

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6021-In a state of shock, he hastily shouted at James, "James, my Genesis Power has been sealed. Rebella's cultivation is very high. You have to be extremely cautious!"

Upon hearing Truett's warning, James stared at Rebella. Then, his eyes narrowed into slits. "Are you finally ready to take action?"

"You seem to know everything." Rebella appraised James with interest. "Man from the Dark World, you can deceive the Young Master of the Skynet and our Grand Priestess, but you can't deceive US. Do you think hiding your identity and infiltrating the Timaeus Sect can help you slip through unnoticed?"

Upon hearing this, Thea, who was suppressed by two female powerhouses, became anxious. "What are you saying, Rebella? He is Forty-nine, the elder of Mount Martialis, not the man from the Dark World."

"Your Holiness, you're quite confused." Rebella turned to look at Thea and continued, "You're still being deceived by him up until now. He's not Forty-nine."

His real name is James Caden, a demon from the Dark World, the inheritor of 'you know who', the man from the Dark World.

"He infiltrated our sect to manipulate and then devour you so that his Dark World can rise again and overturn our Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds and countless Micro Genesis Worlds."

After hearing this, Thea's expression turned immensely shocked. "No, I don't believe it. Forty-nine, tell them you're not the man from the Dark World..."

"Thea." James interrupted her and sighed lightly as he looked at Rebella. "It's the first time I've heard that I have so many identities. 'Man from the Dark World' is truly an undeserved reputation. I have no words!"

"However you try to justify it, you must die here today, and there will be no possibility of your reincarnation," said Rebella arrogantly.

"Rebella Dreje!" Thea suddenly roared in anger. "I'll make Uncle Xachary and Ms. Lyla kill you if you dare to touch him."

“Sister-in-law, haven’t you figured it out?” Truett looked at Thea with grief and indignation. “All of this was arranged by Uncle Xachary and Ms. Lyla.”

This revelation hit Thea like a thunderbolt, leaving her completely dumbfounded.

She never expected that her most respected Uncle Xachary and Ms. Lyla would commit such a despicable act.

James looked at Rebella calmly. “It seems inevitable that we must fight today.

Before the battle, can you answer a question for me?”

“Sure.” Rebella nodded slightly. “Whether in life or death, I’ll make sure you understand clearly.”

James asked slowly, “With your strength and methods, you’ve always treated the living beings of the Dark World with a ruthless attitude and never shown mercy. Since you already suspected me, why didn’t you take action at the Timaeus Sect? Why provide me with such abundant cultivation resources to reach this realm?”

“That’s a good question,” replied Rebella coldly. “Our sect has always sought to win hearts and minds, even from demons like you from the Dark World. Our Sect Leader hoped to resolve the evil and hostility in your hearts with goodwill, leading you to the right path.

“However, you secretly sent away three other demons from the Dark World before the Forladtt Trial, which meant you were up to no good.

“The Sect Leader was well aware that treating you kindly was futile. You had already embarked on a path of no return. Only by dying and eradicating your soul could we ensure the peace and tranquility of the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds and countless Micro Genesis Worlds.”

James burst into laughter upon hearing this. “What a noble attempt to dispel evil and hostility. All you virtuous gentlemen of the Timaeus Sect are really good at putting a positive spin on yourselves!”

This statement immediately chilled Rebella’s expression.

“Let me reveal your true purpose.” James stared at Rebella. “Killing me outside Forladdt Land posed a risk. You were worried that I might escape. Even if you killed me, you were afraid I could be reborn.

“However, it’s different here! Once you kill me in Forladdt Land, I’ll be completely annihilated, and there’s no chance for me to reincarnate. That’s how you can easily eliminate the so-called trouble.”

Rebella’s face could not hold back the tension. She raised her hand slowly, and a majestic Genesis Power surrounded her arm.

“Now that I’ve exposed your true face, are you planning to take action?” James squinted.

“You’ve said enough!” Rebella’s voice was full of killing intent. “It’s time to send you on your way.”

“Wait!” James suddenly pushed Xitlaly, who was beside him, away. “She’s the Grand Priestess of the lustus Sect, and she’s unrelated to this matter. Let her go if you have a shred of decency.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6022-Rebella glanced at Xitlaly and was about to speak when suddenly Xitlaly drew a longsword. “I won’t leave, James. We’ll die together if we’re to die. It’s not a big deal.

“You saved my life in Zephyria World. In Forladdt Land, it was you who had Truett save me and you who orchestrated the union between me and him.

“You intervened to prevent me from being bullied by Nando. You saved both me and Truett. Moreover, you generously gifted me the Calidum Spiritual Fruit, allowing me to reach an unprecedented level of cultivation.”

At this point, Xitlaly raised her head with determination. “I know Truett is the Young Master of the Skynet. With my background in the lustus Sect, I was afraid I could never match up to him even if I cultivated for ten more entrapochs.

“Since I’ve been bestowed this marriage by you, I’m deeply grateful. Today, I’ll stand with you through thick and thin, through life and death!”

Saying this, she tearfully looked at Truett. “Darling, I can’t go to meet Mr. Yegor of the Skynet with you. Please find someone better than me.”

With that, she soared toward Rebella with her sword.

In an instant, a powerful white Sword Energy descended. However, Rebella effortlessly caught it between her two fingers.

“You’ve been deceived quite severely, Grand Priestess of the lustus Sect.

Damn!”

Just as she was about to attack Xitlaly, the entire space suddenly fluctuated, followed by an overwhelming surge of Marcials Combat Form power.

In shock, Rebella threw a retaliatory punch that collided with the Marcials Combat Form power unleashed by James.

Boom!

A deafening sound echoed as James spat out a mouthful of blood and was sent flying, while Rebella remained unaffected.

“The Third Marcials Combat Form. You do indeed carry the aura of ‘you know who’ from back in the day, but your cultivation is unfortunately too weak.”

Rebella snorted coldly and suddenly flipped her palm. A violent spatial fluctuation occurred as countless Genesis Powers converged in her palm. In that instant, James quickly manifested into a giant sword of Quasar Light and charged swiftly toward her.

Rebella’s expression changed drastically as she confronted the intense tremors in the surrounding space. She had to release the Sword Energy of Xitlaly and quickly turn around before summoning both palms to deal with the oncoming threat.

As the giant sword approached rapidly, a series of bell tolls echoed, and a powerful sonic force instantly swept through all living beings present. Everyone was forcefully enchanted into a dreamlike state, except for Rebella.

“The Yuraeceon Genesis Bell. How interesting.”

Suddenly, Rebella thrust both palms forward, and a terrifying manifestation of Genesis Power materialized into two golden dragons. They swallowed the Quasar Sword instantly.

Boom!

Boom!

Two earth-shattering roars resonated as the Quasar Sword shattered the two golden dragons, instantly colliding with Rebella and sending her flying backward.

“You audacious demon, how dare you offend me!”

Stabilizing herself, Rebella became furious as she saw James’ two fists striking her breasts directly. In the next second, she struck James’ chest with her palm containing formidable Genesis Power, immediately sending him flying.

Puff!

James crashed into the rear barrier and spat out another mouthful of blood. Just as he was about to fall from the void, Xitlaly flashed and immediately hugged him.

“James!” Truett, whose Genesis Power was sealed, shouted hysterically.

Thea yelled at Truett, “Eat the Calidum Spiritual Fruit to break the seal!”

Hearing this, Truett immediately took out a Calidum Spiritual Fruit and swallowed it. Instantly, his body erupted in a dazzling white light.

At this moment, Rebella was enveloped in Genesis Divine Light, suspended in the void and radiating a murderous aura. “You, man from the Dark World, I’ll make your soul scatter today.”

Saying this, she chopped down with her palm once again. A terrifying Genesis Power manifested into a massive golden dragon and charged swiftly toward James and Xitlaly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6023-In that fleeting moment, a shadow swiftly darted by, crashing with a resounding roar and shattering the golden dragon that soared through the air.

“Darling!” Xitlaly, who was embracing James, cried out loudly.

“If you all seek death, then I shall grant your wish,” said Rebella.

She extended her hands once again, and countless Genesis Power around her gathered and formed a terrifying surge of energy.

At this very instant, the sky was suddenly enveloped in a pure white light. The holy radiance descended and swiftly enveloped Rebella and the female powerhouses of the Timaeus Sect.

Looking at the scene, Thea sat in a lotus position on a rotating white sacred lotus among the crowd behind Rebella. It rose gently into the air, and she extended an orchid-shaped finger, radiating a holy light.

“Thea, you’ve actually comprehended the Genesis Heavenly Path Power. Yet, you use it to help the demon from the Dark World. You’ve gone against all that is right.”

Trapped in the holy light, Rebella shouted in anger.

“Take him and Truett, and go quickly!” Thea from within the sacred lotus spoke to Xitlaly. “Rebella is an upper-grade Yuraeeon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation powerhouse. She is just a step away from the pinnacle. With your current strength, you’re no match for her.”

Upon hearing this, James, who was barely clinging to life, reached out to Thea.

“Thea, no...”

“Don’t worry about me,” shouted Thea. “I’m the Grand Priestess of the Timaeus Sect, and I’ve comprehended the power of the Genesis Heavenly Path Power.

They dare not harm me.”

James coughed up another mouthful of blood. “Thea...”

“Hurry!” Thea smiled sweetly. “Whether you’re Forty-nine or James, whether you come from the Dark World or elsewhere, you’re still my husband.

“To win my beloved’s heart, until death doth gray-haired part.”

These words echoed from the void, carrying a powerful force that sounded like thunder to all living beings.

James felt as if a thousand arrows were piercing his heart. He screamed with all his strength, “Rebella Dreje, Timaeus Sect, I’ll make you crumble to dust!”

At this moment, tears welled in Xitlaly’s eyes. She gritted her teeth, carried James and Truett, and vanished instantly from the spot.

“You dare defy me, Thea!”

Trapped in the holy light, Rebella roared.

Then, the space around them shook violently, a thunderous roar echoed, and the holy light that trapped her was shattered instantly.

At the same time, Thea, sitting on the sacred white lotus, spurted out a large mouthful of blood. The surrounding holy light disappeared abruptly, causing her and the sacred lotus to fall.

“Damn it!” Rebella clenched her fists. “It was a foolproof plan, yet now there’s been such an unexpected turn of events.”

Saying this, she flashed to Thea and lifted her up.

“Your Holiness, you’re the Grand Priestess of the Timaeus Sect. Why would you help a demon from the Dark World?”

Blood bled from Thea’s mouth. She showed a resigned smile on her pale face while facing Rebella’s roar. Then, she tilted her head and promptly fainted.

Seeing this, Rebella became extremely angry. She threw Thea to a female powerhouse beside her. “He can’t escape. Now, Forladdt Land is impassable.

We can search separately. Whoever encounters them, kill them without mercy.”

Upon hearing this, a beautiful female powerhouse softly asked, “Ms. Rebella, are we supposed to kill the Young Master of the Skynet as well?”

Rebella paused, then grabbed the hair of that powerhouse. “You can try if you’re not afraid of Yegor Sadler dispersing your soul.”

As soon as these words were spoken, the female powerhouse shivered involuntarily. She quickly bowed her head and stepped back.

“Split into four teams.” Rebella’s eyes were bloodshot and filled with murderous intent. “Chase them from four different directions. Once you spot the man from the Dark World, report through transmission. Detain him, and I’ll personally deal with him.”

After speaking, her figure flickered and disappeared.

The other dozen or so female powerhouses looked at each other. They were divided into four teams and disappeared in an instant.

It was not until this moment that a female powerhouse of the Timaeus Sect held the unconscious Thea and sighed. “To win my beloved’s heart, until death doth gray-haired part. Perhaps, this is your true perseverance.

“However, what is right, what is evil, what is a demon, and what is the right path? Can it be defined by just a person or a sect?”

Feeling sentimental, she picked up Thea and disappeared from the spot instantly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6024-The second layer of Forladdt Land was an icy and snowy expanse. Xitlaly performed several thousand instantaneous movements, carrying James and Truett to an unnamed location.

Looking at the vast whiteness all around, Xitlaly had a pallid face and was panting heavily due to depletion from the excessive consumption of Genesis Power.

She had sustained severe internal injuries during the confrontation with Rebella, though she was slightly better off than James and Truett, whose bodies were mostly destroyed.

“Stop escaping, Xitlaly!”

Just as Xitlaly was about to collapse, James’ weak shout came into her ears.

Turning around, she saw James lying on a stretcher, slowly raising the black glove on his left hand.

Soon after, a gray light flashed, and the black glove transformed into a large bell. It gradually rose and expanded until it manifested as an ice-covered mountain, swiftly enveloping the three of them.

Not long after, several female powerhouses of the Timaeus Sect appeared.

They halted where James and the others had just been, surveying their surroundings cautiously.

At this moment, a beautiful female powerhouse took out a radiant energy ball.

“The Mirolos Tracker shows that the man from the Dark World is nearby. How did they disappear suddenly? Let’s search everywhere.”

Upon hearing this, the other female powerhouses began to act separately. The powerhouse holding the energy ball looked toward the ice-covered mountain.

At the same time, Xitlaly witnessed the scene within the mountain. Nervously, she gripped her longsword tightly, maintaining a ready-to-fight posture.

“Relax, Xitlaly. This is the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell, the supreme treasure left from the previous era. It can conceal all our auras.”

James, who was healing his injuries while sitting in a lotus position, was reminded softly.

Xitlaly turned around, still tense, and asked, “James, can they detect us up close?”

“They probably can’t.” James sighed softly. “Unless Rebella personally comes, as she can see through the illusion of the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell. Even so, they won’t be able to break through.”

With that, Xitlaly finally breathed a sigh of relief. “James, your injuries are severe. You should take the Calidum Spiritual Fruit.”

“I initially intended to wait for the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Third Tribulation to consume it and then advance directly to the Fifth Tribulation.” James took a deep breath. “Now, I’ve no choice but to do it in advance. I don’t know how Thea is doing.”

After saying that, he took out a Calidum Spiritual Fruit and swallowed it.

In an instant, two golden lights flashed on his body. A powerful Genesis Power spread all over, and his cracked Golden Body was immediately repaired.

His Zen flickered, and a dense Genesis Shield appeared around him. Not only did his injuries completely recover, but his cultivation also rapidly reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Third Tribulation from the First Tribulation.

At the same time, James felt a significant improvement in his Golden Body, bones, blood, and soul. Although he had not yet reached the realm of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank, he was already incredibly powerful.

Opening his eyes, he glanced at Truett beside him.

Truett took a blow from Rebella to save him, and most of his flesh had been destroyed. He was in urgent need of healing and recovery.

Luckily, he had quite a few high-grade Genesis Cores, but time was the only thing he lacked. Hence, James raised his hand to envelop both Xitlaly and Truett in a time formation.

He instructed, “Focus on healing. Don’t worry about anything else.”

Xitlaly felt time passing quickly, so she quickly swallowed a high-grade core and joined Truett in healing and seclusion.

At this moment, James contacted Lesia through sound transmission. “Can I kill that upper-grade Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation powerhouse now?”

“No,” responded Lesia decisively.

“Why?” James frowned. “I could already resist Mr. Zared, who was in the lower-grade Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation with my comprehensive combat power when I was in the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank’s Fifth Tribulation...”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6025-“We can’t have a bone to pick this way,” said Lesia lightly. “Your ability to defeat Mr. Zared was purely coincidental. He used his size advantage unjustly, and he lacked righteousness. His guilt prevented him from going all out in front of the living beings in the Timaeus Sect.

“Otherwise, you wouldn’t have stood a chance against him even with your living beings at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Third Tribulation and the peak Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Eighth Tribulation. Forget about using the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell to defeat him.”

Speaking, Lesia sighed again, “Now, you have to face an upper-grade Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation powerhouse alone. This isn’t something luck or coincidence can make up for. It’ll make a big difference.”

“What do you mean?” asked James.

“It’s time to educate you on the divisions within the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank,” said Lesia leisurely. “You’ve passed the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank. So, you’re familiar with the concept of the False Six and Real Three Tribulations.”

“Yes.” James inquired, “Does the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank have a similar concept?”

Just then, Hemera spoke up, “There are False Five, Real Six, and Formidable Seven Tribulations. The differences between grades are invincible, the peak of the Ninth Tribulation is dominant, and the extreme peak Quasi is in a league of its own.”

Hearing this, James looked surprised. “How do you interpret this?”

“Blabbermouth,” snorted Lesia. “Come and explain.”

Hemera had no words to say.

“Don’t mess around,” interrupted James. “Hurry up. This is a matter of life and death.”

Then, Lesia went on to explain the key points one by one.

The concept of False Five, Real Six, and Formidable Seven Tribulations referred to the three key points in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank. These were the Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Tribulations.

Anything below the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Fifth Tribulation was considered the false realm of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank. It was merely a transitional period for surpassing the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank and entering the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank. It did not represent a true powerhouse of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank but rather an outstanding phase in the cultivation of countless living beings.

Breaking through the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Fifth Tribulation marked the true entry into the threshold of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank. Living beings would undergo the baptism of the Genesis Heavenly Tribulation, gain control over time and space, be able to freely manipulate equal Genesis Power of the past, present, and future, and be able to fight together with it. This was equivalent to what James once used—the past, current, and future forms. However, the power was incomparable.

Breaking through the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Sixth Tribulation signified a genuine powerhouse. After enduring the vast Heavenly Tribulation, they could not only manipulate Space Power but also possess the Supernatural Power to control and manipulate countless manifestations of Space Power. The mastery and quantity of controlled Space Power depended on individual talents.

As for powerhouses who reached the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Seventh Tribulation, they were considered at the pinnacle of the pyramid in the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds and the countless Micro Genesis Worlds.

These individuals were considered the true top-tier powerhouses of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank. They were capable of controlling the Genesis Power of multiple universes, and their strength was truly terrifying. Most of them either governed a Micro Genesis World, led a medium-sized Orthodox or sect, or held high positions in a Superorthodox or sect.

As for the grade difference being invincible, it referred to the gap between the lower, middle, upper, and peak grades after reaching the pinnacle of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Seventh Tribulation. It was like a chasm of millions of light-years, far beyond the comparison of realm differences.

To reign at the peak of the Ninth Tribulation was to be dominated. James was well aware of that, even without Lesia's explanation. This group of anomalies was transcendent powerhouses of the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds and the countless Micro Genesis Worlds. They were the most top-tier powerhouses in the known cultivation base so far.

They were renowned in various realms, each controlling a Great Genesis World, an ancient Orthodox, or a super sect. However, James was puzzled when it came to the last statement. It seemed to have been avoided by Lesia without much explanation.

Taking a deep breath, James asked through voice transmission once again, "So, in your estimation, can my current overall combat power contend with a Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Sixth Tribulation powerhouse?"

"Sure." Lesia chuckled. "However, your chance of winning is uncertain because your Supernatural Power is too scattered and chaotic. You can't achieve effective coordinated attacks."

James did not say anything.

Lesia took a deep breath and said, "Yet, what really caught my attention is that formation. I stepped on it and felt its profundity."

"Formation?" James exclaimed, "You can step on it?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6026-"Not only can I, but Hemera and the bird too," said Lesia.

When he heard this, James' eyes lit up. Before entering the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds and the countless Micro Genesis Worlds, the formation was the ultimate skill that combined all Supernatural Power, known as the Tressencia Completare Art.

Even though he had slain Xayal and lost his past and current forms, at least he had displayed remarkable Supernatural Power in the Zephyria World. Back then, his cultivation was too weak. He could not defeat Nando. Instead, he was shattered by the formation. Then, he has not used it since.

Now, he had the Golden Body, the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell, Hemera, the Quasar Lightning, the inheritance of Franciscus' Curse Magic, and Marciais Combat Form. He could seamlessly integrate them into the formation.

James became more excited as he thought about it, and he immediately took action.

The Timaeus Sect's female powerhouse wandered outside the mountain transformed by the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell, a solemn expression on her beautiful face.

She could not understand why James and the others suddenly disappeared here. She wondered if the Mirolos Tracker provided by the Sect Leader was malfunctioning.

Shortly after, the female powerhouses of the Timaeus Sect who had gone to search the surroundings returned one after another. They all came back with nothing.

"This doesn't make sense!" The leading powerhouse furrowed her brows. "We should inform Ms. Rebella to come and take a look."

"Are you blind?" Just then, Rebella's voice came from the void.

The next second, a black shadow flashed, and Rebella appeared in front of them.

"Ms. Rebella." The leading powerhouse hurriedly saluted along with the others.

Rebella snorted coldly, looking at the thick snow-covered mountain in front of her. She raised her hand, and a vast Genesis Power struck out.

With the resounding clang of a bell, the mountain manifested by the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell revealed its true form instantly, forming a huge gray bell.

All the powerhouses trembled simultaneously under this deep and sonorous bell sound. They could never have imagined that such an object existed right in front of them.

“The Yuraeceon Genesis Bell?” The leading female powerhouse exclaimed.

“Forty-nine,” shouted Rebella sharply. “Do you think that I can’t do anything to you if you’re hiding in the Dell?”

“You can try, old witch!”

At this moment, James’ voice came from inside the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

Rebella became furious at being called an “old witch.” She slapped the bell with all her might.

In an instant, the vast and majestic Genesis Power struck the bell, and a strange gray light erupted. Then, the terrifying force rebounded suddenly, instantly sending Rebella and the female powerhouses of the Timaeus Sect flying.

Except for Rebella, the other powerhouses spewed blood one after another, each looking horrified. However, Rebella was even more furious. She struck again with a palm.

Boom!

Another resounding bell sound echoed, and the gray light on the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell surged again. This time, the rebound force was even greater, causing Rebella to fly backward once more.

James burst into laughter inside the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

“Old witch, shatter it if you have the guts. Otherwise, I’ll strip you naked, parade you through the Timaeus Sect, and then scatter your bones and ashes when my Supernatural Power is complete.”

“You’re so cocky!” Rebella’s anger reached its peak. Just as she was about to unleash her full strength, the female powerhouse behind her stopped her.

“This is not the way, Ms. Rebella! The Yuraeceon Genesis Bell is a self preservation artifact left from the previous era. Even the Sect Leader can’t crack it. Forcing it will only backfire.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6027-With her eyes ablaze, Rebella twisted her head. “Can’t we do anything about him?”

“Well, that’s not necessarily a bad thing,” sighed the leading female powerhouse. “The Sect Leader’s order was to trap him on the second layer of the Forladtt Land as much as possible. In other words, the Sect Leader had already anticipated that we couldn’t kill him.

“Even though we can’t kill him, the Galeat Wind here will render him soulless and dispersed once the Teleportation Formation in the Forladtt Land closes.”

Rebella’s anger subsided considerably after hearing the words of the female powerhouse.

Then, she looked at the enormous Yuraeceon Genesis Bell with resentment in her eyes. “What a cunning fox! It’s the greatest regret of my life that I couldn’t kill him.”

“Ms. Rebella.” The leading female powerhouse bowed and said, “Now that we’re at war with the new alliance and lacking a Ninth Tribulation powerhouse, there’s no need for you to stay here. With us present, he can’t escape!”

Upon hearing this, Rebella squinted her eyes gradually. “You’re right. I’ve captured the Young Master of the Yaquis Sect. The Teleportation Formation on the first layer is now accessible, and I’ll bring the Grand Priestess back for the Sect Leader to deal with.

“However, all of you be cautious. This demon is crafty and deceitful. Don’t be fooled by him. I’ll ensure your eternal damnation if any negligence happens.”

The leading female powerhouse bowed in acknowledgment.

As Rebella was about to leave, she suddenly spoke with a cold tone, "To ensure no mistakes, you must not disclose the information that I've left. That way, he'll remain wary."

Finishing her words, she raised her hand, and a massive barrier enveloped the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell. Then, she shouted, "You're such a quitter, Fortynine!"

You truly embarrass 'you know who' from the Dark World.

"You just coil up in this bell. The longer you cower, the longer I'll wait, until your annihilation."

With that, she disappeared in an instant.

Watching the shrewd Rebella, the leading female powerhouse waved her hand, and along with the other powerhouses, they once again surrounded the bell.

At this moment, James remained immersed in the excitement of synthesizing his formation.

The original formation incorporated all the Supernatural Power in the Dark World, but it seemed too weak in comparison to his current opponent.

So, he used his current Genesis Power to strengthen the formation's potency.

Simultaneously, he infused the Quasar Tribulation Clouds and Quasar Lightning, along with flames of various colors in each formation.

After the enhancement of the formation, the mysterious shadow transformed from black to seven-colored, seemingly establishing a telepathic connection with James' mind. Moreover, James integrated Lesia and Hemera into the formation.

With these two top-tier powerhouses on board, he could leverage their strength to defeat his opponent whenever he enacted the formation.

After completing all this, James transmitted a voice to Lesia, "Are you ready for battle?"

"I feel my power is adequate." Lesia chuckled. "Let's have a battle."

James smiled casually and then shouted, “Why are you not making any moves, old witch?”

There was no response.

James rolled his eyes. “Did the old witch run away in anger?”

His Zen suddenly detected traces of Nando. That trash had been caught by Rebella and had already reached the first layer. It seemed like he was about to leave the Forladdt Land.

Well, it was perfect with Rebella absent. He could use these female powerhouses from the Timaeus Sect as practice.

Thinking of this, he waved his hand, and the healing Xitlaly and Truett were stored in the soul space. Then, he stood up slowly.
