

Read Novel [ The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5721

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5721-In the face of witnessing Thea's death under the Dark Heavenly Path, the power that James once wielded surged forth. It rapidly recovered and elevated to a realm beyond even James' own estimation.

Seated in a lotus position, he stabilized the power from his past form. With a slight mental exertion, a mysterious formation materialized.

Above the formation, a figure identical to him emerged. This man sat in a lotus position, dressed in a black robe and enveloped in a dark mist, resembling a demonic overlord.

James stared fixedly at his past form. He could sense that it was currently very strong, at least reaching the ninth stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank, close to the Yuraeceon Rank.

With a single thought, James' soul merged into his past form. In that moment, he fully grasped his past form, mastering the power derived from the past without any sense of discomfort.

His Divine Soul returned to his main self. Once again, he willed his future form into existence. The aura of his future form was weaker, comparable to his current form, which was at the stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

James exhaled in relief after not sensing anything abnormal.

James sat in a lotus position on the summit of the spiritual mountain in the deepest reaches of the Dark World.

"Thea is the embodiment of the Dark Heavenly Path. She's not the evil god Xayal. So, where is the true Xayal?" James pondered this question.

Originally, the Dark Heavenly Path had suffered injuries alongside Xayal.

However, he remained elusive while the path had recovered.

Countless inscriptions rotated and converged into a mysterious Extrapolation Formation before James. He began extrapolating the whereabouts of Xayal through various clues.

After a thorough extrapolation, he failed to pinpoint Xayal's location. He could only give up, as Hershya had observed the operation of the Dark Heavenly Path for countless ages but could not find Xayal.

Xayal could conceal himself even from the Dark Heavenly Path, so how could James' Extrapolation Formation possibly extrapolate Xayal's location?

James gazed into the distant dark space. In a trance, he seemed to witness countless mysterious inscriptions intertwining, as if he could see everything in the Dark World through these inscriptions. They were the rules, the order, the Dark Heavenly Path, and the foundation of the entire Dark World.

Observing these inscription rules, James seemed to see Thea, as if her figure manifested amidst the rules and order. This shadow was Thea. She seemed to step out from the Dark Heavenly Path, or rather, the Dark Heavenly Path seemed to be giving birth to consciousness.

At this moment, another force not belonging to the darkness emerged within the Dark Heavenly Path and constrained the path. More precisely, it restrained the birth of consciousness within the Dark Heavenly Path.

James looked into the distant darkness, sensing an impending presence. At that moment, he abruptly awakened, unable to contain his shock.

"Evil god Xayal!" James' face reflected astonishment. "No wonder I couldn't find him. He had long merged into the Dark Heavenly Path."

At this moment, James understood that the reason the Dark Heavenly Path birthed consciousness and formed Thea was due to coercion.

Without consciousness and the formation of living beings, she would forever be confined to a set of rules and order. Consequently, she would be consumed by Xayal. Driven by this impending threat, she was compelled to foster consciousness and transcendence to eventually overcome Xayal once and for all.

All the while, Xayal remained hidden within the Dark Heavenly Path. Currently, the consciousness that had originated from the Dark Heavenly Path had dispersed. To be more accurate, it had once again merged into the path, engaging in a confrontation with Xayal within the confines of these rules and orders.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 2 Average: 5]

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5722-James gazed into the depths of darkness. It seemed like he could see the Dark Heavenly Path, the rules, and orders imbued with consciousness seemingly resisting another force from beyond the heavens.

At this moment, he understood that Xayal had never undergone reincarnation.

Instead, his Divine Soul had fused with the Dark Heavenly Path. His goal was to gain complete control over the Dark Heavenly Path and dominate the universe.

In response, the consciousness of the path was born, transcending it and intending to prevent his dominance.

Now, the consciousness born from the Dark Heavenly Path had been shattered and reabsorbed into it. This meant that Xayal could potentially control it to become the new Heavenly Path of the Dark World.

If Thea could not withstand and resist Xayal, then she would be completely extinguished and entirely replaced by Xayal. That would be a disaster for the Dark World.

James could not control the calamity of the Dark World. He only cared about Thea's survival at this moment. He closed his eyes and pondered on a corresponding strategy.

However, any strategy was useless in the face of absolute strength.

Xayal was an existence above the Yuraeceon Rank. Even a Yuraeceon Rank powerhouse had no odds of winning in a contest against him.

Previously, many Yuraeceon Rank powerhouses joined forces, activating and drawing upon the Dark Heavenly Path to severely wound Xayal.

James was currently only in the first stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank, and he could not stand against Xayal.

The top priority was to focus on cultivation to elevate his own cultivation realm before the Dark Heavenly Path was completely controlled by Xayal. When the time came, he could join forces with the Dark Heavenly Path and Thea to completely kill Xayal.

‘Transcendental Bliss Rank, sever the Seven Emotions,’ James muttered softly.

It was challenging, although it seemed simple. He was just a human. He wondered if he would still be considered human if he severed the Seven Emotions.

However, this was a process of cultivation and strength improvement that he had to go through. He needed to experience it.

His past form had reached the peak ninth stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank. It was created through his cultivation which represented his past.

In other words, it was easy to elevate his current form’s realm. He just needed to sever the Seven Emotions to advance.

James activated his aura to the utmost, reaching the pinnacle of the first stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

In a trance, a vague “joy” character appeared above his head. This character seemed to be inside his body, an invisible shackle that sealed and restricted him.

The invisible shackle and the invisible “jo/” character appeared in James’ mind, bringing forth numerous scenes. These were the moments he spent with Thea.

“I can’t forget. How can I sever this?” James’ face showed helplessness.

“Break!” James’ aura continued to rise, his power reaching its peak and forming an invisible blade that slashed at the invisible “joy” character.

However, his full-force strike appeared weak and insignificant. Striking the character seemed feeble, and it remained motionless, showing no sign of cracking.

The first attempt at breaking through to sever emotions failed.

James halted temporarily.

For him, “love” represented the first hurdle and the most challenging one.

Severing love meant forgetting Thea entirely. Severing and eliminating love would make everything simpler.

Although the emotions would eventually recover, severing them now was tough for James at this stage. He would need some time to dilute everything. As long as the time was long enough, he would eventually forget everything.

James laid down a time formation around him and sat in a lotus position. He remained motionless like a stone statue, sitting on the spiritual mountain in the deepest darkness.

Time passed day by day. At the end of the Halcyon Road, Wyot led the forces from the Halcyon Road to eradicate Xayal’s subordinates completely. This brought peace to the Dark World, although it was what they perceived as peace.

The Halcyon Road reopened after the tranquility in the Dark World. Some Yuraeceon Rank living beings left the Dark World in pursuit of higher realms and ventured into the broader universe. Yet, some stayed behind.

The Dark World ushered in a glorious era. In this era, geniuses and powerhouses were abundant. Without constraints from the Heavenly Path, many powerhouses broke through to the Transcendental Bliss Rank, and they delved into the deepest parts of the darkness in pursuit of higher realms.

They discovered a mysterious formation in the deepest part of the Dark World.

No one knew when this formation had come into existence, who had set it up, or what it contained. One person learned of it, and the news quickly spread.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 2 Average: 5]

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5723-News of the formation in the deepest reaches of the Dark World spread. Over time, this place became a forbidden zone that no powerhouse could enter, turning it into the most mysterious forbidden zone in the Dark World.

The outside world referred to this place as the Dark Forbidden Zone.

James sat in a lotus position within the time formation. While the outside world moved through endless years, his experience within the time formation was even longer.

“Boom!” A thunderous roar echoed outside the formation.

James was abruptly awakened. His Zen leaked out, and he saw a woman being pursued. He was shaken upon seeing this woman.

“Thea?” He was stunned. Sitting in this place for countless ages to dilute everything with time, he had almost forgotten Thea. Now, she reappeared.

“It’s the Inner Demon.” James instantly understood. It was not that Thea had truly appeared, but rather his Inner Demon surfacing.

Despite time’s ability to dilute everything, the image of Thea was etched in the deepest recesses of his mind and soul.

As the moment of forgetfulness approached, the Inner Demon emerged.

Specifically, the primal desire within his heart appeared. His instinct led him to remember and recall rather than to forget.

At this moment, James’ expression was complex. Pain etched his face as he battled the conflict within himself.

To save or not to save?

Not saving meant watching Thea being pursued. Saving meant succumbing to the influence of the Inner Demon, rendering futile the countless years of effort.

Veins bulged on his face, and sweat beads rolled down his forehead.

Slash!

James made a difficult choice in agony. At that instant, his entire aura converged to form an invisible blade that ruthlessly slashed toward Thea outside the formation.

Despite sitting for countless ages to dilute everything with time, he chose to make this difficult decision at the moment of utmost clarity and yearning.

The invisible blade struck and obliterated everything in the outside world.

Another slash.

All the power within James gathered and cut toward the invisible shackles within himself, severing all emotions and all connections to the past.

Boom! It seemed as if a thunderous sound echoed within him.

The invisible shackles shattered. The entanglement of the word “love” that had bound him throughout his life was cut, and everything from the past was severed.

The first stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank was “love”. It marked the beginning and was also the most challenging.

As James cut off all ties to the past, he seemed to enter a more profound understanding of the universe. His body’s capacity appeared to expand, and an unending stream of the energy of heaven and earth swept in.

“Joy” was the beginning and the most challenging.

Having severed all ties to the past, James made the first slash. Following that, his entire strength gathered again, slashing the second set of shackles.

“Slash the anger.

“Slash the anxiety.

“Slash the thought.

“Slash the grief.

“Slash the fear.

“Slash the fright.”

His aura continued to ascend as his entire strength relentlessly cut through the invisible shackles.

After seven slashes, he severed everything a living being should possess, reaching a state devoid of joy, sorrow, and desires.

“Phew!”

After a long time, James released a deep breath. At this moment, his entire body was drenched in sweat.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 2 Average: 5]

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5724-James entered the eighth stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank after executing seven consecutive slashes.

Despite attaining a high realm, he felt drained and devoid of strength throughout his body. The reason was that the seven slashes had depleted all his power.

However, this was only temporary. He had stepped into a completely new height and transcended into a new realm. An unending surge of energy of heaven and earth swept into his body and rapidly elevated his power.

His aura continued to soar. Soon, he sensed an unprecedented strength within himself.

Slowly standing up, clenching his fists, he mumbled to himself, “Is this the power of entering the eighth stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank after severing the Seven Emotions?”

This power was exceptionally formidable.

“Slash the Seven Emotions and enter the eighth stage, then gradually recover and proceed to the ninth stage,” James murmured.

Now in the eighth stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank, the next step was to slowly restore the inherent desires and emotions innate to a human.

Nevertheless, James felt that everything was no longer as important. He did not want to concern himself with matters of the outside world.

As for Thea, although her presence lingered in his mind, she was merely a memory to him. He seemed to have lost interest in Thea’s life or death.

“Boom!”

In that instant, the entire Dark World seemed to tremble. The thunderous roar echoed throughout the world, and all the living beings in the Dark World felt the palpable force.

Under the crushing power, they dared not move, as if any motion would tear their bodies apart.

Standing outside the spiritual mountain in the deepest part of the Dark World, James also sensed a formidable power approaching. He sensed the source of the power. It came from the depths of the Dark World, emanating from the entire world and originating from the Dark Heavenly Path.

He gazed into the dark space ahead.

At this moment, countless principles, rules, and orders converged, intertwining into a dark palace.

A man and a woman manifested in the palace. The woman wore a black long dress, with long, black hair and an extremely beautiful appearance, though she remained expressionless.

Facing her was a man wearing a black robe. His face was indistinct, seemingly elusive, and constantly changing.

“Dark Heavenly Path, you shouldn’t have given birth to consciousness,” the man in the black robe spoke slowly, his voice carrying a sinister tone.

“You’re the rule, the principle, the order, and the fundamental force behind the operation of the Dark World. You should be controlled and replaced by me.”

The woman looked exactly like Thea Mabins. She was the consciousness born within the Dark Heavenly Path.

However, she had made a mistake.

The Heavenly Path was originally ruthless. Once consciousness was born and living beings formed, it ceased to be the Heavenly Path. She realized that she was the Dark Heavenly Path when Wyot joined forces with many powerhouses to provoke the Dark Heavenly Tribulation to attack her.

She made a mistake because she should not have given birth to consciousness and transformed into a living being, much less developed human emotions, and she definitely should not have fallen in love with a human.

Therefore, the Heavenly Tribulation struck her as a form of liberation.

“Evil god Xayal,” said Thea. Or rather, the humanoid manifestation of the Dark Heavenly Path spoke. Her voice echoed in the Dark Heavenly Path palace.

“As the Lord of the Genesis World, you crossed the boundary to contaminate this Dark World. You shouldn’t have come. Now that you’re here, I’ll have to kill you.”

“Hehe.” Xayal in the black robe chuckled softly. “It’s ridiculous. I’ve never seen the Heavenly Path give birth to consciousness. I’ve lurked in the Dark Heavenly Path for countless ages, and now I’ve completely mastered it. I’m about to replace you.”

“Is that so?” Thea spoke indifferently.

“Of course, as long as I destroy the consciousness born within the Dark Heavenly Path, that is, destroy you, then I will be the new Heavenly Path of the Dark World. I’ll do as I please in this world,” said Xayal.

Thea said, ‘You’re wrong. Even if you control the Dark Heavenly Path and me, you still won’t be able to do as you please. Once you act recklessly, you’ll be annihilated. The living beings of this world will create new rules and orders.

Once the Heavenly Path is controlled by an outsider, transcendent living beings beyond the path will inevitably appear and create new rules and orders.”

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 2 Average: 5]

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5725-“You’re quite verbose,” Xayal said impatiently. “Now, it’s time to eradicate you.”

“Destroying me will cause the collapse of the Dark Heavenly Path, and this universe will crumble,” Thea stated calmly.

After returning to the darkness, she engaged in a fierce battle with Xayal, but she was at a disadvantage.

James had been observing the Dark Heavenly Path palace situation from the outside world. He felt a subtle shift in his emotions upon seeing Thea.

He had originally severed the Seven Emotions, and there should not have been any mental fortitude fluctuations.

However, it was now slowly stirring. The Seven Emotions were gradually resurfacing.

In an instant, James entered the ninth stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank, and his aura and strength began to rise.

Whoosh!

Having regained his Seven Emotions and entered the ninth stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank, James disappeared from his original spot and reappeared in the Dark Heavenly Path palace.

Seeing James, Thea sensed his aura and cultivation realm. A sweet smile finally appeared on her face.

“You’re not dead, honey?”

Upon seeing James, Xayal was momentarily stunned. Then, he exclaimed, “It’s impossible! I’ve integrated into the Dark Heavenly Path and know everything in the Dark World.

There’s no trace of your existence in the trajectory of the Dark Heavenly Path.”

Xayal had encountered James before. Back then, James was weak and seemingly dead. At that time, Xayal paid him no mind. However, here James was again, now powerful and having reached the ninth stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

Thea smiled brightly. Witnessing her smile, Xayal’s body stiffened slightly. Then, he seemed to understand something.

“Heck!”

Suddenly, anger consumed him. His illusory visage transformed into a tangible, terrifying countenance like the surface of a star, riddled with craters and uneven terrain.

“You schemed against me, Dark Heavenly Path.”

Thea remained silent as she looked at James. She opened her arms as she walked to James, intending to embrace him. However, her body dissipated into countless rules and numerous orders as she approached and was about to hug him.

This left James bewildered.

Just as he was about to confront Xyal, the latter glanced at him and coldly said, “Get lost, brat!”

James calmly replied, “Since we’ve met, let me see how strong you really are.” James’ mysterious formation materialized. Two figures each took shape on and under the formation gradually. They represented his past and future forms.

His past form had reached the peak ninth stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank at the moment Thea was killed. His future form also advanced in tandem with his current form, reaching the same rank.

The Tressencia Completare Art was the convergence of past, present, and future into one. James’ aura reached its peak.

“Even so, you can’t defeat me.” Xyal showed no fear at all while facing James, who had unleashed the Tressencia Completare Art and radiated a strong aura.

He spoke coldly, “I’ve completely mastered the Dark Heavenly Path, and I’m the Dark Heavenly Path. Your beloved Thea has completely detached from it. She has reincarnated. What you can do now is to find her and protect her.”

“Reincarnated?” James furrowed his brow.

“Yes,” said Xyal. “She’s right. I can’t annihilate her completely. If I kill her, the Dark Heavenly Path will collapse, and the Dark World will cease to exist. That was never my intention. However, she can’t defeat me and is unable to erase me completely.”

James tried to sense the entire Dark World but could not detect Thea's aura. He examined the operation rules of the Dark Heavenly Path but found no trace of Thea.

"Reincarnated?" James stared intently at Xayal, saying each word deliberately, "Where has she been reincarnated? Don't lie to me. Thea will return once I kill you."

With a thought, countless inscriptions converged to form a radiant longsword.

"I'm not lying to you. She has reincarnated into another Genesis World. Hurry, leave the Dark World and find her," Xayal stated urgently.

James seemed to sense Xayal's panic but did not understand what he truly feared. Xayal did not even fear Thea in her Dark Heavenly Path incarnation. He wondered what Xayal could possibly fear.

James fell into contemplation.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 2 Average: 5]

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5726-Xayal's expression puzzled James. He looked at Xayal and asked casually, "What is the 'Genesis World' you mentioned?"

Having always stayed in the Dark World, James was unfamiliar with the outside world. He only heard a few remarks from Xzavion in the past. He knew the world beyond the darkness was vast, with countless advanced worlds and powerhouses. Other than that, he knew little.

"Go and see for yourself," Xayal replied. "With your current strength, your life should be relatively safe, as long as you don't provoke those top-tier powerhouses in the Genesis World."

Xayal was unwilling to elaborate further, and James did not press the matter.

James looked at him and said, "I'll give you two options now, leave the Dark World, or I'll kill you."

“Hehe.” Xayal laughed. His face resembled the surface of a star, pockmarked and uneven. When he smiled, it was grim, frightening, and deeply resonant.

“Do you truly believe I fear you, brat?”

In an instant, Xayal’s aura reached its peak. James showed no fear while facing him.

Although James had just reached the ninth stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank, he had employed the Tressencia Completare Art which combined his past, present, and future. His strength far surpassed the Yuraeceon Rank.

A radiant longsword appeared in his hand. It was a convergence of countless inscriptions from the Primevals of the Dark World.

Boom!

Terrifying shockwaves erupted from the deepest part of the Dark World. All living beings in the Dark World sensed fear. None of them knew what had happened, and many powerhouses leaked their Zens, attempting to investigate what had happened in the deepest part of the Dark World.

However, the presence of the Dark Heavenly Path here shielded everything.

Even the Yuraeceon Rank powerhouses in the Dark World could not sense what was happening, unaware of which living beings were engaged in combat.

This battle continued for a long time. In the deepest part of the Dark World, James was covered in injuries, and the radiance of his sword had dimmed considerably. On the opposite side, Xayal was injured too.

Although Xayal was injured, he was not inferior to James in terms of injuries. In this moment, he utilized the power of the Dark Heavenly Path, and his injuries healed instantly.

“Damn it!” Seeing this, James could not help but curse. He also activated the power of Anceralos to heal. The power continuously gathered, and his injuries gradually recovered.

“Let’s stop, James.” Xayal ceased his attacks hurriedly and said, “Continuing the battle will only deplete the internal power of the Dark World. Let’s stop.”

James frowned.

Xayal was now controlling the Heavenly Path of the Dark World, even with James at the ninth stage of Transcendental Bliss Rank and the Tressencia Completare Art, they could only fight to a draw. Despite being able to injure Xayal, James could not completely eradicate him.

James sheathed his longsword and asked, "One last time, where is Thea?"

"She was reincarnated," Xayal answered.

"Impossible," James replied.

"It's true," said Xayal. "When I was injured, I merged into the Dark World and took the opportunity to integrate into the Dark Heavenly Path. I intended to control it. However, the birth of consciousness within the Dark Heavenly Path separated from it and became Thea. With the separation of the consciousness, I couldn't completely control the Dark Heavenly Path."

Click to rate this post!

[Total: 2 Average: 5]

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5727-'Then, the Dark Heavenly Path was restored, and the consciousness born from it returned. We fought for control over the Dark Heavenly Path, but neither of us could overpower the other. It was at this moment that you appeared. So, she reincarnated."

Upon hearing this, James furrowed his brow and asked, "She chose to reincarnate just because I appeared?"

"Yes, I was deceived by her. She laid down a scheme to destroy me," Xayal replied.

"What kind of scheme?" James asked.

"Haha." Xayal laughed heartily. "Do you think I'll tell you? Figure it out yourself if you want to know. If you can comprehend the scheme of the Dark Heavenly Path, or more precisely, Thea's scheme, then you can kill me. As you are now, you can't."

James fell into contemplation. He was pondering the truth behind Xayal's words.

Closing his eyes, he recalled the events that unfolded when he appeared. Xayal first displayed surprise, then anger, and finally roared, saying, "You're calculated against me, Dark Heavenly Path."

Following that, Thea smiled and walked toward him, but disappeared before reaching him.

"Could it be... within me?" James mumbled to himself. Then, he glanced at Xayal, said nothing more, and vanished from the spot.

Xayal let out a sigh of relief once James left. However, his expression soon turned grim, and he could not help but curse, "Damn! Once I break through, it'll be the destruction of this entire world."

James returned to the place where he had secluded himself before, the area referred to as the Dark Forbidden Zone by the outside world.

Xayal appeared, but Thea disappeared. Despite battling Xayal, James was still puzzled.

"How did Thea plot against Xayal?"

Back in the forbidden zone, James sat in a lotus position on the mountaintop, continuously contemplating and pondering the question. However, Thea had disappeared, and he could not sense her presence or aura. No one could answer his doubts.

The fluctuations from the battle in the deepest part of the Dark World disappeared. After some time, some powerhouses came to observe the situation, but they found nothing.

After several months of battling with Xayal, a space at the end of the Halcyon Road had been opened up and formed its own world. Many powerhouses from the Dark World stood guard here.

Although all Xayal's subordinates had been wiped out, there were still powerhouses in this place to watch every move beyond the darkness.

At this moment, a black cloud swept in. It appeared instantly at the outer edge of the border world. Subsequently, countless warriors emerged from the cloud.

Leading them was a middle-aged man clad in black armor. He stood at a towering height of two meters, with a robust physique exuding a menacing aura.

“Enemy attack, enemy attack!”

Powerhouses from the border world immediately sensed the arrival of outsiders.

They quickly assembled and appeared on the city walls to observe the foreigners.

In the external dark void, the man in armored attire looked at the border world ahead. A faint smile appeared on his face.

‘You’ve finally conquered the Dark World, Master. Your strength will ascend to new heights once you control the Dark World and absorb the Dark Genesis.’

The man smiled faintly, and then a sword materialized in his hand.

A ten-thousand-meter Sword Light emerged when he lifted the longsword high.

The Sword Light shot into the sky before descending, attacking the formation at the edge of the Dark World.

The formation that was jointly arranged by numerous powerhouses crumbled and disintegrated at an alarming speed.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 1 Average: 5]

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5728-The protective formation at the end of the Halcyon Road was shattered.

A large number of powerhouses from other worlds swept in as the formation crumbled. Meanwhile, the powerhouses of the border world swiftly organized living beings to counterattack.

However, this incursion from the other worlds was fiercer than before. The number of their powerhouses was greater than in the previous invasion. The powerhouses of the border world were no match for them.

The border world was overrun.

A multitude of otherworldly powerhouses came along the Halcyon Road, passing through the Dark World, Anceralos, and Theognostos.

Many races led by Wyot believed that Xayal had been eradicated. After eliminating the subordinates of Xayal, they opened the Halcyon Road and relocated Theognostos to Anceralos.

Currently, Theognostos had become the dominant force in Anceralos and even the Dark World.

Numerous powerhouses from various races of the Dark World gathered in Theognostos.

“Big trouble ahead! The world at the end of the Halcyon Road has been destroyed, and a large number of otherworldly powerhouses are rushing towards the Dark World.”

Upon hearing this, Wyot’s expression changed slightly. He immediately issued orders, “Spread the word to all races of the Dark World, gather their powerhouses, and head to the Halcyon Road. We must stop the intruders on the road and prevent them from entering the Dark World.”

The powerhouses of the Dark World quickly assembled and swiftly headed towards the Halcyon Road. There was a considerable distance between the Halcyon Road and the Dark World. Even though the otherworldly powerhouses had high cultivation bases, reaching the Dark World still required some time.

Wyot led the powerhouses of various races and rushed to the Halcyon Road.

At this moment, at the Human Race Heavenly Court in Anceralos. This era was the most brilliant time for the Dark World, and the Human Race also emerged numerous talents and powerhouses.

“Just got word! The world at the end of the Halcyon Road has been eradicated.

Powerhouses from other worlds are invading en masse. Theognostos has issued orders that all races must send their powerhouses to the Halcyon Road to stop the incursion.”

In the main hall, Hetsema sat at the forefront. Upon hearing this, he smiled faintly and said, “Why bother with all that fuss? Even if otherworldly powerhouses attack, we have those top-tier powerhouses to handle the resistance.”

Wytot was once Hetsema’s father, but he had no fondness for Wytot since Yemima took away Thea. Up to now, both Thea and James were missing, while Wytot’s Theognostos appeared in Anceralos.

No one knew what had happened.

The Human Race living beings were still waiting for news about James and Thea. They paid no attention to the orders from Theognostos.

Wytot led many powerhouses to enter the Halcyon Road and set up a super large formation. The army from other worlds appeared just as the formation was fully deployed.

The Dark World’s army encountered the otherworldly army on the Halcyon Road.

“Who are you? Why did you invade my Dark World?” Wytot stood at the forefront, with powerhouses from various races behind him, including many at the seventh, eighth, and even ninth stages of the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

On the opposite side, a majestic man in black armor walked forward slowly. He glanced at the living beings from the Dark World led by Wytot. A smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, and he casually said, “I’m Seneca Phiroh. Be sensible and step aside, or you’ll face ruthless slaughter.”

Although he wore a smile, his words carried a hint of killing intent. As soon as he spoke, several powerhouses from the Dark World took a few steps back.

“Arrogant!” Wyot’s face darkened. The next moment, his figure flashed and appeared in the forefront of the dark void. With a thought, all the Greater Paths of the Dark World converged to form an invincible divine sword.

“A foolish attempt,” Seneca remained composed and said casually, “An early stage of Yuraeceon Rank powerhouse dared to act recklessly in front of me.

Annihilate!”

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 2 Average: 5]

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5729-Seneca extended his hand with a single touch. Invisible energy materialized at his fingertips, sweeping out and causing Wyot’s blades formed by the Greater Paths to disappear into nothingness.

In the next moment, Seneca vanished from his original spot. Before Wyot could react, Seneca reappeared behind him and struck him on the back.

A bloody hole immediately appeared on Wyot’s back, and his body violently smashed into the dark void, creating a dreadful black hole.

Seneca injured Wyot, who was at the Yuraeceon Rank, with just a single move.

Then, he struck again, casually waving as countless Sword Energy manifestations swept over.

Many powerhouses from the Dark World changed their expressions and retreated one after another. When the Sword Energy descended, they were all injured.

One move defeated Wyot, and one strike subdued powerhouses from the Dark World. This was the strength of the powerhouses from other worlds.

Seneca paid no attention to the injured living beings from the Dark World. His purpose in coming here was not to take lives but to collect the Genesis of the Dark World during the period when his Master controlled the Dark Heavenly Path.

Once James comprehended the method to break the situation, his Master would be expelled from the Dark World, or even killed. Therefore, his time was limited.

1 Seneca led a large group of otherworldly powerhouses and continued forward.

They traversed the Halcyon Road and entered the Dark World. His Master was the evil god Xayal, who controlled the current Heavenly Path of the Dark World, and Seneca knew the Dark World well.

As soon as he appeared in the Dark World, he issued the command, "Occupy the major races of the Dark World as quickly as possible, force them to surrender their primitive inscriptions. Also, go to the major realms of the Dark World to collect the Dark Genesis."

"Alright."

Powerhouses quickly departed and disappeared into the darkness after receiving the command.

Unlike previous minor conflicts, the foreigners this time were true powerhouses.

They swiftly went to the various races of the Dark World and occupied their worlds rapidly.

The powerhouses of the major Primevals were all trapped. As the leader of the invading force, Seneca personally arrived at Anceralos.

Anceralos was the core of the Dark World, which the greatest number of powerhouses and Dark Genesis gathered.

"Elysium Hall..." Seneca immediately recognized that the core of Anceralos was the Elysium Hall once he appeared outside it. Occupying the Elysium Hall meant occupying more than half of Anceralos.

He disappeared on the spot and reappeared outside the hall the next moment.

As soon as he appeared, Quattro, the Elysium Hall's Master, sensed it.

Quattro appeared outside the main hall of the Elysium Hall in an instant.

Looking at Seneca standing in the void, he appeared lazy and said, "No matter who you are, you have three seconds to disappear from my sight, or else..."

"Hehe." Seneca chuckled softly. He directly crossed a distance and a powerful aura manifested in that moment.

Quattro struggled to withstand the aura and his body sank into the ground.

Boom! The earth shattered. Quattro climbed out of the crater with his body covered in blood.

Seneca casually waved, and Quattro was thrown out and expelled from the Elysium Hall like a dead pig.

Outside the Elysium Hall, a spiritual mountain was crushed. Quattro crawled out of the ruins. Sitting on a rock, he gasped for breath, his face reflecting astonishment. Unable to help himself, he took a deep breath and said, "He's so strong."

Quattro had already reached the Transcendental Bliss Rank, yet he was easily overwhelmed without the ability to fight back.

Click to rate this post!

[Total: 1 Average: 5]

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5730-Powerhouses from other worlds swiftly occupied the Dark World.

Wyot, the master of Theognostos, was severely injured on Halcyon Road. He was hiding to heal.

As otherworldly powerhouses emerged, Theognostos crumbled. Numerous human powerhouses gathered in the Heavenly Court of the Human Race.

“Tsk tsk, this is serious.”

“These otherworldly powerhouses are truly terrifying this time. It’s said that Wyot was slain with a single blow in the Halcyon Road, and powerhouses from various races are all injured.”

“Now, the major races in the Dark World have been occupied, and even that pig from the Elysium Hall is injured.”

Many people gathered to discuss the events unfolding in the Dark World. At this moment, they all sensed a powerful aura outside the Heavenly Court.

“They’re here.” Hetsema stood up and said, “Otherworldly powerhouses have arrived.”

Xeraiah reminded, “Don’t resist. Give them what they want to preserve our lives.”

Even Wyot as a Yuraeceon Rank powerhouse was not a match. He led many powerhouses and failed to stop the otherworldly powerhouses. How could mere humans be their opponents?

At this moment, many humans looked at Hershya. With the highest cultivation base among them, having reached the Yuraeceon Rank, they waited for her to make a statement. However, nobody knew that Hershya was James’ disciple, as she had not mentioned a word about the events on the Halcyon Road.

“Let’s go out and take a look,” said Hershya. Then, she led the way out of the main hall and headed towards the South Heaven Gate. Many humans followed behind her.

There was only a living being outside the South Heaven Gate. The others breathed a sigh of relief upon seeing only one. The newcomer was Seneca, the leader of the army this time.

Seneca appeared outside the South Heaven Gate. His hands behind his back, a composed expression on his face, and a calm voice echoed in the area. “I don’t want to take lives.

Surrender the Heavenly Court, leave the Human Universe, and I’ll give you a way out.”

“Impossible!” A member of the Human Race said before Hershya spoke, ‘This is the foundation of our existence. Letting us leave is more unbearable than killing us.”

“So noisy.” Seneca’s face darkened, and a terrifying aura materialized and converged to form a sweeping blade.

The speaking member of the Human Race paled. In that instant, Hershya stepped forward. She emanated a powerful aura, intending to resist Seneca’s strike. Her aura gathered to form a protective shield.

Still, the shield showed signs of cracking.

With a thought, countless inscriptions manifested from her body and merged into the shield. Only then did it withstand Seneca’s attack.

“Eee!” Seneca’s strike was blocked, and he wore a surprised expression. Soon, a faint smile appeared on his face.

“Interesting. Come again!” he shouted. In the moment of the resounding shout, the aura reached its peak.

Facing Seneca in his prime, even Hershya changed her expression and involuntarily took a few steps back.

Despite being at the Yuraeceon Rank, possessing mastery over the Human Race’s primitive inscriptions, and understanding many Tenebrae Race’s primitive inscriptions, she recognized that she wasn’t a match for Seneca.

If she were to engage in a desperate battle, she would be defeated, perhaps even to the point of death.

In the meantime, in the Dark Forbidden Zone at the deepest part of the Dark World. James had been contemplating since the battle with Xayal. He pondered the solution left by Thea. As a top-tier powerhouse, he was aware of the events unfolding in the Dark World.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 1 Average: 5]

