

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6611-Lyla's departure was a blow to all the powerhouses of the Jademora Empire in the main hall.

She didn't even allow them to feel regret and guilt.

"It's their fault," Yancy suddenly got up and roared, "Without the protection of the Left Grand Lord, will you, Maxine, Talvelai, Xezal, be who you are today? If the Left Grand Lord didn't risk her life to break into the Elixir Vault of Timaeus Sect and get countless high-ranking elixirs, could you guys reach the Quasi Daeclon Rank and the peak of the Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation?" "Enough." Xatia stood up and said angrily, "Why are you guys still arguing at this time? We need to find a way to get back the Left Grand Lord." Upon hearing Xatia's words, Taran and Jurryt kneeling on the ground quickly got up.

"yeah.

The Left Grand Lord is entrusted by His Majesty.

She won't leave the Forladtt Land easily.

We must think of a way to make up for it," said Taran." "You guys are too young and impulsive.

That's why the situation reached this extent.

Let's think of a way then," added Jurryt.

As the two high-respected elders came forward and spoke up, the living beings in the hall stood up and began a discussion.

They had never been this united before.

It was the first time they were so concerned about the lady devil whom they were dissatisfied with.

James listened to their discussions and found their ideas ridiculous.

The group of living beings didn't understand Lyla.

If the latter had made up her mind about something, even James couldn't convince her, let alone them.

James knew that Lyla wasn't a petty person.

She wouldn't leave just because the living beings complained about her and didn't respect her.

She was just tired.

Since James was back, she dared to act recklessly.

Nonetheless, James didn't want to intervene in the group of living beings right now.

The living beings here were all elites he chose from the Dark World.

They were proud and had their own temperament.

None of them could be tamed.

As their cultivation improved quickly, they were even prouder.

It was the best medicine for them to feel guilt and realize their issues after Lyla quit her work and left in anger.

Thus, James took out a bottle of Chaos Absinthe and walked over to the chair behind him.

He took a seat and began to drink it.

Looking at how anxious the living beings were, he was both angry and happy.

Awhile later, the first person who noticed something wrong about the situation was Rebella, who was closest to James.

She turned her head.

Once she saw James, her eyes widened.

She covered her mouth in disbelief.

On the other hand, James just shook his head at her, telling her not to make a noise.

Rebella suppressed the shock and excitement in her heart before going to James.

She wanted to say something, but the words couldn't come out of her mouth.

It was as if something was stuck in her throat.

The person she had been missing and thinking of had appeared at this moment.

All the words she wanted to say turned into tears.

She cried beautifully.

Awhile later, Taran suddenly turned around.

When he saw James sitting in his seat, he screamed and jumped up.

The moment they saw James, their expressions changed.

Some were shocked, some were astonished, and some were excited.

But most of them were stunned.

We don't need to reminisce either.

I don't have that many stupid friends." Once he spoke, the crowd was in an uproar.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6612-It must be a trap. Did the Left Grand Lord set up this trap long ago?

She must have known that the Emperor had returned, so she set up this situation to bait them. She wanted the Emperor to see what kind of living beings they were.

"Aren't you guys going to continue the discussion?" James pursed his lips.

“Since you guys aren’t going to talk, let me.”

Everyone was taken aback. Then, their expressions became stern.

Yancy knelt on the ground at James excitedly. “Welcome back, Your Majesty.”

Then, the crowd who were stunned immediately knelt on the ground. They shouted excitedly, “Welcome back, Your Majesty.”

Seeing that everyone had knelt on the ground, Rebella hurriedly wiped away her tears and knelt at James.

“What are you guys doing?” James said impolitely, “Who started with the Your Majesty thing? It sounds so bad.”

Everyone exchanged glances. Then, they turned to look at Rebella.

Rebella raised her head fearfully. “I’m the one who started it, Master!”

“Great.” James looked at Rebella. He was angry. “It has been so long. I didn’t expect you to become like this.”

When she heard that, Rebella knocked her head back on the ground.

“Get up,” James shouted, irritated. “We are all friends. I can’t stand formalities.

Whoever likes to kneel, go and kneel at those statues. They are in the higher ranks.”

His words relaxed the depressed atmosphere. Everyone present laughed at the same time.

Standing up, James held the Chaos Absinthe and waved his hand. “Arrange a banquet. We’ll get together and drink wine later. Everyone must come.”

Upon hearing that, the crowd below cheered. Everyone celebrated. The dark clouds from moments ago had been swept away.

Among them were a few smart living beings, such as Taran, Jurryt, and Maxine.

James said that no one would be left out of the banquet. That included the Left Grand Lord, Lyla, who had been in charge of the Forladtt Land for several entrapochs.

Now, however, Lyla had already left and quit her position. If no one could convince her to come back, the banquet wouldn't happen.

After a while, the crowd who were celebrating seemed to have realized something. They gradually quieted down.

When they saw the smirk on James' face, they felt a chill run down their spines.

"Rebella," shouted James suddenly.

Rebella was taken aback. Then, she got up and walked toward him.

At this instant, James threw the Courageous Tower to her. In a panic, Rebella caught it. She acted as if she had caught a hot potato. Out of fear, she knelt on the ground.

"For now, you will be in charge of the Jademora Empire." James smiled and said, "Do the things you want to do most. Fight the fight you want to fight most."

Then, he pointed at the living beings who were confused. "Take this group of warriors with you and open the road to the Skynet."

Everyone was in an uproar.

Rebella shuddered. She dared not raise her head.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6613-At this time, Hershya stood forward. "Mr. Caden, there are two powerhouses in the Xaeclon Rank outside. They can defeat us easily."

"That's right." Talvelai quickly nodded. "I don't think it's a wise choice to go out right now."

Upon hearing their words, everyone else nodded in agreement.

“They’re only in the Xaeclon Rank.” Suddenly, James raised his voice and smiled. “You guys can do anything. They’re nothing before you guys. You can use your passion, courage, and mouth to defeat them in minutes. Even if Tai Chi comes, you guys can annihilate him easily, let alone two powerhouses at the Xaeclon Rank.”

Everyone was at a loss for words.

They realized that James was punishing them for making the Left Grand Lord, Lyla, leave. The punishment made them feel guilty and uncomfortable. They felt fear too.

They preferred James to vent his anger at them, get angry and reprimand them.

It would be better even if he beat them up with a stick. But now...

At this moment, Rebella raised her head. “I’m going to look for Lyla and apologize to her. Even if I have to kneel on the ground and admit my mistakes, I have to bring her back.

Then, she got up. Holding the Courageous Tower, she turned to leave.

On the other hand, the living beings began a discussion like flies without heads.

After that, Taran and Jurryt bowed at James. “Your Majesty, we’ll go and look for the Left Grand Lord too. If we can’t get her back, we’ll bring our heads for you.”

Following the initiative taken by the two elders, everyone else also left the hall.

At this time, James shouted, “Maxine, stay back. You have other affairs to attend to.”

In the crowd, Maxine was taken aback. She turned around.

Meanwhile, the other living beings left quickly.

“You’re the direct disciple of Lady Herodias, so you know the Skynet the best.”

James slowly walked down the steps and said, “Go and invite the living beings of the Skynet to the gathering.”

Upon hearing that, Maxine looked at James as if she was looking at a ghost.

“Me?”

“Yeah. Right now.” James nodded.

Maxine felt as if she had been struck by lightning. She was stunned.

James knew that there were two powerhouses in the Xaeclon Rank outside the Forladtt Land. If she went out of the Forladtt Land now, wouldn't she die?

Was he so ruthless to this extent to stand up for Lyla?

At this time, Xatia, who was at the entrance and didn't leave, suddenly came back in. She said, “Master, the army of the new alliance is outside the Forladtt Land. If she goes out now...”

“Are you going or not?” James stared at Maxine and interrupted Xatia.

Facing James' sharp gaze, Maxine surrendered and closed her eyes. “I'll go right now.”

James instructed, “You can only leave using the south gate.”

Watching Maxine leave, Xatia went toward James. “Master, aren't you sending her off to die?”

James smiled. “Have you heard of coming back alive after dying?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6614-At once, Xatia was stunned.

With his hands behind his back, James took two steps forward and said, “The living beings of the Jademora Empire were chosen from the Dark World. They're talented and have potential. They have determination too. As long as they have enough cultivation resources, they can become successful. It's just a matter of time.

“But before they came to the Forladtt Land, they had been rulers of a part of the Dark World. Thus, they have their own temperament. They aren't arrogant. They just can't be tamed. They are proud of themselves.”

At that, James glanced at Xatia. "During this time, you must have experienced it, right?"

Xatia was taken aback. Then, she sighed and nodded. "It's true that it's hard to control them. However, in front of huge affairs, especially in battle, they are very united and courageous."

"This is their strength." James said, "It isn't enough to only have unity and courage. They need to see the big picture and be magnanimous. In this way, they can be independent and take the lead. Otherwise, no one from the Jademora Empire will be useful in the future."

Upon hearing his words, Xatia took a sharp breath. "Master, is this why you're forcing them to apologize to the Left Grand Lord?"

"Since they have made a mistake, shouldn't they apologize?" James turned around and stared at Xatia.

Xatia's beautiful face twitched as she asked, "Will the Left Grand Lord forgive them?"

"If she has never cared about it, how can she forgive them?" James smiled and asked.

At that, Xatia widened her eyes. She covered her mouth in shock. "The Left Grand Lord..."

James cut her off. "An independent commander will never act impulsively. She won't be affected by emotions either. Even if she is wronged, doubted, disrespected, and yelled at by her enemies, she won't change her initial intention. She will take advantage of the situation and adapt to it quickly."

Upon hearing that, Xatia took a sharp breath. She understood that James was complimenting Lyla. In her memory, Lyla was as he said.

A while later, she asked, "Master, what should we do next?"

James smirked at her. He told her everything about the change in the Genesis World.

After hearing that, Xatia became delighted. “Does that mean that if we expand our territory and open the passage to the Skynet, Maxine won’t face any dangers when she goes out of the Forladtt Land?”

James smiled. He waved his hand, and an energy ball expanded. Maxine’s beautiful figure was displayed in it.

She didn’t leave the Forladtt Land immediately. Instead, she went to the fourth layer of the Forladtt Land. She avoided the living beings going to apologize. She went to meet Lyla, who was training Winnie and Noel, and apologized to her.

Then, without getting a response from Lyla, she turned to leave. She went to the first layer of the Forladtt Land and bade farewell to all her friends.

In the end, she walked back and forth at the south gate of the Forladtt Land.

She sat on the ground in a daze. It was as if she had lost hope.

Upon seeing the scene in the energy ball, Xatia exclaimed, “Master, is she getting ready for death when she gets out of the Forladtt Land?”

“If she thinks she’s going to die, she can tame her arrogance.” Xatia took a sharp breath. “After she goes out, she will realize that you have flattened the place. Can she stand this torment?”

“I didn’t give her a flat land.” James enunciated each word. “Her tribulation has just begun.”

Xatia looked at James. It was as if she was looking at a devil.

If Maxine’s tribulation had just begun, what about hers? What kind of living being was she to James?

No data found.