

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7601

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7601-James elaborated on the Leere Tribulation, explaining the threat posed by Waitara Path's Reincarnation Soremsia. He also mentioned the existence of the past, present, and future forms of Waitara Path's Reincarnation Soremsia. Wyot gasped and asked, "So, if we allow the Leere Tribulation to unfold, not only will our race, but all beings in the Greater Realms be sacrificed for his return. On top of that, we won't have a chance of rebirth?" "Yes! Not only will all beings perish, but the Greater Realms will be utterly destroyed," James nodded.

"That's horrifying, sheer madness! Isn't he the Supreme Path? Could it be he..."

James shook his head and replied solemnly. "There isn't an absolute path one must follow. One's fate and path should be decided by oneself."

"The Greater Realm and its beings emerged through natural evolution; it wasn't anyone's creation. The Waitara Path simply took advantage of the circumstances and seized control."

Wyot nodded, then fixed his gaze on James. "Then why does killing Waitara Path's Reincarnation Soremsia's past form cause us to lose our past, leaving us unaware of our own identities?" "Because the Greater Realms lost the Xyloria Tai Chi, which Waitara Path's Reincarnation Soremsia stole in the Historial Daoism," James explained.

"Historial Daoism?" Wyot frowned.

Thea interjected, "The Historial Daoism, also known as the Waitara Daoism, differs from the Nine Major Caeloros Daoisms. It's divided into three principles-the past, present, and future. "These principles govern the past, present, and future forms of all beings in the Greater Realms."

Wyot gradually grasped the concept.

James stared at Wyot and said solemnly. "It's already confirmed that the past form of Waitara Path's Reincarnation Soremsia is hidden within the Dark World's River of Time. Killing him would mean erasing the past forms of all the Greater Realm's beings. However, if I don't take action, the Greater Realms will face destruction in the future. We'll be completely wiped out as if we never existed."

"I used the Supreme Path's powers to split the Greater Realms into two. For now, the past form of Waitara Path's Reincarnation Soremsia can't affect living beings outside of the Dark World." Wyot's eyes were drawn to the path-formed world James cast in the void. He looked at the dazzling path source that had formed a beam connecting to the Dark World absorbing countless Dark World creatures. "You've created a temporary world to transfer the Dark World's living beings and are planning to kill his past form with minimum damage?"

James explained, "It's not temporary, but a brand-new world that connects to Zymurgy, as well as the cycle of life and death. From now on, it will be the home of all the Haleth Realm's beings." Wyot smiled in relief. "Then, there's no more words needed. I will..."

Thea interrupted him. "Wyot! Let me guard the River of Time! I am not affected by his past form."

Turning to James, she added, "I'm confident in my strength and am probably stronger than any elite the Doom Race has."

James looked at her and said, "Do you think I haven't considered it before? To be honest, I even thought about sending our children."

Thea was stunned by his words.

Startled, Wyot tried to intervene. "James....." "I decided not to because I haven't figured out your role in the Leere Tribulation. You're a crucial piece.

"Meanwhile, I've already sent Jacopo to monitor Goyo. He will be the only one capable of dealing with the present form of Waitara Path's Reincarnation Soremsia."
