The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5606-The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5605Stephen appeared and broke through Xayvion's Obsidian Body using a sword resembling the Supremusse Sword.

Now, James could injure Xayvion. James laughed upon seeing Xayvion wounded. He looked at the cold and indifferent Xayvion with a dark expression.

"Xayvion Yeftero, let's have a battle now. I want to see what other Supernatural Signature Skills you've mastered," James' voice echoed.

James was at his peak in the current state. His strength had reached an unimaginable level with the integration of the Tressencia Completare Art and the absorption of the new world's power. Despite his low realm, his current power rivaled that of a true Transcendental Bliss Rank.

Xayvion's face turned unsightly as he wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth. The black longsword in his hand emitted a dark radiance.

At that moment, James made his move. Activating the Blithe Omniscience, he instantly appeared in front of Xayvion and launched a direct attack on him with his sword.

Xayvion raised his black longsword to resist.

James was compelled to retreat under the overwhelming power. The Supremusse Sword in his hand underwent revolutions, causing his arm to tingle and his blood to surge. Xayvion suffered as well. Currently, his physical body was similar to James'. If James was injured, he was also injured.

"Shit!" Xayvion cursed as he swung his sword again, and James once again intercepted the attack.

The power surged uncontrollably, and magical inscriptions flickered in the dark void. Both James and Xayvion unleashed the strongest martial art skills. Each collision and exchange occurred without holding back.

This intense battle left many powerhouses in the dark space frightened.

Through this battle, they realized the existence of the strongest power in the world, a force they had not known before.

Boom! Another clash without holding back. James and Xayvion were both sent flying, then quickly entangled once more. Various Supernatural Signature Skills were continuously unleashed.

James' formation changed in an instant and depicted countless Supernatural Signature Skills. Meanwhile, Xayvion mastered many Primevals' inscriptions and cultivated them to the highest realm. He dealt with James' formations calmly using those numerous inscriptions.

Throughout the battle, Xayvion had one thought in mind, which was to kill James. However, other thoughts began to surface as his Obsidian Body shattered.

Both of them were heavily injured.

At this moment, Xayvion came to the realization that if they continued to battle, it would cost him his life even if he killed James. It would be a scenario where both of them would endure and face the risk of perishing.

This was not what he wanted, at least not now.

"You're really troublesome, brat," Xayvion scolded.

In the distance, James continued to gasp for breath. He was disheveled, covered in scars, and blood soaked his body. He could no longer continuously heal his severely injured body without the Ulu. He could only rely on the Life Power for healing, but that power could not completely heal the injuries caused by this level of battle.

He could see that Xayvion was also heavily injured. James grinned, blood dripping from his mouth. However, he wore a smile and shouted out, "Xayvion Yeftero, I'll drag you down with me even if we die today!" "I'm done playing with you," Xayvion's indifferent voice echoed. "This battle ends here today. I'll come to learn more about your tricks next time."

Xayvion had already considered escaping.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5607-Xayvion did not want to die with James. He vanished with a swift movement.

“Do you think you can escape?” James’ expression darkened.

Stephen shattered the Obsidian Body of Xayvion, and this was the only opportunity to kill him. James was determined to kill Xayvion even if it meant sacrificing his own life.

If Xayvion managed to escape, he could continue to live if James did not pursue him. However, once Xayvion recovered from his injuries and restored the Obsidian Body, James would lose the chance to break through it.

Xayvion fled, and James gave chase. Xayvion’s cultivation was extraordinary, and his speed was rapid. In an instant, he disappeared from the area.

However, James had locked onto his aura and followed it.

Xayvion appeared in an unknown region of the Dark World. James caught up the moment he appeared, the Supremusse Sword in James’ hand transforming into a dazzling Sword Light and pressed towards him.

Xayvion retaliated with a sword.

Boom! Two Sword Energies collided and created terrifying shockwaves.

“Don’t force me, James Caden,” Xayvion roared in a low voice. “Don’t think I’m afraid of you. I just don’t want to waste too much energy.”

“Xayvion Yeftero, you can’t escape this time. It’s either I kill you, or you destroy me,” James replied coldly.

He knew that he might never have another chance if he did not seize the opportunity to kill Xayvion while his Obsidian Body was shattered.

Xayvion must die. Otherwise, he would be a hidden danger to the new world.

‘You damned bastard.’ Xayvion launched another counterattack, forming a terrifying formation with a lift of his hand.

James summoned a formation to counter it. The collision of the two Superformations swept through the dark space, shattering and transforming into countless inscriptions.

“He’s so formidable.” Overwhelmed by the powerful force, Xayvion was instantly counter-attacked and suffered injuries. A mouthful of blood sprayed out as shock and horror surged through his heart.

Currently, he was exceptionally strong in the darkness, possessing the strength of the Transcendental Bliss Rank even though he had not reached that rank.

Despite this, he could not escape when facing James.

“James Caden, chase me if you dare.” Leaving behind these words, Xayvion disappeared from his original spot.

Under James’ perception, Xayvion’s aura continued to fade and showed signs of disappearing from this timeline.

‘This brat.’ James’ expression changed slightly as he sensed it. He fell into contemplation. After a moment, he decided to pursue Xayvion.

In an instant, Xayvion broke through, entered, and moved against the River of Time. James followed closely, entering the River of Time as it tore open.

“Haha...” In the River of Time, Xayvion’s mad laughter echoed, “James Caden, I’ve refined and absorbed the Karma Power. Now, I can ignore karma. I’m not afraid of it, no matter which era I go to. However, you’re different. You’ll be devoured by karma as you follow me.”

Xayvion’s laughter resounded in James’ ears.

“Hmph!” James snorted. Sword Light transformed from the Supremusse Sword in his hand, sweeping against the River of Time. It slashed towards Xayvion and instantly landed on him.

Xayvion forcefully endured the Sword Energy. A bloody wound appeared on his back, and his flesh and blood were cut away, revealing a scene of white bones.

The intense pain from his back filled Xayvion’s face with anger. However, he swiftly escaped against the River of Time instead of counterattacking.

As they approached the end of time, the Karma Power grew stronger. However, Xayvion could ignore the Karma Power since he had refined it. Specifically, he could resist rather than completely ignore the Karma Power.

Meanwhile, James had cultivated the Karma Path and would not fear ordinary karma. He did not give up on the chase and was determined to kill Xayvion no matter where he fled.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5608-In a certain region of the Dark World, two groups of living beings gathered. One side was various races from the Dark World, while the other side was the powerhouses from the New Endlos Plane.

The auras of both James and Xayvion had disappeared from this area, faded from this space, and vanished from this era.

“Have they entered the River of Time?”

“Xayvion’s Obsidian Body was shattered. He was forced to escape into the River of Time, and James pursued him. Who knows when this battle will conclude.”

The powerhouses gathered in this place were whispering among themselves.

Suddenly, both groups of living beings exchanged glances, and the scene fell silent.

“Fight, come on!”

A sudden voice pierced the silence, interrupting the quiet atmosphere. Everyone turned to see a black piggy shouting at the top of his lungs.

At the same time, a powerful aura emanated from him. He seemed ready to act, but no one in the surrounding area made a move.

He raised his hands and then lowered them. Scratching his head, he grinned foolishly, “Why isn’t anyone fighting?”

“What’s the point of fighting?” someone replied.

“Yeah, how can we fight when James and Xayvion have entered the River of Time and left this era?”

“When will this battle ever end if we keep fighting?”

“Let’s just go home.”

The various races from the Dark World and the living beings from the New Endlos Plane were no longer interested in fighting. The strongest powerhouses had already left, and continuing the battle would only result in mutual harm.

Most living beings had lost their will to fight. However, the Suunteli Race was unwilling to retreat.

“What? Are you scared?” said Halbrinn, the injured Suunteli Race Grand Patriarch who was attacked by the Mevryee Race. His expression was darkened. “The strongest powerhouse from the Central Plane has already left.

We have a great chance of winning this battle. Everyone, let’s join forces and eliminate the Central Plane.”

“Sure, I’ll accompany you,” said Qairo as he glanced at Halbrinn. He wore a somber expression and said coldly, “I’ll eliminate you first.”

In an instant, Qairo appeared in front of Halbrinn, who was hit before he could react. A powerful force enveloped him, and he could not resist. Overwhelmed by this force, he perished without putting up any resistance.

Qairo’s strength was formidable, and an ordinary Quasi Bliss Rank powerhouse Qairo’s attack, he did not even have a chance to resist before being extinguished.

The various races from the Dark World were in fear after Qairo killed Halbrinn, a Quasi Bliss Rank powerhouse.

“Except for the Four Ancient Races from the Dark World, the other races should go away...” Qairo swept his gaze around. As his eyes moved over, the various races of the Dark World quickly retreated in fear.

Xayvion fled, James pursued, and now Qairo represented the strongest fighting force in the current Dark World.

Talvelai stepped forward and said, “Brat, it wasn’t my lineage who were involved when the Mevryees participated in the extermination of the Glaciem Race back then. Those who participated in the extermination of the Glacies have long been cleaned up by me.”

Qairo glanced at Talvelai without saying much. As he looked at the remaining powerhouses from the Yeftero, the Suunteli, and the Zoltrumm Race, he spoke word by word, ” The grievances of the past are now time to settle.”

Other races did not dare to utter a single word. Qairo alone could take on several Quasi Bliss Rank powerhouses at once, and they did not dare to offend him. They quickly withdrew, leaving only the living beings from the few ancient races.

“Do you want me to take action?” Xeraiah looked at Qairo.

“I’ll deal with my own race’s matters,” Qairo replied arrogantly. He pointed at the powerhouses from the Yeftero, the Suunteli, and the Zoltrumm Race, and said, “Don’t say I didn’t give you a chance. Let’s have a battle all together.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5609-At this moment, Qairo exuded dominance. A formidable aura emanated from him, crushing the air and causing the distant powerhouses of various races to gasp. They knew that the Ancient Races were done, and a major reshuffling was about to occur in the Dark World.

With Xayvion fleeing, there was no one within the Four Ancient Races that could match Qairo. Moreover, Qairo had several powerhouses beside him, including one who stood above him. No one dared to act recklessly.

Many powerhouses from three of the Four Ancient Races wore grim expressions.

Hacathra Yeftero, the Yeftero Race’s leader, looked at the various powerhouses from different races who had retreated to a distance and could not help but scold, “A bunch of useless fools! Do you think that by not participating now, the Central Plane will spare you after we’re annihilated?”

Qairo casually remarked, “I can’t control the matters of the Central Plane. I’m here only to seek justice for my ancestors.”

Qairo only sought revenge.

At this moment, Xeraiah stepped forward and said, "James is not here. I can assure you that we won't act against your races as long as every race from the Dark World doesn't invade the Central Plane."

"Haha, settle your own grievances. I'll take my people and leave." Talvelai laughed heartily. He then gave the order, "Retreat."

With his command, the Meryvee powerhouses withdrew quickly.

Qairo did not trouble them. He glanced at the remaining three races and said, "Attack!"

Qiyana was also among them. She had been waiting for this day for a long time, and now, she could finally seek revenge for her race.

James was unaware of what was happening in the Dark World. At this moment, he was chasing through the River of Time.

Xayvion was adept at escaping. He continued moving through the River of Time, not knowing which era he had escaped to. All he could sense was that the Karma Power he endured was growing stronger.

Now, the Karma Power was so intense that even he found it difficult to bear. He turned and glanced at James. Despite being entwined by karma, James was still in pursuit.

'This brat,' Xayvion could not help but scold aloud. He could no longer hold on at this moment. He directly shattered the River of Time, and his aura disappeared from James' perception.

James quickly chased after him, breaking the River of Time at the same spot where Xayvion did, and he also vanished within the River of Time.

As soon as James left the River of Time, he appeared in a beautiful landscape.

Descending rapidly from the sky, his strength was simultaneously diminishing at a rapid pace.

The power of his past form from the Tressencia Completare Art was fading, along with the absorption of the new world's power.

At this moment, only the strength of his current and future form remained within him. His aura was also declining rapidly.

With diminishing power and aura, coupled with the entanglement of karma, he could no longer suppress the injuries within his body.

“Boom!” His body crashed into the ground in a mountainous region devoid of any living beings, or more precisely, on a planet uninhabited by anyone. The spiritual mountain was instantly crushed.

Enduring the injuries on his body, James climbed up from the ground. He immediately tried to sense Xayvion’s aura. However, he could not detect Xayvion’s aura in this era.

“Did I miss him?” he frowned.

Although he shattered the River of Time at the same spot as Xayvion, the actual time point might still have some differences.

The inability to sense Xayvion’s aura indicated that he appeared in this period earlier than Xayvion. In other words, as long as he survived in this era, he would eventually reach the time point when Xayvion appeared.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5610-James temporarily set aside his worries when he was unable to sense Xayvion’s aura.

The immediate priority was to quickly suppress the karma he acquired from traversing the River of Time. Afterward, he needed to understand the nature of this era and figure out which time he had returned to.

The spiritual mountain was shattered by the tremendous aftermath of his arrival.

Climbing up from the ruins, he swiftly appeared on a rocky outcrop. He set a time formation around him with a casual motion.

Currently, karma surrounded his body. Having cultivated the Karma Path, he could withstand terrifying levels of Karma Power. Even disrupting the peak of Quasi Bliss Rank powerhouses would not compare to the enormity of karma he could endure.

However, the current karma was even more overwhelming than the one that restored Qairo. James began absorbing and refining karma.

During this period, he dispelled the Tressencia Completare Art. His cultivation realm recovered to the Martial Celestial Rank, but his physical body retained the strength of the Quasi Bliss Rank.

He absorbed and refined some of the Karma Power within the time formation.

His cultivation realm ascended to the middle stage of the Martial Celestial Rank. However, the karma clinging to his body was still too strong. He could not absorb and refine it completely in a short time.

The Karma Power incessantly devoured his physical body. If not for the robustness of his physical body and his resistance to karma, he would have been consumed long ago.

James sat in a lotus position on a rock and began forcing the karma into his body. He created a space within his body and isolated the Karma Power in a small area, then sealed them.

Sealing karma seemed simple, but it was extremely difficult. James spent a long time within the time formation. Only after successfully sealing the Karma Power did he stand up.

Almost all of his injuries had healed by this point. After standing up, he stretched his muscles and surveyed the surroundings. He muttered to himself, "I wonder how many years have passed since I missed Xayvion. I don't know when he will appear. I need to understand the nature of this world, find a place to cultivate, and strive to kill him the moment he appears."

Xayvion was escaping with injuries. He would be severely injured once he appeared, and this would be an excellent opportunity for James.

James disappeared from his original spot and appeared on the top of a nearby mountain in the next instant. Standing at the summit, he released his Zen to sense the region.

Under the perception of his Zen, he discovered that the space here was stable.

Moreover, he sensed the miraculous power of heaven and earth, along with the Genesis Path of a powerful world.

At this moment, he was surprised to find that the Genesis Path of the New Endlos Plane he had cultivated shared some similarities with the Genesis Path of this world.

Sensing this, he formed a rough understanding of the era.

‘The Ancestral Site,’ he murmured to himself.

He speculated that he had returned to the Anceracene Age, a time before it was shattered.

In his memories, he knew that the Ancestral Site was destroyed because of the Halcyon Road. Then, the core energy of the Ancestral Site entered the darkness and disappeared, leaving only a ruined world behind. After that, it gradually evolved into countless planes.

After sensing this, he made a rough judgment about this era.

‘The Ancestral Site.’ James took a deep breath.

“I didn’t expect Xayvion to have escaped back to the Anceracene Age. In this era, heroes contend, and powerhouses are numerous. I wonder if I’ll have the chance to witness the true Transcendental Bliss Rank powerhouses.”

The Transcendental Bliss Rank was a legend in his era, existing only in ancient scrolls. However, in this era, there were real Transcendental Bliss Rank powerhouses.
