

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5931-Everyone was stunned that the 36 powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank watched silently in the void as James acted outrageously.

Under the surprised gazes, James stepped in the air and appeared before Woodrow.

Everyone no longer had disdainful expressions toward James. Instead, they quickly retreated to the distance in fear.

Woodrow looked at James, and his lips trembled in fear. “F-Forty-nine...”

James interrupted him, demanding, “Kneel and tell me who’s boss.”

Woodrow’s legs went rubbery, and he fell to his knees. However, he could not bring himself to reply.

James tapped Woodrow’s head and said, “You lost. After the test is over, I’ll see you in Mount Martialis. Remember, you’ll have to kowtow every three steps.

Also, you didn’t forget what you must shout, right?”

Woodrow’s head dropped low dejectedly.

Nobody expected James to win the bet, and neither did Woodrow. While making the bet, he did not consider the possibility of losing. Hence, he could not remember what he was supposed to shout.

The results proved to be a harsh lesson for everyone.

James raised the long sword and pressed it against Woodrow’s neck, saying, “I will assume you won’t keep your word if you don’t reply to me. Since that’s the case, I won’t show mercy.”

The crowd watched in fear. Suddenly, a furious voice came from the void.

“You’re really presumptuous, aren’t you? How dare you touch a disciple of mine? Do you have no regard for my authority?”

After the voice resounded, a colossal palm print containing powerful Genesis darted at James from behind.

Sensing the danger, James turned around and slashed out his sword. A ten thousand-meter-long Quasar Sword Energy fell from the sky, splitting the palm print in half.

Even so, the power of the split palm print did not decrease. At most, their movement speed was slightly decreased as they continued moving forward.

“The Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation?” James frowned and swung his sword again.

Countless Quasar Sword Energy emerged, then intertwined into a net. As the palm print passed through the net, it was sliced into countless smaller palm prints. However, they did not disperse. Instead, under the control of a powerful Zen, they circulated James and formed a furnace with purple flames.

James felt a deadly aura from the furnace that was circling him. It was an experience like never before, and it seemed like his body would be melted away.

The power of a cultivator at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation was no joke. With his current strength, James had no chance against him, not even if he had the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

At that moment, Truett, Xzavion and Stephen rushed over. When they close to the furnace, they immediately feel the scorching heat. Their robes caught on fire and began to burn. Their bodies were burned and injured by the flames.

James shouted anxiously, “Don’t come near me! Back away!”

The three of them, however, refused to listen. They roared and braved the scorching flames, unleashing all their Genesisto punch the furnace.

They were determined not to back away even in the face of a powerful opponent, even if it meant they would be defeated or die. They would rather die than stand by idly and watch their friend trapped and killed.

Although they had strong wills, the disparity in strength was too wide. Even after giving their best, they could not deal any damage to the purple furnace.

Soon, the three of them were enveloped by the purple flames and were in excruciating pain.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5932-James' heart ached as he watched his friends suffer, and he was infuriated.

"You're so shameless!" James roared, and then a golden light suddenly erupted from his body.

The purple furnace circling him was shattered instantly.

The void in the area began to tremble, and the surrounding living beings frantically retreated further away.

At that moment, James hovered in the air with messy hair. He had activated his Golden Body. Quasar Light and electrical currents surrounded him.

Just before James could take action to save Truett, Xzavion and Stephen from the purple flames, a red light shot up from the ground. It wrapped around his friends and quickly brought them to the ground.

Lucille had intervened and rescued them. After bringing them to safety, she quickly used her Genesis to extinguish the fire on their bodies.

After ensuring his friends were safe, James clenched his sword and raised his hand furiously.

A middle-aged powerhouse in a black and white robe slowly approached him from a thousand meters away with an overwhelming Qrohm. A terrifying Genesis radiated from his body, and it was evident he was a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation.

He stared at James condescendingly as if he was looking at an ant that could be easily trampled.

"What an impudent person! Your malevolent energy is strong, and you have very hostile energy. Tell me, what position do you hold in the Dark Demons?

Why have you come to the Timeaus Sect?"

His powerful voice resounded, and he quickly approached James.

James stood fearlessly in the void with his long sword. At that moment, a white light flashed past him.

Thea shielded him, stared at the middle-aged man and said coldly, "Mount Elixir's Master, Zared Maguire. You're a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation but are abusing your strength and power. You've disregarded our sect's rules and attacked a disciple at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank."

"You..." Zared frowned.

Thea looked at him and said sarcastically, "You must've been surprised to have your Purple Flames neutralized by someone only at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank, so you're trying to label him as a Dark Demon to save face and have an excuse to kill him. You think by doing so, you'll be able to recover from the humiliation?"

Zared glared at Thea and said furiously, "How dare."

Thea interrupted him and said firmly, "You've ignored Timaeus Sect's rules and attacked someone weaker than you. I'm afraid your time as Mount Elixir's Master is about to end, Zared Maguire."

Zared's brows furrowed tightly, and his arrogant demeanor immediately vanished.

At that moment, James stared at Thea with a complicated expression. He was surprised she had stood up for him despite not recovering her memories.

Her status as the Timaeus Sect's Saintess was incredibly high. Even though her cultivation rank was nothing impressive, she was practically untouchable.

Suddenly, a few dozen people rushed over to Zared. The group leader was none other than Woodrow, who knelt to James in fear just moments ago.

He quickly approached Zared, pointed at James and Thea, and said, "Why are you wasting time speaking to them, Dad? They're trash from Mount Martialis!"

Just kill them already!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5933-Zared's face immediately darkened, and he secretly cursed at his son for being stupid.

Forty-nine had caught the attention of the Timeaus Sect's senior authorities after he displayed bizarre strength and cast a Golden Body during his Martial Quasar Heavenly Tribulation. He even managed to ring the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell nine times while only at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank. In addition, the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell acknowledged him as its new master. It was an unprecedented achievement that had never happened since the establishment of the Timeaus Sect.

Even more surprising, James blocked a Supernatural Power cast by a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation. His talent and potential was unfathomable.

The situation was made complicated because the Timeaus Sect's Saintess stood up for him despite her status. The others could not see through her disguise, but Zared recognized her at first glance.

With her backing him up, Zared knew doing anything further would not end well for him.

James stepped forward and stood beside Thea. Then, he said, "So you were the son of Mount Elixir's Master. No wonder Mr. Zared ignored the rules and acted against me. Like father, like son.

Zared's face immediately darkened at his words.

Woodrow pointed at James and said, "You're fucking dead, Forty-nine! You destroyed Beauregard. Then, you stole the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell and star pillar! Your crimes are unforgivable!"

James said coldly, "You two are definitely related. Even when trying to accuse someone, you two act the same. Unfortunately, no matter what you spout, you'll still have to fulfill your bet."

Zared sneered, "Don't think you can act arrogantly just because you've got some talent. Unlike Mount Martialis, Mount Elixir is not spineless and weak.

"We don't provoke others, but we won't back down if someone tries to mess with us."

After giving a warning, Zered grabbed Woodrow's arm and said, "Let's go!"

Before they could leave, James suddenly sprung into action.

He swung his long sword, and a majestic Quasar Sword Energy darted out, stopping the father and son from leaving.

While they were still startled, James quickly approached them and grabbed Woodrow. Then, he returned to his previous position.

"Presumptuous!" Zered shouted furiously, and then he was about to take action.

However, he was startled by the sight before him.

James had already placed his sword on Woodrow's throat as if threatening to slice his neck if he were to take another step.

However, the real problem was Thea, Timeaus Sect's Saintess, had immediately shielded in front of James.

The two acted completely in sync as if they had discussed it beforehand.

Zered shouted, "You two are crossing the line! Let my son go!"

James said solemnly, "How can you just leave after hurting my friends?"

Faced with James' domineering attitude, Zered's face darkened. He asked, "What do you want?"

James replied calmly, "The Timeaus Sect is a place of discipline. Naturally, we settle things according to the rules."

Zered laughed angrily, then said, "Do you have a death wish? I don't think you understand my temper."

After speaking, a terrifying Genesis Qrohm erupted from his body and swept the area. Dark clouds immediately hovered the skies, and it looked like the end of the world.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5934-Under the terrifying Genesis Qrohm, James stepped in front of Thea, still holding Woodrow hostage.

Then, he said, "You should leave first."

After speaking, he unleashed a powerful Genesis Qrohm, which resisted Zared's Genesis Qrohm. His Golden Body shimmered under the armor formed by the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell. Majestic Historial Power and Quasar Electricity surrounded his body.

As soon as James activated his Golden Body, Woodrow, who was held hostage, was severely affected. His body trembled, and he shouted as the Quasar Electricity surrounded him. At the same time, James continuously absorbed his Genesis, which caused him unbearable pain.

Thea watched from behind in shock.

Zared growled, "Let go of my son! Otherwise, I'll wipe out Mount Martialis!"

After speaking, Zared's Genesis Qrohm grew stronger. The pressure in the area increased, and the wind became violent.

The Genesis Qrohm of a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation was destructive. James could not bear it any longer and quickly activated the Primitive Marciais Combat Form. Primitive Martial Path Power emerged from within and flowed through his body. A majestic gray halo surrounded him and resisted Zared's Genesis Qrohm.

At that moment, James had already used 90% of his strength. He would decide whether to unleash the rest depending on how the situation progressed. After all, his last trump card was Franciscus' Judgment Scythe, which could mobilize Dark Power.

There were countless powerhouses in the Timeaus Sect and even some ancient figures. If he were to wield the Judgement Scythe, his identity as a living being from the Dark World would be exposed.

Thea stood behind James, staring at him with eyes of admiration after seeing him unleash such a powerful Qrohm that could resist a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation.

James had a terrifying and potent Qrohm. His strength made him incredibly charismatic, and even the Timeaus Sect's Saintess could not stop her heart from pounding.

Meanwhile, Lyla handed over some Genesis Cores to Xzavion, Stephen and Truett to treat their wounds. At the same time, her eyes were glued to James, full of curiosity.

"Leave immediately," James urged again.

Thea snapped out of her state of admiration and replied, "You're underestimating me."

After speaking, she gently twirled her hand and summoned a white lotus.

The white lotus immediately formed into an oval light shield around her body.

The next moment, her Genesis Qrohm skyrocketed, boosting James' Genesis Qrohm. Together, their Genesis Qrohm resisted Zared's Genesis Qrohm.

The dark clouds that had gathered because of Zared's Genesis Qrohm gradually dissipated, and the gushing wind calmed. The living beings in the surrounding area instantly felt much relieved from the pressure.

James was surprised by how strong Thea's enforcements were.

Zared, who was opposite them, was also in disbelief. He was a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation. Never would he have imagined that a cultivator at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank could neutralize his Supernatural Power so quickly. He felt humiliated by the situation.

Zared was furious. He ignored his son, who was trembling and screaming in pain, within the Quasar Electricity. He clenched his fists, and eight blazing black flames appeared around him.

The flames shot out toward James and Thea at rapid speeds.

Thea suddenly exclaimed, "Haemend Flames! Watch out! These flames can incinerate almost everything!"

James was prepared to summon the Judgment Scythe to block the eight black flames. However, an illusory figure sped toward them at lightning speed from the left.

The figure quickly multiplied into eight. The eight of them took action simultaneously and destroyed the eight black flames with strong Genesis.

Immediately afterward, the eight figures gathered into a middle-aged man dressed in a black robe.

James looked at the person who had suddenly appeared with squinted eyes and said, "You're finally here, Mr. Wulte."

Thea whispered, "Even though Mr. Wulte is only at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eight Tribulation, his Illusionary Art is still one of the best Supernatural Powers in our sect."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5935-ames asked, "Aren't the masters of the seven mounts supposed to be at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eight Tribulation? Why is Zared at the Ninth Tribulation?"

Thea replied hushedly, "The top three mountains have masters at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation. They are at the peak, middle, and lower, respectively. Meanwhile, the other four are at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eight Tribulation."

James nodded and said thoughtfully, "So Zared is at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation's lower grade?"

"Yeah." Thea nodded.

James looked at Zared, who was furious about Perthacus intervening and neutralizing his Haemend Flames. He shouted, "Why are you here acting strong and mighty, Perthacus? Let me son go, or else, I'll kill everyone in Mount Martialis."

Perthacus looked at Woodrow, who was already limp and wrapped in James' Quasar Electricity.

Thea immediately complained, "Mr. Wulte, Zared injured three of your disciples."

He took action and broke the rules by bullying the weak.

Perthacus glared at Zared and said, "You've broken the rules, Zared."

Zared roared, "What fucking rules? I'm warning you one last time. Let my son go immediately! Otherwise, I promise I'll kill everyone in Mount Martialis even if the sect leader is here!"

"Presumptuous!" Suddenly, a charming but firm voice came from the ground.

Then, a red light soared into the sky and materialized into a beautiful woman.

Thea shouted with joy, "Ms. Lucille!"

Lucille looked at Thea, then said, "Good girl. I'll talk to you in a bit."

Afterward, Lucille stepped forward and said, "Go for it, Mr. Wulte. Staying silent isn't going to get you any respect.

"In the past, you lost hope because there was no potential successor and just put up with the ridicule of others.

"However, it's different now. With such a talented guy with us, there is hope for Mount Martialis. You can't continue letting them disrespect you. Don't you agree?"

After listening to Lucille's words, Perthacus squinted his eyes.

Lucille suddenly shouted, "Forty-nine! Want to fuck up that old man together?

Do you have the guts?!!"

James smiled and shouted, "Can you still move, my friends?"

At that moment, Xzavion, Truett and Stephen immediately got up.

"As long as I'm not dead, I can still fight!"

"I'll fight and die by your side, Master!"

"Let's do this!"

James suddenly looked at Woodrow and then tossed him into the ruins of Beauregard. Then, he said, "Keeping an eye on this guy is your biggest task.

You know what to do."

Xzavion, Truett and Stephen looked at Woodrow, then exchanged confused glances at each other.

They knew that James was preparing to fight to his death. There were reasons why he had handed Woodrow to them to supervise. First, he could fight without worrying too much. Second, if he died by chance, the three of them could use Woodrow as a hostage and bargain for their safety. Third, he wanted to prevent them from dying meaninglessly against a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation.

The three were wise and could understand James' intention, but it made them feel helpless.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5936-James hovered in the void and summoned the star pillar sword. He unleashed all of his Genesis Qrohm and shouted, "Let's get him, Mr. Wulte, Ms. Lucille!"

Perthacus said solemnly, "You better think twice about this. He's at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation."

"So what? I'll fight someone at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation!"

James roared, then raised his hand and summoned a dense stream of Quasar Lightning.

Then, he stepped into the void and initiated the first attack with the star pillar sword. Flashes of lightning enveloped Zared, and crackles resounded in the area.

Zared, who had underestimated the attack, began trembling as the electrical current flowed through his body.

He attempted to urge his Genesis and cast a Supernatural Power. However, he could not control his power.

"Die, old man!" James appeared before him instantly and slashed out his sword, unleashing an attack on Genesis.

Zared forcefully stabilized his trembling hands and quickly pulled them together to clamp the blade.

Lucille and Perthacus immediately followed up.

The two of them were powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank and quickly cast their Supernatural Powers to knock Zared tens of thousands of meters into the distance.

James seized the opportunity and slashed out his sword. A ten-thousand-meter Sword Energy pierced through the air and passed over Zared's head, missing him just a little. However, half of his ponytail was sliced off.

Zared turned around in shock. His hair was disheveled, and his face distorted in anger.

James, Lucille, and Perthacus' joined attack had forced Zared, a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation, into a corner. Those watching were aghast by the sight.

"Since you three insist on seeking death, I'll fulfill your wishes." Zared angrily summoned his Genesis Divine Light, and his aura suddenly skyrocketed.

Numerous black flames surrounded his body and quickly counterattacked.

James, Lucille, and Perthacus spread out and then attacked him from different directions.

They cast their Supernatural Powers, and powerful Genesis permeated the air.

Three of them working together were evenly matched against the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation.

A few of Mount Elixir's disciples who had come to participate in the assessment quickly rushed out, trying to assist. However, Thea blocked their way and said, "Back off. Otherwise, I won't hold back."

The disciples looked at each other, afraid to move in the face of Thea's powerful aura.

Meanwhile, James' side attacked Zared relentlessly. However, the other party protected himself with potent Genesis Divine Light.

James' Quasar Lightning dealt no significant damage to Zared. However, the star pillar sword proved to be slightly effective.

During the fierce battle, James discovered that the armor on his body, made of the Yuraceon Genesis Bell, could resist Zared's flames.

James immediately devised a new strategy. He put away the star pillar sword and transformed the Yuraceon Genesis Bell into its original form.

While Zared was distracted by Lucille and Perthacus' attacks, he approached and covered Zared's head with the Yuraceon Genesis Bell.

The Yuraceon Genesis Bell immediately suppressed Zared's Divine Genesis Light, and it became like a mountain pressing down on him.

Zared was caught off guard, and his black flames bounced off the bell's interior.

His body was burned, and he let out chilling screams.

James quickly gathered his Genesis and stepped on the Yuraceon Genesis Bell.

The Yuraceon Genesis Bell pressed down on Zared.

"Mr. Wulte, Ms. Lucille! Help me! My Genesis isn't enough!"

After hearing James' call for help, Perthacus and Lucille rushed over and combined their Genesis to press down on the Yuraceon Genesis Bell to trap Zared.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5937-"Boom!" With a loud bang, the Yuraceon Genesis Bell smashed into the ground, with Zared trapped within it.

Seeing the scene, everyone in the void watched in shock. They never expected a cultivator at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank to be able to suppress a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation within the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell." Zared shouted hysterically from inside the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell, "Let me go!

You're despicable!" James, Lucille and Perthacus stood on the clock, looking at each other in confusion. Even they could not believe they had successfully trapped Zared.

"Woohoo!" James raised his hand at Lucille for a high-five.

Lucille was slightly stunned but immediately chuckled. Then, she raised her hand and clapped James' hand.

James turned to Perthacus and wanted to celebrate with him with a high-five but was ignored.

"Let me out! We should compete with skills! Using a bell is foul play!" Zared howled at the top of his lungs and struggled to free himself.

Seeing the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell starting to tremble unstably, James took out the star pillar sword and struck it.

Ding!

Shortly after the bell rang, Zared's miserable cries resounded.

James felt a pure Genesis entering his body, and he began to tremble.

'Could the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell absorb other people's Genesis through this method?' After thinking of the possibility, James struck the bell again.

The bell rang loudly, accompanied by Zared's cries. At the same time, another wave of Genesis flowed into James' body.

His suspicion was correct. The Yuraeceon Genesis Bell could absorb the Genesis of the subject trapped within it.

After the discovery, James knew his victory was sealed. He excitedly struck the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell, and bright light emerged from under his feet. With Zared's painful screams, his Genesis was sucked into James' body.

The bell's chimes echoed, causing the surrounding living beings to enter a dreamlike state again. At that moment, a black phantom quickly appeared next to Thea. With the wave of a hand, the Dream Energy Orb was shattered, and Thea was released from the dream-like state.

Thea turned around and asked surprisedly, "Why are you here, Ms. Lyla?"

Lyla raised her hand and blocked the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell's chimes. Then, she looked at James, who was still striking the bell. "Such a troublemaker."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5938-After hearing Lyla's words, Thea hurriedly grabbed onto her hand and frantically explained the situation. She was like an aggrieved child, complaining about someone else's misconduct.

Lyla frowned after gaining a clear picture of the situation. She looked at James and shouted, "Stop it, Forty-nine! Are you trying to be a musician?"

James, who was immersed in ringing the bell, suddenly raised his head. He was stunned to see Lyla standing beside Thea.

The surrounding living beings immediately snapped out of the dreamlike state when the bell stopped ringing.

Everyone was stunned after seeing Lyla in their presence.

Lyla unleashed a powerful Qrohm and shouted, "Release him immediately!"

"Why?" James frowned.

Hearing his reply, Thea frantically sent a telepathic message to James. "Do you want to die? Lyla is a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation. She's the Daemon Prison's guardian and our sect's law enforcer.

She could easily kill you. You're not a match for her, even with your Golden Body and the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell."

James raised his head and looked at the hostile Lyla. Then, he replied, "Ms.

Lyla, Mount Elixir's Master, Zared, attacked me. He's at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation but was bullying someone like me only at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank. He has violated our sect's rules, so why are you paying no heed to his actions?

"He injured my friends and ridiculed Mount Martialis. Then, he threatened to wipe us out. Why did you not intervene back then?

"The thirty-six Chief Elders are here as supervisors of the assessment.

However, they did not step in and allowed Zared to bully us.

“You only came out to uphold justice as the sect’s law enforcer only after Zared is defeated and trapped under the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell?”

After hearing James ‘ accusations, Lyla’s pretty face became cold. Then she said, “Elders...”

The 36 Chief Elders instantly appeared in front of Lyla. Frightened, they lowered their heads and refrained from speaking.

Lyla took a deep breath, raised her hand, and summoned a terrifying Genesis to wrap around the elders.

The next moment, the elders fell to the ground simultaneously and screamed in pain. Their cultivation bases had been sealed away.

Lyla announced loudly, “The thirty-six Chief Elders are dismissed. They are to be sent to the Infinite Ground and imprisoned for one entrapoch.”

As soon as she gave the order, over a hundred powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank rushed out from behind her. They quickly grabbed the 36 Chief Elders and left the area.

Afterward, Lyla looked at James and said, “I’ve dealt with them, so let him go now.”

Lyla was incredibly powerful but, more importantly, decisive and ruthless. In just the blink of an eye, she had sealed the cultivation bases of 36 powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation. Her strength had to be far above them.

James suddenly thought to himself, ‘Thea mentioned Lyla was the guardian of the Daemon Prison. Yegor had mentioned it a few times and repeatedly warned me not to get close to that place. Is it because of this powerful woman?’ “Hurry and let Zared go. Otherwise, even I won’t be able to save you.” Thea’s voice interrupted his thoughts James raised his head and looked at Lyla again. Then, he nodded at Lucille and Perthacus.

The three of them jumped into the air simultaneously. Afterward, James put away the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

Zared, who was finally freed, was seen curled up in the massive pit created by the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell. His body was tangled, and his body was covered in dirt. He was in a horrible state.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5939-The prestigious master of Mount Elixir, a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation, was defeated by opponents at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank and Yuraeceon Daelm Rank, resulting in great humiliation.

Zared noticed that his surroundings had brightened. While still curled in a fetal position, he slowly raised his head. After seeing that the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell had vanished, he furiously returned to his feet and unleashed a potent flame toward James.

Lyla immediately waved her hand and released powerful Genesis to block the flames.

The collision caused a massive explosion.

Zared stumbled a little, then turned to Lyla, who was hovering in the void.

"You..."

Lyla said coldly, "Haven't you already embarrassed yourself enough?"

Zared clenched his fists and said through gritted teeth, "Elder Lyla, they took my son hostage."

Thea interrupted him, saying, "Your son lost the best. He should keep his end of the deal. Unless the dignified Mount Elixir wants to break a promise."

Zared's lips twitched, and he refuted, "But they besieged me! That's not."

Thea retorted, "Aren't you ashamed? The three of them are at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank, Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Third Tribulation and Eighth Tribulation.

Even together, they aren't a match against someone like you at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation.

“You failed to overpower them, so now you’re sulking. Mount Elixir sure is something, Mr. Zared.”

Lyla cast a glance at Thea, signaling her to shut up. Then, she looked at the furious Zared and said, “The sect leader would like to see you, Mr. Zared.”

After a momentary shock, Zared recollected himself. Then, he looked viciously at James and those on his side.

Before he could leave, James shouted, “Apologize first. Otherwise, you’re not allowed to leave.”

Everyone around the area was shocked by his words. Lyla’s face darkened even further, and she wore a solemn expression.

Zared turned around, glared at James, and said coldly, “Apologize? Never.”

“Fine.” James suddenly raised his hand, and the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell transformed back to its original form. Then, it rose into the air and hovered above Zared.

Frightened, Zared frantically said, “Look, Elder Lyla. He’s the one who’s provoking me.”

Lyla frowned and hovered in the air with a hostile aura.

Thea, who was standing beside her, panicked. She hurriedly flashed before James and said, “An apology should be given if one has done something wrong.

Is that not how it should be, Ms Lyla? It doesn’t matter whether one is a disciple, elder, master of one of our sect’s mountains, or even the sect leader.

“The Timeaus Sect is the core of the Righteous Alliance. We value integrity and rules. Mr. Zared has violated the rules, so shouldn’t he apologize?”

Lyla’s murderous intent grew stronger after seeing Thea anxiously trying to protect James.

“Lyla.” At that moment, a charming voice called out. Lucille also appeared before James, saying, “Are you going to pretend I don’t exist just because I didn’t say anything?”

“Sure. You’re a high-ranking elder with great strength that Mr. Xachary values.

But even if you can control the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds, I will still look down upon you.

“You guys are hypocrites who meddle in all sorts of evil under the guise of justice.

“Now you don’t even bother putting on an act in front of the disciples of Timaeus Sect? It seems you guys have already given up on the facade?”

Listening to Lucille’s sarcastic words, Lyla’s fists clenched tightly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 5940-Everyone’s attention was on Lyla. Her one word could decide the outcome of the situation, Lyla raised her head, took a deep breath, and said, “Apologize and compensate them, Mr. Zared.”

Zared was dumbstruck. He mumbled surprisedly, “Elder Lyla...”

Before he could finish his sentence, Lyla cast him a cold glance.

He immediately averted his eyes. Then, he gritted his teeth and said, “You’re something, young man. Fine. I’m sorry for this matter.”

James said calmly, “No. I’m not the only one you should apologize to. You must apologize to Mount Martialis and also compensate my friends.”

Zared growled, “My son is in a bad condition because of you.”

Thea interrupted and said, “He asked for it. Forty-nine isn’t even acquainted with him. He started ridiculing Mount Martialis’s disciples first. He mocked and humiliated them in various ways. Even going as far as to make an arrogant bet with them.”

As soon as Thea brought up the bet, the surrounding living beings began to whisper and point fingers.

Anyone with discerning eyes could easily determine who caused the incident.

Zared was the master of Mount Elixir, a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation. Yet, he indiscriminately abused his power and wanted to punish others without finding out the truth. Ultimately, he lost the battle and humiliated himself.

Hearing the condescending discussion around him, Zared immediately realized his stupid son had dug a grave for them.

The cultivator from Mount Martialis had a weak cultivation base. However, the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell chose him as its master. That was enough to prove how much potential he had. Not only could he withstand the aura and attacks of a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation, but he could absorb one's Genesis by striking the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

The fear and pain of being trapped inside the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell was still fresh in Zared's memories.

Naturally, James only succeeded because he had the help of two powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank. Otherwise, even with his Golden Body, he would have zero chances against Zared.

Even so, the results were beyond everyone's expectations. Perthacus, who had always been the cowardly and incompetent leader of Mount Martialis, actually stood up and fought for Forty-nine.

The mysterious saintess of Mount Martialis, Lucille, also took the initiative to fight alongside Forty-nine.

With Zared's strength, he was not afraid of them. However, the Timaeus Sect's Saintess was a powerful existence he feared.

It would be fine if he had won the battle. He could have easily made an excuse before the sect leader. However, he had lost so embarrassingly, and things were out of his control.

To make matters worse, the most terrifying and ruthless elder of the Timaeus Sect, Lyla, was present. Besides the sect leader and a few older seniors, nobody would dare to stand up against her. If he were to offend her, Mount Elixir would be in danger.

After weighing the consequences, Zared made a reluctant decision to compromise and do as they asked.

“Alright. I’ll apologize to Mount Martialis and make necessary compensations.

However, you must release my son.”

James shook his head and said, “I can’t let him go yet. He must come with me and fulfill his end of the bet.”

Zared said furiously, “You’re going overboard, Forty-nine!

James refuted, “I’m merely acting according to the rules of our bet. What do you mean I’m going overboard? He initiated the bet but can’t keep it?”

Zared said coldly, “Fine! Give me a price! How many elixirs do I have to give you to redeem him? Mount Elixir can afford whatever you ask!”

James snorted, “No. He must uphold his bet. You apologize and make the compensation. There isn’t any room for negotiations.”

Faced with James’ stubbornness, Zared was inwardly fuming. However, he was disadvantaged and had no control over the situation.
