Intrigued, Penelope asked, "What has she been up to? She has gone missing for a long time and hasn't contacted anyone."

Skylar replied honestly, "She is a masseuse now and is just as beautiful as always."

The moment Penelope heard the word "masseuse," she snorted out loud.

"How did she end up becoming a masseuse? It seems there's no point in studying hard. I remember she used to be very good in her studies, and many of the boys in class fancied her too."

Penelope's words reminded Skylar that Lina did have a lot of admirers then.

But, she had ignored them as she wasn't interested in boys her age.

Skylar corrected her, "She's a legit masseuse, so don't get the wrong impression. What's wrong with her using her hands to make a living?"

Penelope shrugged. Skylar thought, who doesn't have to work for a living? Even Penelope has to work hard to ensnare Brayden.

After both of them finished their meal, Lina called Skylar out of the blue, giving them a shock.

Speak of the devil.

Lina suggested having afternoon tea to which Skylar readily agreed. She even decided to bring Penelope along. After all, she had been advising Penelope to get more exercise given that she's pregnant instead of staying sedentary all the time.

After Skylar got the bill, she checked her phone and didn't see any unread messages.

With that, she casually put her phone back into her pocket.

When Penelope finally met up with Lina, she looked at her with disdain. She felt that Lina's hands were filthy from massaging countless men.

Meanwhile, Lina was disappointed when she didn't see Tobias. Come to think of it, it does make sense. There's no way someone as busy as him would be by Skylar's side all the time.

"I didn't expect you to be pregnant as I wasn't aware that you were married." Lina stared at Penelope's baby bump.

Penelope declared proudly, "My man is just too busy. Once I have given birth, we will have our wedding. I'll remember to send you an invitation then."

Skylar was stunned by Penelope's response. Brayden wasn't even divorced yet, and here she was planning their wedding.

Lina looked at Penelope enviously. "It's good to settle down, unlike me. Until now, I still don't have a boyfriend. Skylar, I suppose you and your boyfriend have been going out for a long time now."

When Skylar heard the word boyfriend, her lips twitched in response. She had also once assumed that she was Tobias' girlfriend.

She replied ambiguously, "Not very long. I don't even remember when we started."

Penelope laughed. "Skylar, don't be modest. Tobias is smitten with you. Even Brayden told me about how special you are to him. Who knows, you might even get married before I do."

Skylar froze briefly as she was surprised at how much faith Penelope had in her relationship.

However, Lina hung her head in disappointment. She never had the chance to interact with Tobias despite her colleagues suggesting that Tobias treated her differently. After all, he would give her a huge tip every time. Does he really not have any feelings for me?

As they continued to chat, Lina kept talking about Skylar. Penelope had kept count of the number of times she mentioned Tobias' name which was more than five.

She then gazed sharply at Lina. "Why do you seem to talk as if you know Tobias well?"

Lina replied sheepishly in front of them, "We're not that close. But, he has been nice to me."

In a Love Nest with the Aloof CEO Chapter 326

When they were done, a black Rolls-Royce stopped by the curbside to pick Penelope up.

She asked Skylar, "Do you want me to give you a ride? It's hard to get a cab now given that it's peak hour. Since you're already famous, why don't you get a driver?"

Skylar declined Penelope's offer as she didn't want to ride in Brayden's car. She was puzzled as to what Lina's intention was by saying that Tobias treated her well. What does she mean? Is she just stating a fact, or is she saying it on purpose in front of me?

But what can she do? She must just be smitten by the sight of a mature and charming man. Skylar didn't dwell on it as it was just a trivial matter compared to what was currently going on between her and Tobias.

While Skylar was waiting for a cab, a black Porsche drove in her direction and screeched to a halt, grabbing her attention. When its windows wound down, it revealed Tobias looking out.

It wasn't a surprise that Tobias found her as it was easy for him to find whomever he wanted.

When Lina saw him, her dejected heart was invigorated. She looked in Tobias' direction and gave him a vibrant smile.

Ignoring her, Tobias' gaze was focused on Skylar.

“What are you being stunned for? It’s cold out here. How long do you plan to stand there?”

Skylar asked Lina out of courtesy, “Do you need a ride?”

Lina nodded without hesitation. Before Skylar could say anything else, Lina had opened the car door and sat in the front passenger seat.

Giving Lina a puzzled look, Tobias felt that she was behaving inappropriately. Under normal circumstances, the guest should be seated in the back seat. Despite knowing Lina and the fact that she was good at massaging, he knew little else of her.

Standing outside the car, Skylar knocked on the window with a curious expression. She hoped that Lina would realize her faux-pas without her having to point it out.

Fine, I’ll just take it that she is oblivious to etiquette.

As Tobias didn’t comment, Skylar opened the car door and sat at the back. The moment she entered the car, it was filled with the strong fragrance of perfume. Mixed with Tobias’ white sandalwood scent, there was an erotic charm about it.

When Tobias asked Lina where she stayed, Lina replied with her address. In response, Tobias remarked, “It’s dangerous there as there are many foreigners.”

Lina hung her head and replied dejectedly, “I have no choice because the rent there is cheaper. I need to support my family as my brother is still studying.”

Tobias casually replied, “I’ll give you enough money for you to lead a good life.”

Skylar felt as if they didn’t know she was there. When she heard their flirtatious conversation, she grumbled, “You can drop me off first since it’s on the way there.”

Lina’s eyes were filled with anticipation as she desperately hoped that Skylar would get off quickly. She would then be left alone with Tobias, which was a difficult opportunity to come by.

Tobias rejected her suggestion. “Save it. I’ll send your friend home first as I have something to talk to you about.”

Lina’s emotions felt as if they were on a roller coaster as they came crashing down again.

When they arrived at Lina's address, Tobias didn't drive into the compound despite being able to. His actions made it clear that Lina was to walk back up herself. After all, he didn't want to waste any time.

When Lina didn't move, Skylar asked, "Is this the wrong address? Don't you live here?"

Shaking her head, Lina looked conflicted, "As there are no street lamps, I'm scared of the dark. Also, it really isn't safe around here."
