

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6091

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6101-James rapidly absorbed the Genesis, and nobody could stop him.

The elderly cultivator in the white robe hovered in the void. He smiled bitterly and said, "He has repeatedly brought danger to the Forladdt Land."

The man in the black robe said worriedly, "Is it our turn next? This boy has a strong will. That's quite rare."

The elderly cultivator in the white robe said, "He has already acquired three violet-gold evil spirits. It's more than enough. He probably wouldn't want two old residual souls like US.

Now James finally forged the fourth violet-gold evil spirit on the second level of the Forladdt Land's Hudde Passage after absorbing most of all the restrictions, inscriptions and Genesis.

He opened his eyes, and the four violet-gold evil spirits surrounding him followed suit.

As his Zen activated, the violet-gold evil spirits swung their fists at the Hudde Passage's dead-end.

Four potent Amethyst-Gold Power traveled along the Hudde Passage, heading straight toward the Daemon Prison.

At that moment, thousands of talented disciples from the Timaeus Sect were preparing to enter the test and slaughter Dark Beings.

However, they were brutally wiped out by Amethyst-Gold Powers.

The Galeat Wind and Quasar Lightning attacked the thousands of disciples. At the same time, Wraithflames rose from the ground.

The disciples screamed in agony as their flesh and blood were reduced to ashes. They were obliterated instantly.

In just a few moments, the thousands of disciples died tragically on the spot.

A few had their bodies destroyed and their souls scattered in the void.

Some unlucky ones had their souls destroyed, and none of them were left behind. Most were dismembered, and their body parts were everywhere. The sights were like hell on earth.

The Timaeus Sect's Leaders who were leading the team were dumbfounded.

Among them, one of them reacted faster. A robust black figure immediately appeared at the entrance to the Daemon Prison.

The beautiful figure stood on the mountain at the entrance and looked into the distance surprisedly.

"What are you doing here, Lyla?"

At that moment, a golden light rushed and sat behind the black figure.

Then, it materialized into a young, handsome man.

"What are you doing here?"

Lyla turned around and said, "How many of the disciples who came to participate in the test are still alive, Saint?"

The young man sighed, "They were destroyed. I thought we could use them to lead out the Dark Heavenly Path. I never expected that demon to have killed everyone without even showing up. I must refine her into a furnace."

Lyla went silent, but her heart was full of disdain. She thought, 'With your strength, what can you possibly do? You're going to rely on your father? Do you think you're invincible after leaving seclusion at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation?'

The saint looked at Lyla and said, "Let's go back, Lyla. We failed to lure out the Dark Heavenly Path, but another chance will come. I'll help you take revenge."

"Our top priority should be our wedding. It's time to go back to make preparations."

Lyla looked at him and said coldly, "Wait a minute. Do you mean our group disciples were brought here to lure out the Dark Heavenly Path? So you planned this?"

The saint raised his hand and said arrogantly, "I haven't found a strong enough opponent to practice after I've left seclusion. That bastard Truett went to the Forladdt Land. It was the only way to find the Dark Heavenly Path." Lyla suddenly closed her eyes.

'My fiancé is just like his father. A hypocrite who pretends to be kind but has a wicked heart.'

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6102-After James successfully experimented with the Hudde Passage from the second level of the Forladdt Land, he hurriedly returned to the fourth level.

up a time formation for each of them, helping to improve their cultivating efficiency.

Afterward, he called Xitlaly and Rebella to head to a higher level.

Both of them were startled by the countless statues of powerhouses.

Amongst the statues, there were a few they recognized and felt were their real bodies.

After explaining, James received their help.

The black and white elderly cultivators unleashed two rays of light. Then, the statues were immediately reanimated.

To James' surprise, the group of powerhouses did not swarm them like on the previous levels. Instead, they unleashed their Supernatural Powers to attack from all directions.

James quickly summoned the four violet-gold evil spirits. Together with them, the group attacked the reanimated statues.

After James integrated the violet-gold evil spirits into his formation, significantly improving their strengths. Each could trap four to eight powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation. Although killing them was not guaranteed, they could at least hold them off for now.

Meanwhile, Xitlaly relied on her strength cultivation base and Orient Force to take on a few opponents.

James followed Rebella around, afraid she would get excited with the powers she had borrowed and accidentally kill a few of their opponents without souls.

He tried his absolute best to keep up with her. After she seriously injured one opponent, he would immediately cover the opponent with his Yuraeceon Genesis Bell to absorb their Genesis.

Their flawless teamwork allowed them to grow more courageously and confidently.

Many years later, Truett and the others rushed to the fifth level after leaving seclusion. The sight before them surprised them.

Countless corpses could be found everywhere, including those of various Meanwhile, James was sitting on the enlarged Yuraeceon Genesis Bell, absorbing an abundance of Genesis. At that moment, his whole body emitted a dazzling golden light.

On the other hand, Xitlaly and Rebella flashed in the air, collecting the high quality cores.

Truett said angrily, "No fair! How could you not bring US along?"

Xatia turned to him and said, "It's for our own good. With our strength, we would've been useless."

finally reached the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eight Tribulation.

However, it's still impossible for US to defeat opponents at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation."

Truett nodded and said, "You're right. Still, even though we're incapable of fighting, we're good at looting the spoils! Let's go!"

brief moment, they hurriedly followed suit.

“Darling! Your husband is here!” Truett appeared in front of Xitlaly in a flash, then gave her a big hug before she could even react.

Xitlaly was slightly startled, but her face immediately flushed after realizing the situation. She reached out and wrapped her arms around him.

“I’ve missed you, Darling. So many years passed in the blink of an eye. It’s like we’ve been separated for an eternity.

“While I was in seclusion, I kept thinking of your beautiful face. You’ve been running wild in my mind.”

While speaking, Truett silently waved his hand and collected the highgrade cores floating behind Xitlaly.

Xitlaly was completely immersed in his sweet words. Her heart pounded rapidly, and her cheeks were bright red.

The other beautiful woman watched dumbfoundedly.

and hurriedly shouted, “Your husband is so sly, Xitlaly!”

Xatia also said, “He’s a cunning man.”

Rebella simply shook her head with a smile.

Xitlaly immediately noticed something was wrong and pushed Truett away. She looked around and realized Truett had collected all the high-grade cores around her.

Her pretty face immediately darkened, and then she said coldly, “Are you looking for a beating, Truett?” Truett laughed and fled to James’ side for safety. Then, he said, “Did you enjoy the show? You’ll have to pay for watching US for so long. Haha!”

The women were dissatisfied with his teasing laughter.

“Give them back to me, Truett!”

“Everyone here should have a share! I’ll tell Master if you don’t share!”

“How could you be so sly? Quick, distribute them to US.”

“If he doesn’t agree to share, we’ll just have to grab it from him. Let’s beat him until he’s battered and bruised! Let’s go!”

The women surrounded Truett simultaneously, then cast their Supernatural Powers.

Truett was instantly overpowered and on the losing end.

While the group played around, James reached a critical point of upgrading his Golden Body.

As the bell’s chime resounded, powerful Genesis was converted into Historial Power and Marciais Power to fill James’ Golden Body. At that moment, James’ body emitted dazzling lights.

The two elderly men watched with relieved expressions.

“His Ultimate Golden Body is forming. It’s time for US to take action.”

After the two elderly men finished speaking, two rays of light, one black and one gray, shot out and struck James.

Immediately afterward, he pulled out the Nether Demonic Sword and Judgment Scythe. Then, their gray and black forces wrapped around them, keeping them suspended in the air.

The Nether Demonic Sword wrapped in a gray light gradually manifested into an arm. As the Historial Power filled it, fingers also began to grow.

Meanwhile, the black-robed elderly man’s powers surrounded the Judgment Scythe grew into an arm as well.

As the two arms formed, potent Historial Qrohm and Marcias Qrohm erupted in the void. At that moment, the group that was playing around was stunned.
