

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6731-The elder with white hair stared at Thea and ridiculed her, “We advance and retreat together. Why would we be afraid of a mere living being? I will tell you who I am. I’m Toviyyah Taddonio from Toviyyah Temple.”

Then, the old woman with gray hair shouted arrogantly, Tm Persephone Tzivya from Tanataya Temple.”

As the two shouted their names, the powerhouses in the Daeclon Rank stood up disdainfully.

“I’m Peregrine Yonder from Yunara Temple!” “I’m Kiran Xandurr from Xantheia Temple!” “I’m Ysanne Beaufort from Dynastia Temple.”

Seeing how arrogant and scornful they were, Thea nodded. Then, she suddenly turned around. She smiled at the space James opened.

“Honey, did you hear them? Remember their names and temples.

“You don’t need to worry about me. I’m the Yin governor. My identity and status are more noble than these fake divine beings. I can’t die. They can’t do anything to me for now.

“Don’t be in a hurry to get out of seclusion. Cultivate until your cultivation reaches the extreme. In this way, you can cause bloodshed in the Great Historial Land and become the true Forladtt Land’s Lord.

“I’m your wife. I was your wife in the past. I’m your wife in the present, and I’ll be your wife in the future too. I’m proud of you.”

When he heard her, James was enraged. He clenched his fists so tightly that there were cracking sounds.

Meanwhile, in the space, people were cursing.

“He’s communicating with the living being in the space. Cut her off.” “How dare you provoke US? You’re seeking death.” “Even if the living being came out of the Forbidden Bloodshade, we aren’t afraid.” “Who does he think he is? He can’t seek revenge against US.”

After that, the space fluctuated. In the blink of an eye, it disappeared.

James was on the verge of going insane, but he was pulled by Lesia who was next to him. She said, "Master, her point is clear. She's using herself to buy you time.

"With your current strength, you can kill this group of thrash easily. However, there are still the three powerhouses from the Ten Holy Temples. If you can't obtain Emperor Yarden's inheritance, you can't win. Even if you go there, you can't save Ms. Thea. Instead, you will let her efforts go to waste."

With a dark expression, James turned his head slowly to look at Lesia who was shorter than him. "Did I move?"

Lesia was taken aback. "I thought you would-" "I know my wife the best." James enunciated each word and said, "But you shouldn't tell Yegor about Lady Herodias for now."

After that, he turned around and walked out of the Soundproof Barrier. He didn't encounter any hindrance.

There was a sudden muffled sound. James knelt on the ground, instantly shocking Yegor and Yarden. "Are you serious about recruiting me as your disciple?"

Yarden was shocked. Then, he stroked his beard and smiled. "Of course."

James straightened his back. "But I want all your inheritance and wipe out the Great Historial Land. I want to save my wife. Do you allow that?"

Not only Yarden was stunned, but even Yegor was also looking at James like he was a monster.

If Yegor didn't know who Yarden was previously, he would know everything from that conversation. It was extremely shocking to want Yarden's inheritance and wipe out his Ten Holy Temples.

Most importantly, James said it in front of Yarden. It was jaw-dropping.
