

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5585

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5585-Xayvion offered benefits to the other races, hoping they would dispatch all their forces.

The powerhouses began to discuss in hushed voices.

“The Yefteros must have a deep hatred for James and are desperate to destroy him.”

‘The primitive inscriptions James possesses are valuable. It’s quite a fair deal.”

“It seems I’ll have to request my Grand Patriarch to participate in this operation.”

The powerhouses expressed their opinions.

James hid amongst the crowd, paying attention to the meeting. He never expected the Yefteros to announce to give up the loot.

The benefits were tempting enough for all of these races to take action. Even if they were unwilling, they wanted to avoid offending the Yefteros. Otherwise, the Yefteros would want their revenge in the future.

The other races were more willing to participate now that the Yefteros were letting go of the benefits.

Talvelai’s expression became solemn, not expecting the Yefteros to be so generous.

Xayvion hovered in the void and said, “We need a commander for this operation. Who does everyone think is suitable for the role?”

“Commander?”

‘Who’s suitable?”

“Hmm...”

The powerhouses began communicating amongst themselves.

From their perspective, someone from the Yeferos should be the commander.

However, it was evident the Yeferos were trying to avoid the role. Everyone was puzzled, wondering what the Yeferos were up to.

They forfeited the benefits and were now giving up their position as commanders.

Their actions were quite abnormal.

Xayvion looked at Talvelai and said, "I think Talvelai from the Mevryees is a good fit."

'What do you think, Talvelai?'

Talvelai was surprised that Yeferos suggested he take on the position of commander. He knew the Yeferos were up to no good. It was likely the Yeferos wanted to avoid losing their powerhouses, so they did not want to fight in the forefront.

"Haha," Talvelai chuckled and said, "I'm nobody special. Who am I to take on the role? Let someone else do it."

Regardless of who leads the operation, the Mevryees will give full support."

Xayvion looked at the Suuntelis and said smilingly, "If I remember correctly, the Suuntelis' Grand Patriarch is still alive. In the past strife, he was already a peerless powerhouse. He must've reached great heights in his cultivation. How about the Suuntelis lead this operation?"

James hid amongst the crowd and watched the meeting take place.

After understanding the overall situation, James left. He wanted to head back and prepare for the war.

The Dark World would be attacking with full force, planning to obliterate him and seize control over the Central Plane.

He was unclear about how many hidden powerhouses were at the Quasi Bliss Rank in the Dark World.

The battle was going to be intense.

After the meeting was over, the different powerhouses dispersed. They returned to their headquarters and assembled powerhouses to prepare for the attack on the Central Plane.

Shortly after James left, Talvelai met with him somewhere in a dark zone.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5586-James and Talvelai met up in a desolate area of the Dark World.

Talvelai looked at James and said solemnly, "I'm afraid the battle will be fierce."

"The Yefteros have given up so many benefits. The other races will definitely go all out. It will not be an easy hurdle for you and the Central Plane to overcome." "Yeah," James nodded lightly and said, "I'm well aware. I have to head back and make immediate preparations. I'll try to intercept the Dark World's powerhouses outside the plane. I don't want the battle to reach the Central Plane."

Talvelai looked at him and asked, "How confident are you?"

After briefly thinking about it, James replied, "I'm not very confident. It depends on how many powerhouses are hidden amongst the Dark World's various races."

"I'll surely win if the Dark World's overall strength is as on the surface. However, the odds will change if many hidden powerhouses show up."

"What do you need me to do?" asked Talvelai.

James answered, "You continue hiding for now. During a critical moment of the battle, I need you to inflict severe damage on one of the Yefteros' powerhouses."

"Since the Yefteros are the initiators, I doubt the other races will go all out. The battle will end once we kill one of the Yefteros' main forces."

"Alright." Talvelai nodded.

"I'll take my leave." James bid farewell and disappeared into the darkness. The next moment, he appeared in another dark space. He took out some Boundarybreaker Runes and traveled rapidly.

Soon, he arrived back in the Central Plane.

Many powerhouses gathered inside the Elysium Hall's main hall.

Xeraiah also stayed in the Elysium Hall to obtain firsthand information about the Dark World's situation.

The Heavenly Secrets Pavilion had already conveyed the situation of the Dark World. Thus, Xeraiah and the many powerhouses in the Elysium Hall knew the details.

James looked at the powerhouses in the main hall.

Qiyana had returned with Qairo. The Shadowers' Great Commander, Jurryt, was also present. In addition, he brought Saeylla and some other powerful subordinates.

"James," the powerhouses in the hall greeted him.

"You're back, General!" Quattro stood up from the highest seat. He offered his seat to James, saying while smiling, "Please have a seat."

James walked over and sat down. He looked at Qairo and asked, "You fought against Xayvion before, so you should know about his strength, right? With your current strength, what are your chances of defeating him?"

Previously, four powerhouses joined forces to attack Xayvion. However, their attempt failed.

Qairo received a blessing after the countless planes were merged. Even though his cultivation rank had not changed, his strength had improved significantly.

After briefly thinking about it, Qairo replied, "I have a rough understanding of his strength. If I fight him now, it should be a fifty-fifty chance. I might be slightly weaker than him, even. However, it's not a wide gap. Even if I can't kill him, he won't be able to obliterate me either."

James nodded lightly, looked at Xeraiah, and asked, "What about you?"

Xeraiah said thoughtfully, "I've never fought him, but I've sensed his aura. We should be on equal standing. Even if I'm weaker, I doubt I'm that far off from him. If I join forces with Qairo, we can suppress him."

James had a solemn expression. Even after Qairo and Xeraiah's strength improved, they were still unable to take down Xayvion alone. They had to work together just to suppress him. Killing Xayvion proved to be much more difficult than he thought.

James sat in the highest seat. He scanned and compared the powerhouses gathered in the hall to the Dark World's forces.

After a brief evaluation, James concluded he had a good chance of winning.

As long as many of the Yefteros' powerhouses were wiped out, the other races would withdraw their troops out of fear.

"Alright, everyone's dismissed. Go prepare and wait for our enemies to strike."

James waved his hand.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5587

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5587-James disappeared from the spot. The next moment, he appeared at the intersection of the plane and the Dark World. He summoned some magical inscriptions from the plane and gathered them into a powerful formation.

The inscriptions were of the new plane's Genesis Path.

Even a powerhouse at the Quasi Bliss Rank could not forcibly break the formation. Only those proficient in the new plane's Genesis Path could shatter the formation.

With the formation, James would not have to worry about the new plane shattered when the battle broke out.

Immediately afterward, several cities appeared at the plane's border.

James' voice resounded throughout the entire plane.

"Everyone in the new world. I've got an announcement to make. Our world is about to be attacked. I'd like to ask for the support of all powerhouses to resist the Dark World's powerhouses."

“Cultivators above the Martial Celestial Rank, please head to the plane’s border immediately and prepare for the impending war.”

The powerhouses in the new plane heard the call for help. They immediately set off to the cities on the plane’s border.

Meanwhile, Hetsema assembled several of the Human Universe’s powerhouses and departed.

The humans played a huge part in helping James merge the various planes.

Thus, the Human Race benefited significantly, and their cultivation ranks improved significantly. Many of them had entered the Martial Celestial Rank.

Even some humans that had yet to reach the Martial Celestial Rank traveled to the cities on the plane’s borders.

Concurrently, Lemuel also led many of the Dieux Academy’s powerhouses to the cities.

The new world had entered an emergency state. Many powerhouses gathered in the border cities of the plane, waiting for the Dark World’s army to strike.

James sat down on a rock atop a spiritual mountain of one of the cities. From his position, he could see the Dark World in the distance.

He observed the Dark World with a calm expression. Now, all that was left was to wait for the Dark World’s powerhouses to show up.

James was well prepared and had many powerhouses on his side.

Moreover, he had the new world’s powers. He could even fight against a powerhouse at the Quasi Bliss Rank’s peak with the new world’s Genesis Path.

James knew Xayvion’s strength. He had a fifty-fifty chance against Xayvion if he used the new world’s Genesis Path. However, if Qairo and Xeraiah could hold Xayvion off, he could deal with the other powerhouse of the Yefteros.

He still had other trump cards and was sure the Yefteros would be wary. The powerhouse of the Yefteros, which he had trapped last time, was sealed away in a storage treasure.

“General!” A furry human walked over and stopped next to James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5588-Quattro appeared, beaming with a bright smile.

James immediately sensed that Quattro was up to no good. He looked at Quattro and asked calmly, “What’s the matter?” Quattro walked over, sat beside James, and said, “It’s nothing, really. But you see, we’re going to war very soon. Whether or not we secure this plane is not guaranteed. You’ve mastered so many Supernatural Powers and primitive inscriptions, so why don’t you give me some? It’ll be easier for me to help you protect this world if my cultivation rank improves.” James looked at him and asked, “What do you want to learn?”

Quattro replied seriously, ‘The Genesis Path of the new world. If you teach it to me, I’ll help you keep control over this world.’

Before James went to Stephen, Quattro was his first candidate as the new world’s lord.

However, Quattro has proven to be quite unreliable. James was worried that Quattro would become uncontrollable and decided he was unfit to rule.

“Maybe another time,” James replied casually, trying to brush him off.

‘You should head back and get ready. You’ll be very important in this fight.’

Quattro’s expression was unnatural, evidently displeased to not have his request fulfilled. However, he still replied obediently, “Alright.”

After the conversation ended, Quattro left.

James sat down on a rock, closed his eyes, and rested.

Time passed day by day.

Meanwhile, the Dark World’s various forces were busy assembling their troops.

Many hidden powerhouses of the different races had shown up. The primitive inscriptions James had snatched from the Yefteros and the Central Plane’s resources were too tempting. Everyone was eager to share a piece of the pie.

Many flying battleships appeared in the Dark World. The powerhouses and elite fights of the different races were on board.

The Suuntelis' battleship was at the forefront. The Suuntelis led the attack on the Central Plane, and the commander in charge was their Grand Patriarch.

The leaders of the various races were gathered in the battleship's main hall. In the highest seat was an elderly man.

The elderly man wore a black robe and looked energetic. He was a powerhouse of the Suuntelis. He had already reached the Holy Celestial Rank's Consummation during the Dark World's past strife. After being in seclusion for so long, he entered the Quasi Bliss Rank.

He left seclusion and agreed to lead the other race's powerhouses to conquer the Central Plane because he was confident.

"Attention." The elderly man scanned the powerhouses in the hall and said solemnly, "This operation is not child's play. Don't be careless, and always listen to my command. If we work together, killing James and seizing the Central Plane will be very easy."

Hacathra stepped forward and said smilingly, "Of course. The Yefteros will fully obey your command."

Seeing that even the Yefteros' leader had complied, the other race's leaders also agreed to obey the Suuntelis' command.

Talvelai smiled faintly at the scene.

The battleships advanced rapidly through the darkness. Wherever they passed, a powerful aura would cause tremors throughout the void.

Right after the battleships passed, the void would completely collapse.

Soon, the battleship had arrived near the Central Plane's border.

"Stop." The Suuntelis' Grand Patriarch raised his hand and motioned for the battleship to halt.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5589-The flying battleships stopped.

The Suuntelis' Grand Patriarch stepped outside to the deck. Looking at the plane in the distance, he could sense the formation guarding it.

The other powerhouses followed after him and also detected the formation.

Everyone's eyes fixed on the Xayvion.

Xayvion looked at them and said calmly, "What are you guys looking at me for?"

Sir Halbrinn is the commander. He calls the shots."

Talvelai looked at the Suuntelis' Grand Patriarch and asked smilingly, "What should we do now, Sir? Should we attack the formation?"

Halbrinn looked around and said, "We've arrived at the Central Plane's border.

Any volunteers to lead a team to attack the formation?" Nobody responded to him.

"What's the matter? Is nobody willing to take action?" Halbrinn said coldly, "Do my words have no power? Is nobody going to listen to my command?"

None of the powerhouses spoke because they did not want to be in the forefront.

In the cities of the Central Plane's borders, many powerhouses were gathered, At that moment, James, Qairo, Xeraiah, Yered, and some other powerhouses were together.

James looked at the flying battleships in the distance and said, 'They're here.

Get ready to fight." The powerhouses present immediately went on standby, waiting for the Dark Army to attack. Once the Dark Army struck, they would immediately counterattack.

James disappeared from the city. The next moment, he appeared outside the formation. He stood in the dark void, staring at the powerhouses on the battleships in the distance.

Despite being faced with countless powerhouses, he remained calm and shouted, "Are you guys here as guests? This is quite a grand entrance."

After speaking, James secretly contacted Talvelai through an inscription.

“Mr. Talvelai, how many are at the Quasi Bliss Rank?”

After hearing James’ voice, Talvelai immediately activated the inscriptions and replied, “From what I sense, there’s about twenty of them. A few of them are powerful.”

James’ face became solemn.

“Look for an opportunity to deal a fatal blow to Xayvion. Even if you can’t kill him, weaken his combat effectiveness before the battle breaks out.”

To James, the other enemies at the Quasi Bliss Rank were not much of a threat.

Xayvion was the most terrifying opponent.

“You...” Talvelai said helplessly, “If I attack him, I’ll be making enemies out of the Dark World’s major races.”

James replied, “So what? After this battle, the Yefteros will cease to exist. The Mevryees can use the opportunity to rise. After the Yefteros are gone, what can the other races do to the Mevryees?”

Talvelai did not refute him anymore. He looked around and finally rested his eyes on Xayvion. He approached and said smilingly, “You’re the strongest here, Xayvion. I think you should lead the attack.” Afterward, Talvelai looked at Halbrinn and suggested, “You should send Xayvion out to test the formation’s strength.” Xayvion’s face immediately darkened.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5590

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5590-Talvelai wanted the situation chaotic, so he deliberately suggested Xayvion take the lead in testing the Central Plane’s formation.

However, Xayvion seemed unwilling.

Halbrinn looked at Xayvion and asked smilingly, “You’re indeed the strongest here. How about you give it a try?”

Xayvion was on a fence.

Ultimately, someone had to take the lead. Previously, James led countless powerhouses to the Yefteros and killed many of their members. Now, the other races were wary and refused to take action rashly.

Xayvion knew he needed to ignite their fighting spirits.

Under everyone's gaze, Xayvion stepped out of the battleship. He took a few steps in the void and stopped where he could see James eye to eye.

"Stop right there!" James shouted, "If you continue forward, you'll be trespassing the new Endlos Plane. If you infiltrate, I'll deem you an enemy. We do not tolerate or show mercy to enemies."

"James." Xayvion gritted his teeth. His expression was grim, and he emitted a very hostile aura.

James looked at him and played dumb. "Who are you? Do I know you? Have we met before?"

Behind James were countless cities. Within them were many powerhouses of the former Central Plane and some other planes.

After the superplane formed, they had benefited significantly. Now that their world was in danger, they came to give their support. They paid close attention to the situation outside the plane.

"Is that the Yefteros' young prince, Xayvion?"

"News about the Dark World has been circulating recently. I heard the Xayvion is the strongest in the Dark World."

The powerhouses in the cities discussed.

In the past, there was hardly anything known about the Dark World. After the superplane formed, word about the Dark World had been spread.

The powerhouses of the new Endlos Plane knew a thing or two about the Dark World.

"Xayvion has such a potent aura."

“What’s his cultivation rank?”

Many of the powerhouses were shocked after sensing Xayvion’s aura. They were unable to determine his cultivation rank.

Meanwhile, James hovered in the dark void with his hands behind his back. He looked at Xayvion calmly, showing no fear toward the strongest powerhouse of the Dark World.

To James, the battle could be avoided. He could retreat into the Endlos Plane.

Xayvion would never be able to break the formation to enter the Endlos Plane.

However, James decided to fight because he wanted the Dark World to fear them. It would avoid many future problems.

It was futile no matter how many of the Dark World’s powerhouses showed up.

The battle would be over as long as he killed the Yefteros’ powerhouses.

James acted dumb, pretending not to know anything.

Xayvion was infuriated. His aura grew stronger, and it began to affect the surrounding space. Cracks began to spread out in the void like a spider web, making for a terrifying sight.

Even the powerhouses of the Dark World’s various races were surprised by Xayvion’s aura.

“Hmm? Are you attacking us?”

James said calmly, “The Endlos Plane doesn’t go about causing trouble, but we’re not afraid of anyone either. I advise you to leave as soon as possible, or else...”

James paused, and his face darkened. Then, he looked at Talvelai on the battleship. They had already agreed that Talvelai would look for an opportunity to injure Xayvion.

Xayvion was about to take action, but Talvelai had yet to complete his task. He had already missed the best opportunity to injure Xayvion.

