The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6053-"The Galeat Wind is gone! Come over and pick the treasure!"

The voice suddenly shocked everyone who had shelter within the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

Immediately afterward, the bell and Hemera instantly disappeared.

Xatia suddenly shouted, "It's Master! It's him!"

Xitlaly also called out, "Is that you, James?"

Truett, who was depressed seconds ago, suddenly regained his energy and rushed out.

At that moment, numerous cores were flying all over the sky. They were quickly gathered by a black force and brought to the group.

Seeing Truett and the others quickly collecting the cores, Rebella and Abelard stood in place with their jaws dropped.

They did not expect James to return from the dead after falling into the Aquasoul. The most shocking part was that he had obtained the treasure of the Forladtt Land's third level so fast.

Rebella sighed, saying, "That guy is insane!"

Abelard quickly reminded her, "You better put away those unrealistic ideas of yours. If he notices, you're good as dead."

Rebella snorted, then rushed over to grab some cores.

Abelard frowned and hurriedly followed behind her.

The group quickly moved through the sky and pocketed the cores.

Meanwhile, James landed on the shore with a flash. He raised the golden sword in his hand and smiled satisfiedly.

“This is indeed a real treasure. It’s much easier to use than the Judgement Scythe.”

“James!!!” At that moment, Truett rushed over and embraced James.

Everyone was excited to see James.

James smiled helplessly and said, “Hey, hey. I’m still a skeleton right now. Let’s save this until I gain a physical body.”

Truett, who was holding him, came to the sudden realization. Then, he hurriedly backed away in fear.

“Was your Golden Body destroyed?”

Hearing this, Xitlaly also asked, “Is that true?”

James smiled and raised his skeletal hand, saying, “A Golden Body is nothing to cry about. I really want to fight with someone at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation.”

While speaking, James raised his hand, and he unleashed a black force at Rebella.

Rebella’s face turned pale in the face of the Marcias Combat Form’s power.

“James, you...”

Before she could finish speaking, her Genesis Divine Light was instantly destroyed.

Rebella was knocked away by the force and slammed into a mountain. Blood immediately flowed from her lips.

Everyone was shocked by the sight. None of them expected James to attack Rebella right after coming out of the Aquasoul.

Rebella could not react to defend herself. She might have been too afraid to even fight back.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6054-James raised the golden sword and said, “Not bad. I can break the Divine Genesis Light of a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s upper grade.”

“Let’s try it again, Rebella.”

Rebella hurriedly flew to a mountaintop and said, “No! If you try it again, I will fight—” Before Rebella could finish speaking, James had already slashed out the golden sword, A majestic golden Sword Energy charged at the mountain.

Boom!

Rebella leaped into the air, avoiding the attack. The mountain where she had been seconds ago was sliced in half and collapsed, causing gravel to billow into the air.

James quickly jumped into the air with the giant sword and charged at Rebella.

Rebella did not back down this time. She activated her Divine Genesis and summoned her Genesis.

Then, she engaged in combat with James.

Their Genesis confronted in the void. A multicolored light and grey force raged in the air, destroying the surroundings within tens of thousands of kilometers.

Truett and the others retreated to a safe area and watched in shock.

Xatia was the most surprised out of them. Her beautiful eyes widened as she murmured, “He’s only at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Fifth Tribulation, but he’s fighting against an opponent at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation upper grade? Am I seeing things?”

Truett also said surprisedly, “He became so strong after gaining that skeleton form.”

Xitlaly said proudly, “He never disappoints! Back in the Zephyria World, he was only at the Yuraecon First Rank, but he killed the Igneous that was at the Yuraeceon Xaelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation?”

Abelard, however, had a different opinion. He squinted and said, “You guys think too highly of him. After reaching the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Sixth

Tribulation, even the most talented cultivator would find it hard to fight an opponent of a higher rank.

“Rebella was already severely injured after being in the Galeat Wind for so long.

Her body was almost destroyed. She still hasn’t recovered. Although she is a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation upper-grade, the strength she’s using right now is at most at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Seventh Tribulation.”

Truett turned his head and said, “Even though she’s only at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Seventh Tribulation, he’s still fighting someone two ranks higher than him.”

Xatia chipped in, saying, “It’s not two ranks, but eighth sub-ranks. He’s at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Sixth Tribulation and is at the fourth sub-rank.

Meanwhile, she’s at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Seventh Tribulation and is at the fourth sub-rank.”

Fifth Tribulation to be able to take on an opponent who is eighth sub-ranks higher is simply unheard of. Even that demon from the Dark World could only fight someone four sub-ranks higher than himself at most. But still, he took down many powerhouses.

Abelard commented, “He’s a catastrophe to the Genesis Worlds. It seems another big catastrophe is about to befall us.”

While the group chattered, James and Rubelle fought intensely in the void. The two were pushed away by the explosion caused by the confrontation of their powers.

Countless cracks spread out in the void, and the surrounding mountains collapsed. The grounds trembled, and the skies were dim like doomsday.

Rebelle fell to the ground and stared at James in disbelief. Shortly after, she raised her hand to her chest and spat out a mouthful of blood. Her other hand quickly supported her weight while kneeling on one knee. “Impossible! This is outrageous. Even though I’m severely injured, I still have the strength of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Seventh Tribulation. You’re eight sub-ranks weaker than me, so how could you have defeated me?”

James raised the golden sword and snorted, "You're only at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Seventh Tribulation, but have the arrogance of someone at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation's upper grade."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6055-"You're injured, but I don't have a complete body right now."

Rebelle looked at James furiously. She gritted her teeth and said, "Even if you have a complete body or Golden Body, you won't be able to challenge me when I'm in my prime. I have no opponent below the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation's upper grade."

James said coldly, "That was in the past. I can fight someone at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eighth Tribulation while only at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Fifth Tribulation. Imagine what I could do if I reach the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Sixth or Seventh Tribulation."

Rubella trembled at the thought. She was scared to even think about it because she had also experienced the era in which Franciscus dominated.

Franciscus was a demon from the Dark World who had superb Curse Magic and the Marciais Combat Form. He could dominate the Genesis Worlds and trample everyone below his feet.

Those below the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eighth Tribulation were mere ants before him. Even powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation were nothing to him, and he killed many of them.

Now, James had appeared. He was also from the Dark World and was stronger than Franciscus in terms of talent and combat strength. Once he reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation, he would be a threat to the Genesis Worlds.

By then, even if senior powerhouses might not be able to deal with him.

James stared at Rebella and asked, "Do you surrender?"

Rubella raised her head, took a deep breath, and said, "I've already signed a soul contract, and you can already control me. What difference does it make?"

James replied calmly, "Of course, there's a difference. If I had to control you, it'd be against your will. I'm asking you to surrender to me, as it'll determine whether six or seven people are moving to Forladdt Land's fourth level."

His words had hints of threats.

Rebella stared at him and asked, "If I refuse, will you kill me?"

James nodded and said, "Yes. The Forladdt Land's fourth level is uncharted territory. Those who had ventured there never made it out alive. We'll be traveling through a dangerous and unpredictable place.

I won't allow anyone with second thoughts to come with us."

Rebella shouted, "Why me?! Has Abelard surrendered to you?"

"It's impossible for him to reach the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation anytime soon. You, on the other hand, might be able to."

Rebella's heart pounded, and her face was full of shock.

'The Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation?

'That's a rank that countless cultivators could only dream of. How could a mere weakling at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Fifth Tribulation help me reach such heights?' Truett and the others descended from the void and then gathered behind James.

Xitlaly pointed at Rebella and shouted, "This woman tried to kill us when you fell into the Aquasoul."

dead."

Truett said coldly, "Kill her! Keeping her alive will pose a future threat."

After listening to everyone, James took a deep breath and said, "What do you guys say, Xatia, Abelard?"

The two glanced at each other and opened their mouths. However, they were unsure of what to say.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6056-Rebella looked at Xatia and Abelard nervously as if they were judges who could decide her life or death.

After all, she was cursed by James and signed a soul contract. With just a thought, James could kill her. However, James was hesitant about it.

Abelard suddenly bowed to James, clasped his hands, and said, "She's the strongest amongst us, Master. Keeping her with us will definitely be useful when we enter the Forladtt Land's fourth level."

Truett looked at Abelard and said, "You're a good guy, huh? Then, if a situation like this happens again, we'll just have to die?"

Xatia suddenly said, "Can I have a private conversation with her first, Master?"

Everyone was stunned by her request.

James looked at her for a while, then nodded lightly.

Xatia's tensed heart was finally relieved. She walked forward, picked Rebella up from the ground, and disappeared in a flash.

Truett stared at James and said, "You should've just killed her. Why are you wasting time?"

"Two reasons." James turned around and said, "First, we need to go to the Forladtt Land's Fourth Level. It's a perilous and unpredictable place. We'll have a greater chance of surviving with a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation."

Everyone exchanged shocked gazes.

James waved his hand to interrupt her and said, "If my strength can defeat a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation, then I would not have to do this.

"I tested Rebella just now. Even though I've got a new skeleton, I can only fight someone at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eighth Tribulation's lower grade. Even if I regain my Golden Body, the strongest I can take on is someone at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eighth Tribulation. What will I do if we encounter another opponent at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation?"

After hearing this, the group exchanged confused glances. None of them had expected James to have such consideration.

For a moment, everyone fell silent.

Rebella and Xatia stood silently in a certain ruin of the third level of the Forladtt Land.

After a while, Xatia said, "You're still so arrogant."

Rubella raised her head and said, "I'm not." Xatia stared at her, saying, "Well then, is it because of your pride? A powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation is being humiliated and controlled by a cultivator only at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Fifth Rank.

"Have you ever thought about this? With his strength, how could you only think of him as an ordinary cultivator at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Fifth Rank?"

Rebella frowned and asked, "Is that why you're so devoted to him?"

Xatia replied, "Not really. At first, it was because of his soul interrogation.

However, later on, I got to know him gradually.

"Throughout my life, no powerhouses have bothered with my life and death in the face of danger. However, he, whom we call a demon, cared about me.

"Whether he's faking it to win over our hearts and take advantage of us, at least he stood up for me when I was in danger."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6057-Xatia looked at Rebella and said, "I've been in the Timaeus Sect for quite a long time. Although my cultivation base is far inferior to you, I've seen how you rose and became one of the strongest. But then I watched you fall into your current situation.

"Our sect leader taught us to punish evil and reward good. He said that good can't exist with evil. Yet, when it's about his interest, he would sacrifice anyone.

He sacrificed my master and now wants to sacrifice you."

‘The act of kindness can’t hide the real evil within him. His true nature would be exposed immediately as soon as his interests are at stake.’

Xatia stared at Rebella and said, “You should know very well. Since we received the order to enter the Forladtt Land, we’ve been abandoned and were destined to die with James.

“Yet, you’re still hoping to survive this disaster by bringing back Yaquis Sect’s Young Master and the Saintess, who mastered Heavenly Path Power.”

Rebella fell silent.

Xatia continued, saying, “I can only imagine the despair you must have felt when being ordered to return to the Forladtt Land. You’ve already endured the humiliation and survived until now. So why are you still being so stubborn.”

Rebella squinted and said, “I don’t want to be used by anyone again.”

Xatia sighed, “Do we have the choice? Even if you’re a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Rank’s upper grade, do you have the confidence to control your destiny?”

Rebella went silent again.

Xatia said firmly, “We can’t control our destiny, but we can choose who will.

Forget the past. Let’s talk about our current master. In terms of character and wisdom, he is far better than Xachary.

“His cultivation rank is also not fixed. You’ve personally witnessed his talent. In the future, he’ll turn everything we know upside down.

“If we don’t choose to stand with him, then we’d have to do a lot to get on his good side when he becomes stronger in the future.”

After hearing this, Rebella turned around and stared at Xatia.

“Do you really have so much faith in him?”

Xatia shook her head and answered, “Not completely. However, compared to Xachary, I’d say he’s worth the gamble.”

Rebella took a deep breath and said, "I may be stronger than you, but you're definitely much wiser."

Xatia smiled and replied, "You're just too naive and can't accept the truth so quickly."

Rebella turned around, took a deep breath, and immediately felt a sense of ease.

Immediately afterward, she raised her hand and disappeared from the spot.

The next moment, she was already in front of James.

Rebella knelt on one knee, lowered her head, and said, "I'm willing to take this gamble and trust in you. I'll surrender to you."

James turned to the golden palace above the Aquasoul, saying, "Numerous treasures are within the golden palace over there. It's time you guys also get some benefits."

After speaking, James used his powers and lifted the group. Then, he stepped on the Aquasoul, slowly bringing them to the golden palace.

Now that James had a Nirvana Golden Skeleton, he could easily work over the Aquasoul with the help of his Historial Power and Marciais Combat Form.

Soon, the group arrived in front of the golden palace and was shocked to feel potent Genesis within it.

James said, "Go on. Whether or not you obtain great treasures will be up to your strength. I'll wait outside."

The group exchanged glances for a while. Then, Truett took the first step up the stairs. Immediately afterward, the rest followed suit.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6058-Rebella quickly stepped forward and said, "Wait, watch out for restrictions."

After speaking, she raised her hand and struck the gold palace's entrance with her Genesis. With a loud bang, a bizarre restriction was instantly destroyed.

The group entered the golden palace one after another.

Seeing Rebella helping the group, James nodded in approval. It seems that Xatia's heartfelt words have convinced Rebella. At least she started to care about the group's safety.

With a powerhouse at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation like her, James would have much less to worry about.

While in thought, James sat down in a lotus position. Then, he poured his Zen into his soul space.

The Calidum Spiritual Tree and Hemera were still within his soul space.

However, Xayvion, who had transformed into a black cuckoo, had disappeared.

Even after using Curse Magic, James was unable to pinpoint his location.

Xayvion seized the chance to escape again after seeing that James' Golden Body was destroyed.

James wondered what would become of Xayvion when they next met.

Afterward, he put it behind him. His biggest concern at the moment was Lesia.

He searched his entire soul space but could not find any traces of her.

Last he remembered, Lesia was still an infant, about a year old, since he had not taken the last steps over the light bridge. After the sudden incident, she completely vanished.

"Where did you go, Lesia?" James panicked.

When the black light rays entangled him, Lesia cast Historial Power to intercept them. After that, she was gone.

"Did she really disappear?"

In desperation, James submerged his Zen into the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

Finally, he found a small ball of light flowing freely within it.

The small ball of light that was only the size of a thumb wandered around in the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

“Lesia? That must be Lesia! As long as she didn’t disappear and still exists, there must be a way to revive her!”

James raised his left hand and poured his Historial Power into the bell.

As his powers slowly integrated into the bell, the light ball moved rapidly and enlarged in size.

‘It’s working!’ James was excited. Just as he was about to increase his strength, he got weaker. It felt like half of his skeleton was drained of energy.

James switched to his right hand and infused the power of the Marciais Combat Form into the bell. However, this time, the light ball stopped moving.

‘So only Historial Power works?’ James withdrew his Zen and then set up a time formation. He consumed multiple Cores at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation. Then, he began cultivating at rapid speeds.

While in seclusion, he realized it was tough to transform Genesis into Historial Power.

Initially, he had consumed a hundred Cores at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation but could only gather a bit of Historial Power.

James finally understood he had a long way to walk on the cultivation path.

Simply cultivating the Daeclon Rank’s Historial Power was a difficult task.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6059-Meanwhile, James’ companions entered the golden palace. Everyone had seemingly found their own treasure and hovered in the void to cultivate it.

Many years later, James opened his eyes inside time formation. The surrounding mountains and terrain had already returned to their original state, and everything destroyed during his battle with Rebella had already been repaired.

After these long years of cultivation, his Historial Power had only reached one tenth of its previous value. Even so, he had attracted a Heavenly Tribulation.

Feeling the Tribulation Clouds gathered above his head, James knew it was his Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Sixth Tribulation.

He did not dare to be reckless. He quickly activated his Divine Genesis Light and deployed a formation.

The Genesis Heavenly Tribulation unleashed rolling thunder, and James' golden skeleton was enveloped by black lightning.

At that moment, he felt like he had countless Genesis Spaces that were rapidly shrinking and expanding. Every time lightning struck him, a new Genesis space would form.

His bones, made of the power of the Maciacis Combat Form and Historial Power, seemed immune to the lightning flashes.

The tribulation lasted for an entrapoch. After James felt that he had tens of thousands of Genesis Spaces in him, the tribulation dissipated.

At that moment, James sat in the void as a golden skeleton. He had tens of thousands of Genesis Spaces. With just a thought, his potent Genesis was quickly mobilized and formed into a terrifying Genesis Light Orb.

James raised his hand and thrust forward. Two mighty forces emerged and dashed forward, causing a loud rumbling sound. The ground began to shake, and a few nearby mountains collapsed.

The force caused huge waves to roll up in the murky water, instantly submerging the shore.

"What terrifying force!"

James opened his eyes, slowly raised his hand, and said, "So this is the strength of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Sixth Tribulation?"

He could now mobilize the powers within the countless Genesis Spaces and use them as he pleased. It was much stronger than the Tressencia Completare, which he had lost.

James withdrew all the Genesis within these spaces and converted them into Historial Power. Then, he filled half of his bones with the power.

When James opened his eyes, he noticed his companions had been blessed because of him.

thunders threatening to strike at any moment. The sky became dim, and violent winds swept the area.

Xitlaly was the first to go through the tribulation to enter the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Third Tribulation.

a breakthrough into the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Sixth Tribulation.

James stood up and hovered in the void.

death was up to them. If he were to interfere, it would cause severe consequences.

Xitlaly, on the other hand, had an unstable foundation and needed some help.

James raised his hand, and a Quasar Tribulation Clouds emerged. It quickly swallowed up the Tribulation Cloud above Xitlaly's head. Then, James sent the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell to her, allowing it to circle her.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6060-Boom!

The Heavenly Tribulation activated, and countless flashes of lightning instantly surrounded Xitlaly.

The Yuraeceon Genesis Bell let out a bizarre gray light and protected her.

At the same time, 81 Quasar Lightning bolts fell from the Quasar Tribulation Clouds above her head. However, the Quasar Lightning did not strike her.

Instead, they swallowed up most of the Heavenly Tribulation Lightning, James was surprised his new skeleton could control the Quasar Tribulation Clouds so freely. It no longer attacked indiscriminately and could swallow the power of other people's tribulation. Moreover, it would not trigger any consequences.

Quasar Tribulation Clouds became even more dazzling as they absorbed the Heavenly Tribulation's power. The Yuraeceon Genesis Bell also absorbed the faint Historial Power within the Tribulation Clouds.

With James' help, Xitlaly could feel the burden of her Heavenly Tribulation reduced by half. Dazzling white light emerged from her body. Suddenly, 81 of her clones surrounded James. They simultaneously raised their hands and thrust at him.

Her Genesis formed into 81 dazzling doors, which slowly swung open.

Within each door, there were dazzling white lights that gave a holy aura.

James was stunned by the sight.

The next moment, the 81 clones disappeared. Then, they emerged from the doors and surrounded James.

James asked surprisedly, 'What kind of Supernatural Powers is this?' Her 81 clones immediately merged into one person and appeared behind James. She reached out and patted James' skeletal shoulder with an excited smile.

James turned around and exclaimed, "I couldn't sense your position and aura. If you were to have suddenly attacked, I would have been severely injured."

Xitlaly smiled sweetly and said, "It's called the Origin Doors. It's a wonderful Supernatural Power, but I haven't mastered it yet. Thank you for letting me obtain such a great treasure, James."

James nodded at her and said, "It must be fate that you found it. You don't have to thank me."

sky rumbled with flashes of Heavenly Tribulation Lightning and struck them repeatedly.

James and Xitlaly watched nervously, aware of the dangers of going through a Heavenly Tribulation to go from the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Fifth to Sixth Tribulation.

Both of them were surprised when the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell flew over to their Heavenly Tribulation and emitted a dazzling gray light.

Xitlaly asked, "Why is the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell..."

James replied calmly, "I'm not controlling it. Lesia probably needs the power of their Heavenly Tribulation. There's still hope for her to wake up!"

Xitlaly pointed to the void ahead and asked, "Then what about that bird? Why is he coming to US with a Black Lotus."

James looked in the direction that Xitlaly pointed at in shock.

Xayvion had not been killed by the Galeat Wind and stole his Black Lotus.

cuckoo.

The black cuckoo bird roared, "You're trying to intervene again, James?!!"

James sneered, "I was wondering how you lifted the curse so quickly. So you stole my Genesis Black Lotus? You're really stubborn and hopeless."

Xayvion replied smilingly, 'The Black Lotus is so easy to use. It contains all your strength and Supernatural Powers. I wasn't expecting that.

'You want to kill me? Well, you'll have to fight with your Inner Demon.'

After speaking, the Black Lotus emitted a strange dark light and swallowed Xayvion.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6061-The Black Lotus expanded rapidly and spun rapidly.

Seeing the strange sight, James released his Zen and wrapped it around the Black Lotus.

The Black Lotus, however, resisted his control and soared into the sky.

'This Black Lotus birthed a consciousness.' James swung his fists, unleashing his Historial Power and Genesis toward the Black Lotus.

A loud bang resounded in the sky.

Unfortunately, the Black Lotus was completely unscathed. It continued to soar into the sky and the black light emitting from it grew brighter.

James was shocked that it could absorb his power.

At that moment, Xitlaly took action.

A bright door appeared above the Black Lotus. The next moment, she walked out of the door and stepped on the Black Lotus.

‘You evil lotus! How dare you betray your own master?’

Suddenly, the Black Lotus unleashed a terrifying Dark Power. A thick Tribulation Cloud instantly gathered above Xitlal/s head, and lightning struck her, causing her to tremble in pain.

“Isn’t that my Quasar Lightning? It made a corrupted version?”

Shocked, James flew over to the Black Lotus.

The Black Lotus sensed James coming close and quickly knocked Xitlaly away.

Then, it escaped in the southwest direction.

At the same time, an enchanting voice came from the void.

‘Thank you for letting me go, Master. If we meet again, I’ll spare your life.’

James did not have time to bother with the Black Lotus. He quickly rushed over to save Xitlaly.

“Are you alright?” Xitlaly said anxiously, “I’m fine, James. But the Black Lotus was a manifestation of your Inner Demon. It has all your Supernatural Powers and strengths. If it were to be used by the wrong person, you’d be in great trouble.”

James sighed, “I know. But we’re in the Forldatt Land right now. It won’t be able to escape.” Xitlaly said hurriedly, “It can! When the Black Lotus was in your soul space, it was connected to your soul. It knows everything you’re thinking.

“Now that it has developed consciousness with the help of that cuckoo, it has inherited all your Supernatural Powers and memories. It will know to pass through the Forladtt Land’s Hudde Passage to escape!”

When he heard Xitlaly's reminder, James immediately put her down. 'You take care of them for me.' After speaking, James disappeared in a flash.

At that moment, the Black Lotus passed through Forladtt Land's third level.

While moving, it unleashed dark lightning on the ground and killed monsters.

Countless high-grade cores flew into the air.

James was already on its tail when the Black Lotus was about to swallow them.

The Black Lotus rushed to the Foladtt Land's second level.

James pursued it to the second level, but his movement speed was slightly slower.

He cursed, "Damn it! If I had my Golden Body or Lesia was here with me, you'd never be able to escape."

James watched the Dark Lotus rush toward the exit on the second level without hesitation.

He unleashed a few inscriptions and restrictions to slow down the Black Lotus, then reached out for it. James leaped above the Dark Lotus and stepped on it.

Right then, the Galeat Wind swept toward them.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6062-James was shocked and immediately thrust his palm forward. The Marciais Combat Form and Historial Power to block the Galeat Wind.

At the same time, a dark light burst out from the Black Lotus. Suddenly, a black cuckoo flew out and rushed toward the Galeat Wind.

"Be gone, Xayvion." James flicked his fingers to resist the Galeat Wind, and a terrifying Multicolored Flame burst out to burn the cuckoo.

However, the Black Lotus suddenly shrank into black flames. Then, it escaped James' control and rushed toward the Galeat Wind.

James exclaimed, "Not good! I was fooled."

Then, he stepped forward to neutralize the incoming wind with one punch.

The Black Lotus dodged, passing through the countless inscriptions within the Hudde Passage. James, on the other hand, chased closely behind him.

During the pursuit, James felt a trace of Historial Power and power from the Marciais Combat Form. However, James focused on chasing the Black Lotus.

He kept dodging the attacks from the inscriptions and restrictions.

However, a powerful force suddenly forced him to stop when he arrived atop a mountain.

He saw a beautiful woman in a black robe on the opposite mountain. Her long hair fluttered in the air, and she radiated with the aura of a powerful cultivator.

James said surprisedly, "Lyla?"

Lyla stood atop the mountain and warned coldly, "Don't go any further, or else I won't hold back."

James sneered, "You're trying so hard to seal me in the Forladtt Land?"

Lyla said helplessly, "It's your fate."

He asked calmly, "Then what is your fate? Will you keep being someone else's pawn for the rest of your life?"

Lyla said, "I'll give you some advice, Forty-nine. I trained and reached the top with ease. I'm like a cloud, whilst you are just water. I am free to go where I want, but you're contained within a vessel. Since ancient times, good and bad do not coexist. They must be distinguished.

"Even if you're separated from your Black Lotus, evil will still exist within you.

Eventually, you'll be a threat to countless lives.

"I admire you, but for the sake of the other living beings within the Genesis Worlds, I must get rid of you."

“After speaking, she raised her hand and fiery red lights shot at James, forming threads.

James did not move and watched as the red lights transformed into a few illusory clones of Lyla.

A few of them smiled at him, others looked at him affectionately. Meanwhile, some looked at him sullen and furiously.

James understood these were Lyla’s feelings toward him while he was trapped in the Timaeus Sect’s wing building for all those years.

Lyla stood on a distant mountain and said, “I was ordered to kill you without mercy. However, I will disobey him for the first time and bear the consequences.

I won’t regret this.

‘Whatever relationship we had, it’s time for it to be severed.

‘The next time we meet, it’ll be a battle to death.”

After speaking, she suddenly raised her hand, and a terrifying Sword Light fell and cut off the red thread. Immediately afterward, the illusory clones disappeared.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6063-Lyla suddenly retracted the illusory clone When the last red thread was about to be severed.

“Stay in the Forladdt Land, and don’t come out again,” Lyla shouted, then she unleashed a powerful force.

Immediately afterward, the massive space between her and James was solidified by her Genesis Powers. The restrictions circled the area and enhanced the seal.

The solidified area separated James and Lyla, which seemed like life and death.

The two of them did not leave. Lyla squatted down and propped her pretty face, looking at James.

James, on the other hand, watched his Black Lotus leave. After a while, James said, 'I will remember your kindness, Ms. Lyla. I'll repay you someday in the future.'

After speaking, James disappeared from the spot.

Lyla stayed in place for a long time before finally returning to her feet. Her beautiful face had tears rolling down. She looked through the seal, but James was already long gone.

'To be with the one you love forever is a perfect dream. It's a pity we're not fated.'

After she mumbled, her expression suddenly changed.

'This is bad! The Demon Region!'

Lyla quickly disappeared in a flash.

Meanwhile, an enchanting red-haired woman slowly opened her eyes in a forbidden area of the Demon Region. Two horrifying red rays burst from her eyes. A few moments later, the surroundings returned to calm.

Seeing the Black Lotus in front of her, she smiled.

'What a familiar aura. I didn't expect you to be the one who helped me finish the Dark Path.'

After speaking, she waved her hand. A powerful force shot out and immediately devoured the Black Lotus.'

Immediately afterward, her whole body emitted a robust red aura, which then transformed into a mesmerizing purple-pink light.

She laughed out loud, then transformed into a red beam of light and soared into the sky, breaking through the restrictions of the Demon Region.

The light pierced through the numerous restrictions. Soon enough, it reached the void of the Demon Region. Then, the light transformed into a beautiful woman.

Lady Jacinth raised her hand, and a terrifying purple-pink light spread throughout the Demon Region. At that moment, every demon bowed and quickly became manic.

Suddenly, a potent aura swept through the void in the Demon Region. However, Lady Jacinth quickly raised her hand and repelled it.

Immediately afterward, Lyla, who was wearing a black dress, appeared. She stood in the void and had a murderous intent.

After seeing the face of the beautiful woman, Lyla was startled. "Thea?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6064-Lady Jacinth chuckled, then said, "That's a nice name. Do you have any last words?"

Lyla took a deep breath and said, "Do you think you'll be invincible just because you've reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation?"

The Lady Jacinth laughed hard and said, "You're feeling guilty now?"

Lyla looked at her and said, "If not for James' Inner Demon, you wouldn't have become this strong. Even so, you'll be sealed within the Demon Region.

"With your strength?" Lady Jacinth glanced at Lyla, then waved her hand.

A dozen powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation rushed over to her but were enveloped by her purple-pink light. They were immediately enveloped by multicolored lights and screamed in pain.

Immediately afterward, Lady Jacinth unleashed another purple-pink attack on the beings at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation, who were struggling, and slashed their souls apart with flame swords. Then, she absorbed the Genesis from the colorful flames.

Her body emitted a two-colored light ray, and her aura was much stronger.

In just two moves, Lady Jacinth killed dozens of powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation. She had to be unbelievably strong.

At that moment, Lyla was completely stunned by the scene before her.

Mysterious and dazzling light rays illuminated the Demon Region. Shortly after, the restrictions began to break one after another.

The next moment, the Dark Beings trapped within the Demon Region quickly rushed to the restrictions and attacked.

‘You evil creatures!’

Lyla raised her hand, and tens of thousands of golden dragons emerged. The dragons quickly killed off many of the Dark Beings, trying to break free.

Lady Jacinth suddenly waved her hand, and Quasar Sword Lights spread throughout the Demon Region.

The Quasar Sword Lights instantly killed the dragons.

Lady Jacinth looked at Lyla and said, ‘You’re indeed a very strong opponent.

However, I’m better.”

After speaking, Lady Jacinth leaped into the air. She spread her hands, and the Sword Lights fell from the sky like rain, breaking the restrictions within the Demon Region.

Suddenly, all the dark creatures imprisoned in them rose into the sky one after another, densely packed in the colorful light, and their cultivation levels improved rapidly.

Seeing this terrifying scene, Lonely Spirit became angry.

As he raised his hand, a huge golden light net suddenly fell from the sky, quickly covering the entire sky above the Ten Thousand Demons Prison.

Any dark creature that leaps into the air from the Prison of Ten Thousand Demons will be destroyed as soon as it hits the Golden Sky Net.

At the same time, his figure spun around, and countless golden tribulations swarmed in from all directions in the Ten Thousand Demon Realm.

Facing millions of creatures in the dark world, the golden calamity passed by and almost killed them instantly.

At this moment, however, the stunning enchantress suddenly appeared on top of Ling Ling's head: "I didn't want to kill you, but you are too annoying." As she spoke, she made a secret with her hands, and a terrifying and enchanting seven-colored light quickly enveloped the lonely spirit.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6065-Lady Jacinth's voice came from within the blinding lights. "Either you surrender or perish."

Lyla summoned a golden sword and slashed out. A golden-colored Sword Energy pierced through the void and split the Quasar Light in half. Then, she immediately appeared before Lady Jacinth. "Although you've reached the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation, you have not mastered the Dark Heavenly Path. You will die!"

Lady Jacinth chuckled, saying, "The Jade Blood Sword? That's a pretty powerful weapon."

After speaking, she waved her hand, and countless Quasar Arms reached out toward Lyla.

Lyla quickly dodged the attacks left and right, slowly making her way to launch an attack on Lady Jacinth.

Her powerful Sword Energy slashed through the air, but Lady Jacinth suddenly disappeared.

Lyla was stunned after her attack failed. Just when she was about to turn around, multiple Quasar Arms grabbed onto her limbs.

"You're impressive to have deflected ten of my attacks." After speaking, a red light shot out from Lady Jacinth's eyes and entered Lyla's.

The red light connected their eyes, and Genesis flowed through them. At the same time, their souls were also fluttering back and forth.

Lady Jacinth ordered, "Surrender, and I'll let you live."

"Dream on!" Although Lyla was trapped, she was determined to fight. She would rather self-destruct than have someone control her soul.

The two powerhouses were at a stalemate in the void. Meanwhile, the Demon Region was shaking violently, and countless planets exploded.

“Demon! Forfeit now!”

At that moment, an authoritative voice came from the void. Then, a powerful aura approached them.

Lady Jacinth sensed danger and quickly unleashed a Quasar Light to knock away Lyla. Then, she rushed toward the golden net in the sky.

“You can’t escape!”

A burly old man suddenly appeared and reached out to grab her.

“The Quasi Daelcon Rank is nothing special. Once I understand the Dark Heavenly Path, you guys will be ants to me.”

After speaking, Lady Jacinth tore open the golden net. Then, she escaped before the illusory arm could grasp her.

The burly old man wanted to chase after her but was blocked by Xachary, who had just arrived.

“Let her go, Great Protector. It’s fine as long as the Dark Demons are still trapped here. She’ll have to come back eventually.”

Gladwin shouted, “How could such a thing happen? I thought she wasn’t even at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation’s middle grade.

Xachary had a solemn expression as he looked toward Lyla.

Lyla was covered in injuries and was supporting herself on a cauldron due to her lack of strength.

She immediately sensed the unfriendly gaze and hurried over to Xachary, then knelt on the ground.

i’ve failed my duty. Please punish me.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6066-Gladwin looked at Lyla and questioned furiously, "I thought you were the most promising talent of Timaeus Sect's current generation. Yet, you were completely unaware the Dark Heavenly Path was within the Daemon Prison?"

Lyla was severely injured and was using all her strength to keep upright. She knelt on one knee with her head lowered, saying nothing in response.

"You deserve to die..." Gladwin raised his fist but was stopped by Xachary.

Xachary sighed and said, "Go back and heal your wounds. Don't tell anyone about today's events. Otherwise, you'll be obliterated."

Lyla raised her head, saying, "Master..."

"Enough." Xachary unleashed a burst of Geneiss, knocking her away.

Gladwin glared at Xachary and said, "You favor her too much. She has committed such a grave sin. If this word gets out, then our sect..."

Xachary interrupted him, saying, "I still have a use for her. Moreover, we're stronger than her. But, did we sense the Dark Heavenly Path?"

Gladwin coughed awkwardly at the question.

Xachary put his hands behind him and said, "The Dark Heavenly Path and Light Heavenly Path are reincarnated simultaneously. We've already predicted it happening. She was wrapped in a white sacred lotus when we found Thea back.

"It's how we knew the Dark Heavenly Path and Light Heavenly Path's Genesis would be in the form of lotuses.

"The Light Heavenly Path is a white sacred lotus, so we knew the Dark Heavenly Path would have a dark sacred lotus."

Xachary turned to Gladwin and said, "We've inspected the Daemon Prison repeatedly. Our Zen has been constantly monitoring the place. When did a black sacred lotus ever bloom here?"

Gladwin shook his head solemnly.

Xachary said solemnly, "Then there is only one possibility left. The Light Heavenly Path was reincarnated by choice. Meanwhile, the Dark Heavenly Path was forced to reincarnate. It's why the dark sacred lotus developed after its birth.

"I think the Dark Heavenly Path's Black Lotus probably forms when it reaches the upper grade of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation."

Gladwin frowned and said, "It shouldn't be, though. She was reincarnated at the same time as the Light Heavenly Path. The Light Heavenly Path is only at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Second Tribulation. How is the Dark Heavenly Path so much ahead of her?"

Xachary said wearily, "Did you forget this is the Daemon Prison? So many powerhouses from the Dark World at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation had died here. The Dark Heavenly Path must've absorbed the Dark Power they left behind.

"Try and sense this place. Which Dark Demons at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation are still alive?"

Gladwin released his Zen, and his face went pale.

"The one hundred and eighty demons at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation have all perished."

Xachary sighed. "Yeah. She doesn't even need to cultivate. All she had to do was absorb the Genesis within the Daemon Prison. Without anyone noticing, she reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Rank's middle grade.

"Her Dark Lotus formed, and to prevent US from noticing it, she placed it in someone else's body to bring it out of the Daemon Prison. When it finally reached a certain level, she made it devour its host and regain control.

Now that she has fused with it, she instantly reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation peak.

After hearing this, Gladwin took a deep breath and said, "The Dark Heavenly Path is so cunning. She planned such a thing and outsmarted US."

Xachary sighed again. "Fortunately, she hasn't mastered the Dark Heavenly Path's powers yet. We still have a chance to kill her."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6067-Gladwin snarled, "She's the Dark Heavenly Path. Nobody can find her if she chooses to hide."

Xachary shook his head and said, "We don't need to find her. She'll come back as long as the Light Heavenly Path is still in our hands."

Gladwin snarled, "Who the hell brought the Black Lotus out of the Daemon Prison? Is there a mole in our sect?"

Xachary said helplessly, "I've already investigated. It's a disciple of Mount Martialis called Whitaker Xenakis. Previously at Beauregard, he rang the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell six times and got a six-star rating."

Gladwin squinted and said, "A six-star rating? I thought disciples with ratings above five stars were not required to participate in the third test in the Daemon Prison."

Xachary replied, "But he came. It's bizarre. He must've taken an elixir to suppress his cultivation rank. Even the Yorean Wind couldn't detect his rank, let alone Lyla."

Gladwin frowned and said, "For someone so strange to have infiltrated into our sect, it could only mean we've got an internal problem."

Xachary said coldly, "The thing I find strange is that the Heavenly Dark Path has a similar aura to someone."

Gladwin asked, "Who?"

Xachary sighed. "Forty-nine."

"The demon from the Dark World?" Gladwin's eyes widened in shock.

Xachary said in frustration, "Stop calling him that. We were wrong about him."

The Dark Heavenly Path was born inside the Daemon Prison.

"At most, he's just someone from the Dark World who happened to obtain Franciscos' inheritance."

Gladwin looked at Xachary in shock and said, “S-so that means we lost Rebella, Abelard and countless powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Sixth Tribulation because of your misjudgement?”

“Even worse, we sealed away a genius that the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell willingly chose as its master?”

Xachary fell silent.

Gladwin barked, “As a leader, how could you be so careless?”

Xachary touched his nose embarrassedly and said, “Everyone makes mistakes.

It’s because the Dark Heavenly Path...”

Gladwin interrupted Xachary, saying, “I don’t want to talk to you anymore. You think you’re smart and are omniscient. You schemed so many things, only to be wrong?”

After speaking, Gladwin disappeared from the spot.

Xachary stood in the void and closed his eye, muttering, “It’s a real pity.

Forty-nine was incredibly talented...”

While speaking, Xachary waved his hand, and a gray force covered the Daemon Prison. Millions of powerful restrictions formed in the void and sealed the Daemon Prison instantly.

Xachary’s body emitted a golden light, and then hundreds of powerful clones spread out in all directions of the Daemon Prison.

The beings inside the Daemon Prison wailed after the clones scattered. Many refused to be illuminated by the light and chose to self-destruct.

Their flesh and blood splatted everywhere, causing a gory scene.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6068-Meanwhile, James returned to the golden palace in the Forladdt Land's third level. His companions immediately surrounded him after his return.

Seeing their concerned expressions, James asked, "Have you two also successfully overcome your tribulations?"

Abelard asked suspiciously, "What's in your hand?"

Rebelle guessed, "The cuckoo?"

James raised the black cuckoo's corpse and said, "It seized the opportunity to snatch the Black Lotus from me."

Xitlaly asked hurriedly, "Did you get the lotus?"

James shook his head and said, "Something is really odd about the situation.

Logically, Xayvion's cultivation rank wasn't even at the Yuraeceon Rank. How did he steal my Black Lotus? Why was I not able to catch up to him?"

James glanced at the cuckoo in his hand again and said, "When we reached the Hudde Passage, I realized something."

Rebella said calmly, "The Black Lotus isn't his Inner Demon, but he was using his body as a host."

Everyone present was shocked.

James pointed at Rebella and said, "Correct. I also suspect the Black Lotus isn't my Inner Demon. It was from a powerhouse but placed in my body like a parasite."

He turned to Truett and asked, "Do you remember when there was a misunderstanding between Thea and me at the Forladdt Land's first level?"

"Yeah. That's when you suddenly were corrupted by your Inner Demon." Teuett nodded.

James explained, "I placed a curse on Xayvion. However, it did not work. Still, he screamed in pain. I could tell it wasn't an act.

"I thought Xayvion was unaffected because he was from the Dark World.

However, it worked fine when I cursed him and forced him to surrender. I was pretty confused by the situation.

“Now that I think about it, my curse didn’t work on him the first time because he had the Black Lotus on him.

“When I cursed him, the Black Lotus secretly entered my body. Back then, I thought my Inner Demon corrupted me.

“After that, I kept the Black Lotus in my soul space. It did not cause any trouble because Lesia was suppressing it. While inside my storage space, it had been with me through a few tribulations. Moreover, it witnessed me obtain the boons on the Forladtt Land’s first and third level.”

James took a deep breath and said, “The reason why the Black Lotus can copy my Supernatural Powers isn’t because it has a consciousness, but because someone is controlling it.”

Everyone was stunned by James’ words. They could not think of anyone who had such Supernatural Power and was wise enough to come up with such a plan. The person placed the Black Lotus within James’ body and copied his Supernatural Powers. Even someone like James was used by someone else.

They could not fathom how strong the owner of the Black Lotus would become after they merged.

James threw the cuckoo’s corpse into his soul space and left it to Hemera to refine. Afterward, he looked at everyone and said, “I also have bad news. Lyla has sealed the Hudde Passage.”

Everyone exchanged glances but did not feel surprised by the news.

James asked, ‘Hmm? Aren’t you not afraid of being unable to leave?’

Truett sneered, “Not really. If we follow you, there will be many boons and opportunities. We’d rather stay in the Forladtt Land.”

Xatia nodded and said, “Yeah. We’re no longer afraid of the Galeat Wind with you here.”

Abelard shrugged, “It was going to be sealed sooner or later. It’s better that we’re in here. We’ll be powerful when we leave, and nobody can fight us!”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6069-Rebella held three shining needles between her fingers. She raised them up and said, it's the perfect chance to study the new treasure I've obtained."

After hearing their thoughts, James nodded and said, "If that's the case, let's go find the entrance to the Forladdt Land's fourth level. In the past, those who had entered never made it out. If you guys are unwilling, I won't force you to go. You can stay here and cultivate."

Everyone exchanged glances and smiled knowingly.

The group hid under the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell to block out the Galeat Wind and searched for the entrance.

Many years later, the group was chasing after a blue tornado. Suddenly, it stopped at the edge of a cliff and came to a stop.

Below the cliff was a bottomless abyss. However, the blue tornado was spinning rapidly ahead of them.

The tornado's eye was relatively small but emitted very potent and dangerous Genesis.

Rebella said firmly, "This should be the entrance."

"I'll check it out." Truett was about to rush over, but James grabbed him.

Over the years, Truett had grown bold. Wherever he sees something that could be an entrance, he would rush straight for it, thinking it was the entrance to the Forladdt Land's fourth level. Now, it had already become a habit of his.

James reminded him, "Can't you see its source is the Galeat Wind?"

"The first few levels were full of Galeat Wind. Did they come out from here N Before James could finish speaking, a potent wind erupted from the tornado.

The group was swept in by the wind and sucked into the hurricane before they could even react.

They rapidly circled in the tornado and had no power to fight back. At that moment, they could only endure the torment.

The Galeat Wind tore apart everyone's body, causing them to shout in agony. In desperation, James made the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell cover them.

However, some of them were swept away by the wind. After losing their flesh, they no longer felt the excruciating pain. They quickly sat down and slowly became stronger under the baptism of the blue tornado. Gradually, their bones and limbs grew stronger.

James raised his head and said excitedly, "I see."

The Yuraeceon Genesis Bell moved aside and emitted a dazzling grey light.

In the Forladtt Land, treasures and destruction coexisted.

Although the group had lost their physical bodies, they became stronger under the baptism of the Galeat Wind. It was not comparable to his Nirvana Golden Body, but it was still considered a great fortune to them.

After figuring it out, James telepathically contacted them. "Use the opportunity to reform your bones to achieve the most flexibility."

Everyone thanked him, then went quiet.

James also settled down into a lotus position and began to enjoy the Galeat Wind's blessings.

When he began cultivating, he could sense the Historial Power within the Galeat Wind was much stronger than the previous levels. Even Hesema, who usually stayed in his soul space, came out to gain some benefit.

Sometime later, James heard a baby-like voice.

"Master, you should tame the Historial Wind spirit. It's a great opportunity."

James was surprised by the voice. He looked around but could only see the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

The Yuraeceon Genesis Bell rotated and suddenly transformed into a spectral figure of an infant.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6070-James exclaimed, "Lesia?!! Is the wind beneficial to you?"

Lesia nodded, then immediately transformed back into the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

James shouted, "Lesia!"

He quickly summoned the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell and submerged his Zen into it. He could see that the light ball was much larger than before. It still emitted colorful lights but was now the size of an adult fist.

'Was that an illusion, and Lesia hasn't awakened yet?' Just when James was going through the various possibilities, he felt the environment suddenly changing. He turned around and found that the blue tornado had fled into the distance.

After James confirmed his friends were safe, he quickly tailed after it.

The blue tornado moved rapidly, and James had to teleport multiple times just to catch up.

Suddenly, the tornado transformed into a spectral figure and shot wind arrows at James.

The strong wind whistled, but James remained motionlessly in place and used his Nirvana Golden Body to resist the rain of arrows.

"Damn it! Die, skeleton!" The figure suddenly shouted, and then the Galeat Wind wrapped around James.

Immediately afterward, gushes of the Galeat Wind formed into light rays. They crisscrossed and attacked James. However, they did not cause any substantial damage to the Nirvana Golden Skeleton. Instead, it boosted James Historial Power.

"You're a golden skeleton made out of the power of the Marciais Combat Form and Historial Power?"

James asked, "Will you surrender to me?"

The figure within the blue tornado manifested into a young man about seventeen years old. 'You have both powers. How strange.'

While speaking, the young man walked out from the Galeat Wind. He was handsome and had a slightly more feminine appearance. He stopped in front of James and examined him curiously.

“I did not devour your flesh.”

“It was the Aquasoul,” James sighed.

The young man nodded and said, “I see. You obtain this body from my two seniors inside the Aquasoul. It’s no wonder you could resist the Galeat Wind.

James looked at him silently.

“I’m the Historial Wind Spirit, Fennec. I’ll serve you from now onward.” The young man suddenly knelt on the ground and lowered his head.

James stretched out his hand and placed it on the Fennec’s head without hesitation. A blue light flashed, and Fennec transformed into a blue cloak.

The blue cloak settled on James’ shoulder and fluttered.

Immediately afterward, the blue tornado immediately disappeared.

James turned around and scanned the unfamiliar surroundings in shock.

There were countless petrified beings around him. All of them had weapons and were frozen in combat positions. Even their Sword Energy and various forces were solidified.

Everywhere around him, the scene was the same. The beings had different postures but were seemingly frozen during a battle. The sight of it was bizarre and terrifying.

Soon, James made a discovery.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6071-On the ground, living beings were killing one another. In mid-air, the living beings fighting against each other lessened. The higher it got in the sky, the fewer the living beings.

They seemed to have formed a pyramid. It was a cruel and strict cultivation. The higher it was, the fewer the living beings, and the stronger the living beings' auras were.

Upon seeing that scene, James took a deep breath. He asked, "Fennec, is this the fourth layer of Forladdt Land?"

"Yeah," Fennec responded, 'This is an ancient battlefield left behind by the previous era. Every living being you see is at least in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Sixth Tribulation."

Upon hearing that, James took a deep breath. "What about the highest cultivation rank?"

"I don't know," Fennec answered. "I dare not go to the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation."

'That's interesting." James stared at the pyramid-like ancient battlefield. "It seems that this is a great battle. The participants are all top powerhouses. There may even be powerhouses in the Daeclon Rank."

Fennec said, "If there were someone in the Daeclon Rank, this battle wouldn't have happened. The Daeclon Rank powerhouses are in charge of countless worlds' Heavenly Path. Whoever dares to torture the living beings before their eyes will be annihilated at once."

Upon hearing that, James responded, "Does that mean they can no longer control the powerhouses in the Daeclon Rank, hence they initiated this battle?"

"Everything has its own law." Fennec sighed and said, "Once the law is gone, chaos will ensue."

"I have a question." James looked up at the sky. "Are these powerhouses dead or restricted by some kind of Supernatural Power?"

"Who knows?" Fennec said, "I have never seen them move. It has been several thousand entrapochs."

"Are there other living beings in the fourth layer?" James asked.

“Some came here before.” In a soft voice, Fennec said, “I swallowed most of them, but I don’t know some of their whereabouts.”

James stopped asking questions. He appeared between two fighting living beings. He pulled out a longsword but was instantly blown away by a powerful restriction.

Returning to his senses, James frowned. “What a strong restriction.”

While speaking, he raised his hand and exuded Genesis Power. The two living beings who were still suddenly became alive in the explosion.

Then, with stiff movements, the two waved their weapons and pounced on James.

“Have they come alive?” James exclaimed. With a wave of his hand, he pulled out the Nether Demonic Sword.

Before he could attack, two magnificent Sword Energies flew toward him. They were as powerful as a powerhouse at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Sixth Tribulation.

Boom! Boom!

James ascended to the sky and made a horizontal slash with his sword.

The magnificent golden Sworld Light with Historial Power chopped off the heads of the two living beings who had come alive.

Then, the two living beings fell to the ground. A few energy balls flew up.

Upon seeing that, James descended from the sky. He inspected the energy balls and found a few high-quality Yuraeceon Daelm Rank elixirs and weapons.

“Am I killing living beings or monsters?” James mumbled. Suddenly, Truett’s voice sounded in his head.

“James, where are you? Hurry up and come back. It’s terrifying here.” Upon hearing that, James put away the energy balls and rushed back.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6072-“What kind of battle is this? It’s so crazy.”

“Isn’t Polar Light our sect’s signature skill?”

“Purifying Flame and Fiery Lotus are my teacher’s signature skills.”

“Look at the weapon in that powerhouse’s hand. It’s the Golden Wing Ingot, the most powerful treasure in the world.”

“There’s also the Coelum Sword. That’s the Javerigh Sect’s relic. I can’t believe it has appeared here.”

When James landed on the ground, he heard exclamations from the few skeletons.

Before them, a grand and terrifying battle unfolded.

In the sky above the countless universes, many powerhouses were fighting against each other. All kinds of powers and Sword Lights could be seen. Several planets exploded and were destroyed. Many living beings were annihilated in the battle.

The scene could not be described simply as the annihilation of living beings or the destruction of the world. It was doomsday.

There was bloodshed everywhere, including from the mortals at the lowest level and the living beings from all races. There were wars in the Sage Dimension, Demon Realm, and Divine Dimension, from all planets, galaxies, and nebulae to planets, small universes, and large universes to Genesis Regions and Genesis Worlds.

They were divided by dimensional spaces. The higher the dimension, the fewer the living beings that participated in the war. At the same time, the living beings’ cultivation ranks would be higher. In the end, a pyramid-like battle would be formed. Everyone activated all their Supernatural Powers, and they would not stop until death.

However, just as the war was in full swing, in the battle at the top of the pyramid, two rays of light appeared in black and gray. They engulfed everything.

Everywhere they passed, the battle would freeze. The living beings fighting would be stonified and sealed. Everything became peaceful.

Following the freezing of the scene, the few skeletons watching the scene ascended to the void and rotated quickly.

When James watched their actions, he was stunned.

In the next second, Xitlaly, who had the lowest cultivation rank, was absorbed by a ray of gray light that shot out from the first frozen scene. Then, Xatia, Truett, Meanwhile, Rebella, who was rotating rapidly in the sky, was engulfed by a faint black light. Gradually, she sat in a lotus position and became still in the void.

Upon seeing that scene, James was shocked.

At this time, the powerful voices of a man and a woman sounded from the void.

“The heaven and earth circulate, the stars change, the Paths are invisible, and ascension is natural.

“Those who are knowledgeable stay silent. They shall be without worry everywhere they go. To them, everything is illusory as they strive to reach the top.”

When James heard that, he looked up at the sky. He saw two rays of light, one in black and one in white, descending quickly. In an instant, they turned into two elders with white hair. They stood proudly.

One of them wore black clothing, while the other wore white. Their auras were superb. Although they did not exude any light, they looked powerful.

Looking at them, James asked curiously, “May I know if you guys are the clones of two Daeclon Rank powerhouses?”

“Clones?” The white-robed elder glanced at the black-robed elder. All of a sudden, he laughed. “Was that how the two guys in the third layer of Forladdt Land introduced themselves?”

James hesitated for a while. When he was about to speak, the black-robed elder snorted. “How shameless.”

James was speechless.

“Let me explain it to you this way.” The white-robed elder smiled and looked at James. “We can only be considered as the souls of the two Daeclon Rank powerhouses. We have a purpose to fulfill. That’s why we stayed back.”

Upon hearing that, James nodded. “I want to know where my friends have gone.”

The white-robed elder smiled and said, “They have their own fortunes. Why are you so keen on this matter?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6073-“They have gone to comprehend the Heavenly Paths,” said the black-robed elder.

“Comprehend the Heavenly Paths?” James exclaimed suddenly. “Does that mean each of them can become the Heavenly Path of a world?”

“Those who survive until the fourth layer of Forladtt Land are living beings with great fortunes.” The white-robed elder smiled as he said, “Besides, they can see the battle of countless worlds. Naturally, they can comprehend the Heavenly Paths!”

Upon hearing that, James took a deep breath. Then, he pointed at Rebella, frozen in the void. “What about her? Can’t she comprehend a Heavenly Path?”

“Of course, she can,” Leisurely, the white-robed elder said, “But she’s too obsessed. She needs time!”

At this point, James was shell-shocked. He did not expect all his teammates except Rebella to be qualified to comprehend the Heavenly Paths.

Of course, the Heavenly Paths ranged from big to small and powerful to weak.

In comparison to Thea, they could not be on the same level. Nevertheless, having the Heavenly Path Power was a terrifying fortune.

Looking at James, who had become silent, the two elders exchanged glances.

Then, the white-robed elder smiled. “Kid, you should think about yourself.”

“I’ve never thought about becoming a Heavenly Path.” James looked up.

“Because my wife is the Heavenly Path.”

“That’s true.” The white-robed elder nodded. “She’s still going through tribulations. I’m asking about you. Don’t you want the Golden Body?”

Hesitating for a while, James sighed and said, “I want it, but I’m sure I’ll need to go through your test.”

“We aren’t as mysterious as the two guys in the third layer.” Slowly, the white-robed elder said, “We don’t have the qualifications to test you since you’re the chosen one of Paths.”

“The chosen one of Paths?” James was taken aback.

Previously, he was crowned the man from the Dark World. Now, he was crowned the chosen one of Paths. He found it baffling.

“We don’t have the Golden Body.” The white-robed elder looked at James. “You have to cast it yourself.”

Confused, James asked, “How can I cast it?”

The black-robed elder who had been silent pointed at the surrounding area.

“These are the materials.”

Upon hearing that, James turned to look in the direction he pointed. He saw countless powerhouses that were sealed. At once, he was stunned.

“Do I use them to cast the Golden Body?”

“That depends on you.” The white-robed elder had his hands behind his back as he smiled. “There are four stages to the Golden Body—the Primeval Golden Body, Genesis Golden Body, Holy Golden Body, and Ultimate Golden Body. The materials here are sufficient.”

James took a deep breath. “Does that mean I need to absorb all the Genesis Powers of the living beings restrained here to cast the Golden Body?”

The two elders nodded.

James turned around, not knowing what to do. "How long will this take?"

"That doesn't matter." The white-robed elder smiled and said, "We only care about your casting of the Golden Body. We just need to help you inject two powers. As for how much you can absorb, that depends on you."

Just as James wanted to ask more questions, he saw two rays of light in black and white appear behind the two elders and head toward the void.

At the same time, the living beings that were restrained became alive. They headed toward James.

"Am I supposed to fight an army of hundreds of billions of living beings alone?"

Then, James dragged his body and shot up to the sky.

At the same time, the countless living beings who swarmed toward James also headed to the void.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6074-Facing the powerhouses' attacks, James did not have the time to consider his actions. At once, he entered the Second Marciais Combat Form. His entire body exuded gray light. A powerful aura exploded instantly.

Then, he raised his hand, and Quasar Tribulation Clouds filled the sky. The Quasar Lightning was mixed with dark Tribulation Lightning as it struck.

The powerhouses that headed toward James were engulfed by the lightning.

They stopped in their tracks and began to tremble.

At the same time, James opened up his arms. The formation instantly dispersed. He absorbed thousands of living beings.

All of a sudden, the Quasar Lightning and dark Heavenly Tribulation Lightning in the sky struck the ground. In the formation, countless colorful flames shot up to the sky. The living beings trapped in the formation cried out in pain.

‘Absorb the Genesis Powers and cast the Golden Body!’ James had these words imprinted in his mind. He released the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell in his hand. It enlarged and engulfed the entire formation.

Following the ringing of the bell, countless magnificent Genesis Powers were absorbed quickly.

In a flash, James felt his body exude a great gray and black light. Then, a perfect physical body appeared.

Following the absorption of countless magnificent Genesis Powers, James’ physical body turned golden from silvery white.

At this time, the living beings in the formation had been absorbed entirely.

James’ Zen flashed, and he enlarged the formation. He engulfed thousands of living beings and trapped them again.

The golden light made out of magnificent Genesis Powers that exuded from his physical body grew richer.

After many years, he had absorbed all the powerhouses on the ground. It was only then that he discovered the appearance of a Golden Body.

He could sense that it was the first stage of the Golden Body, known as the Primeval Golden Body.

Nevertheless, it was completely different from the Holy Golden Body.

James knew that if he wanted to increase the stage of the Golden Body, he needed to go to the second 16:03 18/02/2024 Read The Almighty Dragon General novel Chapter 6074 level and Tight against stronger powerhouses. However, the powerhouses on the second level were all in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Seventh Tribulation. With his current formation and cultivation, he could not Tight against them as easily as he did against the powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Sixth Tribulation. After all, he only had the ability of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Sixth Tribulation. Thus, he sat in a lotus position and placed Fennec in the formation.

At the same time, he merged the Nether Demonic Sword he had obtained with the Primeval Golden Body. Instantly, James felt that he had grown stronger.

Then, he shot up to the sky and broke through the dimensional space. He arrived at the next level of the pyramid.

There, the powerhouses were all in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Seventh Tribulation. Following his appearance, the powerhouses sealed immediately came alive and pounced on him.

The formation appeared and trapped all of them again. This time, to be safe, he did not trap a million living beings. He only trapped thousands of powerhouses.

As the formation had merged with Fennec, under the attacks of the Quasar Lightning in the sky, colorful flames on the ground, and the Galeat Wind, thousands of living beings in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Seventh Tribulation in the formation were absorbed entirely in just a few years.

After experiencing that, James grew bolder. He used half an entrapoch to absorb the powerhouses of that level. At the same time, his Golden Body had finally reached the second stage—the Genesis Golden Body.

Although his Golden Body had been restored to this extent, he was not satisfied.

Even after he had absorbed so much Genesis Power, his cultivation rank did not increase. Although he wanted to go to the next level, he was not the match of the powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eighth Tribulation.

Upon thinking of that, James looked up at the void. "What's going on? I've absorbed so much Genesis Power. Why didn't my cultivation rank increase?"

"You're too eager for success." In the void, the illusory voice of the white-robed elder sounded.

"Cultivation takes time. The same goes for casting the Golden Body."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6075—"How can you increase your cultivation rank if you absorb the living beings' Genesis Powers on such a huge scale? That's just wasteful."

Upon hearing that, James was bewildered.

He did not expect that. Did that not mean he had wasted a lot of cultivation resources?

“You aren’t experienced in going through tribulations. You’re too passionate.” All of a sudden, the black-robed elder said, “I’ll lend you the power of the Marcials Combat Form. Go to the next level.” Meanwhile, Rebella, who was in the fourth layer of Forladtt Land, had lived through many years. Slowly, she opened her eyes.

She had recovered her physical body. Her injuries had also healed.

However, when she broke free from the restrictions and landed on the ground, she was shocked by the scene.

The ground was filled with corpses and broken limbs. It was a horrifying scene.

The living beings, whose cultivation was completely absorbed, had distorted faces. Their fearful expressions stunned Rebella.

At this time, an elder in a black robe appeared behind her.

“Are you still obsessed?”

Upon hearing that, Rebella turned around and asked, “Who are you?” “You don’t need to know who I am.” The black-robed elder looked at Rebella. “Your doom is him.”

Rebella was surprised. “Do you mean James?” “You aren’t fated with the Heavenly Path, but you can be with the Paths.” The black-robed elder raised his hand, and a ray of black light headed toward Rebella.

In the next second, Rebella was engulfed by a thick black light. She had a feeling she was going to have a breakthrough.

“Have I reached the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation?”

Rebella raised her hand. She found it hard to believe.

“It’s only temporary.” With a blank face, the black-robed elder said, “He needs your help right now. If you don’t want to stop here, let go of your obsession and help him sincerely.

“His fortune and talent will change your fate. You have to think it through.”

After hearing that, Rebella took a deep breath. “Where is he?” “Above.” The black-robed elder pointed at the void.

Without hesitation, Rebella flew to the sky and headed to the dimensional space where James was.

At this moment, the white-robed elder appeared. With his hands behind his back, he looked at the black-robed elder. “Why did you let Heaven’s secret out of the bag?” “I don’t want to miss it again.” The black-robed elder took a deep breath. “The worlds can’t continue to be in chaos. Someone needs to be in charge.”

Slowly, the white-robed elder said, “But you know that it will bring US great doom.”

The black-robed elder remained silent.

“Maybe you’re one of their tribulations.” After the white-robed elder finished speaking, he sighed and left.

Meanwhile, the black-robed elder raised his hand and cleared the corpses on the ground. It was as if the living beings were never there.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6076-In the pyramid-like battlefield in the fourth layer of Forladtt Land, with the black-robed elder’s Marciais Combat Form’s power, James could go up against the powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Eighth Tribulation.

This time, he was not eager for success. He acted patiently. He only trapped one or two powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Eighth Tribulation in the formation. After absorbing some of their powers, he used the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell to absorb their cultivation.

After that, James could sense that his Golden Body had changed. At the same time, his cultivation also improved.

Taking one step at a time, after absorbing dozens of powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Eighth Tribulation, he finally experienced a Heavenly Tribulation. He broke through the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Sixth Tribulation and entered the lower grade of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Seventh Tribulation.

Just as James was about to cast his Golden Body again, he saw a dark figure flying over from the distance.

Facing the attacks of countless living beings in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eighth Tribulation, the figure waved her hand, and all the living beings fell to the ground. Their souls were gone.

"Why is Rebella here?!" James exclaimed. Then, he carried the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell and trapped Rebella.

"Why are you here?"

Sizing up James, Rebella frowned. "Is your Golden Body back?"

James was at a loss for words.

"An elder in a black robe guided me here." Truthfully, Rebella answered, "He also lent me some power. He asked me to assist you."

Upon hearing that, James squinted his eyes. "Are you at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation now?" "It's only temporary." Rebella sighed.

"Why did you agree to help me?" All of a sudden, James grabbed Rebella's collar and shouted angrily, "It will increase your doom. You may fall in the next tribulation and never reach the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation." "I no longer care about that." Relieved, Rebella looked at James.

"I don't agree with this." James let go of Rebella and said, "Although he lent you some power, if you don't use it, your doom won't increase. When you need to go through tribulations, I will use the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell and Quasar Tribulation Clouds to help you. You will go through the tribulations successfully and enter the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation."

Staring at James, Rebella laughed bitterly.

Her mentor, who taught her Paths, abandoned and sealed her in Forladtt Land.

On the other hand, the demon from the Dark World, whom she wanted to kill, was trying to stop her from increasing her doom. It was such a huge difference.

Upon thinking of that, Rebella took a deep breath. “James, with your words just now, my obsession has been resolved.”

Then, she raised her hand. Three needles came out from her hand. With a ray of black light, they flew out of the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell and severely injured the dozens of powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Eighth Tribulation outside.

Upon seeing that, James became anxious. “Are you crazy?” “I’m not.” Rebella smiled and said, “I will injure these living beings for you to absorb their Genesis Powers. You just need to focus on improving your cultivation.”

After that, she broke out of the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell and rushed toward the countless powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Eighth Tribulation in the outside world.

Wherever she passed, countless living beings in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Eighth Tribulation would fall to the ground, severely injured. Since she was temporarily at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation, she went on a killing spree.

Upon seeing that, James activated the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell without hesitation. He began another round of absorbing Genesis Powers.

At that moment, in the void of Forladtt Land’s fourth layer, two elders, one in a black robe and one in a white robe, saw this scene and exchanged glances.

In the countless Great Genesis Worlds, in the sanctuary of a mysterious sect, Lady Jacinth, who was in a fiery red robe, was sitting in a lotus position. She looked at the void. There was an energy ball contained in a black lotus. Her alluring eyes remained open. She had a playful and evil smile on her face.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6077-In the energy ball, the scene of James absorbing Genesis Powers in the fourth layer of Forladdt Land with Rebella's was displayed.

Lady Jacinth seemed to be interested in the situation as she forgot about the dozens of powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation kneeling before her.

At this moment, an elder with white hair kneeling at the front raised his head, trembling. "Lord..."

Before he could finish speaking, Lady Jacinth grabbed him. At once, he was engulfed by an uncanny magenta light.

In the next second, the elder with white hair cried out agonizingly. His entire body was distorted.

In the blink of an eye, the elder with white hair was absorbed entirely.

The scene stunned all the powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation. All of them remained on the ground and dared not breathe.

"It's useful." Lady Jacinth laughed. "This method of absorbing Genesis Powers is more useful than the one I used before."

Then, she raised her hand and withdrew the energy ball. She looked evil as she glanced at the powerhouses kneeling on the ground. "You should know what to do and what not to do. Don't let me worry so much.

"I'm going to meditate in seclusion for the next several years. You can leave now."

Upon hearing that, the group of powerhouses in the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation felt relieved. They all got up and left.

It was only then that Lady Jacinth smiled. "James, you're interesting. It seems that I must meet you in Forladdt Land and let those flies kill each other for sometime."

Then, she appeared at the entrance of Daemon Prison's Hudde Passage.

Looking at the huge seal ahead, she raised her hand. A Ray of magenta light shot out from her hand. Following the sound of a loud boom, the seal exploded with dazzling light.

“Oh?” Lady Jacinth sneered and said, “Lyla is quite good.” “You’re good too.” At this moment, an eerie voice sounded behind Lady Jacinth.

In the next second, a terrifying power attacked her.

Calmly, Lady Jacinth raised her hand, and dark Tribulation Clouds filled the sky.

Then, countless dark lightning landed.

Instantly, the terrifying power that was going to attack Lady Jacinth came to a halt. The mysterious figure behind her also trembled from the lightning.

At that moment, Lady Jacinth turned around and smiled at the mysterious figure.

“Xachary, aren’t you being a bit too arrogant to think that you can go up against me with just a clone?”

Boom!

The mysterious figure shattered the dark Tribulation Clouds in the sky. Then, Xachary appeared.

Staring at Lady Jacinth, he laughed. “You will come to the Timaeus Sect because the Light Heavenly Path is with me.” “I don’t like what you just said.”

Lady Jacinth pursed her lips. “If you have the capability, come to Forladtt Land in your main self and fight against me.” “How bold of you,” Xachary said angrily.

“Do you think entering Forladtt Land can...”

Boom!

Lady Jacinth punched Xachary’s clone.

"You're so noisy." Lady Jacinth shouted, "Just say you're a coward. Why are you pretending to be mysterious?" 1 Then, she turned around and punched the mysterious seal. Following countless explosions, the seal broke.

After that, nine golden cauldrons floated toward her. She kept them all.

"James, I'm coming." Lady Jacinth laughed. Turning into a black lotus, she headed toward Hudde Passage.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6078-In the void of Forladdt Land's fourth layer, two elders, one in a black robe and the other in a white robe, sat in a lotus position. Suddenly, they opened their eyes.

"She's the Genesis Black Lotus and Dark Heavenly Path. How could she escape her fate?" the white-robed elder frowned. "The tribulation of emotions shouldn't appear now. otherwise, there will be a huge problem."

Then, the two elders disappeared.

In the third layer of Forladdt Land, a black lotus exuding pink light was landing on a mountain peak. Suddenly, it was stopped by the two elders.

At that moment, the black lotus exuded dazzling purple light. Instantly, the light filled the entire third layer of Forladdt Land.

The two elders were engulfed in the light. At the same time, they shot out two rays of light, one in black and one in white, toward the black lotus, trapping it.

"You two are just souls. Why are you guys so nosy?" When the black lotus was locked by the two rays of light, it rotated rapidly.

From time to time, it would change into the form of Lady Jacinth and then back to the black lotus. It was furious.

"What a powerful malevolent energy." the white-robed elder snorted and said, "She will be a great tribulation for all living beings." "We can't let her go to the fourth layer." The elder in a black robe used his fist to punch the black lotus with the terrifying power of the Marciais Combat Form.

At this moment, the black lotus turned into the form of Lady Jacinth. With a wave of a hand, countless dark lightning struck from the sky.

The two elders remained still in the lightning, but their bodies exuded golden light.

“Go to hell!” Lady Jacinth roared. The purple light appeared all over her body.

The magnificent Dark Power flicked the two elders away.

Then, Lady Jacinth shot up to the sky. In mid-air, she sat on a black lotus with her legs crossed.

Following the first blossom of the black lotus, the malevolent energy in the surrounding areas became richer, causing the two elders to be horrified.

After the black lotus blossomed, Lady Jacinth’s upper body was engulfed by faint purple light. Behind her, thousands of black lotuses blossomed.

Upon seeing this scene, the white-robed elder shouted, “The chosen one of Paths hasn’t cast the Ultimate Golden Body, and he hasn’t broken through the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Eighth Tribulation. We can’t let her comprehend the Dark Heavenly Path. Otherwise, the order of all worlds will be in chaos. It will be doomsday for all living beings.” “Let her go through another tribulation.” Then, the black-robed elder turned into a black light and shot up to the sky.

At the same time, the white-robed elder also turned into a white light and flew to the void, merging with the black light.

Instantly, the two lights rotated, forming the shape of Tai Chi.

The Tai Chi shape spun slowly. In the sky above the Three Thousand Great Genesis Worlds and countless Micro Genesis Worlds, a huge Tai Chi shape engulfed all living beings. A terrifying black and white light erupted.

The black and white light shot toward the third layer of Forladdt Land. It was completely absorbed by the spinning Tai Chi pattern in the void, making the pattern rotate quickly.

In the next second, two rays of light, one in black and one in white, headed toward Lady Jacinth, who was sitting on a black lotus. They destroyed the countless black lotuses that blossomed just moments ago.

“I can’t believe you used the Path Power to suppress me. How despicable.”

Lady Jacinth was furious, but as she was engulfed by the black and white light, the black lotus that blossomed shrunk.

Simultaneously, Lady Jacinth spat out blood. Then, she fell to the ground.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6079-At this moment, her hair was put down. Her entire body exuded purple light, giving people a sense of seductive evilness.

In the void, the small Tai Chi slowly stopped spinning. It turned into two elders, one in a black robe and the other in a white robe. The elders landed on the ground.

At the same time, the huge Tai Chi that engulfed the sky of all worlds disappeared.

Staring at Lady Jacinth sitting on the ground, the white-robed elder sighed. "We didn't want to do this, but you just had to force your way in." "You're too playful."

The black-robed elder also looked at Lady Jacinth. "You avoided your doom by turning into a Genesis Black Lotus to enter Forladdt Land. We can understand that, but you shouldn't look for the fourth layer when you've entered the third layer. You're too greedy for success and have ulterior motives." "I have a history with that living being." Lady Jacinth raised her head and shouted, "Can't I go and repay him?" "Do you really think we can't see through your mind because we're souls?" The white-robed elder laughed and said, "We are souls, but we are in the Quasi Daelcon Rank. Thus, we can see through souls." "You want to devour him only because he has the Marcial's Combat Form Power and Historial Power." The black-robed elder squinted his eyes. "He has the fortune that all Heavenly Paths dream to have.

"However, you don't know that aside from the Light Heavenly Path, you also have to go through a tribulation with him. otherwise, you will never return to your original spot." Upon hearing the words of the two elders, Lady Jacinth looked up and took a deep breath. "You guys made the laws. You guys arrange the fates too.

Naturally, you guys have thousands of explanations." "If you didn't have providence with him, we wouldn't have been kind to you." The white-robed elder snorted and said, "You're still alive not because you're powerful but because your providence with him saved your life." "Heavenly Paths aren't great." The elder in a black robe said, "We have killed both the Xenith Heavenly Path and Sacred Heavenly Path.

"Although you're currently one of the Four Extremes Heavenly Path, we can ask for a replacement."

Upon hearing that, Lady Jacinth smirked. "I don't care how many tactics you have. I will have this living being. I believe he will eventually leave Forladtt Land.

You guys won't be able to do anything then."

After that, she got up and combed her messy hair with her fingers.

"Go through your tribulation," The white-robed elder said. "He isn't someone you can devour."

Lady Jacinth snorted. Then, she reached out to pluck the beards of the two elders.

The black-robed elder frowned.

"I can't defeat you guys now, but I can pluck some of your beards." Smugly, Lady Jacinth said, "I have to preserve my dignity after all, right?"

The two elders were speechless.

After Lady Jacinth left, the white-robed elder sighed. "This Heavenly Path is the most restless and playful one among all Heavenly Paths." "She wasn't a Heavenly Path in the past." The black-robed elder glanced at the elder in a white robe. "Because she was too playful, she was demoted to a Heavenly Path. Each time she reincarnated, her memory would be erased. She has reincarnated many times, yet her personality can't be changed.

"Master dotes on her too much. No matter how playful she is, he's still willing to educate her." "Your master has always been this way." The white-robed elder snorted and said, "He isn't strict when he needs to be. He lets things go instead of disciplining her."

The black-robed elder said, "Hey, what do you mean by that?"

“Let’s stop here. The chosen one of Paths has also become playful.” Then, the elder in a=the white robe disappeared.

Taken aback, the black-robed elder shook his head helplessly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6080-In the fourth layer of Forladtt Land, at the bottom of the pyramid, James and Rebella were looking for the entrance. James did not even bother that his Golden Body had not been cast entirely.

This was because James discovered that the memory inscription Thea left behind was shining in the treasure space.

He knew that it meant Thea was nearby. If she was not in the fourth layer, she would be in the third, second, or first layer. She must have been in Forladtt Land.

James was sure about it because when he met Thea, the reincarnation of the Light Heavenly Path, the memory inscription did not have any reaction.

However, no matter how much he searched for the entrance, he could not find it.

After teleporting several times, he was still at the bottom of the pyramid. He was frustrated.

Rebella accompanied him without asking any questions or saying anything. She was like the air.

At this time, two rays of light, one in black and one in white, flashed by. The two elders appeared.

“What did you do to Thea?” With red eyes, James stood up.

The two elders exchanged glances and remained silent.

“She’s here to see me.” James gritted his teeth and asked, “Why won’t you guys let me see her?” “She’s here for you,” The white-robed elder said, “But she isn’t here to reunite with you. She’s here to devour you.” When James heard that, he frowned. “If I put the memory inscription in her body, she will remember who I am.” “Do you think you have the chance to do that with your cultivation?” The black-robed elder stared at James.

Upon hearing that, James was at a loss for words.

“We have seen that memory inscription!” The white-robed elder sighed and said, “There’s no way you can put the inscription in her body right now. It isn’t because you aren’t strong enough. It’s because it isn’t time yet.” “What do you mean?” James was shocked.

“She’s the Dark Heavenly Path.” The black-robed elder said, “She hasn’t comprehended the Dark Heavenly Path, so she isn’t considered the Dark Heavenly Path yet. And the inscription is from the Dark Heavenly Path of the previous life...”

James interrupted the black-robed elder. “Does that mean the inscription will only work when she actually becomes the Dark Heavenly Path?” “Maybe.” The black-robed elder stroked his beard and gave a vague answer.

“She’s currently very dangerous.” The white-robed elder reminded, “You haven’t reached the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Eighth Tribulation. You can’t control the Marcials Combat Form Power and Historial Power well. When you go out, you will face difficulties.”

Hearing that made James take a deep breath.

He stayed in the fourth layer of Forladtt Land for a long time, absorbing the Genesis Powers of countless high-ranking, soulless living beings.

However, his cultivation rank had only reached the middle grade of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Seventh Tribulation. His Golden Body was still in the Second stage, the Genesis Golden Body.

He did not know how long he needed to cast the Ultimate Golden Body and reach the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Eighth Tribulation.

Because of Thea’s appearance, James, who was initially patient, grew anxious.

Upon thinking of that, James felt ashamed. Bowing to the two elders, he asked, “May I know if you two have hurt her?” “We won’t take her life for your sake,” said the white-robed elder with a smile.

“The two of you are tribulation in tribulation.” The black-robed elder sighed and said, “No one can resolve it. You two need to end it yourselves!” Upon hearing that, James nodded. “I offended both of you just now. I will go back right away and continue casting my Golden Body and improving my cultivation.”

Then, he turned into a ray of Sword Light and shot up to the pyramid.

Rebella glanced at the two elders and followed after James.

The two elders touched their beards at the same time and nodded, feeling pleased.

They thought, ‘What a smart living being. She understands what she needs to do once given guidance.’ Casting the Ultimate Golden Body and reaching the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Eighth Tribulation were James’ next targets.

Now that he had targets, he continued to absorb the Genesis Powers to improve himself.

During his free time, he would have a drink with Rebella and the two elders or have a chat.

It was unknown how long had passed.

After putting in effort, he reached the middle grade of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Eighth Tribulation. His Golden Body had also reached the Holy Golden Body. Finally, he received good news.

The two elders invited him and Rebella to sit on a mountain peak.

In the void were several large energy balls. The pictures presented were Truett, Firstly, Truett, who had passed the Heavenly Path Test, was shown.
