While flying, it was intercepted. An intense battle erupted in the dark.

Since Qiyana, Qairo, and Maddox attacked together, Yuvín was injured immediately. He was covered in wounds and was controlled.

After he was controlled, Qiyana ordered Yuvín to ask Yui to rescue Thea.

Otherwise, Thea would die without a burial place.

Then, they let Yuvín go.

As for James and the rest, they rushed to the stated place.

Soon, they arrived at that place.

It was an ancient ruin. Long ago, Primevals lived in this ruin. However, due to several reasons, the Primevals of this area migrated, leaving it abandoned.

In the dark void, Thea pulled James' hand tightly. She was nervous. If they failed to kill Yui this time, there would be heavy consequences. Many forces would be involved.

"Don't worry."

James could sense Thea's nervousness. He said, "We will definitely succeed this time."

He looked at the living beings around him and said, "Let's head in. Yered will be here soon. When he arrives, he will set up the formation. It will make things a lot easier."

They entered the area together.

They waited for Yered at the top of a mountain in the ruin.

No one spoke. The atmosphere was unusual.

After some time, the temperature in the area suddenly rose.

"He's here."

Upon sensing the change in temperature, James knew Yered had arrived.

After James said that, a man wearing a fiery red robe appeared.

Yered looked young and handsome. His appearance was different from when he was with the Flamma Race. His aura was extraordinary. With a smile, he said, "It's quite lively."

Currently, he appeared normal. He did not look like he had been tortured by the Flammae poison.

"How's the Flammae poison in your body?" James asked.

Yered answered, "I cultivated the primitive inscriptions of the Glaciem Race.

Although I haven't comprehended them to the extreme, I have cultivated some Cold Energy. I can suppress the Flammae poison temporarily. I can hold on until the end of this battle."

With that, James was assured.

After Jada sensed Yered's aura, she was stunned.

"Start setting up the formation," said James.

To kill Yui, he had been preparing for a long time.

He had already prepared a Superformation.

It was just that his cultivation rank was low. He could not set up a powerful formation. If Yered set up the formation, the effect would be different.
