

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5621

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5621-James' face became terrifyingly grim. Xayvion's triumphant expression made him furious, and he wished for nothing but to shred Xayvion into pieces.

However, with Lady Wikolia in the way, he could not touch Xayvion.

"Let's go." Lady Wikolia glanced at Xayvion and then led him into the spiritual mountain.

Under James' furious gaze, Xayvion followed Lady Wikolia. Before completely disappearing from view, Xayvion turned around and shouted, "After I restore my strength, I'll come for your life, James!" Enraged, James slashed out with his sword. A terrifying Sword Energy permeated the air and darted toward the spiritual mountain.

Lady Wikoli, who had already entered the formation, waved her hand.

Mysterious inscriptions materialized and blocked James' potent attack.

Immediately afterward, a spectral palm swept at James.

James was struck and blasted out of the universe.

"Leave. I won't show mercy if you step into my territory again."

Lady Wikoli's voice rang in James' ears.

In the starry space outside the universe, James spurted out a mouthful of blood.

Lady Wikolia was so powerful and easily repelled James. If she were determined to kill him, he would have no chance of survival.

"Damn it," James cursed angrily. He was close to killing Xayvion, but Lady Wikolia suddenly appeared and intervened.

James quickly calmed himself down. He was puzzled as to why Lady Wikolia was in Anceralos. Whether she was the real Lady Wikolia was uncertain. She could even be the past life of Lady Wikoli.

The situation was confusing. However, one thing was for sure. James could not kill Xayvion with Lady Wikolia protecting him. He had to find out Lady Wikolia's identity.

James activated the Life Path, and his injuries recovered quickly. Although Lady Wikolia had wounded him, they were not lethal. Thus, he healed easily.

He left the starry space and headed to the next universe. Then, he went to the most prosperous planet and entered the most bustling city.

James went around inquiring about Lady Wikolia. After asking around, he found out some information about her.

Surprisingly, she was not called Lady Wikolia. Instead, she went by the nickname Teresa. From James' investigations, Teresa's real name was Xezal, and she was the leader of a Superorthodox in the Anceralos.

The Superorthodox she owned was called the Seraphic Sect. It was incredibly powerful and was ranked in the top ten in the Anceralos.

Xezal was the Seraphic Sect's Leader. She was exceptionally strong and had entered the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

After learning more about Xezal, James had even more questions. His brows furrowed frustratedly as he pondered, 'First of all, she's called Xezal. Is she related to the Lady Wikolia and the Xezal in the future I know?

'Secondly, isn't it rumored that one would lose all emotions and desires after entering the Transcendental Bliss Rank? Supposedly, one will no longer be a complete living being and become an existence similar to a Heavenly Path after reaching that rank.

'Yet, the lady I met seemed to still have her emotions intact.' James was currently in the Anceralos Era. He was from the future era and knew nothing about Anceralos. The known historical period of the Dark World was after the Ancestral Site was destroyed.

Many years after the Ancestral Site was destroyed, the Halcyon Road appeared again. Back then, the countless Tenebrae Races were divided into two factions, and the Dark World was turned upside down.

Although there were mentions of the Anceralos Era in the ancient books of the era he was from, there were no details about it. The Anceralos Era was nearly wiped out from history.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5622-Xezal, the leader of the Seraphic Sect, was an exceptional powerhouse at the Transcendental Bliss Rank. She was one of the strongest in Anceralos.

The Seraphic Sect was powerful. Now that Xayvion had entered the Seraphic Sect, it was difficult for James to kill him.

James felt troubled after learning more about Xezal.

Once Xayvion's Obsidian Body was recovered, he would no longer need Xezal's protection. By then, James' chances of killing him would be even slimmer.

James fell into thought. After a brief contemplation, he decided to stay in the Anceralos Era for a while longer. For now, he wanted to find a place to concentrate on improving his cultivation.

He was determined to stay in seclusion until he was strong enough to kill Xayvion.

The first step to defeating Xayvion was to find a way to overcome his Obsidian Body. Without a countermeasure to the Obsidian Body, it would be impossible to kill him.

However, James had no clue where he could go in Anceralos.

James asked around, gathering more information about the Anceralos Era.

Soon, he had a rough understanding of the era.

"Human primitive inscriptions!"

After acquiring more information, James learned humans dominated the current era. Although it was an era where many fought for hegemony, the humans overpowered the rest.

The humans' primitive inscriptions still existed in the Anceralos Era and were not lost yet. They were in the hands of a Superorthodox, the Hagios Sect.

The Hagios Sect's Leader was a top powerhouse of the Human Race and stood at the top of the power hierarchy. Like Xezal, he was also a powerhouse at the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

“Are the humans' primitive inscriptions of this era the same as the ones I learned from the Primal Mantra?”

After learning more about the humans of the current era, James wanted to visit the Hagios Sect to satisfy his curiosity. Ultimately, he decided to enter the Hagios Sect and cultivate there until he reached the Quasi Bliss Rank.

Meanwhile, he would also have to study Obsidian Bodies and find a way to counter Xayvion. Only by neutralizing Xayvion's Obsidian Body would he have a chance to kill him.

After making a decision, James quickly departed to the universe where the Hagios Sect was located.

Anceralos was vast and boundless, consisting of countless regions and universes.

The Hagios Sect was located in a core region of Anceralos.

Soon, James arrived in a prosperous universe. He temporarily settled in a city near the Hagios Sect and waited for an opportunity to join the sect.

However, the opportunity never arose even after waiting for a long time. The Hagios Sect were not looking to recruit disciples anytime soon. Without a disciple recruitment conference, it would be tough for James to join the Hagios Sect.

The Hagios Sect was full of powerhouses. Even with his current strength, sneaking in would be hard.

“Have you heard about the strange things happening in the Halcyon Road recently?”

“Yeah. I heard unknown creatures and powerful beings have appeared at the end of Halcyon Road. The Hagios Sect is summoning powerhouses from all over Anceralos for a meeting to discuss an expedition to investigate the situation.”

James coincidentally overheard a conversation and learned crucial information.

‘The Halcyon Road?’ James’ body trembled.

Many races went to war because of the Halcyon Road. From what he understood, the Halcyon Road was the only way to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank successfully. One would encounter accidents if one tried to reach the Transcendental Bliss Rank outside Halcyon Road.

According to his era’s recorded history, many powerhouses at the Quasi Bliss Rank had entered the Halcyon Road. However, they disappeared and never returned. Nobody knows whether these powerhouses were still alive or not.

“What’s at the end of the Halcyon Road?” James frowned. He planned to use the opportunity to enter the Hagios Sect and venture into the Halcyon Road.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5623-As the news spread, the powerhouses of different sects immediately sent disciples to the Hagios Sect. The Hagios Sect opened their formation and gate, allowing the powerhouses from all over Anceralos to enter.

An opportunity for James to enter the Hagios Sect finally came.

He arrived at the Hagios Sect’s mountain but was immediately blocked by guards.

“Show your invitation.” James was taken aback. He quickly recomposed himself and said smilingly, “I don’t have an invitation. I specifically made a trip here after learning about the news.” “Sorry. You’re not permitted entry without an invitation.”

James was denied entry after failing to present an invitation and had no choice but to leave for now.

Unfortunately, he also lacked the strength to infiltrate into the Hagios Sect.

James waited outside and watched powerhouses bring their disciples into the Hagios Sect to participate in the conference. At the same time, he tried to learn more about the legendary Halcyon Road.

Soon, he had a rough understanding of the Halcyon Road.

The Halcyon Road was the deepest passage in the Dark World. There was a legend spread amongst the various races of Anceralos.

According to the myth, the Dark World was boundless. No living being, regardless of strength, could leave the Dark World. However, the Halcyon Road led outside of the Dark World.

The Halcyon Road was said to be incredibly perilous, and even top powerhouses would think twice about venturing there.

Puzzled, James frowned and murmured, "It's the only way out of the Dark World? There's a different space outside of the Dark World?"

Unfortunately, nobody could answer his doubts.

Soon, the Hagios Sect's conference ended. Under the leadership of the Hagios Sect, Anceralos' various races sent out powerhouses to form a team for an expedition into the Halcyon Road.

The person leading the team was a powerful member of the Hagioc Sect.

Although he was not the sect leader, his strength was at the Transcendental Bliss Rank. He was a peerless powerhouse and was well-known in the Dark World.

Shortly after, many powerhouses departed from Anceralos and entered the Dark World.

James closely followed after them. He could sense the Seraphic Sect's Leader, Xezal, amongst them. She even brought Xayvion along with her.

Previously, Xayvion was heavily injured. However, Xezal saved him and brought him into the Seraphic Sect. After recuperating for some time, he had already recovered. Then, he traveled with Xezal to the Hagios Sect for the conference and was on the way to the depths of the Halcyon Road.

With Xezal beside Xayvion, James did not dare to act recklessly.

Although he had already changed his appearance and aura, Xayvion was very familiar with his aura. James was worried about being discovered by Xayvion.

Xayvion's injuries and Obsidian Body had already recovered. James could not afford to offend him right now.

James followed behind the large army. He was not the only one. Many other powerhouses had not participated in the Hagios Sect's conference that was following after the army.

Amongst them, the strongest were at the Quasi Bliss Rank, and the weakest was at the Martial Celestial Rank.

Under normal circumstances, cultivators at the Martial Celestial Rank were not qualified to enter the Halcyon Road. If they recklessly entered, their fate would end with death. However, it was a rare opportunity for them. Thus, they wanted to follow into the Halcyon Road to watch.

The Hagios Sect did not bother with the group and allowed them to follow.

The battleship quickly moved through the darkness.

In the darkness, there was no perception of time. It seemed like a long time had passed, but it also felt like it had only been a short moment.

Suddenly, the battleship came to a stop.

'To my friends following behind us, we're about to enter the Halcyon Road. It's a dangerous place. Come aboard.

Meanwhile, those under the Holy Celestial Rank shouldn't advance any further."

A voice sounded, welcoming the powerhouses onto the flying battleship.

Immediately, many powerhouses flew toward the battleship and boarded.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5624-Just when James was glooming about not having a chance to board the battleship, the Hagios Sect suddenly welcomed the group following behind aboard for fear they would be in danger while traveling on the Halcyon Road.

However, the Hagios Sect had a cultivation rank requirement for boarding the flying battleship. Cultivators below the Holy Celestial Rank were not allowed aboard.

The Halcyon Road was too dangerous, and nobody knew what would happen.

Those below the Holy Celestial Rank could not even protect themselves. Thus, the Hagios Sect refused to bring them along.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

Many cultivators boarded the flying battleship, including James.

James had already changed his appearance and aura. Even if he were to board the battleship, Xezal and Xayvion could not sense his presence.

After everyone finished boarding, the battleship continued to move forward.

James stared at the remarkable passage in the darkness ahead of them. It was shaped like a hexagram and was shrouded by some mysterious texts.

The battleship advanced directly into the Halcyon Road.

Immediately afterward, a formation was deployed around the battleship.

The violent power within the Halcyon Road relentlessly struck the formation.

Fortunately, the formation was unscathed.

James curiously scanned the surroundings. He discovered inside the legendary Halcyon Road was a dark and chaotic space. No complete Paths existed within the space, but there were some fragmented sigils of Paths.

Violent forces intertwined together to form the bizarre passage.

Even though the flying battleship was moving rapidly, there was no end in sight.

James thought to himself, 'So this is the Halcyon Road?'

What exactly is in it? Why did the later generations claim that one could only enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank here? Is everything related to the Anceralos Era?' Countless questions popped up in James' mind. However, there was nobody who could answer him. He would have to find the answer himself.

Time passed by minute by minute.

Soon, the flying battleship left the chaotic space and entered a different region.

were some other spaces within the area.

At that moment, the flying battleship slowed down. The powerhouses gathered in the battleship's main hall.

A powerhouse from the Hagios Sect took out a map and said, "Major races have joined forces in the past to set up a formation here to prevent the violent powers from entering the Dark World. However, mysterious forces have been attacking the formation recently. Is our mission to head outside of the formation to explore?"

The Hagios Sect's Great Elder, who sat in the highest seat, nodded and said, "Yes." The flying battleship slowly cruised the area and eventually entered one of the worlds within the dark region. The formation was located at the border of this world.

Many powerhouses from the different sects of the Dark World were stationed inside this world.

The battleship slowly approached a spiritual mountain.

Shortly after, countless powerhouses wearing cumbersome armor and holding spears appeared in sight.

A middle-aged man knelt on one knee and said, "Welcome, sir." The Hagios Sect's Great Elder alighted the flying battleship. Then, the other powerhouses followed after him.

"What's going on?" Teresa immediately questioned after getting off the battleship.

The middle-aged man replied, "Mysterious creatures are attacking the formation."

Hearing this, Teresa frowned and said, "Could it be another world really exists at the end of the Halcyon Road? Are there other kinds of living beings out there?"