

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5480

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5480-Even though the elder was being dragged by Quattro, he still smiled.

When Quattro put the elder down, it placed its hands on its waist and looked at the latter. It questioned, "Are you saying you know how to leave Prison World?"

The elder touched his beard and said, "Yeah."

"Tell me." Excitedly, Quattro asked, "How can I leave?"

Immediately, the elder said, "Give me three hundred primitive inscriptions, and I'll tell you. Any race's primitive inscriptions are fine."

"You're seeking death."

At once, Quattro was filled with rage. It jumped up and tugged on the elder's hair. Then, it clenched its fist and beat the elder up.

The elder wanted to fight back, but he could not.

Quattro knew how to control its power. It did not let any power seep out. The power directly attacked the elder's head. The elder's face became swollen, and blood dripped from his head.

"Do you still want the primitive inscriptions?" Quattro threw the elder onto the ground and questioned.

"No, I don't want them anymore." The elder was terrified as he said, "I'll tell you."

James and the others were also interested in this. Was it not a fact that the living beings of Prison World could not leave? How could there suddenly be a way to leave?

"Stop wasting my time. Hurry up and tell me." Quattro grew impatient.

The elder said, "Seraphiel came up with the way to leave. Seraphiel was sealed, but he always wanted to help his younger generation leave. He spent many years coming up with it. He gathered all living beings of the Fatescribe Sect and spent countless treasures to create a Boundarybreaker Rune that ignored all formations. However, once the Boundarybreaker Rune was created, the news spread, and many forces and races found out about it. Now, they're gathered in Eminence Academy to fight for the place of the strongest in the world. Whoever becomes the strongest will get the Boundarybreaker Rune that bypasses all formations. That way, they can leave Prison World."

After hearing the elder say that, James realized there was a reason for the fight to become the strongest in the world. It was for the Boundarybreaker Rune that could bypass all formations.

"Let's go to Eminence Academy."

After learning that there was a way to leave, Quattro became excited. It went to James and the others and said, "Let's put aside finding the inscriptions of the Metallum, Silva, and Tellus Races. Let's go and take a look at Eminence Academy. I want to fight for the strongest in the world. I want to leave Prison World."

Zeno glanced at Quattro and said, "I'm not looking down on you, but although you're strong, you aren't strong enough to become the strongest in Prison World."

Countless races were trapped in Prison World.

Even though the Five Great Commanders and the other powerhouses in the Quasi Bliss Rank had been sealed and imprisoned, there were still true powerhouses in the races.

These powerhouses had been cultivating in Prison World for a long time. They could definitely enter the Quasi Bliss Rank.

Besides, there were too many races imprisoned in Prison World. There were too many living beings. There had to be prodigies amongst these living beings.

These prodigies would grow up to be terrifying.

James also said, "Zeno is right. Although you're strong, you aren't strong enough to become the strongest in Prison World. Even with the powerhouses in the Quasi Bliss Rank imprisoned and sealed, you still aren't the strongest.

However, we can take a trip to Eminence Academy.”

James was excited.

If there was a Boundarybreaker Rune that could bypass all formations and help a living being leave, he wanted to take a look at it in person. He would make friends with that living being. That way, after they left, James could form an alliance with them and deal with the Yeftero Race, the head of the Ancient Four.

On the other hand, Quattro casually said, “We will only find out if I can be the strongest in the world after I fight.”

It was confident in its ability. In its opinion, as long as its opponents were not in the Quasi Bliss Rank, it had a chance.

“I’m invincible against all living beings below the Quasi Bliss Rank. I will be at a tie with a living being in the Quasi Bliss Rank,” said Quattro shamelessly.

“Let’s go to Eminence Academy then,” said James.

He wanted to go against the Yeftero Race mainly because of Thea. Now that Thea was by his side, he was no longer in a hurry to leave. Since he was not in a hurry, he decided to take a look at Eminence Academy. Besides, he was in Prison World. There were countless inscription sigils here.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5482

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5482-The back mountain of Eminence Academy erupted into a battle. These living beings were all true top-tier powerhouses. Although the five powerhouses had not reached the Quasi Bliss Rank, they were at the peak late stage of the Consummation Holy Celestial Rank. Moreover, they had spent a long time in this realm.

His control over the power was terrifying. All they could do was prevent any leakage of power, directing every iota of their strength against their enemy.

Although the battle did not appear intense, it was incredibly perilous. A momentary lapse in attention could lead to utter devastation.

Outside Eminence Academy's main hall, numerous powerhouses observed the battle, seizing the opportunity to gain insight. Any understanding acquired during such an event would be beneficial for a lifetime.

Several powerhouses were competing for the title of the world's number one.

Meanwhile, James and the others had already arrived outside Eminence Academy. Upon their arrival, they sensed the power fluctuations emanating from the back mountain.

Despite the power not overflowing or spreading, the intangible aura affected the entire space and even the surrounding environment.

"It's somewhat terrifying." Zeno furrowed his brow and said, "Despite the few powerhouses engaging in battle, they managed not to disrupt anything. Their control over power is too formidable."

"Yeah." James nodded lightly. While he could control his power without causing damage to the surroundings, managing the same during battle was beyond his capability.

Watching the fight, Quattro no longer displayed the arrogance it had before. It wore a disheartened expression and said, "I can't defeat any of these powerhouses."

"Stand there," a voice rang out right then. Immediately after, a disciple from Eminence Academy appeared and blocked their way.

"This is Eminence Academy, and unauthorized living beings are prohibited from approaching."

"Go away."

Before James could speak, Quattro waved its hand, and an invisible force materialized, sending the obstructing disciple flying.

"Don't act recklessly," James interjected. "This is Eminence Academy, currently gathering powerhouses from the Prison World. If you act here, it's akin to seeking death."

Quattro then retracted its carefree demeanor, solemnly saying, "I've grown accustomed to being bullied in my past life. I can't help but feel the urge to take action when facing similar situations in this life. I'll be more restrained in the future."

Quattro's attack on the disciple drew the attention of Eminence Academy powerhouses. However, they simply chose to ignore James and the others, focusing their attention on the ongoing battle on the back mountain.

James and the others entered the academy without encountering further obstacles, arriving outside the main hall where many living beings had gathered.

All present were powerhouses, with the weakest of their cultivation base being at the Holy Celestial Rank. Hailing from various Primevals and major forces, they were all competing for the title of the world's number one. However, they had been ousted after numerous rounds of Zeilor Battle.

James and his group's arrival did not attract much attention. James observed the distant battle on the back mountain. It was a one-against-five battle.

Five powerhouses at the peak late stage of the Consummation Holy Celestial Rank were challenging a Quasi Bliss Rank powerhouse.

Although the Quasi Bliss Rank was powerful, facing five powerhouses at the peak late stage of the Consummation Holy Celestial Rank proved somewhat challenging.

At this moment, Gustav was injured, but not severely enough to be fatal. He retained his fighting capability. The other five living beings also exhibited some signs of injuries.

The battle had been going on for a long time.

At the Quasi Bliss Rank, Gustav fought against the five powerhouses, overwhelming them and forcing their retreat, ultimately claiming the title of the world's number one.

"Anyone else?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5483-At the back mountaintop of Eminence Academy, Gustav appeared disheveled.

He looked at the five fallen powerhouses in front of him, who had lost their fighting capability, and could not help but burst into laughter.

“Fatescribe Sect, I’ve claimed the title of the world’s number one. Please hand over the Boundarybreaker Rune to me.” Gustav looked toward the outside of Eminence Academy’s main hall.

At this moment, an elderly man stepped forward, holding in his hands a delicate box adorned with numerous runes.

“This is the Boundarybreaker Rune that our Fatescribe Sect spent countless years and consumed numerous materials to refine. Almost all the materials capable of refining such runes in the Prison World have been exhausted by our sect. The entire Prison World can produce only one.”

The man wore a white robe, his hair and beard gray. A touch of helplessness and weariness lingered on his aged face. He was the current Sect Leader of the Fatescribe Sect, though he did not possess the strength to create such a rune. It was crafted by the sect’s founder, a Quasi Bliss Rank powerhouse who had been imprisoned and sealed.

However, the Fatescribe’s Founder was unwilling to remain trapped. He expended tremendous effort to create these runes. After numerous attempts, he successfully created the Boundarybreaker Rune capable of traversing all formations. However, news of its creation leaked, attracting numerous powerhouses and resulting in the battle for the title of the world’s number one.

“Give my regards to Mr. Seraphiel. Rest assured, I’ll find a way to save you once I make my appearance,” said Gustav.

At this moment, Quattro, standing beside James, spun its eyes. Suddenly, it made a move, mysteriously appearing in front of the Fatescribe Sect’s Sect Leader. Before the Sect Leader could react, the box in his hand was snatched away by Quattro.

“You dare, young one!”

‘You’re seeking death, youngster.’

In this instant, several powerhouses reacted swiftly and attacked. However, Quattro disappeared as it seized the box, leaving countless forces attacking only its afterimage.

Quattro appeared in a certain location of the Prison World. As it did, a mouthful of blood sprayed out. Not daring to be careless, it quickly restrained its aura, then left again, finding a hidden place to conceal itself.

This scene unfolded too quickly. By the time the other powerhouses reacted, Quattro had already escaped. They immediately launched their Zens to search for its whereabouts, but it had some tricks up its sleeve.

Concealing its aura, it made it impossible for even the gathered powerhouses in the Prison World to sense where it was.

Meanwhile, James, Thea, and Zeno were completely baffled. They never expected that Quattro would dare to take action against the Fatescribe Sect's Sect Leader and snatch the Boundarybreaker Rune.

The three of them exchanged glances, their expressions filled with astonishment.

At this moment, they found themselves surrounded. The encircling beings were true powerhouses. Any one of them could make the world tremble with a single stomp of their foot.

Zeno clasped his hands around his head hurriedly, crouched on the ground, and said, "Respected seniors, hear me out. I'm not in cahoots with that black piggy.

Do you trust me?"

Sensing a considerable amount of killing intent, James instinctively followed suit, clasping his hands around his head and crouching on the ground. Thea did the same.

As the killing intent grew stronger, James felt fear. He spoke promptly, "I come from the outside world, able to freely enter and exit the Prison World. I've no reason to snatch the Boundarybreaker Rune for escape. I'm not in cahoots with that black piggy."

Facing numerous powerhouses at the late stage of the Holy Celestial Rank, the peak of the Consummation Holy Celestial Rank, and even at the Quasi Bliss Rank, James showed no hint of arrogance.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5484-James, Thea, and Zeno remained crouched on the ground. Many powerhouses gathered around, but none of them made a move. Instead, they looked at Gustav, whose face was terrifyingly grim.

Numerous powerhouses had gathered, and Gustav had paid a significant price to claim the title of the world's number one, securing the Boundarybreaker Rune. Little did he know that the rune was snatched away before it could reach his hands. Taking what belonged to him was akin to seeking death.

"What's your name, race, and origin?" Gustav questioned coldly, his face darkening.

James promptly responded, "My name is James Caden. I belong to the Human Race and come from a world outside the Prison World. I entered here to find the primitive inscriptions of the Metallum, Silva, and Tellus Race. We have no acquaintance with that black piggy. It's an ancient beast born in the previous Dunhamvale World. Many living beings witnessed it, including Mr. Sinclair, who was imprisoned deep within the million mountains of Dunhamvale World and was aware of this."

James' words carried significant information.

"From the outside world?" Gustav frowned and asked, "Are you a patroller of the Prison World?"

"No, I'm not," James hurriedly explained. He was aware of the Prison World's patrollers. Before the oil lamp was stolen, there were indeed patrollers who used the lamp to inspect the situation in the Prison World.

"The oil lamp that entered the Prison World was stolen by Theron Terrell, the Pavilion Master of the Heavenly Secrets Pavilion and also a descendant of the Tribunal Race. He was injured in the process, and the oil lamp's whereabouts are still unknown. I recently found the oil lamp as well."

"Lock them up," ordered Gustav.

Subsequently, James, Thea, and Zeno had their cultivation bases sealed and were imprisoned in the dungeons of Eminence Academy. The academy then began an extensive search for Quattro.

During this time, powerhouses from the academy interrogated James and the others. They disclosed everything they knew, including their origins, without any concealment.

Quattro remained hidden. Even when Eminence Academy combined forces with several major forces in the Prison World, they could not find it.

In the main hall of Eminence Academy, Gustav sat at the forefront, with James, Thea, and Zeno beneath him.

“James Caden, right?” Gustav looked at James and asked.

“Yes.” James nodded, saying, “We really have no connection with that black piggy. We didn’t expect him to dare take something from Eminence Academy.”

With that, James took out the oil lamp and continued, “I have the oil lamp. I can freely enter and exit the Prison World. I’ve no reason to risk seizing a Boundarybreaker Rune capable of traversing all formations.”

“I’ll believe you for now,” Gustav said indifferently and then asked, “What’s the situation in the outside world now?”

James truthfully replied, “Since you and the other seniors were imprisoned in the Prison World, the Dark World has entered an era dominated by the Four Ancient Races, specifically the Yeftero, Suunteli, Zoltrumm, and Mevryee Race.

However, the Yeftero Race is quite overbearing, and they attempted to dominate the Dark World. Over countless years, they have incited numerous conflicts, including alliances against the Glaciem Race, with the aim of overturning the Mevryees. However, the turmoil among the Mevryees was eventually resolved by the new generation leader of the Mevryee Race.”

James briefly explained the current situation in the Dark World.

“Hmph,” Gustav snorted. “If it weren’t for the defeat back then, if the races weren’t imprisoned, would the Yeftero Race have the audacity to act so arrogantly?”