

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5611

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5611-I've only reached the middle stage of Martial Celestial Rank. My powers are too weak. I need to quickly improve and increase my cultivation rank."

He continued, "If I don't advance into the Holy Celestial Rank, it may be hard for me to achieve my goals here in this time and era where countless superior cultivators are active. Killing Xayvion might be virtually impossible too."

James took a glance at his surroundings.

The area was filled with abundant energies of heaven and earth since no other beings were found there. It was a suitable location for one to conduct their closed-door meditation.

With a simple command, James conjured a small building. The building was surrounded by a time formation and a formation to seal off all auras.

James decided to conduct a closed-door meditation until he achieved the Holy Celestial Rank. After that, he would explore this world and look for opportunities to elevate his powers and skills.

Ever since he had returned to the past, James found he had lost the powers of the past form. The Tressencia Completare Art was incomplete now. Without the complete Tressencia Completare, James was no match for Xayvion.

James must improve his powers and cultivation enough to exterminate Xayvion before he comes face-to-face with the man.

After putting up the formations, James produced numerous elixirs and pills from his storage treasure. He had obtained those items from the Yefteros' treasury previously.

However, as soon as he took out objects that did not belong to the time he was in, James detected a wave of Karma Power pushing down on him.

The intensity of the Karma Power at that moment was considered rather harmless to James. It made him feel as if the weight of an entire planet was coming down on him, but James did not sustain any actual damage.

James sealed all that Karma Power first.

He understood the power well since he had mastered the Karma Path.

Since James did not belong to that time and space, anything he did or said would incur karma.

James would incur exceptionally dangerous amounts of Karma Power if he had done something like changing the events set in history. However, if his actions were minor, James would be able to handle or overcome the relatively weak Karma Power.

Soon enough, James began concentrating on his training and cultivation.

He absorbed all those elixirs and pills and converted them into a source of pure, immense energy in his body. That energy flowed through every part of James' body.

Days went by quickly as James remained inside the time formation. His powers grew consistently each day.

In the blink of an eye, James had moved from the middle stage of the Martial Celestial Rank to the Consummation Martial Celestial Rank, the cultivation rank James had reached before he passed in his last life.

However, his current powers were much more potent than what he had attained in his previous life.

James was very close to achieving the Holy Celestial Rank at that point.

As he was getting ready to advance to the next rank, James spotted tribulation clouds gathering in the sky.

"A Heavenly Tribulation?" James frowned slightly.

It had been quite some time since James' last Heavenly Tribulation. He had most likely incurred a tremendous amount of Karma Power when he decided to travel up the River of Time. Therefore, a Heavenly Tribulation was triggered while he was trying to level up.

Still, James was not feeling too worried about this situation.

James was about to enter the Holy Celestial Rank, but the strength of his body was equivalent to those of the Quasi Transcendental Bliss Rank cultivators. He would have no issue in enduring this level of Heavenly Tribulation.

Suddenly, James shuddered as he detected the energy emanating from the tribulation clouds.

“How is that possible?!” James widened his eyes and looked up at the clouds.

Normally, cultivators would experience Heavenly Tribulations corresponding to their cultivation ranks at that moment. However, James realized the level of the Heavenly Tribulation that had come upon him had exceeded his current cultivation rank and reached the level of his body’s strength and resilience.

He was facing a Heavenly Tribulation with the potency of the Quasi Transcendental Bliss Rank.

James’ expression hardened. A Heavenly Tribulation of that level was no laughing matter. He straightened his back and braced himself for the onset of the tribulation.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5612-I’ve only reached the middle stage of Martial Celestial Rank. My powers are too weak. I need to quickly improve and increase my cultivation rank.”

He continued, “If I don’t advance into the Holy Celestial Rank, it may be hard for me to achieve my goals here in this time and era where countless superior cultivators are active. Killing Xayvion might be virtually impossible too.”

James took a glance at his surroundings.

The area was filled with abundant energies of heaven and earth since no other beings were found there. It was a suitable location for one to conduct their closed-door meditation.

With a simple command, James conjured a small building. The building was surrounded by a time formation and a formation to seal off all auras.

James decided to conduct a closed-door meditation until he achieved the Holy Celestial Rank. After that, he would explore this world and look for opportunities to elevate his powers and skills.

Ever since he had returned to the past, James found he had lost the powers of the past form. The Tressencia Completare Art was incomplete now. Without the complete Tressencia Completare, James was no match for Xayvion.

James must improve his powers and cultivation enough to exterminate Xayvion before he comes face-to-face with the man.

After putting up the formations, James produced numerous elixirs and pills from his storage treasure. He had obtained those items from the Yefteros' treasury previously.

However, as soon as he took out objects that did not belong to the time he was in, James detected a wave of Karma Power pushing down on him.

The intensity of the Karma Power at that moment was considered rather harmless to James. It made him feel as if the weight of an entire planet was coming down on him, but James did not sustain any actual damage.

James sealed all that Karma Power first.

He understood the power well since he had mastered the Karma Path.

Since James did not belong to that time and space, anything he did or said would incur karma.

James would incur exceptionally dangerous amounts of Karma Power if he had done something like changing the events set in history. However, if his actions were minor, James would be able to handle or overcome the relatively weak Karma Power.

Soon enough, James began concentrating on his training and cultivation.

He absorbed all those elixirs and pills and converted them into a source of pure, immense energy in his body. That energy flowed through every part of James' body.

Days went by quickly as James remained inside the time formation. His powers grew consistently each day.

In the blink of an eye, James had moved from the middle stage of the Martial Celestial Rank to the Consummation Martial Celestial Rank, the cultivation rank James had reached before he passed in his last life.

However, his current powers were much more potent than what he had attained in his previous life.

James was very close to achieving the Holy Celestial Rank at that point.

As he was getting ready to advance to the next rank, James spotted tribulation clouds gathering in the sky.

“A Heavenly Tribulation?” James frowned slightly.

It had been quite some time since James’ last Heavenly Tribulation. He had most likely incurred a tremendous amount of Karma Power when he decided to travel up the River of Time. Therefore, a Heavenly Tribulation was triggered while he was trying to level up.

Still, James was not feeling too worried about this situation.

James was about to enter the Holy Celestial Rank, but the strength of his body was equivalent to those of the Quasi Transcendental Bliss Rank cultivators. He would have no issue in enduring this level of Heavenly Tribulation.

Suddenly, James shuddered as he detected the energy emanating from the tribulation clouds.

“How is that possible?!” James widened his eyes and looked up at the clouds.

Normally, cultivators would experience Heavenly Tribulations corresponding to their cultivation ranks at that moment. However, James realized the level of the Heavenly Tribulation that had come upon him had exceeded his current cultivation rank and reached the level of his body’s strength and resilience.

He was facing a Heavenly Tribulation with the potency of the Quasi Transcendental Bliss Rank.

James’ expression hardened. A Heavenly Tribulation of that level was no laughing matter. He straightened his back and braced himself for the onset of the tribulation.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5613-Curiously enough, the space around James seemed fine even after all that commotion. Neither the blast from the lightning bolt nor the impact of James' fall left any marks or dents in that area.

As James flopped down on the ground, it only brought up clouds of dust.

Numerous cracks had appeared on James' skin. Blood oozed out of those cracks and tainted his clothes red.

'That's a frightening amount of energy...'

James stumbled to his feet. He raised his hand and wiped the blood off the corners of his mouth. His gaze was fixed on the tribulation clouds.

"Just a single hit of those lightning bolts is enough to destroy my body, which has attained the strength of the Quasi Transcendental Bliss Rank. It seems I need to figure out a way to survive this Heavenly Tribulation."

There was a deep frown on James' forehead. However, he was feeling slightly excited inside.

At that point, it was difficult for James to further improve the strength of his body.

Although he might risk losing his life during the Heavenly Tribulation, it was nonetheless a great opportunity for James to enhance the powers of his body.

He might even get to reach the peak of the Quasi Transcendental Bliss Rank in terms of his body's strength and resilience.

He sat on the ground and began conjuring multiple inscriptions in his head.

Those inscriptions split and reformed quickly several times.

In a matter of minutes, James had designed a unique body refinement technique by using the vast knowledge he had of inscriptions.

As he initiated the technique, James absorbed and used the energy of the lightning bolt lingering in his body to heal his injuries.

Just then, a second lightning bolt hit James. He immediately absorbed all that energy by using his new technique.

Whilst most of the lightning bolt's energy traveled to all parts of his body, James' meridians, flesh, and bones sustained severe damage.

Simultaneously, James was converting that energy through the new body refinement technique to heal himself.

The best way to enhance a cultivator's physical body was to put it through various trials and tests. The repeated process of breaking and healing the body would help to improve its resilience.

It only took a few moments before James' body was completely covered in numerous cuts and bruises. At the same time, James was focused on healing those injuries.

Gradually, James' powers and aura grew stronger. At some point, the Heavenly Tribulation ended, and James successfully entered the Holy Celestial Rank.

As the tribulation clouds slowly dispersed and vanished, James dropped to the ground as he could no longer hold himself up.

His flesh was mostly gone. What was left of James was his skeleton.

Bloodstains could be spotted on different parts of his bones.

After quite some time, the skeleton slowly sat up. James began generating some powers to heal his body.

Eventually, muscles started forming over his bones. Soon enough, James' new body was fully formed.

James stood up and examined his body.

After being hit by the lightning bolts countless times, James' bones seemed to be infused with their powers. He could observe the existence of mysterious inscriptions within his bones. It was as if his bones had transformed into those inscriptions.

James could sense the powers of his body had improved from the early stage to the late stage of the Quasi Transcendental Bliss Rank.

With his current physical condition, James could even go up against Quasi Transcendental Bliss Rank cultivators who had achieved the late stage.

“Great!” A huge grin hung on James’ face.

Since he had reached the Holy Celestial Rank and enhanced his body’s strength, James was confident he could protect himself and stay alive in this place and era.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5614-James felt extremely satisfied with the improvements in his powers and physical condition. He swiftly decided to leave that area.

James unleashed the Blithe Omniscience and vanished from that spot.

Bang!

Suddenly, James could sense that he had triggered some type of restriction. He reappeared in mid-air and fell heavily onto the ground head first.

James rubbed the bump on his head gently and got to his feet. As he lifted his gaze, James spotted a wall of light before him.

The wall was made of unique inscriptions. James could not leave the place because he was blocked by the wall.

“A formation has been placed around this area?” James frowned slightly.

He did not detect the presence of a formation when he extended his Zen to check the surroundings previously. He could not fathom why the formation was activated when he tried to leave.

Then, James realized the formation might have prevented his physical body from moving across the barrier. However, he could still extend his Zen beyond the barrier of the formation.

James could see how it was a wasteland outside the formation. There were traces of destruction no matter where he looked. The place seemed a little eerie as James could not find any living beings in the vicinity.

James extended his Zen even further.

He soon discovered that the wall of light formed a circle around the area he was located in.

Within the circle, James could see vast, green landscapes. The energy of heaven and earth was plentiful. He could even find rare Empyrean herbs.

James slowly reached out to touch the wall of light. As soon as the tip of his finger was placed against the formation, James detected an immense energy produced at that exact spot in the wall.

He quickly pulled his hand back. However, James was sent flying backward by the energy released from the formation.

James pushed himself up from the ground. He walked over to the barrier of the formation and looked at it closely again.

Unfortunately, James could not decipher the inscriptions that made up the wall of the formation. Even though he had mastered the Primal Mantra and the primitive inscriptions of various Primevals, that knowledge was surprisingly useless in his current situation.

As James studied those inscriptions longer, he realized they were not of natural origins. Instead, these inscriptions were most likely created by a superior cultivator. Even his knowledge of the Primal Mantra could not be applied to simplify those cryptic inscriptions.

For a moment, James was at a loss for what to do.

A deep frown drew his brows together. James stared into the distance as he considered other ways to get out of this place.

After a few moments, James turned around and started heading in the direction of the center of this encapsulated area.

As he moved closer to the center, James was surprised to find the energies of heaven and earth increased drastically.

Eventually, James arrived at the central area and came upon a strange, tall mountain.

Unlike the other mountains found within this area, this mountain was completely barren. Thick, dark clouds had gathered in the sky above that mountain.

There was an unsettling mood about that place as it was surrounded heavily by dark auras.

James was slightly taken aback as he could sense a dangerous, overpowering aura upon reaching the foot of the mountain.

With his physical condition at the level of Quasi Transcendental Bliss Rank, James would hardly feel intimidated by other auras. He could not help but wonder what exactly had emanated this powerful aura.

James trod slowly and carefully in the direction of the mountaintop.

The earth was all black within that mountain range. Peculiar sounds could be heard with each step James took.

James could also see black mists rising from the dirt. Those mists rose in the air and formed the dark clouds in the sky.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5615-Suddenly, James spotted the figure of a man appearing at the faraway peak of the mysterious mountain.

In a flash, that figure vanished and reappeared before James.

Before he could react, James was thrown backward in the air by a tremendous amount of energy.

James was completely defenseless against that powerful force. He was even sent out of the formation's barrier due to that immense blast.

Boom!

James crashed forcefully into an area of the wasteland. A long trough was made as James rolled and tumbled a few times on the ground.

A short while later, James clambered to his feet.

As his gaze fell on the strange formation, James furrowed his brows. "What the hell was that?"

He was sent out of the formation even before he could make out what that figure was.

James moved closer to the formation again. He tried several times to cross the barrier and enter the encapsulated area but to no avail. In the end, James gave up trying.

He did not spend long dwelling over how he had exited the area.

James already had a rough idea that he had returned to the time before the Ancestral Site was destroyed. However, he was not sure which period or era he had arrived at.

He planned to visit somewhere with living beings and ask around for more information.

James randomly picked a direction and started traveling toward it. Soon enough, he made it out of the wasteland.

Not long after that, a planet came into sight. James could sense the presence of living beings on that planet. Some of them even emanated powerful auras.

James teleported and reemerged on a quiet path of that planet. Then, he walked at a leisurely pace down the path that led into a big, bustling city.

He could sense that there was a huge population residing on that planet. As James entered the city, he could see people busily going about their business.

After a while, James walked into a restaurant and picked a seat next to the window. He ordered a drink and sipped on it slowly.

A busy place like the restaurant he had picked was one of the easiest places for one to gather information.

Soon, James noticed the restaurant's customers or employees were either Petit Celestial Rank or Great Celestial Rank cultivators. There weren't any cultivators with higher cultivation ranks.

"Have you heard about it? People are saying the shocking aura of the Heavenly Tribulation that came from the direction of the Hallr Zone was on the level of the Quasi Transcendental Bliss Rank. They speculated that a cultivator had triggered the Heavenly Tribulation."

"Mhm, I felt that powerful aura too. Many cultivators from our planet tried to check who or what had triggered the Heavenly Tribulation. However, they soon found out that the Heavenly Tribulation was happening in the central area of the Hallr Zone. Since that place is protected by a powerful formation, no one has been able to enter the Hallr Zone to investigate further.”

James realized the other customers were discussing the events of the Heavenly Tribulation he had just overcome.

‘The HallrZone is one of Anceralos’ Ten Forbidden Zones. Rumor has it that a Yuraeceon Rank cultivator has sealed himself inside the Hallr Zone, and no one is allowed to enter the area.”

‘That’s right. I wonder how the cultivator who had triggered the Heavenly Tribulation entered the Ha Hr Zone in the first place?’

By listening to the others’ conversation, James learned about the origin of the Hal Ir Zone and confirmed he had arrived at Anceralos.

‘The Yuraeceon Rank?’ James mumbled in a low voice, “Is that the rank above the Transcendental Bliss Rank?”

James thought that the Transcendental Bliss Rank would be the endpoint for the cultivation and training of all cultivators.

However, it seemed there was more for them to learn and discover as cultivators.