

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6692

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6692-James sensed something more to his words. He asked indifferently, "So what if I did?"

"Excellent!" Corey grinned wickedly. "In that case, you must have obtained the Historial Soul Pearl?"

James fell silent. 'So, this old fox is after the soul pearl, but he's already achieved the Xurxo Daeclon Rank. What's the use of him having the Historial Soul Pearl?' he pondered.

Corey smirked. "Hand it to me. I will release those two weaklings if you swear your loyalty to me and carry out my commands. I'll also give you permission to kill Xian and take over his position as the guardian of the entrance to the Great Historial Land."

His eyes shone with greed. "What's more, I can help fulfill your wish. You'll get the chance to enter the Great Historial Land in the form of an Ousia and see what it's like there."

James sneered. "Your offer is quite tempting."

"Well, of course." A wide grin was plastered across Corey's face. "You possess both the Ultimate Golden Body and Yianni's Marciais Soul Pearl. You have no use for the Historial Soul Pearl. Instead, you can have everything you want by giving away one Historial Soul Pearl. Isn't it a good bargain?"

Corey chuckled in a low voice. "Most importantly, this also involves your child.

The Yin governor wishes to deliver the baby in the Great Historial Land. I can bring all of you there myself without causing any issues for your group. It will be convenient for you if you just agree to work with me. What's there to hesitate about?"

James' eyes narrowed. "I'm intrigued."

Corey burst out laughing. "You're a smart man, James. You know these chances don't come by so easily. Let's proceed with the deal, shall we?"

"How do I trust you to keep your promise?" James asked.

“You have no choice but to trust me.” Corey’s voice hardened. “Otherwise, I’ll take your pregnant wife hostage as well.”

A deep frown drew James’ brows together.

“The Historial Soul Pearl. Hand it over now.” Corey said sternly, “Otherwise, you’ll lose your wife too.”

James slowly closed his eyes.

It appeared as if he was trying to consider his options. However, James was actually working on something else.

“You have nine seconds,” Corey declared, “I’ll give you everything you want if you hand over the Historial Soul Pearl and submit to my commands.”

James kept his eyes shut. It even seemed as though he was trying to meditate.

Just then, purplish-red malevolent energy began to appear around James’ Golden Body. The energy slowly drifted to surround James.

“What the hell are you doing, James Caden?” Corey bellowed, “Time’s almost up!”

Still, Corey did not get any response from James. At the same time, the malevolent energy had completely encapsulated James’ body.

In the distance, Thea realized what was happening. She called out anxiously, “James, you... You can’t!”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6693-The gigantic purplish-black lotus carried Thea and shot toward James. However, the lotus bounced off slightly as it came into proximity to the malevolent energy.

Simultaneously, an ominous, blinding light radiated from James, who was enveloped in the purplish-red malevolent energy. It dyed the purplish-blue space around them in an eerie shade of purplish-red.

Gusty winds whistled. Tremors could be felt in the space around them.

The impatient Corey had a look of horror on his face as he witnessed the apocalyptic scene before him.

Meanwhile, his captives, Yegor and Herodias, had stopped screaming.

It was not solely because the powers of the sword formation acting on them had been abruptly cut off. Apart from that, the couple were also stunned and terrified by the sight before them.

“He chose to do this to save us... That silly child,” Yegor sighed and said in a shaky voice.

“No... No!” Herodias held her head between her hands.

“You can’t let him control you, James. What would we do with you if that happens?”

Unfortunately, James could not hear their voices at all. The purplish-red malevolent energy surrounding him was still increasing rapidly in its intensity and potency.

It struck terror in all living beings near it.

The arrogant Corey was finally gripped by a sense of panic.

“Mor-Morgott! Morgott is being resurrected! How dare you, James Caden—”

Before Corey could finish, an overwhelming pressure washed over him. It trapped Corey right where he stood. The pressure was so immense that Corey could hardly breathe.

“Corey Damien, you made me do this,” James’ voice reverberated through the space, “It’s time I end this and send you to the afterlife.”

The malevolent energy around James shifted and transformed into a blast of purplish-red sword energy. It shot through the air, heading in Corey’s direction.

“No.!” Corey’s eyes bulged in fright. He shouted frantically.

There were sounds of a sharp object cutting through flesh, followed by a metallic whir.

In a flash, the purplish-red sword energy had sliced through Corey's Ultimate Golden Body.

Massive amounts of purplish-blue gas came out of the bloody gap made in the center of Corey's body and escaped swiftly to the surroundings.

"James Caden! You...! You've opened the gates to horrible calamities! You will regret this! You'll be completely devoured by him." Blood sprayed out of Corey's mouth. His body swayed a little.

Corey still could not move a muscle. Yet, there was a look of horror in his eyes.

Meanwhile, the sword formation trapping Yegor and Herodias began to fall apart. The Triumphant Sword fell from the sky and stabbed into the earth below.

Yegor and Herodias quickly teleported and reappeared at a far corner.

On the other hand, the ball of purplish-red sword energy made a swerve in the air and flew toward Corey again.

"No. James, I was wrong!" Corey screamed anxiously. He could tell the next blow would end him.

As the sword energy hit him, Corey's Ultimate Golden Body shattered almost instantly. His entire body was practically vaporized.

"A soul of the Daeclon Rank! That's good stuff!" A strange, eerie voice came from the purplish-red sword energy. Then, the sword energy rushed toward the huge soul energy ball floating amid the shattered body pieces.

Just as it got close to the energy ball, a short, colorful human-like figure leaped out of the sword energy and snatched the soul away.

"Frona, that's not fair!" the sword energy yelled at it.

The colorful figure clicked its tongue. Then, it transformed into a beam of light and returned to the purplish-red sword energy.

"Ugh!" There was a mysterious whirring as the sword energy grumbled in dissatisfaction.

Then, it turned to face Yegor and Herodias. “Devouring two cultivators of the Tirta Power is not a bad alternative.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6694-The purplish-red sword energy shot toward Yegor and Herodias immediately.

Both Herodias and Yegor sustained severe injuries. They could see that the sword energy was aiming at them.

However, the sword energy was moving at an incredible speed, and the couple was overpowered by the sword energy’s aura. They just did not have the strength to dodge the attack or fight back.

Herodias and Yegor closed their eyes in resignation. They would fight back if they could. Unfortunately, the couple had yet to possess that level of power.

Furthermore, they were not sure if it was Morgott or James who had control over the other person.

To their surprise, nothing happened although seconds passed. Still, they could feel a tremendous amount of pressure coming down on them.

As they opened their eyes, the couple could see the purplish-red sword energy levitate right before their faces. Curiously, it had stopped moving.

“James, are you trying to dispose of me after using my help?” Morgott’s irritated voice came from inside the ball of purplish-red sword energy.

“You’re crossing the line.” James’ voice came from the same direction. “I only allowed you to kill Corey Damien. I didn’t say you could kill others.”

Morgott snapped, “Frona took Corey’s soul! I didn’t get anything!”

“It’s because you are not as skilled as her. You only have yourself to blame.” As soon as James said that, the ball of sword energy began to shake vigorously.

Morgott yelled furiously, “You’re disloyal and ungrateful, James! I’m so mad right now!”

James sighed wearily. "That's enough. Return to the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell now. I'll let you have that soul of the Daeclon Rank grade if you perform well enough in the future."

Morgott paused and suggested mischievously, "Why don't you give me something else? For instance, it could be your Marciais Soul Pearl or the Golden Bones?"

James did not respond. At the same time, the purplish-red sword energy pointing at Yegor and Herodias was still shaking violently.

"Do you have a death wish, Morgott?" Lesia said threateningly from inside James' soul space.

Morgott replied, "I finally got the chance to come out and enjoy the fresh air.

Can't I borrow his Ultimate Golden Body for a little longer?"

"Are you going to break your promise?" James muttered in a low voice.

"You and I should be one, James," Morgott continued nonchalantly, "Don't worry.

I have deep admiration for you. I won't harm you."

At that very moment, the purplish-red sword energy exploded. Powerful purplish-red lights radiated from the spot where the sword energy was found a few seconds ago.

The energy of the lights threw Herodias and Yegor backward forcefully.

Simultaneously, James re-emerged out of the sword energy's shattered pieces.

He was glowing all over with a deep purplish-red light.

James looked completely different from his usual self. His hair, eyes, and aura were a shade of purplish- red.

"Hahaha! I, Morgott, am finally back after so long! James, you and I should share the same body. We will be invincible once you combine the Historial Soul Pearl and the Marciais Soul Pearl.

“I will help realize your dreams too! We’ll invade the Great Historial Land and wipe out all the impostors hiding there! Hahaha!” Morgott’s cruel laughter echoed through the air. It sent chills down Yegor’s and Herodias’ spines.

The thing they feared the most had happened right before their eyes.

“James!” Thea’s voice came from a far corner just then. “I... I think I’m about to go into labor!”

The purplish-red sword energy shot toward Yegor and Herodias immediately.

Both Herodias and Yegor sustained severe injuries. They could see that the sword energy was aiming at them.

The thing they feared the most had happened right before their eyes.

“James!” Thea’s voice came from a far corner just then. “I... I think I’m about to go into labor!”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6695-James immediately looked in Thea’s direction. He noticed instantly that Thea’s body was glowing with a purplish-black light.

A thick mist surrounded her form. Still, James could see the grimace on Thea’s face.

“Morgott, get back inside the bell now!” James bellowed.

“Calm down, James.” Morgott chuckled. “With your powers, you can access the Great Historial Land. However, you won’t be able to bring your wife and the couple along.

“Let me have your Ultimate Golden Body for a while. I promise to keep your wife and child safe. Your child will surely be born a gifted Historial Child.”

James fell silent.

Lesia transmitted her voice. “Morgott, you may have taken over Master’s body, but that does not mean I will let you do whatever you want.

“If you dare play some sort of trick on us, I will take you down with me.”

“I get it,” Morgott said flatly, “I know you’ve always looked down on me.

However, I’m not a fool. I know what to do and what not to do. After all, I admire James more than you do.”

As he finished, Morgott transformed James' Ultimate Golden Body into a beam of purplish-red light.

The light zoomed through the space and picked up Thea, Herodias, and Yegor.

Then, it headed toward the tornado, which was surrounded by purple gases.

When Morgott moved past Sheamus and Simeon, he sent a part of him in their direction.

Loud explosions could be heard as the pair of Xaeclon Rank cultivators were killed by Morgott's attack.

Morgott's clone swiftly devoured Sheamus' and Simeon's souls and rejoined his main body.

James did not try to stop Morgott this time. He even tried to help.

As soon as the beam of purplish-red light reached the bottom part of the tornado, it triggered the onset of countless restrictions set up in the tornado.

However, Morgott used his powers and James' skills, the Terrastride Step and Dawnblaze Form, to move up the tornado quickly.

With Herodias supporting her, Thea bit her lip and endured the pain.

Yegor also tried to help Thea with the pain by channeling the powers of his Great Genesis Pearl to her.

Meanwhile, the attacks from the restrictions and formations inside the purple tornado became more intense as they moved higher.

Still, Morgott managed to manipulate James' Ultimate Golden Body and perform different signature skills smoothly and swiftly to achieve the maximum effect in his attacks.

Even James was both shocked and impressed by Morgott's clever and extraordinary ways of combining his skills and knowledge.

James was considered by many to be an unusual, one-in-a-million genius.

However, after looking at what Morgott could do in his spirit form, James could not help but wonder how powerful Morgott would be in his actual form.

It made James realize how different he and Morgott were in terms of their powers.

Boom!

There was a deafening noise as James' Ultimate Golden Body shot through the barrier located at the very top of the purple tornado.

The group then arrived at an unfamiliar space. Purple gases floated on the ground. James' group could also see green landscapes around them and smell the fresh air.

A mysterious transparent energy existing in that space made them feel calm and relaxed.

Even Morgott, who was controlling James' body, was in awe for a brief moment.

As they spotted their opportunity, James and Lesia worked together and expelled Morgott from James' body. James finally gained control of his body again.

On the other hand, a transparent spirit glowing with a purplish-red light levitated mid-air before James. It was circling quickly over one spot. "James, you are truly heartless! Casting me away right after I've served my purpose!"

James bowed slightly. "Thank you so much, Morgott. As we've promised, you are a free man in the Great Historial Land."

Morgott was at a loss for words. He glanced around at the serene landscape within sight.

Before he could say something, James rushed over to Thea's side and put his arm around her shoulders.

"Hang on, Honey." James carefully channeled the Hongrome Essence to her.

Strangely, it did not seem to help Thea's condition. Instead, she screamed louder.

James flinched. He asked nervously, “Honey, what’s wrong? Are you...”

Just then, Herodias strode toward them and took Thea away from James. She led Thea a few steps away. Then, Herodias put up a formation consisting of the Tirta Power around Thea and her.
