

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 971

Both James and Blake felt that it was a fair trade.

Blake had tried for decades to obtain a cultivation method to become a grandmaster but to no avail.

"James, I'll give you all my wealth in exchange for the cultivation method."

Blake stood up and looked at James ecstatically.

"Alright, deal."

James smiled brightly. He took out a notebook he had written in long ago and handed it to Blake, saying, "I've had it ready all along."

Blake took the notebook and opened it, quickly scanning through the text.

Indeed, there was a cultivation method jotted down in the book.

Blake's hands trembled with excitement. It had been twenty years. He finally acquired a cultivation method after twenty years of hard work.

At last, he could avenge his family. He wanted to scream to release his pent-up emotions.

"You got the cultivation method. So, the money?"

"I'll transfer the money to you from my overseas account right away. As for the remainder of the treasures, we'll retrieve them bit by bit. Give me one of your overseas accounts."

James nodded and called Scarlett.

they already had an overseas account. He received the account number from Scarlett and gave it to Blake, who immediately proceeded completing the

Brother, since you've already given me a cultivation method, why don't you consider giving me a head to the Cadens' mansion later and get you a powerful martial art manual from

"Woah!"

exclaimed like

course, he knew

leaders of the Ancient

martial

one of the manuals would be

you for the rest

his loyalty to

hand and said,

nothing in response. He excitedly began looked at the time and saw that it was almost

and called results. They're being sorted out and will be sent to this, James hung up the

of waiting, he received the results on

did plant

rash moves

"Understood."

receiving the results, Scarlett