

THE ALMIGHTY DRAGON GENERAL

Chapter 6291

Tai Chi roared, “Ungrateful! What has she done for you? Why do you insist on protecting her? Yegor and Herodias have sacrificed everything for you! Have you ever considered how much pain they will endure for twenty thousand epochs? Your wife will only have to go through the process of being reincarnated.” James retorted, “If I let my wife die, will I really be able to save them? I’m afraid that won’t happen.

After all, you’re incapable of controlling the Law of Paths.

Ultimately, Mr. Yegor and Lady Herodias will be disappointed in me and regret their decision to help me.” Afterward, James turned around and shouted, “Don’t worry, Mr. Yegor, Lady Herodias! I’ll do whatever it takes to save you two! Even if I must reincarnate tens of thousands of times, I’ll save you two! “I don’t care who I have to go against, whether it’s a god or demon, I’ll eliminate them.

I doubt the Law of Paths is truly invincible! “Today, I am waging war against Tai Chi, the Law of Paths, the Law of Tai Chi and every sect and force that participated in today’s battle.

I will fight with everything I’ve got and never forgive any of you!” His words permeated throughout the entire area.

Not only Tai Chi and the Law of Paths could hear him, but the peerless powerhouses below them could make out his words clearly.

Tai Chi was furious, and her black-and-white powers swirled around violently. The Law of Paths, on the other hand, became even dimmer.

Xolani, Yzert, Xaiden and the other powerhouses were even more shocked.

The next second, James made a soul oath and struck the Law of Paths.

A multi-colored light ray emerged and immediately spread throughout the sky.

Subsequently, the soul oath became energy balls and spread to every corner of the Genesis Worlds. At that moment, the Law of Paths glowed brightly and shook violently.

Whether it was furious or shocked, it could not change James' decision.

Herodias, trapped by the Law of Paths, shouted, "Good job, James! Follow your heart and go all the way! Don't let anyone stop, not even Tai Chi or the Law of Paths!" Yegor shouted, "Now that's the James I know! Don't forget! You're the Chosen One, the pride of the Human Race! We, humans, will no longer endure suppression! We'll overturn this unjust world!" "You're just being reckless!" Tai Chi shouted, then raised his hand.

James was struck down from the Ninth-Rank Heavenly Tribulation like he was a mere feather.

As soon as he regained balance, the eight massive Tai Chi diagrams above him began to rotate rapidly. Shortly after, dense flashes of lightning fell from the sky and struck James.

James felt that death was imminent.

The lighting that struck him contained corrosive power.

His Ultimate Golden Body burst out with black and white lights, but cracks still formed all over him.

"I won't be able to save the Ultimate Golden Body." James gritted his teeth and was about to forsake the Ultimate Golden Body. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

He planned to hand it to Dark Thea, but he saw her manifest into a Genesis Black Lotus and was approaching his direction. The Genesis Black Lotus rotated and absorbed the gray lightning around James, causing it to grow in size.

Together with the Genesis Black Lotus, they began to rotate around James and absorb the tribulation's power.

James' eyes immediately lit up.

He waved his hand and cast the sixth extreme Curse Magic to fuse the light barriers into evil spirits.

Chapter 6292

Xaiden, who was inside the Tai Chi Formation, exclaimed, "H-He's using the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation to refine his evil spirits!" Xolani turned around to five grand patriarchs behind him and said, "This is bad! We can't let him succeed! It's your turn to take action!" Yzert said leisurely, "Indeed.

As long as you can hold back the witch and James' second body, he won't be able to utilize the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation. After hearing this, the five grand patriots frowned.

They were aware it was their turn to be sacrificed.

They left the Tai Chi Formation without any hesitation and rushed toward James.

At that moment, Dark Thea and Lesia were refining the tribulation's power for James when suddenly they were attacked by the five grand patriarchs.

Dark Thea was instantly knocked away, and a loud rumble followed the impact.

Lesia was also struck hard and was obliterated into nothingness.

"Lesia!!!" James roared, and the black-and-white aura grew more violent.

As soon as Lesia disappeared, a thumb-sized sphere flew into the sky.

James ignored the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation's attacks and quickly chased after the sphere. At that moment, Yobert and a white-haired old man attacked James at lightning speed.

They smashed a few evil spirits protecting James, then charged at his main body.

Boom! The combined attacks of the two grand patriarchs, as well as the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation, immediately caused severe injuries to James.

He spat out a mouthful of blood, and his Ultimate Golden Body broke into a few pieces.

James endured the attack and grabbed the sphere.

Then, he quickly unleashed the last bit of his strength to wrap around Dark Thea and teleport her into his soul space. He looked at his destroyed Ultimate Golden Body, which was already in pieces.

He spread his arms and shouted.

Immediately afterward, a powerful force emerged from his exposed bones.

Yobert and the white-haired old man initially thought they could win. However, they were trapped and horrified.

As the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation's power grew more vigorous, two powerful suction forces emerged, absorbing the two powerhouses' strength.

Chapter 6293

Xolani looked at Yzert and said, “Let’s take action together. He has also taken control over the Dark Heavenly Path’s Genesis Black Lotus.

If we kill him, we could seal the Dark Heavenly Path and solve all our problems.” Yzert squinted and said, “It’s the perfect opportunity! Two birds with one stone!” After speaking, the three powerhouses rushed out of the Tai Chi Formation and simultaneously launched attacks at James.

The sky immediately dimmed, and the space fluctuated violently as their powerful Genesis swept toward James.

James immediately sensed the imminent danger and stopped absorbing energy from Yobert and the white-haired elderly man. Then, he quickly leaped into the air.

The next moment, the three potent forces exploded in the air.

The Tirta Grand Formation trembled violently, and cracks began to spread on the formation.

“Presumptuous!” The Celestial and Earthly Sages hurriedly joined forces and attacked the three powerhouses.

“I already forgot about you two.” Xolani waved his hand, and numerous palms fell from the sky.

The Celestial Sages merged their Quixotic Energy and smashed the palm prints in the sky.

At that moment, Yzert and Xaiden shot thousands of golden lights toward the Celestial Sages, instantly shattering their Quixotic Energy.

The Celestial Sages were separated and knocked into the distance. The two of them spat out mouthfuls of blood after the impact.

James shouted angrily, “Seniors! Stop it! Have you forgotten what I’ve requested of you two?” The Celestial Sages frowned as blood dripped from their lips, not answering to James.

Xaiden and Yzert launched at the Celestial Sages again, attempting to eliminate them. However, James charged at them. The two immediately raised their heads to the sky with frightened expressions.

The next moment, countless gray lightning flashes fell from the eight large Tai Chi diagrams, simultaneously surrounding James, Xolani and Yzert.

“Xaiden, Yzert!” Xolani, who was in the distance, was furious.

Xaiden and Yzert let out miserable screams and were knocked into the distance.

Xolani hurried over to protect them, his face full of disbelief.

The sight of Xaiden and Yzert with missing arms and bleeding profusely was horrible to watch.

The injured Xaiden said fearfully, “The Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation is so powerful.

It's impossible to resist without the Ultimate Golden Body.

Yzert said, “Without our high achievements in cultivation ranks and reaction time, our physical bodies would have been destroyed.” Xolani said coldly, “Let him be for now. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

Our goal will still be achieved.” Xaiden said regretfully, “It's a pity the Ultimate Golden Body was destroyed. It would've been great if we could've retrieved it.” After he finished speaking, flashes of gray lightning rushed toward them.

Xolani said frantically, “Not good! He is trying to lead the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation over and kill us! Let's hurry back to the Tai Chi Formation.” The next moment, they saw a gray light blocking their path. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

They were forced to flee in all directions.

James, who was within the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation, only had golden bones left.

However, his defenses against the gray lightning increased after forming a shield with Historial and Marciais Power.

Chapter 6294

James kept moving, driving the eight Tai Chi diagrams in the sky to follow him. Wherever the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation passed, it would destroy everything in the way. James integrated Hemera, Fennec, the numerous evil spirits and Historial Curse Magic into his light shield.

At the same time, he incorporated a trace of the tribulation’s power into his golden bones to form a powerful amethyst- gold force.

His bones refined the amethyst-gold force and pushed them to every part of his body.

Gradually, it merged with his Historial and Marciais Powers to form a new multicolored power.

James sensed the power was even more potent than his Historial and Marciais Power.

Unfortunately, he could not handle the power with his bare hands and needed a dozen Divine Tools as mediums.

He spotted Xaiden, who was trying to flee, and raised his hand to summon Divine Tool.

Agush of multicolored power wrapped around the Divine Tool's Sword Energy, then quickly penetrated Xaiden's body. Xaiden was caught off guard by the attack and plummeted from the sky.

James said coldly, "It works.

Although | lost my Ultimate Golden Body, | created a new power." He turned around and lured the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation toward Xolani and Yzert.

Xolani and Yzert were horrified after seeing the gray lightning bolts approaching them. They hurriedly fled to safety.

Yzert cursed, "He's a monster! His crimes can't be forgiven! "If you've got the guts, come and confront us head-on! You should be embarrassed about using the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation to defeat us!" Xolani glared at James, saying, "You're truly a monster! The Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation will eventually obliterate you! Your soul will be shattered into pieces!" James sneered, "You guys are no fun." At that moment, Thea's voice suddenly came from James' soul space.

"How about | tell you something fun?" James asked excitedly, "You're not dead yet?" Thea snorted, "Who do you think | am? I'm just badly injured and need some time to heal.

Although | can't help fight, I'll be able to give you some ideas." James replied, "What's the plan?" "Although you've lost your Ultimate Golden Body, you have the shield made by the power of your golden bones and the newly created force.

The Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation can't hurt you for now.

However, if you're incapable of breaking the eight Tai Chi diagrams, you won't be able to neutralize the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation.

It will be a fight of mental fortitude and endurance.

Whoever runs out of fuel first will lose the battle. "You should make full use of her desperation to kill you. If you run around with the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation following you, it'll cause a lot of damage to the Genesis Worlds.

Chapter 6295

James led the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation straight toward the Genesis Worlds. Along the way, many areas were destroyed by the tribulation's powers.

The flashes of lightning struck from above, causing the grounds to break. Countless living beings died tragically as the tribulation passed their skies. It was like doomsday to them.

Xolani carried Xaiden with his powers, whereas Yzert followed them from a distance. From behind, they watched the terrifying destruction happen before their eyes.

Xaiden asked anxiously, "What is he doing?" Xolani said solemnly, "He's trying to destroy the Genesis Worlds with the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation, including our sect." Xaiden growled, "He's insane! We must kill him, or everything will be destroyed!" Xolani asked with a trembling voice, "How do we stop him? Which one of us can resist the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation?" Xaiden yelled, "Then will we let him destroy everything? Do you have any good idea, Yzert?" Yzert, who was following them from a distance, looked at them helplessly.

He never expected to have offended such a difficult opponent. He thought the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation would wipe James out in just one strike. After all, he was only at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eighth Rank.

To his surprise, Skynet and the Dark Heavenly Path stepped up to protect and help him through the Bone-crushing Heavenly Tribulation.

When nobody could help him with the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation, his Ultimate Golden Body was finally destroyed. However, he devised a way to endure the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation. He was simply too tenacious and persistent.

While the three were racking their brains for a plan, James passed through a few areas and used the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation to destroy more than a dozen sects.

Soon, he arrived above the Yaquis Sect. As the attacks of the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation fell, the Yaquis Sect met its doom. The gray lightning bolts struck the numerous creatures, causing their bodies to explode instantly.

A few hundred powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation had quickly flown into the sky but were obliterated by the lightning bolts one after another.

"Get out of there!" Yzert quickly sent a message to his disciples. His voice resounded throughout the Yaquis Sect's territory. The remaining survivors in the Yaquis Sect quickly leaped into the air and fled hurriedly.

James got excited after seeing the destruction caused by the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation and playfully circled the Yaquis Sect.

The disciples of the sect could not escape and were tragically massacred. Yzert was furious after watching his sect and the disciples wiped out. However, there was nothing he could do to stop it.

Unable to bear it, he shouted, "It's not like the Yaquis Sect can't coexist with you, James! Why do you have to do this?!" James summoned a Divine Tool and slashed at the area below him.

The remaining buildings within the Yaquis Sect's territory collapsed and crumbled into piles of rubble.

He quickly followed up with another attack and destroyed the Yaquis Holy Palace even though it was protected by countless formations.

Yzert was infuriated and immediately charged at James.

Unfortunately, three lightning bolts fell in his direction before he could even get close. He was knocked away and felt like death was upon him.

He clutched his chest and spat out blood.

With a pale face, he shouted, "You arrogant and ruthless monster! I'll make sure you die horribly and never have the chance to reincarnate!" However, James did not give him the chance to keep talking.

He raised his hand, and another Sword Light darted toward Yzert, instantly piercing his body. Yzert's body trembled, and he fell to the ground.

Xolani and Xaiden watched with horrified expressions.

At that moment, they did not even bother thinking about saving Yzert.

Instead, they were more worried about whether James' next target was the Timaeus Sect. Xolani said frantically, "We must rush back to the sect right now.

Otherwise, everything will be in ruins." Xaiden gritted his teeth and said, "What's the use of rushing back now? Can we stop him from destroying everything?" Xolani said anxiously, "We can at least ensure our members at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank can evacuate immediately.

It's the only effective way to protect our force." Xaiden frowned and said, "You're right.

Let's go. Our sect controls a very vast Genesis Region.

No matter how strong James is, he won't be able to destroy everything." After agreeing, the two rushed back to the Timaeus Sect. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

"Where are you going?" James, who was amidst the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation, laughed menacingly. Then, he chased after them.

The Yaquis Sect was already in ruins.

Countless corpses were scattered everywhere.

Some were burnt, and some dismembered.

It was like hell on earth.

Yaquis, who had crashed into the ground, knew their sect's fate had been sealed. Ultimately, he decided to do his best to hide and avoid the disaster.

Tai Chi watched from the Ninth- Rank Heavenly Tribulation.

Apart from being furious, there was nothing she could do.

She knew James was deliberately trying to break her mentality by destroying the Genesis Worlds. She could not help but feel James was insane.

"Stop it, Tai Chi." At that moment, the Law of Paths suddenly spoke.

Chapter 6296

The Law of Paths sighed, "But why do you have to insist? Whether or not the Yin governor is still alive or not is still uncertain. Even if she survived, she can't pose a threat to you anytime soon..." Tai Chi interrupted, saying, "I must see her reincarnated. Otherwise, I won't stop." The Law of Paths said furiously, "You're too stubborn! You only have two chances to disobey me. This is the first time.

Watch yourself." Tai Chi sneered, then waved her hand.

Black and white light rays instantly submerged into the eight Tai Chi diagrams.

The next moment, the eight Tai Chi diagrams chased after James toward the Timaeus Sect.

A new wave of lightning flashes fell from the sky.

This time, their range was even wider.

"Die!" Seeing that James was trying to destroy the Timaeus Sect, Tai Chi roared furiously.

Then, several black and white light rays hit the Tai Chi diagrams again.

The gray lightning surrounding James became even denser and more powerful.

James sensed the shield around him was about to shatter and quickly unleashed an amethyst-red light from his body to strengthen it.

The Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation's attacks deflected from his shield and struck the members of the Timaeus Sect below him. Except for Mount Martialis, the Timaeus Sect's Seven Mounts were turned into ruins.

The grounds split apart, and the void exploded.

Countless lives were lost, and they were obliterated into nothingness.

It was a tragic sight.

At that moment, a dazzling light emerged from the Timaeus Sect's headquarters.

Immediately afterward, a blooming white sacred lotus soared into the sky and appeared before James.

The beautiful woman sitting on the white lotus asked, "What are you doing, Forty-nine?" James, who was still within the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation's attacks, frowned and said, "Thea." "She's the Light Heavenly Path.

Those two old farts know they can't fight you, so they sent her.

Don't be fooled by her." A clear voice resounded in James' mind.

James was rendered speechless.

The two of them were of the same entity.

However, one wanted to save the Timaeus Sect, and the other wanted to destroy it. He was not sure who to listen to.

"Let me help you, Forty-nine.

Don't fall to the dark side," Light Thea spoke, then unleashed a bright light into the densely packed flashes of lightning, instantly decreasing its power.

James watched the changes confusedly.

Immediately afterward, Light Thea sent a few more dazzling light rays into the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation. Her powers calmed the tribulation, and the attacks were no longer as violent and aggressive.

James raised his head, grabbed two lightning flashes, and absorbed their powers.

He was surprised when he felt a potent Historial Power flowing through his body.

He flew higher into the sky with his Divine Tool, heading straight for the eight Tai Chi diagrams.

The Tai Chi diagrams immediately stopped rotating and began to buzz loudly. At that moment, their attacks decreased significantly.

James thrust his sword into one of the Tai Chi diagrams, and an amethyst-red power spread throughout it. Shortly after, the Tai Chi diagram exploded.

The aftermath of the explosion caused even more damage to the Timaeus Sect, and a large number of living beings were instantly blasted away.

Tai Chi said furiously, "Why is the Light Heavenly Path also helping him? Is she rebelling?" After speaking, she raised her hand, and the Light Thea was immediately dragged to the Ninth-Rank Heavenly Tribulation.

Tai Chi looked at her furiously and asked, "Who asked you to do that? Are you trying to rebel?" Light Thea sighed, "He didn't have to go through this tribulation, but you imposed it on him." Tai Chi roared, "I set up the tribulations! What does it have to do with you?" Light Thea replied righteously, "My Heavenly Path Power isn't given by you.

I created them myself, so you can't intervene with what I do with it." "How dare you!" Tai Chi raised her hand and was about to attack Light Thea.

However, a golden light suddenly emerged from the Law of Paths and got between them.

Tai Chi's powers struck the golden light shield and were deflected back at her.

She roared, "Are you going to protect her, Law of Paths?!!" The Law of Paths said solemnly, "She beholds Heavenly Path Powers. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

You did not bestow them to her. According to the Law of Paths, she doesn't have to abide by the Law of Tai Chi. You have no right to punish her." Tai Chi's body released a violent force.

Her two chances to violate the Law of Paths were gifts given to her after spending many years of hard work. She did not want to waste them on something insignificant.

Moreover, she still had to deal with James and the Ying governor.

She gritted her teeth and said, “Even with your help, he won’t necessarily survive my Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation.” After speaking, Tai Chi unleashed her powers again and poured them into the rotating Tai Chi diagrams. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

Just when James was about to crush the second Tai Chi diagram, he was surrounded by violent flashes of lightning. His whole body trembled after being struck, and the pain penetrated deep into his soul.

He growled and plummeted from the sky.

Light Thea immediately cast her powers.

Countless dazzling light rays shot out to catch and stabilize him.

Tai Chi sneered, “Your Heavenly Path Powers are still too weak.

You can’t protect him.” Light Thea suddenly asked, “What if I offer my body as a sacrifice for him?”

Chapter 6297

Tai Chi immediately stopped.

The Law of Paths immediately released a dazzling light ray and enveloped Light Thea.

“Law of Paths?” Light Thea sensed that something was wrong.

Her expression changed instantly, but it was already too late.

She was imprisoned to the spot.

The Law of Paths sighed, “Stop it, Tai Chi.

The time for the three tribulations is up.” Tai Chi said furiously, “I already had insight and knew how strong James would be. I also expected the Ying governor to help him.

Even when Yegor and Herodias intervened, I wasn’t too surprised.

“However, I never expected the Light Heavenly Path, who has already realized her Heavenly Path Powers, to help him.

Why? Why is everyone going against me? Am I really a heinous existence?”

The Law of Paths sighed, “I understand your disappointment, but you're not allowed to continue using Heavenly Tribulations against him.

Otherwise, I will have to intervene.” Tai Chi roared, “Give me a little more time! I won't attack him! I just want to have a few words with the Light Heavenly Path.

I hope you don't interfere.” The Law of Paths fell silent. After a while, the dazzling light protecting Light Thea dispersed.

After Light Thea regained freedom, she stared at the Law of Paths and said, “How dare you deprive me of my rights to self- sacrifice?” Tai Chi suddenly said, “Don’t do something stupid.

It's useless for you to sacrifice your life and Heavenly Path Powers.” Light Thea roared, “You used the Heavenly Tribulations for personal affairs, Tai Chi.

You're very despicable and shameless.” Tai Chi said coldly, “I don't care what you say. If you want to save him, there is no need to sacrifice yourself.

If you agree to submit to the Law of Tai Chi and become a Heavenly Path under my command, I'll let him go.” Surprised, Light Thea asked, “Are you serious?” The Law of Paths said, “If you become a Heavenly Path Power under her, your emotions will be severed, and you will have to give up having a consciousness of your own.

You must think about it carefully.” Tai Chi said furiously, “I'm trying to recruit her under my command. It should have nothing to do with you, Law of Paths.” The Law of Paths fell silent.

Light Thea looked at Tai Chi and asked anxiously, “So as long as I become a Heavenly Path under your command, you'll let him go?” Tai Chi nodded and said, “Of course.

I'm the Lord of the Tai Chi World.

I would never lie to you.” Light Thea shouted, “Then let him go now. Once you do so, I'll do whatever you want.” The Law of Paths sighed heavily.

Meanwhile, Tai Chi laughed and said, “Good! You're very sentimental.” After speaking, Tai Chi waved her hand, and the seven large Tai Chi diagrams hovering above James' head suddenly disappeared. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

"after we part today, we will not be reunited again.

I understand right and wrong, so my heart is at peace.

Although I'm sad to go, there is no need to cry.

If we were meant to be, we would be together regardless." Light Thea's face filled with tears.

After agreeing to become a Heavenly Path under Tai Chi, she would forsake her emotions, desires, and consciousness. From that point onward, she would only obey the Law of Tai Chi.

In other words, her relationship with James would be entirely over.

Even if they met again, she would not recognize him or still have feelings toward him.

"In the end, we couldn't end up together.

I still have to lose you." After speaking, a white sacred lotus emerged from her forehead and quickly flew toward James.

Tai Chi growled, "What are you doing? Are you going against your words?" Light Thea raised his head and said, "I just want him to remember me.

I want to leave a mark, proof that I've lived in this world before." "You!" Tai Chi reached out her hand, and her powers immediately surrounded Light Thea.

At that moment, a fiery red knot of love emerged from Light Thea's body and connected to James. Tai Chi said tremblingly, "How romantic. In your whole life, you only cared about him.

Since that's the case, I must make sure to sever your strong emotions for him." After speaking, Tai Chi raised her hand and summoned countless light rays.

They immediately transformed into lightsabers and darted toward the red knot, reaching for James. At that moment, a purple-pink light suddenly bloomed from James' body and transformed into a beautiful figure. She raised her head to the Ninth- Rank Heavenly Tribulation and clenched her fist.

She was connected with Light Thea and naturally knew what was happening. However, she did not intervene.

Even if she wanted to, she did not have the strength to stop it.

At the same time, she was having a dilemma in her heart.

Essentially, they were of the same entity.

However, Light Thea was the only person capable of restraining her.

Dark Thea must eradicate and consume her to eliminate the potential threat.

However, Light Thea was sacrificing her life for James and was submitting to Tai Chi.

At that moment, Dark Thea could not help but feel conflicted.

"If we're meant to be, we'll find our way back together." Dark Thea slowly spread her palm, revealing Light Thea's white sacred lotus.

Light Thea quickly put away the white sacred lotus, raised her hand, and unleashed a purple-pink light toward Tai Chi.

With a loud bang, Tai Chi, who was trying to sever Light Thea's emotions, was struck and stumbled backward.

Chapter 6299

Dark Thea shouted, "You're an idiot! How can my other half be so stupid? Tai Chi is lying to you.

The time limit for the tribulations is over.

James has already survived the tribulations.

You don't have to submit to her." Light Thea was shocked by the reminder.

She murmured, "Tai Chi lied to me..." Before Light Thea could react, Tai Chi unleashed her powers and imprisoned her.

Tai Chi shouted at Dark Thea, "Your real enemy is the Light Heavenly Path! I'll help subdue her and take her under my control. You won't ever have to feel threatened by her existence again.

I went through painstaking efforts to help..." Dark Thea sneered, "Do you think I'm as easy to deceive as her? After you control her, you could use her against me in the future." After speaking, Dark Thea leaped into the sky and headed toward the Ninth- Rank Heavenly Tribulation.

Just when she was about to disperse the powers trapping Light Thea, a bright light burst out from Light Thea's body. The next moment, the white light rays permeated the area.

Dark Thea was struck and fell from the Ninth- Rank Heavenly Tribulation.

She sustained severe injuries again and spat out mouthfuls of blood.

She looked toward Light Thea and saw her sitting atop a white lotus.

Potent Heavenly Path Powers wrapped around her body, and she slowly rose higher into the air. At the same time, a red Tai Chi diagram appeared on her forehead.

She had officially become part of the Tai Chi Heavenly Path.

The red knot connecting Light Thea and James also snapped and disappeared.

Tai Chi laughed triumphantly, and her voice resounded throughout the area.

Dark Thea stabilized herself and stood beside James, who was wrapped in a dazzling light.

She murmured, "Hey, handsome man.

Your wide is about to run away." Tai Chi stopped laughing, then suddenly unleashed a powerful force, saying arrogantly, "Although the Heavenly Tribulations can't stop you, I'm sure there is something else that can.

Now that you two are already injured, you're just ants waiting to be slaughtered." After speaking, Tai Chi flipped her hands, and her illusory figure began to spin.

The next moment, a vast black and white Tai Chi diagram emerged above the Genesis Worlds.

The Tai Chi diagram rotated, and potent powers fell from the sky.

The dead creatures were instantly resurrected, and everything was returned to their original state. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

Even the powerhouses that had died in Skynet's headquarters returned to life.

Under the dazzling light, they had confused expressions.

The creatures that had perished under the Heavenly Tribulation were also revived instantly. Wherever the Tai Chi's lights touched would be full of vitality.

At that moment, Tai Chi diagrams appeared on the foreheads of numerous creatures in the Genesis Worlds, instantly improving their cultivation bases. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

Dark Thea's face instantly darkened after seeing the changes around her. She knew what kind of despicable and shameless plot Tai Chi was scheming. "My creatures of the Tai Chi World, hear my call.

I'm ordering everyone to kill James, the Dark Heavenly Path, and the members of Skynet," declared Tai Chi. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

Chapter 6300

"Anyone without a Tai Chi diagram on their foreheads is a sinner. Whoever finds them should punish them! The rules are as follows." Tai Chi's voice spread throughout the Genesis Worlds.

Then, numerous energy balls fell from the Tai Chi diagram in the sky, falling into the hands of living beings marked with a Tai Chi diagram on the forehead.

The energy balls were made to kill the so-called enemies.

Those without a Taji Chi diagram on their foreheads were enemies, divided into different levels with corresponding rewards. The energy balls would record their results and be rewarded with supreme treasures after killing a certain number of enemies. Additionally, the energy balls could track down James and Dark Thea's locations.

In the Ninth-Rank Heavenly Tribulation, the Law of Paths looked at Tai Chi and said solemnly, "That was your last chance to violate my laws." Tai Chi looked at the Law of Paths and said, "I know.

| won't allow such powerful existences like James and the Ying governor to exist. | want them dead." The Law of Paths sighed, "I really regret giving you two opportunities to disobey my laws.

Do you understand the consequences of your actions?" Tai Chi laughed and said, "Will the consequences be worse than the Tai Chi Tribulation that | can't possibly survive? If | don't survive the Tai Chi Tribulation, I'll die.

Then, who will control the Tai Chi World? It will have nothing to do with me.

"But if | survive, I'll rule the Tai Chi World for another one hundred and eight thousand epochs.

What kind of consequence can | not bear?" The Law of Path said coldly, "You're a sly and treacherous person. But you shouldn't forget he is the Chosen One.

You can torture, humiliate, and try to suppress him.

However, you can't kill him.

Nobody can." Tai Chi said arrogantly, "I can't kill him, but | can force him to reincarnate infinitely.

As long as he reincarnates more than eighty- one times, he will be nothing more than an ant." The Law of Path asked sternly, "Have you thought about the tribulations you will suffer? Goodluck, Tai Chi." Tai Chi shouted, "Wait a minute! Will you not take these two sinners away?" She pointed to the Yegor and Herodias sitting in the distance.

The Law of Paths snorted, "We're even now.

As for how I punish them, it is up to me.” Tai Chi snorted, “What do you mean?” The Law of Paths said solemnly, “Aren't they to be imprisoned for twenty thousand epochs? Although I can't change their fates, I can change the venue where they are imprisoned.” After speaking, the Law of Path unleashed a sacred light to wrap around Yegor and Herodias. Then, the light slowly pushed them back to Skynet's headquarters.

Tai Chi shouted furiously, “You! You're imprisoning them in Skynet? How is that even considered imprisonment?” The Law of Paths said solemnly, “James is right. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

I must be fair. Otherwise, I'd be an embarrassment.” “Take care of yourself, Tai Chi. The Chosen One isn't as easy to deal with as you think.

He's an unpredictable variable.” After speaking, the Law of Paths' sacred light descended from the Ninth-Rank Heavenly Tribulation and wrapped around James and Dark Thea. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel
