The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5641-“By the way...” Wyot suddenly recalled something and asked, “Since you are in the Hagios Sect, did you have the chance to cultivate the Human Race’s primitive inscriptions? After coming to this era, I discovered the Human Race’s primitive inscriptions are the foundation of all the other races’ inscriptions.”

James said smilingly, “I’ve already cultivated them when I was in the Chaos District.”

“Huh?” Wyot was surprised.

He did not expect James to have already mastered the Human Race’s primitive inscriptions while in the Chaos District.

“Then...could you help me acquire the Dooms’ primitive inscriptions from the Hagios Sect’s library?”

“The Dooms’ primitive inscriptions?” James asked with a frown.

Wyot nodded and responded, “Yeah. My race will be near extinction in the dark age. However, in this era, my race still exists. Plus, they are quite powerful.”

“Why don’t you go to them?” asked James.

“Huff,” Wyot sighed and said, “How am I supposed to approach them? I can’t just tell them I’m from the future. It’ll incur great karma. They would not dare to accept me, or else they’ll attract karma to themselves. The stronger one becomes, the more afraid one is to get contaminated with karma.”

Wyot looked at James and said, “From what I know, the Hagios Sect has a wide collection of primitive inscriptions from various races, including the Dooms.

James answered, “I’ll do what I can. Right now, I’m just a cleaner outside of our mountain gate. When I climb to the position of an elder. I’ll go to the Hagios Sect’s library to help you find the Dooms’ primitive inscriptions.

“Speaking of which...”

James thought of something and asked, “Is the Xezal of this era also from the Doom Race?”

Wytot nodded and replied, “Yeah. When I arrived, Xezal was already a well-known genius of this era. Now, she’s already one of the strongest.”

James and Wytot chatted about the old times, including their long-lasting feud.

Even though they were both desperate to kill each other back then, looking back now, it had become quite a memorable period of their lives.

James vowed, “Don’t worry. I’ll help you with the Doooms’ primitive inscriptions and getting Yemima back.”

“Thank you.” Wytot had an appreciative expression.

After chatting for a while, James stood up and said, “I should head back. I’ll likely be cleaning fallen leaves outside the Hagios Sect’s mountain gate for a while. If you need me, you know where to find me.” “Alright,” Wytot replied.

James bid farewell, then returned to the Hagios Sect. On the way, he hummed a happy melody.

As soon as he arrived outside the mountain gate, he saw a group of disciples and Yovanni.

Yovanni was at the Quasi Bliss Rank’s late stage and was close to entering the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

“Forty-nine...” Yovanni stared at James.

“Yeah?” James met his gaze.

“What’s your relationship with Wytot?” asked Yovanni.

“What does it have to do with you?” James casually threw his broom to the floor and sat on the stairs outside the mountain gate

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5642-Yovanni was an elder of the Hagios Sect. He was a powerhouse at the Quasi Bliss Rank’s late stage.

Even though he had a high status in the sect, James did not bother putting up good behavior in front of him.

He was a mere disciple in charge of cleaning up and looking after the mountain gate. Even though Yovanni was present, James chose to ignore him.

“What an arrogant, low-ranked disciple.” A disciple beside Yovanni snorted and said, “Don’t you know the rules?”

“Rules?” James looked at the disciple, then stood up before him.

James unleashed a powerful aura and knocked the disciple away. Then, he said, “Who makes the rules? No matter where it is, strength is the absolute order. You’re only at the Holy Celestial Rank. Yet, you dare to lecture me about rules?”

Even though James was also at the Holy Celestial Rank, his physical strength was at the Quasi Bliss Rank’s late stage. An ordinary cultivator at the Holy Celestial Rank could not withstand his potent aura.

“You’ve overstepped, Forty-nine.” Yovanni stepped forward.

James looked at him and said, “What? You want to fight?”

Yovanni was furious. He was an elder of the Hagios Sect, yet a lower-ranking disciple disrespected him.

However, Yovanni had witnessed the aura James had unleashed while fighting Wyot. Thus, he was slightly wary of James. He did not have the confidence to defeat James.

Yovanni snorted, swallowed his anger, and left.

James returned to the stone stairs before the mountain gate and sat down.

Afterward, James spent his days cleaning the fallen leaves outside the mountain gate.

Countless years passed in the blink of an eye. During the past years, Wyot would often visit to chat with James.

Today, Wyot showed up again. The two of them drank wine on the stairs outside the mountain gate.

Wyot sipped his wine and said, "The Hagios Sect's holy site will be opened soon "

"Oh?" Intrigued, James asked, "A holy site? What benefits can I get from it?"

Wyot explained, 'The holy site is the birthplace of the Human Race. It's filled with countless opportunities and treasures. Inside the holy site, there are nine worlds.

Disciples of the Hagios Sect are qualified to enter the holy site. However, not all disciples are given the chance. I heard only disciples with admission tickets are allowed to enter."

"Fuck," James cursed out loud. He was a disciple of the Hagios Sect but had never heard of the event. Even the admission tickets were new to him.

clueless.

As the birthplace of the Human Race, it must be a magical place. James was intrigued by the Hagios Sect's holy site. He rubbed his chin, pondering how to get an admission ticket.

"Alright. I'll take my leave first." Wyot stood up and bid farewell.

"Sure, sure." James waved goodbye in a daze.

'The holy site, nine worlds, and admission tickets..."

James looked at the disciples passing by the mountain gate and murmured, "Nobody informed me about getting an admission ticket. Am I not qualified to enter the holy site even with my current strength?

"How do I get an admission ticket?"

James looked at the disciples passing by, trying to devise a plan.

The disciples that passed by felt shivers down their spines when they saw James' eerie smile. They subconsciously sped up and left hurriedly.

Suddenly, James pointed at a random disciple and said, "Hey, you. Come here."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5639-Haha!" The man laughed and said, "Does the Hagios Sect really have nobody better? Why did they send a cleaner?"

Wytot laughed condescendingly after seeing James carrying a broom on his shoulder. Then, his face suddenly darkened, and he said solemnly, "It's none of your business, so scram."

After speaking, Wytot unleashed a powerful aura to knock James away.

However, James did not budge in the face of the aura. The fallen leaves on the ground rolled into the air, fluttering violently.

At that moment, Yovanni appeared outside the mountain gate. He did not immediately descend to the foot of the mountain. Instead, he looked at James, who was confronting Wytot, and asked, "Who's that kid? Why have I never seen him before?" A disciple answered, "It seems he was arranged here by the higher-ups."

"Interesting." Yovanni smiled in anticipation. He stood in place and observed from the mountain gate.

Meanwhile, James looked calmly at Wytot, who had unleashed a potent asura.

He was surprised to meet Wytot in the Anceralos Era.

Wytot's aura was incredibly potent and was already at the Quasi Bliss Rank.

Wytot would have been considered a top powerhouse if they were in their original eras. In truth, he was already a terrifying existence in the Anceralos Era.

James said calmly, "You'll have to pass me first if you want to challenge Elder Yuelan." James had already changed his appearance and aura. Thus, Wytot did not immediately recognize him.

"Arrogant." Wytot's face darkened. He suddenly stepped forward and teleported directly in front of James. Then, he thrust his palm forward.

His attack contained the powers of various Paths.

Wyt had even cultivated low-level Paths to their maximum potential. Compared to the primitive inscriptions of some major races, these Paths were nowhere near inferior.

James stood firmly in place, allowing the attack to fall on his chest.

The powerful force sent James flying into the distance. He shook off the force and balanced himself before the mountain gate.

Although Wyt's attack was potent, James' body was even stronger.

Wyt's attack was at the Quasi Bliss Rank and could not cause harm to James' physical body.

James floated outside the mountain gate and held a broom over his shoulder. He looked at Wyt at the foot of the mountain and chuckled.

"How dare you challenge our elder with such weak strength? Aren't you overestimating yourself a little?"

After James finished speaking, he gripped the broom and launched a counterattack.

In his hands, the broom became a powerful weapon. His body's strength materialized into a substantial Sword Energy and darted toward Wyt.

Wyt was horrified by the Sword Energy charging in his direction. He quickly dodged and disappeared from the spot.

"Where do you think you're going?" James chased after him.

James arrived outside the universe where the Hagios Sect was located and cast the Blithe Omniscience.

The next moment, he was right in front of Wyt.

Wyt wanted to fight back, but a familiar voice suddenly came from his opponent.

"Why are you in this era, Wyt?"

Wyt was startled to hear the familiar voice. He stared at James and asked, "Who are you?"

James replied, "Forty-nine."

"It's you?" Wyt trembled in shock.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5640-Wyt's body trembled as a familiar face appeared in his mind. It had been so long that he had almost forgotten that face. He would never have recalled that face again if it had not been for the familiar voice and name.

"Forty-nine? James?" Wyt's voice trembled slightly.

James nodded lightly and said, "Yeah. It's me."

Wyt took a deep breath. "So you arrived in this era when you chased after Xayvion?"

James nodded again and said, "Yeah. How did you also end up here?"

Wyt took a deep breath and said, "It's a long story. Not long after you chased after Xayvion, I ventured into a ruin. I accidentally triggered some kind of Teleportation Formation. I was sent back in time and arrived in this era.

However, I've been here for a very long time. I was at the Holy Celestial Rank when I first arrived. I'm already at the middle stage of the Quasi Bliss Rank now."

"I see." James was rather happy to encounter someone familiar in the unfamiliar era.

"Speaking of which, do you know that Xezal is also in this era?" asked James.

Wyt nodded and answered, "Yeah. I found out a long time ago. When I arrived, she hadn't become the Seraphic Sect's Leader yet. Back then, she was just an outstanding disciple of the sect. I've investigated and learned she isn't the same person as the Xezal from my race.

The Xezal we know of could be a reincarnation of this era's Xezal."

Although Wyt knew about Xezal, he knew nothing about Lady Wikolia.

“Let’s drink and catch up on old times.” James put his arms around Wyot’s shoulders, acting friendly.

The two led the starry void and headed to a bustling city. Then, they entered a restaurant and chatted over some drinks.

Wyt talked about his experiences throughout this period.

After he was transported to the Ancelaros Era, he experienced many hardships.

He worked hard and kept improving until he finally reached the Quasi Bliss Rank.

Wyt sighed and said sentimentally, “Your life is so much better than mine.

When I arrived in this era, my cultivation rank was so low. In an era where countless powerhouses exist, being reckless would lead to death. Yet, you’re so lucky to have become a disciple of the Hagios Sect after arriving here. With the sect protecting you, you’ll be able to survive well.”

Wyt expressed the despair and helplessness he had faced in the Ancelaros Era.

James said smilingly, “Despite the odds, you still survived. All your efforts were worth it. Now that you’ve reached the Quasi Bliss Rank, why didn’t you return to our era? With your Leader yet. Back then, she was just an outstanding disciple of the sect. I’ve investigated and learned she isn’t the same person as the Xezal from my race.

The Xezal we know of could be a reincarnation of this era’s Xezal.”

Although Wyt knew about Xezal, he knew nothing about Lady Wikolia.

"Yemima is still here," Wytot said in frustration.

"Yemima?" James was surprised.

"To be more accurate, she's Yemima's reincarnation. She has completely forgotten her life as Yemima. I've been protecting and cultivating with her all this time. We entered the ancient ruin together and stumbled upon the Teleportation Formation. Unfortunately, we were separated. She became a disciple in the Hagios Sect, whereas I remained a rogue cultivator."

Curious, James asked, "Then, what's the grudge between you and the Hagios Sect's elder?"

Wytot replied, "After being teleported to this era, Yemima and I were separated.

When I found her, she was already a disciple of that elder, Yovanni Yuelan. I wanted to take her with me, but Yovanni said I had to defeat him first."

"I see." James immediately understood Wytot's situation.

Wyt sighed and said, "I don't know what happened, but Yemima lost her memories after coming to this era. I've seen her countless times, but she doesn't recognize me."

After expressing his sorrow, Wyt took a few sips of his wine.

James felt bad after seeing Wyt's dejected appearance

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5643-The disciple shivered in fear. Although James was only a cleaner at the mountain gate, he was mighty. Even Elder Yuelan was afraid of offending him.

News about James had spread within the Hagios Sect. Nobody knew where he came from. Hence, a baseless rumor about him being a high-ranking disciple began to spread. It was said that he made a mistake and was punished by cleaning the mountain gate.

There was also a rumor that he was a hidden powerhouse of the Hagios Sect.

All sorts of rumors about him were circulating amongst the disciples.

The disciple trembled as he walked toward James. He looked at James warily and asked, "Yes? Is something the matter?" James looked at him and said, "Let's talk while seated."

"H-How could I?" The disciple hurriedly backed away.

"Sit down." James insisted.

"Yes!" The disciple immediately sat down.

"What's the event about the holy site?" asked James.

The disciple was confused as to how a disciple of the Hagios Sect could be clueless about the holy site. Despite his doubts, he did not dare to ask any questions. He replied honestly, 'The holy site is the Human Race's birthplace and where our primitive inscriptions appeared. The holy site is divided into nine regions. The deeper you go, the greater the rewards. You'll have a higher chance of obtaining great treasures if you venture deeper into the holy site.'

James inquired further, "What's this about admission tickets?"

The disciple explained, "You'll need an admission ticket to enter the holy site. As long as you're a member of the Hagios Sect, you can obtain admission tickets by contributing to our sect. The deeper you go, the more tickets you'll need. I heard you'll need a huge number of admission tickets to enter the ninth-rank world. Only core members and elders can obtain that many admission tickets."

"Do you have one?" James stared at him.

"I..." The disciple hesitated.

"Do you?" James asked again.

"I have one..." The disciple replied tentatively.

"Give it to me." James stretched out his hand.

The disciple said anxiously, "Please...let me have it. I worked hard to contribute just to obtain this one admission ticket. Plus, one admission ticket is only enough to enter the first- rank world."

"You're not handing it over?" James' face darkened, and a powerful aura erupted from his body.

"Take it!" Frightened, the disciple quickly handed over his admission ticket.

The admission ticket was just a small inscription with a special sigil engraved.

James took a glance at it, then stored it away. He waved his hand and said, "Get lost."

The disciple was only at the Petit Celestial Rank. Although robbed of his admission ticket, he did not dare to fight back and could only leave dejectedly.

mountain gate with a smirk.

He stood up, walked toward the mountain gate, and waved his hand. He summoned a few magical inscriptions and formed a powerful Sealing Formation.

James had sealed the mountain gate with the Sealing Formation he learned from the end of the Halcyon Road. Even a powerhouse at the Transcendental Bliss Rank could not destroy it.

“What happened?” “Why is there a formation here?” “Who cast it?”

As soon as the formation was cast, the disciples trying to pass through the mountain gate were blocked.

At that moment, James shouted, “Those who wish to pass through this gate will have to pay a fee!”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5644-The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5644-The Hagiost Sect was the largest force of the Human Race in the Anceralos Era. However, its mountain gate was mysteriously sealed, and disciples were prohibited from passing through.

A voice resounded at the mountain gate, demanding a fee for those who wished to pass.

“Who gave you the courage, Forty-nine? How dare you seal the mountain gate?” A powerful disciple reprimanded James.

The disciple who had spoken up against James was a disciple of an elder. He was already at the Holy Celestial Rank’s Cosummation.

James replied calmly, “If you want to pass through the mountain gate, hand over an admission ticket.”

“A mere formation like this is nothing to me.” Another disciple stepped forward, trying to break the formation.

When he came in contact with the formation, a powerful force emerged and knocked him away.

James smiled faintly and said, “Even the sect leader won’t be able to break my formation.”

“Quick! Notify our sect leader!”

A few disciples shouted for help, wanting things to be over so they could settle their business.

The disciples who wanted to enter the mountain were also impatient to report important matters back to the sect.

A disciple rushed into the main hall and reported, "Sir Landry! Please have a look at the mountain gate. Forty-nine, a disciple in charge of cleaning the mountain gate's floors is blocking disciples."

Everyone in the hall was shocked by the report. They released their Zens and checked the situation at the mountain gate.

"This guy..." Landry was speechless by James' actions.

"I arranged for him to guard and clean the mountain gate. Instead, he sealed the entire mountain gate."

"What is he trying to do?"

"Presumptuous!"

"This is the Hagios Sect. If word about this incident spreads, people will laugh at us."

A few elders expressed their thoughts.

"Please make a decision, Sir Landry."

Landry observed the mountain gate and quickly learned of the situation. He chuckled and said, "It's nothing serious. Let him be. It just happens our holy site will be opened soon. The other races must be eager to enter our holy site. Many of these races will bring their strongest disciples. Let Forty-nine teach them a lesson."

Landry turned a blind eye to James' actions.

Since Landry chose to ignore the matter, the other elders did not pursue any further.

The disciple who rushed to report the matter returned to the mountain gate.

"I've already informed our sect leader. However, he decided to ignore this matter. He said to let Forty-nine be."

Everyone at the mountain gate was startled.

“He sealed the mountain gate, but the sect leader is ignoring it?”

James chuckled. If even Landry would bend to his will, he could be even bolder.

Truthfully, he was not afraid of Landry. If Landry showed up, he planned to also ask him for admission tickets to pass the mountain gate.

“Hmph! Let’s see if your formation can stop me!”

An old man approached the mountain gate. He was an elder of the sect and was a powerhouse at the Quasi Bliss Rank. As he got closer, the disciples moved aside and gave way to him.

The elder wanted to break the formation, but his powers had no effect.

James said, “If you want to pass through the mountain gate, just obediently hand over an admission ticket. Even the sect leader will have to follow my rules and pay me a fee to pass through the mountain gate.”

The elder’s face darkened after failing to break the formation. After greatly humiliating himself, he quickly turned around and left.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5645-You’re after admission tickets, right? We’re just lowly- ranked cultivators and aren’t qualified for admission tickets. Please let us pass through.”

Several disciples trying to enter the mountain gate tried to plead with James.

James frowned and said, ‘You don’t have admission tickets? Fine. Disciples under the Holy Celestial Rank can pass through the mountain gate.’

Hearing this, the disciples with weaker cultivation ranks were overjoyed.

Immediately afterward, they passed through the mountain gate and hurried on with their business.

Soon, a large group of disciples were gathered on both sides of the mountain gate. They could not pass through James’ formation but were unwilling to hand over their admission tickets.

“Forty-nine.” A voice came from the distance.

James looked in the direction where the sound came from and saw Halevi.

Halevi appeared in front of the mountain gate and looked at James. Then, he acquainted, how about you let some of my friends go? They are in a rush to get some business done outside.”

James squinted his eyes and replied, “If I let everyone go because of connections, how will I collect enough admission tickets to enter the ninth-rank world?”

Halevi maintained his smile even though he was rejected. He tried again, saying, “I know you’ll need a lot of admission tickets to enter the ninth-ranked world. But you’ll be guarding the mountain gate for some time. I’m sure you’ll collect enough to enter the ninth-rank world by then.”

‘You should stop trying to persuade me.’ James waved his hand.

Even Landry was paying no heed to his actions. After collecting enough admission tickets, he planned to collect other kinds of fees.

The Hagios Sect was the Human Race’s largest force.

Hence, disciples under the sect were mainly human geniuses from major sects and families all over Anceralos. Most of them were from wealthy backgrounds.

Thus, James wanted to use the opportunity to collect some treasures.

Halevi’s face darkened after being rejected the second time. Despite his dissatisfaction, he knew he could not defeat James. Therefore, he left disappointedly.

“Here’s an admission ticket, Forty-nine. Take it.”

Ultimately, a disciple gave up and handed over an admission ticket.

James accepted it with a satisfied smile, then let the disciple pass through the mountain gate.

After the first person took the initiative, the rest gradually followed suit.

Many disciples handed over their admission tickets to James.

James decided to set a new rule. Those who handed over admission tickets could pass through the mountain gate unlimitedly within a specified time limit.

With no other way to pass through the potent formation, many disciples chose to compromise.

James' actions quickly spread throughout the Hagios Sect.

“Forty-nine did what? He sealed the mountain gate and is collecting admission tickets from those who wish to pass?”

“He's lawless!”

“Is the sect leader not going to do anything about him?”

Members of the Hagios Sect were dissatisfied with James' behavior.

Even so, many gathered at the mountain gate to entertain themselves. Some even deliberately handed their admission tickets to James and passed through the mountain gate to taunt those unwilling to compromise.

James' action aroused a lot of anger.

Many were furious that the sect leader refused to take action. Some eventually went to the sect's elders to complain.

One of the elders could no longer tolerate James' behavior and decided to teach him a lesson.

A group of people marched toward the mountain gate. At the forefront of the group was a prestigious elder in charge of the Law Enforcement Hall. Following behind him were several furious disciples.

The elder shouted from afar, ‘You're going overboard, Forty- nine! Who gave you the courage to block our mountain gate?’

His voice was like muffled thunder, causing pain in James' ears.

“It's the elder of the Law Enforcement Hall.”

“It's over for Forty-nine.”

“The lightest punishment he can get is being expelled from the sect. The worst is his cultivation base being abolished.”

The disciples around the mountain gate gloated.

“The Quasi Bliss Rank?” James quickly sensed the elder’s cultivation rank.

The elder’s cultivation rank resembled when Xayvion had just left seclusion.

If it were in the past, James would have been wary.

However, he was not afraid anymore. He was practically invincible as long as his opponent was not at the Transcendental Bliss Rank.
