The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5471-However, upon hearing that, Quattro's fur stood on end.

It had bred here for a long time. It knew that there was a terrifying powerhouse nearby.

"Hey, I'm joking." Seriously, Quattro said, "From today onward, I will follow you and travel the world with you."

Quattro did not want to die the moment it was resurrected.

It wanted to leave this area and show its skills to the outside world. It wanted to do something great.

"You can take the primitive inscriptions. I'll follow you."

Upon hearing that, James felt satisfied. He kept the primitive inscriptions of this place and looked at Quattro. He said, "Black piggy, come with me."

Quattro felt upset. It corrected James, "I'm not a black piggy. I'm the superior Quattro. How could you refer to me as such a lowly living being?"

"Quattro, come with me." James waved at Quattro.

Then, James left the underground world.

Soon, he appeared outside.

"Hahaha. I have finally been resurrected."

Quattro laughed the moment it left the underground world. It laughed obscenely.

"Mr. Sinclair."

James looked at the place where Sinclair previously was. He said, "Thank you for your hospitality. One day, when I learn the primitive inscriptions outside the Dark World, I will bring you out of here."

"I have no hope of leaving."

A voice rang in the area.

“Ever since I failed, I have never thought of leaving. You should go. I’m going to sleep. I hope that when I awaken, I can hear about your notable and glorious achievements in the Dark World.”

Sinclair’s voice grew weaker before disappearing entirely.

James exchanged glances with Zeno.

James said, “There are powerhouses outside the mountain range. If we leave this way, we won’t make it out alive. We need a plan.”

‘What’s there to be afraid of?’

Indifferently, Quattro said, “They are nothing. I can kill them easily.”

James and Zeno glanced at Quattro.

With a frown, Zeno said, ‘The black piggy doesn’t seem reliable.’

James nodded and said, “I agree, it doesn’t seem reliable. Let’s not put our hopes on it. Once we leave the mountain range, we will be sieged...”

As they spoke, Quattro disappeared.

In the meantime, there was a terrifying fluctuation of power outside the mountain range. Then, the ground and mountains began to shake. The ground cracked.

James and Zeno exchanged glances. They were horrified.

They walked out of the mountain range.

Outside the mountain range, the ground was cracked. Many living beings were lying on the ground, screaming in pain.

On the other hand, Quattro sat on a man’s body with his legs crossed.

Pretentiously, it said, “They are nothing. I can kill them easily.”

James gave Quattro a thumbs up and praised, ‘You’re amazing.’

He knew how powerful those living beings were. There were at least ten powerhouses in the Holy Celestial Rank. Some of them were in the middle stage of the Holy Celestial Rank. Even so, they were wiped out instantly by Quattro.

Quattro was too powerful.

Zeno's mouth twitched.

He found Quattro to be too terrifying.

"Hey..."

In an instant, Quattro appeared before James and asked, "What's your relationship with the person inside the mountain?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5472-Quattro feared Sinclair.

As soon as it gained consciousness, it was surrounded by inscriptions. It could not leave. As its Divine Sense grew stronger, it could sense a terrifying being near its birthplace.

Quattro feared that terrifying being the moment it was resurrected.

In the past, it comprehended the inscriptions around it when it was resurrected.

It did not pay attention to the affairs in the outside world. It did not know the relationship between James and Sinclair.

"Sinclair?" Dully, James said, "He's a peerless powerhouse who's trapped here for some reason."

"He can't leave?" Quattro's eyes were gleaming. It looked comical.

"He can."

James glanced at Quattro and said, "It's just that he doesn't want to leave because of some matters. His cultivation strength is extremely powerful. Nothing on heaven and earth can trap him."

James was worried that Quattro, without the restraint of Sinclair, would cause trouble and lose control.

“I see,” responded Quattro.

James looked at Quattro and asked, “Is there anything else?”

“Nope.” Thinking for a while, Quattro said, “By the way, can you tell me what kind of world this is?”

Quattro had the memory of its previous life. It knew that its previous life was unsatisfactory.

After awakening in this life, it learned some things about heaven and earth through the heaven and earth inscriptions. However, the things it learned were vague. It only knew some things about the cultivation system. It also knew that it was in a cultivation world.

It knew that its current ability was powerful. It was almost at the top of this world’s pyramid.

Nonetheless, it did not know about the details.

“We’re in a prison,” said James casually.

“A prison?”

Quattro was instantly dumbfounded.

“That’s right.” James nodded and said, “Although this world is vast, it’s a prison.

The living beings of this world can’t leave. I’m from the outside world. I’m here to find some things. You were born in this world. Theoretically, you’re also trapped in this Prison World. Even if you reached the Holy Celestial Rank, you could only stay in this Prison World. You can’t go to the outside world.”

James’ words saddened Quattro.

“I don’t believe you,” said Quattro.

James pointed toward the distance and said, ‘The formation is right there. Why don’t you try and leave?’

Quattro did not believe James.

Its body flashed and disappeared.

In the next second, it appeared before the formation of this Prison World.

Once it appeared, it sensed the existence of the formation. It used all its might to attack the formation.

Even though it was strong, the formation did not budge. Its power struck the formation, but only ripples formed. The superformation did not even budge.

It continued to attack the formation, but it was useless.

In dismay, it went to James. Looking at the latter, it asked, "Can you leave?"

"Of course."

Seriously, James said, "I have a treasure that allows me to leave."

"Bring me with you," begged Quattro.

James shook his head and said, "This formation was set up by countless powerhouses. The number of people who leave must be equivalent to the number of people who came in. No one can bring the living beings of this place out of here. Even the treasure I have can't do that."

Quattro sat on the ground.

"This is bad. I planned to show off my skills and do great things. I didn't expect to be a prisoner the moment I was born."

Quattro felt dejected.

James looked at it and said, "You don't need to be sad. This Prison World is quite big. There are also many living beings. You can live a good life in here."

"What do you know?"

Quattro said, "This isn't what I want. I don't want to stay in this small world. I want to travel the vast outside world."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5473-"One day, you may be able to leave," said James.

“Really?” Quattro seemed delighted.

“Yeah.”

“When?”

“After I comprehend the primitive inscriptions of all races from the Dark World, I can open the formation. Then, you can leave.”

When Quattro, who just stood up, heard that, it sat back on the ground as if it had no strength.

“Alright. Let’s get going.”

James marched forward.

He already had the primitive inscriptions, including the primitive inscriptions of the Aboda Race. He achieved a lot during this trip to Dunhamvale World.

Instantly, Quattro stood up and followed behind James.

James returned to where he used to stay.

‘Thea, I’m back,’ shouted James before entering the residence.

However, after entering the courtyard, he did not see Thea. He could not sense Thea’s aura in this spiritual mountain.

‘What’s going on? Where is she?’ James frowned.

He tried to contact Thea.

Nonetheless, the inscription he gave Thea previously did not react. Nothing happened. It was only then that he sensed something off.

He waved his hand, and several inscriptions emerged. The things that happened here were displayed.

A scene appeared.

The scene was Thea cultivating after James left.

Then, an elder showed up and sealed Thea. He took Thea away.

“Blademaster of Mount Grinch?”

James’ expression became heavy. He clenched his fists. He had murderous intent. He glanced at Zeno and instructed, “I want to know everything about Grinch.”

“I’m not your subordinate and runner...”

Zeno felt unhappy. He mumbled a few words. When he looked at James’ expression, he said nothing else. Instead, he went to search for Grinch’s information.

He returned as quickly as he left.

“How was it?” James asked with a heavy expression.

Zeno said, “Grinch is an Orthodox in Prison World. He is the lord of Mount Grinch. His cultivation rank is in the middle stage of the Holy Celestial Rank. His Sword Path is strange. Although he isn’t the strongest in Prison World, he isn’t someone a living being would dare to provoke.”

“Middle stage of the Holy Celestial Rank?”

James frowned. Then, he looked at Quattro and said, “Black piggy, help me.”

“No.”

Quattro sat on a chair and crossed his legs. It ate a purple spiritual fruit leisurely as if the situation was none of its business. Dully, it said, “Your wife was taken, not mine. I’m not helping unless you give her to me for one night after I rescue her.”

Rage exploded from James’ body.

“Are you angry?” Indifferently, Quattro said, “There’s no use getting angry. You can’t beat me.”

James took a deep breath. Forcefully, he suppressed his rage and said, “There are many beautiful ladies in this world. If you help me kill Grinch and rescue Thea, I will introduce some beautiful ladies to you.”

“I want the inscriptions of Mr. Sinclair.” Quattro took the opportunity to negotiate.

“Here.”

James waved his hand, and the inscriptions Sinclair had given him emerged.

They appeared before Quattro.

Of course, the inscriptions were replicates that James created.

James still kept the primitive inscriptions of the Aboda Race.

Happily, Quattro kept the inscriptions and said, “Grinch is nothing. I can kill him with a flick of my finger.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5474-Quattro’s actions disgusted those around it.

Nonetheless, it was strong, so James could not do anything to it. He could only agree and give Quattro the inscriptions of the Aboda Race.

“Let’s go to Mount Grinch,” said Quattro loudly.

After the Blademaster of Mount Grinch took Thea away, he took care of her well.

They stayed on Mount Grinch.

They were in a manor at the back of Mount Grinch. The Blademaster of Mount Grinch had sealed Thea’s cultivation. He had also set up a formation around the courtyard. Aside from that, he did not restrict her freedom.

Thea sat in the lounge of the courtyard. With a heavy expression, she looked at the despicable elder. She looked disgusted.

“Hey, you can’t escape. We’re on Mount Grinch. You’re on my turf. Even if you break the seal, you can’t leave. If I break the seal for you, you must stay here obediently and cultivate. With your potential, your cultivation rank will increase quickly. Then, you can give me power.”

Grinch began to negotiate with Thea.

Unfortunately, Thea did not listen to his words. She only snorted.

Smack!

Grinch raised his hand and slapped Thea.

His smile disappeared. With a heavy expression, he said,* You should know what's good for you. I let you become the madam of Mount Grinch because I think highly of you. To be frank, you're nothing. You're only a slave. You're only a tool to increase my power."

Thea glared at Grinch without saying anything.

"I'll give you another chance to think about it. If you don't agree, I'll plant a sigil in your body. I'll erase your soul and make you my puppet," threatened the Blademaster of Mount Grinch.

This was the last resort.

He did not want things to end up this way.

He wanted a living beautiful woman.

He wanted a thoughtful, soulful, and assertive beautiful woman. He also wanted a loyal woman.

He did not want a puppet and a walking zombie.

Now that the situation had turned out this way, Thea had no choice.

The only thing she could do now was to gain some time.

Nevertheless, she was worried.

The Blademaster of Mount Grinch was powerful. His cultivation rank was in the middle stage of the Holy Celestial Rank. Even if James came, he would not be Grinch's match. She was worried that James would die if he came to save her.

"Alright. I'll agree to your deal."

Feeling down, Thea said, "However, before my cultivation rank increases, you can't touch me. If my husband comes and saves me, you can't kill him."

'That's more like it.'

The Blademaster of Mount Grinch smiled again. He said, "Don't worry. If he comes to Mount Grinch, I won't kill him. I will even recruit him as my Inner Disciple. I will teach him supreme Sword Paths. You only need to give me power regularly. If you serve me loyally, I may let you visit him."

In the Blademaster of Mount Grinch's eyes, Thea existed to provide him power.

At his cultivation rank, he could get any woman.

Mount Grinch had countless female disciples. These disciples were all his women.

There were so many female disciples that he had lost count. He could not even remember their names.

The Blademaster of Mount Grinch broke Thea's seal. With a smile, he said, 'There's a time formation here. Stay here and cultivate. You should reach the Martial Celestial Rank as soon as possible. That way, you can help me.'

Thea's cultivation rank was still too low. The Blademaster of Mount Grinch did not bother to absorb her power. After saying that, Grinch turned around and left.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5475-mes.

She warned James not to come and save her. Otherwise, he would lose his life.

The Blademaster of Mount Grinch was too strong. Thea did not think James could take her away from Mount Grinch with his current cultivation rank.

James was on the way to Mount Grinch. After hearing from Thea, he let out a sigh of relief. He asked, "Darling, are you alright?"

"I'm fine. Don't worry. I will protect myself. You should do what you need to do. I won't betray you. In this life, I only belong to you. No men will touch me."

"Don't worry. I will save you. I will kill Grinch."

James' voice was filled with murderous intent.

Whoever touched a dragon's scale would die.

James' scale was Thea.

Even though James was not Grinch's match, he had the terrifying Quattro with him.

James suppressed the anger in him and urged, "Hurry up."

On the other hand, Quattro moved forward in a relaxed manner. Dully, it said, "Why are you in such a rush? Your wife has been in the Blademaster of Mount Grinch's hands for some time now. She's no longer pure. Even if we hurry, it's useless. You've already been cheated on."

"Black piggy, don't push it." James' expression was dark.

"What can you do to me?" Quattro glanced at James. With a scornful expression, it said, "You're only in the Great Celestial Rank. What can you do to me? Don't provoke me. If you make me mad, I won't help you."

'You're great.'

James gave Quattro a thumbs up and said, "Although I can't do anything to you now, I will defeat you one day."

"Do you believe I can defeat you right now?" Quattro said casually.

"Why don't you give it a try?" James glared at Quattro.

"Forget it."

After thinking for a while, Quattro did not make a move. Instead, it said, "Don't think that I can't harm you just because your physical body is strong. Once your physical body is damaged, I can injure you easily. Even though I'm only in the initial stage of the Holy Celestial Rank, my power is beyond your imagination."

"Alright. Stop talking." Zeno said, "Our priority right now is saving Thea.

However, I like the black piggy's temper."

"I'm Quattro," Quattro corrected. "If I hear you guys call me a black piggy again, I'm leaving."

"Stop talking. Speed up. After this matter is settled, you will receive benefits."

James was impatient. Nonetheless, he could not do anything to Quattro.

“Sigh. I want to smoke right now. I miss the scent of cigarettes,” said Quattro lazily.

When James heard that, his mouth twitched.

Quattro was born in Prison World.

Cigarettes were from Earth. They were Earth’s specialty.

Now, they were almost extinct. So, how did Quattro know about them?

“Huh?”

James looked at Quattro and asked, ‘You know about cigarettes?’

“Do you know about them too?” Quattro glanced at James.

“Are you from Earth?”

At once, Quattro became excited. It jumped up. Maintaining the same level with James, it pulled the latter’s hand.

Excitedly, it said, “We’re from the same place? I’ll help you this time.”

“Aren’t you the Quattro’s founder? How are you related to Earth?” Zeno could not help but ask.

“Bring me back to Earth.” Excitedly, Quattro said, “I want to go back and show off to the people who looked down on me back then. I will defeat all of them.

Especially the school belle. She pretends to be pure, but in actuality, she’s a whore. When she was in a relationship with a rich man, she looked down on my birth. She also provoked me in public and embarrassed me. When I return, I will pin her down.” The more Quattro talked, the more excited it became.
