The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5511-The Heavenly Secrets Pavilion was not a force that served James. However, Shorru felt that their master would definitely want to help James. After all, he wished to go to the Prison World to save the Tribunal Race's powerhouses "Alright. I'll keep an eye out for these materials. I'll inform our branches to request these materials when clients come to purchase information. However, these materials are scarce, and gathering the entire list will be difficult."

"I'm not in a rush, so take your time."

James briefly chatted with Shorru through the inscription. At the same time, he traveled toward the Supremuseum. His appearance in the Central Plane immediately caught a lot of attention.

"James has arrived."

"He's headed for the Supremuseum."

"Does this mark the beginning of his revenge? Is he starting with the Supremuseum? Does he want to reclaim the Supremuseum, then slowly deal with the other forces?"

"There were abnormalities in the Elysiam Hall just recently. Immediately afterward, James embarked on his journey to revenge. This year is full of misfortune."

A few powerhouses expressed their opinions dejectedly.

Meanwhile, the Dieux Academy's founder, Lemuel, was leading a meeting in their main hall.

Lemuel had taken on the appearance of an elderly man. He sat in the highest seat while countless powerhouses gathered below him.

The entire Central Plane had no idea who was the culprit that had killed Yui.

However, Lemuel was well aware since he had been to the Dark World and knew about the Yefteros' Saint, Yui.

"What's the relationship between that pig and James?" Lemuel frowned.

Although other living beings had no idea James and Quattro were acquainted, the Dieux Academy and Lemuel were conscious of it. However, Lemuel had yet to learn what kind of relationship existed between the two.

“Sir Lemuel, James has finally shown up. He was spotted near the universe where the Elysium Hall is located. It seems he was within the Elysium Hall not too long ago.

Unfortunately, we don’t have much information on what had happened within the Elysium Hall,” said Xhemal.

Lemuel waved his hand and said, “Don’t worry about him. Just continue watching over the Dieux Academy. Chaos is about to break out in the Central Plane very soon, and the Dark World’s forces will surely take action. The entire Dark World might become fully involved in this turmoil.”

After leaving a few words, Lemuel disappeared from the main hall.

The next moment, the Dieux Academy’s powerhouses lost track of Lemuel’s aura.

James publicly traveled through the Central Plane and leisurely headed for the Supremusseum. Soon, he arrived in the universe where the Supremusseum was located.

He took two steps forward and immediately arrived outside the Supremusseum’s gate.

James became sentimental after returning to the Supremusseum. In his past life, he created the Supremusseum from scratch. James thought he had already reached the peak of cultivation and was one of the most extraordinary powerhouses. After being reincarnated and living a new life, he realized how naive he used to be.

He looked at the cloud-like spiritual mountain in the sky, surrounded by a powerful formation ahead of him.

James approached the Supremusseum and shouted, “It’s James. I’m here for our bet, Quirijn.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5512-The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5512-veral attempts to gather the powerhouses from various major forces and devise a plan.

However, James disappeared right after Lady Wikolia exposed his identity. It was not until recently that James made a reappearance. He even announced that he would be coming for the Supremusse.

Quirijn was terrified and quickly contacted major forces in the Central Plane again. Unfortunately, he did not receive any response. He was puzzled by their actions. In the past, they united to kill James. Sooner or later, James would also take revenge against them. Thus, it was weird they refused to join forces again to deal with James.

“Why hasn’t the powerhouse from the Zoltrumm Race arrive yet?” Quirijn wore a worried expression.

After he became the Supremusse’s Leader, a powerhouse from the Zoltrumm Race approached him and forced him to submit to them.

He had no choice but to comply and had been providing the Zoltrumm Race with endless cultivation resources ever since. Now that he was in trouble, the Zoltrumms were reluctant to assist.

James’ voice resounded throughout the Supremusse.

“Hmph,” Quirijn snorted and said, “So what if he survived and got reincarnated?”

How strong could he have possibly gotten in such a short time?”

Quirijn disappeared from the main hall. The next moment, he appeared outside the Supremusse’s gate.

The Supremusse’s ten elders also appeared shortly after him. James recognized a few of them, but some were new faces.

“James.” Quirijn looked at James indifferently.

James smiled faintly and said, “Is that the attitude you have while greeting your master?”

Quirijn looked at him coldly.

James said calmly, "I'm the founder of the Supremusse. In my past life, I was besieged by several powerhouses and forced to reincarnate. Now that I'm back, shouldn't you return the Supremusse to me?"

Quirijn analyzed James and found he was only at the Great Celestial Rank's Consummation. The other elders also quickly learned about James' cultivation rank.

At that moment, a confidant of Quirijn stepped forward and said coldly, "It's true you're the Supremusse's founder.

However, how will you rule the Supremusse with such a low cultivation rank?"

James ignored the elder who spoke to him. He looked at Quirijn and asked, "Were you involved? Did you collude with other powerhouses to get rid of me?"

"Yeah, so what?" Quirijn did not deny it. Now that James boldly showed up, Quirijn knew there was no chance James would spare him.

Quirijn looked at Qiyana, who was standing behind James. He discovered that Qiyana was much stronger than himself and guessed Qiyana was why James had the confidence to show up.

"Are you really relying on a woman to reclaim the Supremusse, James?"

James easily read Quirijn's mind. He smiled faintly, turned to Qiyana, and said, "You step back for now."

"Alright." Qiyana nodded and quickly backed away.

James looked at the ten elders and some other lower-ranked elders. Then, he said calmly, "I'll give you elders a chance. If you choose to stand on my side, I'll forgive whatever mistakes you've made in the past."

Although James was willing to show mercy, nobody moved toward him.

"Haha!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5513-Quirijn laughed loudly and sneered, "Do you still think you're the Lord Supremus, the peerless powerhouse with the Central Plane below his feet?"

You're nothing but an ant right now.

I won't even need to personally take action.

Any of the Supremusse's elders can easily get rid of you." James said calmly, "It seems the Zoltrumms haven't told you about the recent events in the Dark World." "H-How did you know..." Quirijn's expression changed.

Before Quirijn could finish speaking, James summoned a bright, long sword.

He slashed out a few times, and countless Genesis Paths merged to form Sword Energy.

The Sword Energy pierced through the void, inching closer to Quirijn.

Quirijn could not react in time and was hit by the Sword Energy.

He simply could not resist the Genesis Sword Art, which contained the power of countless Genesis Paths.

James was at the Great Celestial Rank's Consummation, whereas Quirijn was at the Martial Celestial Rank's Consummation.

There was a significant disparity between their ranks.

However, James could now fully unleash the Supremusse Sword's strength.

He did not have any reservations and instantly cast the Genesis Sword Art.

The Genesis Sword Art was a mighty move.

Even though he had not activated any Supernatural Powers to enhance his strength, powerhouses below the Holy Celestial Rank could not withstand his Genesis Sword Art.

Even a powerhouse who had just entered the Holy Celestial Rank would not dare to take the attack head-on.

The Sword Energy struck Quirijn, instantly injuring him.

He quickly retreated and summoned some powers to form a protective barrier.

However, the protective barrier was shattered by James' Sword Energy.

The Sword Energy penetrated Quirijn's body and exploded.

Quirijn's flesh and soul were destroyed.

He was a powerhouse at the Martial Celestial Rank's peak, one of the strongest in the Central Plane.

Yet, James obliterated him so easily.

Even though James had not entered the Martial Celestial Rank, the strength he had displayed was terrifying.

"L-Lord Supremus! I'm willing to serve you from now on!" "I follow you to my death, Lord Supremus!" The Supremusse's elders began to panic after witnessing Quirijn's death.

"I've already given you guys a chance." James' expression was indifferent.

He waved his hand, and a potent Sword Energy emerged from the Supremusse Sword.

The Sword Energy shot out and swept toward the many elders.

These elders fled one after another, but their efforts were futile.

Their bodies were struck by the Sword Energy and were obliterated instantly.

James held the Supremusse Sword and slowly walked toward the Supremusseum.

As he advanced, the disciples knelt to the ground and shouted, "Welcome back, Lord Supremus!" Soon, James arrived at the Supremusse's main hall.

He ascended the highest seat, and core members of the Supremusseum scrambled into the hall.

They immediately knelt on the floor, trembling in fear.

James looked into the distance and murmured, "I'm finally back to the Supremusseum."

I thought returning to the Supremusseum would be the end of everything.

I never expected it to be the beginning.” Immediately afterward, he stood up and ordered, “Spread the news that the Supremusmuseum is declaring war against the Central Plane’s major forces.” James’ voice resounded through the Supremusmuseum, giving an order to the disciples.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5514-The Central Plane had Ten Great Forces. Many of them were involved in the attempt to eliminate James. Powerhouses of the Valiant Alliance, Immortal Mountain, Salubergh, Thunder Shrine, Spiritual Palace, and Sword Alliance were all involved in the case. The Elysium Hall, the Dieux Academy, and ninth-level planes also participated in the scheme.

James waved his hand casually, and a few letters of challenge materialized.

Then, he shouted, “Send these letters to the Central Plane’s major forces.”

“Yes, Sir.” A few disciples quickly took the letters and departed to different major forces.

James sat on a boulder in the back mountain of the Supremusmuseum.

Qiyana stood beside him and asked, “Why don’t you just launch attacks on these forces and eliminate them before the Dark World’s Primevals can react?

You’re just giving them time to inform the Primevals.”

James smiled faintly and said, “I’m doing it deliberately. I want them to notify the Primevals behind their forces so that I know which races were involved. Then, I’ll annihilate them. Only by doing so can I merge the countless planes in the future without facing any interference.”

Qiyana frowned and said, “You waged war against the Yefteros, which is tantamount to going against the Four Ancient Races. Now, you’re about to make enemies out of many of the Dark World’s Primevals. Do you really think you can stand against these Primevals with your current force?”

Qiyana had a grudge against the Four Ancient Races. However, the Glacies had no enmity with the other races.

James was essentially declaring war against the entire Dark World. She was worried James was being too confident, and it would lead to his downfall.

Qiyana's words made James fall into deep thoughts.

He already had a plan, and leaving Qairo in the Elysium Hall was part of it.

Qiyana asked, "What exactly are you trying to achieve?"

'To cause severe damage to the Yeferos, or in the best case scenario, wipe them out.' James' face darkened.

fl N Qiyana was stunned. After a while, she said, "Please don't be impulsive, James.

The Yeferos lead the Four Ancient Races. Although the Yeferos' strongest members had entered the Halcyon Road, the Yeferos also collected a lot of cultivation resources after the strife back then. They must have trained up many powerhouses by now. Nobody knows how many powerhouses were hidden within the Yeferos."

James said, "Yui is already dead. The Yeferos' Great Elder, Halianor, has already left the Dark World and is in the Central Plane investigating Yui's death. I plan to trap Halianor in the Elysium Hall, then force the Yeferos to send an army to the Central Plane to attack the hall. Meanwhile, I'll..."

A smile formed on James' face, and he continued, saying, " Then, Qairo and I will attack the Yefteos' headquarters. Even if I cannot destroy the Yeferos, I want them to suffer massive losses."

Qiyana fell into thought. James' plan sounded well-thought- out. However, she was worried since the Yeferos were not a simple force.

James wanted to attract the powerhouses from the Yeferos to the Central Plane. Then, he would launch an attack on the Yeferos' headquarters. However, James' plan would fall short if some powerhouses stayed in the headquarters.

"Qiyana." James looked at her.

"Mhm, I'm listening." Qiyana nodded lightly.

James said, "I want you to impersonate me and stay in the Supremuseum. I've already sent out letters of challenge. However, I will not attack them right away. I simply want these major forces to inform the Dark World's Primevals behind them. These Dark World's Primevals will be notified about Yui's death in the Elysium Hall, and it will prevent them from acting recklessly. It becomes a stalemate, and the Yeferos will have no choice but to dispatch an army to the Elysium Hall."
