The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5501-The Dark World's powerhouses also paid much attention to the Central Plane.

In the Yefteros' main hall, a meeting was taking place. An elegant middle-aged man wearing a grey robe sat in the highest seat. He was none other than the Yefteros' Leader, Hacathra Yeftero, who had recently left seclusion.

Halianor clasped his hands and said, "I've just gotten news that James has appeared and announced that he will soon travel to the Supremuseum."

The Yefteros' Leader was already at the Holy Celestial Rank's Consummation before he went into seclusion.

Before he returned, he had restrained his aura. Thus, core members of the Yefteros were unaware of his current cultivation rank and were left guessing whether he had entered the Quasi Bliss Rank.

The Yefteros' Leader, Hacathra, said calmly, "We still don't know who the powerhouse at the Transcendental Bliss Rank helping James is. Let's observe for now. We should find out how strong James is and what other powerhouses are on his side. After we have a clearer picture, we'll force him and his companion at the Transcendental Bliss Rank to fight back. We might even get the powerhouses who had entered the Halcyon Road to show up."

Besides those who had entered the Halcyon Road, nobody knew what the passage was like. Hacathra had already entered the Quasi Bliss Rank and could sense something abnormal about heaven and earth. It was as if he was being suppressed and restricted. He felt he needed to enter the Halcyon Road to improve his cultivation rank further.

Thus, he wanted to force the powerhouses who had entered the Halcyon Road to show up so he could learn more.

"Where's Yui? Has he left seclusion yet?" asked Hacathra.

Swoosh!

A ray of light landed in the main hall, and a young man emerged from it.

"Father." Yui clasped his hands.

Hacathra looked at Yui and immediately sensed that his son's cultivation rank had reached the middle stage of the Holy Celestial Rank.

"Go to the Central Plane's Elysium Hall and take over. I'd like to see what kind of storm James can stir up."

Halianor interjected, saying, "James made an appearance and spread the word that he was going to settle his past grievances."

Hacathra said while smiling, "Let him be. The Primevals are behind most of the Central Plane's major forces. They won't just stand by and let James destroy their forces."

"Also..." Halianor continued, saying, "James' wife is Thea, the Mevryee Race's princess. While you were in seclusion, there had been a series of events. I suspect the Mevryees were involved in it. They are no longer under our control.

I suggest we eliminate them to avoid future problems from arising." Hacathra waved his hand and said, "Let's see what James does first. Plus, several powerhouses of the Mevryee Race had entered the Halcyon Road.

Before we know more about the Halcyon Road, we can't touch the Mevryees and should avoid making too many enemies."

The Yefteros decided not to take any action for now and only sent Yui to the Central Plane to take over the Elysium Hall.

Meanwhile, James, Quattro, Qiyana, Qairo, and Jada gathered somewhere in the Central Plane.

Quattro said eagerly, "When do we take action, General? I'm pumped!"

James replied, "There's no rush. Let's wait for the news to spread first. I want these forces to alert the Primevals behind them. I'd like to see which ones from the Dark World are involved. Also...

"I need you guys to hide and not do anything for now. It'll be action time for you guys after the powerhouses of the Dark World show up. With my current strength, I should be able to handle the Central Plane's affairs."

James' trump cards were the two powerhouses, Qairo and Quattro. Naturally, his joker in the pack was Qairo. Even if the Four Ancient Race's Leaders were to unite, they might not necessarily be able to defeat Qairo.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5502-From what James knew, there were no powerhouses at the Holy Celestial Rank within the Central Plane's major forces. The strongest powerhouse known was only at the Martial Celestial Rank's Consummation. Thus, James was confident he could handle matters in the Cental Plane.

He had not paid attention to the powerhouses in the Central Plane for a while, so he was unaware if anyone had entered the Holy Celestial Rank. However, it did not shake his confidence. He was only at the Great Celestial Rank's Consummation but could easily kill opponents at the Holy Celestial Rank.

After spreading the word about wanting to take revenge, James went into hiding on a spiritual mountain. He sat in a lotus position at the apex. Standing beside him were Quattro, Qiyana, Qairo, and Jada. His companions were waiting for him to take action.

James sat down and rested. At the same time, he tried to make a breakthrough in his cultivation rank. Unfortunately, he had reached a bottleneck and could not improve any further. He needed more experience, or even to engage in more battles, to enter the Martial Celestial Rank.

After some time, James stood up.

"Is it go time?" Quattro asked excitedly.

James looked at Quattro, nodded lightly, and replied, "I have a mission for you, Piggy."

"I'm all ears, General," Quattro answered eagerly.

James said calmly, 'The Central Plane, or more precisely, all of the planes, are supervised by the Elysium Hall. I want you to go to the Elysium Hall, seize control, and become the Elysium Hall's Master.

The outside planes were unaware that James had brought Quattro from the Prison World.

Although Quattro had shown up in the Dieux Academy, none of the disciples knew James was acquainted with him. A few senior authorities had suspicions, but James did not care if they already figured it out.

James' goal was to take revenge against the enemies of his past life. The Elysium Hall had nothing to do with his demise, and it seemed unreasonable for him to take action against the Elysium Hall. However, he would eventually need to deal with the Elysium Hall because he wanted to rectify the Central Plane and merge the countless planes.

"Should I kill everyone there?" asked Quattro.

James rolled his eyes and said, "I didn't ask you to go on a massacre. You only need to defeat the Elysium Hall's Master. From what I know, he's at the Martial Celestial Rank's peak and has mastered the Central Plane's Genesis Path. I'm unsure if he has progressed in his cultivation rank since it's already been such a long time. Regardless of his rank, I'm sure dealing with him should be a piece of cake to you, right?"

"Of course!" Quattro replied confidently, "Don't you know who I am? I'm the Primogenitor of the Aveswine. The Elysium Hall is nothing to me. I could even exterminate a race from the Dark World if I wanted to."

"Alright. Off you go." James waved his hand and said, "You head over first. We'll be right behind you. After you take over the Elysium Hall, I'll depart to the Supremusseum"

Quattro answered excitedly, "Okay! Finally, it's time to have fun and show off my skills."

After speaking, Quattro quickly left the area. When Quattro was out of sight, Jada asked, "Is he reliable? He doesn't seem so to me."

James reassured her, saying, "Don't underestimate him.

He's really powerful. Although he is only at the Holy Celestial Rank's early stage, I think he is stronger than Yui."

Qiyana also felt relieved by his words.

After Quattro left, James and the others took their time traveling toward the Elysium Hall.

The Elysium Hall was the most potent force in the Central Plane and ruled over all planes. However, the countless planes were unaware that the Yefteros were behind the Elysium Hall. The only person who knew was the Elysium Hall's Master.

The Elysium Hall's Master's real name was a mystery to all. In the past, he had always used a fake name. His real name was Weilen Yeftero. He was initially a low-ranking member of the Yefteros. After an elder noticed him, he was eventually delegated as the Elysium Hall's Master in the Central Plane.

At that moment, the Elysium Hall's Master, Weilen, was kneeling in their main hall, with his forehead touching the ground. Sitting in the highest seat before him was a handsome young man wearing a blue robe who emitted an extraordinary aura.

Weilen greeted the young man respectfully, "Saint Yui."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5503-Yui said calmly, "I'll be taking over the Elysium Hall from now onward."

"Okay." Weilen did not dare to disobey orders.

"That's enough. You can stand." Yui gently waved his hand.

Weilen stood up, looked at Yui, and asked smilingly, "Why were you sent here, Saint Yui?"

Yui replied calmly, "James has been up to a lot recently. If I don't come, he'll become even more presumptuous."

"It's just some small conflict between the forces in the Central Plane. You didn't need to come to deal with him personally," said Weilen.

Weilen had been in the Central Plane all this while and was unaware of the events in the Dark World. He had no idea what James had done in the Dark World and did not hear about Theognostos being James' backbone. Naturally, the other forces in the Central Plane were also oblivious since the news only spread within the Dark World.

The Dark World and Central Plane were too far apart. Moreover, the living beings on the Central Plane hardly entered the Dark World. Even if they did, they would be unable to find the Primevals or get hold of this news.

Yui did not respond to Weilen. Previously, he was defeated by Yered and sustained severe injuries. It had greatly hurt his pride.

After the battle, Yui went into seclusion. Not only did he improve to the Holy Celestial Rank's middle stage, but his strength also improved significantly. In the battle against Yered, there were many more Supernatural Powers he did not have a chance to showcase.

Yui was looking forward to fighting Yered again. He wanted to defeat Yered and rid himself of the shame.

Weilen refrained from prying further since Yui seemed unwilling to share more details.

Boom!!!

Suddenly, the formation protecting the Elysium Hall was attacked, and a powerful shock wave permeated the area.

A pig-like human floated outside the Elysium Hall. His entire body was covered with fur, and he looked like a ferocious beast.

'The environment here is pretty pleasant.' Quattro stared at the Elysium Hall and said happily, "I want this place."

After speaking, he launched another attack and shattered the formation.

Countless guards of the Elysium Hall immediately rushed outside.

Yui, who was still inside the main hall, said calmly, "Go see what's going on."

"Alright." Weilen nodded and disappeared from the main hall.

The next moment, Weilen appeared outside of the Elysium Hall's gate. He stood before the guards and stared at the piglike human ahead. His face darkened, and he said coldly, "Black piggy, do you know where you are right now? Do you have a death wish?"

Quattro's face became grim, and he replied coldly, "I hate it when people call me black piggy. Die."

Quattro gently flicked his fingers in the air, and a powerful burst of energy shot out from his fingertips.

The Elysium Hall's Master, Weilen, was obliterated before he could register the situation.

"Where's the Elysium Hall's Master? I've graced this place with my presence, so why isn't he here to greet me?"

Quattro's voice resounded throughout the area.

At that moment, the guards who had witnessed the death of their Elysium Hall's Master were terrified.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5504-Quattro had already easily killed the Elysium Halls' Master, Weilen. However, he was utterly clueless about the deceased person's identity.

The guards gathered outside the Elysium Hall were aghast after seeing Weilen killed.

Quattro pointed at a guard and said, 'You, come here.'

The guard's face paled, and he quickly stepped away. However, a powerful force wrapped around him and pulled him forward.

"No! Don't kill me!" The guard said with a shivering voice, 'Y- You already killed our master!'

"Huh?" Quattron was dumbfounded. He asked, "Was that guy just now the Elysium Hall's Master? He was so weak. How did he even qualify as the Elysium Hall's Master? How was someone like him allowed to rule the Central Plane?"

Meanwhile, Yui was still sitting in the main hall. After seeing the situation outside, his brows furrowed tightly. He did not expect trouble to arise right after he arrived in the Central Plane.

He left the main hall and appeared outside the Elysium Hall's gate.

"I've already taken over the Elysium Hall. Who are you, and what are you doing here?" Yui asked calmly.

Yui had never met Quattro before but could sense that the powerhouse before him was at the Holy Celestial Rank's early stage. He knew his opponent would not be able to kill him so easily. Despite that, he did not act rashly, knowing his opponent was quite powerful. If it were someone weaker, he would have already taken action.

‘You?’ Quattro looked at Yui and said nonchalantly, ‘You’re currently in charge, huh? Hand over the Elysium Hall to me, and I’ll spare your life.’

“Haha!” Yui chuckled and said, “Do you know who I am, black piggy?” Quattro was furious at the way Yui had addressed him. He suddenly flashed before Yui and swung his fist with full force.

Yui reacted promptly and also swung his fist.

Boom!

The two fists clashed, and a powerful shockwave permeated the air.

They were in the Central Plane, a tenth-level plane with stable space. However, the force from the confrontation caused cracks throughout the void. Several guards in the distance were blasted away and fell to the ground. Even Yui was knocked away by the force.

Quattro also took a few steps backward. He looked at Yui surprisedly and said, “Impressive. You’re the first opponent at the Holy Celestial Rank’s middle stage to have withstood my attack without getting hurt.”

Yui’s face darkened, and his heart was anxious.

‘What’s the origin of this black piggy? How is he so strong when he’s only at the early stage of the Holy Celestial Rank?’

Yui stared at Quattro and said solemnly, “I’m Yui from the Yefteros. Who are you?”

“Yui?” Quattro was surprised. He had heard of this name from James and knew about the battle between Yui and Yered. Yui’s escape from an opponent at the Holy Celestial Rank’s Consummation was ample evidence of his strength.

He grinned and said, “I don’t care what race you’re from. I’m the Primogenitor of the Aveswine. I’ve taken an interest in the Elysium Hall and want to become the master of this place. I would like to rule the Central Plane. If you’re sensible, get lost, or else this place will be your grave.”

Quattro was not afraid. The only reason he tried to obtain the Elysium Hall without a fight was to conserve energy.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5505-The Yefteros led the Dark World's Four Ancient Races. As the Yefteros' Saint, Yui was quite arrogant. He said coldly, "You're quite arrogant, aren't you, black piggy? What the hell is the Aveswine? Since you have a death wish. I'll fulfill you." Yui's face darkened, and a terrifying aura emerged from his body. His aura was so powerful that it began to affect the surrounding void.

The Central Plane's major forces immediately noticed the powerful aura.

"What happened?"

"Why is such a potent force coming from the Elysium Hall?"

"It's a powerhouse at the Holy Celestial Rank. I can sense he has great achievements in the Holy Celestial Rank."

Many powerhouses in the Central Plane were alarmed. They immediately unleashed their Zens to investigate what was happening in the Elysium Hall.

The disciples and guards of Elysium Hall were horrified after sensing Yui's aura.

They knew the surrounding areas would be destroyed, and the Elysium Hall would crumble if a battle broke out. They quickly evacuated the area, afraid to stay any longer.

Quattro looked at the spiritual mountain where the Elysium Hall was located and said calmly, "That spiritual mountain will be my race's base. It would be a pity if it were to be destroyed."

He turned to Yui and said, "Hey you, the guy from the Yefteros. How about we take this fight to another plane?"

"Sure." Yui's aura was potent, and he looked like a war god.

Quattro smiled faintly and disappeared. The next moment, he was already outside the universe. He floated in the void with his hands behind his back, his expression calm and confident.

Yui appeared shortly after him.

At that moment, James and his comrades had also arrived nearby.

Qiyana frowned and said, "It's Yui. What's he doing in the Central Plane? Why is Quattro fighting him?"

"I don't know. Let's observe first," said James.

The group arrived a little later than Quattro. Thus, they were unaware that Yui was in the Elysium Hall. They did not get close and instead chose to watch from a distance.

Jada's brows furrowed tightly. She knew how strong Yui was. He even managed to escape from Yered, a powerhouse at the Quasi Bliss Rank. At that moment, he was even more potent.

She said worriedly, "Yui's aura is much stronger than last time. It seems he has entered the Holy Celestial Rank's middle stage. He's a genius of the Yefteros and a very extraordinary powerhouse. Meanwhile, Quattro is only at the Holy Celestial Rank's early stage. Will he stand a chance?"

James, on the other hand, had great confidence in Quattro.

Quattro claimed to be invisible against powerhouses below the Quasi Bliss Rank. Even if he were to go against an opponent at the Quasi Bliss Rank, he could drag his opponent down with him if he went all out.

"We can decide what to do later. For now, let Quattro test the Yefteros. Let's see what the Yefteros will do after Yui's death," said James.

Although he was unsure whether Quattro could kill Yui, the outcome would not matter. If Quattro could not kill him, then so be it. If he could, that would be the best outcome.

In the distance, Yui floated in the air with a powerful aura. He looked at Quattro and shouted, "Black piggy, do you really want to make an enemy out of the Yefteros? If you're only interested in the Elysium Hall, I can hand it over to you and let you rule over all planes."

Quattro said indifferently, "The outcome will be the same even after killing you.

You should make the first move.

Otherwise, you won't have a chance."

"How arrogant." Yui's face darkened.

Suddenly, Quattro waved his hand, and countless inscriptions emerged to form a sharp blade.

"Eradication Blow!"

The blade shot out and pierced through Yui's body.

Everything happened in the blink of an eye. Even though Yui was a peerless powerhouse at the Holy Celestial Rank's middle stage, he could not even react in time.
