The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5731-However, James was not overly concerned about it.

He knew that Xayal was behind all this. Unfortunately, there was nothing James could do in this situation since he was not powerful enough to exterminate Xayal.

Just then, James could sense that the invader was about to attack the Heavenly Court.

That cultivator had entered the Yuraeceon Rank and even defeated Wyot, who was on the same rank, with just one hit.

James swiftly unleashed the Tressencia Completare and combined all three powers of the past, present, and future.

He raised his hand and conjured multiple inscriptions to form a sword.

The sword vanished into thin air the next instant. It was being teleported to the Anceralos where the Heavenly Court was located.

Back at the South Heaven Gate, Seneca had gotten into full- on battle mode. He was ready to take down Hershya and seize the Heavenly Court.

At that very moment, a huge crack appeared in the sky.

A sword emerged from the crack and shot in Seneca's direction. It stopped right before him.

Seneca quickly teleported some distance away as he could detect dangerous energy emanating from the sword. The sword was making him feel slightly intimidated.

Suddenly, Seneca received an order from Xayal.

After getting a new instruction, Seneca glanced at the humans around him and bowed slightly. "Pardon me for the intrusion."

Then, he teleported and disappeared from everyone's sight.

The humans finally felt at ease after they sensed that Seneca had left.

“Master?” Hershya furrowed her brows.

She was aware of the fact that James was conducting his closed-door meditation in the Dark Forbidden Zone.

“Who was it?” Xeraiah walked over to Hershya. “Who did that just now to protect the Heavenly Court?”

“James Caden,” Hershya replied.

Almost everyone there was surprised to hear that name. Although James had been missing for a long time, he still held a special place in his people’s hearts.

Jacopo went up to Hershya. “Lady Tehila, do you know where my father is?”

Xainte asked, “What happened back then? My dad went after Yemima Dalibor and traveled to the deeper parts of the Dark World. What happened to him after that?”

Everyone was looking at Hershya with eager looks in their eyes.

Hershya decided not to hold back anymore and shared some of the things she knew with the humans.

“What?!”

“They claimed that my mother was the evil god Xayal, and they worked together to trigger the Dark Heavenly Tribulation and killed her?”

The humans were enraged after learning what had happened.

Hershya explained, “Thea was born from the Dark Heavenly Path. Although she was exterminated and her soul was destroyed, Thea was not totally annihilated.

Her soul has fused with the Dark Heavenly Path.”

James had stopped channeling the powers of the Tressencia Completare at the Dark Forbidden Zone. Simultaneously, the sword he had sent to the South Heaven Gate slowly disappeared as the inscriptions fell apart.

James remained in the same position on the mountaintop. As he gazed into the darkness in the distance, James could vaguely see the shape of a face.

The face flashed him a sinister smile. It seemed to be waiting for James to praise it for not claiming or destroying the Heavenly Court.

James paid no mind to Xayal's taunts.

He closed his eyes and focused on his training and cultivation.

James wanted to advance into the Yuraeceon Rank. At the same time, he was trying to figure out the solution Thea had come up with.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5732-Countless casualties could be found across the Dark World after superior cultivators of unknown origin invaded their world.

However, the Human Universe was the only place that did not suffer the same fate.

The incident where the matchless cultivator was scared off by a sword at the Heavenly Court had spread across the Dark World in a short amount of time.

After that, many people started traveling to the Human Universe as they considered it to be the only safe place in Anceralos.

Still, Hershya acted swiftly by placing a seal over the Human Universe to stop any beings from entering.

With the number of people rushing to find shelter in the Human Universe, the place would become overcrowded if they did not restrict entry soon.

James could not afford to spare his attention to areas outside the Human Universe. His top priority was to ensure the safety of his family and his people.

In the Dark Forbidden Zone, James concentrated on generating his powers and aura. Soon enough, he could feel the barrier blocking him from reaching the next cultivation rank.

If he could break the barrier, James would advance into the Yuraeceon Rank right away.

“Break!”

James focused his powers on overcoming that barrier.

Boom!

An imperceivable explosion went off within James’ body. He leaned forward as he coughed up some blood.

He had failed to break the barrier during the first attempt. Instead, all the powers used to take down the barrier had bounced back and inflicted severe injuries on James’ body.

James slowly straightened himself and wiped off the blood from his lips. Then, he used his powers to heal all the injuries in a matter of seconds.

After that, James continued trying to break the barrier within his body. Curiously enough, he failed time and time again despite having given his best.

Eventually, James stopped and fell into deep thought.

He muttered to himself, ‘This can’t be right. I should be able to enter the Yuraeceon Rank fairly easily at my current level of powers. Yet, why couldn’t I destroy the barrier?’

After a brief pause, James conjured an extrapolation formation before him. The formation started spinning in midair.

A few minutes later, James received the results of his extrapolation.

‘The Genesis Power.’

James realized he needed a special power, the Genesis Power, to move into the next cultivation rank.

Genesis existed everywhere.

However, the Genesis Power only existed in fairly low amounts within the different races’ worlds across the Dark World. The only place with an abundance of Genesis Power was the deepest area of the Dark World.

James needed the Genesis Power existing in the Dark World to break the barrier and advance to the next rank.

With his current powers, James could easily obtain the Genesis Power from his surroundings.

As he remained seated in the same spot, James generated and unleashed his powers to the space around him. Soon enough, his powers expanded and covered quite a wide area of the Dark World.

Then, James slowly absorbed the Genesis Power existing in those areas toward him.

Just then, one of the areas collapsed after losing all of its Genesis Power. That area vanished into the darkness.

James knitted his brows.

Genesis made up the core of each world. Once a world lost all of its Genesis, it would collapse and disappear permanently.

The same rules applied to the Dark World. The Dark World would collapse if it lost all the Genesis.

James released his Zen to the surroundings next. He soon discovered that the cultivators from the unknown world were also collecting the Genesis Power of the Dark World
