

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5646

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5646-James had aroused public outrage. Although many disciples had filed complaints, Landry chose to ignore James' actions. Ultimately, the dissatisfied disciples began reporting James to the various sect elders.

The elder in charge of the Law Enforcement Hall, Hansin Xendine, decided to take matters into his own hands.

Hansin was at the Quasi Bliss Rank's Consummation.

He walked ahead of a group of disciples and stopped at the mountain gate. After seeing the mysterious formation, his face darkened.

"I'll forgive your actions if you get rid of the formation at once, Forty-nine. Or else..."

Hansin's furious voice resounded.

James sat on a stone tablet outside the mountain gate and looked at Hansin on the other side. He smiled, then said, "Or else, what?"

"Or else you'll be expelled from the Hagios Sect!"

James replied smilingly, "Well, I'm right here. Why don't you come over? If you want to expel me, you'll have to pass through my formation."

"You!" Hansin's face ashened.

"Fine!" Hansin unleashed a powerful aura and approached the formation.

His powerful force struck the formation.

However, a potent force suddenly emerged from the formation, knocking Hansin away.

Hansin's face was full of disbelief. He had heard about James and knew the formation was from the end of the Halcyon Road.

He was aware the formation was composed of their sect's Forbidden Inscriptions, but he was not expecting it to be so potent.

The disciples spectating gasped after seeing Hansion fail to break the formation.

“Are you coming out, elder?” James’ voice came from the other side of the mountain gate.

“I’ll let you out if you give me an admission ticket.”

‘You!’ Hansion’s face distorted in anger.

As the Law Enforcement Hall’s Elder, he had never been so humiliated.

Hansion leaped into the air again and summoned a long sword. He slashed out the sword, and a bright Sword Energy struck the formation.

Even though he was at the Quasi Bliss Rank and attacked with all his strength, the formation remained unscathed.

The formation absorbed Hansion’s Sword Energy and dissolved it.

“It’s so strong,” James marveled. He was not expecting the formation to be so powerful. Even powerhouses of the Hagios Sect were unable to do anything about it.

Hansion attacked continuously. However, none of his attacks were able to destroy the formation.

“Just you wait!” After leaving a warning, Hansion stomped away.

“We’re doomed. Even the Law Enforcement Hall’s Elder couldn’t do anything about Forty-nine.”

“Is the formation really that powerful? Even Sir Hansion couldn’t do anything.”

“It’s best we just hand over an admission ticket.”

After Hansion failed to break the formation, the remaining disciples gave up.

Even though dissatisfied, they had to pass through the mountain gate to get some business done.

Ultimately, the disciples compromised and handed over admission tickets to James.

James happily stored them away.

The Hagios Sect's disciples eventually became accustomed to it and would consciously hand over admission tickets to pass through the mountain gate.

Time passed by day by day.

Soon, the day of the Hagios Sect's holy site opening was right around the corner.

The Hagios Sect's Holy Site was a very popular place. Various sects and families were eager to enter the Human Race's holy site, hoping to obtain legendary treasures.

Whenever the Hagios Sect's holy site was opened, different forces would send their powerhouses and disciples to the Hagios Sect.

The Hagios Sect was forced to open up some spots to outsiders.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5647p-Powerhouses from all over the Anceralos World and Dark World were on their way to the Hagios Sect, bringing with them their talented disciples.

The first to arrive was Xezal from the Seraphic Sect.

Xezal only brought one person with her—Xayvion.

Landry looked into the distance from the Hagios Sect's main hall and said, "We've got guests. I didn't expect the Seraphic Sect's Leader to be the first to arrive."

"With Forty-nine blocking the mountain gate, it won't be easy for her to enter our sect."

"I really don't want to let outsiders into our holy site. Hopefully, Forty-nine can keep blocking these outsiders from entering our sect."

The Hagios Sect's elders discussed.

There was a limited of spots to enter the holy site. Many of their sect's disciples would miss the opportunity if outsiders were allowed to enter.

The Hagios Sect's powerhouses were counting on James to block out these outsiders.

Swoosh!

A dazzling light landed outside the Hagios Sect.

Immediately afterward, Xezal and Xayvion appeared at the foot of the Hagios Sect's spiritual mountain. The two ascended the stone stairs and soon arrived outside the mountain gate.

Outside the mountain gate was a stone tablet with two large words engraved Hagios Sect.

A man sat on the stone tablet, whereas a queue of disciples were waiting to pass through the mountain gate.

Xezal frowned and murmured, "What's going on? When did the Hagios Sect establish a law to queue up to pass through their mountain gate?"

Xezal had been to the Hagios Sect a few times in the past. However, this was her first time seeing a queue at their mountain gate.

She quickly noticed the disciples were handing out admission tickets to the man sitting on the stone tablet.

"It's him?" Xezal immediately recognized the man she had met at the end of the Halcyon Road some time ago.

At the end of the Halcyon Road, an unknown creature was released. They had failed to capture it back then.

Unfortunately, it never showed up again.

Some powerhouses were stationed at the city at the end of Halcyon Road, while others returned home.

Xayvion stared at James, finding him very familiar. He thought to himself, 'Is it him?' Xayvion had a feeling the man on the stone tablet was James. Although the man's aura was quite different, he felt quite confident.

"Let's go," Xezal told Xayvion, then walked toward the mountain gate.

After taking a few steps, she noticed a formation. She glanced at it for a while, then continued walking forward.

When she got close, a powerful force emerged and prevented her from advancing further.

Xezal was confused. After a few seconds, she recomposed herself and shouted, "Is this how you treat guests, Landry?!! I traveled a long distance to come here, but I'm being blocked outside your mountain gate?"

"Welcome, Ms. Xezal." A voice came from inside the Hagios Sect's spiritual mountain.

"I'm afraid there's nothing I can do either. That kid set up a formation on our mountain gate and is collecting fees from those who wish to pass. He'll only let you through if you pay him something. I can't break the formation, so I'm also quite helpless."

"In that case, I'll break the formation for you." Xezal stared at the formation for a while. Soon, she recognized it was the Sealing Formation that James had learned from the end of the Halcyon Road.

She had seen it before and knew she could not understand the formation inscriptions.

"Hmph!" She sneered, then leaped into the air. A powerful aura burst out from her body, causing her dress to flutter and her hair to dance.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5648-Xezal approached the formation and unleashed a terrifying aura. She raised her slender hands, and magical inscriptions emerged from her palm.

The inscriptions transformed into a powerful force. With a flick of her hand, the force darted toward the formation.

Boom!!!

A shock wave permeated the area, and the surroundings trembled.

Fortunately, Xezal's powers were insufficient to take down the Hagios Sect's headquarters. After all, the Hagios Sect was protected by the Heavenly Path. No external force was capable of destroying the surrounding area.

The formation inscriptions were slightly distorted after being struck and seemed to be about to disintegrate.

However, the formation remained strong.

Xezal was a powerhouse at the Transcendental Bliss Rank. Even with her full strength, she could not break the Sealing Formation.

“Come on!!!” Xezal’s face darkened and increased the strength of her attack.

The formation, however, remained unscathed.

After a few more attempts, Xezal gave up. She descended from the sky and landed steadily on the ground.

Xezal glared at James and said, “Open the formation and let me into the mountain.”

“You want to enter the mountain?”

James smiled playfully and said, “It’s not going to be easy to enter the Hagios Sect.”

“What do you want?” asked Xezal.

James suddenly thought of something and smiled. Then, he said, “I heard you are from the Dooms. I’ll let you through if you give me the Dooms’ primitive inscriptions. What do you say?”

“Dream on!” Xezal immediately turned him down.

“Discussion over, then.” James leaned against the stone tablet and refrained from interacting with Xezal.

Although Xezal was at the Transcendental Bliss Rank, James was not worried about her attacking him. After all, they were within the Hagios Sect’s territory.

The Hagios Sect’s powerhouses would not just sit by idly if Xezal showed any murderous intentions.

“You...” Xezal was livid.

“What should we do now, Ms. Xezal?” Xayvion walked over and said, “You promised to help me enter the Human Race’s holy site.”

“Be patient.” Xezal waved her hand.

Xezal looked at James, who was naturally collecting admission tickets from disciples. It was evident he had set up the formation for a long time.

After thinking for a while, she said, “I’ll give you the Dooms’ primitive inscriptions.”

Xezal waved her hand, and some magical inscriptions appeared. The inscriptions quickly multiplied, then merged into a single inscription containing all of the Dooms’ primitive inscriptions.

The inscriptions floated toward James.

Xezal said, ‘This contains the Dooms’ primitive inscriptions. I’ve already given you what you wanted. Can you open the formation and let us through now?’

James put away the inscription and then restored his actual appearance. He stood on the stone tablet, looked at Xayvion, and said smilingly, “Long time no see, Xayvion.”

“I was right.” Xayvion’s face immediately darkened, and a potent aura emerged from his body. He summoned a sword and slashed it at James. A bright Sword Energy emerged and darted at James.

James quickly dodged, disappearing from the spot.

Boom!

The Sword Energy struck the stone tablet and caused a huge explosion.

Although Xayvion’s attack was potent, it did not cause any damage to the stone tablet.

‘This is the Hagios Sect, Xayvion. Are you trying to declare war against us?’

James grinned.

Suddenly, he shouted, “Sir Landry! The Seraphic Sect is waging war against us!

They've already attacked!"

At that moment, a furious voice came from inside the mountain gate.

"Presumptuous! This is the territory of the Hagios Sect!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5649-Xayvion immediately felt a terrifying pressure crushing down on him. His body descended from the sky, and his knees began to bend. He was so close to falling on his knees.

At that moment, Xezal took action. Her powers wrapped around Xayvion and resisted the potent pressure.

The two forces clashed. It was a fight between powerhouses at the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

Eventually, Xezal began to struggle. Her face turned pale, and sweat beads appeared on her forehead.

"What do you mean by this, Landry? Are you using such a despicable means to prevent outsiders from entering the holy site?"

Landry restrained his aura, relieving Xezal of the pressure.

Xezal was surprised by Landry's strength. She was already at the third stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank. Yet, she was unable to resist Landry's aura.

Landry responded, "I already told you. There's nothing I can do about the situation. Even if I go there, I'll have to give him an admission ticket to pass the mountain gate. Whether you can enter our sect is not up to me but him."

Afterward, Landry stopped interacting with Xezal.

James stood in the distant void, staring at the furious man and woman with a triumphant smile.

Xezal looked at James and said, 'You've already accepted the primitive inscriptions. No matter the grievances between you two, you should let us pass.'

James replied calmly, "I have the final say here. If I don't want to let you enter, you can't."

James would never let Xayvion pass through the mountain gate and enter the Human Race's holy site. If Xayvion were to learn something, his strength would reach a higher level. He might even reach the Transcendental Bliss Rank. It would be even more difficult to kill him if that happened.

'You're allowed to enter, but not him.' James pointed at Xayvion.

Xayvion's face was terrifyingly grim. He never expected James to have joined the Hagios Sect and set up a formation at the mountain gate.

Xezal retorted, "No. He must come with me."

"It's final." James had an indifferent expression. After ending the conversation, he disappeared from the spot.

The next moment, James was already on the other side of the mountain gate.

Soon, other powerhouses looking to enter the Hagios Sect's holy site arrived.

In the past, the Hagios Sect had always been forced to allocate some spots for outsiders to enter their holy site.

Therefore, many powerhouses arrived right before the Hagios Sect's holy site was about to open.

To their surprise, even a powerful force like the Seraphic Sect was blocked outside the mountain gate.

Many of them knew the Hagios Sect had deliberately arranged it, but even so, there was nothing they could do.

"Will you let me in if I give you my race's primitive inscriptions?" A powerhouse at the Quasi Bliss Rank made an offer.

"Hand it over." The powerhouses immediately handed over his race's primitive inscriptions.

James happily accepted them and allowed the powerhouse to pass through the mountain gate.

"You! Are you purposely targeting me?!" Xezal was furious.

'Yeah. What can you do about it?' said James.

In the Hagios Sect's main hall, Landry was rendered speechless by James' actions. Troubled, he said, "I was expecting him to stop them from entering.

Who would've thought he just let them in after receiving benefits."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5650-James set up a formation on the Hagios Sect's mountain gate and collected fees from outsiders who wished to enter.

Although the primitive inscriptions of one's race were quite valuable, the powerhouses of the Anceralos Era were still willing to exchange them for something of equal value.

Unlike in James' original era, major races would not easily hand over their primitive inscriptions.

Xezal's face became increasingly grim as more and more powerhouses entered the Hagios Sect.

With James guarding the mountain gate, Xayvion knew he could not enter the Human Race's holy site. He gave up and said, "Let's head back." "Head back?!!" Xezal's face ashened. She had already handed over her race's primitive inscriptions to James and was unwilling to give up so easily.

James sat on the stone tablet and looked at the two of them. Suddenly, an idea popped into his mind. He smiled and said, "Actually, there's one way to enter the holy site, Xayvion."

Xayvion looked at him curiously.

James elaborated, "I'll let you pass if you can perform the Obsidian Body in front of me, and let me look at it.

It was the perfect opportunity to learn more about the Obsidian Body. The Obsidian Body Inscriptions were powerful and could ignore all kinds of Supernatural Powers. One would be invincible after mastering them.

For James to counter the Obsidian Body, he must thoroughly understand it.

"Are you sure?" Xayvion looked at James doubtfully. After all, he had cheated Xezal out of her race's primitive inscriptions.

“Of course,” James said earnestly, “This is the Hagios Sect, and many of our elders are watching. Moreover, so many powerhouses from all over Anceralos are gathered here. I can’t possibly lie to you with so many witnesses.”

“Alright.” Xayvion accepted the deal without hesitation.

Xayvion activated his Obsidian Body.

James’ eyes were glued onto Xayvion. He watched as mysterious inscriptions emerged from Xayvion’s skin.

The inscriptions intertwined like meridians.

James watched carefully and used his Path Powers to record everything.

Xayvion had no idea what James’ intentions were. However, activating the Obsidian Body would not cause him any losses.

“Let me test it out.” James suddenly appeared in front of Xayvion Xayvion hurriedly backed away.

“What are you afraid of? With my current strength, I can’t possibly kill you.”

James rolled his eyes.

“Fine. Do it.” Xayvion was willing to risk it for a chance to enter the humans’ holy site.

James summoned a long sword and slashed out. A Sword Energy materialized and struck Xayvion’s body. At that moment, the inscriptions on the surface of Xayvion’s body suddenly transformed.

Afterward, James attacked again. Each time his attack landed, the inscriptions would transform and block the attack.

James attacked about a hundred times consecutively. His attacks were potent but caused no harm to Xayvion.

During the process, James made sure he was recording everything.

After a long time, James finally put away his sword and said, “Go on.”

He waved his hand, allowing Xezal and Xayvion to pass through the mountain gate.

Then, James sat down on the stone tablet again.

He had finally seen the Obsidian Body Inscriptions. With his mastery of the Human Race's primitive inscriptions, he could easily study and master the Obsidian Body Inscriptions.

After the interaction, James continued to collect benefits from visitors.

Many powerhouses came to the Hagios Sect and obediently handed over some benefits to James to pass the mountain gate.

The day for the opening of the Hagios Sect's holy site came in the blink of an eye.