

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6011-“He’s too scary. Let’s leave. Otherwise, we will die here,” exclaimed the beautiful powerhouse of the Yaquis Sect.

Then, a few other powerhouses of the Yaquis Sect disappeared using their Genesis Powers while holding Nando.

However, just as the beautiful powerhouse of the Yaquis Sect was about to move, she was restrained by a mysterious power in the air.

She lifted her head and saw a huge bell descending rapidly. It smashed her to the ground.

Thump! Thump! Thump!

The bell rang, causing Truett and Xitlaly to fall into a dreamlike state.

At the same time, James stepped on top of the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell and began to absorb the Genesis Power of the beautiful powerhouse of the Yaquis Sect.

As the powerhouse cried out in pain, James sat in a lotus position. His Golden Body rotated slowly. A faint golden Genesis Divine Light appeared around him.

He was about to break through the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank when suddenly, the sky was filled with gray Tribulation Clouds and Heavenly Tribulations. It covered the entire Forladtt Land.

At that moment, James broke the Dream Energy Orb above Truett and Xitlaly with his Genesis Power.

“I’m going to go through the tribulation. Go to a safe place.”

Upon returning to their senses, Truett and Xitlaly ascended to the void and above the thick Tribulation Clouds.

Then, thousands of gray lightning bolts struck James’ Golden Body, making a clanging sound.

As James continued to hit the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell, the speed and power of the lightning bolts increased.

By the second wave of the Heavenly Tribulation, dozens of wounds had already appeared on James' Golden Body. It was on the verge of breaking.

Just then, pure white light engulfed his Golden Body and healed his wounds.

James advanced steadily according to Lesia's guidance.

He hit the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell and absorbed the Genesis Power of the Yaquis Sect's powerhouse while pulling out a large number of high-grade elixirs he had gotten from Xayvion. He consumed them to replenish his Genesis Power.

Under the strikes of the powerful gray Heavenly Tribulation, James' Golden Body cracked continuously. The pure white light appeared and healed his wounds, once again using a large amount of Genesis Power.

The process repeated. After eighty-one rounds of gray lightning bolts, James finally broke through the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank and entered the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's First Tribulation.

However, he did not notice that the pure white light on his body disappeared following the dissipating Heavenly Tribulation. Then, on the ground to his left, a beautiful silhouette with a white lotus disappeared.

James slowly opened his eyes. A dazzling golden light flashed across his eyes.

There was a rich golden Genesis Shield around his Golden Body.

At this time, Truett and Xitlaly descended from the void.

"James, congratulations. You have finally broken through the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank and entered the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's First Tribulation," shouted Truett excitedly.

"You're amazing," Xitlaly said happily. "You truly are a rare prodigy."

James glanced at them. He hopped off the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell and put it away.

He looked at the powerhouse of the Yaquis Sect, who had lost all her Genesis Power and had turned into a nine-tailed fox. She was on the verge of dying.

“You all called US demons from the Dark World.” James snorted and said, “What does that make you guys, then? You guys are birds and foxes too.”

Upon hearing that, the cuckoo on James’ shoulder flew away unhappily, as if being with James was a humiliation.

“Where are you going?” James reached out to grab the cuckoo. It was caught before it could fly far.

“Why do you have a bird?” Truett asked, confused. “It hasn’t even reached the Yuraeceon First Rank.”

“Yeah, but this bird is quite pretty.” Xitlaly could not resist such tiny things. Her eyes shone brightly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6012-“Do you want it?” James glanced at Xitlaly. “It’s Whitaker. It’s also Xayvion’s main self. Do you still want it?”

Upon hearing that, Xitlaly was shocked. She hid behind Truett.

“Xayvion is a cuckoo?” Truett was surprised. “This is hard to believe.”

“How’s your recovery?” James asked.

Truett and Xitlaly exchanged glances and smiled. “We have recovered half of our abilities. I’m currently in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s First Tribulation,” said Truett.

“I have also reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s First Tribulation.” Xitlaly looked at James. “James, what elixirs did you give US just now? How are they so magical?”

Then, James told them about the Essence Genesis Elixir. When Xitlaly and Truett heard about it, they were taken aback.

James took a deep breath. “I was too careless previously. I didn’t expect Nando to do such a thing...”

“James, please don’t say that.” Truett looked at James. “If it weren’t for you, we would have died.”

“He’s right.” Xitlaly sighed and said, “James, did you put a curse on Nando?

Was that why his head hurt when he was attacking me?”

“Yeah!” James glanced at Xitlaly. “Thank god he failed, otherwise, I would be a sinner!”

Truett laughed and looked at Xitlaly. “James, she’s your sister-in-law now. After all, we have gone through so much.”

Upon hearing that, James looked at the shy Xitlaly and nodded. “Of course, she’s my sister-in-law.

There’s no need to be so uptight. Just be yourself.”

Xitlaly nodded. “Got it.”

Then, James turned around and let his Zen seep out to check the surrounding areas.

When he was going through the tribulations, he felt someone helping him out.

He knew that otherwise, his Golden Body would have been crushed.

Nonetheless, he did not sense anyone nearby. Was he hallucinating?

“James,” Xitlaly said suddenly. “That day, the guardian trees around the Calidum Spiritual Tree were destroyed by the powerhouses of the Yaquis Sect. If we go there now, we only need to face the Calidum Spiritual Tree’s main self.”

“That’s right.” Truett took a deep breath. “James, you’ve just reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s First Tribulation. You need a lot of Genesis Power.

Let’s defeat the Calidum Spiritual Tree.”

“Sure.” James squinted his eyes. “It’s a supreme treasure of Forladtt Land.”

Then, he opened a huge boundary. He held the Judgment Scythe in his hand and waved it before him. A loud rumble sounded, and the boundary set up by the Yaquis Sect's powerhouses broke.

The three headed to the Calidum Spiritual Tree.

The closer they got to the Calidum Spiritual Tree, the hotter they felt. It was as if they were approaching countless suns.

Truett protected Xitlaly and activated the Genesis Divine Light, but he could barely handle the heat.

James also felt the pressure. Gritting his jaw, he persevered. Every step he took was difficult.

"Wait." All of a sudden, James waved his hand. "If we enter in this state, our physical bodies will melt before we even get close to the Calidum Spiritual Tree."

Truett nodded. "What should we do then?"

"A powerful fire spirit, Hemera, exists in the Calidum Spiritual Tree," Xitlaly explained. "If we can't convince Hemera, we can't get close to the tree, let alone pick the Calidum Spiritual Fruit."

"A fire spirit?" James frowned. "How can we convince her?"

"Hemera needs to acknowledge a master." Xitlaly sighed and said, "My element is water, so I can't be her master."

"I can't either." Truett shook his head. "I don't know what's my element, but I feel hot."

"How about this?" James took out a furnace overflowing with light.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6013-"Torr Cauldron?" At once, Xitlaly exclaimed, "It's the legendary alchemy treasure in the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds. It's made out of weapons left behind from the previous era. It can refine elixirs at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation."

“Does it have such a background? We’re rich!” James smiled meaningfully.

Suspiciously, Truett asked, “James, where did you get it?”

“I don’t know.” James shrugged his shoulders. “Maybe I got it from robbing the Yaquis Sect’s three realms. Maybe...”

“It’s mine. Don’t use my cauldron.” At this time, Xayvion’s roar sounded in James’ mind.

James ignored him and injected magnificent Genesis Power into the Torr Cauldron. At that moment, a ray of colorful light came shone the mouth of the cauldron.

Then, the heat ahead of them turned into countless stars. They were absorbed into the cauldron.

At the same time, Truett and Xitlaly felt the pressure of the heat decrease.

Suddenly, a woman’s evil laughter sounded.

After that, a figure walked out of the Calidum Spiritual Tree. Its body was in colorful flames, and its appearance could not be seen.

It looked like a burning universe. Its body was colorful and in flames. The heat filled the sky.

“I didn’t expect a living being of this world to have such a treasure. Let me have a look.”

Then, the flames formed a huge hand. It headed toward James’ Torr Cauldron.

James dodged the hand quickly and slashed out with his sword.

A terrifying dark Sword Light headed toward the burning figure.

With a boom, countless flames exploded from the figure and broke the black Sword Energies.

Then, thousands of flames came out from the figure and formed thousands of fire dragons. The aura of the fire dragon was overwhelming.

“Watch out,” roared James. The Judgment Scythe in his hand slashed the fire dragons into halves.

However, the fire dragons were still heading toward Truett and Xitlaly.

Upon seeing that, James frowned. He could sense each dragon had the ability of a powerhouse in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s First Tribulation.

However, Truett and Xitlaly were able to fight back while being trapped among the thousands of fire dragons. They walked around the void with ease.

“James, we’ll hold them back. Go and persuade Hemera.”

Truett’s voice sounded. Instantly, James came back to his senses. He merged the Judgment Scythe and the Golden Body, forming the Quasar Sword. Then, he rushed toward the burning figure.

At that moment, a huge fire dragon appeared from the figure’s body. It roared as it swallowed James’ sword.

In that instant, James felt heat fill his body. Countless cracks also appeared on his Golden Body.

James continued waving the sword around. A little girl, around the age of one, came out from the sword.

Then, a gray light engulfed the sword and headed toward the figure’s main self.

“Boom!”

There was a loud sound. The huge fire dragon exploded in the void, causing an earthquake. The thousands of fire dragons around Truett and Xitlaly disappeared too.

In the blink of an eye, James appeared in a space that was in flames. With a surprised expression, he looked at the young woman’s spiritual body. She was wearing a fiery red robe.

“Welcome to the world of flames.” The young woman’s spiritual self sized James up. “You’re the legendary Natal Divine Master.”

“Natal Divine Master?” James frowned. “Me?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6014-“Is there anyone else here?” The young woman shrugged her hands. “Just so you know, if you didn’t have that damn bell, you wouldn’t have been able to convince me.”

“You’re the one who should be damned. Your entire family should be damned.”

In James’ body, Lesia’s voice sounded. “If I didn’t suppress the Dark Lotus, you wouldn’t even be alive right now.”

Upon hearing that, the young woman sighed and looked at James. “I can acknowledge you as my master, but I don’t want to stay with Lesia.”

Hesitating for a moment, James frowned. “Where do you want to stay then?”

“I want to stay in that cauldron,” said the young woman.

“The cauldron?” James took out the Torr Cauldron. “It doesn’t have a master.”

“If it doesn’t have a spiritual body, how can it acknowledge a master?” The young woman snorted. Then, she turned into a colorful flame and entered the Torr Cauldron.

After that, the Torr Cauldron flew out of James’ hand. It rotated in the void rapidly and exuded colorful flames.

In the next second, a dazzling colorful light shot out from the rotating Torr Cauldron and engulfed James.

James sensed a hot and powerful energy fill his body. His heart skipped a beat.

Looking at his Golden Body that was covered in wounds again, he realized that the injuries were healing under the light.

In the blink of an eye, the Torr Cauldron rotating in the void turned into a white glove. It was put on James’ right hand.

James used his right hand to throw a punch. A terrifying flame with Genesis Power shattered the space ahead.

Boom!

A loud explosion sounded. As the space tore open, a glaring red light flashed across.

His left hand was the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell, which could create illusions. His right hand was the Torr Cauldron, which could burn others. He had another powerful Supernatural Power now.

“James, are you still there?”

“James, are you in the Calidum Spiritual Tree?”

At this time, outside the hole, Truett and Xitlaly’s voices sounded.

Returning to his senses, James hurriedly flew out of the hole. Instantly, he appeared before Truett and Xitlaly.

“James, are you alright?” Truett asked anxiously.

Xitlaly looked at James excitedly. “James, have you convinced Hemera?”

“Yeah.” James turned around and looked at the Calidum Spiritual Tree.

The Calidum Spiritual Tree, which was now void of flames and heat, bloomed with light. Dozens of Calidum Spiritual Fruits appeared on the tree. They all exuded rich Genesis Power.

James, Truett, and Xitlaly witnessed the scene.

“Woah.” Xitlaly’s eyes shone brightly as she said, “According to the legend, one Calidum Spiritual Fruit can increase cultivation ranks below the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Fifth Tribulation by two sub-ranks and can increase one’s talent by fifty percent. One won’t need to go through tribulations either.”

“What are you waiting for?” James smiled and said, “Go and pluck them.”

Xitlaly trembled. In disbelief, she looked at James. “James, you’re the one who got them...”

“So, I’m asking you guys to pluck them.” James said, “Take them as a reward for working with me.”

Xitlaly held back her excitement and looked at Truett.

“Listen to James. There’s no need to hold back.” Truett pulled her and flew toward the Calidum Spiritual Tree.

James was surprised to see the two only plucking one each before coming back.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6015-Looking at the two who returned with a treasure each, James asked, confused, “Why did you only pluck one?”

“We’re already grateful for this!” With a shaky voice, Xitlaly said, “James, you gave US such a great fortune. We can go up two sub-ranks of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank in a short time, while other living beings might take several entrapochs.”

“Yeah.” Truett sighed and said, “This is the dream of many, but they can’t obtain such a fortune.”

James stayed silent. Reaching out, he plucked eight Calidum Spiritual Fruits and gave them to the two.

“Hey!” Xitlaly was stunned.

“James, we have enough.” Truett looked at James. “These are fortunes of living beings. We shouldn’t waste them. Besides, one living being can only consume one Calidum Spiritual Fruit. Consuming more than one is useless.”

“Just save them!” James said, “The Calidum Spiritual Fruits will disappear immediately after appearing. Wouldn’t that be more of a waste?”

“You can keep them.” Xitlaly looked at James.

James responded, “I’m scared someone will consume them without me knowing. That will be more wasteful.”

Xitlaly and Truett were speechless.

“Master, what do you mean by that?” Lesia protested, “Do you think I’m a thief?”

“Tell me. How many can you consume?” James said, “I need to leave a few for my friends and my wife.”

Lesia sighed. “You have Hemera. Why do you think you will lack Calidum Spiritual Fruits?”

Upon hearing that, James was surprised. “Do you mean that the Calidum Spiritual Tree can be shifted to the soul space and be under Hemera’s care?”

“Yeah.” Lesia laughed and said, “Hemera has the best spiritual body for refining elixirs. The Calidum Spiritual Fruit is an elixir of the highest grade. Why don’t you want it?”

After hearing Lesia’s words, James plucked all the spiritual fruits from the Calidum Spiritual Tree and put them in the treasure realm.

Then, he used his Zen to grab the Calidum Spiritual Tree and pull it out of the ground before putting it in the soul space.

Upon seeing the scene, Truett and Xitlaly were in disbelief.

In the ground where the Calidum Spiritual Tree used to be, countless high-grade cores appeared. James took all of them and put them in the soul space.

He found a place in the soul space and planted the Calidum Spiritual Tree there.

Then, he summoned Hemera to revive it.

More importantly, James set up a time formation around the Calidum Spiritual Tree. That way, the fruits could bloom quickly.

“I have two homes now,” said Hemera happily.

“Tsk.” Lesia snorted. “You still need to work for Master.”

“Lesia, you have gone overboard.” James was speechless. “Don’t bully Hemera.

otherwise, I will punish you.”

Lesia argued, "I can help you fight. What can she do?"

"I can provide Master with endless cultivation resources." Hemera argued, "I can help you but also starve you."

Lesia was dumbfounded. Immediately, she stopped talking.

James stopped using his Zen and looked at Truett and Xitlaly, who were astonished. "There's nothing else we need in the first layer of Forladdt Land, but there are some things we need to deal with if we want to go to the second layer."

"Is it Thea?" Truett looked at James.

James nodded. "I need to find her. Otherwise, I'll be worried."

"James, there's something I have always been confused about." Xitlaly stared at James. "Since you already knew that Whitaker was a spy, you could have exposed him in front of Thea. Why did you need to anger her?"

"It's for Thea's safety." Truett glanced at Xitlaly. "Among US, Thea's cultivation rank is the lowest, and she's in the greatest danger. If James didn't do that, Thea wouldn't have left."

"Truett is partially right." James shook his head at the two. "I did that for two reasons.

"First, I needed to confirm if the Grand Priestess of the Timaeus Sect was my wife.

"Second, I angered her so she would leave US. She might be safer that way."

"But, you still don't know if she's your wife." Helplessly, Truett looked at James.

"The memory inscriptions left behind by Thea can't enter her mind. That means she isn't Thea."

"That isn't confirmed." James took a deep breath. "Maybe she's only half of Thea."

Seeing that James had descended, Truett and Xitlaly exchanged glances.

Half of Thea? What did that mean?

Actually, James only understood after he was heartbroken.

When he was at Franciscus' tomb in Zephyria World, he heard Franciscus' spirit say that the Dark World was separated into the Dark Heavenly Path and Light Heavenly Path.

Thea was the Dark Heavenly Path. If she had reincarnated, the Light Heavenly Path had also reincarnated because they were one.

It was just that Thea of the Dark Heavenly Path would use the most primitive Dark Power to destroy everything when increasing her cultivation rank. Only Thea of the Light Heavenly Path could stop her.

With that, James could conclude that Thea, the Grand Priestess of the Timaeus Sect was the reincarnation of the Light Heavenly Path.

Although she was not the real Thea and the memory inscription could not enter her mind, she was important. At least, she was important for saving Thea in the future.

Hence, putting her in the first layer of Forladdt Land was not a good method. Her safety needed to be guaranteed to save Thea of the Dark Heavenly Path.

In some sense, Thea of the Light Heavenly Path was also his wife, but she was not the same Thea.

At this time, Truett and Xitlaly appeared behind James from the sky. They looked at James as if they had something to say.

"There are movements." James suddenly raised his head. "In the southeast direction."

Then, his body flashed and disappeared.

Xitlaly and Truett exchanged glances and followed after James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6016-On a wasteland in the first layer of Forladdt Land, a group of powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank and Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation surrounded a stunning woman in a white robe.

The woman was on a white lotus. No living being dared to approach her.

There were dozens of bodies lying on the ground. They were all crushed. It was a horrible scene.

The scene was created by the beautiful lady in a white robe in the void.

Of course, she was not any better. She was covered in wounds with blood seeping out of her mouth.

"As expected of the Timaeus Sect's Grand Priestess. You're powerful." At this time, the powerhouse in the lead, who was in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Fifth Tribulation snorted and said, "Even so, do you think you can escape?"

Following his words, the powerhouses around Thea also mocked her.

"The Timaeus Sect has fallen. You should give up."

"I heard that when you were born in Forladtt Land, the sky, known as the Genesis Heavenly Path, changed. If I eat your flesh, I can increase my cultivation rank. I really want to try that."

"The flesh of the Timaeus Sect's Grand Priestess should be delicious. Why don't we cut off two pieces and try it? Hahaha!"

"Grand Priestess, stop resisting, otherwise, we won't go easy on you!"

"Let's not waste any time and take her down together. I want to see if she's as magical as the rumors."

After the group of powerhouses said that, they stepped on the sacred lotus.

Standing in the void, Thea looked smug.

If she did not understand what the Forladtt Trial meant before entering Forladtt Land, she understood it now.

The Forladtt Trial was a complete scheme. A scheme that targeted the Timaeus Sect.

Until today, aside from Forty-nine and a few other living beings, she did not sense any Timaeus Sect living being's existence. It meant that they had all been killed.

Unexpectedly, Thea had also been sieged. If she were caught, she would endure things beyond regular torture.

At that thought, another sacred lotus appeared in her hand. "Since you all want to fight, come on then."

Then, her Genesis Divine Light activated. Stepping on the sacred lotus, she rotated in the void rapidly.

At that moment, a magnificent pure and white light filled the sky. Countless white sacred lotuses descended. Under the loud noises, the powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank were all injured.

The powerhouses in the lower cultivation ranks had their bodies destroyed.

Their souls were everywhere.

"How dare she use her ultimate move. Let's kill her together." Dozens of powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank ascended and attacked Thea simultaneously.

However...

Just as Thea was preparing to fight, two figures appeared beside her. Two powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank were blown away when the two figures made a move.

The dozens of powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank who ascended to the void attacked Thea from all directions.

Several terrifying Genesis Powers headed toward Thea. She could not dodge them.

Thinking she was about to meet her end, she closed her eyes. The Genesis Power in her body surged. She wanted to explode and make the powerhouses die with her.

At that instant, a figure below her hugged her and flew to the sky...

Boom!

Following the loud rumble, the Genesis Powers hit the spot where Thea was moments ago and caused an explosion that cracked the space.

When Thea returned to her senses, she saw that the person who hugged her was James.

At that moment, James had a calm expression. He looked powerful.

He was here. He came in the end!

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6017-Thea stared at James with tears in her eyes.

She always believed in James. She had only said such ruthless words out of anger.

After leaving, she realized there were a lot of things that did not make sense.

Hence, when James was going through the tribulations, she appeared and helped him breakthrough the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank.

Nonetheless, she could not face James because she was confused about many things.

Now, just as she was on the verge of death, he appeared. It proved that he was not heartless.

With Thea in his arms, James looked at the powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank. He waved the Judgment Scythe, and a terrifying dark Sword Light swept out.

Wherever the Sword Light passed, powerhouses below the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Third Tribulation would die.

The powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank who surrounded them were all shocked.

At this instant, James appeared before a powerhouse in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Fourth Tribulation with Thea in his arms. Raising his hand, he threw a punch. A hot flame pierced through the powerhouse's body, causing him to explode in an instant.

At once, several powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank were defeated.

James shocked the powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank surrounding them.

The powerhouse in the lead, who was in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Fifth Tribulation shouted, "Retreat!"

"Are you running away?" James snorted. He raised his hand, and Quasar Tribulation Clouds filled the sky. Then, countless Quasar Lightning struck.

At that moment, the powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank who were about to retreat were electrocuted by the flashes of lightning.

At the same time, James' body flashed. Then, he put Thea, who was spaced out, on the ground.

"Stay here. I'll explain everything to you later." After saying that, James entered the Quasar Lightning.

Wherever the Sword Light passed, several powerhouses would be killed or injured. The hot flame surrounded the Quasar Lightning.

In a short time, the few powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank who were engulfed in the Quasar Lightning were killed. Countless corpses fell to the ground. Upon seeing that, Truett and Xitlaly were horrified.

The Quasar Tribulation Clouds in the sky dispersed. James descended to the ground.

The surrounding areas were full of corpses and blood.

The souls of the powerhouses collided against one another like flies without heads. They were grabbed by James.

"Whoever touches my wife will have their souls wiped out." Then, James crushed the souls in his hand.

After that, he raised his head, his eyes red.

Truett and Xitlaly looked at James like he was a beast. On the other hand, Thea kept her head down anxiously.

Standing up, James walked toward Thea. He took an elixir of the highest grade and stuffed it in her mouth. Then, he hugged her without saying anything.

Thea was stunned by his sudden actions. She felt as if she was electrocuted.

Her heart was pounding.

Standing to the side, Truett and Xitlaly exchanged glances upon watching the scene. Quickly, they turned away and began to clean up the battlefield.

“I won’t make you leave again.” After a while, James said softly, “I will never let you leave again.”

Upon hearing that, tears fell from Thea’s eyes.

She did not want to leave, but she was embarrassed because of the previous misunderstanding.

As the Grand Priestess of the Timaeus Sect, many powerhouses adored her and let her do whatever she wanted. It was the first time a man was rude to her.

However, now, she felt that her heart had melted. It had merged with James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6018-A while later, James let go of Thea. Holding her beautiful face, he wiped away her tears and smiled gently.

He had thought it through. It did not matter if she was the reincarnation of the Light Heavenly Path or Dark Heavenly Path. They were both Thea and his wife because they were one.

It did not matter if she could remember the past. James only wanted to appreciate the moment. They were separated many times and for a long time.

Getting time with her was a luxury.

In a daze, Thea stared at James. She seemed to have many things to say, but she could not find the words.

All of a sudden, James pulled out a Calidum Spiritual Fruit. "Eat it."

"A Calidum Spiritual Fruit?" Thea was shocked. She shook her head and stepped back. "This is a divine object. I can't take it."

James felt helpless. "Take it as compensation, alright?"

"No." Thea shook her head. "You should eat it. We'll face more dangers later. You're our main force."

"Thea." Truett smiled and said, "We all have it. James took the entire Calidum Spiritual Tree."

"Yeah." Xitlaly echoed, "Thea, just eat it. Otherwise, James will be sad."

Hearing the two speak, Thea glanced at James, clenching her teeth. It was only then that she accepted the fruit.

Instead of eating it, she put it in the treasure space.

James felt helpless. He took out another Calidum Spiritual Fruit and stuffed it in her mouth.

At that moment, Thea's body exuded white light. Her aura also grew stronger.

Unable to resist herself, she stretched out both arms and stepped on a white sacred lotus before flying into the sky.

In the next second, her body was engulfed in a golden shield. Slowly, she sat on the sacred lotus with her legs crossed.

The sacred lotus rotated and bloomed slowly. In the end, thousands of white sacred lotuses bloomed behind Thea. They swayed without wind. Each lotus contained magnificent Genesis Power and Spiritual Energy.

Now, Thea had changed from stepping on the sacred lotus to sitting on the sacred lotus. From one sacred lotus, there were now thousands of sacred lotuses. At this moment, pure white light exuded from the top of her head. It covered the red sky, inciting in others the urge to worship her.

Looking at her, Truett and Xitlaly were stunned. They knelt on the ground.

In the void, the white light above Thea's head filled the sky, replacing the red sky of Forladtt Land's first layer.

Under the pure white light, all plants of Forladtt Land drooped down. All the living beings in the first layer of Forladtt Land knelt on the ground to worship.

Then, Thea moved her hands, and a ray of magnificent pure white light passed by. All of a sudden, the entire Forladtt Land was drizzling.

At that instant, the plants that had their stems bent turned into countless living beings who were cheering. They welcomed the rain happily and felt alive.

It was the Genesis Heavenly Path Power!

It was the true Light Genesis Heavenly Path Power. It was enough to control the fates of all living beings.

At this moment, James stared at Thea in the void, stunned.

He did not expect Thea, who had just reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Second Tribulation, to have the Heavenly Path Power.

The surrounding areas had changed to green from fiery red under the transformation of Thea's Genesis Heavenly Path Power. The living beings in the distance were full of vitality.

Thea's body flashed and landed on the ground. With a smile, she looked at James. "Thank you for letting me comprehend the initial power of the Genesis Heavenly Path."

Shocked, James stared at Thea. "Can you use the Genesis Heavenly Path Power to change everything now?"

"No." Thea shook her head. "My Genesis Heavenly Path Power is only in its initial stage. It will only work on living beings below the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Fifth Tribulation."

Upon hearing that, James could not help but take a deep breath.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6019-Thea was only in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Second Tribulation, yet she had mastered the initial Genesis Heavenly Path Power. Once she reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation, she would be extremely powerful.

"But, something is weird." Thea suddenly frowned. "When I was using the Genesis Heavenly Path Power, a shadow threatened me."

"Threatened you?" James widened his eyes. "How?"

Thea raised her head and stared at James. "She said she would consume me one day."

Upon hearing that, James looked excited. "It's a woman?"

Thea nodded.

At that moment, James could not suppress his excitement. He turned around and laughed.

It was Thea. It must have been Thea, the reincarnation of the Dark Heavenly Path.

She and Thea, the reincarnation of the Light Heavenly Path used to be one.

Although they had separated for countless light-years, they could sense each other.

It was just that Thea of the Light Heavenly Path was still too weak. She did not know about the existence of Thea of the Dark Heavenly Path.

Even so, James saw hope when he heard about the news of Thea of the Dark Heavenly Path.

Following the increase in cultivation rank and ability, Thea, the reincarnation of the Dark Heavenly Path would appear.

Looking at James' strange actions, Thea was stunned. Truett and Xitlaly, who had gotten up from the ground, were also stunned.

After a while, James turned around, seemingly in a good mood. "We don't need to explore the first layer anymore. Let's go to the second layer. But, before that, there are some things you guys need to prepare."

While speaking, he took out the Forladtt Map and searched for the Teleportation Portal to enter the second layer from the first layer.

Truett glanced at Thea and said, "James, we haven't gotten rid of Nando and the others. Shouldn't we..."

"They aren't in the first layer of Forladtt Land," James interrupted Truett. He knew Nando's whereabouts because he had Curse Magic.

Truett, Thea, and Xitlaly exchanged glances and stayed silent.

"There's a cultivation threshold to go to the second layer of Forladtt Land."

James looked at the Forladtt Map for a long time. Then, he said in a low voice, "We're all in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank. Xitlaly, I hope you'll eat the Calidum Spiritual Fruit. After all, the dangers of the second layer are different from the first layer's."

Seeing that Xitlaly was reluctant, Truett sighed and said, "Eat it. It's a fortune. To increase your cultivation rank, you need to protect yourself first."

Xitlaly nodded and consumed the Calidum Spiritual Fruit. Then, her body exuded countless rays of white light. Instantly, she reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Third Tribulation.

Putting away the Forladtt Map, James raised his head. "Let's go to the second layer."

Then, they disappeared.

In the next second, dozens of powerhouses appeared. They stopped where James and the others had just been.

One of them, an elder with white hair, squinted his eyes. "Once they enter the second layer, lock the Teleportation Portal."

Standing to the side, a living being—a middle-aged woman—sighed. "But the Grand Priestess is inside. Do we seal her too?"

"The Grand Priestess is the Heavenly Path." The elder with white hair snorted and said, "No seal will work on her. Besides, Rebella and the others are in the second layer. After killing the man from the Dark World, they can bring back the Grand Priestess."

“What if the man from the Dark World breaks through their siege and enters the third layer?” The middle-aged woman asked.

The elder with white hair smiled evilly. “The Sect Leader has everything arranged. We don’t need to worry about that.”

While speaking, he turned around and scanned the dozens of powerhouses.

“You have to remember that the purpose of the seal isn’t to seal the man from the Dark World but to buy more time.

“For the peace of the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds and countless Micro Genesis Worlds, we need to take careful steps. We can’t make any mistakes.”

The powerhouses bowed, signaling that they understood. Then, they stepped into the void and ran to the front.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6020-The Teleportation Formation that connected the first and second layers of Forladdt Land was a rotating Sword Formation made up of thousands of ice swords. It exuded a terrifying chill.

James and the others activated the Genesis Divine Light. Then, they were swallowed by the Ice Sword Formation.

At that moment, the four of them descended quickly. Under the attacks of countless ice swords, they activated their Supernatural Powers.

James used Hemera. With Thea in his arms, he melted the countless ice swords.

Meanwhile, Truett protected Xitlaly. He waved the huge sword around and shattered the ice swords.

They went through obstacles for many years before finally landing.

When they opened their eyes, they saw a world full of snow. The entire place was white. It was boundless.

“There’s a beast!” Xitlaly exclaimed.

Everyone turned to look and saw a white beast heading toward them.

James’ body flashed, and he raised his hand. The burning flame along with countless swords flew toward the beast. Following the sound of a loud boom, the beast was severely injured.

Then, Truett and Xitlaly waved their swords and killed the severely injured snow beast.

As the snow beast fell to the ground, a core flew out. Truett grabbed it.

“James, it’s a beast in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Fifth Tribulation.” Truett turned around and shouted, “There’s a high-grade core.”

“Keep it.” James took a deep breath. “The second layer of Forladtt Land is uncanny. We need to be careful.”

After he said that, an evil laugh sounded from the corner of an iceberg.

“Forty-nine, I have been waiting for you for a long time.”

Upon hearing that, James and the others became vigilant and looked in the direction of the voice.

Then, at the corner of the iceberg, several white figures appeared. They were all female living beings. They were stunning.

Most importantly, they seemed to be powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Fifth Tribulation or higher.

James and the rest could not sense the cultivation rank of the beautiful woman in the lead, but her aura made people fear her.

Upon seeing the group of female living beings, James and Truett pulled Thea and Xitlaly behind them.

“Rebella, why are you here?” Thea was shocked.

Hearing that, the woman in the lead waved her hand. A magnificent Genesis Power grabbed Thea and Truett before pulling them behind the woman.

Everything happened too suddenly. Before James could react, everything had already happened.

“Rebella.” In a hurry, Thea shouted, “What are you doing?”

Truett wanted to go back to James’ side, but he realized his Genesis Power had been sealed. He could not even teleport.

He had consumed the Essence Genesis Elixir James gave him. Even though his cultivation had not been entirely restored, he had reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Fourth Tribulation.

Nonetheless, this mysterious woman sealed his Genesis Power with the raise of her hand. How strong was she?
