

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5801

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5801-The other four were also very powerful. Xzavion had sensed that the opponents he had chosen were relatively weaker.

James glanced at the remaining four opponents, which included Bertholas from a sword sect of the Ancient Genesis World, Xitlaly, and two other unknown men.

Although he was unaware of the two men's origins, he could tell they were quite powerful.

Xzavion felt pressured. He looked at James and said worriedly, "I'll hold them off for a bit while you deal with the other four. However, I won't be able to buy much time. You better hurry up."

James replied, "Okay!"

"Haha!" Wayra laughed and said, "You must be insane!" Xzavion specifically chose to challenge four of them.

Wayra, being one of them, was offended and had no intentions of backing down from the challenge. He initiated an attack against Xzavion. The other three followed suit and also sprung into action.

Meanwhile, the other four charged at James as well. They were already in front of him in just a blink of an eye.

Xitlaly said reluctantly, "Initially, I had no intention to fight you, James. You're too strong, and I simply can't win if I fight alone. But there's a chance if the four of us join forces."

Bertholas said calmly, "Cut the nonsense and kill him already."

"Haha!" James chuckled at his remarks.

"Before your death, I'll give you the honor of knowing my name. Listen carefully, it's Tahoma Habermann."

One of the two unknown men introduced himself and then charged at James.

James stood calmly as Obsidian Body Inscriptions emerged and attached to the surface of his body. Then, he waited for Tahoma to attack.

Tahoma flashed in front of James and summoned his sword. A potent aura burst out from his body, and he quickly slashed out his sword, unleashing an intense Sword Intent.

Swoosh!

A dazzling Sword Energy darted at James.

However, James still stood motionless in place.

The Sword Energy struck his body. Apart from stumbling a few steps, James suffered no substantial harm.

Meanwhile, the surrounding space began to collapse.

Although Tahoma's attack successfully destroyed James' Obsidian Body Inscriptions, James was still unscathed. After all, his physical body was exceptionally strong. Even a powerhouse like Tahoma could not injure him.

Surprised, Tahoma exclaimed, "Damn it. Why is his physical body so powerful?"

Tahoma turned to the others and shouted, "What are you three waiting for?!!"

The other three immediately launched attacks simultaneously.

"Haha." James chuckled.

Suddenly, a mysterious formation materialized and enveloped Tahoma.

Tahoma felt an intense pressure crashing down on his body after being trapped inside the formation, and his expression changed drastically.

He quickly urged all his strength and roared, "Break!!!"

Tahoma's sword bloomed with thousands of sword lights and darted at James's formation.

James' greatest skill instantly showed signs of cracking apart.

With a thought, James immediately repaired the formation. Then, the countless inscriptions within the formation transformed into Sword Energies.

The Sword Energies pierced through the air, shooting toward Tahoma.

Tahoma gripped his long sword and activated a protective shield.

Bang! Boom! Bang!

His protective shield blocked the Sword Energies.

“He’s quite strong.” James was surprised that his formation’s attacks were ineffective against Tahoma.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5802-Tahoma was exceptionally strong. Faced with such an opponent, James immediately used his formation. He transformed the inscriptions within the formation into Sword Energies. However, Tahoma’s protective shield easily blocked the series of attacks.

At that moment, many inscriptions quickly gathered in the sky and formed into a massive sword.

The sword fell from the sky, aiming at Tahoma.

Tahoma immediately sensed the danger and tried to evade the attack.

Boom!!!

The massive sword shattered Tahoma’s protective shield. Although he had dodged in time, the potent aura from the attack was enough to inflict severe damage to his body. In just a short moment, his whole body was soaked with blood.

Meanwhile, the other three powerhouses also launched attacks.

James, however, avoided confrontation with them. He planned to take down one opponent at a time. He flashed through the void, avoiding their relentless attacks.

Then, he transformed the formation again. At that moment, different Supernatural Powers appeared within the formation and began attacking Tahoma.

Tahoma kept suffering injuries, and his aura began to weaken.

“Goodbye.” James’ cold voice resounded in the area.

While his voice echoed, the formation transformed into a Sword World, and the numerous inscriptions gathered into Sword Energies.

The Sword Energies crisscrossed and attacked relentlessly.

Tahoma tried his best to avoid them. However, he was under potent pressure from the Sword World. As a result, his movement speed decreased significantly, making it hard to evade all the attacks completely.

Several of the Sword Energies had already pierced through his body.

On the other hand, James’s opponents could not keep up with him. They could only watch as the formation floated through the area. Even though they were not trapped, they could still feel the potent force of the formation.

They knew if they did not destroy James’ formation immediately, Tahoma would die. If that were to happen, they would lose one powerful comrade, and defeating James would be even more difficult.

Tahoma, who was still trapped within the formation, was covered with wounds.

He had been moving at very high speeds under the Sword World’s pressure, which depleted his energy rapidly. His chest heaved, panting heavily.

“Damn it.” Tahoma had a grim expression. Suddenly, a potent aura erupted from his body, and he charged into the sky, attempting to break James’ formation.

However, the formation transformed again.

Tahoma was immobilized in mid-air. Immediately afterward, countless Sword Energies darted at him and pierced through his body.

His body exploded, and his soul was obliterated.

James smiled faintly after killing Tahoma. He was already surprised that Tahoma had survived for so long within the formation.

After killing his first opponent, James dispersed the formation. Then, he stood calmly in the void and looked at the other three still chasing after him. He smiled and said, "Now that Tahoma is dead, who's next?"

James was indifferent, but his remaining opponents had solemn expressions.

The three looked at each other worriedly.

Bertholas was horrified. Tahoma was one of his generation's best and almost unbeatable against his peers.

Someone at the same rank as him would have to pay a hefty price just to kill him.

Even Bertholas was not confident he could kill Tahoma

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5803-However, Tahoma was killed by James so effortlessly.

Xitlaly and the other powerhouse were horrified.

James smiled faintly after seeing their expressions. His gaze swept over them, pondering who to attack next. He was confident about killing them simultaneously, so he decided to fight them individually.

James felt wary about Bertholas since the guy seemed skilled in the Sword Path.

Xitlaly, on the other hand, was a powerhouse that decreased her cultivation rank to enter the Tomb World.

James turned to the other opponent.

Sensing James' gaze, the man took a few steps back. He looked at Bertholas and Xitlaly, then said anxiously, "At this point in the battle, we can't have any reservations. He's really powerful, and none of us can fight him alone. We must work together and use all our strength to kill him."

James smiled, then said calmly, "I don't plan to do anything to do the of you yet, Bertholas, Xitlaly. You two should stay away. After I deal with this guy, let's kill the puppet warriors together. By doing so, the two of you can also gain something from the puppet warriors."

“D-Don’t listen to him!”

The man’s name was Nando Brown. He too, had decreased his cultivation rank to enter the Tomb World to seek treasures.

He was originally a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank, the same as Slade’s actual cultivation rank.

After hearing James’ words, Bertholas and Xitlaly looked at each other. It seemed like they were secretly discussing whether or not to comply.

Nando said frantically, “We agreed to get rid of these two first. Are you two going back on your words?”

James stood in the void, watching them nonchalantly.

After a brief moment, Xitlaly responded, “We’ll not interfere. Nando’s life and death has nothing to do with us.”

Bertholas also said smilingly, “Do as you please.”

“You...bastards!” Nando was furious.

Bertholas and Xitlaly retreated to a safe distance, leaving the two alone to fight.

James cast a glance over to Xzavion, who was engaged in a fierce battle. At that moment, he was besieged by four peerless powerhouses. He was holding on with his countless Supernatural Powers and the power of the Dark World’s primitive inscriptions. However, his opponents were tough, and he could not hold on much longer.

James knew he had to deal with Nando immediately, then rushed to help Xzavion. Even if the two of them could not fight the four powerhouses, they had to find a way to temporarily stop the battle and eliminate the puppet warriors first.

“You may have the first move.” James had a powerful aura. He looked at Nando, who had a grim expression.

“Damn it!” Nando was livid. He quickly mobilized all his strength and launched an attack on James. He appeared before James in the blink of an eye and suddenly split into seven clones.

With the addition of his main body, there were eight opponents. The clones had very similar auras to his main body.

Nando and his seven clones instantly attacked James from different directions.

James was surrounded by spectral fists.

Boom!

The wave of attacks shattered the surroundings.

However, James walked out of the attacks unscathed.

James said, "You're strong. Unfortunately, my body is invincible against those in the same rank or lower than me."

While speaking, James walked through the cracked void.

Nando and his clones had similar auras, making it hard to discern which was his main body.

Since James found it hard to identify the main body, he decided to destroy all of them.

With a thought, he summoned the formation once again.

The formation quickly spread out, surrounding Nando and his clones.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5804-Nando and his clones sneered and said simultaneously, "Invincible? There's no such thing, only being too weak."

Nando did not believe in invincibility. Nobody in the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds dared to claim to be invincible.

Even a powerhouse like Franciscus, who had reached the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank, had fallen and became a figure of history.

"Break!" Nando and his eight clones fused instantly, and his strength skyrocketed. Then, he swung his fist.

James' formation shattered into inscriptions and disappeared into the sky.

“Impressive,” James murmured with a slight frown.

Meanwhile, Nando’s clones reappeared.

Nando and his clones stood in the void with playful smiles, and then they said calmly, “I didn’t want to use my trump card so soon, but you’re too powerful. If I don’t use it, I won’t be able to kill you.”

After speaking, Nando and his clones surrounded James to form a formation.

James found himself in a tough spot, unable to escape. No matter where he tried to run, the eight Nandos would chase after him and launch fierce attacks.

Despite James’ efforts to block the attacks, it was a struggle since he was outnumbered. He was hit a few times. He was not injured, but the powerful force permeated his body and caused his Blood Energy to churn. He failed to calm his Blood Energy in time and spat out a mouthful of blood.

At that moment, the eight clones merged with Nando again.

Nando’s strength improved eightfold.

A punch fell on James, and his body was blasted away.

Before James could suppress the force, Nando’s body split apart again. Then, one of them disappeared and appeared behind James.

Nando thrust his palms forward, and a potent energy blasted forward.

James was instantly enveloped by the energy from all directions. In just the blink of an eye, he sustained countless injuries. He fell from the sky and crashed into the ground.

Boom!

The ground cracked and formed into a deep pit.

Before James could climb out from the pit, the eight Nandos merged again and appeared in the sky. A long sword materialized in Nando’s hand, and then a terrifying Sword Energy shot out.

The Sword Energy charged down from the sky, striking the deep pit where James had fallen.

Boom!

The ground trembled, and cracks began to spread out in the Tomb World.

The powerhouses fighting with Xzavion in the distance immediately noticed the situation. Their battle had not gone to extremes, and they were merely testing each other out. Nobody had used their trump cards or real power.

After all, there were no real friends within the Tomb World. Everyone was an enemy. Therefore, they wanted to preserve their strength and save their Supernatural Powers for later.

Even so, Xzavion was struggling against them. At that moment, he was covered in wounds, and his white robe was stained red with blood.

“He’s going all out.”

“How unexpected of Nando.”

“Since he has used his Supernatural Power, he must be determined to kill James.”

The four powerhouses united against Xzavion and temporarily stopped fighting.

After seeing Bertholas and Xitlaly spectating in the distance, they immediately chose to step aside.

“Regardless of the outcome of their battle, the winner will be exhausted of energy and probably also injured.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5805-“Let them exhaust each other out. After their battle, they won’t pose a threat to us anymore.”

“We’ll watch them fight first.”

Everyone chose a truce to watch the battle.

Xzavion finally had the chance to breathe. He disappeared and was teleported to a corner of the Tomb World. After consuming a healing elixir, he began healing his wounds.

Nando activated his Supernatural Power and took the upper hand against James.

The Sword Energy struck the ground, causing dust and rubble to spread in the air.

The other powerhouses watched and discussed the battle.

“Even if James has an exceptional physical body, he should be seriously injured after being struck by such a powerful attack, right?”

Swoosh!

James flew up from the rubble and rushed into the sky.

After being struck a couple of times, James was in a terrible state. Even so, his physical body was really powerful.

Nando’s attacks were terrifying but could not deal any substantial damage to James’ body. However, his Blood Energy churned from the shock.

James swept his hair back and patted the dust of his body. Then, he said smilingly, “Impressive.”

Nando’s face darkened after seeing James unscathed. His strength had already improved eightfold, but he still failed to cause harm to James.

James said casually, “Do you have other Supernatural Powers? You won’t be able to cause any substantial injuries to me, let alone kill me. If you don’t have anything else, I’ll make my move now.”

Nando stared at James.

Everyone else also watched the battle, wanting to see what kind of Supernatural Powers James would use.

Under the countless gazes, James’ aura began to improve.

James integrated the Supernatural Powers he had learned from the Dark World into the formation. However, it was still not enough to kill Nando.

Therefore, James had to utilize the Marciais Path.

The Marciais Path was pure power of oneself, and not from the inscriptions of the heaven and earth. It allowed James to enhance his strength.

James' blood began to churn, and a potent force emerged. At the same time, power also began flowing through his limbs.

From the depths of his soul, a mysterious force was spreading out.

His bloodline, body, and soul powers began to intertwine within his body.

Moreover, he had the power of his cultivation rank.

At that moment, James' aura was extremely powerful.

James stood in the void with a potent aura emitting from his body. He looked like a mighty warrior, standing above the entire world.

'Take this!' James roared and suddenly flashed before Nandos. Then, he swung his fist.

James' attack was so fast.

Nando only saw a flashing fist before his eyes and was struck.

His body suddenly split into eight and began escaping in different directions.

Even so, Nando and his clones were injured. However, they were not fatal.

Nando and his clones wiped the blood from their lips simultaneously. They had the same grim expression, which was soon replaced with sly smiles.

"If eightfold of my strength isn't enough to injure you, what about sixteenfold?" Nando's voice resounded, and then his clones began to duplicate again.

In the sky, there were eighteen of him.

Then, the clones merged into the main body.

Nando's aura skyrocketed, and it caused the surroundings to tremble.

"What?"

'That's a terrifying Supernatural Power!'

“It’s fortunate that James had taken action against him and forced Nando to display such a terrifying Supernatural Power in advance. Otherwise, we would’ve had a hard time against him.”

The powerhouse in the distance was frightened.

Nando’s aura was exceptional, and it made them feel threatened.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5806-Nando’s strength multiplied by sixteen times.

Those who were spectating were surprised and frightened by Nando’s current strength. At the same time, they felt relieved James had forced Nando to cast his Supernatural Power in advance. Otherwise, they would have a hard time against him and might lose the chance to obtain treasures. Their lives were also at risk.

Meanwhile, James hovered in the sky. The power of his blood, soul, and body leaked out and formed a dazzling white halo.

Nando’s pale face wore a grim expression. Casting his Supernatural Power had taken a toll on him, as it consumed energy from his soul, body, and life force.

Despite the consequences, he continued to emit a powerful aura. He stretched his limbs, and the movement caused the surrounding void to distort.

At that moment, an eerie smile appeared on his face. Then, he said, ‘You’re very strong, James. I’m impressed. Nobody in the same rank as me has ever forced me to use Supernatural Power.

“Too bad. It’s time you die!”

After speaking, Nando sprung into action. Besides his strength being improved sixteenfold, his speed and other aspects were enhanced equally.

James was surprised by his speed and could not react in time. A fist struck him, and a terrifying force permeated his body. An injury formed instantly, and he began bleeding.

‘That was powerful.’ James was shocked.

James had already activated the Marciais Path but was still injured by a punch.

Nando followed up with his attacks.

James was being beaten up like a volleyball, bouncing throughout the sky. He was hit numerous times in just a short moment and was covered with wounds.

Nando finally stopped and stood in the void with a triumphant smile.

“What happened to have an invincible body?” James lowered his head, examining his wounds. Then, he wiped the blood from his lips and said excitedly, “I never expected to meet such a powerful opponent at the same rank as me! I’m pumped!”

“Haha!” Nando cackled, then immediately launched another attack. He appeared before James in the blink of an eye and swung his leg at James’ head.

His movement speed had exceeded time and space’s limitations.

However, James suddenly dodged the attack at the last second. Then, he reappeared in front of Nando and swung his fist.

Nando was struck in the head, and his face distorted. His head turned sharply, then the impact sent him flying away. However, he quickly neutralized the force and counterattacked.

James quickly responded, blocking his attacks.

The two fought for a long time, exchanging punches and kicks. None of them held back anything, and each successful blow would greatly damage the other party.

“Damn it!!!” Nando roared, then leaped into the sky. He raised his hand, and a powerful force gathered in his palm. Then, he struck out violently.

A powerful wave rained down from the sky, trying to pressure James.

James, however, calmly shifted through the air and escaped.

Boom!

The wave crashed into the ground, destroying a large area. The grounds trembled, and the Tomb World began crumbling.

Meanwhile, an elderly man sat on the coffin suspended in mid-air.

The tombkeeper watched the battle and drank his wine leisurely with a faint smile. He was immensely satisfied with the battle between Nando and James.

It was impressive that they had such explosive strength while only at the Yuraeceon First Rank.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5807-Nando summoned a long sword, and he duplicated himself again. At that moment, there were sixteen of him.

‘Take this!’ Nando’s cold and ruthless voice resounded throughout the Tomb World.

His 15 clones drew their swords and immediately launched at James.

A formation immediately evolved around James’ body, and numerous inscriptions danced around to form a protective barrier.

Boom!

The protective barrier only lasted for a very short while before it was destroyed.

After James lost his defense, he cast the Blithe Omniscience and disappeared from the spot.

Immediately afterward, the Sword Energies clashed and caused an explosion. A huge black hole formed in the void and spread out.

The Sword Energies reemerged from the black hole and merged into one.

The massive Sword Energy emitted a purple glow, as well as frightening power.

It pierced through the air, destroying everything in its way.

The Sword Energy darted toward James at rapid speeds. It was only inches away from him in the blink of an eye.

James sensed the potent force, and his skin tingled. If he were hit by the Sword Energy, he would be severely injured.

He did not dare to recklessly block the attack, so he retreated to the distance.

However, the Sword Energy seemed to have already locked onto his aura. As soon as he teleported away, the Sword Energy chased after him.

James had no choice but to repeatedly use the Blithe Omniscience to flee. He kept disappearing and reappearing throughout the Tomb World.

While dodging the attacks, James was also secretly accumulating his powers.

He gathered the Human Race's primitive inscriptions to form the foundation of the sword. Then, with the other primitive inscriptions of the Dark World's different races, he completed the sword.

James held the sword and integrated his powers into the sword.

The sword shone brightly.

"Break!" James shouted, then raised his sword and slashed at the Sword Energy.

The Sword Energy was shattered instantly and dispersed into the void. The energy swept through the Tomb World, causing significant damage.

"James is so strong."

"He did not just parry the Sword Energy. He shattered it."

The spectators were shocked by James' strength.

Wayra turned to Bertholas, then asked, "Is your Ultimate Sword Art stronger than Nando's attack just now?"

Bertholas stared at the battlefield for a while. Then, he replied, "We're most likely evenly matched."

Meanwhile, James gripped his long sword and shouted, "My turn!"

After speaking, James raised his sword, and a powerful force gathered above him.

James was using the power of the Dark World's various forces, as well as the power of the Anceralos World.

Although James was not the Dark World's Lord, he could control everything within it. Even outside of the Dark World, he could gather the Dark World's powers.

The powers of the Dark World and Anceralos World formed into Sword Energies and fused into one

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5808-James' sword contained the primitive inscriptions of the Dark World's various races, as well as the power of the Anceralos World and his body. As of now, it was his ultimate weapon.

As soon as James slashed out his sword, the surroundings went dim. The heaven and earth suddenly seemed so weak after being overshadowed by the sword.

Nando's clones immediately merged with his main body. He gripped tightly onto his sword and glared at James.

Faced with James' mighty sword, Nando chose to face it head-on.

Nando summoned all his strength and accumulated them.

He had sixteenfold of his true strength, plus the power of his sword.

Even before launching an attack, his aura felt terrifying.

Swoosh!

James slashed out his sword.

Nando also reacted immediately and swung his sword.

Two Sword Energies sliced through the air and collided.

Immediately afterward, Nando and James charged at each other. Their sword locked, and they struggled against each other.

Boom!

The delayed explosion from the impact of the Sword Energies erupted.

The force blasted away Nando, and his body split open. He quickly cast a Supernatural Power to forcefully mend the damage.

James did not have it easy either. He was knocked away, and his body suffered a heavy blow. He was injured all over and was covered in blood. Despite his condition, he did not stop fighting. He quickly appeared behind Nando and thrust his sword into Nando's body.

The sword pierced through Nando's body. However, James was immediately knocked away by a compelling force.

James stabilized himself in the distance. He held onto his long sword and panted vigorously. The battle had consumed a lot of his strength.

On the other hand, Nando's condition was worse. His body had almost split apart. If not for his Supernatural Power, he would have been obliterated.

Nando's hair was messy, and his face was terrifyingly grim. His meridians were already injured. He attempted to repair them, but there was a very strong Sword Intent in his body continuously causing damage.

Soon, his body began to crack again. However, he used his powers to repair the injuries.

In addition, his soul was already traumatized.

At that moment, his aura was weakening.

Nando knew he could no longer fight, or else his life would be in danger. He desperately needed to find a place to recuperate.

He clenched tightly onto his sword and stared at James. Streams of blood dripped from his arm and soaked his sword in blood.

His blood fell and sliced through the void, causing significant damage.

The powerhouses spectated and noticed Nando's condition.

Slade stepped forward and said smilingly, "Nando has already been injured and has lost his combat effectiveness. It's time to get rid of him."

After speaking, Slade slowly walked toward Nando. While doing so, his aura gradually grew more assertive.

“How dare you?!” Nando had a furious expression. He pointed out his long sword and said furiously, “Even if I lose my combat effectiveness, I can still kill you easily.” “Is that so?” Slade smiled faintly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5809-Nando turned to the tombkeeper on the coffin and shouted, “I surrender. Please open the formation and let me leave the Tomb World, sir.”

“Sure,” the tombkeeper replied calmly, then waved his hand and teleported Nando out of the Tomb World.

Meanwhile, Slade’s gaze was glued on James.

Although James was injured, he was not in a fatal condition.

James looked at Slade and said calmly, “Yes? Do you want to fight me too?”

Sensing James’ aura, Slade quickly backed away.

The battles were temporarily over. However, the real fights had yet to begin.

Nando was the only one eliminated. The remaining powerhouses were not inferior to him. Moreover, they had to defeat the ten puppet warriors and the ultimate puppet warrior.

There were still many obstacles to overcome before anyone could get their hands on Franciscus’ treasures.

At that moment, the shattered surroundings began to recover. Soon enough, it was back to normal.

James landed on a spiritual mountain, sat in a lotus position, and began to recover his strength.

Xzavion appeared beside him and asked worriedly, “Are you alright?”

James nodded lightly and said, “I’m fine. However, I wasn’t expecting Nando to be so strong. I was forced to use a lot of my combat means. Our remaining opponents are not inferior to Nando. The following battles will be even more tough.”

Everyone!” Wayra’s voice suddenly came from the distance.

“Let’s kill the puppet warriors first. The tombkeeper had already said that the puppet warriors contained various Supernatural Powers. Let’s acquire the Supernatural Powers first as to not waste our effort coming here.

“As for the rest, let’s talk about it later. What do you guys say?”

Wayra looked at the other powerhouses scattered throughout the Tomb World.

Xitlaly answered, “I’ve no objection.”

“Me neither.”

“Let’s do this. We each take one puppet warrior. Whoever kills their opponent first can take another one.”

A few powerhouses expressed their opinions.

James also did not have any objections.

At that moment, everyone turned to James and Xzavion.

James said smilingly, “Since everyone has already agreed to it, why bother with my opinion? Go ahead and choose your opponents. Whichever is left over will be mine.”

In the Tomb World, there were ten puppet warriors. Each was different and contained a Supernatural Power left behind by Franciscus.

At that moment, a voice resounded in James’ mind.

“You should choose the golden puppet.”

It was a reminder from the tombkeeper.

Hearing the voice, James raised his head and looked at the tombkeeper, who was still drinking leisurely on the coffin. Then, he asked, “Why should I?”

The tombkeeper replied, “Everyone here is on par with Nando. You’ve already used all your combat means to defeat him. With your strength, it will not be easy to survive till the end.

“You’ll only have a chance by improving your Marcias Path. Coincidentally, the golden puppet contains a Supernatural Power to cultivate the Marciais Path. It’ll be useful to you. With your current proficiency in the Marciais Path, you may be able to learn something from it.

“After the ten puppet warriors are killed, I’ll find a way to stop the fights to buy you time to cultivate.”

James asked, “Why are you helping me? Didn’t you say that you wouldn’t provide any help?”

“You’re from the Dark World, after all. I’d be more relieved if someone from the Dark World obtained Franciscus’ inheritance. Plus, I’m only giving you a tip. I’m not helping you. How far you make it is entirely on you.” After answering James, the tombkeeper cut off communication.

Immediately afterward, James teleported in front of the golden puppet warrior and shouted, “I’ll have this one.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5810-James appeared before the golden puppet warrior.

The puppet warrior had a humongous body, and it was covered with shiny gold.

When James arrived, Lumia from the Bellerian Dynasty was already there.

Boom!

Fierce battles had already taken place in the distance.

The powerhouses began engaging in battle with the puppet warriors.

James looked at the puppet warrior before him, and then he unleashed a powerful aura. He jumped into the air and then launched an attack.

He threw a powerful bunch, and a potent force emerged from his fist. It formed into a spectral fist and struck the puppet warrior.

Bang!!!

A loud explosion erupted.

However, the golden puppet warrior was unscathed.

“What?” James was slightly shocked. He had already used all his strength in the attack but caused no substantial damage to the puppet warrior. It was not even knocked away by the force.

The puppet warrior stood in place and allowed James attack to land.

After James attacked him, the puppet warrior suddenly came to life. Its eye opened, and a golden light shot out from his pupils.

The blinding golden light was powerful.

Fortunately, James managed to dodge it in time.

The golden light shattered the previous area where he stood.

The golden puppet warrior slowly moved its limbs. Then, it suddenly began to shrink to the size of an average human.

The puppet stood in the void and slowly transformed into a human appearance.

Then, he said with a grim expression, “Lowly human, you’ve angered me. Now, you die.”

“Ha!” James sneered.

“You’re just a puppet. What could you possibly do?” When James finished his sentence, the puppet warrior attacked.

James saw a golden light flashing, and suddenly, a golden fist was about to land on his face. He quickly raised his hand and blocked the attack.

Boom!!!

Their powerful forces intertwined, and the void exploded.

James felt a powerful force sweeping toward him, immediately knocking him away. At the same time, severe pain spread through his arm. When he lowered his head, he saw a crack spreading from his fists to his arm. Gradually, it was inching toward his torso.

“He’s strong.” James was shocked.

James quickly mobilized his power and stopped the injury from spreading any further.

Meanwhile, the puppet warrior had already sprung into action again. In just a short moment, he had already launched thousands of punches.

James successfully blocked the attacks, but he suffered quite a lot of injuries.

He realized how terrifying the puppet warriors were and why the tombkeeper healed the injured powerhouses before the battle.

The tombkeeper knew how powerful the puppet warriors were. Based on their previous conditions, they could not defeat the puppet warriors.

James raised his vigilance and activated the Marcias Path’s strongest state. His body, blood, and soul were enhanced significantly. His power emitted and formed a mysterious halo on the surface of his body, making for a dazzling sight.

The puppet warrior swung his golden fist.

James quickly dodged and threw him a punch. His attack contained the power of the Marcias Path, his cultivation rank, and the Dark World’s primitive inscriptions.

These powers superimposed, and the attack was terrifyingly strong.

Clank!
