The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5651-On the other hand, James withdrew the formation.

At the entrance, James took out a few entry inscriptions to enter the holy site.

He also handed over the Doom Race's inscriptions he had obtained.

"Huh?"

Wytot was stunned.

"You put in so much effort to obtain these entry inscriptions. Why are you giving them to me?" Then, Wytot said, 'Til keep the Doom Race's primitive inscriptions. As for the Hagios Sect's entry inscriptions, you should keep them." With a smile, James said, "I have many entry inscriptions. I can enter the holy site's ninth-rank world. Just keep them. Perhaps you'll obtain fortunes in the holy site and enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank."

"Thank you, then." Wytot no longer refused James and kept the inscriptions.

"Let's go."

James and Wytot had their arms around each other shoulders as they walked toward the Apex Main Hall.

Many Hagios Sect's powerhouses and disciples gathered outside the main hall.

There were also several powerhouses from the outside world.

"Everyone."

Landry's voice sounded from the main seat of the main hall.

"The holy site has opened. There are nine worlds in the holy site. Please don't go overboard. If you aren't strong enough, don't enter the higher worlds.

Although there's a higher chance of obtaining fortunes the deeper you go, the pressure of heaven and earth will gradually increase.

Accidents are likely to occur.”

Following Landry’s voice, an illusionary passage appeared outside the main hall.

The passage led to the Hagios Sect’s holy site, which was also the Human Race’s holy site.

After the passage appeared, many Hagios Sect’s disciples entered it. A few powerhouses from the other worlds also entered it.

James and Wyot were among them.

After passing through the passage, they appeared in a valley.

In the valley were nine Teleportation Formations. Each Teleportation Formation was guarded by the Hagios Sect’s powerhouses.

Each holy site required a specific amount of entry inscriptions.

If one had only one entry inscription, one could only enter the first-rank holy site.

The higher the rank of the holy site, the more entry inscriptions were required.

James had obtained many entry inscriptions. He also knew that these entry inscriptions were heaven and earth inscriptions formed from inside the holy site.

They contained potent power.

The more inscriptions one had, the stronger one’s energy would be. Hence, one could enter the holy sites of higher ranks.

Many Hagios Sect’s disciples entered the first-rank holy site.

A few stronger disciples entered the second-rank holy site.

Meanwhile, the powerhouses who were the Hagios Sect’s elders entered the seventh or eighth rank.

James showed up before the Teleportation Portal. He looked around and realized no one was entering the ninthrank one. He did not know why.

“Why aren’t there any living beings entering the ninth-rank holy site?” He glanced at Wyot beside him.

Wyot shook his head and said, “I’m not a Hagios Sect’s disciple. How would I know?”

“Haha.”

At this moment, laughter sounded from behind.

James turned around to look at who it was.

Landry, the Hagios Sect’s Leader, and a few core elders walked over.

Landry explained, ‘The heaven and earth pressure is too strong in the ninth-rank holy site. Even if a powerhouse in the Transcendental Bliss Rank enters the holy site, he won’t be able to resist the heaven and earth pressure. Since ancient times, only a few powerhouses could enter the ninth-rank holy site. Even I can only enter the eighth-rank holy site.’

“What’s your cultivation rank?” James asked.

Landry touched his beard and said with a smile, “I’m in the sixth stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank.” Upon hearing that, James gave Landry a thumbs up and praised, ‘You’re amazing.’

James had been to this era a long time ago, so he knew a bit about the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

The Transcendental Bliss Rank had nine stages.

In the first seven stages, a powerhouse would forget about the seven blisses.

Once the powerhouse reached the eighth stage, he would no longer have desires.

In the ninth stage, the powerhouse’s seven blisses would be restored, and they would enter the Yuraeceon Rank.

A powerhouse in the sixth stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank was terrifying.

He might be the strongest powerhouse in this era.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5652-The Transcendental Bliss Rank required one to forget all emotions and become desireless to reach the extreme.

After forgetting the seven blisses, one's seven blisses would gradually be restored. Only if the seven blisses were restored could one be considered a true living being.

Otherwise, one would be an emotionless puppet. It would go against the intention of cultivation.

James read a lot of books regarding the Transcendental Bliss Rank. From what he understood, the Transcendental Bliss Rank did not allow one to forget emotions. It was only a mental fortitude state.

As for what the truth was, he had no idea. He had not reached that cultivation rank yet. He needed to reach it to find out.

With a smile, Landry looked at James and said, "With your ability, you should be able to enter the seventh-rank holy site. Although it may be a little tough, your physical body is strong. You can resist the spatial pressure in the seventh-rank holy site."

"The seventh rank?" James frowned.

James wanted to go to the ninth-rank holy site, but he was worried he would face dangers upon entering it.

"What's the ninth rank like?" James asked.

Landry shook his head and said, "I've been to the ninth-rank holy site before, but only its border. The spatial pressure at the border of the ninth-rank holy site is very strong. It has countless ferocious energies. As for the deeper part of the holy site, I have no clue. I've never gone deeper."

Then, Landry stopped talking and entered the eighth-rank holy site.

James glanced at Wyot beside him and asked, "Which rank do you plan on entering?"

"The eighth rank," answered Wyot.

"Alright."

James nodded.

Then, he looked around the area and saw a living being approaching the Teleportation Formation of the ninth rank.

The living being was Xayvion.

Xayvion took out countless entry inscriptions, and the inscriptions entered the formation. Then, the formation opened. Without hesitating, he entered the formation and was sent to the ninth-rank holy site.

Seeing that Xayvion had entered the ninth-rank holy site, James wanted to do the same.

He walked over to the Teleportation Formation of the ninthrank holy site. Upon reaching the formation, he took out the entry inscriptions he obtained.

The entry inscriptions entered the Teleportation Formation.

Upon seeing Xayvion entering the formation with James following suit, many powerhouses present could not help but be shocked.

‘They’re crazy.’ “Are they seeking death? How could they go to the ninth rank?”

“Since ancient times, only a few powerhouses could enter the Human Race’s ninth-rank holy site. They’re practically giving up their lives.”

Voices sounded from all over the place.

Nonetheless, James ignored them.

Since Xayvion had already entered the ninth-rank holy site, James had to go too. If Xayvion obtained fortunes in the holy site, it would be harder for James to defeat or kill him.

James entered the Teleportation Formation.

The Teleportation Formation opened, and James’ vision went dark. When he appeared again, he was already in a bizarre world.

Upon arriving, he sensed the powerful spatial pressure. The spatial pressure was crushing. Even though his physical body had reached the late stage of the Quasi Bliss Rank, he found it hard to resist.

Under the crushing spatial pressure, countless wounds appeared on his body.

There was a figure ahead of him.

It was Xayvion.

At this moment, countless inscriptions were rotating around his body. He resisted the spatial pressure of this place.

He turned around and glanced at James, who was injured. He could not help but laugh. "James, how dare you enter the Human Race's ninth-rank holy site with your ability? You have overestimated yourself. Do you think you have the Obsidian Body?"

Xayvion laughed at James.

"I can kill you right now, but if I do that, the outside world won't know that I was the one who killed you. Currently, I have other important matters to tend to. I have to go deep into the ninth-rank world of the Human Race's holy site to search for fortunes. Once I leave the holy site, you will die."

Xayvion's voice was loud.

Under James' gaze, Xayvion's figure disappeared from this ferocious area.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5653-"Fuck."

James could not help but curse.

Then, a simplified version of the Obsidian Body Inscriptions appeared. The inscriptions were attached to the surface of his body.

They were inscriptions he created when he imitated the Obsidian Body previously. Even though they were not as powerful as the Obsidian Body, they could resist a bit of energy.

With the inscriptions resisting some of the energy along with his strong physical body, James managed to move in the area.

Hurriedly, he went after Xayvion.

After walking some distance, he encountered terrifying space storms. His body was instantly caught in the storm. He was like a small boat in the vast sea, swaying constantly with the storms.

The inscriptions on the surface of his body began to crack.

‘This is scary.’

James activated his power and stepped backward.

If he continued to go deeper, the inscriptions on the surface of his body would break. Once the inscriptions broke, he would die immediately as his physical power was insufficient to resist the space storms in the area.

James retreated to the border.

His expression became heavy.

“What should I do now? Do I go out?”

James frowned.

Go out?

There was no way!

Xayvion already went deeper into the holy site, so how could James fall behind?!

James felt upset.

He had to take a look no matter what. The spatial pressure of this place was too strong. Even a powerhouse in the Transcendental Bliss Rank dared not enter the holy site.

Now, James could only comprehend the Obsidian Body here and rely on the Obsidian Body to resist the heaven and earth pressure of this place.

He also needed to improve his physical power. His physical body had to reach the Transcendental Bliss Rank. That way, he could survive by relying on his powerful physical body.

Following this plan, James sat on the ground in a lotus position and set up a time formation.

He decided to cultivate here for some time.

He had already memorized Xayvion's inscriptions of the Obsidian Body. Now, he only needed time to comprehend the Obsidian Body. By using the Human Race's primitive inscriptions, he could replicate the Obsidian Body.

At the same time, he wanted to use this opportunity to improve his physical power.

After setting up a time formation around him, he walked into a deeper area. He began to use the heaven and earth pressure of this place to hone and train his physical body.

At once, his body fell apart.

As his body fell apart, it regained a new life.

Simultaneously, he broke down the inscriptions of the Obsidian Body. The inscriptions were magical. Each inscription would continuously transform.

However, no matter how magical the inscriptions were and how much they transformed, they could be broken down into the simplest inscriptions by the Primal Mantra.

James managed to break down one of the inscriptions. It turned into billions of simple inscriptions.

These simple inscriptions were constantly transforming. Meanwhile, James tried to comprehend the meaning hidden in the transformations.

His mind was like a supercomputer. It was operating continuously.

Unknowingly, he managed to comprehend one of the inscriptions.

Nonetheless, this was only the beginning.

There were many Obsidian Body Inscriptions. The number of inscriptions could be counted in billions. Aside from that, each inscription was constantly transforming. James needed time to comprehend them completely.

Nevertheless, he had set up a time formation. He could meditate in seclusion in the time formation and comprehend the inscriptions. He had a lot of time.

In the time formation, days passed. James kept honing his physical body. His physical body grew stronger, and his comprehension of the Obsidian Body Inscriptions increased.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5654-James spent a long time in the time formation. During this time, his physical body kept being destroyed, and he kept honing and training it using the body refinement technique.

His physical body was getting stronger.

James did not know for how long he had cultivated his physical body. He only knew that his physical power had increased to the late stage of the Consummation Quasi Bliss Rank from the late stage of the Quasi Bliss Rank. It even reached the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

Along with his stronger physical body came stronger resistance. Even though his cultivation rank was only in the Holy Celestial Rank, if he used his physical power, he could go up against a powerhouse in the first stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

As his physical body was getting stronger, his comprehension of the Obsidian Body Inscriptions also increased.

Soon, he fully comprehended the Obsidian Body Inscriptions. With a thought, countless inscriptions appeared.

The inscriptions were attached to the surface of his body. Instantly, he felt the pressure disappear.

“It’s so powerful that it’s terrifying.”

When James felt the inscriptions on the surface of his physical body, he smiled.

After putting in so much effort in cultivation, he finally comprehended the Obsidian Body.

Now, even though he might not be able to defeat or kill Xayvion, he could block all of his attacks.

Besides, he had mastered the Obsidian Body. It would now be easier to create inscriptions that targeted the Obsidian Body.

He sensed the time and realized hundreds of epochs had passed in the outside world.

“Has it been that long?” James frowned.

Three hundred epochs had passed. He did not know what fortunes Xayvion had obtained in the deepest part of the holy site. In a hurry, he went to search for Xayvion.

Without wasting anytime, he hurried forward.

With the Obsidian Body, the ferocious power of this place could no longer harm him.

He traveled through the violent area and entered the core area of the ninth-rank holy site.

Upon reaching the core area, he realized there were countless traces of paths and inscription sigils.

These inscriptions were the Human Race’s primitive inscriptions sigils.

After sensing all this, James felt disappointed.

He had already mastered the Human Race’s inscriptions. Thus, these inscription sigils were useless to him.

He scanned his surrounding area.

This area had spiritual mountains and lands. However, these spiritual mountains were not real. They were formed by inscriptions.

These inscriptions were fragmented sigils left behind after the birth of the Human Race’s inscriptions. Even though they were fragmented sigils, they contained the Will of Supreme Path. These fragments were mysterious.

Comprehending a few was sufficient to use for the rest of one’s life.

Aside from those, there were no other fortunes in the area.

He looked around, and just then, he sensed Xayvion's aura. Xayvion was currently at the top of a spiritual mountain.

His body was surrounded by a few Human Race's primitive inscription sigils.

He was in the state of comprehending paths, and his aura was powerful. He had already entered the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

His aura was getting stronger. It seemed that he was about to have a breakthrough.

"It seems he found enlightenment in the holy site." James could not help but curse. Then, he took action.

He waved his hand, and a materialized energy swept out.

The energy immediately shattered the primitive inscription sigils around Xayvion's body.

Countless primitive inscription sigils gathered. They almost formed the Human Race's primitive inscriptions. However, they shattered at the critical moment.

Xayvion, who was in the state of comprehending paths, was interrupted.

"James, you're seeking death."

Since his state of comprehending paths was interrupted, he was furious. His exuded a powerful aura. With a thought, the inscriptions of many races appeared. These inscriptions gathered and formed a black longsword.

Holding the black longsword, he slashed at James.

James stood in the same spot and let Xayvion attack him.

When Xayvion's sword landed on James' body, several mysterious inscriptions appeared on the surface of James' body, blocking Xayvion's attack.

"Huh?"

Upon seeing this scene, Xayvion was stunned. He was completely baffled.
