

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5761-James listened to Thea's voice, holding her hand tightly. Gradually, her hand became translucent, and he could no longer feel her.

Thea's body became spectral and was slowly fading into the darkness.

"I already have my own consciousness and can no longer stay in the Dark World. I can only use my consciousness and Divine Soul to reincarnate. It's the only way to separate myself from the Dark Heavenly Path.

"Unfortunately, I can't reincarnate into the Dark World. I'll have to go to a more advanced Genesis World."

After Thea finished speaking, she turned into a shadowy figure and floated in the void.

"I'm leaving now. I'll be waiting for you in the Genesis World."

Thea's voice resounded in the darkness. James could still hear her, but she was already gone.

After Thea disappeared, a sigil floated toward James.

James reached out and took it into his palm. He could sense a trace of Thea's Soul Genesis Aura on it. As long as he had the sigil, finding Thea in the future would be easy.

The sigil also contained memories of Thea's life. After finding her, the sigil could be merged with her reincarnated self to recover the memories of her past life.

James carefully put the sigil away.

The creatures of the Dark World who had died in battle had been revived.

Thea was the Dark Heavenly Path. However, she violated the operations rules to resurrect the deceased.

If she had not violated her own rules, it would not be necessary for her to disappear and be reincarnated. Now that she had acted on it, her only way to continue existing was to reincarnate and separate herself from the Dark Heavenly Path.

Everyone who was resurrected stared into the darkness, and their gaze fixed on James.

They witnessed Thea returning and also her departure. Thus, they knew she had left the Dark World to be reincarnated into a more advanced Genesis World.

James was relieved that Thea had not completely disappeared. As long as she was still alive, he swore to find her.

“A more advanced Genesis World, huh?” James murmured. His curiosity about the Genesis Worlds was piqued.

His power had gradually recovered, but it was not enough for him to travel through the dark space. Therefore, he used a Boundarybreaker Rune to travel back to the Anceralos World.

James appeared in a city within the bordering universe of Anceralos.

A large crowd of powerhouses, including many humans, had gathered in the city. When James appeared, everyone stared at him.

James scanned them one by one. After seeing familiar faces, he smiled.

“Dad!” Jacopo was the first to approach.

Winnie, Xainte, Noel, Hetsema, and the other humans rushed over.

“Mom...she...” Xainte hesitated.

James replied with a smile, “She’s fine. She simply went to a more advanced world. After I recover, I’ll go bring her back.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5762-Thea had resurrected everyone killed during the battle, including Xzavion, Hershya, Stephen, Wyot, and Jurryt.

She had broken the rules of the Dark Heavenly Path. As a result, she had to be reincarnated in a Genesis World.

“Master!”

Stephen looked at James with teary eyes, like a child reunited with his parents.

“Good job.” Xzavion smiled happily.

“Everything is finally over. Master!” Hershey also exclaimed with a bright smile.

Those who had been resurrected rejoiced in tears.

James waved his hand and said, “Alright. Everyone should disperse. Most of us have consumed a lot of energy, and we’ll need some time to recover.”

‘Til go back to the Human Universe.”

Xzavion waved his hand, and a powerful force dragged James away from the bordering universe.

After returning to the Human Universe, James went into seclusion within the Human Race’s holy site to recuperate.

Soon enough, he had fully recovered.

“So weak.” James frowned after sensing the powers within his body.

While fighting Xayal, he merged his past, present, and future forms and reached the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank. Now that he had lost his past and future forms, his cultivation rank was only at the Yuraeceon First Rank.

Even Stephen had reached the Yuraeceon Fifth Rank, but he was only at the Yuraeceon First Rank.

“What’s the more advanced Genesis Worlds like?” James became curious.

Afterward, he left seclusion and stayed in the Human Universe for a while.

Sometime later, James had plans to leave the Dark World. The human powerhouses gathered in the Heavenly Court’s main hall.

Stephen said excitedly, “Master, I’ll come with you to the more advanced Genesis Worlds!”

Xzavion said smilingly, “I’ll come as well. I’ve always wanted to see the outside world for a long time. However, I’ve been too focused on recuperating. Plus, Xayal had been causing too much trouble. Now that the Dark World is peaceful, I want to venture into the Genesis Worlds. Otherwise, it will be hard to improve my cultivation rank any further.”

Quattro quickly joined in, saying, “Please take me too, General.”

Although Quattro’s cultivation rank was low, he believed he could gain great boons and improve if he followed James. Hersya pleaded, “Please take me too, Master! I’m already at the Yuraeceon Rank and won’t be a burden to you.”

Maxine said hurriedly, “I’m also at the Yuraeceon Rank. I want to come!” As soon as James disclosed his plan to leave the Dark World, his acquaintances quickly expressed their desire to follow him to the Genesis Worlds.

James looked at everyone in the hall, then said smilingly, “I won’t bring women with me this time.”

Ultimately, James’ gaze fell on Stephen and Xzavion. Then, he said, “You two can come with me.”

“You’re mean, General!” Quattro said with dissatisfaction.

James could not be bothered with Quattro. He looked at Hershya and said, “We can’t have all the powerhouses leaving the Dark World. We must have one or two guarding it.”

“Of course..” Hershya nodded lightly

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5763-At that moment, Wyot suddenly walked over from the outside crowd. Then, he said apologetically, "I'm so sorry, James. I shouldn't have acted so recklessly.

Otherwise, things would not have been so complicated."

James waved his hand and said, "Don't worry about it. At first, I also suspected that Thea was the reincarnation of Xayal. Moreover, she decided to return to the darkness.

When the Heavenly Tribulation struck her, she had already recovered her memories. If she did not want to do so, you would never have been able to kill her."

Back then, James was angry at Wyot. However, since things had passed, he wanted to let things go.

Wyot vowed, "I'll protect the Dark World."

James did not respond. Instead, he looked at his children and friends. Then, he said, "Although Xayal has been eliminated, the words outside of ours are advanced.

Nobody can be sure if another attack on us will happen. To protect the Dark World, you all must work hard and improve your cultivation ranks."

"Understood!" Everyone replied to him in unison.

"Let's go." James waved his hand gracefully, and then he disappeared from the hall.

Xzavion and Stephen followed after him.

"Wait for me!!!" Quattro quickly shouted, then held onto Xzavion's leg and disappeared together.

In the deepest part of the Dark World, James and his comrades entered the Halcyon Road. Soon, they arrived at the border world.

In the border world, they saw a huge city wall.

Xzavion pointed into the distance and said, "After we leave this universe, we'll enter the intersection connecting to the other worlds.

James asked, "What is the Genesis World like?"

Although James had once acquired the strength of the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank and defeated Xayal, he still knew little about the Genesis World. All he knew was the place outside of theirs was called Genesis World.

Xzavion explained, "It's not just one world, but countless. Among the Genesis Worlds that are recorded, there are about three thousand Great Genesis Worlds and a lot of Micro Genesis Worlds.

"The Dark Genesis World is one of the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds.

"Xayal is also from a Great Genesis World. Moreover, he was the lord of that world." Xzavion gave a simple explanation.

Surprised, James asked, "So there are three thousand more worlds like the Dark World?"

Xzavion nodded and said, "More or less. The Great Genesis Worlds are more advanced. Meanwhile, there are countless Micro Genesis Worlds, which are slightly less advanced."

"Which one is the core of the Great Genesis Worlds?" asked James.

Xzavion replied, "The core is called the Ancient Genesis World. Within the Ancient Genesis World, there are also three thousand Great Genesis Worlds and a lot of Micro Genesis Worlds. From what I know, the powerhouses of these Genesis Worlds would travel toward the Ancient Genesis World to pursue a higher rank."

"Huff." James took a deep breath. Then, he murmured, "I have no idea which Genesis World Thea will be reincarnated into."

There were three thousand Great Genesis Worlds and countless Micro Genesis Worlds. Even just thinking about it, James felt it would be hard to find Thea's reincarnation.

Stephen asked, "Sir Xzavion, you mentioned I had a special origin. Could you elaborate?"

Hearing this, Xzavion took another glance at Stephen.

Quattro, who had followed them, also looked at Stephen with envy.

Stephen had improved so rapidly. He had gone into seclusion for a while and immediately reached the Yuraeceon Fifth Rank.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5764-Stephen was curious why he could absorb the energy of the deceased powerhouses within such a short period.

James also looked at Xzavion, curious to hear the answer.

Xzavion smiled and said, "Actually, it's nothing. You can absorb so much energy quickly because you have a Genesis Essence in your soul."

"Genesis Essence?" Stephen was shocked.

Xzavion nodded and said, "Yeah. Genesis Essence is a very rare treasure in the Dark World. It formed during the birth of the Dark World. Back then, I sensed its existence and spent a lot of time trying to find it. However, when I did, it had already fused with you."

"I see." Stephen suddenly came to a realization.

Xzavion smiled and said, "The Genesis Essence is a great treasure even in the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds. Your cultivation journey will be smooth sailing."

Stephen felt excited at his words.

"Alright. Let's go." James was the first to approach.

The others followed behind him.

After they left the border world, James set up a formation with all the various primitive inscriptions of the Dark World.

The formation was rooted in the darkness, continuously absorbing the surrounding Dark Power to reinforce itself.

Although James was only at the Yuraeceaon First Rank, the formation would improve over time and become stronger. If the formation were not destroyed, it would become potent enough to resist powerhouses at the Yuraeceaon Xaelm Rank.

The group quickly traveled through the dark void and was no longer under the supervision of the Dark Heavenly Path.

They entered a chaotic area where violent forces existed in the surroundings.

Even powerhouses at the Transcendental Bliss Rank could not travel through safely.

Even those at the Yuraeceaon Rank would have a hard time.

In other words, the minimum requirement to leave one's only Genesis World was the Yuraeceaon Rank.

Soon, they passed through the darkness and reached an unknown area.

The area was completely gray and desolate. Not even Empyrean Spiritual Energy or Genesis Powers existed within the surroundings. Moreover, there seemed to be no perception of time.

Xzavion said, "These must be some useless spaces of the Genesis Words.

These useless spaces do not have any Empyrean Spiritual Energy or Genesis Energy. They are without matter as well. The Genesis Worlds called these spaces gray zones.”

Although the gray zone was empty, the resistance within the space was powerful. One would have difficulty traveling through it if not at the Yuraeceon Rank.

Quattro was also following them but was only at the Transcendental Bliss Rank.

He could not resist the spatial resistance and would have been wiped immediately if Stephen did not help him.

The group quickly traveled through the gray zone for what seemed like an eternity.

“What the hell is that?!!”

A shout suddenly broke the silence of the gray zone.

Hearing Quattro’s voice, James and the others quickly looked in the direction he pointed and saw the strange space filled with graves.

The tombstones were massive. Some were well-preserved, and others had already collapsed into rubble.

The space silently moved through the gray zone.

“Let’s check it out,” said Xzavion.

He took the lead and appeared inside the Tomb World.

James and the others followed.

Countless graves could be seen throughout the Tomb World. James scanned the space with his Zen but found no signs of vitality. It was filled with dead silence.

James casually looked at one of the graves and only saw a pile of bones.

After scanning the Tomb World, Stephen said, “There are so many graves, but there’s nothing much inside.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5765-Quattro frowned and asked, “What kind of place is this? Why are there so many graves?”

James shook his head. 1 Quattro frowned and asked, ‘What kind of place is this? Why are there so many graves?’”

James shook his head. 1 Xzavion was also clueless. He had very little knowledge about the Genesis Worlds and was unsure of what kind of place they had entered.

“Let’s keep going and take a look,” said James.

The group walked deeper into the Tomb World.

The Tomb World was big and not weaker than the world of the Dark World’s races. However, it only had densely packed graves with building-sized tombstones.

Strangely enough, the graves had been dug up.

It seemed that tomb robbers had stolen all the treasures buried with the deceased.

Stephen suddenly stopped and said, “There are other living beings...”

James also sensed sensed them.

In front of them were several figures quickly moving forward. They noticed James’ group at that moment and stopped in their tracks.

Then, they stared toward where James’ group was located.”

Swoosh!

The moment they stopped, one of them immediately took action.

A terrifying wave of energy swept toward James' group.

"Step back!"

Stephen shouted anxiously, then took a step forward. He unleashed his strongest aura and waved his hand to summon a giant sword.

The giant sword slashed at the wave of energy.

Boom!

A loud rumbling sound spread throughout the area.

The collision of the two forces created a potent shock wave, which swept the surroundings.

Fortunately, the Tomb World's space was relatively stable. Even after Stephen had taken action, it showed no signs of collapsing.

"Hmm? They seem strong." The group in the distance exclaimed.

After realizing their opponents were strong, the group quickly evacuated the area.

"Come back."

Stephen's face darkened, and he summoned a spectral hand. The group of unknown creatures were trapped and dragged in front of them.

They had human appearances. Their bodies fell in front of James' group.

"Spare us!"

The creatures immediately begged for mercy.

James looked at them and discovered they were at the Yuraeceon Third Rank.

Compared to him, they were quite powerful.

"What place is this?" asked James.

The group was shocked after hearing James' question.

They were surprised James' group had entered the space without knowing what kind of place it was.

Stephen shouted, "He's asking you a question. Answer it."

The group was terrified. One of them quickly answered, "It's the Zephyria World."

"Zephyria World?" James frowned.

Xzavion's curiosity was piqued.

Quattro said impatiently, "Stop wasting time. Tell us what kind of place this is and its origins."

"Yes, of course!"

"The Zephyria World is a restricted area. However, it is not dangerous. It has existed for many years and has always floated through the gray zones. Since ancient times, many living beings have come here to find treasures buried in these graves. We found this place by chance and came to test our luck."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5766-After trapping the group, James and the others gained an overall understanding of the Zephyria World.

The Zephyria World was a forbidden zone in the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds. Its location was not fixed. Instead, it floated throughout the gray zone.

Although it was a forbidden zone, there was nothing dangerous.

However, only those with great luck could encounter the Zephyria World.

Stephen looked at the three unknown creatures and asked, "What is this place's origins? Why are there so many graves? What kind of creatures were buried here?"

“How would we know?”

“Yeah! Very little is recorded about the Zephyria World in our ancient books.

There are only records about powerhouses obtaining great treasures from the Zephyria World.”

“Please spare us.”

The three captured beings kept pleading for freedom.

“Let them go,” said James.

Stephen released their seals and allowed them to be freed. The three immediately stretched their muscles and looked at James’ group.

One of the chubbier men asked smilingly, “Which world are you guys from?

Where are you guys headed?”

“We’re from the Dark World,” James replied honestly.

“Ah? The Dark World?”

The three were shocked.

Seeing the changes in their expressions, James frowned and asked, “What’s wrong? Is something the matter?”

“Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds’ most mysterious place, the Dark World?”

“You can only leave the Dark Genesis World and not enter.”

“It’s rumored the Dark Genesis World was a very extraordinary place in the past.”

The three of them explained immediately. They had traveled through all the Great Genesis Worlds. However, they have never been to the Dark Genesis World.”

The Dark Genesis World was a mysterious place.

Xzavion and Stephen were intrigued.

“Is the Dark Genesis World a mysterious place?”

“Why can people only leave and not enter?” asked Stephen.

One of them replied, “We don’t know much about this. We’ve only seen records about it in ancient books.”

“It’s rumored the Great Genesis World is very unique. Those from the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds and Micro Genesis Worlds can’t enter the Dark Genesis World.”

“There are many other living beings within the Genesis Worlds, but none from the Micro Genesis Worlds.”

“It seems those from the Micro Genesis Worlds never leave.

They only stay in their world.”

The three explained, proving each other’s points.

James glanced at Xzavion.

Xzavion rubbed his chin and said, ‘That’s not entirely true. I know that living beings from the Micro Genesis Worlds have left before. A few who entered the Yuraeceon Rank have left the Yuraeceon Third Rank before. Except for Xayal and his subordinates, I don’t think anyone else has entered the Dark World before.:

“Could it be there’s a big secret to our world?” asked James.

Xzavion shrugged and said, “How would I know? I never left the Dark World and know little about the outside world. I know even little about what others think of our world.”

The four exchanged doubtful gazes. At that moment, they could not find out what secrets were hidden in the Dark World.

James stared at the three living beings and asked, “Why can’t you enter the Dark Genesis World?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5767-“I think there is a restriction?”

“Yeah. I think a long time ago, a peerless powerhouse made an order. Anyone who entered the Dark World would be slaughtered without mercy.”

“I heard a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s peak made the order.”

“These are events of the distant past. The elders of the different worlds would also advise their juniors to never step into the Dark World.”

“Even if anyone wanted to, it’d be impossible. There’s a very mysterious power blocking outsiders from entering.”

James and the others were confused. How did Xayal invade the Dark World if what they said was true? To unravel the truth, they would have to explore slowly.

“Could we come with you guys?” The three living beings stared at James and the others pleadingly. After all, they could sense the group was pretty strong.

James and Xzavion were at the Yuraeceon First Rank, whereas Stephen was at the Yuraeceon Fifth Rank.

They found it unreasonable that Stephen, who was stronger, was respectful toward James. Thus, they concluded James had deliberately suppressed his cultivation rank to hide his identity.

James said calmly, “It’s the first time we’ve left the Dark World. We don’t know about the Genesis Worlds. We saw the Zephyria World in the gray zone, so we came in here to check it out.”

Xzavion said indifferently, “Sure. You guys can come with us.”

It was the first time they had left the Dark World, and they were clueless about the Genesis Worlds. It would be easier for them to learn more about the outside world if they had the three guiding them.

The three living beings were overjoyed.

After joining parties, they continued wandering the Zephyria World.

While walking around together, James learned more about the three living beings.

The three were humans and brothers from a Great Genesis World. They grew up, cultivated, and did almost everything together.

Amongst them, the eldest brother was the strongest. He was a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Third Rank's peak and was close to the next stage.

Meanwhile, the other two were in the early stages of the Yuraeceon Third Rank.

The eldest was called Xytos Meyers. The second was Lannie Meyers and the youngest was Quizton Meyers.

The three of them grew up together and could connect their consciousness.

Therefore, they created a unique Supernatural Power that allowed them to fight together. United, they could fight against an opponent at the Yuraeceon Forth Rank.

The three brothers talked nonstop while traveling, explaining everything about forbidden areas, as well as the names of the peerless powerhouses from the Ancient Genesis World.

James and the others listened and learned about the strongest powerhouses of the Genesis Worlds, who was at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank.”

Being someone at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank was equivalent to having the Genesis Worlds under his feet.

James and his comrades learned a lot about the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds from the three brothers. They kept traveling through the Zephyria World and unknowingly arrived in the deepest part of the place.

In the depths of the Zephyria World, tombstones towered into the sky.

There were two things common about them. First, there were no names on their tombstones or anything to identify the person buried. Secondly, the graves had been dug up, and their coffins had been emptied.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5768-James' group walked through the Zephyria World. However, apart from graves, there were no treasures at all.

Even if there were treasures, those who first ventured into the Zephyria World would have already taken them.

The graves were dug out and emptied, leaving only bones in the coffins.

The bones had those that belonged to humans, as well as other creatures.

After being buried for long years, their bones no longer had any energy.

“Let’s go.” James said disappointedly, “We’ve already looked around, but there isn’t anything special.”

After failing to find any treasures, James planned to leave.

His main goal for leaving the Dark World was to find Thea. He planned to head to the Ancient Genesis World to search for Thea.

Since the Ancient Genesis World was the core, powerhouses from all the different Genesis Worlds would gather there.

They headed back to the Zephyria World’s borders and were about to leave.

Boom!

Suddenly, a loud explosion came from the depths of the Zephyria World.

They immediately turned around and saw that a spiritual mountain had exploded. Massive boulders rolled down, and dust filled the air.

At that moment, a grave with an ancient aura emerged.

James and the others could not help but feel fear toward the powerful aura.

“This is...?” James and the others were startled.

At that moment, the Zephyria World moved rapidly through the gray zone and passed through a few major worlds.

The Zephyria World’s appearance had attracted a lot of attention. Those who sensed it immediately chased after it.

The Zephyria World traveled at high speeds. Finally, it stopped at the gray zone of a certain Genesis World.

At that moment, an older man sitting in a lotus position within a particular sect of the Ancient Genesis World suddenly opened his eyes. A light flashed through his eyes, and he immediately stared in a specific direction.

“The Zephyria World has reappeared.”

In another area, a discussion had taken place.

“I sensed an abnormality from the Zephyria World. Could it be a boon has appeared?”

The Zephyria World’s energy spread to many different worlds, including the Ancient Genesis Worlds. At that moment, the powerhouses from the Ancient Genesis World immediately sensed its presence and sent disciples to check out the situation.

James and the others at the Zephyria World’s borders sensed the fluctuations and immediately turned back.

Soon, they appeared in front of the newly-emerged grave, It had a massive tombstone that was bigger than a planet. A few ancient and mysterious words were engraved on the tombstone.

“What texts are these?”

The Meyer brothers looked at the tombstone doubtfully.

They had been to many Genesis Worlds before and knew almost all the different texts that existed.

However, they could not recognize the words on the tombstone.

After James and the others saw the words, they looked at each other in surprise.

‘Texts from the Dark World?’

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5769-Xzavion frowned slightly and said, “Is this grave related to the Dark World?”

“These words belong to the Dark World? Xytos looked at Xzavion and asked doubtfully, “What does it say?”

“Franciscus Yuelan.”

James, Stephen, Xzavion, and Quattro read the words simultaneously.

“Huh?”

The Meyer brothers went limp and fell to the ground with pale, frightened faces. James looked at them and frowned.

Xzavion asked, “What’s wrong? Is Franciscus someone special? Why are they so scared?”

“Franciscus?!!”

Lannie’s face was pale, and his lips trembled in fear.

Quattro looked at him and said disdainfully, “You guys are powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Third Rank. How can you be so scared of just a name? Regardless of how strong he is, he’s a corpse right now. Do you have to be so scared?”

The three of them felt shivers down their spines. It was a natural reaction for them. The name itself was terrifying, and they could not help themselves.

The Meyer brothers sat down and used their powers to suppress the fear in their souls. After some time, they were doing better but were still visibly afraid.

James asked, "Who is he?"

Xytos replied, "He's a forbidden powerhouse. Long ago, he used his Curse Magic on all of the Genesis Powers. Its curse power is engraved in all living beings' souls. The curse will be activated as long as we hear his name."

"I see."

In conclusion, Franciscus was not that scary. Their reaction was due to the curse placed on them.

Even after eons, his curse would still be in full effect and would pass on to the next generations.

"Why aren't we influenced?" asked Quattro.

The Meyer brother shook their heads, not knowing the answer.

After suppressing the curse in the depths of their souls for a while, they returned to their feet.

James stared at the tombstone for a while, then turned to the Meyer brothers, asking, "What's Franciscus' origin?"

As James mentioned the name again, the Meyer brothers twitched in pain as if an evil spirit possessed them.

Quattro said calmly, "Stop torturing them. You shouldn't say the name Franciscus."

The Meyer brothers fell to the ground after Quattro mentioned Franciscus again.

The veins on their faces bulged, and they looked hideous.

Stephen looked at Quattro and said, "You just made it worse. You're not supposed to say Franciscus."

The Meyer brothers immediately passed out.

James and his comrades looked at each other with amusement. How did a name hold so much power?

Regardless, these three brothers were powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Third Rank. Yet, they just fainted after hearing the name three times.

James was excited, having found the secret to safely venturing the Genesis Worlds.

Quattro also smiled after having the same thought as James.

The group sat on the ground and waited for the brothers to wake up.

Soon enough, they regained consciousness.

Xytos immediately said helplessly, "Please stop mentioning his name. We don't have Supernatural Powers to suppress the curse and simply can't bear it."

James replied, "Then tell me his origins." Xytos sat on the ground, shook his head lightly, and said, "We don't know either."

He's a forbidden powerhouse. Normal ancient books don't dare to have his name recorded. There aren't any legends about him either. We only know that he had cast a curse on all of the Genesis Worlds. As soon as we hear his name, the curse will be activated. Only one sect has created a Supernatural Power to suppress the curse."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5770-The Meyer brothers had no idea what kind of background Franciscus had. They did not know much besides the fact that he existed before.

Quattro's face lit up with joy, and then he said excitedly, "There must be a lot of great treasures inside his tomb. Let's open up his grave and check what's inside." "I'll do it." Stephen flashed into the sky and appeared in front of the grave. Then, he summoned several inscriptions to form a giant sword and slashed at the grave.

However, a protective barrier suddenly appeared and blocked Stephen's attack.

Boom!

The force rebounded, and Stephen fell from the sky. He crashed into the ground, and a huge pit formed. Dust rolled up and permeated the air.

Stephen got up from the ground, patted the dirt off his body, and cursed, "Damn it. There's a formation."

James did not say much after confirming Stephen was alright. He turned to the formation around the tomb.

Xzavion suddenly said, "It feels a bit familiar."

After Stephen observed for a while, he nodded and said, "Yeah. I sense many familiar inscriptions within the formation." James answered, "It's the primitive inscriptions of the Dark World's Human Race. I think there are primitive inscriptions of other Primevals as well. The formation was cast with our world's primitive inscriptions."

Quattro cursed, "Damn it! What's so good about cultivating the human and the other race's primitive inscriptions? Just say if you can break the formation or not."

James, Stephen, and Xzavion shook their heads simultaneously.

Then, James said, "Although the aura is familiar, the formation is too profound. It won't be easy to break the formation. I'll need a long time to study it." The Meyer brothers stared at James and his comrades, surprised they could understand the inscriptions used in the formation.

Quattro said, "There's definitely a great treasure in it. Since we can't break the formation, how about trying to dig a passage into it?"

James looked at him and said, "Well, you can try."

Quattro was going all out to obtain the treasures.

His hands suddenly turned into a shovel, and he started digging.

After digging a few meters, he was blasted by a powerful force and fell to the ground.

He spat out a mouthful of blood and cursed, "Fuck."

Quattro sat up and said, "There's a formation underground as well. I can't dig through it. You guys should think of something instead."

Swoosh!

At that moment, a few living beings appeared in the area.

"I've been to the Zephyria World before but didn't see this grave back then." One of the living beings exclaimed, then rushed to open the grave. However, he was blocked by the formation and suffered a backlash. His body descended from the sky and crashed into the ground, destroying a few tombstones.

Swoosh! Swish! Swoosh!

More and more living beings appeared around the grave.

In just a short moment, about a hundred living beings had gathered. All of them were powerful. The weakest was at the Yuraeceon First Rank.

"Why are so many people here?" James frowned.

Xzavion said, "Who cares? Regardless of how many come, none of them can open the formation."
