

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6546-James looked at Xantoni once more before shifting his gaze to the other two. Lamuel and Tace trembled, hastily lowering their heads.

With squinted eyes, James asked, "Do the two of you fear death?"

They found his question absurd. After all, who could accept death so easily? Moreover, they were figures with esteemed positions and held significant authority. Their minds had already been clouded by the pursuit of power and assured to extend their lives infinitely to indulge in their power.

The next moment, James raised his hand and terrifying Curse Magic enveloped the two.

Under the veil of the colorful inscriptions, Lamuel and Tace screamed simultaneously and collapsed to the ground, writhing in agony.

Xantoni watched everything unfold in terror.

After what felt like an eternity, the Curse Inscription on the two men completely submerged into their bodies. They were seated on the ground, drenched in sweat, and panted for breath.

'You ought to count yourselves fortunate for raising decent children,' James remarked coldly as he surveyed the pair. "Otherwise, instead of cursing you, I would have annihilated your souls."

Lamuel and Tace, who were cursed, closed their eyes in despair.

Meanwhile, Xantoni swiftly bowed and clasped his hands respectfully at James.

James said calmly, 'You guys now have a decision to make. Either submit to me, or I abolish your cultivation bases and erase your memories. I'll spare your lives for the sake of your children.'

Confronted with this ultimatum, the trio exchanged bitter glances.

To them, they did not have a choice. It was not easy to reach such high cultivation bases.

After pondering for a while, Xantoni stared at James and asked, "What will become of our sects? Can you tell US the truth?" "I don't know. Perhaps they will grow stronger, or perhaps they'll be wiped out."

Lamuel and Tace's eyes suddenly dimmed, closing their eyes in disappointment.

Xantoni, on the other hand, raised his head and laughed.

Lamuel and Tace opened their eyes, staring at him like he was insane.

Xantoni shook his robe and knelt towards James. "Tempestar is willing to submit to you. From now on, we'll be in the same boat and will never betray you. I'm willing to sign a soul contract to prove my word."

He waved his hand and a soul contract appeared before James.

Lamuel and Tace were immediately shocked. They never expected that Xantoni would be tricked into signing a soul contract by James' ambiguous answer.

Xantoni ignored the surprised looks of the two people and nodded sincerely at James.

James did not show any pretense, he stretched out his hand and struck the soul contract with powers. With a flash of light, the contract took effect.

Lamuel and Tace hurriedly knelt and expressed their loyalty to James.

However, they were unwilling to go to such extent as Xantoni.

James sighed, "Alright. The three of you will temporarily help your children settle down your respective forces. I'm afraid they'll need to rely on you three to stabilize their prestige."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6547-James asserted firmly with an air of unquestionable authority, "As for the vast area on this side of the Sky Bridge, you can transverse without hindrance. However, your respective forces must choose an area to settle down to avoid future conflicts.

“I must also emphasize that your forces are allowed to have competitions. However, internal strife is strictly forbidden. After all, we have a much bigger opponent in the future.” “As for the three of you,” James smiled faintly as he suddenly raised his hand. A blend of black and white energy emanated from them simultaneously and their energies were drawn out by James.

The trio felt their cultivation bases instantly reverted to the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation. At that moment, panic flashed across their faces.

James said calmly, “Don’t worry. I’m doing this for your own good. The Quasi Daeclon Rank is merely a fantasy Tai Chi is using to manipulate you guys.

“It seems like you’ve gained Tai Chi Power, and your strength has increased. However, this strength is not your own. Tai Chi simply lent her strength to you guys and can take it back anytime.

“If you’re unwilling to let go of this trace of Tai Chi Power, not only will your cultivation progress be delayed, but you’ll also never be able to reach the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation’s Consummation, which is commonly known as the Quasi Daeclon Rank to you guys.

“You won’t be able to reach the Xaeclon Rank even if I cast golden bodies for you three.”

Their eyes widened in shock at his words.

Originally, they were already formidable powerhouses at the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation. Now, they were only slightly stronger than the rank.

Theoretically, they needed to master Historial Power to attain the Quasi Daeclon Rank.

However, after submitting under Tai Chi, they were bestowed some powers and they miraculously reached the Quasi Daeclon Rank. Moreover, they were taught about the First to Ninth Quasi Daeclon Rank. From the start, they found it rather questionable.

They were originally strong men at the peak of the Nine Tribulations of the Original Great Heaven, but they were just more powerful than the current ones at the peak of the Nine Tribulations.

It stands to reason that one should have mastered a trace of Hunyuan power before one can truly enter the semi-step pole.

However, after they came under Tai Chi's command, they were rewarded with a bit of power by Tai Chi for their meritorious service, so they were forced to reach the so-called half-step pole, and they also made something from the first to the ninth level. No matter what they thought, it was unreliable.

Upon hearing James's words, a sudden realization dawned upon them.

"Tai Chi sure is cunning. Every reward I've received was either an elixir or some powers. So it was a ploy to exploit US," Tace remarked.

Lamuel sneered, "I knew it. If Tai Chi genuinely wanted to elevate our cultivation ranks and bolster our strength, why would she use such indirect methods?"

Xantoni stared at James and asked, "You mentioned being able to cast golden bodies to help US enter the Xaexlon Rank just now, right?"

Upon hearing Xantoni's inquiry, Lamuel and Tace's eyes also lit up with sudden excitement.

Xantoni's astuteness in pinpointing key details was admirable, a fact that elicited a light smile from James.

"It depends on your fortune and fate. Should the materials suffice, I can indeed craft golden bodies for you three. The crucial factor lies in your ability to reach the Consummation of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation. Only then will you have the qualifications to reach the Daeclon Rank." James explained, then left.

Tace, Xantoni, and Lamuel were left dumbfounded.

Lamuel looked at Xantoni and asked, "What makes you trust him so much that you even signed a soul contract?" "Indeed. Don't you think you were reckless?" Tace chimed in, eyeing Xantoni.

Xantoni stroked his beard and chuckled, “If he were merely painting an unachievable scenario for US, I would’ve harbored doubts.”

After answering their questions, Xantoni turned and walked away.

Tace and Lamuel felt their lips twitch in complete bewilderment, feeling as though they had missed a great opportunity and had no chance to regret it.
