

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 932

"You should go. Is there any reason not to?"

Maxine said, "You said it yourself that the person who gave you the letter was extremely powerful and could've killed you with a single move. So, if he didn't kill you and even left you a message, there must be a reason. We'll find out what his purpose is when you get there. Besides, I'll join you."

She was not actually concerned about his safety and believed that going to Mount Arclens would not put James in danger.

He would have gotten into trouble today if it had been dangerous.

The opponent did not have to wait until they had led him to Mount Arclens to strike.

"Okay."

James nodded and said, "The photograph revealed a lot of information. I simply need to go and take a look."

"I'll get some plane tickets for you right now," said Cynthia.

As she spoke, she took out her phone to book the flights.

James and Maxine, on the other hand, were having a discussion.

They were speculating about who had sent them the photograph.

Despite a lengthy discussion, no conclusion was reached.

Soon after, James and Maxine left Cynthia's house for the airport.

Before leaving, Maxine gave Cynthia some advice.

She wanted her to fully comprehend the Internal Cultivation Method.
