

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5631

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5631-Soon, they reached the spiritual mountain surrounded by black mist. James sensed a terrifying power when they got close, and a terrible premonition arose in his heart. He suddenly stopped in his tracks. He could not predict what horrible things would happen if he continued further.

“Let’s head back,” said James.

“Head back?”

“Who are you kidding?”

“It took a lot of effort to get in here. How can we just leave?”

“I’d like to see what is within this spiritual mountain.”

The Hagios Sect’s disciples were bold and wanted to continue venturing into the spiritual mountain.

James gestured them to the spiritual mountain ahead and said, “You all go ahead. I’ll wait here.”

“Let’s go, Halevi.”

The group turned to Halevi. He did not hesitate and led them toward the spiritual mountain.

Meanwhile, James waited in place. He scanned the surroundings and found that the world within the palace had changed. Everything was made out of inscription rules, which were from the same origin as the Sealing Formation on the stone gate.

James murmured with a frown, “What kind of powerhouse created such magical and powerful inscriptions?”

The inscriptions within the palace gate had surpassed even the primitive inscriptions of powerful races of the Ancestral Site.

Boom!

James' thoughts were interrupted when the loud rumbling of an explosion came from the spiritual mountain in the distance. The surroundings began collapsing, and the world was destroyed.

Before James could even react, the world around him was destroyed. The next moment, he was already shrouded by darkness again.

The Hagios Sect's disciples appeared in front of him. They had pale faces and were injured.

'What happened?' James asked frantically.

Halevi's brows furrowed tightly. He replied, "I don't know. When we got close, a powerful force swept toward us. Immediately afterward, we lost our powers."

James quickly sensed the disciples before him and found they no longer had any powers or strength.

"Let's quickly head back." James' expression changed. He waved his hand, and a powerful force materialized. His powers wrapped around the disciples and lifted them into the air.

James quickly returned, following the route in his memories.

"Grr!!!"

James fled hurriedly, but a strange cry suddenly came from the dark space behind him.

At that moment, a terrifying force chased after him. James immediately teleported the Hagios Sect's disciples into his storage treasure. Then, he cast the Tressencia Completare Art.

Even though the Tressencia Completare Art was incomplete, his future form's body was at the Quasi Bliss Rank. He was still relatively strong after combining his future form with the cultivation base of his current form.

James summoned the Supremusse Sword and slashed out.

A dazzling Sword Energy busted out and struck a black shadow.

The shadow was shattered instantly.

James sighed in relief. Just as he relaxed, a shadowy figure appeared before him and knocked him away. His body sustained a severe injury.

James was about to launch a counterattack when he sensed some powerhouses approaching. He quickly put away the Supremusse Sword and dispersed the Tressencia Completare Art. Then, he continued to fight with just his physical strength.

His physical strength was at the Quasi Bliss Rank's late stage, but he was still no match for the mysterious opponent.

James was forced to keep retreating after sustaining several injuries.

Fortunately, the powerhouses stationed at the border world appeared when he was close to his limit.

The Hagios Sect's Leader led the group of powerhouses. The Seraphic Sect's Leader, Xezal, and some other powerhouses of other sects came with him.

The dozen or so powerhouses immediately surround the shadow.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5632-The powerhouses at the border world were waiting for the strange creatures to attack. However, before an attack was launched on the formation, they sensed a terrifying fluctuation coming from the dark space outside of the formation.

They immediately left the formation and located where the fluctuation came from.

Just when James was about to hit his limit, the Hagios Sect's Leader arrived with dozens of powerhouses and besieged the mysterious black shadow.

An intense battle immediately broke out. Ultimately, the black shadow fled from the battle. Even though there were several powerhouses at the Transcendental Bliss Rank, they still failed to capture the black shadow.

James was brought back to the border city's main hall. He sat on the ground weakly, and the group of Hagios Sect's disciples sat around him. Unfortunately, they were drained of their strengths.

The Hagios Sect's Great Elder sat in the highest seat and questioned coldly, "What happened?"

The exhausted disciples did not even have the strength to speak. Moreover, they could sense their great elder was livid and did not dare to speak for fear of getting in trouble.

None of them answered their great elder.

The Hagios Sect's Great Elder pointed at James, and said, "You there. Answer me."

James answered, "I was wandering around when I saw some of your disciples leaving the formation. I followed them, and they brought me to the dark world beyond the formation. At the end of the Halcyon Road, we stumbled upon a palace...

"I sensed the danger and warned them to leave. However, they insisted on venturing the spiritual mountain and said they would handle the aftermath."

James recounted everything to them in detail and shoved the blame on the Hagios Sect's disciples.

The Hagios Sect's disciples did not refute him, knowing it was true.

The Hagios Sect's Great Elder reprimanded them coldly, "Who gave you all the courage? Don't you know the world outside Halcyon Road is extremely dangerous? Aren't you already aware there are unknown creatures out there?"

The eleven disciples did not dare to refute their great elder.

At that moment, a powerhouse stepped forward and said, "Calm down, sir.

There are so many strange things about this matter. Let's figure things out first."

The powerhouse turned to James and asked, "You claimed to have deciphered the formation on the stone gate, right?"

"Yes," James answered calmly.

"What kind of formation was it?"

James summoned the formation inscriptions he learned from the stone gate and displayed them in front of the powerhouses.

The powerhouse in the main hall stared at the formation before them.

“It looks familiar.” The Hagios Sect’s Great Elder frowned.

Many powerhouses were present, but nobody could understand the formation inscriptions.

A few asked doubtfully, “Did you really crack the formation?”

James replied calmly, “Of course. How else would I be able to display the formation inscriptions if I didn’t decipher it?”

Xezal studied the formation for a while with a frown. Then, she said, “It’s a very profound formation. Even I am not capable of deciphering it. How did you comprehend it when you’re only at the Holy Celestial Rank?”

The other powerhouses also looked at James, waiting for his explanation.

James replied truthfully, “In the past, I was fortunate enough to come across a great treasure called the Primal Mantra. It’s how I was able to crack the formation.”

James wanted to join the Hagios Sect and verify whether the Primal Mantra consisted of the Human Race’s primitive inscriptions. Therefore, he did not hide the truth.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5633-The Hagios Sect’s Great Elder found the formation inscriptions familiar. It seemed like he had seen them before, but he could not immediately recall where they were from. He closed his eyes and searched his memories.

After a while, his expression changed drastically, and he exclaimed, “Those are our sect’s Forbidden Inscriptions!”

The powerhouses in the hall fixed their eyes on the Hagios Sect’s Great Elder.

The Hagios Sect’s Great Elder took a deep breath and said,* I can’t be wrong.

It’s our sect’s Forbidden Inscriptions.

These inscriptions were composed by an ancestor of our sect. They are stored within our holy site. Only a handful of people are allowed to see them. I was one of the very few lucky ones, but I could not understand them. I knew they were familiar just now. I only just remembered.”

Everyone was startled by his words.

‘The Hagios Sect’s Forbidden Inscriptions?’ “Why are the Hagios Sect’s Forbidden Inscriptions at the end of the Halcyon Road?”

“Could it be the Hagios Sect’s Founder had left behind the palace to seal away a terrifying existence?”

The powerhouses in the main hall discussed amongst themselves. Eventually, everyone looked at the Hagios Sect’s Great Elder and waited for his answer.

Unfortunately, the Hagios Sect’s Great Elder did not have the answers either.

Their ancestor had disappeared a long time ago. There weren’t any records in their sect about where he had gone or whether he was still alive.

The Hagios Sect’s Great Elder looked at James and asked, “What’s this Primal Mantra you mentioned?”

James replied calmly, “Sir, it’s a treasure that I’ve obtained. It was fated. I should have the right not to show it, right?”

There was a high possibility the Primal Mantra contained the Human Race’s primitive inscriptions. Therefore, James was unwilling to share the Primal Mantra before all the powerhouses within the main hall.

The Hagios Sect’s Great Elder did not make it difficult for James. He gently waved his hand and said, “Alright. You’re dismissed.”

James turned around and left.

Afterward, the Hagios Sect’s Great Elder turned to the group of disciples and said, “You all are also dismissed. Go heal your wounds.”

“Thank you, sir.” The disciples stood up and left hurriedly.

The many powerhouses were left in the main hall.

The Hagios Sect's Great Elder said solemnly, 'The mysterious shadow might be a powerhouse our sect's founder sealed away at the end of the Halcyon Road.

Even with our numbers, we couldn't capture him. This unknown opponent of ours must be really powerful."

The powerhouses in the main hall fell silent. They had joined forces but failed to take down the unknown powerhouse.

Their group consisted of several powerhouses at the Transcendental Bliss Rank and many at the Quasi Bliss Rank. Still, they could not capture one opponent.

The mysterious opponent's strength had to be over the Quasi Bliss Rank or even at the Yuraeceon Rank. The powerhouses in the main hall were at a loss for words at the thought of the possibility.

Meanwhile, James returned to his residence. He was oblivious to what the powerhouses in the main hall were discussing. However, he could not be bothered. He was not worried about the unknown powerhouse that was released either.

He was in Anceralos, where countless powerhouses existed. Even if the sky were to fall, they would take care of it. He was in no position to interfere.

The Hagios Sect arranged for the weaker cultivators to leave and only allowed the stronger ones to stay.

James was severely injured and was also requested to leave. Since he had comprehended the Hagios Sect's Forbidden Inscriptions, the Hagios Sect did not let him go so easily. He was arranged to stay in the Hagios Sect until they thoroughly investigated the matter.

James' initial goal was to enter the Hagios Sect, so he gladly accepted.

While traveling to the Hagios Sect, he made friends with some disciples. After arriving there, he was arranged to live in an independent spiritual mountain.

James was not sure what was awaiting him. However, he was not worried. After all, he was a human. The Hagios Sect was a force created by a human.

Therefore, he did not have to worry about them deliberately causing him harm.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5634-ames was sent to the Hagios Sect. When he arrived, a disciple brought him a healing elixir to treat his severe injuries. After consuming it, he gradually recovered.

After he recovered, he was summoned to the Hagios Sect's main hall.

In the main hall, he saw a huge audience.

An elderly man wearing a white robe sat in the highest seat, emitting an authoritative aura.

James knew the man in the highest seat was undoubtedly the Hagios Sect's Leader, one of the best powerhouses of the Human Race, Landry Xiomar. He quickly clasped his hands and greeted, "My name is Forty-nine. It's a pleasure to meet you, sir." The elderly man waved his hand and said, "Bring him a seat." A chair was immediately brought into the main hall. James made himself comfortable and asked humbly, "May I ask why I was summoned?"

Landry answered, "It's nothing special. I just wanted to ask about what happened in the Halcyon Road."

James recounted everything in detail. Inside the dark world of the Halcyon Road, there were no Paths. Thus, James could not reconstruct the events that happened. He narrated everything with words and used his understanding of inscriptions to project the events.

However, James deliberately omitted the part where he cast the Tressencia Completare Art.

After watching his projection of the events, the powerhouses in the main hall frowned.

"What did the Sealing Formation look like?" asked Landry.

James waved his hand and cast the Sealing Formation he had learned from the palace's stone gate. Then, he said, "Here you go."

Landry observed the formation and murmured, "It's our Forbidden Inscriptions..."

As the Hagios Sect's Leader, Landry naturally knew about their Forbidden Inscriptions. He knew at a glance the Sealing Formation was composed of their sect's Forbidden Inscriptions.

"Have you mastered the Human Race's primitive inscriptions?" Landry stared at James.

James shook his head lightly and said, "I'm not sure whether what I have is the Human Race's primitive inscriptions. I heard the human's primitive inscriptions are in the possession of the Hagios Sect. I can only verify if you can show me the human's primitive inscriptions."

Landry immediately ordered, "Inform the elder of our library to bring the Human Race's primitive inscriptions here."

After waiting in the main hall for a while, the Human Race's primitive inscriptions finally arrived. Landry passed them to James, allowing him to view them.

'These are the humans' primitive inscriptions. It's been stored within our sect for a long time.'

James took the ancient scroll and rolled it open. A few simple inscriptions emerged from the ancient scroll and appeared in his sight.

At a glance, James was sure. He said truthfully, "It's the same. What I've mastered is indeed the humans' primitive inscriptions. The ancient scroll's inscriptions are the same as what I've learned from the Primal Mantra."

The powerful humans in the hall were shocked.

"Our race's inscriptions are very magical. They are the core of the other race's inscriptions. He must be incredibly talented to have mastered them."

"Indeed."

'There are so many geniuses and powerhouses in our sect, but only a handful can understand our race's primitive inscriptions.'

The powerhouses began whispering to each other.

"Have you truly mastered the human's primitive inscriptions, Forty-nine?" Landry was also in disbelief.

Landry had also cultivated the humans' primitive inscriptions. Although the humans' primitive inscriptions seemed simple, they were relatively profound.

In short, the humans' primitive inscriptions were the foundation of cultivation.

James said calmly, "Is it really that unbelievable? These inscriptions are very simple. I mastered them when I was really weak. The humans' primitive inscriptions are not powerful. However, after learning them, comprehending other inscriptions is much easier. Theoretically, the humans' primitive inscriptions can be converted into any other race's inscriptions. Hence, it helps me understand other races' inscriptions.