The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5736-Talvelai was rather pleased to see James there.

James gave a slight nod. Then, he asked, "What did these invaders do after they conquered the Mevryees' territory?"

James could only extrapolate matters related to the Dark World. He could not extrapolate anything regarding these invaders since they were from another world.

Therefore, he had no way of knowing what these cultivators had been up to conquering these different territories.

Talvelai frowned slightly. "After they captured us, those men kept forcing us to hand over the Mevryees' primitive inscriptions."

"The primitive inscriptions?" James furrowed his brows.

Xayal had control over the Dark Heavenly Path now. He would have no issue in obtaining the different races' primitive inscriptions himself.

James could not fathom why Xayal had ordered his men to do these things instead.

Talvelai went on explaining, "Also, these invaders had been searching and collecting the Genesis Power hidden in different parts of the Mevryees' territory."

"I see." James nodded.

"What on earth is happening to our world, James?" Talvelai asked.

"It's a little hard for me to explain everything. Besides, you won't be able to do much to help at your current level of powers and cultivation."

After saying that, James teleported and left the Mevryees' territory.

He headed for the Anceralos next.

Currently, the Anceralos was the central area of the Dark World. Many sects and groups had set up their bases in and around the Anceralos.

Unfortunately, all of those places had been taken over by the invaders, except for the Human Universe.

James arrived in the Human Universe.

He unleashed his Zen and detected the aura of those he was looking for almost instantaneously. Then, James started traveling in the direction of those auras.

Wynton and Zella resided on a spiritual mountain located near Mount Bane.

Inside a beautiful mansion, Wynton sat on the floor as he worked on his training.

He was surrounded by an immense aura.

Meanwhile, Zella was resting in a chair nearby whilst she stared into the distance absently.

The elegant, gorgeous lady was someone who could glimpse into the future with her prophetic abilities.

Whoosh!

A beam of light landed in the mansion. A few seconds later, James stepped out of the light.

Wynton stopped training the instant he saw that it was James. He got up and walked over to James with a sunny smile on his face. "You're back, James." "Mhm." James gave a slight nod.

Zella rose from her seat and came up to James. She greeted him chirpily, "Hi, James!"

Wynton gave a small sigh. "After those cultivators from the unknown world have invaded the Dark World, almost all of the different territories have fallen into their hands. The Human Universe is the only exception."

"I came precisely for this issue." James turned his eyes to Zella. "I need you to help me check a few things by using your prophetic ability."

Zella had a perplexed expression. “I would be able to help if it were for other matters. What you are asking deals with a more complex level of powers. With my current powers, I won’t be able to see it.”

James released his Zen and sensed that Zella had only reached the Martial Celestial Rank.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5737-James did not seem troubled in the slightest. He raised his hand and conjured several cryptic inscriptions.

The inscriptions attracted the Dark Genesis and the powers of heaven and earth as they entered Zella’s body through the center of her brows.

In a flash, Zella’s aura, powers, and cultivation increased rapidly.

James helped raise Zella’s cultivation rank through his skilled manipulation of the paths.

Her cultivation rank went from the Martial Celestial Rank to the first stage of the Transcendental Bliss Rank in just a few minutes.

However, that was about as far as James could help Zella with. For levels in and beyond the Transcendental Bliss Rank, Zella would have to work on leveling up on her own.

Zella was both shocked and excited upon sensing the improvement of her powers and cultivation.

At the same time, James incurred karma when he went against the laws of their world and helped increase Zella’s cultivation rank.

Fortunately, James had achieved the Yuraecheon Rank and mastered the Karma Path. He swiftly took care of the karma without sustaining any harm.

Wynton had a look of bewilderment on his face.

He never expected James had become so powerful that he could produce a Transcendental Bliss Rank cultivator almost immediately.

“Is this cultivation rank enough for you to see it?” James asked.

“Mhm.” Zella nodded.

She sat on the floor and conjured a formation before her.

James observed the extrapolation formation Zella had produced.

He had mastered every primitive inscription that existed in the Dark World.

James had even seen the inscriptions of the Dark Heavenly Path before.

However, the inscriptions produced by Zella were beyond James’ level of knowledge.

“What is it that you want to check, James?” Zella asked.

James gave it some thought and answered, “Could you recreate the scenes back when the Dark World’s cultivators had managed to injure Xayal? Then, Xayal had fused with the Dark Heavenly Path, and a consciousness was born within the Dark Heavenly Path.”

Zella had no clue who Xayal was, and it was her first time hearing about these things related to the Dark Heavenly Path.

Still, she tried to use her powers to recreate these scenes through the extrapolation formation.

Soon enough, Zella could see blurred images in her mind.

Just as those images were slowly becoming clearer, a mysterious energy struck the extrapolation formation, shattering it in an instant.

Zella coughed up some blood and collapsed as she was affected by that energy too.

“Are you alright?”

Wynton quickly helped Zella up.

James' eyes narrowed. "It's Xayal... He's doing these things again."

Zella wiped off the blood from the corners of her lips. She smiled apologetically.

"I'm sorry, James. I was starting to see some images just now, but that strange energy stopped me before I could do it."

"I know. I felt it too," James replied. He could sense that it was Xayal's doing.

"What do we do now?" Wynton asked.

James said, 'That man has been doing this repeatedly to prevent me from learning more about that incident. I have more or less figured out the way to defeat him.'

"Huh?" Wynton appeared slightly confused. "What is happening right now? Who is Xayal?"

"Stay here. I'll take Zella with me for a bit."

James took Zella and teleported away.

James concealed his aura and vanished from Anceralos. Even Xayal who had control of the Dark Heavenly Path would not know where James was.

All along, James had been someone beyond the Dark Heavenly Path's control.

Even though he had always resided in the Dark World, James ' existence was not recorded in the Dark World's Heavenly Path.

Therefore, Xayal had access to almost every piece of information about the Dark World after fusing with its Heavenly Path, except for James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5738-At a quiet, desolate area of the Dark World, a ball of light appeared out of nowhere. Its light gradually dimmed.

Inside the ball of light was a miniature world created by James.

Within that space, James could avoid Xayal's detection and proceed with his plans.

Zella was brought into that space too. She asked curiously, "Why did you bring me here, James?"

James conjured his formation, which consisted of all the Dark World's Primevals' inscriptions. The formation carried unknown, potent energy.

There was one figure above and below the formation. They were the past and future forms.

Zella had a puzzled look in her eyes as she studied the formation and those two forms. She looked back at James again.

"Try and use your prophetic powers to check if there's anything strange about my past form and future form. Check their powers, in particular."

"Sure."

Zella sat on the floor and conjured her extrapolation formation.

As Zella channeled her powers, the extrapolation formation began spinning.

A short while later, Zella's form faded and disappeared altogether. What remained was the extrapolation formation.

James continued to stare at the formation until it eventually faded away and Zella re-emerged in its place instead.

James looked at Zella. "How did it go?"

Zella had a grim expression on her face. "I used my powers to extrapolate regarding the Tressencia Completa and its three powers of the past, present, and future. I've found out that it is the strongest power that has ever been created in the Dark World. It's come to exist due to the Dark Heavenly Path."

She continued, "I also discovered many things relating to Xayal and the Dark Heavenly Path."

James asked in an eager voice, "What have you discovered?"

Zella replied, "Back then, the Dark World's cultivators managed to injure Xayal by triggering the Dark Heavenly Path. Xayal was on the brink of being completely eradicated at that point.

"At that moment, Xayal fused with the Dark Heavenly Path to survive. He wanted to control the Dark Heavenly Path.

"A consciousness was born within the Dark Heavenly Path in response to that.

Since then, the Dark Heavenly Path has been preparing a plan to eliminate Xayal for good."

"The Heavenly Path had all the information about Xayal since he had fused with it. They gathered everything they knew about Xayal and formed the past form in your formation."

James knitted his brows. "Are you saying my past form is Xayal?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5739-Zella shook her head. "That's not it. The past form possesses all of Xayal's signature skills and abilities. However, it does not have his soul."

"If we were to imbue Xayal's soul into your past form, then it would evolve to become Xayal himself." "What about the present and future forms? How are they connected to the past form? And how do we exterminate Xayal?"

Zella explained, "The past form represents the power of the past. More specifically, it represents Xayal's powers, which are powers that originate from a world outside the Dark World.

"As for the present form, your soul had fused with these inscriptions, which were scattered across the Dark World. They had lasted the test of time and formed the present form eventually. Moreover, you've mastered all of the Dark World's inscriptions. Hence, the present form represents the strongest power in the Dark World.

"Meanwhile, the future form represents the powers of the Dark Heavenly Path."

Zella paused briefly and continued, "You should fully master the powers of the past form, James. This way, you would be able to learn everything about Xayal, including his weaknesses."

Zella fixed her gaze on James. "The combination of Xayal's powers, the strongest power of the Dark World, and the Dark Heavenly Path's power will help you eliminate Xayal."

After listening to Zella's words, James fell into deep thought.

He had an inkling that there was something more to the past form when he sensed the unsettling powers from it in the past.

However, James did not expect that the future form carried the powers of the Dark Heavenly Path.

He tapped his finger on his chin. "Does that mean I was chosen since the moment Xayal had fused with the Dark Heavenly Path and Thea was born from it?"

"Not really." Zella responded, "There are many other beings whose existence is beyond the control of the Dark World although they live here. You're simply one of those people."

"Alright."

James looked at her. "Thank you for helping me find these answers. I am planning to conduct a closed-door meditation right away. It is probably safer for you to remain here for the time being. You should leave only after I exterminate Xayal."

Once Zella left this safe space, Xayal would surely hunt her down since James was last seen with her.

Meanwhile, James teleported and reappeared in the Dark Forbidden Zone.

He put up a time formation around the entire Dark Forbidden Zone. Then, James transmitted his voice to Zella.

“Zella, can you find out where Thea is right now?”

“Sure.”

Upon receiving James’ request, Zella started extrapolating.

After a while, James heard Zella’s voice in his head.

‘Thea was born from the Dark Heavenly Path. She represents the Dark Heavenly Path. The powers of the future that you possess now belong to the Dark Heavenly Path. That power actually belongs to Thea.’

‘Thea no longer exists in this era. She’s traveled to the future, where Xayal will face his defeat. In other words, once you exterminate Xayal, Thea will return to us as well.’

“I see...” James muttered. ‘That means the Tressencia Completare has been created to eliminate Xayal. Once Xayal is exterminated, I will also lose the past and future forms.’

“Mhm. That’s what I’ve found from my extrapolation.” James did not bring up more questions.

Instead, he conjured his formation. Then, James split his soul into two and placed each of them into the past form and future form.

James focused on learning everything about Xayal and the powers of the Dark Heavenly Path simultaneously.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5740-James was determined to fully master the past form’s powers.

Previously, he had roughly learned and studied the power. However, Zell a had revealed to him that the past form was produced from a collection of all of Xayal’s powers.

Once he had mastered the past form's powers, James would also learn all of Xayal's abilities and signature skills.

It would surely help James in defeating and exterminating Xayal later on.

A hoarse voice reverberated through the hall in the Dark Heavenly Path Palace.

"James Caden is a risky variable for us. What's worse, I can't seem to get rid of him in any way."

"Master."

Seneca appeared in the hall and got down on one knee. Although he had achieved the Yuraeceon Third Rank, Seneca remained subservient to Xayal.

"I had planned to distract him at first. Yet, that man hardly bothered himself with what was happening in the Dark World. Also, James Caden seems to be acquainted with this lady who has special extrapolation powers. I can't wait any longer. I'll have to absorb the darkness now."

Xayal directed his gaze at Seneca. "Begin our operation. Kill all the beings of the Dark World. We'll have all their energies returned to the darkness. Once I devour the darkness, I will be able to reach the Xaelm Rank."

"Understood."

Seneca stood up and teleported away.

After Seneca left, a man in a black robe entered the hall. A small frown marred his handsome features.

"Master." The man got down on one knee and greeted Xayal respectfully.

The kneeling man was none other than Xayvion.

Previously, James had unleashed that deadly attack to take out Xayvion and himself. However, Xayal secretly rescued Xayvion.

After that, Xayal sent Xayvion to one of the Genesis Worlds to train and enhance his powers. The trip even helped Xayvion advance into the Yuraeceon Fifth Rank.

There were a total of eleven stages in the Yuraeceon Rank. With the lowest being the Yuraeceon First Rank, the ranks could go up to the Yuraeceon Ninth Rank, followed by the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank and the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank.

Xayal was the lord of his Genesis World. In his prime, Xayal had achieved the Yuraeceon Ninth Rank.

Unfortunately, Xayal's powers were weakened after he sustained severe injuries.

He only managed to re-enter the Yuraeceon Fifth Rank after absorbing the energies from the Dark World's beings with Xayvion's help.

After that, Xayal led his men in an attempt to invade the Dark World. However, numerous Yuraeceon Rank cultivators from the Dark World attracted the Dark Heavenly Path and gave Xayal a critical blow.

Xayal fused with the Dark Heavenly Path back then as he wished to control it.

He wanted to annihilate all beings of the Dark World so that the Dark World's Genesis would return to its original state.

Xayal could then devour and absorb the Dark World to regain his full powers.

He would most likely advance to the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank.

A Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank cultivator was considered an elite cultivator across the different Genesis Worlds.

A cloud of black mist started gathering just a few steps away from Xayvion.

Eventually, a man with a strange, horrifying face materialized from that dark mist.

"Xayvion, I have a mission for you."

"I will heed your orders, Master." Xayvion bowed his head.

At the Dark World...
