

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6031-C The other ladies wanted to stay as well.

James looked at them and nodded. "Very well, then."

Just then, Xatia conjured a huge energy ball in the air. "We should hand over all our possessions since you've become our lord."

The other four ladies produced their energy balls too.

James merely flashed them a smile and walked away.

The ladies had confused looks on their faces as they exchanged glances.

"Is he not interested in these items? Or does he simply not want them?"

"Anyone would be interested in having the items we collected."

"Let's not bother guessing. He can take these things away from us at any time."

With his powers, none of us would be able to prevent that."

"Just put your items back in your storage space. He doesn't want them."

The ladies took back their energy balls and quickly followed behind James.

The second level of Forladtt Land was a cold, snowy place. It was bigger and wider than the first level by many folds.

Countless Yuraeceon Daelm Rank monsters could be found there. Some had even reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Seventh or Eighth Tribulation.

James, Xatia, and the others worked together and killed numerous Yuraeceon Daelm Rank monsters as they explored Forladtt Land's second level. They managed to obtain high-quality cores from the bodies of these monsters.

To everyone's surprise, James would just tell them to keep the cores even when Xatia and the others voluntarily surrendered their share.

After a seemingly long time, their group finally arrived before a tall, majestic tower made of ice.

Those five lady cultivators stared in awe at the shiny, intricately designed megastructure. They could also sense an immense amount of Genesis Aura emanating from the tower.

“I believe this is the Bromeliere Tower.” James frowned slightly. “Xachary was really sneaky. He purposely indicated the wrong direction on the map.”

Xatia dropped her gaze. “For... Master, the Forladtt Map is used with this.”

She took out a shiny energy ball. “This is the Mirolos Tracker. It is one of the treasures owned by the Timaeus Sect. If you have the Forladtt Map, you can check your location through the Mirolos Tracker.” James replied indifferently, “I know.” Xatia’s eyes widened. Then, she held out the energy ball toward James. Still, James did not take the item from her.

He stared at the Bromeliere Tower. “Rumor has it that the Bromeliere Pill is stored at the top of this tower.

“They say one can enhance various aspects of their body and gain new signature skills by eating that pill. I wonder if the rumor is true?”

“It’s true.” Xatia nodded. “However, we don’t have what it takes to defeat the guardian beasts of the Bromeliere Tower.”

James arched his brows. “Guardian beasts?”

“The guardian beasts are two ice dragons.” Xatia narrowed her eyes. “The level of their powers changes according to the challenger’s cultivation. It is the same as the Heavenly Tribulations.”

James fell silent.

That explained why Rebella did not try to conquer the Bromeliere Tower, despite her extraordinary skills and powers.

She would have to go through another experience similar to the Heavenly Tribulation if she had come here.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6032-Are you planning to obtain the treasure from the tower, Master?" Xatia asked curiously.

"I have to give it a try, at the very least!" James looked at the ladies. "All of you are only at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Third Tribulation, so stand back."

Xatia was about to say something when she saw James rush toward the Bromeliere Tower already.

At that very moment, ground shaking and deafening roars could be heard as two gigantic dragons glided out of the tower. Both dragons radiated powerful Genesis Qrohms as they flew toward James.

In a flash, James trapped the ice dragons by conjuring his formations. Within a few seconds, multiple peculiar-looking blocks formed from James' formation surrounded the dragons.

Quasar Lightning fell from the sky and struck the ice dragons the next instant.

Simultaneously, multicolored flame was produced in each of the blocks trapping the dragons.

Under the continuous attacks of lightning and flame, the ice dragons threw their heads back and growled in rage. The dragons curled their bodies as they tried to hold against the attacks.

"Hey! There are dragons here!" Lesia shouted excitedly as she materialized in one of James' formations.

She hopped onto the ice dragon's head and held at its horns firmly.

Hemera followed suit and got atop the other ice dragon's head.

The ice dragons thrashed around and roared furiously as they tried to get rid of Lesia and Hemera who were sitting on their heads. Despite their efforts, those two spirits seemed to be having a lot of fun.

Meanwhile, James generated the Quasar Sword Energy and slowly assumed the form of a huge sword.

However, tribulation clouds started gathering in the sky above James before he was ready. Black lightning bolts rained down on James almost instantaneously.

“Shit!” James cursed, “Why are there black lightning bolts?”

He was struck by five black lightning bolts right after saying that. The attack destroyed the Quasar Sword Energy James had generated.

James’ Golden Body and the Judgment Scythe separated. The Golden Body shone brightly as it got hit by the black lightning bolts repeatedly.

At the same time, the ice dragons, which were carrying Lesia and Hemera respectively, managed to break free from the formations and flew up into the tribulation clouds.

James transmitted his voice to the two spirits, “Lesia! Hemera! Keep those dragons busy! I’m going to get the pill!”

Then, James transformed into a stream of colorful light and shot toward the top of the Bromeliere Tower.

Once he had gotten inside the tower, James spotted a blue bead, which was as big as the size of a fist, floating in mid-air. The bead radiated a beautiful blue light and a tremendous amount of Genesis Power.

James stared at the Bromeliere Pill with rounded eyes. He stretched his hand to grab the pill but was pushed backward by a powerful force.

James swiftly produced the Judgment Scythe and swung it at the formation placed around the Bromeliere Pill. With a loud crash, the formation shattered.

Suddenly, James received a voice transmission from Lesia. “Hurry up! We can’t hold on for much longer. These dragons are aggressive!”

James quickly took the Bromeliere Pill and teleported out of the tower. He reappeared outside within his formation.

Just then, those two ice dragons let out a deep roar. James’ formation was instantly shattered.

Then, the ice dragons transformed into two black lightning bolts and came down on James.

“What the hell? They’re seriously trying to get back at me!”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6033-James shouted those words frantically. To his horror, he found that he could not move at all.

Boom! Boom!

It was finally quiet again after the sounds of the explosions died down.

In a far corner, Xatia and the others stared at the scene before them with their jaws dropped.

“Oh no! Master was struck by the lightning bolts produced from the Heavenly Tribulation!”

The group of them teleported and reemerged next to James, who was lying on the ground near the Bromeliere Tower.

James’ body was burnt all over. Almost half of his Golden Body was destroyed.

In addition, James was twitching and jerking as some black electricity flowed through his body.

“He has the Golden Body.” One of the ladies covered her mouth as she exclaimed, “Those ice dragons must be very powerful to be able to deal so much damage to him.”

“It would have been nice if he had been exterminated.” A lady in a black robe smiled coldly. “That way, the curses placed on us might be lifted as well.”

The lady in the blue robe scoffed. “That’s unlikely to happen. There are various types of curse magic. This man received you know who’s legacy. That man was the best at the art of curse magic. There’s no way the curse placed on us can be lifted so easily.”

“Why don’t we kill him now?” A lady in a white robe suggested, “With him gone, it wouldn’t matter if we still had the curse tied to our bodies.

“Also, I saw that he took the Bromeliere Pill. We can take his belongings once he’s dead. We might be able to use those items to get back to the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Sixth Tribulation.”

There was a sudden silence as the ladies exchanged glances after hearing those words.

Xatia looked at the lady in the white robe. "Have you lost your mind, Rosalia?"

"I am perfectly sane," Rosalia Bertholl said in a frigid tone, "Do you want to spend the rest of your life being ordered around by a demon-like man, Xatia?"

Xatia refuted immediately, "He didn't force us to stay! All of you chose to stay of your own accord!"

"We had no other choice." Rosalia snorted. "He would've undone the curse if he truly wanted to spare us."

The lady in the black robe added, "That's right! He was trying to test us"

"He would surely activate the curse magic if we chose to leave. These devious people from the Dark World are all cunning and shameless. Killing him is our best option now!"

"She's right. We can kill him now since he's weakened," the lady in the blue robe said, "We can have all his items. Mr. Thornton will also reward us handsomely when we return to the Timaeus Sect."

Xatia had a look of disbelief on her face. "Rosalia, Yenna, Xandrie... I never thought you guys would be so selfish.

"Have you forgotten how Master saved you all when you were almost killed by a Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation monster?"

"He let us keep the cores we've collected ourselves. Furthermore, he never treated us like slaves, yet you plan to kill him now? Does it not sting your conscience at all?"

"My conscience?" Rosalia grinned contemptuously. "We kill these savages from the Dark World whenever we get the chance! Why would it hurt my conscience to do that?"

As she was saying that, Rosalia conjured her sword.

The ladies in the blue and black robes produced their weapons too.

On the other hand, Xatia teleported and reappeared before James' form to shield him from the three ladies.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6034-Rosalia and the others laughed scornfully as they glanced at Xatia. "Xatia, do you think that you still have the powers of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Sixth Tribulation? You shouldn't forget that you are the same as us now." "That's right. Don't act as if you're superior to us. We are all on the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Third Tribulation now." "Do you think you stand a chance against the three of us coming at you at the same time? Do you want to die alongside that devil from the Dark World?" Xatia narrowed her eyes. Then, she cast her gaze at the only person who had joined these people too?" Bromeliere Pill that he's just acquired. Don't you want to have his treasures differentiate between light and darkness?" unhurriedly, "I don't care whether he is from the Dark World or the Auroral World. He helped me, so I should return the favor as well." whip. "You'll have to kill me first if you plan on harming him." Rosalia, Yenna, and Xandrie had grim expressions on their faces. "In that case, we'll kill you two right now!" Rosalia raged. Although all of them were Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Third Tribulation cultivators, on the more disadvantaged side. Boom! As an explosion went off, those five ladies backed away and stood far away from each other. "Hahaha!" Rosalia laughed. "You can't use your best skill now, Xatia. Let's see how well you can hold up in this condition." injuries. They would not be able to last long if the battle dragged on. white light. voice, "I always make sure to repay those..." Suddenly, Rosalia and her comrades, who were standing with their chins out at first, fell onto the ground and cried in pain. his feet again. A dark cloud floated above his head. James' Golden Body was fully restored, and it emanated a purplish gold glow. "It's not going to be easy for you to repay me for my help." James slowly stepped forward. With each step he took, James' Qrohms seemed to change. James' Qrohms felt different than how it was earlier. It was as if he had acquired a new skill to boost his Qrohms. Xatia's eyes bulged with shock. "He ate the Bromeliere Pill. The pill restored and even upgraded his Golden Body!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6035-With his hands on his back, he looked at the ladies groaning on the ground.

"What a shame. You didn't even make it past the first test."

Those words reminded them about the fact that James was fully capable of activating the curse magic and killing all of them despite his weakened state just now.

Yet, James did not do that as he wanted to see what everyone would do...

James raised his hand. At that moment, Rosalia was pulled toward James due to his powers.

As James grabbed onto Rosalia's head, a cloud of colorful Genesis Power flowed from James' hand and enveloped Rosalia's body. All of Rosalia's Genesis Power was channeled to James' body the next instant.

"Let's do two at the same time." James drew Xandrie closer by using the same method. Then, he absorbed both ladies' Genesis Power simultaneously.

Yenna who just regained consciousness could hear the ladies' shrill screaming.

She quickly slammed her head on the ground repeatedly to ask for James' forgiveness.

Yenna knew very well that it would be her next once James was done with those two. She did not want to lose all her cultivation. It would be a situation worse than dying itself.

Unfortunately, as soon as James had taken all of Rosalia's powers, he caught hold of Yenna too.

After absorbing the Genesis Powers from those three ladies, James' body was shining with a myriad of colors. He even managed to advance to the peak of Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Fifth Tribulation.

Those ladies hurriedly took a few steps backward in fright.

To their surprise, James held out two Calidum Spiritual Fruits.

"Calidum Spiritual Fruits?!" Xatia exclaimed.

"You can have one each." James said, "I took away part of your powers. I'm returning some of the power to you with this. You'll have to work on getting back to your original cultivation ranks on your own."

the fruits.

"Thank you, Master." Both of them swallowed the Calidum Spiritual Fruits after saying that.

and Xatia were delighted as they could detect how their Qrohms had increased.

James helped them up. He said flatly, “I need to conduct a closed-door meditation after having the Bromeliere Pill. You two should prepare yourselves.

We are heading to the third level soon.”

Xatia shook her head. “Master, the third level may be even more dangerous than the second level. Are you sure you want to go there?”

“They sent Rebella to the second level previously.” James snickered, “I wonder if they’ll send a Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation cultivator at the peak of their powers into the third level.”

Rank’s Ninth Tribulation would risk losing their cultivation like this.”

cultivators into the Forladtt Land by using the Genesis Sealing Pills and Essence Genesis Elixir. However, the Timaetus Sect sent us here through the Huppentine Passage.”

“The Huppentine Passage?” James furrowed his brows. “Where is it located?”

“The Daemon Prison,” Xatia responded.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6036-James could not help but feel wary at the mention of the Daemon Prison.

James managed to learn some information about the Daemon Prison.

The Daemon Prison was formed from four smaller Genesis Regions, which were the Hudde Region, Fiachra Region, Porfirrio Region, and Shadrach Region.

Each region consisted of billions of universes and was inhabited by hundreds of trillions of Dark World’s beings.

A Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation cultivator of the upper grade was appointed to oversee things in these regions.

Apart from that, Rebella was the guardian of the Hudde Region. She was also one of the eight best fighters serving under Lyla.

However, the Hudde Region was not exactly used to detain the Dark World's beings.

Instead, it was a place where countless passages called Hudde Passages could be found. These passages connected the Daemon Prison to various worlds and realms.

The Huppentine Passage was one of these Hudde Passages, and it was a shortcut to the second level of the Forladdt Land.

However, the Huppentine Passage was filled with various unexpected things and dangers. One could encounter ancient seals and inscriptions, the souls of dead cultivators, and deadly, rough winds in there. They could easily get killed.

Still, Rebella managed to lead a big group of Yuraeceon Daelm Rank cultivators through the Huppentine Passage by using the Timaeus Sect's secret art. Also, they had received some of Lyla's Genesis Divine Light for protection.

Nevertheless, they lost more than forty cultivators while going through the passage.

James could not help but be amazed by how the Timaeus Sect was so determined to eliminate him. They were even willing to sacrifice so many of their men.

After a brief pause, James asked, "Aside from Rebella, what is the highest cultivation rank among your group's cultivators that have entered here?"

"We don't know for sure." Xatia looked at James. "As far as I know, Elder Lyla had two Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation cultivators lead two groups of cultivators in and below the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eighth Tribulation separately.

"Although Rebella got here successfully, we had no idea if the other leader had made it through the Huppentine Passage safely."

After a few moment's consideration, James lifted his hand and conjured the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell. The bell was large enough to cover all three of them.

Then, it transformed into a mountain.

how quickly time was moving within the time formation.

"Let's train for the time being. Once I've enhanced my Golden Body, we'll move to the third level." James sat down and closed his eyes.

closed-door meditations.

Meanwhile, James checked on Xitlaly and Truett in his soul space.

Both of them were almost fully recovered. The injuries on Truett's body were mostly gone.

In a corner to the southeast, the transplanted Calidum Spiritual Tree had yet to produce any blooms. However, it was gradually showing signs of flourishing again.

Lesia, who seemed like a two-year-old toddler, sat in a swing tied to one of the tree branches. Hemera was pushing her from behind, and both of them appeared to be having a lot of fun.

To James' surprise, he could see a magnificent ice tower in a corner of the soul space. Two ice dragons were flying above it. Black electricity ran up and down their bodies.

He did not expect that the treasure from Forladtt Land's second level had assimilated into his soul space so quickly.

The ice dragons were the manifestation of the Heavenly Tribulation that produced the black lightning bolts. This lightning could even damage the Genesis Golden Body.

James could not help but wonder if it meant he had control of the Heavenly Tribulations by having these things now.

He conjured his formation. Then, James transformed the Bromeliere Tower to form the sealing barrier of his formation. After that, he moved the ice dragons into the formation.

In an instant, James could sense a tremendous amount of Qrohms radiating from the formation

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6037-In the air, Quasar Lightning and black lightning bolts were produced from the tribulation clouds. A total of eight colors could be observed in the lightning bolts produced.

On the ground, the multicolored flame was burning bigger and brighter than before.

If James were to transform the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell and add another protective barrier over the formation, even upper-grade Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation cultivator would not be able to break through his formation.

James called out to Lesia and Hemera, "You guys, stop playing for a minute. Get inside the formation."

In a flash, Lesia and Hemera appeared in the formation and transformed into two balls of light. They flew around the formation a few times.

"Mhm. The combination of this formation is pretty decent." Lesia said approvingly, "With this, Hemera and I can unleash twenty percent of our powers and kill Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Sixth Tribulation cultivators."

"What about those of the Seventh Tribulation?" James frowned slightly.

"Those guys' powers are on another level." Lesia had assumed her original form. She said, "Also, you should study the Amethyst Golden Body and figure out how to arrange it for optimum effect.

Otherwise, it would be a waste of that skill."

James' brows lifted. "We need to arrange it?"

Lesia replied, "The newly upgraded Golden Body might not be the same as the original Golden Body.

You need to arrange it to suit your battle tactics and habits."

James undid the formation after listening to Lesia's advice. Then, he turned all of his attention to the Amethyst Golden Body.

With his Zen, James rearranged the Golden Body and Golden Bones accordingly by prioritizing the areas that needed protection or reinforcement. He also added signature skills to certain spots.

James' careful consideration was fruitful as his Amethyst Golden Body soon achieved the third rank of the Golden Body.

At his current level of powers, James could instantly kill Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Sixth Tribulation cultivators and hold up well against Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Seventh Tribulation cultivators.

After a long time had passed, James finally opened his eyes.

A purplish gold light flashed across his eyes.

An immense amount of Qrohm emanated from James' Amethyst Golden Body, and he was surrounded by lightning of eight different colors. Amongst them, the black-colored lightning was distinctly more powerful.

"How's your progress?" "I'm at the middle-grade Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Fifth Tribulation," Xatia responded.

Rank's Fifth Tribulation."

"It's time we head to the third level." James' eyes narrowed.

Xatia reminded him, "Master, there's not much time left until the Forladtt Teleportation Formation is officially closed. If we were stuck on the third level by then..."

"We have to go, regardless. The Timaeus Sect prepared this trap specifically for me, after all," James interrupted.

James produced the Forladtt Map and checked for the location of the teleportation formation to get to the third level.

Then, he undid the time formation and put away the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

The three of them got to their feet.

James stretched out his arms and unleashed the Amethyst Golden Body. In a flash, he transformed into a giant with a golden body of more than ten thousand meters tall.

tremendous amount of aura from him.

Then, James picked the two of them up with his hand and vanished from the spot.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6038-Numerous cultivators had gathered inside the Timaeus Sect's headquarters' main hall.

Those people included the leaders of the Seven Mounts, the elders of the Timaeus Sect, and top cultivators serving in different territories. All these men were cultivators in and above the peak of Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eighth Tribulation.

Meanwhile, their leader, Xachary, sat in a golden chair on the podium. His gaze drifted across the faces before him slowly.

A heavy silence hung in the air as everyone had solemn expressions on their faces.

Just then, a man came into the hall and knelt before Xachary.

"Mr. Xachary, Ms. Lyla led our army and defeated three Great Genesis Worlds!

They are the Donuphrius, Torr, and Jhiyesa Genesis Worlds. Just now, our men have also conquered the Divine Genesis World.

"Our men killed two cultivators at the peak of Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation, eight uppergrade Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation cultivators, and eighty-seven middle-grade and lower- grade Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation cultivators.

"We've also exterminated countless Yuraeceon Daelm Rank and Xaelm Rank cultivators. The Podalric Sect, Jhiyesa Sect, and Torr Sect have surrendered as well."

There was a small commotion as the people listened to the reports.

Xachary stood up and laughed. "Lyla did a great job!"

At that moment, another man came in and got down on one knee. "Mr.

Gladwin's troops succeeded in defeating the army of the new alliance at the Javerigh Sect.

"They've killed three cultivators at the peak of Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation and fifteen Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation cultivators.

The Yaquis Sect has ordered the new alliance's army to retreat."

Xachary threw back his head and let out a hearty laugh.

"Yaquis Holiness tried to take down the Javerigh Sect by a sneak attack but failed!"

A brief moment later, a lady in a black dress walked into the main hall. She was dragging a young man with her.

The young man appeared weak and defenseless.

The lady stopped before Xachary. "Greetings, Mr. Xachary."

Xachary frowned slightly as he looked at Rebella. "You're back?"

"I am here because of him." Rebella lifted the man higher by his collar.

Xachary's gaze fell on the man's face. A few seconds later, he widened his eyes and rushed down the steps.

"He's... He's Nando, Yaquis Holiness' only son!"

The other cultivators were surprised to hear Nando's name.

"She caught Nando Brown?"

"Nando is Yaquis' weakness. With him as our hostage, we'll be able to get the Yaquis Sect to submit to us!"

"It seems we can end this battle soon."

“Rebella has done a brilliant job this time. As expected of Mr. Xachary’s disciple!”

Xachary helped Rebella up. Then, he took a glance at the other members. “All of you can head back now. You must make sure to keep tight security in your respective territories. Those who fail to do that will be punished severely

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6039-The Timaeus Sect’s members walked out of the main hall soon.

Once they were left alone, Xachary fixed his gaze on Rebella. “You have done well by capturing Nando. However, how could you let that man from the Dark World get away?!”

Rebella flinched and got down on her knees. “Master, I didn’t let that man get away. We’ve trapped him on the second level of Forladtt Land.”

Xachary knitted his brows. “Without you there, would your subordinates be able to keep him detained in that place?”

“He’s sustained serious injuries.” Rebella’s face was pale. “The Forladtt Teleportation Formation would probably be closed by the time he had healed his injuries.”

Xachary lifted his arm and slapped Rebella across the face forcefully. The lady dropped to the floor.

“What did Lyla tell you before she left?” Xachary hissed, “Keeping the man from the Dark World trapped is as equally important as our war against the other Genesis Worlds.

“Yet, you came back just because you captured Nando Brown?!”

Blood oozed from the corner of Rebella’s mouth. She straightened herself a little.

“Master, I didn’t return just to bring Nando here...”

“What is it then?” Xachary fumed.

"It's the priestess!" Rebella raised her head. "She had somehow managed to master the Heavenly Path Power already!"

The frown on Xachary's forehead grew deeper. "How is that possible?"

Rebella drew a long breath. "It's true. I had the chance to kill that man back in the Forladtt Land's second level. However, the Priestess unleashed the Heavenly Path Power and trapped me momentarily. The man from the Dark World used the opportunity to sneak away."

Xachary grabbed at the collar of Rebella's dress. "Did the girl run away with that man?"

"No." Rebella shook her head.

"Her powers and cultivation were below mine. I managed to break free from the Heavenly Path Power holding me down, and the Priestess was affected by the powers that were deflected.

"She is unconscious, and I've brought her back to our headquarters."

"This is somewhat good news for us." Xachary turned around and placed his hands on his back. "Someone, relay my message right now!"

A man rushed into the hall the next instant.

"Head to the front lines immediately." Xachary began once the man stopped before him, "Tell Mr.

Gladwin and Ms. Lyla to halt all battle operations and return to the headquarters.

I have important missions for them."

The man bowed and hurried out of the hall.

Rebella stood up and walked over to Xachary. "Master, is the mission about the Priestess' having mastered the Heavenly Path Power?"

"That's none of your business." Xachary cast her a stony gaze. "You should return to the Forladtt Land and make sure to keep the man from the Dark World trapped there."

Rebella had a look of confusion on her face. "Master, it would be dangerous in the Forladtt Land once the teleportation formation closes. I might even be killed by the blustery winds created..."

"You're worried that you'll lose your life due to the winds." Xachary said monotonously, "Aren't you worried that I may decide to end you myself?"

Rebella's eyes bulged with shock.

She did not expect that Xachary would readily choose to sacrifice her just because he wanted the man from the Dark World dead.

Rebella closed her eyes briefly and inhaled deeply. "There's a Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation cultivator on the third level."

"I'm telling you to go, not that person." Xachary said in a low voice, "Are you going or not?"

Rebella's heart sank as she could detect Xachary's murderous intent. She let out a sigh and nodded. "I'll go now."

She started walking toward the door.

Xachary warned, "Don't try to wiggle your way out of this, or you can consider yourself banished from the Timaeus Sect."

"Yes," Rebella answered quietly before she walked out of the hall.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6040-The third level of the Forladtt Land was a world of water.

The land here was made up of numerous oceans, where all beings and monsters could be found. These beings could only live underwater.

After arriving in this realm, James could sense how his speed and powers had been suppressed considerably.

Moreover, the three of them ran into four Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation monsters right after they had reached that level.

They managed to exterminate all four monsters eventually. Unfortunately, Xatia At the moment, the three of them were hiding inside the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell, which had been transformed into a tall mountain.

Various high-ranking monsters swam around the mountain. Their roars and cries could be heard hundreds of meters away.

Xatia turned her eyes to James. "Master, those monsters outside are on the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth or Eighth Tribulations. We're trapped. What should we do now?"

"These monsters are the least of my worries." James' eyes narrowed. "I am more concerned about the lower-grade Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation cultivator from the Timaeus Sect."

"We haven't detected that cultivator's presence so far, though."

"He's closer than you think." James sat down on the ground.

Xatia's brows lifted. "Master, are you saying that the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation cultivator is controlling all these monsters gathered outside?"

"You're pretty quick-witted." James sent a glance in Xatia's direction.

though. Can someone really control them?"

"Beast tamers can." Xatia continued, "The Timaeus Sect has a beast tamer at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation. That person can control monsters."

"Think about it," James said, "We killed those four Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation monsters, but we couldn't find any of their Genesis Cores."

If there were no Genesis Cores in those monsters they killed earlier, the most plausible explanation for that was someone had acquired the cores beforehand.

Beast tamers were the only people who could achieve something like that.

Rank's Ninth Tribulation monsters under normal circumstances. Yet, they had only suffered non-lethal injuries during the earlier battle.

"We'll wait. Our help is coming soon." James smiled enigmatically.

“Help?” Xatia asked curiously, “How are we getting help in the Forladtt Land?”

At that very moment, deafening sounds of explosions came from outside the mountain.

The three of them could also hear the desperate cries and screeches of the monsters.

either killed or badly wounded.

Just then, a dark form emanating a powerful aura materialized in the distance.
