The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5576-ames located Stephen and then teleported to an uninhabited spiritual mountain.

The universe where the spiritual mountain was located was relatively weak.

However, many new spiritual mountains formed after James merged the countless planes into one.

James appeared outside the area where Stephen was in seclusion. He could sense Stephen's powerful aura was at the peak of the Martial Celestial Rank.

At that moment, Stephen was pushing to enter the Holy Celestial Rank. His aura kept improving, and he was already at the threshold of the next rank.

"This guy..." James was astonished after sensing Stephen's aura. He never expected the disciple he took in before leaving the Endlos Plane to have such rapid improvements.

acquire many boons and treasures. Yet, he was only at the Martial Celestial Rank's early stage.

Stephen, on the other hand, had reached the Martial Celestial Rank's late stage and was already close to breaking into the Holy Celestial Rank.

James waited outside the spiritual mountain, not wanting to disrupt Stephen's cultivation process.

Stephen cultivated within a time formation. He encountered no obstacles and easily made a breakthrough.

After entering the Holy Celestial Rank, he detected James' aura nearby. He immediately dispersed the formation and teleported over to James.

Stephen greeted him respectfully, "Master." James looked at Stephen with a satisfied smile and said, "Very good. You entered the Holy Celestial Rank within such a short period. You're the most talented cultivator I've encountered. I've never seen anyone enter the Holy Celestial Rank within such a short time."

Stephen replied humbly, 'You're flattering me, Master.

Although I've entered the Holy Celestial Rank, I'm still very lacking compared to you. I can't possibly merge all of the planes into a superplane."

"How is your mastery of the Genesis Path Scripture?" James changed the topic.

As a disciple of James, Stephen naturally inherited the Genesis Path Scripture.

Stephen replied, "I'm almost proficient."

James went straight to the point.

"I came to teach you the updated Genesis Path Scripture. After you master it, you can cultivate the new world's Genesis Path. Then, you can become the new world's lord and use its powers."

"Huh?" Stephen was startled. He asked puzzledly, "W-What do you mean by this, Master?" James replied smilingly, "I'll be leaving the new world for a while. The new world can't be without a leader. I'm worried the Dark World's powerhouses will attack, so I plan to leave you in charge. You're already at the Holy Celestial Rank, so if you can control the new world's powers, you'll be able to resist even the Dark World's strongest cultivators."

Stephen asked excitedly, "Are you serious? You're letting me be the new world's lord?"

'Yeah." James nodded lightly.

"Thank you, Master. I'll protect the new plane by all means! Speaking of which, the new world hasn't been named yet, right? Do you have anything in mind?"

James thought awhile and answered, "Let's call it Endlos."

"Alright." Stephen nodded.

James then began teaching Stepehn the upgraded Genesis Path Scripture.

Stephen's comprehension abilities were exceptional. Since he had already learned the previous Genesis Path Scripture, he also comprehended the new version very quickly.

Afterward, James taught him the new Endlos Plane's Genesis Path.

The new Endlos Plane's Genesis Path was born from the fusion of countless planes and was very magical. It was really hard for ordinary living beings to master.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5577-With James' guidance, Stephen quickly understood the Genesis Path of the new Endlos Plane.

James explained to Stephen in great detail. He planned to leave for the Prison World after Stephen completely took control of the new Endlos Plane.

Meanwhile, a storm was brewing in the Dark World.

The Yefteros had sealed off their spiritual mountain and ignored the Dark World's affairs for some time. In the past battle, they had suffered heavy losses and were no longer qualified to rule the Dark World. The various races were no longer afraid of them.

In the Yeftero World, a ray of light descended from the sky outside the Yefteros' spiritual mountain.

The light gathered and formed into a young man in a black robe. His face was charming but abnormally grim.

After looking at the Yefteros' sealed spiritual mountain for a while, he approached and passed through the formation. Soon, he arrived at the Yefteros' main hall.

At that moment, many of the Yefteros' powerhouses were gathered inside the main hall.

The Yefteros' Leader, Hacathra, and Grand Patriarch, Naveen, were also present.

The young man walked into the hall and immediately became the center of attention.

"Your Highness!"

The Yefteros' powerhouses cried out with joy.

"Xayvion!" Hacathra leaped to his feet and let out a delighted cackle, "Haha! You're back! Good!"

Although Hacathra was rejoicing, his laughter contained hints of hostility. He had been suppressing his anger ever since returning from the Central Plane. There was nothing he could do, and he could only watch helplessly as the other races took over the territory that used to belong to the Yefteros.

Now that Xayvion was back, it was finally time for them to strike back. He wanted to obliterate the races that took over their territories and seize the new superplane.

Naveen's face also lit up after seeing Xayvion. He said happily, "I'm glad you're back. Now that you've returned, we can finally discuss our revenge plan."

"Father..." Xayvion's eyes reddened, and he fell to his knees. He said sorrowfully, "I'm so useless. I failed to protect our race. It's my fault so many lives were lost and for the great damage inflicted upon our race."

Hacathra helped Xayvion to his feet and said grimly, "We'll take back what we lost. Everyone who tried to obliterate us will die."

Xayvion's face darkened, and a hostile aura emerged from his body.

In the previous battle, he fell into their trap because he was careless.

He would have been able to suppress the four opponents at the Quasi Bliss Rank if he had been more cautious.

Now that he had recovered and was back, it was time for revenge. He was not going to let anyone who had participated in the operation to exterminate the Yefteros live.

Naveen stood up and said, "Now that Xayvion's back, let's discuss how we'll go about attacking the Central Plane."

Hacathra looked at Naveen and asked, "Do you have something in mind, Sir Naveen? Should we take action ourselves or ask the other Primevals to join us?"

Naven said coldly, "I want to find out which races are still loyal to us and which have already rebelled."

Hacathra immediately understood his words. He quickly ordered, "Send out invitations to all of the Dark World's races to gather in our world for an important discussion. Wipe out the races that refuse to participate."

Hacathra turned to Xayvion and said, "You should send the invitations to the more powerful races. Destroy those that decline."

"Understood." Xayvion nodded.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5578-Xayvion had returned to the Yefteros.

In the previous battle, he was seriously injured and almost died. After his narrow escape, he had been recuperating. It was not until recently that he had completely recovered.

Xayvion was eager for revenge and to take back everything they had lost.

The Yefteros' powerhouses were dispatched, carrying invitations to the Dark World's different races. Xayvion was in charge of visiting the more powerful races.

The Heavenly Secrets Pavilion immediately caught wind of the Yefteros' movements and conveyed the news to James.

At that moment, James was still guiding Stephen in cultivating the new Endlos Plane's Genesis Path.

Although Stepehn successfully learned the new Genesis Path Scripture, it was not easy for him to master the new Endlos Plane's Genesis Path so quickly.

After James received the message from the Heavenly Secrets Pavilion, his brows furrowed, but soon a faint smile formed on his face.

Xayvion's survival was definitely a serious problem. Without Xayvion, the Yefteros would be helpless and would lose their position as the Dark World's rulers.

“You must be careful, James. The Yeferos have already sent out invitations to the Dark World’s different races for a meeting in their world. I’m sure the meeting will be about the Central Plane. After all, the Central Plane is now really powerful.” “Alright, thanks.” James nodded lightly.

James wanted to leave for the Prison World but was worried Xayvion would attack. Now that Xayvion had returned, the Yeferos had sprung into action.

Since things had already progressed, James decided to take the opportunity to eliminate Xayvions and completely destroy the Yeferos.

Previously, James led countless powerhouses to the Yeferos’ headquarters.

Back then, they killed many of the Yeferos’ powerhouses.

The Yeferos were no longer a huge threat.

The Yeferos only had three powerhouses at the Quasi Bliss Rank now. Even if there was a peerless powerhouse like Xayvion amongst them, it was futile.

Many of the powerhouses in the new world had benefited from the fusion of the countless planes.

Quattro, Xeraiah, and the others had an improvement in their cultivation ranks.

James frowned and murmured, “It’s a pity Qiyana left with Qairo. I must request them to return before the Yeferos lead the Dark World’s Primevals to launch an attack on the new Endlos Plane. I need their help protecting the Endlos Plane and destroying the Yeferos once and for all.”

He immediately used an inscription to contact Qiyana.

Soon, Qiyana’s voice resounded in his mind.

“What’s the matter?”

James explained, “The Yeferos have taken action. They have contacted the Dark World’s major races. It won’t be long before they attack the new Endlos Plane. It’s the perfect opportunity to wipe them out. I need you to come back with Qairo to help me.”

After leaving the new Endlos Plane, Qiyana had been racking her brains for a way to destroy the Four Ancient Races. Now that an opportunity to obliterate the Yefteros had come by, she would not miss it.

Although she was slightly unsatisfied with James, she was not going to give up the chance to destroy the Four Ancient Races. After obtaining James' whereabouts, she rushed to the Endlos Plane with Qairo.

Immediately afterward, James contacted the Shadowers' Great Commander, Jurryt.

'The time has come. I need the Shadowers' help. Bring some powerhouse to the Endlos Plane and meet up with me.'

Naturally, the Shadowers have been watching the Yefteros' every move. Thus, Jurryt was aware of the Yefteros' recent movements. It was obvious James was asking for help because he was worried.

It was in Jurryt's best interest to help James. After all, he had a grudge against the Four Ancient Race and a few of the Dark World's major races.

James wanted to borrow the Shadowers' hands to deal with the Dark World's Primevals and the Yefteros. Jurryt also wanted to take advantage of James' force to destroy the Yefteros.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5579-Jurryt agreed to help James without any hesitation. Then, he quickly ordered Saeylla to lead the Shadowers' powerhouses to the Endlos Plane.

Next, James contacted Yered and asked him to rush to the Endlos Plane.

All the powerhouses who had previously united against the Yefteros received James' call for help.

After getting in touch with everyone, James looked at Stephen, who was in a cultivating.

"Stephen, I have to take my leave first. You continue practicing at ease. No matter what happens outside, don't leave before you completely master the new Endlos Plane's Genesis Path." After leaving a reminder, James left hurriedly.

The next moment, James appeared in the Dieux Academy.

Many of the Dieux Academy's powerhouses had benefited after the planes were merged. Some cultivators stuck on a cultivation rank for a long time also successfully made breakthroughs into the Holy Celestial Rank.

Lemuel, who was previously at the Holy Celestial Rank's middle stage, was also blessed and successfully reached the Holy Celestial Rank's Consummation. He was only one step away from entering the Quasi Bliss Rank. Even so, reaching the rank would take a lot of work.

At that moment, Lemuel was in seclusion at the Dieux Academy's back mountain. Suddenly, a figure appeared in front of him.

"Why are you here, James?" Lemuel quickly stood up, looked at James and said smilingly, "You should be rather busy after successfully merging the outside planes. What brings you to the Dieux Academy?" James said straightforwardly, "I received news about Xayvion's return. The Yefteros had been inactive for a while, but they've suddenly started sending out invitations for a meeting. It's evident their topic of discussion is the new world."

Lemuel asked solemnly, "Don't tell me you came to ask for my help?"

"Of course. Why else would I come to see you?" James replied calmly.

Lemuel waved his hand and said, "I don't want to get involved."

He knew how strong Xayvion was.

Even while injured, Xayvion escaped from four peerless powerhouses-Qairo, Talvelai, the Shadowers' Great Commander, and Yered from the Flammae. Even with such a powerful party, they still failed to kill Xayvion.

Now that Xayvion had returned safely and was preparing for revenge, it was going to be a bloody battle.

James said calmly, "It's a war between the new Endlos Plane and the Dark World. If we lose, we're all going to die."

Lemuel's face became increasingly solemn.

Despite how grave the situation sounded, James had a relaxed expression. He said calmly, "After the new suplerplane formed, many of our powerhouses have made breakthroughs in their cultivation ranks. If the Yefteros attack, they won't be able to leave."

"Huff," Lemuel sighed and said helplessly, "It seems I don't have a choice." James replied, "Unfortunately, not. You stay in the Dieux Academy and have your powerhouses on standby. Once the Yefteros appear, immediately launch a counterattack." After leaving some instructions, James returned to the Elysium Hall.

Quattro was in charge of the Elysium Hall. As soon as James arrived, he heard the flirtatious chuckles of a group of women coming from the main hall.

James entered the main hall and saw Quattro surrounded by some women.

After sensing James' presence, the women quickly left frantically.

Quattro sat in the highest seat, looked at James, and said calmly, 'You're back?'

James looked at him disapprovingly and said, "How can the Elysium Hall's Master behave like this?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5580-ames caught Quattro fooling around with women after he returned to the Elysium Hall and did not hide his dissatisfaction with the behavior.

"General." Quattro rushed over with a smile. He giggled and said, "I had some free time and wanted to teach my disciples."

"Get ready. The Yefteros will launch an attack on us very soon," said James.

"What?"

Quattro stomped his feet and said angrily, "It seems the Yefteros haven't learned their lesson. I'll make sure they don't escape this time!"

James reminded him, "Don't be careless. Although your cultivation rank and strength have improved, the Yefteros are being meticulous. They've sent out invitations to the other races to gather for a meeting in their world."

"Don't worry! As long as I'm here, nothing will go wrong," Quattro vowed confidently.

“You stay in the Elysium Hall for now. I’ll travel to the Dark World and figure out the situation.”

“Come back, my ladies.”

As soon as James left, Quattro sat down leisurely in his seat. With a call, the beautiful women who had left a few moments ago returned.

James left the Endlos Plane and immediately contacted Talvelai of the Mevryees.

“Mr. Talvelai, did the Yefteros send the Mevryees an invitation?”

Soon, Talvelai’s voice resounded in James’ mind.

“Yeah. I just received the invitation and am preparing to depart for the Yefteros.

The Yefteros are making a huge scene this time. They’ve invited the Dark World’s different races to their world, claiming that there was something important to discuss. It must be about the Central Plane.”

James replied, “I know. I’m preparing to head to the Yeftero World to learn more about the situation.”

Talvelai refuted his idea, saying, “Don’t. If they catch you, there’s no way you’ll be leaving alive.”

“It’s fine,” James said calmly.

James benefited greatly after fusing all the planes, and his physical body was at the Quasi Bliss Rank.

With just his physical strength, he could withstand the attack of an opponent at the Quasi Bliss Rank.

James was confident he would be fine.

“I’ll be leaving for the Yefteros soon. Let’s meet up there.”

After a brief conversation with Talvelai, James teleported into the Dark World.

With a Boundarybreaker Rune, he rapidly traveled through the darkness. A Boundarybreaker Rune allowed him to travel to an extremely distant area in just a short moment.

Soon, James arrived outside the Yeftero World. He floated in the void and looked at the restored world before him. He smiled and murmured, "It seems we failed to completely destroy their world and gave them a chance to restore it."

James changed his appearance into a vicious-looking and burly man dressed in a black robe with a grumpy look. At the same time, he changed his aura.

After completing the disguise, James strode toward the Yeftero World, which was no longer the prosperous world it was before the attack.

The Yefteros had sent out invitations to the Dark World's various races, requesting them to attend a meeting.

Although many of the Yefteros' powerhouses were killed and their status had declined, several powerhouses still survived. Xayvion alone was enough to intimidate the Dark World's races.

Therefore, the different races quickly sent powerhouses to the Yeftero World after receiving invitations.

Even those who had competed over the Yefteros' abandoned territories obediently showed up.

The Yefteros wanted to use the opportunity to get rid of some races to restore their authority over the Dark World. However, they did not have the chance.

This was the first time since the attack that the Yeftero World was so lively.

Powerhouses from different races gathered in the Yeftero World. Even some who had not received invitations had rushed over for entertainment.

Everyone was curious to see what the Yefteros were up to
