

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 979

Mount White.

Blake had hidden his treasure in a location surrounded by steep mountains and dense forests.

There was no flat ground for helicopters to land.

Thus, the helicopters had to land slightly far away from the exact location.

The forest roads were difficult to traverse as they were covered in plants and tree roots.

While advancing, the team had to constantly cut and chop off whatever was in their way.

The journey was supposed to take five hours, but James and his party took eight to nine hours.

It was already dark when they reached the cavern's vicinity.

Blake pointed at the cavern's entrance and said, "It's inside. Should we transport them tonight or rest for the night?"

"Can we transport them all at once?" James asked.

Blake looked at the hundred soldiers accompanying them and nodded.

"Probably."

James thought about it for a while.

at night. He did

here for the soldiers, "We're started to settle

Blake and said, "Let's go and take

"Alright." Blake nodded.

and ordered,

"Okay."

Daniel nodded.

flashlight and entered the relatively small

they found that it

the route, he led

an hour, they reached deep inside the

to a stop at

at the wall and said, "Back then, I hired a lot of people to help me build this secret underground room." With that being said, he walked over and pushed the wall. Dust began to fall, and the stone wall parted. The two fanned the dust away and walked inside. James took out his flashlight and illuminated the place. The space inside was not huge, but numerous wooden boxes covered in dust were stacked Inside were gold bars.

up a piece and

of

"Not bad."

the pile

wanted to keep these treasures buried underground forever and your giving it to me as an act of repentance. Maybe you won't end up in James teased.