

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6476-“The Yin Tai Chi is about to go all out. Be careful, James!” Hador hurriedly shouted toward the void.

The dark figure suddenly morphed into a black mass and weaved through the gaps between the Sword Lights in the sky. Then, it circled James rapidly.

James experienced an indescribable pain coursing through his body. It felt as though each part of his body had been subjected to countless vicious attacks. At the same time, his soul felt like it was seared by flames. The excruciating was unbearable.

“Argh!” With a roar, James’ Ultimate Golden Body erupted with a torrent of ominous grey, black, and white energy, dispelling the black mist around him.

The next moment, James’ body was covered with dark needles, protruding from every inch of his skin, and blood oozed out of the micro-wounds.

Upon careful inspection, it became apparent that these dark needles were not needles, but mini swords shrunk to the utmost extent. They relentlessly drained James’ Marciais Power.

James staggered and found himself kneeling on the ground the next moment. He braced himself with one hand, and a series of bloody coughs came from his mouth.

Lucille cried out in distress, “Forty-nine!”

She was about to rush to him but was stopped by Hador.

“You’ll die. If you go there now, you’ll only become a burden.”

At that moment, a piercing laughter came from the black mass in the void. Gradually, it rose into the sky and became a dark, ominous figure.

Her sinister voice echoed through the area, a testament to her dominance. At that moment, it seemed she was asserting dominance after she gained the upper hand. “Do you really believe mastering the Marciais Combat Form makes you invincible, James?”

‘You’ve only reached the Fifth Xaeclon Rank. Even with the Marciais Combat Form’s enhancements, you’re still no match against me.

“You devoured Yianni’s remnant soul and consciousness, so you must already know about my four primary clones. However, you are clueless about my other four subsidiary clones within them.” “The so-called black-and-white, yin-and-yang, good-and-evil, and blessing- and-misfortune pairs, where one aspect serves as the primary and the other as the auxiliary. The formers take the primary roles, whereas the latter are supplementary roles.

“Did you think it was possible to eliminate me just because you managed to force my counterpart, Yang Tai Chi, into his original form? Don’t you realize he is just my subsidiary clone?”

As the Yin Tai Chi’s words sunk in, James remained silent.

However, Hador and Lucille displayed expressions of utter shock while watching from the void.

They never expected Tai Chi’s true strength to have reached such terrifying heights. She could have substantial clones, but they also had consciousness to form auxiliary clones. Over the countless entrapochs, Tai Chi had not been idle, and her strength had grown significantly.

The Yin Tai Chi stopped laughing and peered down condescendingly at the James. ‘You’ve been reckless and taken advantage of, but we still think of you as the most exceptional and promising individual among the countless beings of the Tai Chi World. You’re the closest to reaching the Daeclon Rank.

“My main self believes you were still young and made naive mistakes.

She’s willing to look past them. Hasn’t your goal always been to find your wife and not to achieve greatness in cultivation? Don’t you hate machinations and power struggles?” i’ll give you a chance right now. Should you swear loyalty and submit to the Law of Tai Chi, we’ll appoint you as the Yang governor and immediately help you reach the Ninth Xaeclon Rank.

“You already have complete mastery over the Marciais Combat Form. With my main self’s support, you’ll also be able to cultivate Historial Power to its greatest extent. When that happens, you’d possess both Yin and Yang Power. Then, reaching the Daeclon Rank would no longer be just a dream.

“Moreover, my main self can merge your wife’s counterpart and allow her to reclaim her position as the Yin governor. You two can remain together forever. In the Tai Chi World, you’d only be second to one. You’ll have an unmatched status and a lifespan equal to that of heaven and earth.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6477-The Yin Tai Chi took a deep breath and said, “As for those you have grudges with, you’re free to do whatever you want with them. The Ying World, Forladtt Land, Skynet, and lustus Sect’s living beings that you care about can also recreate a new Ying World and reintegrate with the Tai Chi World.

“By doing so, the different worlds and living beings will be at peace.”

Observing James’ silence, the Yin Tai Chi’s tone suddenly turned cold, warning him, “This is the most generous offer we can offer you, James. Everything you care about will be safe as long as you make the right decision.” “Should you insist on going against US, then we won’t hesitate to extinguish your soul here and now, leaving you no chance of reincarnation. On top of that, we’ll eradicate everyone you hold dear.”

Upon hearing the Yin Tai Chi’s words, James slowly lifted his head with a grin.

Hador shouted anxiously, ‘You mustn’t agree, James! That’s the same trick that she used with Franciscus.’

The next moment, the Yin Tai Chi waved her hand and unleashed a formidable Tai Chi Power to seal Hador and Lucille.

“Who are you to interrupt our conversation,” the Yin Tai Chi bellowed arrogantly. Then, he turned to James and said, “It’s time to decide.”

James slowly rose from the ground and wiped the blood from his mouth. He reached out, and a Chaos Absinthe materialized in his hand. Then, he drowned the wine in one go.

Meanwhile, the Yin Tai Chi waited patiently for his response.

After a while, James lifted his head and asked, "I didn't quite catch everything you said earlier. Are you asking me to become the Yang governor?"

The Yin Tai Chi answered, 'Yes. It's a revered position, and...' James interrupted abruptly, "Does that mean I have to call you mom?"

The Yin Tai Chi coughed, rendered speechless by his question.

James remarked casually, "Plus, the Yang governor's reputation is tarnished. Putting me in that position is like throwing me into chaos. Is this your idea of courtesy and sincerity? What's more, being Yang Yi is like having sores on your head and pus on your feet. That reputation is too tarnished," James remarked casually. "Putting me in that position is like tossing me into a cesspool. Where's your sincerity?"

The Yin Tai Chi bristled with ominous energy as she retorted, "Don't push your limits, James!

James snapped back, "Why are you so easily irritated? Do you have the sincerity to negotiate taking me under you or not?"

Taken aback, the Yin Tai Chi suppressed her anger and replied, "Fine, what do you want? Let's cut to the chase."

James replied with a smirk, "That's more like it. The position of the Yang governor is already way too tarnished for my liking. It's incredibly disrespectful for you to offer it to me. I want a new role."

The Yin Tai Chi inquired eagerly, "Whatever position it is you desire, it won't be a problem as long as it's achievable." 'You certainly can satisfy me. I'm a very simple person and have never been one for vanity or power. I simply lack a few servants."

The Yin Tai Chi grinned and said, 'That'll be easy. You can have anyone in the Tai Chi World as your slave."

James cheered, "Fantastic! I'm reassured by your words. Come down here and reveal yourself. I need a hand in massaging my shoulders and healing my wounds."

Taken aback, the Yin Tai Chi asked, "W-What do you mean?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6478-James said impatiently, 'You sounded reasonable just now, so I thought you were quite clever. But now I'm questioning your intelligence.'

The Yin Tai Chi retorted, 'You!'

James bellowed, "Get down here! I'm demanding to have you as my slave. You should start understanding your position and how to serve your master."

The Yin Tai Chi was enraged by his words, and a terrifying aura surged from her body. She declared, "I've given you the chance, James. Since you do not appreciate it, don't blame me for being ruthless."

In response, James tossed the wine jar in his hand at the Tai Chi Power aimed at him. Then, he cast the Terrastride step and ascended into the sky. At the same time, the mini swords embedded in his body were immediately ejected. His Ultimate Golden Body that was covered in blood healed instantly by his Chaos Essence.

James approached the Yin Tai Chi step-by-step, defying her Tai Chi Power's restrictions. He stomped over the mini black swords, and the surroundings seemed to have stopped.

The Yin Tai Chi shouted in fear, "This...this can't be happening! My powers..."

Before she could finish, James controlled the myriad of black swords and commanded toward the Yin Tai Chi. Her body was penetrated numerous times.

The Yin Tai Chi spat out a mouthful of blood, and the black energy around her body began to flutter violently. With a roar, she attempted to break free from the Marcials Combat Power and return to the black-and-white mist in the air.

‘You should stay,’ James commanded and reached out to the void. A colossal hand emerged and caught the Yin Tai Chi, forcefully dragging her back.

With the wave of a hand, Lesia appeared with the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell and promptly captured the Yin Tai Chi.

The Yin Tai Chi let out a horrified scream as she relentlessly pounded against the Original Origin Bell’s walls. However, her efforts proved futile.

“Let’s try striking the bell twice. Perhaps I’ll be able to acquire Tai Chi Power,” James suggested. Then, he raised his hand and rang the bell. The Yin Tai Chi’s piercing cry would resound from inside the bell with each hit.

To James’ disappointment, he did not feel any powers being absorbed. He concluded that the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell could not extract Tai Chi and Historial Power.

Suddenly, James asked Lesia, “How can we reveal her true form?”

Lesia replied, “You want to sleep with her?”

James was rendered speechless. He thought, ‘Why does this girl have such dirty thoughts?’ Lesia answered, “She’s a fish. If you want to see her true form, you’ll have to beat her up until she returns to it. As for her human form, only her main self has one.”

James silently rang the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell, which intensified the Yin Tai Chi’s screams and made them even more agonizing.

Meanwhile, the black-and-white mist in the void churned violently, causing fierce winds and lightning bolts to fill the air.

The disturbance alerted the Ying World’s living beings.

At that moment, James raised his head and looked toward the sky.

“How arrogant, Chosen One.” A woman’s voice resonated from the mist, carrying an aura of authority that compelled reverence from those who heard it.

Startled, James quickly consulted Lesia, "Is that another one of Tai Chi's clones?" Lesia clarified, "It's Tai Chi herself. However, she can't leave the Thirty- Three Heavens. Otherwise, the Law of Paths will annihilate her."

James asked, "So, is it a bluff?"

"Thea?" James' expression changed drastically.

"It's the Light Thea," Lesia cautioned, her voice carrying a note of warning, "Tai Chi is trying to use dirty tricks."

James felt uneasy as he watched the radiant woman halt silently near the black-and-white mist.

Suddenly, a single word came to mind-puppet.

James thought, "That's right. Now that she's under Tai Chi's control, she's basically a puppet." "How about we make another bet, James?" Tai Chi's voice came from the void.

James clenched his fist and responded, "I'll discuss if you come down here, or else I'm not wasting time with you." The mist in the void fluctuated, but Tai Chi remained silent. It appeared that she chose not to speak for the moment.

Suddenly, Light Thea descended and stopped before James.

I'll converse with you," Light Thea finally spoke in place of Tai Chi.

James furrowed his brow, fixing his gaze on her with intense scrutiny.

He understood that Light Thea might have had all her memories wiped clean, including her emotions and desires. To her, he was no longer Forty- nine nor a lover seeking eternal companionship, but rather an adversary, an enemy.

Light Thea relayed the message, "You'll have three hundred entrapochs.

You win if you ascend the Thirty-Three Heavens within the time frame."

James asked coldly, "What's at stake?"

James asked meaningfully, "What if I lose?" Light Thea responded tersely, 'You must submit yourself to the Law of Tai Chi. From that point on, you follow her orders and respect her laws. Also, you will never have the chance to reach the Daeclon Rank.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6479-James looked at Light Thea and parted his lips but hesitated to speak.

He would have retorted with vehemence if Tai Chi had personally proposed the bet. However, hearing it from Light Thea, the other half of his wife, he was slightly uncertain.

Unable to voice his thoughts, James struggled internally and cursed at Tai Chi, calling her despicable and shameless.

Just then, Lesia maneuvered through the void and stopped beside James. Looking at Light Thea in astonishment, she asked, “Is that really you, Thea? You’re still alive?”

Light Thea looked at Lesia with a vacant expression. Gradually, her demeanor shifted to indifference, and she seemingly had no recollection of her.

James promptly sent Lesia a telepathic message, filling her in on Light Thea’s backstory and providing her with all the details he knew.

Lesia sighed ruefully, “Regardless, we can’t possibly fight her, right?”

James looked at her complicatedly and closed his eyes. He felt no inclination to entertain Tai Chi’s proposal as it had no appeal to him. However, he wondered whether he could capture Light Thea and the possibility of restoring her memories even though Tai Chi was manipulating her.

James weighed the risks carefully, ultimately deciding against agreeing to the bet. Even with the Chaos Yin-Yang Eyes, he could not ascertain whether the Light Thea before him was authentic. If it were truly Light Thea, detaining her might result in harm and seal her fate of doom. Moreover, it remained uncertain whether Dark Thea and the Tai Chi Tribulation would be affected if Light Thea were forced to reincarnate again.

He decided the stakes were too high and not worth the risk.

Lesia looked at Thea and sighed softly, “Go back and ask Tai Chi to come down. Otherwise, there’s nothing to talk about.”

Light Thea remained indifferent and replied, “With your strength, you’re not qualified to meet her.

James pretended to be impatient, saying, “Then, the discussion is over. Go back.”

Faced with James’ insistence, a trace of imperceptible pain flashed across Light Thea’s beautiful face. She returned to her snow-white lotus, sat on it, and slowly ascended into the sky.

Suddenly, a massive lightning bolt descended from the swirling black-and-white mist, striking Light Thea with devastating force. Instantly, she dissipated into nothingness.

Seeing this, Lesia roared, ‘Thea!’

James’ eyes widened in shock. He clenched his fists as he erupted with rage. He roared, “I’ll fucking kill you, bitch!”

With determination in his eyes, he took several determined steps into the void, charging straight into the swirling mist.

Faced with countless lightning strikes speeding toward him, he cast the Dawnblaze Form and quickly spun around to evade them. Then, he rushed into the void again.

Ascending through the heavens, he passed through the thirteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth heavens without stopping, determined to reach his destination. However, upon reaching the eighteenth heaven, he encountered an overwhelming force preventing him from advancing.
