The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5515-James' plan had a few steps. First, they had to trap or kill Halianor in the Elysium Hall. Secondly, he wanted the Dark World's Primevals to learn about the Central Plane's recent events. Ultimately, they would be too wary to take action and ask the Four Ancient Race's Leader, the Yefteros, for help.

Now that Yui was dead, the Yefteros would surely send an army to the Central Plane if even Halianor were to get into trouble.

James' chance would arise after the Yefteros' forces were lured to the Central Plane.

Qiyana replied, "Alright. I'll watch over the Supremusmuseum for you."

"Mhm," James nodded and said, 'Til be leaving for a while to prepare for the operation against the Yefteros. I'd like to deal them very severe damages or even wipe them out if possible. However, I still need a few helpers."

After James relayed some instructions to Qiyana, he secretly left the Supremusmuseum, ensuring nobody noticed. Shortly after, he appeared outside the Dieux Academy with a completely different appearance and aura.

James slowly approached the Dieux Academy. At the same time, he contacted Shorru of the Heavenly Secrets Pavilion. He requested that Shorru spread the news that Yui was killed in the Elysium Hall. In addition, he also asked for the word of Halianor coming to the Central Plane to be widely distributed.

"Mr. Shorru, please exaggerate the news a little and spread rumors that Halianor will die after appearing in the Elysium Hall."

Shorru's voice resounded in James' mind, asking, "What are you trying to do, James?"

James smiled faintly and replied, "You don't need to know. Just help me spread the news. At the same time, keep a close eye on the Primevals and inform me if there's anything abnormal."

While chatting with Shorru, James snuck into the Dieux Academy. Then, he located Lemuel and headed toward a manor.

As soon as James arrived, Lemuel came to meet with him.

After seeing Lemuel, James changed back to his actual appearance.

Lemuel looked at James and said, 'You're finally here.'

"Mhm."

Lemuel waved his hand, summoning a table and a few chairs in the manor's yard. Then, he motioned for James to take a seat.

James promptly sat down and looked at Lemuel. After sensing Lemuel's cultivation rank, he said admiringly, "The Holy Celestial Rank's middle stage?

You're amazing."

Lemuel rolled his eyes and said, "Cut the flattery. What did you come for? If there's nothing important, hurry and get lost. You're being targeted by a lot of forces right now. I don't want them to think I'm closely acquainted with you."

James chuckled and said, "I came to ask you to make a grand appearance back into the Central Plane and become part of something big."

"No, thank you." Lemuel immediately refused.

"I haven't even shared the details. Why are you in such a rush to turn me down?" James looked at him helplessly. Lemuel replied, "Whatever it is, I won't do it."

'Yui is dead," said James.

"I know." Lemuel nodded.

"Aren't you curious about what I will do next?" James looked at Lemuel with a bright smile.

"No, I'm not interested," Lemuel replied calmly.

James' smile faded, and he said solemnly, "I'm going to take action against the Yefteros. I would like to ask for your help."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5516-Lemuel stared at James and said solemnly, "This is not child's play, James. I'd like to stay out of it. The Dieux Academy will not take part in any of it."

Lemuel understood the seriousness of the matter and the grave consequences he would face if the Yefteros were to take revenge.

The war between James, the Yefteros, the Four Ancient Races, and the other Dark World's Primevals would continue for some time. Tens and thousands of lives were bound to be sacrificed.

Lemuel wanted to avoid the Dieux Academy being involved. He made his stance very clear to James.

James persuaded, "What if I give you the Aboda Race's primitive inscriptions?"

The Abodas are a race that disappeared from the Dark World long ago. Their primitive inscriptions are very profound and magical. The Supernatural Power that came in sixth on the Heavenly Secrets Pavilion ranking came from the Abodas' primitive inscriptions. The Aboda Race's Primogenitor was inspired and created the Supernatural Power from these primitive inscriptions."

Lemuel was slightly tempted by James' offer. Primitive inscriptions from the Dark World's races were very hard to come across. After all, no Primeval would casually give away their primitive inscriptions to outsiders. What was even more enticing was that James had offered the primitive inscriptions of a race that had vanished a long time ago.

James continued, saying, "I'm confident in my plan. Even if I can't fully eradicate the Yefteros, I'll be able to cause them great damage."

Lemuel frowned and asked, "Who killed Yui?"

"Quattro Zeus. He's an ancient beast born within the Prison World. He's the Primogenitor of the Aveswines. He was born along with some primitive inscriptions. Plus, he mastered the Aboda Race's primitive inscriptions and the five Elemental Primevals' primitive inscriptions. Although he's only at the Holy Celestial Rank's early stage, he has power way above his rank. Moreover, Qairo is back to normal." James shared the details of his plans.

Lemuel was aware that Qairo had recovered. Otherwise, James would not have the confidence to take on the Yefteros.

Seeing Lemuel's hesitation, James summoned the Aboda's Race's primitive inscriptions before Lemuel. Then, he vaguely explained his plan, "If you come with me to destroy the Yefteros, I promise you the Dieux Academy will be unharmed. After the Yefteros are eliminated, the Dark World will be thrown into chaos. Then, I'll take advantage of the situation to rectify the Central Plane. I aim to merge the countless planes and form a superplane."

Convinced by James' words, Lemuel sighed and said, "You really know how to manipulate me."

Lemuel put away the Aboda Race's primitive inscriptions and said, "I also want the Elemental Primevals' primitive inscriptions."

"Deal," James agreed without hesitation.

"When do you plan to take action?" asked Lemuel.

James answered, "There's no rush. We'll wait until Quattro and Qairo trap or even kill Halianor. For now, you can head somewhere near the Yefteros and be on standby. I still have other things to prepare. When it's the right time, I'll come to meet up with you."

"Alright." Lemuel nodded.

Lemuel had already reached the Holy Celestial Rank's middle stage. With the Feimsurge Art, he had created, his combat strength was exceptional.

James' chances of success had increased significantly now that Lemuel was also on board. However, he still needed more help. After successfully persuading Lemuel, James left the Dieux Academy. Then, he used an inscription to contact Yered.

Soon, Yered's voice resounded in his mind. "James? What is it?"

James replied, "I have an offer for you. Where are you? Let's meet up and discuss this in person."

Yered was not in the Flammae's territory, so he gave James his exact location.

James rushed over after obtaining Yered's whereabouts. The two met up in a ruin within the Dark World.

In the previous battle, Yered was injured. He feared the Flammae would suffer the consequences of his actions, so he chose not to return home.

After staying in seclusion for some time, he recovered and suppressed the Flammae poison within his body. Moreover, he had also cultivated the Glacies and Flammae's primitive inscriptions to their highest level.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5517-Previously, Yered was infected by Flammae poison when he failed to break into the Quasi Bliss Rank. Now that he had suppressed the poison in his body, he had a breakthrough in his cultivation rank. Even after he had reached the Quasi Bliss Rank, he refrained from leaving the seclusion area.

James' face lit up after sensing Yered's aura, and he said smilingly, "You entered the Quasi Bliss Rank?" Yered replied with a smile, "It's all thanks to you. If it weren't for the Glacies' primitive inscriptions and the guidance you've given me, I wouldn't have neutralized the poison or made a breakthrough in my cultivation rank."

"Good." James smiled. Then, he said, "I came to ask you to be part of something that will strip up a huge storm in the Dark World. It'll result in a reshuffle in the Dark World's power structure."

"Oh?" Yered looked at James and asked, "Do elaborate."

James answered, "I want to destroy the Yefteros."

Yered's expression became solemn, and he said, "This isn't a joke, James. The Yefteros are the leaders of the Four Ancient Races and have dominated the Dark World for eons. You can't just destroy them at the drop of a hat."

"Our chances of destroying the Yefteros will increase if you join us," James reassured him, then waved his hand to summon the primitive inscriptions of the five Elemental Primevals. Shortly after, Elemental Powers materialized."

"This..." Yered was stunned.

James said, "If you help me destroy the Yefteros, I'll give you the primitive inscriptions of the other three Elemental Primevals. I'll also teach you how to cultivate and control the Elemental Powers simultaneously."

“Deal,” Yered agreed instantly. He had already cultivated the Flammae and Glacies’ primitive inscriptions and was aware of how strong Elemental Powers could be when fused. He knew that acquiring all five of the Elemental Powers and mastering how to combine them would allow him to gain terrifying strength.

“What’s your plan?” asked Yered.

James instantly gave the Yered the primitive inscriptions of the Tellures, Silvae, and Metalla. Then, he briefly explained his plan.

“You head straight somewhere near the Yefteros and hide for now. When the time is right, I’ll head to the Yeftero World to join you. As for the primitive inscriptions I just gave you, you should try cultivating them immediately. After you succeed, I’ll teach you how to control the Elemental Powers.

“Alright.” Yered put away the primitive inscriptions, stood up, and said, “Then, I’ll head over to the Yeftero World and wait for you there.”

James had already successfully won over two powerhouses to assist him. He was glad to have Yered on his side.

Yered’s strength had exceeded his expectations. However, James felt it was not enough.

The Yefteros’ was an extraordinary force. After the Dark World’s strife, they gained much loot from the destroyed races. Thus, there must be some powerhouses hidden in the Yefteros that had not revealed themselves yet.

James contacted Shorru and asked, “Mr. Shorru, can the Heavenly Secrets Pavilion contact the Shadows’ Great Commander?”

The Shadows was the Dark World’s most terrifying assassination organization.

The Shadows’ Leader had once claimed to be the Lord of the Dark World.

However, the Four Ancient Races and a few other Primevals joined forces to severely injure him. As a result, the Shadows stayed low ever since.

James wanted to get the Shadows on his side. With powerhouses from the Shadows, the operation to destroy the Yefteros would look very promising.

“Why are you looking for the Shadows?” Shorru replied quickly, “You can’t be reckless, James. The Shadows are ruthless people. If you can avoid getting involved with them, avoid it at all costs.”

“You don’t need to worry about me. Just help me find their great commander,” said James.

“Okay. I’ll make arrangements. However, it might take some time. The Shadows are a mysterious organization, and their great commander is even more secretive. Although our intelligence networks are exceptional, it’ll still take some time.”

“Alright. I’ll be waiting for the good news,” said James. He looked to the dark void in the distance and murmured, “It’s time to head to the Mevryees to see my father-in-law.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5518-Thea’s biological father, Talvelai, was the current leader of the Mevryees.

Previously, the Mevryees had fallen into internal strife for a long time. Talvelai settled the conflict with his strength and became the Mevryees’ Leader. The internal strife of the Mevryees was, of course, caused by the Yefteros.

James wanted to ensure his plan’s success rate was a hundred percent. Thus, he wanted to have as much help as he could.

In the Mevryees’ back mountain, Yuvin looked at Talvelai solemnly.

“Sir Talvelai, you...” Yuvin was surprised that Talvelai’s aura had changed drastically after leaving seclusion. Even his appearance had aged significantly.

Talvelai wore a gray robe. He had white hair and prominent wrinkles.

Yuvin could sense that Talvelai’s aura was bizarre.

Sometimes, it had a strong presence and seemed very potent. Occasionally, it was almost non-existent and weak.

Talvelai waved his hand and asked, “What happened while I was in seclusion?”

“A lot,” Yuvin replied, explaining everything that had happened recently.

“Yui? Dead? Interesting...” Talvelai smiled, then asked, “By the way, where’s Thea right now?”

Yuvin replied, “I’m not sure. After the failed attempt to kill Yui, she left with James. Although James has already shown up in the Central Plane, there are no traces of Thea.”

Talvelai frowned and said, “With the Yefteros’ intelligence network, they must already know about her relationship with James and that we hid the truth.

Fortunately, Yui is already dead. Otherwise, the Yefteros would’ve taken action against us.”

At that moment, a guard rushed over to them and knelt on the ground. “Sir Talvelai, a human showed up claiming to know about the princess’s whereabouts. He requested to see you, sir.”

Yuvin and Talvelai looked at each other.

“Could it be him?” said Yuvin.

Talvelai ordered, “Bring him inside.”

The guard quickly left.

Soon, a young man walked over.

Yuvin and Talvelai stared at the uninvited guest.

James immediately changed back to his actual appearance after seeing Yuvin.

Then, he looked at the other elderly man and said smilingly, “You must be the Mevryees’ Leader, Talvelai. My name is James Caden. I’m glad to finally meet my father-in-law.”

Talvelai gently stroked his white beard as he looked at James. He nodded lightly and asked, “I learned about Yui’s death right after I left seclusion. Did it have something to do with you?”

Talvelai learned that Yui was killed in the Elysium Hall. The news circulated by the Central Plane's major forces was that a pig-like human killed Elysium Hall's former leader.

However, the fact that Yui had arrived in the Central Plane and was slaughtered was not widespread yet. Everyone in the Central Plane remained oblivious to what happened in the Elysium Hall. The only public information was that a potent aura had permeated from the universe where the Elysium Hall was located.

The Mevryees had already received the news from the Central Plane and somehow found out that Yui had died at the hands of a pig-like human.

However, they could not determine whether James was related to these events.

James was not expecting such straightforward questioning right after meeting Talvelai. He sat on a chair nearby and said smilingly, "What kind of answer would you like?"

Talvelai said earnestly, "You don't have to hide anything from me. Tell me the truth."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5519-James frowned after sensing the abnormality with Talvelai's aura.

"Before I answer you, I have a question for you," said James.

"Go ahead," Talvelai replied calmly.

James stared at him and asked, "What's your current cultivation rank?"

Yuvn also stared at Talevelai, curious about the answer.

Talvelai gently stroked his beard and replied calmly, "I'm between the Quasi Bliss and Transcendental Bliss Rank."

"What do you mean?" James was puzzled.

Talvelai explained, "I'm not too sure either. I'm at a very strange point in my cultivation rank. I'm above the Quasi Bliss Rank but not yet at the Transcendental Bliss Rank. I've gone through our race's ancient books and found some clues. In ancient times, a few powerhouses had also entered this rank. It's called the Ritual Rank."

"Ritual Rank?" James frowned.

Curious, Yuvin asked, "What's the rank like?"

Talvelai replied, "After reaching this rank, it feels like I have to sacrifice a part of myself, like my flesh, to allow my soul to return to the Dark World."

James fell into thought. 'If the Ritual Rank existed, why did Qairo skip it? Could one have to enter the Ritual Rank before being able to successfully reach the Transcendental Bliss Rank? Perhaps Qairo failed to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank because he didn't enter the Ritual Rank?' James had many questions but put them away for now. His main concern was to find out Talvelai's combat strength.

"How strong is the Ritual Rank?"

Talvelai replied, "Well, it's above the Quasi Bliss Rank, so when my aura peaks, it's stronger than the Quasi Bliss Rank. However, at its weakest, my strength can be even inferior to the Holy Celestial Rank."

James continued, asking, "When does your aura peak, and when does it weaken?"

Talvelsai shook his head and said, "I just entered this rank not too long ago and haven't understood its fundamentals yet."

After answering, Talvelai looked at James and said, "You've already asked so many questions. When are you going to answer mine?"

James replied, "You're not wrong. I was involved in Yui's death. Also, the Yefteros have sent their Great Elder to the Central Plane to investigate his death. I plan to kill Halianor and lure the Yefteros' powerhouses to the Elysium Hall.

Then, I'll use the opportunity to attack the Yefteros' headquarters and wipe them out."

After hearing James' plan, Talvelai chuckled, "Haha. You want to wipe out the Yefteros? With your strength? The Yefteros had dominated the Dark World for so long. You won't be able to obliterate them so easily. If they were that weak, they would've been eliminated long ago."

James smiled and replied, 'Naturally, I'm not strong enough. However, with the Mevryees, that won't necessarily be the case.'

Talvelai looked at him and said, "So you came to request our help?"

James replied solemnly, "I've already got many powerhouses on board. The Mevryees are the only ones left. If the Mevryees dispatch powerhouses, we'll definitely succeed. Of course, it would be even better if you joined this operation."

"Oh? Which powerhouses have joined you?" Talvelai's curiosity was piqued.

James answered, "I have two powerhouses at the Quasi Bliss Rank, one at the Consummation. However, he has the strength to kill Yui with one blow."

James honestly revealed his trump cards. After all, he was speaking with Thea's biological father, also the Mevryees' Leader. Although the Mevryees were one of the Four Ancient Races and obeyed the Yefteros on the surface, they had deep hatred toward the Yefteros.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5520-After James revealed his trump cards, Talvelai shook his head and said, "That's far from enough."

"It is?" James stared at Talvelai, puzzled. The powerhouses who were on his side were unprecedented. He was pretty confident in wiping out the Yefteros with their help.

Talvelai said solemnly, "Do you know how many resources the Yefteros harvested after the previous strife? They also obtained the primitive inscriptions of countless races. The Yefteros' resources are beyond your imagination.

"Back then, the losing side's powerhouses were imprisoned, whereas the weaker ones were killed. The Four Ancient Races divided the loots. However, the resources split amongst us three races were not even ten percent of what the Yefteros obtained."

James listened carefully.

Talvelai sighed and said, "Although the outsiders say that the Four Ancient Races rule the Dark World, the Yefteros have been secretly maintaining their dominance. All this while, the Yefteros had been attacking major races and rising forces in the Dark World. The Glacies and Shadows were their victims.

James asked, "What if we get the Shadows on our side?"

Talvelai shook his head and said, "The Shadows used to dominate the Dark World at one point. Their leader had even claimed to be the Dark World's Lord before. However, they maintained a low profile after they were targeted. They became secretive, and their great commander is mysterious. Even I have no idea what kind of living being he is, so how will you contact him and win him over?"

James replied, "Naturally, I have my ways to contact him. I'll get the Shadows to join the operation. All I need now is for you to agree to join me."

"I can help you, but I can't get the Mevryees involved," said Talvelai.

Talvelai wanted to destroy the Yefteros more than anything. The Yefteros had been dominating the Dark World for such a long time. It was about time the Dark World had a new dynamic. However, he was aware of the Yefteros' terrifying strength. He was not willing to risk the entire race in this attempt to wipe out the Yefteros. Therefore, he decided to take action personally. After all, he could change his appearance and aura. Even if the operation failed, it would not be a problem for him to escape with his cultivation rank.

James stood up and said, "Then it's settled. I've already instructed the other powerhouses to stand by near the Yefteros' territory. You should do so as well.

When the time is right, I'll head over and meet up with you guys. Then, we'll discuss the details of our operation."

"Alright." Talvelai nodded lightly.

James stood up, clasped his hands, and said, "I'll take my leave first."

After speaking, James turned around and left.

Talvelai's brows furrowed after James was out of sight. He turned to Yuvin and asked, "What do you think?"

Yuvin said, "James is well prepared. Even if he can't destroy the Yefteros, this operation will cause huge damage to them. When that happens, we can join forces with the Suuntelis and Zoltrumms to finally get rid of the Yefteos. Then, the three of us can share the Yefteros' resources."

"James sure is unpredictable. I would've never imagined him to have gathered so many powerhouses within such a short period to deal with the Yefteros."

Talvelai took a deep breath and said, "Don't let the word about me leaving seclusion leak. I'll assist James with this operation and see what he can do. At the same time, I'll try to obtain more information about Yefteros' strength. If the operation fails, it will be useful when we decide to deal with the Yefteros in the future."

"Understood." Yuvin nodded respectfully.

Talvelai quietly left the Mevryees' territory.

Meanwhile, James contacted Quattro in the Central Plane after leaving the Mevryees' territory.

"How's it going over there, Quattro? Has Halianor shown up?"
