

THE ALMIGHTY DRAGON GENERAL

Chapter 6301

Tai Chi's black-and-white aura rolled up violently as she looked down from the Ninth- Rank Heavenly Tribulation.

James and Dark Thea, who were wrapped by the Law of Paths' sacred light, quickly recovered from their injuries and were at their best states again.

Under the sacred light, James' Ultimate Golden Body was slowly reformed, and it was stronger than ever before.

Tai Chi glared at the Law of Paths and said, "You! You're violating the laws established by the Supreme Path.

The Law of Paths firmly said, "I gave you two chances, so I'll do the same for them.

It's the fairness that | should uphold.

"T must warn you, Tai Chi.

If you violate the Law of Paths again, | will intervene." Tai Chi trembled after hearing the Law of Paths' oppressive warning. She never expected the Law of Paths, who had been on good terms with her, to turn against her.

Even with the countless means she had to punish James and Dark Thea, she could not use them if the Law of Paths constantly monitored her.

Of course, unless she was willing to give up her position. Dark Thea's clear eyes watched as James' Ultimate Golden Body remolded under the divine light in astonishment. "Ha.

Why is the Law of Paths giving you special treatment but not me? Isn't this a little unfair?" James slowly rotated within the sacred light.

As the last trace of power poured into his golden bones, his Ultimate Golden Body was remolded and was much more potent. He slowly raised his hand and said coldly, "Did the Law of Paths bestow this on me?" Dark Thea replied with envy, "Yes.

It seems that you, the Chosen One, are pretty favored." After being stunned momentarily, he raised his head toward the sky. Dark Thea suddenly said, "Don't be happy too early.

Tai Chi has issued an order for everyone in the Genesis Worlds to kill us.

Also, Yegor, Herodias, and the entire Skynet are on the target list." She scanned the area and sneered, "I'm afraid it won't be long before we are besieged by creatures from all over the Genesis Worlds." James frowned and said, "The Law of Paths was trying to be fair to us after giving Tai Chi the upper hand.

It helped us so we could take on the Genesis Worlds." Dark Thea said smilingly, "It will be a fight for life or death.

With the Law of Paths watching, Tai Chi won't dare to do anything extreme." James sneered, "Then, let's get ready for the big battle." The next moment, he took out dozens of Divine Tools and high- grade elixirs.

He quickly used a purple-red light to merge them. Following the buzzing sound, a giant sword filled with dazzling light appeared in the void.

Dark Thea exclaimed, "You forged them into a sword? That's a weapon stronger than Divine Tools, right? It's a Spiritual Tool?" James smiled indifferently and waved his hand.

The giant sword floated into his hand, and then he quickly slashed out. The surrounding space collapsed, and a loud rumbling sound erupted.

Afterward, he frowned and asked, "By the way, where is the Light Heavenly Path?" Dark Thea was stunned and unable to reply to his question.

James turned to her and asked, "Did she sacrifice herself to help me survive the tribulation?" Dark Thea slowly closed her beautiful eyes, not saying a word.

James confirmed his speculation just by her attitude. Afterward, he leaped into the air with the giant sword. He rushed toward the Ninth- Rank Heavenly Tribulation but was suppressed by the Law of Path's powers.

James roared, "Give her back to me, Tai Chi!" "you were furious about my injustice, so I gave you a fair chance, Chosen One. The Law of Paths' voice resounded.

"Whether you can withstand the powerhouses of the Tai Chi World will be atest for you.

Tai Chi isn't allowed to interfere, and neither can I.

The outcome of this battle will be up to the two of you.

"However, if you violate the Law of Paths now and head to the Ninth-Rank Heavenly Tribulation, I'll have to punish you.

This is your first warning." James growled, "I just want to know what happened to her!" The Law of Paths replied, "She's a Heavenly Path and has a duty.

Your priority should be to deal with your situation right now. It's a relatively fair battle.

No supernatural existence can help you two, nor will they intervene.” James gritted his teeth and returned to Dark Thea’s side again. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

At that moment, a massive group of creatures appeared from all directions. Their aura was so powerful that the sky dimmed.

Additionally, Tai Chi had resurrected the peerless powerhouses and grand patriarchs that had died at Skynet’s headquarters. All of them had appeared to kill them.

Behind them were more powerhouses at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation.

The weakest cultivators present were at the middle grade of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation.

James frowned and said, “Weren’t they already killed? How are they here again?” Dark Thea said coldly, “Tai Chi resurrected them.

She’s such a despicable and shameless person.

She violated the Law of Paths, determined to kill us.” “It seems the two of us are about to fight against the powerhouses of all the Genesis Worlds. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

It will be an intense fight for our lives, and our chances of winning are slim.” James snorted.

“Who said we’re fighting alone? You think he’s the only one with reinforcements?” He took out a token and said, “Let’s test how long we can last. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

This will be our last trump card.”

Countless powerhouses of the Genesis Worlds swarmed the area.

The weakest was at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Eight Tribulation peak.

There were about thousands of powerhouses at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation. The group besieged James and Dark Thea in multiple rows.

The Grand Patriarchs of various sects, who were at the Daeclon Rank, stood in the forefront.

The peerless powerhouses that fought James and Dark Thea in the previous battle, including Yzert, Xolani, Xaiden, and others, appeared one after another.

After being given another chance after perishing, these powerhouses were furious to see their opponent again. Each one emitted a murderous aura and was eager to take action.

Dark Thea scanned the surrounding powerhouses, nudged James, and asked, "Do you think they're people, ghosts, or puppets?" James replied, "Does it make any difference?" Dark Thea shook her head, saying, "Of course.

People feel pain, whereas ghosts and puppets don't feel anything." James fell silent.

"Let's try out our strength.

We won't know until we fight," Dark Thea said, raising her hand and summoning a Divine Tool.

A powerful Sword Light swept out to the surroundings.

The Sword Light spread, instantly killing the powerhouses with lower cultivation.

Everyone else began plummeting from the void except for the grand patriarchs and peerless powerhouses. “Kill the monsters!” Xolani roared, and then the powerhouses behind him quickly rushed toward James and Dark Thea. The powerhouses of the Genesis Worlds charged forward like a tsunami, and their loud shouts resounded. A huge battle instantly broke out.

Dark Thea’s purple- pink light rays darted out, instantly injuring many powerhouses.

Then, she quickly devoured them.

The Spiritual Tool in James’ hand was potent.

Each time he slashed out, it would take countless lives.

If he encountered powerhouses at the peak of the Yuraecon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation, he would absorb their energy to strengthen himself.

James had already successfully overcome the tribulations and was already at the low grade of the Yuraecon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation.

His combat strength was enough to fight someone at the Quasi Daeclon Rank.

The new power that he had formed was already more substantial than his Historia] and Marciais Power. Moreover, his Ultimate Golden Body had been repaired, and its strength had doubled.

At that moment, Xolani and many grand patriarchs watched from the void.

They were in disbelief after seeing James and Dark Thea standing their ground against the besiegement of tens of thousands of powerhouses.

They thought James' strength would have decreased significantly after the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation, and a peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation was enough to destroy them.

However, they discovered these powerhouses were only becoming resources for James and Dark Thea.

James and Dark Thea fought bravely against the group of powerhouses. The powerhouses were instantly sucked dry of their energy and returned them to their actual forms. Meanwhile, the two of them kept growing stronger.

After James had more than twenty powerhouses at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation, he had broken through another tribulation.

Tai Chi did not personally control the tribulation.

Instead, a Tribulation Envoy was in charge.

This time, the tribulation was less powerful.

James was in the middle of fighting countless powerhouses when the Heavenly Tribulation occurred. The countless powerhouses besieging them instantly perished under the tribulation's attacks.

Not long after, James entered the middle grade of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation.

James summoned evil spirits at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation around him.

They killed the surrounding powerhouses with ruthless force, or rather, they devoured them.

Every time the evil spirits absorbed a powerhouse, they would become stronger.

The grand patriarchs watched the void in horror.

They were reminded of a terrifying demon that once shattered the Tai Chi World into pieces— Franciscus Yuelan. James' evil spirits and Curse Magic made it seem like Franciscus had been resurrected.

Seeing him fight made them tremble in fear.

Xolani said, trembling, "T-That's impossible.

Has he already mastered the six extremes of Franciscus' Historial Great Curse?" Yzert said solemnly, "He's too terrifying.

If we allow him to continue growing, he'll eventually become another Franciscus." Xaiden looked at Xolani and Yzert, saying, "We must kill him today.

We can't allow so many powerhouses to send him their energies to improve anymore.

We must have our strongest grand patriarch take action and eliminate him immediately to prevent a future threat." "Okay!" yzert turned around and looked at the twenty or so grand patriarchs behind him, saying, "Let's eliminate these two demons!" The grand patriarchs were stunned, afraid to speak.

Yzert growled, "What's wrong? You're sacred after being killed once? Is a cultivator at the Yuaeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation enough to scare you? He doesn't have the Annihilation Heavenly Tribulation anymore.

You can easily deal with him and destroy his soul with your strengths.

"Additionally, we have Tai Chi's support.

Even if you die again, she will revive you." The grand patriarchs glanced at each other, gritted their teeth, and charged forward. As soon as they joined the battle, James and Dark Thea suddenly felt pressured.

After all, they were against dozens of powerhouses at the Quasi Daeclon Rank.

James was enduring well since he had the Ultimate Golden Body.

Even though he was attacked by six powerhouses at the Quasi Daeclon Rank, he was able to withstand.

However, Dark Thea was besieged by twelve grand patriarchs and was trapped inside a golden light barrier, completely unable to move.

James was furious after noticing her situation.

He raised a golden token, crushed it, and shouted, "You think you're the only ones with reinforcements? I have reinforcements too!" The next moment, a terrifying golden light spread from the token in all directions. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

The golden light dispersed, and then a murderous aura approached the area.

Apart from James and Dark Thea, everyone else was suppressed and panicked.

A few with weaker cultivation ranks instantly exploded into pieces.

The next moment, 81 Azure Dragons flew toward them from the east.

They growled and rushed straight for the group of powerhouses.

Their terrifying growls erupted and caused the surroundings to tremble.

Many of the powerhouses, and even two at the Quasi Daeclon Rank, were taken out.

Shortly after, 81 White Tigers appeared from the west and roared, causing strong winds to gush to spread. Several more powerhouses perished after being hit by the sonic wave.

Immediately afterward, 81 Vermilion Birds swarmed from the south and 81 Black Tortoises from the north. They rushed toward the group of powerhouses, instantly killing the majority of them.

Twenty grand patriarchs survived but were with severe injuries.

At that moment, every one of them had a horrified expression.

It was the powers of the Four Symbols—Azure Dragons, White Tigers, Vermilion Birds and Black Tortoises. In a short moment, the four symbols appeared in groups of 81 and wiped out the powerhouses besieging James and Dark Thea. Such terrifying strength was hardly ever seen in the Genesis World.

“An army so mighty, so spectacular.

Like turbulent waves, they drown their enemies with no mercy.” An ethereal voice came from the void. Shortly after, a gold Light Sword pierced through the void, leaving behind a glowing trail.

It circled the surviving powerhouses.

Suddenly, 32 golden swords materialized and pierced through the survivors.

The incident happened so fast, and the grand patriarchs had no time to escape.

The golden swords withdrew and quickly sliced the powerhouses' throats.

They let out muffled groans and exploded instantly.

Xolani and the others gasped as they watched everything happen.

They shivered in fear as if a devil had appeared before them.

At that moment, the unidentified voice resounded once more.

“Killing in the blink of an eye, leaving no survivors behind.

Skills that surpass all but a name known to none.” “Watch out! It’s the Soul Seizing Sword Art!” Xaiden shouted, then quickly fled. Xolani and Yzert quickly cast golden shields to defend against the 32 swords speeding toward them.

Unfortunately, the swords contained potent force, and their shields were shattered in seconds.

If not for their quick reaction time, the swords would have penetrated their bodies.

They turned around and saw the 32 swords darting at the others who had not escaped in time. The sounds of the swords piercing through flesh resounded.

The powerhouses were completely unable to fight back.

Xolani’s face darkened after he saw many grand patriarchs injured.

Panickedly, he said, “I-It’s the strongest man of the Genesis World, Clayton Sindward!” Yzert’s face changed drastically. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

Xolani was livid. He stretched out his hand and grabbed the fourth sword that had escaped with a massive grey palm.

As soon as his powers confronted the sword, loud bangs erupted.

Chapter 6305

A potent shock wave spread, and the grand patriarchs were blasted away again. They were like leaves caught in a gushing wind, completely unable to balance themselves. After the impact, their injuries worsened.

“Damn it!” Xolani roared and unleashed another two palm attacks, which immediately duplicated and shattered the 32 golden swords.

The sky dimmed once more, and the void trembled.

Tai Chi, who was watching from the Ninth-Rank Heavenly Tribulation, exclaimed, “Clayton? What is he doing here?” The Law of Paths sneered, “It’s the surprise gift Franciscus had left for you.” Tai Chi fell silent, but black-and-white powers rolled violently.

Meanwhile, a slender elderly man wearing a gray robe appeared in the east. As he approached, he leisurely poured wine from a gourd into his mouth.

The Azure Dragons, White Tigers, Vermilion Birds and Black Tortoises suddenly roared after sensing their master and formed a Four Symbols Formation.

Xolani and the other powerhouses besieging James were instantly dumbfounded and had terrified looks after seeing the elderly man.

James, who was supporting Dark Thea, was also surprised.

Everyone had just witnessed the destructive powers of the incoming man.

With just two Supernatural Powers, he had killed the majority of their powerhouses.

Even the grand patriarchs who survived were already severely injured and unable to fight back.

The elderly man was the cause of such significant damage, yet he was like a drunkard with no status. His aura was ordinary, and it was hard to tell he was a master cultivator.

As he passed by, the seriously injured grand patriarchs trembled and backed away.

Xolani, Yzert, and Xaiden also felt chills down their spines.

The person before them was like a formidable enemy.

The drunken man approached James, looked at Dark Thea, and asked, "Your wife?" James frowned and said, "Sir.." The drunkard sighed, "Don't you recognize me?" He raised his hand and covered his face.

Shortly after, his appearance was of the tombkeeper at Franciscus' grave." James was overjoyed after recognizing him.

He said happily, "It's really you." The drunkard said disappointedly, "You're such a loser.

You couldn't deal with these weaklings even though you have an Ultimate Golden Body, the Nirvana Golden Bones and Historial Curse Magic? How embarrassing." James was stunned momentarily, then said embarrassedly, "I Dark Thea said softly, "This old man is very interesting.

Where did you find him?" James was unsure of how he should explain the situation. Dark Thea suddenly lowered her voice and said, "You shouldn't listen to him.

He might be sending you to death.

Although he is only at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation, he possesses the power of the Sylverstar and Taiterm.

It'll be easy for him to kill them.

“You, on the other hand, are too weak.

Although you have an Ultimate Golden Body, your offensive strength is lacking. You shouldn't take the risk.

Otherwise, you might die.” James frowned after hearing Dark Thea’s advice.

He turned to Clayton and asked, “Can I really kill him?” Clayton shook his head, saying, “There’s no guarantee, but you should be able to defeat them.

It!] depend on your comprehensive skills.

However, you might get severely injured or even lose your life.

Do you want to risk it?” James took a deep breath.

He thought, “Of course, I’ll have to take the risk.

I only have one chance to ask him to help me eliminate them.

However, I’ll be able to use the knowledge I gain from him.

Additionally, I’ll learn how to fully utilize my Supernatural Powers.

It's a very rare opportunity that doesn’t come by easily.

‘He is Franciscus’ friend, so he would not hurt me.

Since he allowed me to learn from him, there must be more to it.’ James concluded, then replied firmly, “Please guide me, Sir. I’ll take care of them myself.” Clayton looked at James and said, “Alright.

Show me your Supernatural Powers.” After being shocked momentarily, James nodded hurriedly in response.

Then, he raised his hand, and a formation instantly enveloped them.

Immediately afterward, countless Quasar Lightning with a trace of dark tribulation lightning fell from above them.

Then, multicolored flames emerged from the ground of the formation, soaring into the sky.

Inside the formation, the Galeot Wind also gushed toward them.

Lastly, James summoned a dozen evil spirits at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation.

Seeing James' Supernatural Powers, Clayton frowned and asked, "Why don't you use that bell of yours?" James sighed.

"Lesia is seriously injured, and the bell is without a spiritual body..." Clayton interrupted James, saying, "Even without a spiritual body, it's still a Spiritual Tool.

Transform the bell into your armor." James nodded and quickly followed his instructions, turning the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell into armor on his body.

Clayton pointed at the dozens of evil spirits in the formation and said, "Why are your evil spirits at such high cultivation ranks? Don't you have the Marciais Power? Why don't you infuse Marciais Power into them instead?" Surprised, James asked, "My evil spirits can use Marciais Power to fight?" Clayton pushed James' forehead and said, "Idiot.

How are you so stupid? Evil spirits have to fight in close quarters. Of course, they can use Marciais Power.

Thinking back, he infused the Third Marciais Combat Form's power into evil spirits and defeated three powerhouses at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation's Consummation while only at the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation's lower grade." James immediately did as he was told and infused his Marciais Power into the evil spirits.

Immediately afterward, their strength skyrocketed, and black light rays burst from their bodies. At that moment, James realized how stupid he had been.

He only knew how to cast evil spirits but was completely oblivious to how to use them effectively. "The Quasar Lightning is not bad." Clayton grabbed a Quasar Lightning and observed it.

Then, he merged it with the purple flames from the ground, turning it into a purple-red flame ball. Clayton sneered, "Fire and electricity are from the same source.

Why are you using them separately? That's such a waste.

Others could dominate the world with just one of these Supernatural Powers.

You've so many but don't know how to integrate them.

Are you that busy, or are you just lazy? Perhaps you don't even understand paths?" James felt embarrassed after being lectured. He quickly began to fuse the flames and lightning. Then, he summoned Hemera.

She emitted a purple-red light ray and enhanced his cultivation rank, helping him instantly reach the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation peak."

Clayton pointed at Hemera and said, "To the left arm." Hemera could sense Clayton's terrifying aura, so she hurriedly submerged into James' left arm.

Immediately afterward, a blazing purple-red flame emerged from James's palm.

"One more important thing to remember.

If you can predict and intercept their move, you'll be able to use a Supernatural Power to suppress and defeat them.

Chapter 6307

After listening to Clayton's advice, James felt enlightened.

The reason he was not proficient in his Supernatural Powers was not because of laziness or stupidity.

It was simply due to a lack of guidance.

In the past, he relied on himself to explore and study the Marciais Combat Form.

He hardly used the Marciais Combat Form unless he was desperate, so his understanding was definitely lacking. Now that Clayton had given him some pointers, he grasped the idea of how to use it.

James looked at Clayton and asked, "Can I fight them now, Sir?" Clayton replied, "You should try it.

Let's use an easier target to practice first.

You must be as light as a feather and defeat your opponent in three moves.

Otherwise, you won't stand a chance." James thought to himself, 'Is it even possible to defeat a powerhouse at the peak of the Yuraecon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation?' He turned to the formation and noticed Xolani and the other grand patriarchs were planning to launch attacks at him.

Clayton swept his palm forward, and a loud explosion erupted. One of the grand patriarchs that had charged forward was instantly crushed into pieces.

Another powerhouse that was also planning to attack immediately tried to retreat after being startled by the death of his comrade.

However, Clayton raised his hand and grabbed him.

"y-You, Mr.

Clayton! We have no grudges! Why..." Before the man could finish his sentence, Clayton lifted him by the neck. "You ants are lucky.

After Leyla died, I swore an oath.

I can only use my full strength once.

Then, I must never partake in battles and will have to store away my weapons.

I won't be allowed to engage in a serious battle with anyone.

My oath is still in effect.” Clayton's oppressive voice resounded throughout the sky. “Just now, I only used half of my strength and will leave the rest to James.

We must set up some rules.

“First, you ants are not allowed to leave the Four Symbols Formation.

I'll kill whoever tries to leave.

“Secondly, there is a cultivation disparity between James and you bunch.

So you must exchange a hundred thousand moves with him first before attacking in a group.

“Thirdly, I'll kill you all and destroy your sects if you're unable to injure or kill him.

“Lastly, Tai Chi isn't allowed to interfere in the battle, or else, I won't hold back.” James was the first to speak. He questioned, “I understand the first, second, and fourth rules.

But what is the third rule supposed to mean?” Clayton raised his head and said, “I meant it literally.” James walked over to Clayton with Dark Thea. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel Clayton shrugged and said, “I allowed you to choose.

You chose to do this.” James wanted to retort him, but he did indeed decide on his own.

He suddenly felt like Clayton was pretty sly.

Clayton put his hands behind his back and said proudly, “As a man, four things in life make us the happiest.

Drinking the strongest wine, fighting the fiercest battles, flirting with the most beautiful women, and killing the cruelest people. If you don’t have the courage, just give up.

The weak do not deserve to live.” James was startled by his words.

He looked at the pale- faced woman beside him and said, “The most beautiful woman in my eyes is already here, and it’s not like | haven’t tasted some good wine.

Now it’s time | fight fierce battles and kill cruel people.

| agree with your teaching and shall follow through.” Dark Thea looked at James in disbelief and asked, “Are you crazy?” James scanned the grand patriarchs around him and said, “I’m a man.

These people gathered here are the strongest and most ruthless in the Genesis Worlds.

It's a very rare opportunity.” 00 The grand patriarchs that had survived hovered in the voice with shocked and furious expressions.

Usually, they were the rule makers of their own sects and even the Genesis Worlds.

Yet, rules were being forced upon them by someone other than Tai Chi.

They felt humiliated by the situation.

Despite their anger, they could do nothing against the peerless powerhouse before them.

As soon as Clayton showed up, he cast two Supernatural Powers and took the lives of many strong cultivators.

The powerhouse ranking of the Genesis World was reshuffled after so many died under his hands.

With his terrifying strength, supposedly peerless powerhouses like Xolani, Yzert and Xaiden were not a match against him. The other grand patriarchs were not even worthy of fighting him.

Tai Chi watched from the Ninth- Rank Heavenly Tribulation, and the potent powers emitting from her body gushed violently.

She said furiously, “Arrogant! So arrogant! The devil's friend is so arrogant! He should be punished!” The Law of Paths sneered, “I'm also a friend of Franciscus, so should I also be punished?” Tai Chi was stunned momentarily but immediately retorted, “Back then, you allowed him to destroy the Tai Chi World.

Are you going to let it happen again?” The Law of Paths said coldly, “If you continue intervening, then the possibility can't be ruled out.

If Clayton fights with all his strength, not only will the Tai Chi Worlds be destroyed, but all creatures on it will be extinct. By then, you'll have nothing more than a useless position.

You'll be all by yourself.” Meanwhile, Clayton tossed the powerhouses toward James and said, “Practice with him first. I'm giving you a thousand moves to defeat him.

Otherwise, you're not qualified to be called Franciscus' successor.” James watched the disheveled grand patriarch stand up and immediately activated the Third Marciais Combat Form.

A mysterious gray light emerged from his body, and his combat strength skyrocketed. Seeing that James was not about to hold back, the grand patriarch hurriedly activated his Genesis Divine Light.

Chapter 6309

After hearing Clayton's advice, James immediately changed his strategy.

When the grand patriarch dodged, James quickly dashed over to try and intercept him.

However, he was knocked away.

Seeing James stabilizing himself while spitting blood, Clayton facepalmed, completely disappointed by his performance. The next moment, James appeared before the grand patriarch and launched an explosive punch. Not only did he successfully block his opponent's path, he also landed the blow and sent him flying. James' attack contained the purple-red power he had created and the fusion of the Quasar Lightning and multicolored flames. His powerful attack plunged a bloody hole in the grand patriarch's body.

“It's working.” James quickly made another move.

Before the grand patriarch could recover, James quickly circulated him, causing afterimages.

At the same time, James landed punches on the grand patriarch.

He utilized his purple-red flames and Sword Energies of his Spirit Tool.

The grand patriarch screamed under the relentless attacks.

Xolani and the other powerhouses watched in shock.

They never expected James to have improved so much after receiving some guidance from Clayton. If they allowed him to continue growing, he would eventually become a terrifying existence. Suddenly, a loud bang resounded.

The grand patriarch, who was surrounded by James' afterimages, exploded.

James quickly seized the opportunity and grabbed the grand patriarch's Historial Energy Ball.

Then, he swallowed it, and his strength increased significantly.

The entire area fell terrifyingly silent.

Everyone looked at James as if he was a devil.

They found it hard to believe their eyes.

Dark Thea, on the other hand, cheered.

She gave James a thumbs-up and said, "That was so cool! In this life, I'm determined to have you as my man!" Clayton shook his head, dissatisfied with the results.

James looked at him and asked hurriedly, "Was it more than a thousand moves?" Clayton replied angrily, "It's been one thousand and one hundred moves.

What is wrong with you? Why are you trying to be cool while fighting? You're being too flashy. An absolute powerhouse won't waste an extra move if he can.

James was hoping for a compliment but got lectured instead.

At that moment, he felt incredibly embarrassed. Clayton shouted, "Next!" The remaining grand patriarchs standing behind Xolani, Xaiden and Yzert were terrified. None of them dared to step up for the challenge.

Clayton's face darkened, and he said, "Do you need me to use force?" Xolani gritted his teeth and said, "Go, Sterling." Everyone turned to an elderly man with gray hair. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

The elderly man's lips twitched in fear.

He asked frantically, "Why me, Xolani?" Yzert said solemnly, "Out of the bunch of us, you know the Marciais Combat Form the best. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

After Clayton gave him some guidance, he figured out how to suppress our Genesis.

You're the only one who can compete with him and find out his trump card." Sterling slowly clenched his fists and said, "So you want me to sacrifice first?" Xaiden said slowly, "No. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

It's just that he's too arrogant because he has Clayton helping him. We're sending you to extinguish his confidence.

It would be best if you can severely injure him, rid him of combat effectiveness or even kill him."

Chapter 6310

Yzert quickly agreed, saying, "He's right. Although Clayton is arrogant, he is a man of his word. He had already laid out a few rules just now. You just need to fight with all you've got."

Listening to their deceptive words, Sterling took a deep breath and cursed them silently, 'Yeah, but I'll have to kill him, right? You guys are so powerful but don't dare to take action. Instead, you're using and sacrificing US.'

Despite Sterling's dissatisfaction, he had no choice. He gritted his teeth and said solemnly, "If I die in battle, I hope you guys take care of the Davethi Sect for me."

After speaking, Sterling flew out and immediately launched fierce attacks at James.

"Ha! This old man has no sportsmanship!" James quickly dodged the series of attacks. Then, he raised his hand, and several evil spirits notarized, quickly spreading out.

Sterling's heart panicked after seeing the terrifying cultivation ranks of the evil spirits. However, he suppressed his emotions and bravely continued the fight.

More than a dozen evil spirits surrounded him,

James flew into the air and threw a series of attacks at Sterling. Loud bangs resounded, and Sterling's body had countless holes after being struck.

How? How are you so strong?" Sterling shouted, and then a bright blue light erupted from his body.

The blue light spread rapidly, and a powerful Qrohm knocked James away. James was caught off guard and almost fell headlong into the ground.

After he stabilized his body, his chest heaved, and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

After all, Sterling was a powerhouse at the Quasi Daeclon Rank. His strength was not something that a cultivator at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation could compete with, let alone someone like James, who was only in the middle grade of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation.

Sterling's blue light shone brightly. He roared, "So what if you have the Marcials Combat Form? It's nothing special! My cultivation rank is enough to crush you."

After speaking, Sterling transformed into a ball of blue light and spun rapidly, shooting countless blue light rays.

James frowned and waved his hand to ward off the blue light rays approaching him. However, he could not find a way to get close to his opponent.

Clayton shouted, "You idiot! Do you not know how to use the evil spirits to resist the attacks and get close to him?"

After hearing the suggestion, James summoned a dozen evil spirits to resist the attacks. Then, he transformed into a purple-red Sword Light and passed through the blue light rays, heading straight for sterling.

Boom!

A loud rumble erupted, and countless blue light rays permeated the area. The Timaeus Sect below them was destroyed once again. The numerous buildings were reduced to rubble, and many of the beings that had just resurrected perished again. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

Puff!

Sterling stepped away and clenched his chest. He glared at the purple-red Sword Light and said, Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

"You... You broke my Bluesharp Formation?"

James said smilingly, "You must've been holding back. Play with me for a while longer." Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

After speaking, James flashed in front of Sterling once again.

"Presumptuous!" sterling roared, and then his whole body erupted with a violent Qrohm.
