

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6366

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6366-As soon as James entered the second secret room, he was immediately blocked by a powerful restriction.

He frowned and cast the Terrastride Step, instantly shattering the restriction.

After he took three more steps, more than a dozen restrictions in front of him were shattered.

On the fourth step, countless restrictions collapsed with loud explosions.

The entire secret room shook when he took the fifth step, and every remaining restriction began to collapse.

At that moment, a terrifying roar came from ahead of him.

The sound waves permeated the air, shocking James.

He spread his hand and soared into the sky.

Then, he took seven consecutive steps.

His powerful Chaos Essence spread and shattered the sound waves.

“Amazing, Chosen One.” A cold voice suddenly came from ahead of him.

James stepped forward, and the voice’s owner instantly appeared.

In front of him was a long-haired young man in a black robe, standing with his hands behind his back.

Standing behind the young man was a terrifying monster, emitting an oppressive aura.

It was a Taotie, the original form of the handsome young man.

James politely raised his hand and said, “It’s an honor to meet you, Sir.” Taotie stared at James and said, “Let me warn you.

[ don’t have a good temper like Yrian and won’t be helping you.

Behind me is the secret room containing the Dawnblaze Form.

Whether you obtain it or not is up to you.

As for sparring, I'll give you only three chances.

Once you've used up the chances, I'll devour you." After speaking, he made an inviting gesture to James.

James was stunned momentarily, but he still thanked Taotie and walked through the void.

The next moment, Taotie moved his hand and instantly closed the secret room door.

James took a look and smiled helplessly, "This senior has quite a personality." Lesia said, "He's more powerful than Yrian.

He's a Taotian that can devour anything.

He has a hot temper and is ruthless.

Nobody dares to provoke him easily." James frowned, then looked at the densely packed inscriptions on the wall.

The inscriptions were different and much more complex than those in the first secret room.

After observing them for a while, his eyes darkened.

Initially, he tried using the previous method to comprehend them.

He imagined them as pictures in his mind, but it failed.

Desperate, he had no choice but to act out the inscriptions.

However, this did not help him decipher them.

Let's give it a go." He stared at the inscriptions and began to use his meridian points to decipher them.

James' eyes widened, and he exclaimed, "Oh! It's working! But I'm not sure how to do this right.

Can you get me a map of meridian points?" Lesia did not reply, but a red light quickly flashed in James' eyes.

Then, the map of a human body's meridians appeared before him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6367-Following the meridian map, James began to study the inscriptions.

He gradually collected them into his body and felt his meridians activated.

At that moment, he felt a comfortable wave surging through his body.

Suddenly, his body was as light as a feather.

He took a step forward and instantly banged into a wall.

"Damn.

I can't practice here." Lesia reminded him, "Didn't Yrian give you a Boundless Bead? You can practice within that space." James nodded and immediately removed the Boundless Bead.

Then, he collected the inscriptions on his body and jumped into space.

After entering vast space, James quickly discovered a universe hundreds of thousands of light-years away.

James stood in the void, looking at the universe and the surrounding planets.

He said surprisedly, "Wow.

I didn't expect this new skill to be even more powerful than the Terrastride Step.

I got so far in just one step." Lesia mused, "The Dawnblaze Form is one of the top skills.

It allows you to travel through long distances.

It goes up to four levels.

You can summon multiple clones and attack simultaneously to kill off strong opponents easily.” “Clayton became famous and gained the reputation as the most mysterious and powerful person in the Genesis Worlds with the Dawnblaze Form’s first level.” James gasped in shock.

‘The Dawnblaze Form’s first level was enough for Clayton to become the strongest person in the Genesis Worlds.

If I were to master the fourth level, I would be invincible, wouldn’t I?’ James teleported back to his original spot, leaving the Boundless Bead’s space.

Immediately afterward, he focused on cultivating the Dawnblaze Form.

At that moment, Taotie stood at the door of the secret room.

He leaned against the stone wall and stuffed his mouth with a few small spirit beasts, seemingly enjoying himself.

Yrian walked over and asked, “Why don’t you give him some advice?” Taotie did not even look at Yrian.

He grabbed a cup of Chaos Absinthe from the void and drank it in one gulp.

Yrian said earnestly, “As trial supervisors, we should at least be able to present a decent report.

If you just let him be and he becomes corrupted...” “Are you done?” Taotie interrupted him, saying, “He’s in my secret room, so I’ll take care of it.

It had nothing to do with you.” Yrian sighed after seeing Taotie’s unfriendly expression.

He was aware that Taotie was still angry with him.

After all, he was the one who suggested to their grand patriarch that they withdraw from the Tai Chi World.

Taotie, on the other hand, was the first to remonstrate the idea.

After that incident, the two had been on bad terms.

Taotie looked hostile every time he saw Yrian.

Yrian sighed and sat down next to Taotie.

He reached out to the void and also grabbed a Chaos Absinthe.

Then, he took a slow sip from his cup.

After a long time, Yrian said, “The Grand Patriarch has brought the Ying governor back.

Meanwhile, Clayton is waiting with guilt for James...” Taotie ignored him.

Yrian said, “The Chosen One carries our dreams.

Yrian shrugged and said, “I don’t have any motive.

We have an agreement to not leave with our main bodies.
