

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5625

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5625-The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5625-Nobody could answer Teresa's question.

Even though those present were top-notch powerhouses of the Dark World, they knew little about Halcyon Road. No one knew what was at the depths of the passage.

James looked around curiously. The space was very solid and was similar to that of the Dark World. James sensed the formation at the border of the world.

He sent his Zen out of the formation and to the depths of the Halcyon Road.

Unfortunately, the area was really strange, and his Zen could not travel too far.

The middle-aged men led the powerhouse into the spiritual mountain.

Many people gathered in the spiritual mountain's main hall.

A sight projected before them, showing the outside of the formation. A few black figures suddenly appeared outside the formation and began attacking. The guards stationed at the formation immediately sprung into action, fighting back against the mysterious creatures.

However, the unknown enemies were like spiritual beings. They would suddenly appear and disappear within seconds.

The same situation happened more than a dozen times. These enemies were testing the waters. Once discovered, they would flee immediately and avoid head-on confrontations with the guards.

After showing the attacks to everyone, the world supervisor said, 'That's everything, sir. I've shown you a few occasions when mysterious creatures attacked the formation. For now, we have not gained any information about them. The world outside of the formation is bizarre. We don't dare to recklessly chase after them.' The powerhouses in the main hall looked at the Hagios Sect's Great Elder, awaiting his decision.

After thinking for a while, the Hagios Sect's Great Elder said, "Let's stay here for a while and see if the weird creatures attack again. If they appear, we'll catch them and interrogate them. It'll be beneficial to learn more about the Halcyon Road's depths before exploring them."

Nobody knew what the situation was outside the formation. They would have to capture the strange creatures and extort information.

After a simple discussion, the powerhouse settled down in the spiritual mountain. Even James was arranged to stay in a small independent courtyard house.

James was unsure of what the situation outside the Halcyon Road was like either. Although curious and eager to find out, his main goal was to join the Hagios Sect. He wanted to know what their primitive inscriptions were like and whether they were identical to those of the Primal Mantra.

James sat on a wall of his courtyard and scanned his surroundings. His main focus was the disciples of the Hagios Sect. He was looking for an opportunity to come in contact with them and find a way to enter the Hagios Sect.

The Hagios Sect's Great Elder was the commander of the expedition.

which were relatively weaker. The purpose was to train them.

Although these disciples were recruited recently, their cultivation ranks were impressive. Even the weakest was at the Holy Celestial Rank.

The Hagios Sect's disciples gathered together.

"It's so boring. We came so far only to just sit here and wait." One of the disciples expressed his dissatisfaction. He looked at a handsome man beside him and said, "Why don't we head outside the formation and see if we can find these strange creatures? If we find them, we catch them and will be praised. It's a commendable contribution worthy of earning us the chance to see our sect's inscriptions."

"Sure!" "I want to come too!"

"I'd like to see what weird creatures are outside the formation. How strong can they be?" Many of the Hagios Sect's disciples gathered and discussed leaving the formation to check on the situation.

When James overheard them, he felt his opportunity had come. He could join them and become friends with them. Then, a chance for him to join the Hagios Sect might arise.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5626—Several restless disciples of the Hagios Sect gathered, discussing venturing into the dark world outside of the formation and finding the strange creatures.

The senior disciple amongst them was a man who looked about thirty years old.

He wore a white robe and had an extraordinary aura about him.

“What do you think, senior?”

‘Yeah. You call the shots.’ The group looked to their senior disciple.

The man in the white robe contemplated for a while. Then, he said, “Since everyone wants to go, let’s take a look.”

‘Yay!’

“Let’s go! Let’s go!”

The disciples were pumped up. They had explored many secret realms and ruins in the past. However, they had never been to the world at the end of the Halcyon Road. They were curious about what was beyond the Halcyon Road.

About a dozen of them departed from the spiritual mountain together.

Seeing them leave, James quickly followed behind them.

After leaving the spiritual mountain, the group of disciples headed straight for the border. They hid their auras and bypassed the patrolling guards. Soon, they passed through the formation and arrived in an unfamiliar world.

The world outside the formation was shrouded in darkness. A potent spatial pressure came crashing down on them.

It would be impossible to stand firm in the dark space if under the Holy Celestial Rank. Anyone under the Holy Celestial Rank would be obliterated instantly.

Even one's soul would not be spared.

physical strength was equivalent to the Quasi Bliss Rank's late stage. The pressure of the unknown world was nothing to him.

James followed them out of the formation and shouted, "Hold on."

The group of disciples quickly turned around and stared at James, who was approaching them.

James walked over, clasped his hands, and said smilingly, "My name is Forty nine. While wandering around just now, I saw you guys leaving the formation and followed out of curiosity. Where are you guys going?"

James maintained a bright smile, hoping they would react friendlier to him.

The senior disciple looked at James, then reminded him, saying, "You shouldn't be here. It's really dangerous here. Head back before it's too late."

James' goal was to become friends with them so he could have a chance to enter the Hagios Sect. Naturally, he was not going to leave so easily.

"But, sir..." James walked over and said while smiling, "I'm also very curious about the world at the end of the Halcyon Road. Please take me with you..."

With James' relentless persuasion, the group finally agreed to let him join them in investigating the unknown world ahead.

James successfully mingled into the group.

The group consisted of eleven people-ten men and one woman.

These disciples were dispatched from different mountains of the Hagios Sect.

They were the most outstanding and promising disciples of their respective regions. All of them were at the Holy Celestial Ranks. Without potential, they could not have reached such heights in their cultivation ranks.

The group leader was Halevi Zimlock. He was a disciple of the Hagios Sect's Leader, and his status in the Hagios Sect was relatively high. He was at the Holy Celestial Rank's Consummation and was close to reaching the Quasi Bliss Rank.

After following the group for a while, James learned more about these disciples' backgrounds.

Halevi was the strongest in the group. Even so, the others were still talented disciples from the Hagios Sect's different spiritual mountains. They had mastered various Supernatural Powers and had very explosive strength. The group groped forward in the darkness under Halevi's leadership. They seemed nonexistent within the dark space.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5627-In the darkness, James sensed an unfamiliar energy. He had never encountered it before and could not identify it.

Bzzt!

A harsh noise came broke the silence. It sounded as if something had been torn apart or like the roar of an unknown creature. It was a bizarre and unsettling sound.

However, the group of disciples were powerhouses at the Holy Celestial Rank.

To them, the strange sound was nothing to be afraid of.

"Be careful," Halevi reminded the group. Then, he let out his Zen to the surroundings to find the source of the sound.

However, his Zen could only spread a few hundred kilometers. Anything further was beyond his reach.

James also carefully checked their surroundings. Unfortunately, he could not sense anything in the darkness.

The group carefully moved forward.

Swoosh!!!

Suddenly, a strange shadow appeared, and a mysterious power permeated the air.

Halevi promptly reacted and launched an attack. His powers confronted the strange shadow, but he was knocked away upon impact.

James quickly leaped into the air, caught onto Halevi, and dragged him to safety.

After being put down, Halevi spat out a mouthful of blood.

‘That was some really strange power.’ Halevi’s expression was solemn.

“Are you alright, Halevi?”

“What the hell was that?”

The group gathered together, scanning their surroundings warily.

James did not see the mysterious shadows’ actual appearance.

After Halevi recomposed himself, he turned to James and said gratefully, ‘Thank you.’

James waved his hand and said, “It’s no big deal. Anyway, what was that thing just now? It was so fast.”

Halevi shook his head lightly and responded, “I didn’t see what it was either. I only saw a shadowy figure flashing past.” Suddenly, Halevi closed his eyes and replayed the scene in his mind. He casually waved his hand and recreated the scene in front of everyone. He paused the scene exactly when he confronted the mysterious shadow.

Everyone stared at the scene projected in front of them. The scene was blurry, similar to when a movie had been paused abruptly. They could only make out that the shadow was not a human. Nobody could identify the unknown creature.

Halevi reminded again, “We must be careful. This mysterious shadow is quite powerful. It managed to injure me after just a brief confrontation. However, judging by how it only hides in the dark, it probably isn’t that strong. If we work together, we should be able to capture it.”

Although Halevi was injured, he gained a rough understanding of the mysterious shadow’s strength. He concluded their opponent was afraid of them. Hence, it hid in the dark.

James' opinion differed from his. He wanted to turn around and head back to the border world. However, he did not want to miss the opportunity to join the Hagios Sect. If he were to leave, it would be hard to come by another chance.

Ultimately, he decided not to say anything and followed the group.

In the darkness, there was no perception of time. Even James had no idea how long they had been traveling in the dark.

Just when James felt like he was in a trance and was lost in the dark space, a castle suddenly appeared in their field of view.

It was a black castle floating in the darkness. It looked very spectral as if it had suddenly appeared. At the same time, it looked like it had existed there for a long time.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5628-The group traveled silently. It seemed like they had been traveling for an eternity and had lost their way in the dark. Just when they started worrying, a mysterious palace appeared ahead of them.

After noticing the palace, everyone halted in their tracks.

'There's something ahead of us.' Everyone stared at the large palace. It was shrouded by magical powers, preventing outside forces from detecting what was inside.

'Let's go check it out,' said Halevi.

The group followed behind Halevi and marched toward the palace.

Soon, they arrived outside the palace gate.

The palace was very grand, standing about 100,000 meters tall. The palace gate was black and shut tightly.

A few mysterious inscriptions were carved on the stone gate. Even James, who was proficient in inscriptions, had never seen them before. He had no idea which race they belonged to.

Someone from the group asked puzzledly, 'Why is there a palace here?'

Another disciple walked over and stood before the gate. He reached out, trying to push open the gate. When he made contact, a black light and a potent force emerged from the gate.

The disciple, who was in the middle stage of the Holy Celestial Rank, was blasted away.

Fortunately, Halevi quickly caught him before he was knocked out of sight.

After Halevi placed the disciple down, he approached the gate. The others followed behind him.

The group stood before the gate and observed it.

“What’s written on it?”

“I can’t read it. It’s undiscovered inscriptions.”

The group discussed amongst themselves.

Halevai frowned and said, “I’ve never seen such inscriptions before either.

“Get out of the way. I’ll try to force the gate open.”

Hearing this, everyone backed away.

Halevi stood in place, and a powerful aura emerged from his body. He raised his hand, and magical runes circulated his palms to form a potent force.

“Break!”

He leaped into mid-air and thrust his palm at the black gate. His terrifying palm attack struck it.

Boom!!!

The surroundings shook as if about to collapse. Some cracks appeared in the dark space around the gate and spread out like spider webs.

Unfortunately, the black gate was unscathed.

The black palace seemed firmly rooted in the darkness. Even a powerhouse like Halevi, who was at the Holy Celestial Rank's Consummation, could not move it.

"Again!" Halevi increased the strength of his attack.

However, the gate was still shut close.

"Come on! I don't believe I won't be able to break this gate!"

"Damn it..."

Halevi kept attacking the palace' gate. Each time, he would amp up his strength.

However, his attempts were futile.

Eventually, he was exhausted. He slowly descended from the sky and landed on the ground. Then, he said helplessly, "The stone door is too solid. I couldn't break it even after using all my strength."

The only woman in the group stepped forward. She had a youthful and beautiful appearance. Suddenly, she suggested, "How about we try attacking it together?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5629-Good idea." "I agree. We should take action together."

The group gathered their strengths and attacked simultaneously.

Their collective strength was terrifying but caused no significant damage to the palace gate.

James stood in the distance with a solemn expression. The black palace was too bizarre. He had sensed an unknown power and felt unsettling for some reason. He had a bad feeling that things would spiral out of control if the palace gate were opened.

However, he quickly dismissed the feeling.

James walked over and said, "Move aside. Let me do it." Hearing this, the Hagios Sect's disciples fixed their eyes on James.

“You?”

“Are you kidding? We couldn’t open it even after joining forces. You’re only at the early stage of the Holy Celestial Rank. Do you think you are stronger than us combined?”

Many of the Hagios Sect’s disciples looked at James disdainfully.

“I’ll have to try to know. There’s a barrier formation on the stone gate. It’s an advanced formation that can’t be broken with brute force. The only way to enter is by deciphering the formation.”

James walked over and scrutinized the mysterious inscriptions engraved on the stone gate. Under his gaze, the inscriptions seemed to have come alive and flickered about on the stone gate.

The magical inscriptions appeared in James’ sight and crisscrossed.

James attempted to use the Primal Mantra to convert these inscriptions. One after another, he gradually transformed them into their simplest forms.

“It worked.” James felt relieved.

Meanwhile, the Hagios Sect’s disciples could only see James staring at the stone gate. They could not see the changes in the inscriptions.

“What worked?” Halevi asked curiously.

James answered, “I can decipher the formation. However, I’m not sure what’s within the palace. I’ve got a bad feeling something terrible will happen after opening this gate.”

“What could possibly go wrong?”

“We have so many powerhouses here. If you can decipher the formation, get to it. Even if it’s something we can’t control, the powerhouses in the border world can take care of it.”

James nodded lightly and said, “Give me some time.”

After speaking, James sat in a lotus position. He set up a time formation to study the inscriptions. However, he soon realized the time formation was ineffective in the dark space. Even after he successfully deployed the time formation, the passing of time was the same as the outside world.

James did not dwell too much on it. There were no Paths in the unfamiliar dark space, so it was reasonable for the concept of time to also be nonexistent.

Thus, he was not too shaken by it.

He gave up the time formation and began to study the formation on the stone gate.

He deciphered the first inscription, converting it into many simple inscription rules. Then, he began to transform the inscription rules into complex forms again.

After spending some time studying, he finally understood the first inscription.

However, there were many more inscriptions on the stone gate. The inscriptions were densely packed and kept changing. In just a short moment, the inscriptions would have changed into countless different forms.

James needed a long time before fully comprehending all of the inscriptions.

After successfully comprehending the first inscription, James realized how magical it was. It would significantly improve his Tressencia Completare Art if he completely understood these inscriptions.

Even if it were not for the sake of opening the stone gate, studying these inscriptions would benefit him. To James, encountering these inscriptions was a great blessing.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5630-The group of disciples gathered in front of the palace gate. They stared at James and exchanged whispers.

Eventually, their conversations stopped, and time seemed to be passing by very slowly.

Suddenly, James stood up and said, "What are you all doing there idly?"

The group suddenly snapped back to reality.

Halevi asked, "How did it go, Forty-nine?"

James nodded lightly and said, "I've already mastered the inscriptions and should be able to open the formation."

After cultivating for some time, James became proficient in the inscriptions. The Sealing Formation was powerful and derived from the Human Race's primitive inscriptions.

In other words, it was a Sealing Formation cast by a powerhouse who had mastered the Human Race's primitive inscriptions.

"You've comprehended the formation?" One of the disciples asked doubtfully. Everyone else stared at James in disbelief. It was hard to believe that James had comprehended the formation in such a short period.

"Yeah." James nodded lightly. Then, he walked toward the stone gate. He looked at the formation for a while and took a deep breath.

Whatever was hidden inside the palace was a mystery. James could not help but think about the consequences. However, he quickly put away his worries.

James waved his hand and summoned some mysterious inscriptions from his palm.

The inscriptions submerged into the stone gate.

The stone gate's inscriptions immediately began to transform. In just a short moment, they had countless changes. Then, they suddenly disappeared.

The group of disciples were overjoyed after seeing the formation inscriptions disappear. One of them excitedly rushed over to the stone gate. He gently pushed the gate, and it swung open.

Creak!

The gap grew wider until the gate was completely open.

Although the gate was opened, the disciples could not see anything but darkness beyond the gate.

One of the disciples looked at James and said, "Y-you should lead the way."

Nobody knew what was hidden beyond the palace gate. The group was afraid to advance rashly.

“Sure.” James approached the palace without hesitation.

The group of disciples quickly followed behind him.

A dark mist enshrouded James as he stepped past the stone gate.

After groping forward in the black mist, he was soon welcomed by a bright space.

The grand palace was right ahead of them. Around the palace were some stone pillars with mysterious inscriptions engraved.

Everyone looked at the palace curiously.

‘There’s nothing unusual.’

The disciples following behind James scanned the area.

James stared at the palace’s main hall, then approached a door beside it.

The group followed in his steps. After passing through the door, they arrived at the palace’s backyard.

The palace’s backyard consisted of a vast landscape with mountains and rivers.

There was a massive spiritual mountain, but it was covered by black mists.

James could sense an abnormal power coming from the distant spiritual mountain.

“A very terrifying existence must be sealed here.”

James immediately noticed something wrong. He turned to Halevi and said, “Are you sure you want to advance?”

After thinking for a while, Halevi said, “Of course. Why not? You just lead the way. If anything happens, we’ll deal with the aftermath.”

With his reassurance, James continued moving forward without hesitation.