

In a Love Nest with the Aloof CEO Chapter 315

Skylar introduced Lina to Tobias as her high school friend.

However, he wasn't interested as it wasn't surprising to run into schoolmates occasionally.

It had never crossed Lina's mind that Tobias' partner would be Skylar. It is ironic how I would be a bundle of nerves whenever he came.

She admired Tobias. However, she never took the initiative to speak to him because she considered herself unworthy. It looks like he doesn't care about a woman's background at all.

Behind him, a masseur entered and informed them that Skylar had chosen him.

When Tobias saw how fair and handsome the young man was, he furrowed his eyebrows and asked Skylar, "What's going on? Why did you choose a man?"

Skylar let out a snort. "It's the manager's pick, not mine. Anyway, what's wrong with a male masseur? Don't you have a female masseuse to attend to you?"

Tobias was upset at how Skylar's response. Is she really going to let a man massage her in front of me?

Meanwhile, Lina had quickly prepared a towel and the massage oil for his back. Tobias always liked for her to start the session from his back.

Whenever she didn't put enough pressure, he would ask, "Have you not had any food today?"

Given how obvious Skylar had made her point, Tobias laughed affectionately. "It is troublesome to come here with you. Fine. I'll let him massage me while you get a female masseuse."

Skylar realized that it would put Lina in an awkward position. "Forget it, just go with your usual masseuse."

Tobias shot a glance at Lina. Given the situation, he knew it would be inappropriate for Skylar's friend to take off his shirt.

Hence, he chose another masseuse and sent Lina away.

Despite how reluctant she was, Lina had no choice but to obey her customer's wishes.

After walking Lina to the door, Skylar waved her phone to remind her to keep in touch.

Meanwhile, Tobias lay on the massage bed. When the male masseur began the massage, he felt extremely uncomfortable.

As for Skylar, she was enjoying herself. Resting her eyes, she remarked, "Do you know Lina well? She seems to be looking forward to seeing you. I was curious if that Mr. Tobias she was talking about was you. As it turns out, it really is you!"

Tobias replied solemnly, "I wouldn't have gotten her to massage me if I knew she was your classmate. Nevertheless, she has good technique, and her hands are still tender due to her young age."

Skylar chuckled. "Should I start learning how to do it? So that you don't have to come here next time."

Tobias simply responded with silence.

After Tobias got a male masseur, Lina's colleagues teased her mercilessly, causing her to feel gloomy.

They knew that Tobias dismissed Lina because Skylar did not want a female masseuse to attend to him.

After what happened, Lina would unlikely have the chance to provide Tobias with a massage anymore.

Some of them even gloated at her misfortune. "Did she think that Tobias would fall for her after a couple of sessions? She must be dreaming!"

Lina held a grudge over the fact that Skylar humiliated her, especially since they were good friends in high school.

Meanwhile, Skylar had just fallen asleep when Kate's call came in.

Over the phone, Kate anxiously wanted her to return at once as the filming crew had encountered some problems. She needed Skylar to head to the studio to record a voiceover.

Tobias was exasperated at the timing of things. Nonetheless, he let Skylar off as he didn't want to interfere with her work.

Before he could offer to drive her there, Skylar had already packed and left the private room.

Before she left, Skylar didn't ask if Tobias would be home at night. Somehow, both of them had understood each other very well.

Furthermore, she had paid Lina extra, as if Lina had serviced them that day.

The manager informed Lina about it. "It's your lucky day! You earned a huge tip even without doing anything."

Lina rejected it angrily. "Do what you want with the money. What does she mean by this? Is she taking pity on me? Back in the day, I would have been the one to take pity on her. Now that she's rich, does she think she can humiliate me this way?"

The manager was puzzled as to what had infuriated Lina. Why won't she take the money? Is she a fool?

When Lina found out that Skylar had left early and Tobias was still inside, she brought a glass of orange juice and knocked on the door.

The environment within the private room was so quiet that she could hear her own breathing.

Under the dim lighting, Tobias was sitting on the sofa, smoking. He planned to sit only for a while before leaving. After all, there was no point in staying since Skylar wasn't around.

Lina then bent over to serve Tobias the orange juice.

"Mr. Ford, the next time you're here, you should get me to give you a massage. I'm worried that the others might not be good enough." She wanted to seize upon the opportunity.

"It doesn't matter to me. Everyone's the same, after all. The male masseur is equally good. Besides, my girlfriend doesn't like me having a female masseur."

As Lina nodded in disappointment, the atmosphere grew awkward.

"I didn't expect Skylar to be your girlfriend. We shared a deep bond during high school. She has had it tough. Back then, her mom was a murder convict. As a result, no one was willing to be her friend."

As there wasn't an ashtray around, Tobias dropped his cigarette butt into the glass of orange juice instead. "Are you trying to make small talk?"

Lina almost choked in response as she tried to hide her hypocrisy. "No, I'm just happy to see her. I have always wanted to contact her but didn't manage to do so. Now that I've reunited with her again, I'm just delighted by it."

Tobias didn't believe her. After all, it wasn't hard to look for someone in this day and age.

Given how advanced communications technology is nowadays, finding someone is just a piece of cake.

He put on his jacket, not intending to continue the conversation any longer. "Skylar is waiting for me to pick her up. I've got to go."

Before he left, Tobias gave a huge tip to Lina. He assumed Lina came in to make small talk for that reason. After all, Skylar's interference caused the latter to lose a customer.

Glancing at the cigarette butt in the glass of orange juice, Lina picked it up with her hand. She pinched it with her fingers and smudged it across her lips.

With desire written all over her face, she remarked, "Does this count as indirectly kissing him?"

Meanwhile, Skylar arrived at the recording studio. She found out that one of the microphones was not working during filming. Hence, she needed to record a voiceover.

Skylar quickly solved the trivial problem. Holding the script in her hand, she enunciated her words clearly.

The subtitler's job had it easy because Skylar's recording was fit for use in the film. Her pronunciation was distinct and clear, unlike the other actors, who spoke inaudibly.

After Skylar finished her recording session, Kate handed her a cup of honey drink to soothe her throat.

"I'm sorry to interrupt your date with Tobias."

Skylar nodded candidly. "You did, but work is work. It's more important than private matters. Besides, absence makes the heart grow fonder. We shouldn't stick together all the time."
