

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5821-Wayra cast the Celestial Momentum Art to its greatest potential. At that moment, energy from the surroundings submerged into his body. At that moment, his momentum and strength improved.

He was unwilling to admit defeat and wanted to fight the Igneous again.

However, he was at a disadvantage. Even after mobilizing all his strength, he could not defeat the Igneous.

After sustaining consecutive wounds, Wayra finally gave up trying to block the attacks. Instead, he chose to dodge and avoid engaging with the Igneous.

Three days later...

Wayra had used everything in him to drag the battle for three days.

At that moment, he was battered and bruised.

Bertholas left seclusion and immediately summoned a giant sword.

The giant sword appeared in the sky and slashed at the Igneous. Although the attack did not cause much injury, it temporarily relieved Wayra from battle.

"I can't fight anymore. Replace me. I need to heal my wounds."

After leaving a few words, Wayra quickly disappeared from the battlefield.

Bertholas began his battle against the Igneous. However, he was not much more potent than Wayra. He may even be weaker.

After just one confrontation with the Igneous, he was already injured.

"Come!" Bertholas was vigilant.

He borrowed a sword from the powers of heaven and earth.

The powers gathered and integrated with his Sword Path to form a long sword in the void.

At that moment, Bertholas' Sword Path was incredibly strong.

The sword fell from the sky and struck the Igneous again.

However, the Igneous was still unscathed. It swung its tail and injured Bertholas before he could even react.

Bertholas knew it was impossible to kill the Igneous with his own strength. Thus, he also decided to avoid a direct confrontation.

He managed to last for two days. However, he was covered in injuries.

At that moment, the other powerhouses finally left seclusion.

Even Wayra joined them despite not having fully recovered.

The seven powerhouses hovered in the sky, emitting powerful auras. They summoned their weapons and attacked simultaneously.

Seven potent forces struck the Igneous.

“Roar!”

The Igneous let out a painful shout. The sound waves swept the surroundings and knocked the seven powerhouses away. Everyone spat out blood and fell to the ground.

Immediately afterward, seven fireballs appeared and shot at them.

The seven powerhouses quickly cast their Supernatural Powers to dodge.

Boom!

Seven explosions took place, and powerful shock waves spread throughout the area. It seemed like the Tomb World was about to collapse.

“It's so powerful.”

“How is it possible to defeat him?”

“It's invulnerable. No matter what Supernatural Power we use, it's impossible to cause damage. How can we fight it?”

“Where’s James? Why is he still in seclusion?”

The seven powerhouses had united but still could not deal any harm to the Igneous. At that moment, they searched for James panickedly.

Meanwhile, James was still in seclusion somewhere in the Tomb World. His body was still visible, but his aura had disappeared.

“Don’t disturb him.”

At that moment, the tombkeeper said, “He’s your last hope to kill the Igneous. If he doesn’t succeed in comprehending, all of you will be wiped out, and nobody will receive the inheritance.”

“If he does it, he’ll be able to defeat the ultimate puppet warrior. Even though only one person can acquire Franciscus’ inheritance, the Igneous’ body is still full of treasures. Your trip here will be worthwhile if the Igneous is killed.”

After speaking, the tombkeeper looked at James with a solemn expression.

‘The Marciais Combat Form has three forms—the Initial Form, Divine Form, and Primitive Form. I wonder which form he will reach.’

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5822—The Marciais Combat Form has three forms—the Initial Form, the Divine Form and the Primitive Form.

Before James obtained the golden book from the puppet warrior, he had already mastered the Maricias Path’s Initial Form.

James’ previous attack against the golden puppet warrior had already reached the threshold of the Primitive Form.

Seeing that James was still in seclusion, the other seven powerhouses did not bother him. They turned their focus back to the Igneous and attacked.

The fierce battle continued in the Tomb World.

The seven powerhouses were the best among their peers. Many of them had decreased their cultivation ranks to enter the Tomb World. They had mastered various Supernatural Powers.

Although they outnumbered the Igneous, they could not cause any substantial harm.

Boom!

Explosions erupted throughout the void.

Seven figures flashed in the sky, attacking the Igneous with all their trump cards.

Even so, they still failed to defeat the Igneous. At that point, everyone was already injured.

“Damn it!”

“We can’t do this.”

“How are we supposed to fight?”

“Why hasn’t James come out of seclusion? If he doesn’t join us soon, we’ll die.”

The seven powerhouses became anxious. They continued their attacks, and seven potent forces swept toward the Igneous from all directions.

“Grrll!”

The Igneous roared, and terrifying force erupted from its body. The force swept the surroundings like water ripples and blasted everyone away.

The seven powerhouses plummeted from the sky and fell to the ground. Before they could get up, the Igneous had already shot fireballs at them.

Sensing the danger, they quickly used Supernatural Powers to teleport out of the area.

Immediately afterward, seven deep pits formed in the areas where they last crashed.

The seven of them were already injured, but they did not give up and continued to fight.

Time passed day by day.

The battle lasted for a month.

The seven powerhouses took turns fighting the Igneous for the past month.

Everyone was badly injured, and they were running out of energy. They could not hold on for much longer.

“This is bad. I can’t hold on for much longer.” Bertholas’ body was scorched all over by the Igneous’ flames.

Bertholas was the first to withdraw from the battlefield. He appeared in a far corner and began to heal his injuries.

The others were also unable to persist any longer and also followed suit.

Just when the seven powerhouses withdrew, James suddenly opened his eyes.

A red light ray burst from his eyes, and his aura immediately skyrocketed.

James dispersed the formation, then slowly ascended into the sky. As he moved, he connected with the power of the heaven and earth.

“What the...”

The seven powerhouses were startled to sense James’ potent aura and stared at him.

At that moment, James’ aura was overwhelming, and a strong fighting spirit emitted from his body.

Red lights appeared on the surface of his body and kept flickering rapidly.

The tombkeeper frowned and murmured, “The Marciais Paths’ Divine Form.

Unfortunately, that will not be enough to kill the Igneous.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5823-The tombkeeper was clear of the Igneous’ strength. He also knew James was at the Yuraeceon First Rank. Even with the Marciais Path’s Divine Form, James was not strong enough to take down the Igneous.

He had to be at the Primitive Form to defeat the Igneous.

“Why is James’ aura so powerful?”

“I’ve read about it in ancient books. Long ago, living beings had not mastered the inscriptions of heaven and earth. Back then, a powerhouse of the Human Race created the Marciais Path to fight. It’s recorded that there are three forms to the Marciais Combat Form.”

“I’ve also seen records about it as well. The Initial Form is really easy to achieve. As long as you have enough control over your bloodline, strength, and soul power, entering the Initial Form is a piece of cake.

‘The second form is called the Divine Form, which is much harder to master.

Surprisingly, James is at the Divine Form.”

The powerhouses present were from major sects and factions. Therefore, they had a rough understanding of the Three Marcias Combat Forms.

“Let’s focus on treating our wounds and leave the rest to James.”

The seven powerhouses began recuperating. At the same time, their attention was on James.

Red lights that looked like lightning flowed around James’ body. At that moment, his aura was compelling.

James slowly stepped forward and looked at the massive beast before him. He clenched his fists and sensed the power flowing through his body, trying to adapt to it.

“Grr’H” The Igneous roared, then spat out a ball of flame.

James Camly waved his hand and knocked away the ball of flame. Then, he suddenly appeared before the Igneous and swung his fist at its head.

After unlocking the Divine Form, James’ movement speed and strength skyrocketed.

The Igneous was blasted away after being struck in the head and fell to the ground.

“How is he that strong?”

“We couldn’t even hurt the Igneous while working together.

Yet, James so easily knocked it off its feet.”

‘That’s some terrifying strength.”

James’ display of strength dumbfounded the other powerhouses.

Boom!!!

The ground exploded, and the Igneous leaped into the sky again.

The Igneous was furious, and its body oozed with flames. Suddenly, it charged at James and swung its claw in an attempt to capture James.

James skilfully dodged the attack and appeared below the Igneous. Then, he repeatedly attacked its stomach.

Although James was strong and managed to knock the Igneous over once, he could not cause any substantial damage.

The Igneous kept being knocked to the ground, and it fell to the ground several times.

James attacked numerous times, but not even a scale of the Igneous’ body had fallen.

Swoosh!

James appeared behind the Igneous and grabbed its tail. Then, he spun the Igneous in circles a few times and let go.

The Igneous was sent flying into the distance.

Immediately afterward, James intercepted the Igneous’ flying trajectory and stomped on it.

James' attacks were so fast that the other powerhouses could only see a red light descending from the sky with the Igneous beneath it.

The terrifying force hit the Igneous, but it remained uninjured. Even so, it could not resist the force and fell to the ground again.

James attacked relentlessly but did not deal much damage. He frowned and thought to himself, 'It's so powerful. I'm already in the Divine Form, but still can't hurt it.'

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5824-James was shocked by how powerful the Igneous was. Even so, he was fearless. Rather, his fighting spirit was ignited.

He immediately launched another attack on the Igneous.

The Igneous naturally fought back. Although it had a massive body, it could move at rapid speeds. Its whole body could be used as a weapon against James.

Even at the Divine Form, James struggled to block the Igneous attacks. After fighting for some time, he was injured. His body fell to the ground and sunk into the rubble.

Swoosh!

James flew back into the sky and attacked the Igneous again.

The battle was intense.

The seven powerhouses that were still treating their injuries were shocked.

Even the tombkeeper was paying close attention to the battle.

"Git!!!" Standing on the battlefield, the Igneous roared. Then, its scales suddenly lifted, and streaks of fire burst out.

The fire streaks intertwined and formed a net.

James was trapped within the fire net. He tried to escape through the gaps, but the fire streaks were closely intertwined, making it hard for him to dodge.

In just a short moment, he was injured more than a thousand times, and he was bleeding all over.

The Igneous was furious and cast a terrifying Supernatural Power to injure James.

James' unrivaled fighting spirit dissipated instantly, and his aura also weakened.

He was exhausted and completely out of fuel. Even moving proved to be too difficult.

"Not even the Divine Form could defeat the Igneous?"

"Even James could not defeat it?"

"After fighting for so long, he didn't deal any substantial damage to the Igneous.

It seems we're not fated to obtain Franciscus' inheritance."

Seeing James' defeat, the other powerhouses immediately gave up and decided to leave the Tomb World.

To their surprise, James, who was lying on the ground, suddenly became stronger.

A primitive power emerged from his body.

The tombkeeper said surprisedly, "Primitive power? The Igneous' fatal blow dealt him serious injuries and helped him to reach a higher combat form."

James' injuries were healed instantly.

Potent force emerged from his body, blood, and soul. Then, they merged with James' fighting spirit to form primitive power.

As the power flowed through his body, James felt invincible.

The red glow on his body suddenly turned gray, resembling the color of the gray zone.

The gray glare circulated his body like lightning and flickered non-stop.

James smiled after sensing the powers in his body. Suddenly, he disappeared from view.

The next moment, he was already in front of the Igneous.

The Igneous was sent flying into the distance. At that moment, one of its scales had been shattered.

James attacked relentlessly.

In just a short moment, he landed thousands of unches.

Now, his attacks were finally dealing damage.

Swoosh.

James summoned a long sword.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5825-A Sword Energy that was 10,000 meters long burst out from James' sword and charged directly at the Igneous.

The Igneous' body was immediately split into halves, and a golden key appeared from it.

"It's dead?" "He killed the Igneous?"

"The tides turned too quickly."

"Amazing. The Third Marcias Combat Form is terrifyingly strong."

The other powerhouses were surprised by James' strength.

Meanwhile, James quickly rushed to grab the golden key. Then, he descended from the sky.

While doing so, his aura gradually weakened.

Before he could land safely, his energy was exhausted, and he fell to the ground.

James' body was covered with injuries and blood, but he was grinning triumphantly. He climbed up with difficulty and sat down on a rock.

At that moment, the seven powerhouses appeared.

Xzavion gave James a thumbs up and said, 'That was incredible.'

The others stared at James in awe.

"You're insane."

A few of them almost spoke simultaneously.

James grinned at their words.

The tombkeeper interrupted them and said smilingly, "Congratulations. You'll be able to obtain the inheritance after opening the coffin. I'd also like to remind you that the Igneous is full of treasures, especially its core. It contains very potent Genesis Power, which could compare to that of a Genesis World."

James casually waved his hand, and a colossal core flew over to him. He placed it into a storage treasure, then said, "You guys can have the rest."

The powerhouses had suffered great losses during the battle. Now that they could not obtain Franciscus' inheritance, they at least wanted something to return home with.

Everyone rushed to the Igneous' corpse, hoping to snatch some treasures.

However, the Igneous' body was too strong. Even though it was already dead, they were unable to damage it. They tried to remove its scales but failed.

The tombkeeper smiled faintly, then waved his hand. A powerful force appeared and divided the Igneous' corpse into eight parts.

The seven powerhouses quickly collected a portion for themselves.

'Thank you, sir.'

"Sir, could you send us out now?"

They quickly spoke one after another.

James had killed the Igneous and showed his terrifying strength. Everyone concluded fighting him for the key was impossible and chose to leave.

Soon, James and Xzavion were the only ones left in the Tomb World.

James looked at the tombkeeper, clasped his fists and said, 'Thank you.'

The tombkeeper waved his hand and said, 'That's unnecessary. Now that I've fulfilled Franciscus' wish and helped him find a suitable successor, it's time I leave.'

The tombkeeper mysteriously disappeared from their sight. However, he left a final message.

"You must be careful in the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds, especially the Ancient Genesis World. You'll be in big trouble if they find out you have obtained Franciscus' inheritance."

The tombkeeper's voice gradually faded and disappeared.

James and Xzavion looked at each other.

After a while, James leaped into the sky and appeared above Franciscus' coffin.

On the coffin lid was a keyhole.

James took out the key and inserted it.

The coffin unlocked, and the lid came loose.

James easily opened the coffin lid and saw a white skeleton. Beside it were two swords, one white and the other black.

Suddenly, a black mist emerged from the coffin, surrounded James, and brought him into a mysterious world.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5826-James was shrouded in black mist and entered a mysterious world that lacked the rules of heaven and earth. Paths were also non-existent.

However, James sensed a terrifying power. He looked around in confusion and suddenly saw a few light spots.

The light spots gathered to form into a spectral figure of a man.

Although James could only see the rough outline of the man's facial features, it was evident the man was relatively young.

"Is this the successor that old man found for me?" The spectral figure stared at James, and a subtle red flow emerged from his eyes.

James felt like he had been stripped naked and had no secrets in front of the mysterious man.

The man said calmly, "You're from the Dark World. Not bad."

James quickly clasped his hands and said, "I'm James Caden. It's an honor to meet you, Sir Franciscus."

It was evident the spectral figure before him was a trace of Soul Power that Franciscus had left behind.

The spectral figure gradually became opaque and turned into a man dressed in a white robe.

The man looked relatively young. At most, he was only in his twenties.

Suddenly, a beautiful landscape with mountains and streams appeared in the mysterious world.

Franciscus sat down on a rock by a stream. He pointed to another stone and said, "Sit."

James complied without objection.

"I didn't expect so much to have happened to the divided Dark World after my death."

Franciscus saw James' experiences after scanning him. Naturally, he also learned about everything that happened in the Dark World.

'The Dark World gave birth to a consciousness. That's something I would never have expected. This part of the Dark World is supposed to be evil. The same goes for its Heavenly Path. Yet, the Dark Heavenly Path's consciousness was born as a human with good virtue. But, after all, she is still the consciousness of the Dark Heavenly Path. Does she really think she can break away from the Dark Heavenly Path just by being reincarnated outside the Dark World? That's only wishful thinking.'

James frowned at his words.

Franciscus looked at James and said solemnly, "You play a crucial role, young man.

"What do you mean?" James had a confused expression.

Franciscus explained, "The Dark World and the Illuminated World used to be one. However, many powerhouses targeted me, so I repeated the Dark World.

Now that it had given birth to a consciousness, which has already been reincarnated, the same must've also happened to the Illuminated World's Heavenly Path."

James listened carefully.

Franciscus continued, saying, "Although Thea is kind- hearted, she is still a consciousness born from the Dark Heavenly Path. Once she reaches a certain height in her cultivation rank, she will be affected by the power of the Dark Heavenly Path. Eventually, she will return to the darkness." "Do you mean to say that Thea's reincarnated self will become corrupted?" James asked with a frown.

Franciscus said solemnly, "If only it were that simple. You guys have been in the Dark World for so long but have not been affected by the dark aura. It's because I had sealed away the Dark World's evil power. Once it is released, the consequences will be grim.

"As Thea's reincarnation grows stronger, she can sense the evil power sealed away in the Dark World. When the time comes, she'll return to the darkness and take complete control over Dark Power. If that happens, nobody will stand a chance against her. Ultimately, she will destroy everything."

"Aren't you exaggerating a little?" James doubted Franciscus ' words, not believing that Thea could do such evil.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5827-James believed Thea would not become corrupted even if the Dark World's evil powers were released.

Franciscus replied solemnly, "It's not an exaggeration. There's only one way to deal with the situation."

James asked, "What can be done?"

Franciscus answered, "To find her other reincarnation."

"Huh?" James looked at him in confusion and asked, "Did Thea reincarnate as two different people?"

'To be more specific, it's the reincarnation of the Illuminated World's Heavenly Path's consciousness. The Dark and Illuminated World used to be one. If the Dark World gave birth to a consciousness, the same would happen to the Illuminated World. The consciousness of the Illuminated World's Heavenly Path is the only thing that can control the Dark World's reincarnated consciousness."

James immediately grasped the concept. Essentially, when the Dark Heavenly Path's consciousness became Thea, the other Illuminated World's Heavenly Path also produced another Thea.

The other her was not from the darkness but knew everything about its counterpart.

After the Dark World's crisis was resolved, Thea chose to be reincarnated into a different Genesis World. The Illuminated World's Thea would also do the same.

James rubbed his forehead and murmured, "So I have another wife now?" "I'm already dead. You'll have to resolve it. It has nothing to do with me. Anyway, let's get back to business," Franciscus said nonchalantly.

He was only making comments after seeing James' experiences. As for how things developed, it had nothing to do with him. Even if he was related to these matters, he was powerless anyway.

Franciscus asked, "You've cultivated Curse Magic, right?"

"Yeah." James nodded lightly.

Franciscus explained, 'The Curse Magic being spread in the Dark World are just some basics. Real Curse Magic is terrifying and can utilize the evil power sealed within the Dark World.

“I’ll teach you the complete version of Curse Magic. After you master it, you can summon the evil power from within the Dark World. If you control it well, you’ll be able to survive within the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds. As long as you don’t offend those ancient guys, you won’t be in danger.”

After speaking, Franciscus tapped on James’ forehead.

At that moment, James felt countless pieces of information entering his mind.

The information was too majestic, and he found it hard to absorb everything in such a short period. He temporarily sealed them away, planning to study them when he could.

James asked, “Is there a higher level to the Marciais Combat Form?” “Haha!” Franciscus chuckled.

Confused, James inquired, “What’s so funny?” Franciscus replied, “You’re only at the Yuraeceon First Rank but have already mastered the Primitive Form. It’s already really impressive. Only a handful of people have reached such achievements since ancient times. My understanding of the Marciais Path only stops here as well.”

James immediately understood that there were higher forms beyond the Primitive Form.

Franciscus took a deep breath and answered, “It’s a rank only the founder of the Marciais Path has ever reached.”

“Who’s the founder of it?” James was curious.

“Before the countless Genesis Worlds were separated, there was a peerless powerhouse named Yianni Latas. Apart from his name, I know nothing more. He existed in an era too far from mine. I’ve never met him before and only read about him in ancient records.”

Curious, James asked, “Is Yianni powerful?”

After thinking for a while, Franciscus said, “How should I put this? He’s strong, but not really. He’s like one and a half of my strength? After all, in that era, nobody ever surpassed the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank. I’m also at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's peak. He'll probably only be able to suppress me with the Fourth Marciais Combat Form."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5828-James clicked his tongue and murmured, "Is the Fourth Marciais Combat Form that strong?"

Franciscus was a legendary figure who could singlehandedly fight against the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds and the numerous Micro Genesis Worlds. Yet, Yianni was capable of suppressing him.

"I never faced him before, so I don't know," Franciscus said calmly, "I'm just speculating. Yianni was a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's peak. If he were to use the Fourth Marciais Combat Form, I probably would lose. Sigh..."

"Why am I even talking about this stuff? It's pointless. We're not even from the same era anyway."

James asked, "Have you ever considered traveling the River of Time to fight him?"

"I did. However, his era and mine were disconnected. I have no idea what happened in his era. The River of Time doesn't connect to his era. I simply can't reach it." Franciscus' tone was calm, but his expression showed evident disappointment.

He changed the topic, saying, "I still have some powers left. I should go check out the outside world. Then, I'll disappear." Franciscus stood up. Suddenly, he remembered something and said, "By the way, there are two swords inside my coffin.

One is the Dark World's Judgment Scythe. After cultivating the Curse Magic I just taught you, you can exert its greatest potential.

powerful. You can have them."

After speaking, Franciscus disappeared.

He was already gone, but his voice echoed in the area.

"I've asked that old tombkeeper to help my successor one time if ever needed.

Regardless of what kind of opponent you face, he will protect you with his life.

With the favor he owes me, it's only enough to exchange for his help once."

Then, a token appeared.

"If you are in danger, pour your power into the token. The old man will be able to sense it and will go to you as soon as possible."

The voice gradually faded and disappeared.

Immediately afterward, James was teleported back to the real world.

He returned to his previous spot in front of the coffin.

Xzavion, on the other hand, had already picked up the swords from the coffin and scrutinized them.

The black sword emitted a dark aura containing frightening power.

The white sword had a white glow, making one feel at peace.

"Oh, you're back?" Xzavion looked at James, threw him the black sword, and said smilingly, "You obtained Franciscus' inheritance, right? Curse Magic is sinister, just like this helped you fight."

James looked at the Judgment Scythe and swung it in the air. Black, corrosive mists were released from the sword and began eating up the surrounding void.

"It's so strong."

Surprised, James exclaimed, "If I had the Judgment Scythe earlier, it would've been much easier to kill the Igneous."

Xzavion said, "Let's go. We should leave first."

The two reappeared in the Zephyria World.

After the tombkeeper left, the formation around the Zephyria World automatically disappeared.

There were still many living beings gathered within the Zephyria World. Many had given up their chance to participate but stayed to see who would get the final treasure.

Xitlaly Slade Bertholas Lumia Wayra and the others waited in the Zephyria World, curious to see how much stronger James would become after receiving Franciscus' inheritance."

Waiting atop one of the spiritual mountains, Quattro said impatiently, "Why isn't James returning yet? It's already been so long."

The tombkeeper had previously given Quattro and Stephen blessings.

Quattro was relatively lacking in his cultivation rank but had good comprehensive skills. With the blessing given to him, his cultivation rank improved rapidly. Not only did he master an exceptional Supernatural Power, but he also reached the Yuraeceon First Rak.

He accomplished great achievements in just a short period.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5829-Stephen had also received a blessing. However, his cultivation rank remained the same. He had only mastered a unique Supernatural Power.

Swoosh!

At that moment, James and Xzavion appeared.

"They're back!" Stephen quickly stood up.

James and Xzavion approached them.

Quattro stared at James and asked smilingly, "How did it go, General? What did you get this time? Could you show me?"

At that moment, many people surrounded them.

"Congratulations, James. Would you be interested in visiting our sect?"

'You should come to see the Bellerian Dynasty, James."

Many powerhouses sent James invitations. Although they had smiles, James knew they had wicked intentions.

He was from the Dark World, which the other Genesis Worlds did not acknowledge. If he were to visit these major sects after obtaining Franciscus' inheritance, he would be walking straight into his grave.

Moreover, the tombkeeper had already warned him to be careful in the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds.

“I have other business right now. I’ll think about it next time.”

James politely turned down their offers. Then, he turned to his comrades and said, “Let’s go.” The group quickly left the Zephyria World and appeared within the gray zone.

The Zephyria World continued to advance through the gray zone. As soon as they left, the Zephyria World drifted away.

At that moment, James and his comrades sensed a dangerous aura.

James frowned and scanned his surroundings.

Soon enough, he spotted a group of more than a thousand creatures approaching from the distance.

James frowned and said solemnly, “Nando?”

It was none other than Nando, who James had fought in the Tomb World. Back then, Nando sustained severe injuries and could no longer fight for the ultimate treasures.

Therefore, he decided to leave the Tomb World.

James did not expect Nando to have gathered some other powerhouses to wait for him outside the Zephyria World.

Nandos stared at James grimly and said, “I’ve been waiting for a long time, James. Hand over Franciscus’ inheritance, and I’ll spare your life.”

‘Yeah, some are at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank.”

Xzavion and Stephen had solemn expressions.

James glanced at them and said telepathically, “We won’t be able to fight them.

On the count of three, everyone escapes in different directions. I'm the primary target, so they won't go after you. After I lose them, I'll contact you guys through an inscription.

After receiving the message, Xzavion, Stephen and Quattro immediately prepared to take action.

James took out the Judgment Scythe and said calmly, "This is the ultimate treasure. If you want it so bad, I'll hand it over. However, which of you can ensure I'll be safe after handing it over..."

At the same time, James secretly communicated with his comrades.

"One, two..."

Before James could finish counting, Quattro had already run away.

Xzavion and Stephen also quickly escaped, leaving James in the gray zone with the group of powerhouses.

James did not immediately leave. Instead, he stared at Nando and the group of powerhouses behind him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5830-James was left with the group of powerhouses after his comrades fled the area.

However, he was in no rush to escape.

Nando and his group did not pursue after James' comrades either. Their main target was James and the treasure he had obtained.

James looked at the Judgment Scythe, then at the powerhouses led by Nando, and said calmly, "If you want to snatch my treasure, you should at least tell me your origins."

Nando said solemnly, "Listen carefully. I'm from the Ancient Genesis World's Yaquis Sect. We're one of the oldest and strongest Orthodox.

James looked at Nando and said smilingly, "Oh, you're from the Yaquis Sect.

So, who's asking for Franciscus' inheritance? Is it you or the sect?"

"You've too many questions."

At that moment, an elderly man stepped forward and said, "Why bother talking to him? Let's kill him and seize the treasure."

James looked at the elderly man. He had a compelling aura and had already reached the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank.

With James' current strength, he was no match for a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank. He quickly tried to think of a plan.

He thought to himself, 'They should have already gone far. Since there aren't any energy fluctuations within this gray zone, these powerhouses won't be able to reach them down, even if they have a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank.' James scanned the surroundings but found that the void had been sealed. A powerful formation, which was set up by the powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank, covered the area.

Nando saw through James' thoughts and said, "Don't even bother trying to escape, James. We've already cast a formation in his area. With your current strength, it'll be impossible for you to break a formation cast by someone at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank."

Despite the slim chances, James wanted to give it a go. If he did not escape, he'd have no choice but to use the token Franciscus gave.

James clenched the Judgment Scythe tightly. The blade was completely black and had a nice luster to it. At the same time, traces of black mist were emitted from the sword.

At that moment, James had placed all his hopes on the Judgment Scythe, hoping it would not disappoint him.

"If you want Franciscus' inheritance, you must defeat me first. Let me see what kind of Supernatural Powers the Yaquis Sect has," James said calmly, then entered the Third Marciais Combat Form.

Primitive power emerged from his limbs and bones, then spread throughout his body. In just a short moment, his aura improved by leaps and bounds.

Sensing James' aura, Nando's brows furrowed. Previously, he could at least stand against James. Now, he was no match for James.

Yaquis took a deep breath and said, "What a terrifying human. The powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank took a deep breath and said, "He's only at the Yuraeceon First Rank, but he has mastered the Third Maciais Combat Form. If he keeps growing, I'm afraid he might rise above the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds."

"It's a pity you won't ever have the acne anymore."

'Take him down! Don't kill him. Trap him!'

The powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank gave an order.

"Haha!!!" James laughed.

At that moment, James urged all his strength and leaped into the sky with the Blithe Omniscience.

Soon, he appeared at the edge of the formation and slashed out the Judgment Scythe.

A crack formed instantly, and the formation was shattered. James then immediately used the Blithe Omniscience to leave.

"Haha! Your formation is nothing to me."
