

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5861

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5861-James answered, "Right away! He immediately took out some high-quality Genesis Cores, all of which were at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank, from his storage treasure.

With a wave of his hand, about a dozen Genesis Cores emerged and scattered in the void ahead.

Immediately afterward, James teleported Xzavion, Stephen, and Quattro into a space within his body.

The Yaquis Sect's countless powerhouses were instantly intrigued by the Genesis Cores.

"Genesis Cores at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank?" "T-There's a Genesis Core at the sixth-grade Yuraeceon Daelm Rank!"

The powerhouses immediately rushed toward the Genesis Cores, hoping to snatch a piece.

While they were distracted by the Genesis Cores, James cast the Blithe Omniscience and fled.

A powerhouse from the Yaquis Sect shouted, "Chase after him!"

The other powerhouses quickly snapped out of it and recomposed themselves.

Although James was not strong, his escaping abilities were unparalleled. With the Blithe Omniscience, he could ignore the limitations of space and time, allowing him to travel freely throughout the void.

James continued using the Blithe Omniscience to get further. While traveling through the void, he also erased his aura traces.

He escaped far away from the Haelios Sea at a moment's notice.

In the beginning, James could sense a few powerhouses on his tail. Fortunately, he lost them after a while. Even so, he felt uneasy and did not dare to take a moment of rest.

Ultimately, he entered a universe within one of the Genesis Worlds. Then, he ascended a spiritual mountain and used it as his temporary hideout.

James and his comrades gathered on the spiritual mountain's apex.

Suddenly, James reached out his hand to them.

"What do you mean?" Quattro stepped backward.

James said calmly, "I had sacrificed a lot to distract the Yaquis Sect's powerhouses. I gave them my Yuraceon Daelm Ranked-Genesis Cores. It's unfair for me alone to lose so much. I did it to save you guys, so we should share the loss."

"Nonsense!" Quattro refuted, dissatisfied, "You did that on your own. What does it have to do with me?"

Quattro was not willing to compensate James with the treasures he had obtained.

threatening expression, and blew on the tip of the sharp blade.

Quattro was horrified. He immediately took out a few cores at the Yuraceon Daelm Rank and said smilingly, "Here you go, General."

Stephen suddenly raised his fists and cracked his knuckles.

Quattro's eyes widened, and he said, "I've already given him a few cores. You two should contribute as well."

Xzavion and Stephen walked toward Quattro, intending to attack him.

"Fine! I'll give him more!" Quattro gritted his teeth and tossed out some Genesis Cores.

James accepted them with satisfaction.

"Alright. You guys can cultivate on this spiritual mountain for now. I'll go around and see if there is any news about Thea." James smiled brightly, then left the spiritual mountain.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5862-The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 586 James and his comrades were safe for now. As long as they avoided causing trouble and exposing their identities, the Yaquis Sect would not be able to find them.

Although the Yaquis Sect was one of the top forces in the Ancient Genesis World, locating James and his comrades would not be easy. The Ancient Genesis World alone was already massive. On top of that, there were many other Genesis Worlds.

James left the spiritual mountain to inquire and gather information about Thea.

More than an entrapoch had passed since James left the Dark World. It did not seem like a long time, but in fact, it felt like an eternity.

James left the spiritual mountain and went to the most prosperous area of the universe.

After asking around for a bit, he learned that the current region's strongest force was the Javerigh Sect, a super Orthodox ranked among the top ten forces.

Bertholas, who appeared in the Zephyria World, was a disciple in the Javerigh Sect.

Swordbergh was the most prosperous city under the Javerigh Sect's reign and one of the greatest cities in the numerous Genesis Worlds.

James entered a restaurant within Swordbergh. Sitting on the second floor by the window, he leisurely drank some wine.

He sat in the same spot for a few years. During this period, many kinds of customers entered the restaurant. They would discuss all kinds of topics over drinks.

James naturally listened carefully to them. He learned about a mysterious force in the Ancient Genesis World called Skynet, which dealt in the business of information trades. It was an existence like the Heavenly Secrets Pavilion.

Similarly, they also had branches in the different Genesis Worlds. Rumors were that Skynet would give you whatever information you requested if you paid the right price.

After learning about Skynet, James left the restaurant and headed to their branch within Swordbergh.

On a particular spiritual mountain in Swordbergh, there was a stone tablet at its foot with the words engraved-Skynet.

A man walked over from the distance. He had a relatively low cultivation rank and was only at the Yuraeceon Ninth Rank. He was far behind in cultivation rank compared to the others around him.

There was a crowd outside of Skynet's spiritual mountain. The weakest amongst them was at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank. Even powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank had come to purchase information.

James looked at the stone tablet after arriving at the foot of the Mount Skynet.

Then, he ascended the mountain. Many buildings could be seen atop the mountain. Disciples of Skynet were actively serving customers.

When James arrived atop the mountain, a man walked over to him with a smile.

“How can I help you, sir?”

The man wore a blue robe and looked about in his twenties. James looked at him but failed to sense the man's cultivation rank and aura.

James was slightly startled. There could only be two possibilities. The man was either an ordinary living being without a cultivation base. However, it seemed unlikely for Skynet to have a mortal without a cultivation base. Thus, James ruled out the possibility and concluded the man before him had a very high cultivation rank, which made it impossible for him to sense.<sup>1</sup>

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5863-James replied, “I'm here to inquire about someone.”

The man in the blue robe asked, “Who might that be? Male or female? What's the person's origin?”

James answered, “Female. I have a portrait of her.”

With a thought, James summoned a portrait.

The portrait floated toward the man in the blue robe.

The man held the portrait and scrutinized it. After a while, he looked at James suspiciously and asked, "Why are you looking for her?"

James looked at the man with excitement. He suppressed his emotions and asked, "Have you seen her before?"

The man in the blue robe answered smilingly, "That will cost a Genesis Core at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's First Tribulation."

James took out a Genesis Core and handed it over without any hesitation.

The man in the blue robe was slightly startled that James could make payment.

He could sense that James was only at the Yuraeceon Ninth Rank and never expected him to actually have a Genesis Core at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's First Tribulation."

"Follow me." The man turned and walked away.

James quickly followed behind him.

Soon, they arrived in the backyard of a beautiful manor situated atop the spiritual mountain.

"Young Master." A few guards who saw the man in the blue robe greeted him respectfully. The man, however, ignored them and hurriedly led James into the manor.

The manor was massive, with countless mountains and a beautiful lake.

The man led James onto the island in the lake's center. After arriving at a lounge area, he sat in a lotus position.

Then, he looked at James and asked smilingly, "What's your name?"

James replied, "It's Forty-nine."

The man said smilingly, "Forty-nine? I see. Well, nice to meet you. I'm Truett Sadler."

James knew Truett was someone of great authority from the guards' attitude toward him. However, he was not curious about his identity or strength. His only concern was to find out Thea's whereabouts.

"Do you know the woman in the portrait?" asked James.

Truett's expression immediately became solemn. He took out the portrait and placed it in front of him. He looked at the portrait with a hint of admiration and said, "Who doesn't know the Timaeus Sect's Saintess?"

"The Timaeus Sect's Saintess?" James was puzzled.

"Hmm? You've never heard about her?" Truett looked at James suspiciously.

James shook his head and replied, "No. I'd like to know more."

Truett searched his memories. After a while, he said, "About an entrapoch ago, there was an abnormal incident in the Forladtt Land. It attracted the attention of many powerhouses, and they gathered within the Forladtt Land. Ultimately, a baby girl was found in the Forladtt Land.

'The baby girl was very mysterious. She had a magical aura emitting from her body. Back then, many sects fought to keep the baby. Eventually, the Timaeus Sect snatched her away. Ever since the baby girl became the Timaeus Sect's Saintess. After she grew up, she became the Ancient Genesis World's sweetheart."

Truett explained Thea's origins.

James murmured, "An entrapoch ago...That's about the same time Thea reincarnated."

"What kind of place is the Forladtt Land?" asked James.

Truett took a deep breath and said, "It's an abandoned place left behind from that era. Numerous young men fought fierce battles to pursue the Timaeus Sect's Saintess. I've been to the Timaeus Sect before and got to see her once..."

"She's so beautiful, pure and flawless. Her beauty is simply breathtaking."

Truett's eyes were full of admiration.
