The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5701-Talvelai nodded gently in response.

After the brief exchange of words, James left. The next moment, he returned to the dark void.

He released his Zen and sensed the Dark World.

James could constantly sense his outside surroundings when he integrated his Divine Soul into the inscriptions scattered through the Dark World.

After his resurrection, he had a great understanding of the Dark World. He knew many things that others did not.

‘Beware of Thea.’ A memory resurfaced in James’ mind.

While James was inside a secret realm, he encountered Lady Tehila of the Endlos Plane. At the end of the secret realm, Lady Tehila warned him about some things.

However, James never pondered on them and chose to forget because they were related to Thea.

Back then, he could not understand why Lady Tehila would give him such a warning. It was not until recently that he understood.

James’ Zen slowly returned from the darkness. Afterward, he teleported to an area outside of the Prison World.

A powerful formation surrounded the Prison World. It was made from the primitive inscriptions of the remaining Primevals in the Dark World.

The only way to break the formation was to master every race’s primitive inscriptions, which James had already achieved while in the Anceralos World. It would be quite easy for him to break the formation.

James stood before the formation and waved his hand. Countless inscriptions emerged from his palm and submerged into the formation.

The formation inscriptions were instantly transformed and dissolved.

James destroyed the formation in a matter of seconds. Then, he headed to the Eminence Academy's main hall.

After sensing the formation being broken, powerhouses immediately gathered inside the Eminence Academy's main hall.

Gustav sat in the highest seat, holding a meeting with his subordinates.

"J-James?" Gustav was startled to see James.

James nodded and said, 'I've already broken the formation. Everyone in the Prison World has been freed and can return to the Dark World. By the way, where's Thea?'

When James last came to the Prison World, Thea stayed in the Eminence Academy. James's cultivation rank was low back then, and he could not bring her out.

Moreover, Thea even insisted on staying behind to cultivate.

Gustav replied, "She's retreating behind the mountain."

"Alright." James nodded lightly, then disappeared from the hall. The next moment, he was already at the back of the mountain.

A woman in a black dress could be seen sitting on a black rock. Her body was surrounded by a dark aura, which gradually submerged into her body.

James had mastered all of the primitive inscriptions in the Dark World. However, the inscriptions around Thea were unfamiliar to him.

He could not help but feel a sense of fear.

Thea's cultivation rank used to be pretty low. However, her aura was now very powerful. She had already reached the peak of the Quasi Bliss Rank and was close to entering the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5702-Thea's aura was potent. At that moment, she had already reached the Quasi Bliss Rank's Consummation, and her body was surrounded by some inscriptions that even James had never seen before. It seemed like she was about to make a breakthrough in her cultivation.

'Thea,' James called out to her, interrupting her cultivation.

Hearing James' voice, Thea immediately halted her cultivation process and retrained her aura. The inscriptions around her body also dispersed.

She stood up, and her face lit up with joy.

"James! You're finally here!"

"Yeah." James nodded and walked over. Then, he said smilingly, "I haven't seen you in a while, and you've already improved so much. You're already at the Quasi Bliss Rank. I hope I didn't disturb you."

"Of course not!" Thea revealed a beautiful smile.

James said, "When I arrived, I saw a black aura surrounding your body. It looked a bit scary."

Thea explained, "During these years, I've been absorbing Dark Power to cultivate. Although I improve incredibly fast, I've absorbed too much Dark Power.

As a result, I've been contaminated with the aura of darkness. When I cultivate, it's normal for a black mist to surround my body."

James smiled and said, "Then what kind of inscriptions did you cultivate? When I arrived, I saw very unfamiliar inscriptions around you." Thea answered, 'That... I'm also not too sure. After I absorbed a lot of Dark Power, these energies gathered inside my body and formed into mysterious inscriptions. When I cultivate these inscriptions, I feel like my body is one with the darkness."

"Is that so?" James frowned.

"Yeah." Thea nodded.

James did not pry any further. He stood in place and scanned the Prison World with his Zen. Soon, he located the powerhouses that had been sealed away.

He summoned some inscriptions and spread them out.

The inscriptions scattered throughout the air and eventually arrived where the powerhouses were sealed.

The formations trapping them were instantly broken, releasing the imprisoned powerhouses.

Thea frowned and said, "You just released a lot of powerhouses. Are you not worried another incident will happen?" James said smilingly, "I've already entered the Transcendental Bliss Rank. Even if I let them out, they won't be able to do much damage. Plus, there's you to help me. You're already at the Quasi Bliss Rank's Consummation.

With your talent, entering the Transcendental Bliss Rank will be a piece of cake. I'm sure you can enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank if you want. If I can't deal with them, I'm sure you'll be able to."

"Of course!" Thea smiled triumphantly and said, "I have a Tenebrous Body and can absorb all kinds of powers to improve my cultivation rank. If you hadn't disturbed me, I would've already entered the Transcendental Bliss Rank."

Thea's cultivation rank used to be relatively low. Although she wanted to help James, she was quite powerless.

Now that she had reached the Quasi Bliss Rank's Consummation and was about to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank, she was happy to be able to provide James with assistance.

"I'm planning to merge the Prison World with the new world to reform the Anceralos World."

"What?" Thea was stunned. She had been in the Prison World for a long time and was unaware the countless planes had already been merged.

James patiently explained everything that happened, including how he chased after Xayvion into the Anceralos Era and how he destroyed the Anceralos World.

“Xayvion and I destroyed the Anceralos World. I died after the collapse of the Anceralos World. As for what happened next, I have no clue. I didn’t even uncover the truth about the Halcyon Road. It’s still a mystery as to why so little is recorded about the Anceralos World.”

Thea fell into deep thoughts.

After a while, she had a pained expression, and beads of sweat rolled down her forehead.

James noticed something unusual about her and asked, “What’s wrong?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5703-Thea shook her head and wiped the sweat off her forehead. Then, she replied, “I don’t know. I suddenly felt uncomfortable.”

James looked at her and fell into thought.

“What’s on your mind?” Thea interrupted his thoughts.

James shook his head and said, “It’s nothing.”

“James...”

Suddenly, a voice called out.

James turned toward where the sound came from and saw an elderly monk.

The monk took a step forward and immediately appeared before James.

“Zeno,” James greeted him.

“Did you break the formation of the Prison World?”

“Yeah. Is something the matter?” asked James.

Zeno gave a thumbs up and said, “Great job. Since you’ve opened the formation, it means you’ve mastered the primitive inscriptions of the Dark World’s different races.”

“Yeah,” James nodded and said, “I’m planning to merge the Prison World with the new plane outside to reform the Anceralos World.”

“Gather!” James shouted.

At that moment, a powerful force emerged from his body and forcibly moved the Prison World.

The Prison World began to shift through the darkness and rushed toward the Endlos Plane.

Those who had yet to leave the Prison World could sense it advancing rapidly.

Powerhouses of the Dark World could sense the Sealing Formation around the Prison World had been removed, and they were suddenly being moved.

“What on earth is going on?”

“Why did the formation around the Prison World disappear?”

“The Dark World had finally ushered in peace. After the powerhouses within the Prison World are released, they will wreak havoc!”

The Dark World’s various races were worried and paid close attention to the Prison World.

James controlled the Prison World toward the Endlos Plane. Then, he teleported to Mount Bane.

He stood at the apex of Mount Bane. At that moment, there was already a woman cultivating atop the mountain. She was incredibly beautiful and wore a pink dress. Her cultivation was only at the Petit Celestial Rank.

“James...”

When the woman saw James, she stood up to greet him.

James looked at her and recalled some memories.

“What are you doing here, Maxine?” asked James.

Maxine looked at him and replied tenderly, “I’ve been cultivating here.”

James said, ‘You can continue. I won’t disturb you. I’m here to merge the Prison World with our current plane.’

Immediately afterward, he jumped into the air and hovered above the mountain.

James urged his strength, and countless inscriptions emerged from his body.

At that moment, the Prison World was already close to the new plane. Soon enough, the two had made contact, and their borders began to crumble

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5704-James began to merge the Human Race’s Mount Bane into the new plane and Prison World. Once integrated, it would be a world equivalent to Ancestral Site.

Previously, it was difficult for them to merge planes in the past as he had to bear a potent pressure from heaven and earth.

Now, he was relaxed. With his current cultivation rank, he could easily resist the pressure.

The Prison World and the new plane gradually fused.

Boom!

After the two completely merged, the Prison World ceased to exist.

A rumbling sound spread throughout the new plane, and many new areas formed.

Mount Bane also transformed, and new spiritual mountains emerged from the ground.

The Human Race's Anceralos also reappeared.

Maxine, who was cultivating atop Mount Bane, also benefited greatly from the fusion.

The Human Race's Anceralos just so happened to emerge in the area where Maxine was. Therefore, she was fortunate to be blessed by the heaven and earth. Her cultivation rank and aura improved rapidly.

Meanwhile, the members of the Human Race's Heavenly Court were also blessed because it was located within the Ancestral Site.

"It's a success. I've restored the Ancestral Site." James stood in the void and released his Divine Sense to scan the world. He sensed the powers similar to when he traveled to the Anceralos World.

After the Anceralos World was restored, many of the major race's ancestral sites that have disappeared from the Dark World reappeared.

Countless spiritual mountains and magical lands appeared throughout the Anceralos World.

"The Anceralos World has been restored!"

"It's restored!"

The powerhouses within the Dark World were excited after sensing their race's ancestral sites.

James, on the other hand, did not receive any blessings.

Unfortunately for him, no boons or treasures within the Anceralos World could improve his cultivation rank.

He needed to slowly cultivate and understand the Transcendental Bliss Rank and the seven emotions.

Swoosh!

Thea appeared in front of him. As always, she was beautiful and was dressed in a black dress. She smiled brightly and said, "Congratulations!"

“I destroyed the Anceralos World back then. Now that I’ve restored it, the karma I’ve attracted should be neutralized.”

James sighed, then said, “Let’s go to the Mevryees. Your father is still inside my Inscription World.

After speaking, James held Thea’s hand and departed toward the Mevryees’ territory.

Soon enough, they arrived at their destination. Once again, James passed through the formation with much ease and entered the Mevryees’ spiritual mountain.

Talvelai was still waiting within James’ Inscription World, which could sever the connection with the outside world, temporarily blocking out the force trying to devour Talvelai.

“You’re here too, Thea?”

Talvelai smiled after seeing Thea.

“Father,” Thea greeted him back.

Talvelai nodded lightly, then turned to James and asked, “ You mentioned having to verify something. What was it?”

James did not explain. Instead, he said, “I’ll disperse the inscriptions and help you resist the pressure from the Dark World. You’ll have to try to make a breakthrough.”

“Alright.” Talvelai nodded.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5705-James dispersed the inscriptions.

Talvelai immediately felt the Dark World’s pressure and fell to the ground. He struggled to sit up and then mobilized his strength to resist the force.

At that moment, James took action. A powerful force emerged from his body, forming a protective shield around Talvelai.

After doing so, James also felt a terrifying force crushing down on him.

Even though he was powerful, he found it hard to resist.

James roared, "Break!"

Meanwhile, Talvelai used all his strength, and his aura was at its most potent state.

He had already entered the Quasi Bliss Rank's Consummation a long time ago.

Theoretically, he was supposed to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

However, he entered the Ritual Rank instead.

Unfortunately, he had obtained too many boons and blessings throughout his life. Therefore, he was chosen to enter the Ritual Rank.

Without the suppression of the Dark World, it was relatively easy for him to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

Talvelai unleashed all his strength and soon sensed the realm barrier. His powers gathered to form a sharp blade and pierced through his brain.

At that moment, Talvelai had a breakthrough and entered the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

Fortunately, the whole process was met with no accidents.

After Talvelai succeeded, the pressure from the Dark World disappeared.

He looked at Thea suspiciously and dispersed the protective shield.

"So, is this the power of the Transcendental Bliss Rank?"

Talvelai sensed the power flowing through his body and rejoiced, "It's so powerful."

James was surprised by Talvelai's successful breakthrough into the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

He expected an accident to have happened. However, everything was smooth sailing, and he entered the Transcendental Bliss Rank with ease.

"What's wrong? Why are you looking at me like that?" Thea frowned.

"It's nothing." James did not ask any questions.

"Since my father has already entered the Transcendental Bliss Rank, I'll return to Heavenly Court. I haven't seen the kids in so long."

After leaving a few words, Thea disappeared from the area.

"What's the matter?"

After Thea left, Talvelai asked, "I can tell something is wrong."

James waved his hand and summoned a chair. He sat down, rubbed his forehead, and asked, "Don't you sense something abnormal?"

"No. What's abnormal?" asked Talvelai.

"I chased after Xayvion and arrived in the Anceralos Era. Back then, I sacrificed myself for the Dark World. Before that, I actually entered the Ritual Rank. A powerhouse from the Anceralos Era came to me and shared some stuff.."

James explained the Ritual Rank and the existence of Xayal to Talvelai.

"For Talvelai to recover, he needed to collect energy from the Dark World. The Ritual Rank is a very special existence needed to give back to the Dark World.

However, Xayal absorbed the energy from the Dark World to recover. Thus, the energy from those who perish at the Ritual Rank was absorbed by him."

Talvelai frowned and asked, "What are you trying to say?"

James said, "In this era, you are the first to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

After the Halcyon Road disappeared, it was rumored that one would have to enter the Halcyon Road to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank.”

Talvelai was slightly confused and could not understand what James was trying to suggest.

James said sorrowfully, ‘Thea has a Tenebrous Body, which is recorded in ancient books. Her body can absorb all kinds of energy from the Dark World.’

Talvelai caught onto James’ words and asked, “So you’re saying Thea is Xayal?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5706-James fell silent, not giving a certain answer.

Although he had a rough guess, there was no evidence to prove it.

“I’ll leave first,” James bid farewell, then left.

After leaving the Mevryees, he returned directly to the Anceralos World he had just successfully merged.

James silently returned to the Anceralos World’s Elysium Hall. Then, he appeared at the backside of a mountain and found a man cultivating in a lotus position.

Qairo had a potent aura emerging from his body. Upon sensing James, he quickly stopped cultivating and stood up.

“James.”

“Mhm.” James nodded and looked at him.

Qairo was still at the peak of the Quasi Bliss Rank’s Consummation and had yet to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

“Do you have the confidence to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank right now?”

asked James.

“Uh...” Qairo contemplated. After a while, he replied, “With my cultivation base, I could’ve made a breakthrough a long time ago. However, I wasn’t certain...”

Naturally, James was aware of Qairo’s concerns.

Qairo feared encountering another incident while trying to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

Previously, he had suffered a Heavenly Tribulation and failed to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

“By the way...”

James asked, “When you tried to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank last time, what happened during your tribulation?”

Qairo’s face became solemn.

James said, ‘You can answer truthfully.’

“Alright.” Qairo nodded, then searched his memories. The scene of him trying to overcome the tribulation surfaced in his mind. After a while, he replied, “When I tried to break into the Transcendental Bliss Rank, I encountered a Heavenly Tribulation. It was really strange, and I definitely sensed an abnormal existence.”

“An abnormal existence?” James frowned.

Qairo explained, ‘Yeah. It seemed to be a living being.

However, I could not sense any life force from it. It seemed like the law of the Heavenly Path, but it was terrifying.”

Qairo recounted the scenes of when he tried to make a breakthrough in his cultivation rank. He could not be sure of what had happened. However, he had sensed someone or something else within the Heavenly Tribulation.

“Go ahead and make a breakthrough. I’ll protect you,” said James.

“Huh?” Startled, Qairo asked, “You’re going to protect me? Will it be safe?”

Qairo was slightly worried.

James replied, “Just try it. Talvelai from the Mevyrees has already succeeded.”

“Okay.” After being given enough reassurance, Qairo nodded and agreed.

“Let’s go outside of this universe,” James suggested.

Qairo stood up and appeared outside the universe. Then, he sat in a lotus position and released his potent aura.

James stood nearby and watched.

As Qairo’s aura increased, a Tribulation Cloud appeared in the void. James stared at the Tribulation Cloud but found nothing wrong with it. It was like a normal Tribulation Cloud formed with the rules of Heaven and Earth.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5707-Soon, lightning tribulations began to strike.

Qairo was really accomplished in the Quasi Bliss Rank. Moreover, he received a blessing during the fusion of the plane. As a result, he had grown even stronger.

He easily resisted the lightning tribulations.

The power of his Heavenly Tribulation was potent and lasted very long.

However, Qairo withstood it with his overwhelming strength. It was not long before he successfully entered the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

Qairo made a breakthrough without any accidents this time. He exclaimed happily, "I did it! I've entered the Transcendental Bliss Rank! Who the hell spread the rumors about being unable to enter the rank without first passing through the Halcyon Road?"

James nodded lightly and said, "Good job. Alright, let's head back."

After speaking, James returned to the Elysium Hall.

Many powerhouses had gathered in the main hall.

Quattro looked at him in disbelief and asked, "Have you successfully entered the Transcendental Bliss Rank, big fool? Did you really succeed?"

Xeraiah stared at him and said, "That's unreasonable. Isn't entering the Transcendental Bliss Rank impossible without entering the Halcyon Road? How did you do it?"

James looked at Xeraiah and said smilingly, "You're also at the Quasi Bliss Rank's Consummation, right? You should try to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank."

"Huh?" Xeraiah was stunned. To be honest, he was afraid of trying to make a breakthrough.

Legend was that nobody could enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank without passing through the Halcyon Road. Thus, he wanted to wait for it to open so he could enter and attempt to raise his cultivation rank."

Xeraiah was slightly hesitant to do as James said.

James reassured him, "Talvelai was the first to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank, followed by Qairo. I think you should try it out."

"Okay." After learning that two living beings had already entered the Transcendental Bliss Rank, Xeraiah decided to also give it a go.

He disappeared from the main hall and appeared outside of the universe.

James did not follow him. Instead, he watched from the Elysium Hall. If anything were to happen, he could still intervene in time.

Xeraiah sat down in the void and emitted a potent aura.

Unlike Qairo, he did not face a Heavenly Tribulation. He easily broke through the realm barrier and entered the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

“Haha!” Xeraiah giggled happily after succeeding.

He returned to the Elysium Hall with a big grin. After sensing the power flowing through his body, he said smilingly, “

Incredible! I feel so strong! It’s so much different from the Quasi Bliss Rank.”

After witnessing three of his acquaintances successfully enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank, James was puzzled.

‘Why did the previous phenomena disappear? The Halcyon Road had disappeared for a long time. During this period, countless powerhouses were born. However, they all encountered accidents while trying to enter the Transcendental Bliss Rank. They either died or their souls were damaged.’

James was confused about why entering the Transcendental Bliss Rank had become so effortless.

Quattro looked at Qairo and Xeraiah jealously. Then, he said indifferently, “What’s so special about the Transcendental Bliss Rank? As long as I work hard, I’ll reach the Transcendental Bliss Rank in no time.”

James looked at Quattro but did not say anything much. He turned to the others in the hall and said, “Now that the Anceralos World has been restored, there’s nothing else for me to do here. I’ll return to the Heavenly Court.”

After leaving a few words, James disappeared from the main hall. The next moment, he was already back in the Human Race’s Heavenly Court.

When he arrived, he found that the Heavenly Court was surrounded by powerhouses.

James’ brows furrowed. He walked over and asked, “What’s going on?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5708-James returned to the humans' Heavenly Court. However, he found them besieged by a group of powerhouse.

An army and some powerhouses from the Human Race gathered outside the South Heaven Gate.

Thea stood at the forefront, staring coldly at the many creatures besieging the Heavenly Court.

Swoosh!

At that moment, a light descended from the sky, and a man emerged before the humans.

"James!"

"Dad!"

Everyone called out to him.

James looked at the armed humans behind him, nodded lightly, then looked at the opponents.

He unleashed his Zen and found that they were really powerful. Amongst them was someone at the Transcendental Bliss Rank with great achievements.

James glared at them and asked, "Why are you attacking us? Who are you people?"

A man walked out of the group, stared at James, and replied, "We were ordered to capture Thea."

James frowned and asked, "Capture Thea? By who? Why do you want to capture her?"

"These are questions you shouldn't ask. We're under orders and aren't here to kill anyone. If you're sensible, please step away."

Thea stepped forward and said, "They're too strong, James. I'll go with them..."

James waved his hand, motioning for her to step back.

The group's captain explained, 'We're Theognostos from the Halcyon Road. We've been ordered to capture her.'

'Theognostos from the Halcyon Road?' James was confused.

He thought Theognostos was a bluff he had made up. While he was weak, he made a fake illusion of Theognostos to scare off other major races of the Dark World.

He could not believe Theognostos was real and even appeared outside the Heavenly Court.

After a brief confusion, James replied, 'Go back and tell your master that he'll have to come in person to capture her.'

"You're seeking death, young man."

James stared at the man and learned he was at the Transcendental Bliss Rank's third stage. Despite that, he was not a match for James.

"Do you need me to use violence?" James glared at him.

'You must have a death wish.'

The man's face darkened, and he suddenly took a step forward. The surroundings began to tremble, and it seemed like the sky was about to fall.

He summoned a long sword and slashed at James with terrifying force.

The powerhouses standing behind James felt the powerful force and were immediately knocked away.

James stood firmly in place, and some mysterious inscriptions appeared on the surface of his body to block the attack.

The attack struck the inscriptions, but James was unscathed.

"Obsidian Body?" The man exclaimed, then stepped away.

He immediately ordered, "Retreat!"

The group surrounding the Heavenly Court quickly fled.

The Heavenly Court was about to face a crisis, but James easily resolved it.

Thea rushed over and asked worriedly, “Are you alright?”

The other humans also approached. James turned to them and said, “I’m fine.

Everyone should head back first.” “Okay.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5709-Everyone returned to the Heavenly Court.

James and Thea sat together in a lounge of one of the Heavenly Court’s palaces.

Thea asked confusedly, “Who were those people? Why are they trying to capture me? What kind of place is the Theognostos? What’s inside the Halcyon Road? What kind of force are they?”

James frowned at her series of questions. He knew about the Halcyon Road. It was just a passage to leave the Dark World. However, he was clueless about Theognostos from the Halcyon Road. In the original Anceralos World, there was only a world created by the various forces to guard the Halcyon Road.

Now, James was also curious about what had happened after he and Xayvion perished. Why did the Halcyon Road disappear?

James could not answer Thea’s questions. He looked at her, rubbed her head, and said smilingly, “Don’t worry. Everything will be fine.”

Thea felt relieved by James’ comforting words.

In the Halcyon Road, there was a world with a massive spiritual mountain. On its apex was a grand mansion, whereas at the foot of the mountain was a stone table with an engraved word-Theognostos.

Inside Theognostos' main hall, a man knelt on the ground and reported, "I'm sorry, my lord. When trying to capture Thea, we were blocked by a man who could cast the Obsidian Body."

A handsome man sat in the highest seat, and a beautiful woman stood beside him.

The woman said surprisedly, "The Obsidian Body is history. Only two people were capable of casting it, including James and Xayvion. Could it be..."

The woman looked at the man beside her.

The man said, "Impossible. James chased Xayvion into the Anceralos Era. I had deliberately waited to take action against Thea while he was gone. I didn't want to make it difficult for him."

The woman asked doubtfully, "Could it be he's really alive?" After thinking for a while, the man said, "Go pay them a visit." The woman asked, "If James didn't die, did he return from the Anceralos Era?"

The man replied, "Even if he returned, we must capture Thea. We can't let her continue to grow. Otherwise, she'll become a threat to the Dark World."

After thinking for a while, the woman said, "If James returned, capturing Thea would be tough. Unless you kill him, it won't be possible to capture her."

Hearing this, the man fell into a dilemma. He gently rubbed his forehead, thought for a while, and said, "With your current strength, you should be able to trap him for a while. Capture Thea first, then we'll explain it to him later."

"Alright." The woman disappeared after receiving the order.

James sat at the Thirty-Third Heaven in the Human Race's Heavenly Court. He released his Zen throughout the Dark World.

Under his induction, he found that the Halcyon Road's entrance had reappeared in the deepest part of the Dark World.

James wanted to venture the Halcyon Road again to see what had appeared in it. However, he could not afford to leave. He had to wait in the Heavenly Court for Theognostos' Lord to arrive. He was curious to find out who led Theognostos.

Meanwhile, many people had gathered inside a certain manor of the Heavenly Court.

children were also present.

Hetsema sat on a chair and said puzzledly, "What the hell is going on? The Anceralos World had just recovered, and we're supposed to be ushering in a great era. Yet, a bunch of powerhouses suddenly appeared out of nowhere."

"Perhaps Dad knows the truth but didn't tell us about it," said Jacopo.

Winnie intervened, saying, "Don't worry about this stuff. Our cultivation ranks are too low and can't be of much help. We can only wait patiently and focus on improving."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5710-In the Human Race's Heavenly Court, James found the Halcyon Road that had reappeared at the depths of the Dark World. However, the other races were still unaware.

Despite that, it would not be long before the news about the Halcyon Road's reemergence spread throughout the Dark World.

Nobody knew what kind of storm it would stir up this time.

Outside the Heavenly Court, a woman appeared. She immediately caught the attention of the Heavenly Court's powerhouses.

Many of the Heavenly Court's members appeared at the South Heaven Gate.

A woman in a white dress and an exceptional aura hovered outside the South Heaven Gate. She looked like a mysterious and ethereal being.

Many people, especially Hetsema, were stunned to see the woman. He stared at the woman, and memories of the distant past resurfaced.

Hetsema shouted, "Mom!"

The woman who had appeared was Yemima, Hetsema's biological mother.

However, Yemima had already been reincarnated, and her current body was of a white fox.

She had only recovered her memories after being in the Anceralos Era for some time.

Yemima did not respond to Hetsema. Instead, she shouted, "I came to bring Thea with me."

Swoosh!

James and Thea immediately appeared after she finished her sentence.

Upon seeing the woman outside, James frowned.

"James? You're alive?" Yemima was overjoyed.

However, her joy did not last for long. She looked at Thea solemnly and said, "You should come with me, Thea. I don't want to hurt anyone."

Thea wanted to approach, but James stretched out his arms and blocked her path.

James looked at Yemioma and said calmly, "Why are you trying to take her?

Give me a reason."

"James..." Yemima hesitated. After a while, she answered, "You'll understand soon." "Well, I'm sorry then," James stared at her and said solemnly, "Nobody can take her as long as I'm here."

James stared at Yemima and found she was stronger than Landry of the Hagios Sect.

Landry was at the Transcendental Bliss Rank's sixth stage. Yet, Yemima's aura was much stronger than his.

In other words, she must be at least at the Transcendental Bliss Rank's sixth stage.

James looked at her and said, "It seems you two never returned to this era.

Instead, you lived in the Anceralos Era until you came back here. It just so happens that I have many questions about what had happened after my death.”

“It’s best for you not to know. It won’t do you any good,” said Yemima.

James asked, “Why?”

Yemima did not explain and took a step forward.

“Stop!” James stretched his hand and said coldly, “If you take another step, I won’t show any mercy.”

Yemima’s aura suddenly grew stronger. “I must take her away today.”

After she finished speaking, she continued approaching. The Heavenly Court’s members could not withstand the crushing aura and were forced to retreat into the South Heaven Gate.

James stood firmly in place and resisted the powerful force.

‘The Transcendental Bliss Rank’s eighth stage,’ he thought.

James stared at Yemima and could not believe she had reached such a high cultivation rank.

Faced against Yemima, who was at the Transcendental Bliss Rank’s sixth stage’s eighth stage, James did not dare to be reckless. He activated the Obsidian Body, and many inscriptions appeared on the surface of his body.

At the same time, he cast the Tressencia Completare Art.

His mysterious formation appeared above the South Heaven Gate. James’ past and future forms appeared on the formation. Both of them were at the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

The two forms merged with his present form, and a potent force emerged.

‘Tressencia Completare Art!’

Yemima frowned and said, “I don’t want to fight you, James. My mission is to take Thea with me. If you insist on stopping me, I’ll have no other choice.”
