

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6051-The two mysterious men asked, “Why not?”

James replied firmly, “I made the decision, so why should I regret it?”

The two men looked at each other after hearing his answer.

The white-robed man frowned and said, “Lesia’s your second body, and her mission is to help you with her life. It’s her destiny, so why did you try to change it?”

James said slowly, “She has a soul and consciousness. I’ve spent time with her, and she provided me with a lot of help. We practically share a life. If I had to sacrifice her to obtain a treasure, reaching the Daeclon Rank is pointless.”

The white-robed man looked at the black-robed man with a surprised expression.

The black-robed man stared at James and said, “If you reach the Daeclon Rank, you can control anyone. You’ll have all the power in your hands and can make the rules. Everyone else will be ants under your feet.

James looked at them smilingly, “You two were reciting some poetic stuff just now. Then, how about I give it a go?”

“The heavens are fair and just. It treats no man better than the other.

The two men were surprised by his answer, and their gaze immediately became sharp.

James took a deep breath and said, “If the one who reigns above can’t uphold equality and did as pleased, then what’s the point of the Daeclon Rank’s existence?”

The two men fell silently.

James looked at them and said smilingly, “Along my cultivation journey, I’ve gained some insight. I sometimes ask myself, why do I cultivate?”

“Is it to achieve immortality? Is it to fulfill my ambitions or acquire great boons?

Or is it so that I can reach great heights in my cultivation rank?

“Perhaps other living beings have their reasons and purposes for cultivating.

However, in my opinion, those who practice with a motive can’t aspire to reach the highest levels of cultivation. Even if they were to reach the top, it would be a catastrophe for the other living beings.”

The black-robed man looked at his friend. Then, he looked back at James, asking, “Then, what is your purpose?”

James replied smilingly, “I’m just a mortal from earth. I ended up in my current situation because I’m trying to find my wife. I was forced to take this path and eventually arrived where I am right now.

“Being on top isn’t as important as my family. As for why I cultivate, it’s purely because I need to protect myself, and the enemies preventing me from finding my wife are too strong.”

After hearing his answer, the white-robed man laughed and said, “You’re quite honest.”

“If you were to reach the top and could make the rules, how would you do it?”

The black-robed man stared at James.

James refuted his question, saying, “Why do we need rules? Every being is different and has its own destiny. I’ll let nature take its course.”

The white-robed man asked, “Then how would you distinguish good and bad?

Are you going to completely forsake morales?”

James asked, “If no evil exists, how can there be good? Who can truly decide what’s good and what’s bad?”

The two men gasped, surprised by James’ words.

After a while, the creature in the white robe said sentimentally, “Do you know why Master let us go?”

The man in the black robe sighed, "As long as we have desires, we'll never reach the greatest heights in cultivation.

The white-robed man looked at James, then sighed softly, "Let's fulfill our master's wish."

After speaking, the white-robed man raised his hand, and a powerful force swept over the gray fishes in the keepnet.

At the same time, the black-robed man did the same with the black fish.

The black and gray fishes formed into a human shape in the void. The two men used their powers to form a black and gray skeletal body.

The moment the human skeleton was completed, two majestic forces burst out.

James could feel the black force belonged to the Marciais Combat Form, whereas the gray was Historial Power.

After the skeleton was formed, it floated in the void, emitting a majestic golden light.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6052-The black-robed and white-robed man exchanged glances, then unleashed their Historial Power and Marciais Combat Form's power into the golden skeleton.

Their bodies slowly began to become translucent.

Shocked, James exclaimed, "What is—"

The two men ignored him and focused on completing the skeleton in the void.

After they were done, they sat down in the void.

James looked at them dumbfoundedly. When he was about to speak, the white-robed man said, "This Nirvana Golden Skeleton was specially made for you, kid.

We've fulfilled our owner's wish. As for your destroyed Golden Body, you must head to the fourth level to see those two old men.

The black-robed man said weakly, “Your Quasar Golden Body is made with the power of the Marciais Combat Form and Historial Power. It’s up to you now to learn how to control these two powers.”

James wanted to speak but was interrupted again.

“The Dense gray clouds and the chimes of ten thousand bells. The Marciais Combat Form that surpasses Genesis Power.”

“Golden bones and a body emitting colorful light rays. Pure cultivation power and great achievements in the Daeclon Rank.”

Suddenly, one gray and another black force erupted. The forces wrapped around James’ spectral body and pulled him toward the bones in the void.

In an instant, the dazzling golden light passed through the void.

James opened his eyes and found that he possessed the golden skeleton. He had no flesh, and it seemed a little creepy. However, James could feel a powerful force under his control.

He raised his head to where the two men were just moments ago and shouted, “Thank you!!!”

The next moment, he entered the Aquasoul and was besieged by countless high-level monsters. He raised his hand and bravely took them on.

Seeing the high-grade cores appearing from the dead monsters, James quickly reached out to pocket them.

Rumble!

A huge explosion happened within the Aquasoul. Shortly after, James emerged and soared into the sky.

A monster came out!”

Everyone inside the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell saw a golden skeleton rushing for the golden palace in the distance.

One black and one gray force poured into the huge sword. James grabbed the sword, and a powerful Qrohms burst out from him.

“Oh my god! Did he obtain treasure in the Forladtt Land’s third level?”

Xatia asked hurriedly, “Do you think that’s master?”

Hemera sneered, “You’re so dumb. If your Natal Divine Master were dead, you wouldn’t be able to be standing here safely. Don’t forget that hundreds of thousands of curses are inside your body.”

Rebella cast a glance at Hemera, afraid to speak.

Abelard sighed, “I really hope he comes back. He’d definitely look after us if he obtains the treasure.”

At that moment, a loud rumble resounded outside of the bell.

The group scanned the area and saw the golden skeleton slashing the Aquasoul with the giant sword.

A dazzling golden Sword Light struck the waters, and countless high-level monsters exploded instantly. Then, countless high-grade cores flew into the air.

Everyone within the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell was shocked by the sight.
