

In a Love Nest with the Aloof CEO Chapter 251 - 255

Skylar forced a smile and said, "I can only eat vegetables. I'm still not slim enough, so my manager asked me to lose weight."

Sheldon asked, "What's your body weight and height?"

Taking a glance at him, Skylar pursed her lips at his insensitive question. "It's a secret. I don't want to tell."

However, this only made Sheldon's curiosity grow. He tried to trick Skylar while pointing at his eyes. "Did you know that I have a special talent? I can figure out a woman's height and weight just by looking at their figure. And no woman can escape from this."

Skylar raised a brow and looked at him in a relaxed posture. "Then go ahead and guess. Let me see your special skill."

Sheldon felt defeated while Kai looked at Skylar and said, "Stop losing weight, because you look great right now. Those female celebrities are always in a foul mood because they're trying to lose weight. Eat is the pleasure in life."

His words make sense, but so what? A chubby celebrity can't even become eye candy.

Sheldon could be very obsessive sometimes, refusing to give up until he had reached this goal. Looking all innocent, like a little boy, he asked in a whiny manner. "Tell me, please. It's only your height and weight."

"Just wait until I get famous. It'll be updated on Wikipedia." Skylar tried to evade his question.

Seeing how determined Skylar was, Sheldon offered to exchange some information with Skylar to convince her. "If you tell me, I'll tell you something about Tobias."

The woman was tempted as she didn't know much of Tobias.

Kai looked at them cynically. They are just like a family, and their conversation is all about Tobias.

Skylar answered this time, "My height is 168cm and I am 50 kg."

After listening to her words, none of them thought Skylar was skinny. Pretty women had to weigh not over 50 kg, and if they wanted to look good on camera, they would've to lose weight.

Kai remembered Katrina, one cast member in the same film as him. She was less than 45 kg and almost as tall as Skylar.

He doesn't like women that were too skinny. Skylar was just perfect.

Skylar had given her answers, but Sheldon chickened out from the deal they had. What can I tell her? Tobias won't spare me if I tell her too much.

So, he made excuses. "It's a long story. I'll tell you when I have the chance someday."

Skylar took a sip from her cup and frowned. "It's fine if you don't want to tell me. I didn't think you have the balls to tell, anyway."

Sheldon took a picture of Skylar in secret and sent it to Tobias with a caption: Your wife is in my hands.

After a short while, Sheldon received a call from Tobias, and the latter sounded displeased. "Where is this? Send me the address."

Before Sheldon could say anything, Tobias hung up on him.

Feeling aggrieved, he immediately sent the address to Tobias. It's so difficult to meet Tobias nowadays, and I'll have to use Skylar as a cover.

If I can't meet him, I'm really going broke. The money in my bank account isn't enough to buy my girlfriend branded bags.

When Tobias arrived, Skylar, Sheldon, and Kai were engaged in a heated conversation. She found that those two men were nosier than she was.

Sheldon brought up his new girlfriend. She was a hard-working girl, so he took their relationship seriously, unlike how he used to toy with other women.

What kind of woman is she? Skylar was curious, as the woman could discipline a rich playboy like Sheldon.

Kai snorted, "You? You guys will definitely break up in three months."

In a Love Nest with the Aloof CEO Chapter 252

Kai saw Tobias entering the room in his black leather jacket, and the smile on his face immediately disappeared without a trace, while he placed a piece of pork on Skylar's plate.

Seeing his actions, Tobias frowned. Skylar was totally oblivious to the man's arrival, smiling and teasing Sheldon, calling him "the retired playboy."

Suddenly, she felt a cold breeze brush across her face and the familiar scent made her turn around. After lifting her head to look at the man behind her, she blurted out, "Why are you here?"

Tobias pulled a chair over and sat beside her. "Why? Am I not welcome here?"

Sheldon asked the server to prepare a set of cutlery for Tobias, but the latter said indifferently, "No need."

Skylar hurriedly explained, "I was surprised because Sheldon didn't tell me you'll be here."

Tobias swept a glance at Kai meaningfully. Taking Skylar's spoon, he scooped the piece of pork cutlet and placed it on Sheldon's plate.

Sheldon was touched when Tobias gave him food. "Tobias, you remembered I like pork cutlet?"

Kai's expression turned dark. Why does he mind if I give food to Skylar? Did he use up his generosity doing business? He's so petty.

“Have you finished eating? Let’s go home if you’re done.” Tobias obviously wanted to leave as soon as possible.

Chewing the piece of pork cutlet in his mouth, Sheldon hurriedly seized the opportunity and begged Tobias. “Tobias, can you give me some money, please? When will you stop freezing my account? It’s almost my girlfriend’s birthday, and I can’t even afford a Hermès bag for her.”

Folding his arms, Tobias leaned against the chair and scrutinized him. “Don’t buy it then. Must it be Hermès?”

Sheldon scratched his head in frustration. Never did he think Tobias was serious about punishing him. A long time had passed, but his heart didn’t seem to soften at his brother’s suffering.

He mumbled, “When we went out, she was looking at the bag in the Hermès shop. I’m sure she wanted that bag from the look in her eyes, and I can’t afford to hurt her feelings.”

Even though Sheldon looked pitiful, Tobias ignored his pathetic state and rejected him mercilessly once again. “I’ll say it again. If you want money, earn it yourself.”

Having his hopes extinguished by his ruthless brother, Sheldon was at a loss. Now, He didn’t seem like he was from a rich family. Instead, he was so poor to the extent of buying a meal for himself would post an issue.

Sheldon was anxious and fought back. “Tobias, what do you want me to do? Relatives are more important to you than money, no?”

Tobias didn’t bat an eye at him playing the family card and said indifferently, “Come work at the company and use your salary to buy the bag.”

Sheldon knew Tobias wasn’t someone who would repeat his words twice, so he could only give in and hold on while waiting for a turning point.

Kai didn’t blink as he stared at them while a whirlpool of emotions was forming in his heart. Ever since Tobias came in, he sat so close to Skylar.

After eating, the server verified the dish they ordered. Sheldon took a look at the bill, the meal was expensive.

Sheldon turned to look at Kai with a pleading look in his eyes, while the latter took out his phone to pay the bill. Sheldon initially claimed he was treating them to a meal, but in the end, Kai was the one paying.

After paying for Skylar, Tobias walked away while the woman followed behind him. His legs are long, so the distance between his steps was quite far, and Skylar could only jog to catch up with him.

When she sat in the front passenger seat, Tobias commanded, "Sit in the backseat."

Skylar looked at Tobias. He was expressionless and didn't seem angry, but it was obvious that he wasn't pleased.

Then she sat in the backseat while the man drove the car.

After a series of turns, they got further and further away from their house, and it was over an hour's ride.

Skylar couldn't help but asked, "Where are you taking me?"

In a Love Nest with the Aloof CEO Chapter 253

Tobias finally stopped the car. They were surrounded by trees and the dark sky was descending upon them. Skylar sat in the car, reluctant to get down.

Tobias opened the car door and urged, "Get down."

After hesitating for a while, Skylar did as he said.

Stepping on the grass, she followed behind the man.

Tobias stopped in his tracks while Skylar continued walking causing her to bump into him.

He said, "Put your hands on the tree for support and take off your pants."

Taken aback by his outrageous words, Skylar asked, "Here?"

Tobias nodded and pointed at the tree in front of them. "Here. Bend over."

Skylar didn't have the courage to say anything. Although it is a remote place, it's still possible for us to get caught. What if people film us while we are at it? Not to mention that the weather is chilly. Taking off my pants here will only freeze my butt.

Feeling like she was being toyed with Tobias, she was angry. "I'm not a toy! No one will treat their girlfriends like this. Give me some respect."

Tobias looked at her and asked in return. "Every couple is like this. Perhaps they are even more into it than us. Adults have many secrets. We're just dating normally and I didn't take you as a toy. You take off your pants first, and I'll do it later. Isn't it fair?"

Skylar didn't budge while Tobias unbuttoned her pants easily.

Silence ensued in the wilderness, and his voice was firm. "It's not just your pants I'm going to take off if you want me to do it."

Skylar knew Tobias could do anything if he wanted.

So, to prevent herself from being stripped naked in the wilderness, she took off her pants in anger.

He said, "Underwear..."

The woman could only give in as she closed her eyes while continuing to strip.

From his tone, she could tell that if she dragged on any further, not only would she be stripped naked, he would leave her in the wilderness.

After taking off her underwear, she could feel the chillness in the air. Placing her hands on the tree, her heart was racing, and at that moment she didn't feel cold.

Lowering her head, she could see a pair of polished leather shoes, the grassy plains, and her pair of canvas shoes.

"Say that you want me." Tobias leaned down and looked at her reddened face, slowly yet surely destroying her reason.

Biting down her lip, the woman didn't say anything.

Slap! Tobias slapped her butt with brute force and left a red handprint. "Say it! Someone will come here if you keep delaying."

Skylar shivered from the pain and said bitterly, "Please, take me."

"How do you like me to do it?" The smile on Tobias' mouth grew wider.

Clang! The sound of the man taking off his belt was clear in the quiet forest.

Leaning in, Tobias' hot breath was against the side of her neck while the woman let out moans.

She felt her head burning while their skin contact sent an electric shock through her body.

Lowering his voice, Tobias said, "You knew Kai likes you, yet you still approached him. Are you testing my patience?"

Skylar finally knew why Tobias would torment her like this. It was all because of her hanging out with Kai.

Hugging her waist, the man was rough as he thrust into her, making her go limp and her breathing soon became raspy.

Tobias continued until there was a car approaching. Seeing the faint yellow light from afar, he finally let her go. The woman was exhausted she could barely move, so he helped her to put on her pants.

After they were finished with everything, that car sped away in another direction.

This time, Skylar didn't sit in the seat next to the driver's seat and made a beeline for the backseat, shutting the car door loudly to vent her frustration.

Tobias sat beside Skylar, causing her to look at him with a wary look in her eyes. Scooting away from him, she asked, "You're doing it again? I'm done with you going crazy."

Tobias reached out his hand to touch the woman, but she blocked him. His anger had subsided, so he was patient with her. "Don't throw a fit with me. From now on, stop meeting Kai. He gave you food deliberately in front of me, so he's rather ill hearted."

Skylar's heart was filled with anguish. Sheldon was the one who called Kai to join them. Plus, she did nothing wrong as they were just hanging out as friends.

In comparison, there are beautiful women and assistants at Tobias' side. However, Skylar wouldn't drag Tobias into the woods and do whatever she wanted to him, even if she was upset.

Taking in a deep breath, she growled, "You know nothing. I was just eating with Sheldon. I'm not a god, so I don't know Kai was there, too. If I know you'll be there, I won't join them. Plus, I told you my pain tolerance is low. It hurts so much when you hit my butt. You sadist!"

Listening to her roars out of anger, Tobias chuckled. "But you enjoyed it. Don't suppress your nature and just let it out."

Reluctant to play word games with the unreasonable man, Skylar turned to look outside the window. "Drive. Do you want us to get eaten by wolves?"

Tobias got out of the car and dragged her to the front seat.

On the way home, Tobias suddenly asked, "How's your interview?"

Without sparing the man a glance, she said, "I'm still waiting for their notice."

He asked while concentrating on the road. "Do you want to become the lead actress?"

Skylar replied indifferently, "There's no need..."

She was still trapped in the torturing memories just now, while Tobias was calm and poised, as if nothing had happened.

When they came to a red light, she noticed a YSL lipstick between the gaps of the front seat.

After picking up the lipstick, she hid it in her sleeves and asked, "What did you do today?"

Tobias couldn't shake off the fishy feeling when Skylar inquire about his schedule. She's not someone who likes to poke her nose around.

He answered, "I was at the company, and then I went to meet you. Is there anything wrong?"

Skylar twitched her lips and tossed the lipstick at Tobias' face out of spite.

That's right. She tossed it.

She threw it with some force as she was angry. The lipstick landed on the corner of Tobias' eye, and the man covered his eyes immediately.

After feeling better, his eyes darkened as he glared at Skylar. "What are you doing? I'm driving! Do you want us dead?"

Frowning, Skylar raised her voice. "Why is there lipstick in your car? There's also strands of long hair."

She was acting like a wife confronting her husband about why he was meeting with other women.

Skylar didn't hit him for no reason. Tobias' Adam's apple bobbed as if he was trying to suppress some kind of emotion in his heart.

He asked, "You're saying that I'm seeing other women?"

Skylar replied, "I'm not just being suspicious. That's most probably the case, isn't it?"

Tobias smiled helplessly at her guess.

He explained it to Skylar calmly, "Rest assured. I don't have any other woman except you, as I don't have the time or effort to waste on relationships. This is the last time I'm explaining it to you, so don't get paranoid again. You hear me?"

He was supposed to suck up to her, but he was so adamant even in his explanation. It was as if he was too impatient to even console her.

Skylar twisted open the lipstick and drew it on the back of her hand. Only a woman in her twenties would use this kind of color.

She memorized the shade and threw the lipstick away after getting off the car.

In a Love Nest with the Aloof CEO Chapter 255

Taking the keys, Skylar opened the door and went to wash her hands in the kitchen without waiting for Tobias, who was parking the car.

When Tobias got home, Skylar had changed into her casual outfit and she was placing a plate of fruits onto the coffee table.

Cherries, strawberries and diced mangoes.

Turning on the television, she didn't even bother to ask if the man wanted to eat the fruit, while the man didn't talk to her and went upstairs for a shower.

When he went downstairs to the living room, Skylar was still watching the television while eating the strawberries. She burst into laughter and could barely catch her breath.

Detecting Tobias' presence, her smile froze immediately.

The man sat beside her and tried to take her into his arms, but she struggled to escape his grasp with a look of disgust. "I feel warm. So don't get too close to me."

Tobias got up and switched off the heater while Skylar secretly cursed at him in her heart.

How cunning!

Tobias wanted to spend more time with Skylar, so he didn't go to the study. Taking out a stack of documents from his briefcase, he placed them on the table. Every single person in the files was of a clean background.

He wanted to choose some youngsters of clean background. As for those who had been climbing their way up, their social circle was way too big, and it would be possible for them to cut corners.

Being Tobias' assistant, one would enjoy the luxury of being flattered by many people, so it was the most desired position by every employee in the company.

Skylar reached out to take a cherry from the plate and when she saw Eva's photo among the stack of documents, she almost swallowed the cherry whole out of shock.

She took the initiative to start a conversation with Tobias. "What's all this for? There are at least ten thousand employees in your company. The HR should be the one in charge of interviews."

Taking her into his arms, he nibbled on her ear and whispered, "The HR had narrowed down the list to these people. I wanted this list of people with clean backgrounds to become my assistant."

Skylar pursed her lips as she admitted the fact that Eva was outstanding. She could stand out from so many candidates and even climbed her way to the top in an international company.

Tobias sighed with regret and said, "I wish you could be my assistant. If only you can stay with me all day, and we can do some enjoyable things together when we are tired."

Skylar interrupted his daydreams by covering his mouth, stopping him from continuing.

Is it not enough to torment me at home and outside? He wants to do it even in the office.

Skylar received a call from Kate when she was on the way to Wesley's house.

Kate sounded calm on the phone, as if she knew this would happen. She asked Skylar to get herself ready for the shoot a few days later, and the script was sent to her email. The company also hired an assistant for her to meet tomorrow.

This was splendid news to Skylar. Never did she think she would be under the spotlight and not just some extra or side character.

In the past, she had taken several minor roles and was always envious of the lead actress. Now that she had become the main character, she was truly happy, but not to the extent of fainting from excitement.

When Skylar arrived at her uncle's house, Miranda was wearing a black gown with retro wavy hair spread on her shoulders. Although she was quite old and did nothing to maintain her beauty in the prison, she still looked great as she had nice features.

Skylar's features took after Miranda, especially her eyes and brows.

When Miranda saw Skylar, she spun around while lifting her dress. "Look at me. Am I pretty? Isn't this dress so fitted for me? Your Dad's out on a business trip. I'll go look for him after he's back."
