

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7291

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7291-His comments left the Caeloros Gods at a loss for words.

The gray- haired elderly man snorted.

“Xristian, judging by your long-winded speech, you still insist on placing our hopes in James Caden?”

“Of course!”

Xristian jutted his chin up.

“I still believe that the tenth Leere Daoism isn’t a failure.”

“Hahaha!”

The man in the green robe laughed mockingly.

“Someone stubbornly refuses to admit the truth even at this point.”

They’re putting the entire Xanadu Realm at risk just to hold onto the Caeloros Supreme’s position and save face.How shameless!”

“Quintinus, I’ll be frank.”

Xristian pointed at the man.

“Those of you who wish to claim the Caeloros Supreme’s position will have to step over my dead body first.”

In an instant, he teleported and re-emerged before Quintinus Crandell, the man in the green robe.

Quintinus didn’t back away.

Instead, he balled his fists and took a fighting stance.

Meanwhile, the gray-haired elderly man and Yefrenes darted toward the pair, excited and ready to join the fight at any moment.

The other Caeloros Gods looked rather lost, standing still and staring at each other.

Just then, Frona slowly got to her feet.

The confrontation halted as soon as she moved.

Xristian and the others stopped releasing their auras and backed away from each other.

The other Caeloros Gods instinctively straightened up, waiting for Frona's command.

"Tec's true that I've obstinately ignored all other opinions and made that final decision during the tenth Leere Daoism," Frona said.

"My Soremsia has also helped James get to where he is today. I won't deny that..."

"Caeloros Supreme!"

Xristian stared at Frona with bulging eyes.

"James hasn't..."

"Enough."

Frona cut him off.

Her gaze drifted across the people before her.

"If my decision proves to be a failure, I will take full responsibility and step down from the Caeloros Supreme's position. We will have a more capable member hold the position instead."

Her voice hardened.

"However, it is a fact that none of the opposing sides in the Haleth Realm has gained the upper hand even until now."

Frona paused and scrutinized everyone's face.

No one showed any signs of objection except for Quintinus.

He was about to say something, but Yefrenes tugged his sleeve and stopped him.

Frona continued, "It's true that James is demonized now. However, he managed to imprison the Waitara Path's soul spirit before it happened."

What he did helped US a lot in delaying the Waitara Path's Soremsia's return and the onset of the Leere Tribulation.

"James is a strong-willed man. He also has help from Taiyi, Yasmina, and the Yin governor. I believe he will be able to eliminate his inner demon and return to the right path eventually."

There was a moment's silence when Frona finished.

“I believe him too,” Xristian said firmly.

“You’re in no position to say that!”

Quintinus shot him a glare.

Then, he bowed slightly to Frona.

“Caeloros Supreme, we are not saying this to disrespect you however the situation seems be getting out of control.” If we don’t do something now, we will all fall viatim to the Leerg Tribulation!”: Must we plit all our hopes on James Caden, a demomzed man Can’t we choose another living being to support?”

Frona’s eyes narrowed. “Do you perhaps have another candidate in mind, Caeloros God of Fate?” All eyes were on Quintinus at that moment.

Yefrenes quickly yanked his sleeve again before Quintinus could respond. Then, she stepped forward and met Frona’s gaze.

“we don’t have a better candidate, Caeloros supreme still we need to try to resolve the issue We know y04, belleve in James Hawever, you need believe in James. However, you need to give Us a reason to believe in him again.” Everyone directed their gaze to Frona upon hearing Yefrenes’ words. What Yefrenes had just said was what the rest of them were considering as well.
