The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5444-A long time ago, James had taught Stephen cultivation for an epoch.

Stephen was a genius with great potential, and he easily reached the Martial Celestial Rank and became the strongest cultivator within the Endlos Plane.

Thus, he wanted to claim the position of the Endlos Lord.

Even though he was declaring war against the Heavenly Court's powerhouses and their massive army, he showed no fear. With a calm expression, he said, "Don't cry about me not giving you guys a chance to live. Come at me together."

Stephen spoke very arrogantly. However, he truly was powerful.

Jacopo, Winnie, Xainte, and the other powerhouses had grim expressions. The Human Race was about to face a terrible crisis. They would lose control over the Endlos Plane if they were to be defeated.

"You've crossed the line, Stephen." Suddenly, a voice came from the distance.

Stephen said disdainfully, "Who's there? It's the law of nature. The strong are respected, and the weak are trampled. As the strongest of the Endlos Plane, it's only natural I become the Endlos Lord..."

"M-Master?!!"

Stephen's expression immediately changed after recognizing the man approaching him. In the past, he used to be a very ordinary living being. It was because of James that he embarked on the path of cultivation and gained such great achievements.

"Dad, Mom!" Jacopo and his siblings were ecstatic to see the person heading in their direction.

Zavis and the other powerhouses were also relieved after seeing James.

Meanwhile, Stephen was dumbfounded by the situation.

“What the hell? After that ordeal, I’m just finding out they are family?” Stephen chuckled and said, “It seems there was a misunderstanding.”

He knelt on one knee and said, “It’s been a while, Master.”

James nodded lightly and responded, “You can get up.”

A satisfied smile formed on James’ face after he sensed that Stephen had entered the Martial Celestial Rank.

Stephen scanned James with his Zen and was shocked to learn that James was only at the Petit Celestial Rank’s late stage. His first impression of James was that he was really powerful.

When James guided him, he was very mysterious and unpredictable. Back then, Stephen could not even sense James’ cultivation rank. All he knew was that James was powerful and had a very terrifying Supernatural Power. Even now, he still felt in awe of James’ Supernatural Power.”

“James!” A tanned man dressed in battle armor walked over and shouted excitedly, “You’re finally back!”

James lightly punched Henry’s chest and said smilingly, “I haven’t seen you in forever. How are you, Henry?”

Henry answered with a smile, “I’m fine. The Heavenly Court has been pretty peaceful, and I don’t have much to do, except improve my cultivation rank.”

“What brings you back here, James?” asked Zavis.

James replied, “I came back to gather some information.”

The reason they returned to the Endlos Plane was to ask the powerhouses who had survived Emperor Raiah’s era about the oil lamp, hoping they could gather more information.

James asked straightforwardly, “Have you ever seen a mysterious oil lamp before?”

Startled, Zavis asked, “An oil lamp? Are you talking about the guiding lamp Emperor Raiah left behind?”

“I’m not sure. Tell me more about the guiding lamp.” James was not certain whether they were talking about the same thing.

Zavis explained, “During the first invasion of the Emyr Army, Emperor Raiah severely injured their Great Commander. Afterward, he chased after the Great Commander to the deepest part of the Dark World. He left behind an oil lamp before leaving. It’s said the lamp can illuminate the Dark World.”

After briefly pausing for a while, Zavis continued, saying, “However, it’s only useful for the weak. As long as you’re strong enough, you won’t need the oil lamp to illuminate the Dark World. Powerhouses can easily travel through the Dark World without it. Thus, nobody really paid much attention to the oil lamp.”

Thea asked, “Do you know where the oil lamp is from?”
