

Almighty DG 91

Chapter 91 However, even an elite like the deputy commander of the Western Border Patrol was murdered at the Cansington Hotel. How were ordinary people like them going to stand against him? Still, they were willing to take a chance to fight back. They were unaware of the grave consequences that would follow when they failed. The Great Four were thrown into panic, yet the outside world had no idea as it was an internal affair of the Great Four. The outside world only knew that the Great Four were in big trouble. The head of the Xaviers, Warren, died tragically at his birthday banquet. Soon after, the news of Trent's passing spread. After that, the heads of the other three families of the Great Four also died, All important figures from the Great Four were gone. It was major news in Cansington. However, the news was overshadowed by the succession of the Blithe King. Now that the succession ceremony was over, everyone began to turn their attention to the affairs of the Great Four again.

being the perfect homemaker, ensuring the house was properly cleaned. He was completely different from the man who went to the Great Four. When he went to the Great Four, he was a grim reaper. After thoroughly cleaning the rooms, James went to buy some groceries to cook after seeing that it was almost une He rode his small electric motorcycle and leisurely headed toward the market while humming a song At the same time, on the eighteenth floor of a building in Cansington. Inside a luxurious

It was like a carefully sculpted artwork that was simply perfect. "Chairman, I've already looked into it. His name is James, the son-in-law of the Callahans." "Uh, James?" The woman was taken aback. The woman's name was Yuna Lawson, from the Lawsons of the Capital, and she was in charge of the family's property in Cansington. Yesterday, she was on her way to an important banquet. Along the way, her car was stolen, and her driver was thrown off the road. The person who stole the car ran a series of red lights and drove to Ella Corporation. She saw James storm into Ella Corporation fiercely and immediately bring down more than a dozen security guards. As for what he did after rushing into the building, she had no idea. However, she knew that the police were dispatched instantly, followed by the army, and even the Blithe King personally arrived at the scene. Yet soon after, it was announced as a joint exercise and was just practice. Yuna knew full well that it was not practice. Therefore, she looked for someone to investigate the identity of the person that stole her car and found that it was James, the son-in-law of the Callahans. Her slender fingers tapped gently on the table and made a rhythmic sound. "The Blithe King suppressed the matter for him. What's the background of this son-in-law of the Callahans? Does he have influence more terrifying than the Blithe king?"

Chapter 92 Thea's family left early in the morning

Their goal today was to purchase a new luxury car.

They had visited countless car dealers and tested many cars, including Mercedes-Benz, BMW, Audi, and luxury cars from other well-known brands.

However, they were still unsatisfied.

It was either too low for their expectations or way over their budget.

Coincidentally, there was an auto show in Cansington that day.

There were plenty of luxury cars being showcased. Thea's family visited the show.

David's eyes widened when he saw the luxury cars on display.

"Woah! Ferraris, Bentleys, Maybach, and Bugatti Veyron!"

David looked at the sexy and attractive model standing in front of the luxury cars on display and was envious.

"When will we ever be able to buy a real luxury car? A car that costs one million is garbage compared to these."

and reprimanded him. "Don't have unrealistic dreams. It's more than enough to buy a car that is about one million. What's red Ferrari and was immediately fascinated by it. She immediately took out her phone and snapped a few pictures.

It doesn't

for a while, simply because the cars were over their budget and it was after careful selection, they went to a Maserati store and spent two million to the payment, Gladys was left with only a even have enough to pay for on getting such an expensive one. Now, we're really poor!" Gladys wore of the family shares soon. We're going to have money very soon. Let's drive it back home. I'll take car!"

a luxurious car and could have making the payment, David drove the car and brought

"Woah..so good! This engine..."

the car, for fear that others would notice

Bang!

driven too fast before the red light, and his reaction was too slow. When he braked, the car loud bang, David's heart skipped a beat. Everyone's expression in the the car without insurance and already got into a

the same time, the owner

The chubby man was in his forties, dressed in very simple clothing but had the temperament of someone influential.

"What were you doing? How could you suddenly brake? You made me run into your car. Do you know how much my car is worth? It's two million..."

David saw that the paint on his bumper was scratched, and there was even a dent on it. He yelled at the other party with a distressed expression.

The chubby man silently glanced at his own car and then glared at David.

With a nonchalant expression, he said, "Well, my car isn't too expensive. It's just the limited edition Maybach that costs a little over forty million. Would you like to settle it in private or by insurance?"

"What?"

David was stunned for a moment.

He was distracted by his own car and did not pay attention to the other person's car.

Seeing the car, his face immediately turned pale in fear, and he shouted, "Oh my god..."

Benjamin, Gladys, Thea, and Alyssa got out of the car one after another.

Immediately when they saw that it was a limited edition Maybach, their faces turned pale.

The person they bumped into was not someone kind either. He was the overlord of Cansington's underworld, Xander Lawrence, Chapter 93 Xander used to mainly do dirty business. He had not even opened his mouth yet, but the brat in front of him was pinning the blame on him. "Of course I'm going to brake and wait for the red light! You were following behind too closely and bumped into me. Now, you're blaming me and wronging me?" Xander glanced at David's car and noticed there was no license plate on it, nor was there an insurance sticker on the windscreen. Immediately, he was thrilled. "It's a new car, right? Well, you see, there's a dent in the back of my car now. It should be enough to pay me if you sell the car and top up a few million more. David's legs went rubbery, and he immediately fell to the ground. "I'm so sorry, sir. Could you please forgive me? I bought this car with all my money. I have no money to compensate you!" "Why be so arrogant if you have no money?" Xander kicked David to the ground, approached him, and began beating him. "Don't hit him!" Alyssa rushed over and grabbed Xander.

easy to blow off?" Xander's expression froze. "Then how much do you want?" Gladys asked cautiously. "I already said you can sell this car, and adding another five million should be enough. Seeing that you can afford a two million dollar car, you and forgive them. However, Xander was not budging at all. Suddenly, a van approached them, and several men with fierce appearances got out, walking toward Xander. "Boss." Xander pointed at David, still kneeling on the ground, and said, "Take him away." "Alright." Several men forcibly dragged David away on the ground and Thea was also anxious and took out her phone to call James. James had just bought groceries and was cooking at home. After receiving her call from Thea, he immediately asked, "Thea, are you coming back soon? The food is almost ready." "James, something bad happened. David got into trouble." "Huh? What happened?" "We just bought a car and went for a ride. My brother accidentally rear-ended a limited edition Maybach. I heard it was worth forty million. David has to compensate for the damages, but we didn't buy insurance for the car. He got beaten up, and they took him away. What should I do? "Don't worry, Where are you? I'll be there right away." "I'm at Sky Flower Road." "Okay, don't panic. I'm coming” James hung up the phone and turned off the induction cooker that was boiling soup. Immediately, he headed out to Sky Flower Road.

Chapter 94 Thea’s family was in a state of panic after David was taken away. David was kidnapped right before the traffic police, but they did not try to stop him. They were not stupid and understood that someone driving a car worth tens of millions was definitely someone of great influence. Alyssa grabbed Thea and asked hopefully, “You’re the only one who can save David now. Aren’t you acquainted with Alex Yates? Hurry and give him a call!” “L...I’ll try.” Thea was not confident. However, now that her brother was taken away, the situation was so urgent that she had no choice but to try. “Sorry, the number you dialed is temporarily unavailable.” Thea called Alex, but his phone could not be connected, “I called, but it’s not getting through,” said Thea. “Then what else should we do? J- James! Isn’t he a retired soldier? Didn’t he say that he knew someone very influential? Call him to come, quick!” Alyssa was about to cry and said with a sobbing voice. “I’ve called him.

He is on the way.” “It’ll be useless for James to come. You shouldn’t be deceived by him. He wouldn’t be so poor and marry into our family if he really knew someone so influential,” Gladys said calmly. “What should we do then, Mom?” Alyssa cried. Gladys thought a bit and said, “I’ll call Mr. Smith. The Smiths are only second to the Great Four. I told Mr. Smith that I’d introduce my daughter to him, but this matter was put aside because her face got sliced by Trent.” Ever since Thea’s appearance was restored, Gladys had contacted countless rich and influential people to try to find a good husband for Thea. Yoel Smith was the perfect son-in-law in her heart.

the family on the side of the road and Thea among them His eyes lit up instantly. He walked over and greeted sincerely, “Auntie, Uncle, Thea...” Seeing Yoel, Gladys seemed to have found their life saving straw. “Mr. Smith. You have to help us. David rear ended a luxury car, and that person is demanding eight million dollars. He said we could wait to collect his body if we don’t have the money to compensate him.” “Auntie, don’t worry, I’ll take care of it. The Smith family is quite influential and is considered a first class household in Cansington, second to only

“Alright, then let’s go to the Prosperous Dynasty.” “Huh?” Yoel was taken aback. The Prosperous Dynasty? That was Xander’s properly. “Auntie, what car did David hit?” he asked tentatively “It... it looks like a limited edition Maybach.” Yoel took a few steps back after hearing the reply. “Did the person look a little bit chubby and dressed in very ordinary clothing?” he inquired. “Yes, yes! That’s exactly how he looked.” ‘F*ck!’ Yoel exclaimed in his heart. That was the underworld boss of Cansington. In his earlier years, he was called Black Wind Xander. He had forsaken his dirty business and was now into legal and serious business. Xander had been very low-profile ever since. As long as you did not provoke him, he would not trouble you However, if you provoked him, the consequences... Ha! Yoel took a deep breath. He glanced at Thea and could not help but swallow his saliva. “Auntie, I can help you settle this matter, but Xander is not easy to deal with. I’ll need my dad to help He has some connections with Xander. However, I can’t just help you without getting something in return. You said last time that you would introduce Thea to me.” For the sake of her son’s safety, Gladys could not care less

Chapter 95 “Don’t worry, Mr. Smith. Thea will divorce James really soon.”

Although David was useless, he was still her son, so she could not stand by and watch him get in trouble. On top of that, James was a retired soldier and kept claiming to know someone influential. Compared to that, Gladys chose someone who was really influential instead.

Yoel belonged to the Smiths and had a huge family business worth tens of billions.

Thea getting married to the Smiths would be a thousand times better than staying married to James

“What do you say, Thea?” Yoel glanced at Thea.

Xander was indeed terrifying. The Smiths were nothing compared to Xander. He was a real gangster that did not bother to earn himself a reputation or title.

However, his father had some connections with Xander, and they even had dinner together.

Plus, it was just a rear-end and not a big deal.

His father could simply talk to Xander and compensate him with some money, and then the problem would be solved.

It was not a loss to pay millions in exchange for Thea.

I’m not going

Slap!

hand and not going to get divorced? Are you going to face. She reached out and covered he did in his earlier years? This man has at least eighty people’s blood on his hands, if not a hundred. He’s a man who’d completely get rid of a

“Huh?”

was also frightened after hearing about him.

but swallow his saliva as he glanced at Thea’s beautiful figure and mesmerizing face

Xander probably isn’t going to let David go even after he gets the money. Those who offend yourself! Think you want me to kneel and beg you?” Glayds was down her cheeks. “Mom, I’ll get a

“Mom...”

as said that Xander demanded eight million to be delivered to the Prosperous

Xander’s

man used to be from the criminal world and was a man very low-profile for the past few years and offered, David would be freed in one piece.

from the

His father had some connections with Xander, so if he helped to solve the matter, Xander would not ask for too much.

Thea would be his after settling this,

She was the most beautiful woman in Cansington.

Plus, Gladys even told him that although Thea and James had registered their marriage, they did not sleep together.

"Auntie, Uncle, Thea, I'll settle the problem. I still have some money on my card. You guys can go back and wait. I'll go back to ransom him, and with our relationship with him, I'm sure Xander would not trouble David..."

"Mr. Smith, can we come with you?" Gladys tried to persuade him.

She had watched Xander beat up her son and was extremely worried about his safety.

"Auntie, you can go back and wait at ease. I'll settle it for you," Yoel vowed and assured her. Yoel glanced at Thea, who was anxious, and said with a smile, "Thea, let's have dinner when I bring David back." "Yes, yes! Thea will be waiting for you," Gladys agreed in Thea's place.

Thea stood aside and cried in secret.

Thea took out her phone and called James. "James, we've already resolved the problem. You can go home and wait for me. I've something to discuss with you."

She hung up after speaking,

James was already on his way in a taxi, but because there was a jam, he could not arrive in time,

Upon receiving the call from Thea, he sighed in relief and instructed the driver to turn around.

Chapter 96 Thea called and informed James that the problem was settled. James returned home and prepared the food, waiting for Thea and the others to return home for lunch. They returned very quickly. As soon as they entered the house, James noticed something was wrong. They all wore very strange expressions. There were even tears on Thea and Alyssa's faces. James asked doubtfully, "Thea, is something the matter? I thought everything was resolved. Why didn't David come back together?"¹ Thea glanced at him and cried, aggrieved. "What's wrong? Tell me if there's something wrong. I can solve it for you," James consoled her. "Ha..." Gladys sighed. "What's wrong, mom? Why're you sighing?" asked James. However, no one in the family spoke. They entered the house and sat down.

said with tears welling up in her eyes. James was taken aback by the statement and froze in place. After a few seconds, he recollected himself and sat down with a cigarette. "Why?" he asked quietly. Gladys said apologetically, "I'm really sorry, James. Although you don't have money or influence, I admit that you're a very caring husband and have been doing the chores really well. However, you and Thea aren't suitable.” Gladys had also seen James’ behavior during this period. He even asked his senior for a car to take her to happened? Can you explain it to me?” James asked again. Yet the family remained silent, “Dad...” James glanced at Benjamin. Benjamin looked at Gladys and saw her nodding. Then, he muttered, “Things went like this...” Benjamin recounted what had happened to them. James got up and left after hearing the story. “James...” Thea said with a choked voice. She wanted to chase after him but was held back by Gladys. “Thea, just let him go. It’ll be hard for anybody to accept such a situation. He will accept it after a while. You can compensate him when you have money in the future. After all, he did cure you twice!” “Wah...” Thea cried out in pain. She did not like Yoel nor wanted to be married into a wealthy family. James was the only person she adored. However, she chose family over love. She knew James must have despised her and her

The Prosperous Dynasty was one of the most famous leisure clubs in Cansington. All sorts of entertainments were integrated into the bar, such as karaoke and spas. Prosperous Dynasty, basement. David was tied and hung up. After bringing David back, Xander used all his connections to investigate David’s background for fear that he might have offended some spoiled kid from a rich family. He was not afraid of anything except law regulators. Since he had a dirty past, it would be easy for those officials to get rid of him if he offended them. He sighed in relief after learning that he was just a piece of trash from the Callahans. He sat on a chair and glanced at David, who was tied and hung up. He squinted and smiled wickedly. “David Callahan. I didn’t want to mess with you, but why did you have to bump into me?”

Chapter 97 “Sir...Sir, I’m sorry. Please...please forgive me.” David was bruised all over, but he kept begging for mercy. Suddenly, someone walked in and reported, “Mr. Xander, there’s someone here claiming that he brought the money to ransom that brat.” “Bring him in.” “Okay.” Yoel was led into the basement by several of Xander’s subordinates. He noticed David tied from the ceiling and bruised everywhere from getting a beating. Immediately, his legs went weak, and he almost fell to the ground. However, when he thought about getting Thea as his after getting David out, his courage immediately skyrocketed. Moreover, there were plenty of rumors about Xander. Yoel knew that he was someone loyal to his friends and would not cause trouble recklessly. He approached Xander who sitting on a chair, took out a cigarette, and handed it over. He bent over and smiled, “Hello, Mr.

is Yoel from the Smiths. My father is York Smith. You’ve had dinner with him before.” Xander smiled and muttered, “Ha...So you’re York’s son. That’s right. I did have a few meals with your dad before, and we’re acquainted. However, this boy is very arrogant. He bumped into me and disrespected me. People will think I’m incompetent if word spreads that I didn’t teach him a lesson.” “Mr. Xander, he should be taught a lesson, but this brat’s sister is my woman. Seeing that my father is a friend and I personally came here, could you...” Xander’s face darkened, and he grabbed Yoel’s hair. “Your father? A friend? Who does your father think he is? Even if he came in person, I wouldn’t be letting this brat go so easily. I already said it’ll be eight million to redeem him.” The only reason Yoel dared to come alone was that he knew Xander stayed true to his word. Otherwise, he would have never dared to come even if he had ten lives. He thought he would not have to pay the money if he gave his father’s name. In order to get Thea, he would have to of Yoel “Fine, I’ll give you a discount Five million.” The Smiths were a considerable household and had a certain amount of influence. Although he was not afraid of them, he did not want to cause too much trouble, especially with the Blithe King's recent succession. He compromised and reduced the ransom from eight million to five million. Yoel's heart was bleeding. Although his family was rich and five million was just a drop in the bucket, the money was not rightfully his. Five million was his pocket money for a month. However, he was willing to sacrifice a bit for Thea.

"You, take him to make the transfer." "Okay." The subordinate nodded and led Yoel to make the transaction. Soon, Yoel returned to the basement after making the transfer. David was immediately released. However, he lost consciousness after being detained and hung up after getting a beating. "Mr. Xander... Suddenly, a subordinate hurriedly rushed over with a flustered expression. "W-we have a problem! Someone charged in and beat up a lot of our men!" "What?" Xander was furious. This was the Prosperous Dynasty. Everyone knew that this was his property. Who dared to cause trouble in his territory? "Who is it? "Me." A voice rang out. As the voice spoke, some men with iron rods and machetes chased after him into the basement. Xander turned and saw an unfamiliar face that had beaten up his subordinates. Some subordinates kept retreating. He was at the Prosperous Dynasty and had hundreds of men and security guards guarding the place, yet this person could fight his way here, He definitely was not someone easy to deal with. Xander reached out and touched his weapon around his waist. He was furious and said coldly." Who are you?" He was extremely careful to get to where he was. He feared that he would offend an influential figure and accidentally ruin whatever he had fought for all his life. "James." An indifferent voice echoed.

Chapter 98 James walked into the basement. More than twenty of Xander's subordinates gathered in the basement. Hundreds of security guards and dozens of subordinates outside had already been brought down by James. "James? Were you the one?" Xander was about to take David away when he suddenly saw the person walking into the basement. His face darkened, and he yelled, "Do you know where this place is? Hurry and kneel! Admit your mistake and beg for forgiveness..." James approached them and immediately threw his leg at Xander. Immediately, Xander flew several meters away and fell to the ground, groaning in pain. He had broken some bones when he landed and could not get up. "You..." Xander did not act recklessly. He was from the criminal world, so he caught a few clues from James' attacks. This man was definitely a trained soldier from the special forces.

in Xander's ears, causing his eardrums to tingle. James had a very strong aura that exuded from his body. He radiated an oppressive and murderous temperament. It was a strong aura that could only come from one who had been in battles all year round and in a high-up position for a long time. Xander used to mingle around in the underworld and had been through many terrifying situations. However, when he heard James's voice, his legs gave out, and he subconsciously wanted to kneel. He was a crime boss and a ruthless character. James' roar did not frighten him, but he did not dare to act recklessly. "Who are you?" he asked with a straight face. "Xa. Mr. Xander. He is the son-in-law of the Callahans. Thea's husband and David's brother in-law. He's just eagle. Yoel felt as if he was being glared at by a fierce beast and his body subconsciously trembled. His back was covered in a cold sweat from fear. Yoel. Yoel Smith. This was the person that wanted his wife and made Gladys convince Thea to divorce him. Whoosh! A silver needle flew out. "Argh!" Yoel suddenly fell to the ground and rolled around in pain. He was frightened and immediately begged for mercy, "James, sorry! I made a mistake! Please, forgive me..." His whole body was uncomfortable as if hundreds

However, the more he scratched himself, the more pain he felt. The feeling made him feel that living was far worse than death. He begged for mercy in fear. "James, I was wrong. Please, please let me go..."

Xander, who was beside him, was so frightened that cold sweat began to form on his forehead. What kind of methods did he use? He saw a silver needle appear in his hand, and Yoel rolled on the ground in pain after he waved his hand. As for 20 plus subordinates of Xander, all of them were frightened, and some even fell to the ground. "Xander? James looked at the middle-aged chubby man. Bang! Xander immediately knelt on the ground. "Jame...Mr. James. I was blind and did not recognize such an influential person. Please forgive me." Xander knelt on the ground with his hands behind his waist. Suddenly, he pulled out a gun. Boom! Gunshots rang out. However, the figure in the chair was nowhere to be seen. Xander looked up. Seeing there was no one in the chair, he trembled in fear. Where did he go?

Chapter 99 Even Xander's subordinates were looking for him. They looked up and saw a figure hanging from the basement ceiling. He had one hand pressed against the wall as if there was glue on his palm, and his entire body was suspended in mid-air. Everyone was dumbfounded. What kind of technique was this? James' body quickly fell. When he fell, his toes slammed right into Xander's chin. Crack! Xander's chin was immediately shattered into pieces. At the same time, his body was sent flying, and he spun a few rounds on the ground, making a pained growl. The scene scared Xander's subordinates. Despite holding machetes and electric batons in their hands, their bodies kept retreating to the corner of the wall. Staring at James, who was like a grim reaper, they all sweated profusely in fear. Meanwhile, Yoel was still on the floor, rolling and screaming in pain.

By now, his body was already covered in scratches from himself. Xander's chin was shattered, and he lay on the ground, making a miserable groan. As for David, he was tied up and hung upside down for a while after being beaten. He was still unconscious and had not recovered yet. James got up and walked over to Yoel. He grabbed Yoel by his hair and took out the silver needle in his body. After the needle was taken out, Yoel's pain immediately disappeared. "Are you the one who's interested in my wife?" James tugged Yoel's hair and lifted him from the ground, asking coldly. "James, no, I mean Mr. James! I was wrong! I was blind and didn't realize how strong you are. I don't dare to be interested in your wife! I don't dare!" Yoel was terrified. He would never have provoked someone who dared to beat Xander. Slap! James flung his hand and slapped him. A slap mark appeared on Yoel's face. He tilted his head and vomited blood. A few teeth were also spat out. "Argh..." Yoel screamed in pain, and his face was twisted into a hideous expression. James threw him to the ground like an animal. Then, he walked over to Xander. He stepped on him with one foot.

angry..." James stepped on Xander's right chest and exerted great strength. "Arrgh..." Xander screamed and his head fell to the side, losing all vitality. When the subordinate saw the scene, they immediately knelt and begged for mercy. Yoel, who was lying on the ground, trembled in fear. Xander...Xander is dead? James sat on the chair, took out his phone, and called the Blithe king. "Blithe king. I wounded some gangsters in the Prosperous Dynasty. I also killed someone. Send someone to take care of the aftermath." Hearing James's phone call, Yoel almost lost his mind. 'Who the hell is this person? 'He's ordering the Blithe king to take care of the aftermath? James stood up and glared at David who was still lying on the ground. He glared at Yoel and said, "Send him back home before he wakes up. The same thing that happened to Xander will be your Sob After James left, Yoel cried out. He was frightened and could not help but sob. He had never seen such a terrifying scene in his life. He was a spoiled rich kid. James had already left but the fear in his heart would not dissipate. He wanted to take David away. However, he had broken bones and several teeth knocked out. with his mouth full of blood. He tried to stand up forcibly, but as soon as he got up, pain spread from his ankle, and his body fell limp toward the ground again. He wailed. He was afraid and took out his phone to call York. "Dad, I got into trouble. I'm at the Prosperous Dynasty. Come, come and save me!"

Chapter 100 After James went to the Prosperous Dynasty, he visited Common Clinic He did not immediately go to see Thea. He knew that Yoel would not dare to have any more thoughts about Thea, and she would call him to come back very soon. Meanwhile, the Blithe king, who had received James' call, was fuming. He was the Blithe King and the commander-in-chief of the Five Armies. He was not someone to clean up James' messes! "Send troops to the Prosperous Dynasty immediately. Also, find out the background and the owner of the place!" The Blithe king roared. He was furious and caused a rumble throughout the military region. Hundreds of military vehicles were dispatched instantly, and the intelligence team began to get to work.

documents, he was furious and roared, "Seal up the Prosperous Dynasty and detain everyone involved. Don't leave anyone behind. We will regard this as a military mission." "Understood!" After the military region received the order, they immediately took action. It was in the afternoon. Hundreds of military vehicles were dispatched, and the military passed through the streets in a mighty manner, causing a commotion among the people. "What's happening?" "Is there another drill?" Seeing the military vehicles parked in front of the Prosperous Dynasty, the citizens began to make guesses. "I heard that the Prosperous Dynasty isn't a clean business." "Yeah, the boss of Prosperous Dynasty is Xander. He's done a lot of dirty deeds in the past, but now he is doing legal business and has been keeping a very low profile." "They all say that a military rank of one star, led his troops into the Prosperous Dynasty. The floor was full of security guards and gangsters all the way. All of them lay on the ground screaming in pain. Seeing such a scene, Daniel's face trembled slightly. "This..." "How did Xander of the Prosperous Dynasty get on James' nerves?" Daniel went to the basement. There, he saw more than twenty people.

I'm Yoel from the Smiths..." "Hm?" Daniel stopped, glanced at Yoel contemptuously, and kicked him. "Who cares about the Smiths? What family is that? Why did you have to offend James? Why do you have to cause our commander so much trouble? You won't be spared if you make him mad!" Yoel was kicked to the ground. However, he quickly got up and pleaded, "No, you can't detain me. James... James instructed me to bring his brother back home." Yoel was not stupid. He immediately caught on and pointed at the unconscious David. "This guy is the younger brother of James' wife. He asked me to bring him back safely." "Oh?" Daniel glanced at the unconscious David and immediately understood the situation. 'Xander messed with Thea's younger brother. No wonder...' "Then what are you still doing here? Get out right now," Daniel cursed and kicked him again. It was due to these people who went around provoking others and ended up messing with James. Thus, the Blithe King had to wipe his ass after he caused trouble. Sob. Yoel was so anxious that he shed tears. He wanted to leave. However, he had broken bones, and even walking was a problem, let alone taking David away. At that moment, a fully armed soldier entered and asked, "General, there's someone outside claiming to be York Smith? He said his son was inside. Do I let him in?" Daniel glanced at Yoel and waved his hand. "Let him in and tell him to take this piece of trash away quickly." "Alright."