

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5635

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5635-ames' voice echoed throughout the hall. His words brought great shock to the powerful humans present. All of them were flabbergasted and at a loss for words at James' claim about the Human Race's primitive inscriptions being simple.

Countless humans have tried very hard to study them. However, only a handful succeeded at comprehending them. Even just mastering 10 to 20 percent was enough to use for a lifetime.

Landry asked, "Where did you get our race's primitive inscriptions? Who taught them to you?"

James replied calmly, "Nobody taught me."

It was true he had never met the Primal Mantra's creator.

"Alright. You're dismissed." Landry gently waved his hand.

"Okay." James stood up and left the main hall. He did not care about what the powerful humans would discuss.

James had already confirmed that the Primal Mantra contained the Human Race's primitive inscriptions.

However, he was not ready to leave yet and still wanted to continue staying in the Hagios Sect. His new target was the Hagios Sect's Forbidden Inscriptions.

The Hagios Sect's Forbidden Inscriptions were composed by their founder, who may have been a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Rank.

James returned to the residence assigned to him. For the following period, nobody came to bother him. His days were leisurely, and he had nothing much to do but cultivate.

Besides Xayvion, James wanted nothing to do with anything else of the Anceralos Era. After killing Xayvion, his mission would be over, and he could leave. Before that, he would have to devise a countermeasure to Xayvion's Obsidian Body.

“Obsidian Body...” James sat in his residence with a frown. To counter the Xayvion’s Obsidian Body, he must understand its inscriptions.

James closed his eyes, and his battle with Xayvion replayed in his mind.

The scenes projected in the void ahead of him.

James watched Xayvion using his Obsidian Body. Some mysterious inscriptions emerged from Xayvion’s body and attached to his skin.

These were Obsidian Body Inscriptions, which could neutralize all kinds of powers. Only pure strength could break through the Obsidian Body Inscriptions.

James had the confidence to comprehend the Obsidian Body Inscriptions. He summoned the Primal Mantra in his mind. Then, he converted the Primal Mantra’s inscriptions in hopes of creating something similar to the Obsidian Body Inscriptions.

After countless attempts, James had created a set of inscriptions.

He attached the inscriptions to his body and tried to utilize its powers. However, the results disappointed him.

“Although it can resist some powers, it’s ineffective against powerful inscriptions.”

James’ attempt to create a set of Obsidian Body Inscriptions was a failure.

His only option was to come in contact with Xayvion and learn more about the Obsidian Body Inscriptions. Only by understanding them could he find a way to neutralize them.

‘This is so hard.’ James frowned.

Suddenly, a voice came from outside the courtyard.

“Mr. Forty-nine, our sect leader would like to see you.”

James dispersed his power and halted his cultivation process. Then, he stood up and walked out of the courtyard.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5636

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5636- James had no idea what the Hagios Sect's Leader wanted from him this time.

He stood up and walked out of his courtyard.

A disciple stood outside the courtyard's entrance, awaiting him. Upon seeing James, he said respectfully, "Our sect leader would like to see you."

"Alright." James nodded and said, "Lead the way."

"This way, please."

The disciple gestured to James and led him toward the Hagios Sect's main mountain.

Soon, they arrived at the back of their main mountain.

"Our sect leader is waiting for you at the cliff. Go ahead."

James looked at the mountain in front of him. He took a step forward and disappeared from the spot. The next moment, he was already on a cliff.

A stone table and some stone chairs were set up on the cliff.

Two elderly men sat at the stone table. One was the Hagios Sect's Leader, Landry. The other was also a familiar face. It was the Hagios Sect's Great Elder, Kairav Xogah.

The two sat at the table, chatting about something with solemn expressions.

James approached, clasped his hands, and greeted them,

"Sir Landry, Sir Kairav."

Landry pointed to a chair beside him and said, "Make yourself comfortable."

James walked over and sat down. He looked at Kairav puzzledly. Kairav was supposed to be at the border world at the depth of the Halcyon Road.

"Why is he back here?" thought James.

Even though James had some questions, he kept them in his heart. Instead, he asked, "What was I summoned for this time, Sir Landry?"

Landry looked at James while stroking his beard. Then, he smiled and said, "Naturally, there's something I'd like to talk about with you."

"Please do elaborate," James said respectfully, like how a junior should act in front of a senior.

Landry explained, "I wanted to talk about the Human Race's primitive inscriptions that you've obtained. Our primitive inscriptions are not divided into parts. However, you've only mastered half of it for some reason."

"Huh?" James was stunned.

"Is there another half?"

Landry nodded lightly and said, "The first half records profound and complex inscriptions. The second half is the core of the human's primitive inscriptions. It teaches how to properly utilize the inscriptions from the first half."

James was immediately intrigued.

Kairav looked at James and asked solemnly, "Do you know what you've released in the Halcyon Road's depths?"

James shook his head and said, "How would I know?"

Kairav said coldly, "You've caused a huge problem."

"What does it have to do with me?" James immediately refuted and explained himself, "I already warned your disciples. However, they insisted on opening the formation and venturing into the place. They promised to take care of the aftermath if something went wrong. How is it my fault?"

"You..." Kairav's face darkened.

Landry immediately interjected, saying, "Enough. Now is not the time to be blaming anyone."

James asked curiously, "What's wrong? Does that mysterious shadow have a terrifying history?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5637-Landry explained, "We're not sure of its origins. However, there are records in our ancient books about another world at the end of the Halcyon Road. There are some mysterious and powerful beings living there.

"Since ancient times, we've been exploring that unknown world. The same goes for the creatures out there. They've been trying to learn about our world."

Landry gave a brief explanation but did not go into detail.

"You've mastered the first half of the humans' primitive inscriptions. You're very talented and are definitely qualified to cultivate the second half. However, we know nothing about your origin. Thus, we can't just hand you the second half.

We'll give you two choices..."

James looked at Landry and asked, "Yeah?"

Landry elaborated, "The first option is to join the Hagios Sect. After we learn more about your identity and origin, we'll permit you to cultivate the second half of the inscription after your suspicion is cleared. The second option is to leave the Hagios Sect. We'll not make it difficult for you."

Landry gave James two options.

"I'll stay," James answered without hesitation.

He already knew how magical the humans' primitive inscriptions were. If the first half was already so useful, then the second half must be even better.

James was looking forward to it. Therefore, he decided without a second thought.

Landry smiled and said, "Good. You'll be a lower-ranking disciple for now and will be responsible for cleaning. If you climb to the position of an elder, you'll be permitted to see the second half of the humans' primitive inscriptions."

"A lower-ranking disciple in charge of cleaning?" James was stunned.

He was a powerhouse at the Holy Celestial Rank with a physical body at the Quasi Bliss Rank's late stage. However, he was being asked to become a lower ranking disciple in charge of cleaning. They were making things harder for him.

“What’s wrong? You’re not happy with the arrangement?”

Kairav looked at James and said coldly, “If you’re unwilling, go ahead and leave.” “Of course not. I’m fine with it.” James did not refute the decision. He stood up and said, “I’ll head to report to my station immediately.”

After speaking, James walked away.

Immediately afterward, Landry’s smile solidified and disappeared.

Kairav asked, “What do you think of him?”

Landry took a deep breath and said, “Since the birth of our race, only a handful of people could master our primitive inscriptions. Even the founder of our sect could not completely master it. Yet, Forty-nine’s proficiency in our primitive inscriptions is exceptional. He’s undoubtedly a genius.”

Landry was the current leader of the Hagios Sect. Throughout the ages, he had seen countless human prodigies. Many of them had tried to cultivate the humans’ primitive inscriptions. It was already considered a great achievement if they learned ten to twenty percent. Whatever little they had mastered would be enough for them to use for a lifetime.

Kairav sighed and said, “He’s indeed a genius. Our race’s primitive inscriptions are exceptional existence. He only mastered the first half of them but managed to crack the Sealing Formation set up by our ancestor.”

Both Kairav and Landry had seen the Sealing Formation.

Even though they were at the Transcendental Bliss Rank, they could not decipher the formation. They had tried to study it. However, the Forbidden Inscriptions were too profound. Although they had reached great achievements in their cultivation ranks, they could not understand the Forbidden Inscriptions within such a short period.

Landry said, “Let him stay as a lower-ranking disciple for now. Meanwhile, we should investigate his origins and see if there’s anything suspicious about him.

As long as he is not a being from the depths of the Halcyon Road, it’ll be fine.”

The Hagios Sect had only one concern about James' background. They were worried he was a being from the end of the Halcyon Road.

After all, James was the one who opened the formation and released a mysterious being that they did not even know existed.

Landry said calmly, "If he's not from the end of the Halcyon Road, he will become one of the greatest with his comprehension abilities. He'll be useful to us and will carry the Human Race's banner in the future."

Meanwhile, James was unaware of what the Hagios Sect's Leader and Great Elder were planning.

However, he was unwilling to leave the Hagios Sect even if they killed him. He was determined to obtain the second half of the humans' primitive inscriptions.

Moreover, there was nowhere else he could go. He wanted to cultivate at the Hagios Sect and find out how to counter Xayvion's Obsidian Body.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5638-ames stayed in the Hagios Sect and became a lower- ranking disciple. The Hagios Sect was the strongest in Anceralos. It was also the humans' greatest force.

James was assigned as an Outer Disciple, the lowest rank of disciples. Outer Disciples were mainly tasked with minor jobs, mainly catering to the higher ranked disciples.

His current status was the lowest amongst Outer Disciples.

After he reported his arrival, he was given an identity token and a broom.

The broom he was handed was made of special materials and could be considered a treasure.

His task was rather easy. He was responsible for cleaning up fallen leaves outside their mountain gate.

James looked at the fallen leaves on the ground outside the mountain gate. He blew a light breath, and the leaves flew aside into a pile. He sat outside the mountain gate and watched as the disciples passed by.

A powerful formation protected the Hagios Sect. Members of the sect, even elders, were not permitted to enter by flying. All of them had to walk through the mountain gate.

The mountain gate where James was stationed was the only entrance into the Hagios Sect.

James sat on the stone stairs and watched the disciples helplessly. He murmured, "I'm at the Holy Celestial Rank and have a physical body at the Quasi Bliss Rank's late stage. Yet, I'm stationed here to clean some fallen leaves."

At that moment, an elder appeared at the mountain gate. He looked at James and said calmly, "You're not allowed to use powers while cleaning."

The elder waved his hand and scattered the pile of fallen leaves.

"You..." James was about to speak, but the elder had already disappeared.

James had no choice but to manually sweep the leaves with the broom.

The Hagios Sect was a major force, and their territory was very vast. The area at the foot of the mountain was really large. Although James was a powerhouse, he manually cleaned up the fallen leaves outside the mountain gate for several months.

After completing his task, he sat on the stone stairs before the mountain gate.

Then, he continued watching the disciples passing through the gate.

Boom!

Suddenly, a figure descended from the sky. As his feet touched the ground, it caused the ground to tremble. A powerful force permeated the air, causing the nearby disciples to lose their balance.

"It's him again."

"He's here again?"

"He really doesn't know when to give up."

“I know, right? He’s visited more than hundreds of times. How can he stand a chance against Elder Yuelan?”

Upon noticing the strange person appear, the disciples at the mountain gate immediately began to discuss amongst themselves.

James also noticed the person who had appeared in the distance. It was a handsome man that looked to be in his twenties. He wore a gray robe and emitted an exceptional aura.

Seeing the man, James lit up with joy.

“What is he doing here?”

“Come face your death, Yovanni!”

The man’s voice came from outside the Hagios Sect’s mountain gate.

James casually waved his hand, and his powers dragged a nearby disciple over to him.

“You...”

The disciple was furious after seeing it was a lower-ranking disciple in charge of cleaning. He was about to scold James but immediately held back after sensing the crushing power around him.

‘Who’s Yovanni?’ asked James.

The disciple smiled and said, “Disperse your powers first. It’s really painful. I can’t bear it.”

James retracted his powers.

The disciple explained, “Yovanni Yuelan is an elder in our sect.”

“Alright. Get lost.”

James waved his hand, dismissing the disciple. Then, he stood up and descended the stairs. After arriving at the foot of the mountain, he looked at the uninvited visitor and said smilingly, “Your name is Wyot, right?”

\

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5642-Yovanni was an elder of the Hagios Sect. He was a powerhouse at the Quasi Bliss Rank's late stage. Even though he had a high status in the sect, James did not bother putting up good behavior in front of him.

He was a mere disciple in charge of cleaning up and looking after the mountain gate. Even though Yovanni was present, James chose to ignore him.

"What an arrogant, low-ranked disciple." A disciple beside Yovanni snorted and said, "Don't you know the rules?"

"Rules?" James looked at the disciple, then stood up before him.

James unleashed a powerful aura and knocked the disciple away. Then, he said, "Who makes the rules? No matter where it is, strength is the absolute order. You're only at the Holy Celestial Rank. Yet, you dare to lecture me about rules?"

Even though James was also at the Holy Celestial Rank, his physical strength was at the Quasi Bliss Rank's late stage. An ordinary cultivator at the Holy Celestial Rank could not withstand his potent aura.

"You've overstepped, Forty-nine." Yovanni stepped forward.

James looked at him and said, "What? You want to fight?"

Yovanni was furious. He was an elder of the Hagios Sect, yet a lower-ranking disciple disrespected him.

However, Yovanni had witnessed the aura James had unleashed while fighting Wyot. Thus, he was slightly wary of James. He did not have the confidence to defeat James.

Yovanni snorted, swallowed his anger, and left.

James returned to the stone stairs before the mountain gate and sat down.

Afterward, James spent his days cleaning the fallen leaves outside the mountain gate.

Countless years passed in the blink of an eye. During the past years, Wyot would often visit to chat with James.

Today, Wyot showed up again. The two of them drank wine on the stairs outside the mountain gate.

Wyot sipped his wine and said, "The Hagios Sect's holy site will be opened soon "

"Oh?" Intrigued, James asked, "A holy site? What benefits can I get from it?"

Wyot explained, 'The holy site is the birthplace of the Human Race. It's filled with countless opportunities and treasures. Inside the holy site, there are nine worlds.

Disciples of the Hagios Sect are qualified to enter the holy site. However, not all disciples are given the chance. I heard only disciples with admission tickets are allowed to enter."

"Fuck," James cursed out loud. He was a disciple of the Hagios Sect but had never heard of the event. Even the admission tickets were new to him.

clueless.

As the birthplace of the Human Race, it must be a magical place. James was intrigued by the Hagios Sect's holy site. He rubbed his chin, pondering how to get an admission ticket.

"Alright. I'll take my leave first." Wyot stood up and bid farewell.

"Sure, sure." James waved goodbye in a daze.

'The holy site, nine worlds, and admission tickets..."

James looked at the disciples passing by the mountain gate and murmured, "Nobody informed me about getting an admission ticket. Am I not qualified to enter the holy site even with my current strength?

"How do I get an admission ticket?"

James looked at the disciples passing by, trying to devise a plan.

The disciples that passed by felt shivers down their spines when they saw James' eerie smile. They subconsciously sped up and left hurriedly.

Suddenly, James pointed at a random disciple and said, "Hey, you. Come here."

.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5639-Haha!" The man laughed and said, "Does the Hagios Sect really have nobody better? Why did they send a cleaner?"

Wytot laughed condescendingly after seeing James carrying a broom on his shoulder. Then, his face suddenly darkened, and he said solemnly, "It's none of your business, so scram."

After speaking, Wytot unleashed a powerful aura to knock James away.

However, James did not budge in the face of the aura. The fallen leaves on the ground rolled into the air, fluttering violently.

At that moment, Yovanni appeared outside the mountain gate. He did not immediately descend to the foot of the mountain. Instead, he looked at James, who was confronting Wytot, and asked, "Who's that kid? Why have I never seen him before?" A disciple answered, "It seems he was arranged here by the higher-ups."

"Interesting." Yovanni smiled in anticipation. He stood in place and observed from the mountain gate.

Meanwhile, James looked calmly at Wytot, who had unleashed a potent asura.

He was surprised to meet Wytot in the Anceralos Era.

Wytot's aura was incredibly potent and was already at the Quasi Bliss Rank.

Wytot would have been considered a top powerhouse if they were in their original eras. In truth, he was already a terrifying existence in the Anceralos Era.

James said calmly, "You'll have to pass me first if you want to challenge Elder Yuelan." James had already changed his appearance and aura. Thus, Wytot did not immediately recognize him.

"Arrogant." Wytot's face darkened. He suddenly stepped forward and teleported directly in front of James. Then, he thrust his palm forward.

His attack contained the powers of various Paths.

Wyt had even cultivated low-level Paths to their maximum potential. Compared to the primitive inscriptions of some major races, these Paths were nowhere near inferior.

James stood firmly in place, allowing the attack to fall on his chest.

The powerful force sent James flying into the distance. He shook off the force and balanced himself before the mountain gate.

Although Wyt's attack was potent, James' body was even stronger.

Wyt's attack was at the Quasi Bliss Rank and could not cause harm to James' physical body.

James floated outside the mountain gate and held a broom over his shoulder. He looked at Wyt at the foot of the mountain and chuckled.

"How dare you challenge our elder with such weak strength? Aren't you overestimating yourself a little?"

After James finished speaking, he gripped the broom and launched a counterattack.

In his hands, the broom became a powerful weapon. His body's strength materialized into a substantial Sword Energy and darted toward Wyt.

Wyt was horrified by the Sword Energy charging in his direction. He quickly dodged and disappeared from the spot.

"Where do you think you're going?" James chased after him.

James arrived outside the universe where the Hagios Sect was located and cast the Blithe Omniscience.

The next moment, he was right in front of Wyt.

Wyt wanted to fight back, but a familiar voice suddenly came from his opponent.

"Why are you in this era, Wyt?"

Wyt was startled to hear the familiar voice. He stared at James and asked, "Who are you?"

James replied, "Forty-nine."

"I-It's you?" Wyt trembled in shock.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5640-Wyt's body trembled as a familiar face appeared in his mind. It had been so long that he had almost forgotten that face. He would never have recalled that face again if it had not been for the familiar voice and name.

"Forty-nine? James?" Wyt's voice trembled slightly.

James nodded lightly and said, "Yeah. It's me."

Wyt took a deep breath. "So you arrived in this era when you chased after Xayvion?"

James nodded again and said, "Yeah. How did you also end up here?"

Wyt took a deep breath and said, "It's a long story. Not long after you chased after Xayvion, I ventured into a ruin. I accidentally triggered some kind of Teleportation Formation. I was sent back in time and arrived in this era.

However, I've been here for a very long time. I was at the Holy Celestial Rank when I first arrived. I'm already at the middle stage of the Quasi Bliss Rank now."

"I see." James was rather happy to encounter someone familiar in the unfamiliar era.

"Speaking of which, do you know that Xezal is also in this era?" asked James.

Wyt nodded and answered, "Yeah. I found out a long time ago. When I arrived, she hadn't become the Seraphic Sect's Leader yet. Back then, she was just an outstanding disciple of the sect. I've investigated and learned she isn't the same person as the Xezal from my race.

The Xezal we know of could be a reincarnation of this era's Xezal."

Although Wyt knew about Xezal, he knew nothing about Lady Wikolia.

“Let’s drink and catch up on old times.” James put his arms around Wyot’s shoulders, acting friendly.

The two led the starry void and headed to a bustling city. Then, they entered a restaurant and chatted over some drinks.

Wyt talked about his experiences throughout this period.

After he was transported to the Ancelaros Era, he experienced many hardships.

He worked hard and kept improving until he finally reached the Quasi Bliss Rank.

Wyt sighed and said sentimentally, “Your life is so much better than mine.

When I arrived in this era, my cultivation rank was so low. In an era where countless powerhouses exist, being reckless would lead to death. Yet, you’re so lucky to have become a disciple of the Hagios Sect after arriving here. With the sect protecting you, you’ll be able to survive well.”

Wyt expressed the despair and helplessness he had faced in the Ancelalos Era.

James said smilingly, “Despite the odds, you still survived. All your efforts were worth it. Now that you’ve reached the Quasi Bliss Rank, why didn’t you return to our era? With your Leader yet. Back then, she was just an outstanding disciple of the sect. I’ve investigated and learned she isn’t the same person as the Xezal from my race.

The Xezal we know of could be a reincarnation of this era’s Xezal.”

Although Wyt knew about Xezal, he knew nothing about Lady Wikolia.

“Let’s drink and catch up on old times.” James put his arms around Wyt’s shoulders, acting friendly.

The two led the starry void and headed to a bustling city. Then, they entered a restaurant and chatted over some drinks.

Wyt talked about his experiences throughout this period.

After he was transported to the Ancelaros Era, he experienced many hardships.

He worked hard and kept improving until he finally reached the Quasi Bliss Rank.

Wytot sighed and said sentimentally, "Your life is so much better than mine.

When I arrived in this era, my cultivation rank was so low. In an era where countless powerhouses exist, being reckless would lead to death. Yet, you're so lucky to have become a disciple of the Hagios Sect after arriving here. With the sect protecting you, you'll be able to survive well."

Wytot expressed the despair and helplessness he had faced in the Ancelaros Era.

James said smilingly, "Despite the odds, you still survived. All your efforts were worth it. Now that you've reached the Quasi Bliss Rank, why didn't you return to our era? With your strength, traveling through the River of Time should be easy."

"Yemima is still here," Wytot said in frustration.

"Yemima?" James was surprised.

"To be more accurate, she's Yemima's reincarnation. She has completely forgotten her life as Yemima. I've been protecting and cultivating with her all this time. We entered the ancient ruin together and stumbled upon the Teleportation Formation. Unfortunately, we were separated. She became a disciple in the Hagios Sect, whereas I remained a rogue cultivator."

Curious, James asked, "Then, what's the grudge between you and the Hagios Sect's elder?"

Wytot replied, "After being teleported to this era, Yemima and I were separated.

When I found her, she was already a disciple of that elder, Yovanni Yuelan. I wanted to take her with me, but Yovanni said I had to defeat him first."

"I see." James immediately understood Wytot's situation.

Wyt sighed and said, "I don't know what happened, but Yemima lost her memories after coming to this era. I've seen her countless times, but she doesn't recognize me."

After expressing his sorrow, Wyt took a few sips of his wine.

James felt bad after seeing Wyt's dejected appearance

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5639

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5639-Haha!" The man laughed and said, "Does the Hagios Sect really have nobody better? Why did they send a cleaner?"

Wyt laughed condescendingly after seeing James carrying a broom on his shoulder. Then, his face suddenly darkened, and he said solemnly, "It's none of your business, so scram."

After speaking, Wyt unleashed a powerful aura to knock James away.

However, James did not budge in the face of the aura. The fallen leaves on the ground rolled into the air, fluttering violently.

At that moment, Yovanni appeared outside the mountain gate. He did not immediately descend to the foot of the mountain. Instead, he looked at James, who was confronting Wyt, and asked, "Who's that kid? Why have I never seen him before?" A disciple answered, "It seems he was arranged here by the higher-ups."

"Interesting." Yovanni smiled in anticipation. He stood in place and observed from the mountain gate.

Meanwhile, James looked calmly at Wyt, who had unleashed a potent asura.

He was surprised to meet Wyt in the Anceralos Era.

Wyt's aura was incredibly potent and was already at the Quasi Bliss Rank.

Wyt would have been considered a top powerhouse if they were in their original eras. In truth, he was already a terrifying existence in the Anceralos Era.

James said calmly, "You'll have to pass me first if you want to challenge Elder Yuelan." James had already changed his appearance and aura. Thus, Wyot did not immediately recognize him.

"Arrogant." Wyot's face darkened. He suddenly stepped forward and teleported directly in front of James. Then, he thrust his palm forward.

His attack contained the powers of various Paths.

Wyot had even cultivated low-level Paths to their maximum potential. Compared to the primitive inscriptions of some major races, these Paths were nowhere near inferior.

James stood firmly in place, allowing the attack to fall on his chest.

The powerful force sent James flying into the distance. He shook off the force and balanced himself before the mountain gate.

Although Wyot's attack was potent, James' body was even stronger.

Wyot's attack was at the Quasi Bliss Rank and could not cause harm to James' physical body.

James floated outside the mountain gate and held a broom over his shoulder. He looked at Wyot at the foot of the mountain and chuckled.

"How dare you challenge our elder with such weak strength? Aren't you overestimating yourself a little?"

After James finished speaking, he gripped the broom and launched a counterattack.

In his hands, the broom became a powerful weapon. His body's strength materialized into a substantial Sword Energy and darted toward Wyot.

Wyot was horrified by the Sword Energy charging in his direction. He quickly dodged and disappeared from the spot.

"Where do you think you're going?" James chased after him.

James arrived outside the universe where the Hagios Sect was located and cast the Blithe Omniscience.

The next moment, he was right in front of Wyot.

Wyot wanted to fight back, but a familiar voice suddenly came from his opponent.

“Why are you in this era, Wyot?”

Wyot was startled to hear the familiar voice. He stared at James and asked, “Who are you?”

James replied, “Forty-nine.”

“I-It’s you?” Wyot trembled in shock.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5640-Wyot’s body trembled as a familiar face appeared in his mind. It had been so long that he had almost forgotten that face. He would never have recalled that face again if it had not been for the familiar voice and name.

“Forty-nine? James?” Wyot’s voice trembled slightly.

James nodded lightly and said, “Yeah. It’s me.”

Wyot took a deep breath. “So you arrived in this era when you chased after Xayvion?”

James nodded again and said, “Yeah. How did you also end up here?”

Wyot took a deep breath and said, “It’s a long story. Not long after you chased after Xayvion, I ventured into a ruin. I accidentally triggered some kind of Teleportation Formation. I was sent back in time and arrived in this era.

However, I’ve been here for a very long time. I was at the Holy Celestial Rank when I first arrived. I’m already at the middle stage of the Quasi Bliss Rank now.”

“I see.” James was rather happy to encounter someone familiar in the unfamiliar era.

“Speaking of which, do you know that Xezal is also in this era?” asked James.

Wyot nodded and answered, “Yeah. I found out a long time ago. When I arrived, she hadn’t become the Seraphic Sect’s Leader yet. Back then, she was just an outstanding disciple of the sect. I've investigated and learned she isn't the same person as the Xezal from my race.

The Xezal we know of could be a reincarnation of this era's Xezal."

Although Wyot knew about Xezal, he knew nothing about Lady Wikolia.

"Let's drink and catch up on old times." James put his arms around Wyot's shoulders, acting friendly.

The two led the starry void and headed to a bustling city. Then, they entered a restaurant and chatted over some drinks.

Wyot talked about his experiences throughout this period.

After he was transported to the Ancelaros Era, he experienced many hardships.

He worked hard and kept improving until he finally reached the Quasi Bliss Rank.

Wyot sighed and said sentimentally, "Your life is so much better than mine.

When I arrived in this era, my cultivation rank was so low. In an era where countless powerhouses exist, being reckless would lead to death. Yet, you're so lucky to have become a disciple of the Hagios Sect after arriving here. With the sect protecting you, you'll be able to survive well."

Wyot expressed the despair and helplessness he had faced in the Anceralos Era.

James said smilingly, "Despite the odds, you still survived. All your efforts were worth it. Now that you've reached the Quasi Bliss Rank, why didn't you return to our era? With your Leader yet. Back then, she was just an outstanding disciple of the sect. I've investigated and learned she isn't the same person as the Xezal from my race.

The Xezal we know of could be a reincarnation of this era's Xezal."

Although Wyot knew about Xezal, he knew nothing about Lady Wikolia.

"Let's drink and catch up on old times." James put his arms around Wyot's shoulders, acting friendly.

The two led the starry void and headed to a bustling city. Then, they entered a restaurant and chatted over some drinks.

Wytot talked about his experiences throughout this period.

After he was transported to the Ancelaros Era, he experienced many hardships.

He worked hard and kept improving until he finally reached the Quasi Bliss Rank.

Wytot sighed and said sentimentally, "Your life is so much better than mine.

When I arrived in this era, my cultivation rank was so low. In an era where countless powerhouses exist, being reckless would lead to death. Yet, you're so lucky to have become a disciple of the Hagios Sect after arriving here. With the sect protecting you, you'll be able to survive well."

Wytot expressed the despair and helplessness he had faced in the Ancelaros Era.

James said smilingly, "Despite the odds, you still survived. All your efforts were worth it. Now that you've reached the Quasi Bliss Rank, why didn't you return to our era? With your strength, traveling through the River of Time should be easy."

"Yemima is still here," Wytot said in frustration.

"Yemima?" James was surprised.

"To be more accurate, she's Yemima's reincarnation. She has completely forgotten her life as Yemima. I've been protecting and cultivating with her all this time. We entered the ancient ruin together and stumbled upon the Teleportation Formation. Unfortunately, we were separated. She became a disciple in the Hagios Sect, whereas I remained a rogue cultivator."

Curious, James asked, "Then, what's the grudge between you and the Hagios Sect's elder?"

Wytot replied, "After being teleported to this era, Yemima and I were separated.

When I found her, she was already a disciple of that elder, Yovanni Yuelan. I wanted to take her with me, but Yovanni said I had to defeat him first.”

“I see.” James immediately understood Wyot’s situation.

Wyot sighed and said, “I don’t know what happened, but Yemima lost her memories after coming to this era. I’ve seen her countless times, but she doesn’t recognize me.”

After expressing his sorrow, Wyot took a few sips of his wine.

James felt bad after seeing Wyot’s dejected appearance